22.6 If your employment is terminated at any time by reason of any reorganisation or amalgamation of the Company or any Barclays Group company, whether by winding up or otherwise, and you are offered employment with any concern or undertaking involved in or resulting from the reorganisation or amalgamation on terms which (considered in their entirety) are no less favourable to any material extend than the terms of this Employment Letter, you shall have no claim against the Company or any such undertaking arising out of or connected with the termination.

23. Certifications

23.1 You confirm and certify that:

- (a) you are not precluded or restricted by any term of any agreement, undertaking or court order or any obligation to any third party from entering into this Employment Letter or undertaking or properly performing any of the duties of your employment with the Company;
- (b) you will notify the Company of any change in circumstances around the termination of your employment with your previous employer between the date of this Employment Letter and the Start Date;
- (c) you are not currently, and have never been, the subject of an investigation by any company or body into suspected bribery or corruption activity where either: (i) the investigation was concluded and your conduct found to amount to misconduct; or (ii) where the investigation was on-going and did not reach a conclusion because your employment (or engagement) with that company or body was terminated during the investigation (whether by mutual consent or by voluntary termination or otherwise);
- (d) you are not currently, and have never been, the subject of an investigation into suspected criminal activity involving elements of dishonesty (including theft or fraud) or anti-competitive behaviour; and
- (e) you will not during your employment at the Company breach any third party's rights in respect of confidential information and/or intellectual property.

23.2 Any breach of these certifications will entitle Barclays to immediately terminate your employment.

24. Governing law

Your Terms are governed in accordance with the laws of the state of your normal place of work, or Mumbai if you work in Corporate Banking, Investment Banking or Wealth and Investment Management. The parties irrevocably submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the competent courts of the state of your normal place of work, or Mumbai if you work in Corporate Banking, Investment Banking or Wealth and Investment Management in relation to any legal action or proceedings that arise out of or in connection with this Employment Letter.

25. Key policies, procedures and practices

25.1 During your employment with the Company (and where applicable after your employment has terminated) you must comply with all of the Company's policies and procedures and any legal and/or statutory and/or regulatory obligations, including (but not limited to) Barclays Group policies and procedures on, and any other obligations relating to, anti-bribery and corruption. Failure to do so may result in disciplinary action being taken against you.

25.2 You should familiarise yourself with all policies and procedures that apply to your grade and business area as set out on your intranet. The Code of Conduct and the policies, guidelines and procedures on the following issues are particularly important (although this is not intended as a comprehensive list):

Employment Agreement

Dear Deep,

We are pleased to offer you employment on the terms and conditions set out below. Your employment will be with Deutsche India Pvt. Ltd (the "Company"). Deutsche India Pvt. Ltd is a company within the Deutsche Bank AG Group of Companies ("Group").

1. General Information

These terms and conditions outlined in this employment letter ("Agreement") as amended from time to time, together with the Company's "General Terms and Conditions of Service" as laid out in Schedule I of this Employment Agreement and as laid out in the Company's India Employee Handbook ("the Handbook"), the Deutsche Bank Group's Code of Conduct and all applicable regulations and policies of the Company, form the basis of your employment.

You are also expected to comply with all other applicable Company's regulations and policies (such as the Company's India Employee Handbook and the Code of Business Conduct and Ethics), and any other policies or procedures specific to your business or infrastructure unit. These policies and requirements are considered by the Company to be reasonable and lawful directions that you are required to comply with under the terms of your employment with the Company. You should therefore familiarize yourself with, and abide by, all applicable Company regulations and policies.

If there are any inconsistencies between the terms of this Employment Agreement and the provisions of the Handbook as at the date of your acceptance of this Employment Agreement, the terms of this Employment Agreement shall prevail. However, please note that any subsequent variations by the Company to any terms, conditions, rules or regulations (including the terms set out in the Handbook) generally governing the members of the Company's staff will prevail and be applicable to you.

2. Position

Your corporate title will be Analyst.

Your functional title will be Graduate Analyst.

Your local grade as per the internal grading system will be Grade 6.

