Respected Ma'am,

I'm Shubham Golwal from T.E. Comps. After evaluating Provisional Marksheets of Semester 5, I have encountered few corrections in my allotted marks.

In Software Engineering and AIML subjects my marks for ISE+MSE+LABs+Lab ESEs is being given as 0 and NULL. Whereas I have appeared for all exams and have 100% attendance in respective labs as well. Also I received PDFs of marks for ISEs and MSEs.

I kindly request you to re-verify my allotted marks as I think there might have been some data glitch.

Hope to hear from you soon.

Hopefully,
Shubham Golwal

Good evening Ma'am,
 I'm Chris Paul from BE EXTC branch.
 My UCID is 2020201063.

I'm writing this mail to inform you that there's any error in the Marksheets that's being sent.
 I have obtained 85 in OEIII (certificate of the same is attached below) but you have typed as 68.
 What will be needed to be done for the rectification?

Thank you very much,
 Chris Paul,

Respected sir, this is Omkar Rane, UID: 2020300057, a student of FE Computers, SPIT. I am writing this letter to report a grievance regarding my marks in the provisional result of Semester 1 released on 19th July 2021. I had checked the grievances form on the day of the provisional result (19/7/21) and I assumed that there would be further clarification/ notification on the same, as it was not accepting responses at the moment; however it just came to my attention that some grievances have been submitted already but when I checked again, the form is not accepting responses still, as of now and seems that I have missed the window period. Sir, I request you to look into the matter and please guide on what has to be done regarding the same, as the marks difference(between those awarded and those expected, as per synoptic) is quite significant.

My grievances and queries are listed below

- 1*. My BIOLOGY (BFE, Subject Code: AS103) ISE marks given in the provisional result (30 marks given) do not match the marks already released(39 marks given, a difference of 9 marks) whose pdf attached is below.
2. My BIOLOGY(BFE, Subject Code: AS103) ESE marks should be greater than what has been awarded in the provisional result (40 marks given) when compared to the synoptic of the respective subject (a difference of about 5 marks). Both synoptic and my answer sheet are attached below.
3. My ENGINEERING CALCULUS (ECL, Subject Code: MA 101) ESE marks should be greater than what has been awarded in the provisional result (40 marks given) when compared to the synoptic of that subject, (a difference of about 5 marks). Both synoptic and answer sheets are attached below.

I request you to please guide me on what has to be done next or please forward these queries to the respective faculties.

Thanking you in anticipation.

Good morning sir,
We had received our ese results yesterday and i noticed that i was marked as absent for the ET63 ese exam.
I had given the exam and uploaded it on the moodle and emailed it to ese@spit.ac.in.
Can you please look into it.I have attached the email screenshot.Please tell me if any more information is required.I had submitted it as per the extra time i was allotted as a LD student.
Thank you.

Dear Sir/Ma'am,

This mail is in regard to the Chemistry paper , re-evaluation. I have been following it with the CR of IT , Karan Shah and had also written a grievance form to the ese exam department as required. I also wrote an email to my Chemistry teacher for the same. (Attached below).

I received a response from CR that the examination department would look into it and reply. I am following it with CR. However I haven't yet received any response. With the provisional result shared, I would request you to look into my Chemistry re-evaluation on priority as it would benefit me in overall a better result.(I cross checked the answer sheet and am expecting approximately 10 marks more.)

Waiting for the response.

Thank you.

Yours sincerely,
Aayush Chetan Sheth (UID- 2020400053)

Please let me know if you need any information from my side to proceed further.

Dear Ma'am,

This is Aayush Chetan Sheth , UID: 2020400053 from FE IT. Yesterday , I submitted the form ,requesting a re evaluation and a re-total in the chemistry theory exam.
I have gone through the sample answer key and also the answer sheet which I have written, and I could not get where I have lost the marks. Request you to re-evaluate and re total my answer sheet.
I am available for a call in case we need to discuss further, my phone number is 9820715241.
Thank you

Yours sincerely,

Dear Aayush,
Your grievance was forwarded to me. I have rechecked and retotalled your answer paper and shared the same with the Exam cell in a timely manner. There is no change in your marks. Also, I only need to communicate with the Exam Cell on these matters and a direct response to your mail from me is not required.

