Dear Niket Arun,

On behalf of Carnegie Mellon University and our Admission Selection Committee, it is my great pleasure to offer you admission to the Master of Information Systems Management program. You have been selected to enroll in the MISM 16-month track beginning in August 2020. Your notable accomplishments, both academic and non-academic, have set you apart and established your potential as a leader and an agent of positive change.

Please respond to our offer of admission by completing the online Admission Response Form by April 15, 2020. Your Admission Response Form is available on your application status page (near the bottom of the page). Additional information regarding this step of the enrollment process is posted on the website for admitted students mentioned below. You will also be required to submit a final, official transcript from your undergraduate institution confirming the completion of your bachelor's degree with your date of graduation before starting classes at the Heinz College. Carnegie Mellon cannot confer graduate degrees to students who have not submitted proof of completing an undergraduate degree.

Unfortunately, we are unable to offer you any financial assistance at this time. If you have not made arrangements for financing your education, I encourage you to visit the financial aid section of our website for more information.

We have created a website for all of our admitted students (<https://www.heinz.cmu.edu/admitted-students/full-time/>). Visit the site to learn more about your offer of admission, the Credential Verification Process, the student visa application process for international students, and preparing for your first semester of study. You are responsible for completing the Credential Verification Process and returning all applicable forms in a timely manner.

After submitting your response form, a nonrefundable, nontransferable deposit of $500 must be paid either online (via credit card) or by mail (via check or money order) in order to secure your position in the program. Please make your check or money order payable to "Carnegie Mellon University" (please mail to the Office of Admissions). The credit card payment method may be completed via a secure website (<https://commerce.cashnet.com/CMU151?itemcode=151-HNZ-EDEP>). The admission deposit payment is required in addition to completing the Response Form. After you have paid this fee, you will see the payment reflected on your application status page. Once you have enrolled in your first semester of classes, the admission deposit will be credited to your student account.

Dear Shivani Sudesh Butala,

Congratulations! I am pleased to inform you that you have been accepted to the Master of Science in Artificial Intelligence and Innovation (MSAII) degree program in the Language Technologies Institute of the School of Computer Science at Carnegie Mellon University, starting with the Fall 2020 semester.

The MSAII program is designed to develop the mental flexibility and technical skills that are required to solve hard problems in any field that deals with complex systems. Our students acquire technical skills such as software development, big data analysis, machine learning, information retrieval, content management, text and data mining, and artificial intelligence techniques such as speech recognition, neural networks and deep learning.

Graduate student costs for the 2020-21 academic year are (1) tuition at $26,500 per semester, and fees at $453 per semester. The program requires four semesters of study.

There are additional costs for the summer semester before you first arrive on campus. The required 15-513 "Introduction to Computer Systems" course is a 6-unit course delivered remotely and there will be a fee charged for this course. We will notify you of the fee as soon as possible. This 6-unit tuition fee will be due by May 18, 2020. You may take the course Pass/No Pass (the equivalent of Pass/Fail). If you do not pass the course, you will be required to take it on campus after you arrive in addition to all your other courses.

Our Masters' degree normally requires 20 months to complete. At this time, we are not able to offer any financial assistance, so you may consider seeking support from other sources. CMU has some information available via the Web site at <https://www.cmu.edu/finaid/>. All full-time Carnegie Mellon students, including graduate students, are charged a Student Activities Fee, a transportation fee, and a technology fee per semester.

TAships are offered only to second-year students who have outstanding performance in the program. Students who wish to serve as a teaching assistant for a course and whose native language is not English must have their language assessed before becoming a Teaching Assistant. The Intercultural Communication Center (ICC) Center has been established by Carnegie Mellon University to help non-native English speakers develop the skills they need to provide effective instruction and administer the required fluency test. In addition to departmental policy, Pennsylvania State Law requires that all

For more information about the services offered by the ICC, see their Web site at <http://www.cmu.edu/icc/languagetraining/>.

As a member of the Carnegie Mellon community, you will be expected to familiarize yourself with all University policies and comply with them. Dear Mr. Sanish Sanjay Kharade:

We have received your request to defer your admission to the Electrical, Computer & Energy Engineering - Professional MS program for the Fall 2021 term and have made the change to your record.

In order to finalize your admission to that term, you will need to provide the items described in your visa materials reply form. Please note that changing your term may have changed our estimate of how much funding you will need to demonstrate for that term. If you deferred from one fall term to the next fall term, the financial statement link in your reply form will only appear when our estimates for the costs of the new academic year are available. Updated financial statements typically are ready in December, so if you deferred your admission for a year, please download and complete the new financial statement around that time.

Additionally, please note that if the deferral means your English proficiency test scores are no longer valid (because they would now be dated more than two years old), or if the deferral means you would no longer be exempt from providing 'proof of English proficiency' (because it will be more than two years since you studied at an English speaking school, in an English speaking country), you will now be required to take a TOEFL or IELTS score, and provide us with the sufficient and official results. Your visa reply form will let you know what visa materials we are still missing -- if it does not mention 'proof of English proficiency', you do not need to provide it anew.

As your new term approaches, you will receive an email with instructions on how to confirm your intent to enroll, as well as other useful admission information.

We look forward to you joining our campus community. Please contact your academic department if you have any questions. Congratulations on your admission to the University of Colorado Boulder!

Sincerely,