During your employment, you may be required to perform work for other companies within the Group.

3. Employment Location

Your employment will initially be based at Pune, although you may be required to perform your duties at other locations from time to time and to travel on Company's business when the need arises, including overseas.

4. Hours of Work

You will be required to work nine (9) hours per day Monday through Friday including a one (1) hour break for lunch. Further, depending on the workload and business requirements, at any given time, you may be required to work in shifts and/or during weekends. You may also be expected to travel to other locations at times outside of your official hours of work. More details are available in the employee handbook.

5. Remuneration

Details of your remuneration and other benefits are provided in Schedule B.

Your salary will be paid in equal installments on a monthly basis directly into your company account. If you join the Company partway through a calendar year, your fixed pay will be pro-rated to reflect the portion of the year that you have started working for the Company.

Any payment of your salary or other sum due to you from the Company will be subject to any and all applicable withholding and/or other taxes payable and the Company will in such case be entitled to deduct or retain the amount of such tax from any sum payable to you. You will be solely responsible to pay all taxes and any other imposts as may be levied or assessed by any competent authority in any jurisdiction on any sums paid and/or other benefits provided to you by the Company.

You agree that the Company may deduct from your remuneration any sums due from you to the Company including, without limitation, your pension contributions (if any) and any overpayments, loans or advances (if applicable) made to you by the Company or any other company in the Group.

6. Notice Period

Corporate Title	Notice Period (in days)
Up to Associate (Local Grade 5)	60
AVP (Local Grade 4) and above	90

The Notice Period changes from 60 days to 90 days upon promotion from local grade 5 to local grade 4, as per the Company policy.

7. Other Conditions

Our offer and your employment are subject to:

- a) You completing, signing and returning the following forms to HR by the applicable date:
 - Personal Information Form (PIF)
 - Acknowledgement on Information Security
- b) You being free from any obligations owed to a third party which might prevent you from starting work on the commencement date;
- c) The information provided by you in relation to your employment by the Company regarding your background and/or previous employment being complete, accurate and not misleading in all respects and all information obtained by the Company in respect of you being fully satisfactory to the Company; and
- d) You holding or being granted the necessary approvals, regulatory registrations and/or licenses from the appropriate authorities for the performance of your duties (including a valid employment pass or work permit where applicable) prior to the commencement of your employment. Should there be any delay in your being granted such approvals, regulatory registrations and/or licenses (including where applicable an employment pass or a work permit), or should your application(s) in respect of the foregoing be rejected, your employment with the Company cannot commence and the Company will not be liable for any payment to you.

Schedule I: General Terms and Conditions of Service

1. Leaves

(a) Annual Leave - Your annual leave entitlement will be in accordance with the Company policy. The annual leave entitlement will be pro-rated in your first year or in any incomplete year.

(b) Sick Leave - Sick leave will be granted as per Company policy.

(c) Parental Leave and related benefits - The Company offers a gender-neutral parental leave policy for new parents to better manage their responsibilities. The leave duration and the benefits mentioned below are in accordance with The Maternity Benefits Act, 1961:

- I. Parental Leave: 26 weeks of paid leave for the primary caregiver. The mother is assumed to be the primary caregiver of the child.
- II. Adoption/ Surrogacy Leave: 26 weeks of paid leave for the primary caregiver.
- III. Maternity Expenses: Maternity related medical expenses are provided as per the Group Hospitalization policy.

More details on number of days and various types of leaves are available in the Employee Handbook.

2. Termination

(a) Termination with Notice

From the commencement of your employment, the Company or you may terminate your employment by giving a notice in writing for a period as stated in clause "Notice Period" in this Employment Agreement. The Company may choose to terminate your employment immediately or by a period of notice shorter than the stipulated notice period by making a payment to you equal to your fixed pay for all or part of the notice period in lieu of that notice. For the avoidance of doubt, this does not confer any entitlement on you part to receive, nor impose any obligation on the Company, to make such a payment.