Thanks & Regards

Good morning sir.

This is Omkar Rane from FE Computers.

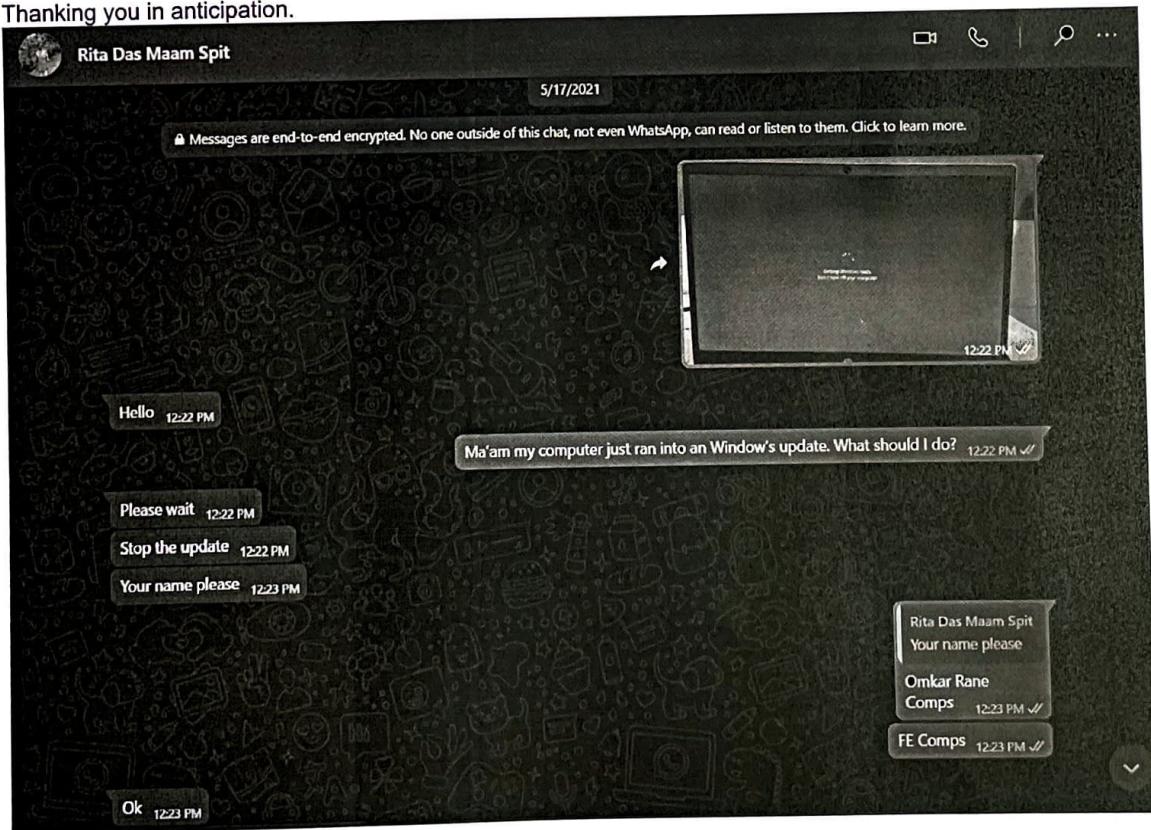

This is in response to the mail regarding the retest, that I would have to give for my Semester 1 ESE for ECL subject due to late submission because of technical reasons.

But sir I had called you and contacted Rita Das ma'am at the time I had experienced the technical issues (Inevitable Windows update in addition to Network issues due to cyclone in Mumbai on the same day of the exam (17th May 2021), screenshots attached below) and which made it impossible for me to upload the paper within the given time frame, and you and ma'am also assured that my paper would be considered.

But now the mail asks me to give a retest in the third week of August, but sir, as you know we have numerous ISEs, Lab ESEs, and Assignments lined up in the previous and the same week, with ESEs starting from next week, and it would be impossible for me to study a whole subject of the previous semester from scratch within such a short time frame, especially with other ISEs, ESEs and submissions scheduled.

So, sir, I sincerely request you to consider the paper which was submitted on the same day itself, since the technical issues were very genuine and I had also informed the concerned faculty beforehand.

Thanking you in anticipation.