If the Company or you have given notice of the termination of your employment, the Company may direct you not to perform any of your duties, to remain away from the Company's premises and/or not to contact clients or other employees of the Company for all or part of the notice period. During this time, you will remain employed by the Company and therefore remain subject to your conditions of employment and you will continue to receive your salary and contractual benefits during the notice period.

(b) Termination without Notice

The Company may terminate your employment immediately and without notice or payment in the event that:

- you are guilty of serious misconduct
- you are guilty of a serious breach of the employment rules as set out in the Handbook
- you breach any fundamental term or condition of your employment
- you intentionally disobey a lawful and reasonable direction of the Company
- you conduct yourself in a way which, in the Company's reasonable opinion, may bring any member of the Group into disrepute
- you are convicted of a serious criminal offence or a criminal offence which, in the Company's opinion, consists of your ability to perform your duties, or
- the results of any background checks or searches conducted by the Company are deemed unsatisfactory to it in its absolute discretion

(c) Consequences of Termination of your Employment

If your employment is terminated for any reason:

- a) before you leave the Company, you must return all of the Company's property and confidential information and you must not retain any copies, extracts or reproductions of all or any part of that property or confidential information;
- b) you will continue to be bound by your employment obligations to the Company relating to the Company's confidential information and Intellectual Property (as defined in the Intellectual Property clause below);
- c) you must not make any statements (whether verbally or in writing) or do anything which might damage the reputation of the Group or interfere with the Group's relationships with its clients and customers; and
- d) you will resign from all or any offices which you may hold as a director or otherwise with the Company or a Group company and from all other appointments or offices which you hold as nominee or representative thereof. If you fail to do so within seven days from the termination of your employment, the Company is irrevocably authorized to appoint another person in your name and on your behalf to do any acts or things necessary or desirable to effect the same.

(d) Retirement Age

The age of retirement with the Company is completion of 62 years.

(e) Non-Solicitation Obligations

During the course of your employment and after the termination of your employment, you shall be subject to the terms and covenants as set out below.

As you are likely to obtain in the course of your employment with the Company, trade secrets and/or other confidential information and since you have and/or are likely to obtain during the course of your employment with the Company personal knowledge and influence over customers and clients of the Company, for the protection by the Group of its businesses and, in particular, its confidential information, customer and client connections and the maintenance of a stable workforce, you agree and covenant with the Company and the Group collectively as set out below.

i. Non-Solicitation

- A. you shall not during your employment and during a period of twelve (12) months from the date on which notice of termination of your employment is given either on your own account or in conjunction with, or on behalf of, any other person solicit or entice away or endeavor to solicit or entice away or assist any other person, whether by means of the supply of names or expressing views on suitability or otherwise howsoever to solicit or entice away from the Group any individual:-
 - a. who is an employee or director of any member of the Group (of Grades 1 to 4 in accordance with the Group's internal grading structure or the equivalent category of employees under the Group's internal grading structure as amended from time to time); or
 - b. who is contracted to render services to the Company and/ or any member of the Group, and in either case with whom you have had business dealings during the twelve month period immediately preceding the termination of your employment with the Company, whether or not any such person would commit a breach of contract by reason of his leaving service.

Deep Nayak

- B. You shall not during your employment and during a period of six (6) months from the date on which notice of termination of your employment is given either on your own account or in conjunction with, or on behalf of, any other person solicit, interfere with or entice away or attempt to solicit, interfere with or entice away any person who is a Restricted Client; and
- C. You shall not during your employment and during a period of six (6) months from the date on which notice of termination of your employment is given either on your own account or in conjunction with, or on behalf of, any other person have business dealings, directly or indirectly, with any person who is a Restricted Client.
- D. However, you are not prohibited by any of these restrictions from seeking or doing business with a Restricted Client that is not in direct or indirect competition with the Restricted Business.

For the purposes of paragraphs 1(B) to 1(D) above, Restricted Business means the activities of the operating division or company of the Group to which you are assigned and to whom you provide your services; and Restricted Client means any person, firm or company who or which on the date of termination of your employment or at any time during the twelve-month period immediately prior to the date of termination was a client or customer of the Group in respect of the Restricted Business and with whom or with which during that period you have had business dealings.

- E. You agree that having regard to the facts and matters set out above the covenants herein contained are reasonable in all the circumstances for the protection of the Bank's legitimate interest including the trade secrets and/or other confidential information of the Bank/Company and the Group.
- F. You acknowledge that the breach of any of the restrictions specified in paragraph 1 above by you will cause irreparable injury to the Company and/or the Group which could not be adequately compensated in monetary damages and shall entitle the Bank and/or the Group to all equitable remedies, including without limitation injunctive relief, specific performance and restraining orders. Equitable relief shall be in addition to all other remedies available to the Company and/or the Group.
- G. The benefit of each agreement and obligation set out above may be assigned to and enforced by all successors or assignees for the time-being carrying on the business of the Group and such agreements and obligations shall operate and remain binding notwithstanding the termination of your employment.
- H. If any provision of these obligations after employment are determined to be illegal or unenforceable by any court of law or any competent governmental or other authority, the remaining obligations and the remainder of your contract of employment shall be severable and enforceable in accordance with their terms so long as your contract of employment without such terms or provisions does not fail of its essential purpose. You and the Company shall negotiate in good faith to replace any such illegal or unenforceable provisions with suitable substitute provisions, which will maintain as far as possible their purposes and the effect. If so required by the Company, you also agree to enter into separate covenants with any member of the Group to which you are assigned and to whom you provide your services in a form identical to the covenants set out in this section in order to protect the legitimate business interests of the Group.
- I. For the purposes of this section, the Company is entering into these restrictions with you on its own behalf and as agent for and/or as trustee of the business of the relevant member of the Group to which you are assigned and to whom you provide your services.

VII. Notification of Restrictions

You agree that in the event of your receiving from any person an offer of employment (whether oral or in writing and whether accepted or not) either during the continuance of your employment with the Company or during the continuance in force of all or any of the restrictions set out above you shall forthwith provide to the person making such an offer of employment a full and accurate copy of the post-termination restrictions set out above including details of any variations to them agreed with you on an individual basis; and if the offer is accepted, inform the Company of the identity of the person making the offer.

- VIII. During and after the termination of your employment, you will not without the express written consent of the Company disclose or use any confidential information relating to the business or affairs of the Company or any company within the Group, or its or their clients, including without limitation lists of clients, suppliers and employees, financial information including pricing information, administration and information systems, information about unique products and services and information relating to the business strategy of the Company or any entity within the Group.

3. Other Employment

You will not engage in any other remunerative employment or accept any appointment as a director of any company outside the Group without the Company's prior written approval and, unless otherwise agreed by the Company in writing, all fees or other remuneration in respect of any such appointment will be for the account of the Company.

You will not during your employment be directly or indirectly engaged or concerned in the conduct of any business other than the business of the Group without the prior permission of the Company.

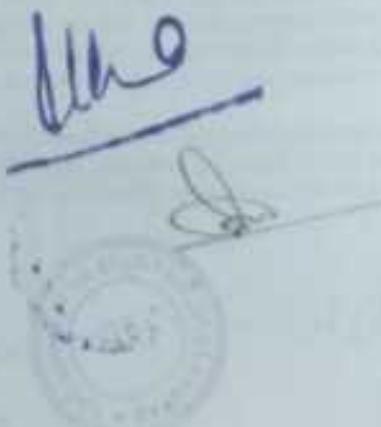

4. Compliance

The Company's rules, regulations and directions relating to employees, including the Group's Code of Conduct, which are now or may hereafter be in force, will apply to you and will be strictly complied with by you. You should therefore acquaint yourself with all Company rules and policies, which are applicable to you.

In particular, the Company attaches great importance to security, compliance and fair dealing procedures and your attention is drawn to the rules set out in the Group's Compliance Policies. You may be asked to disclose information as deemed necessary to comply with local regulatory requirements arising from the Company's business activities (including records relating to investments held by you and your connected persons), or which are otherwise consistent with market best practices of the Company.

Where applicable, you will also be expected to comply with any local compliance requirements of our overseas offices and all requirements (including any professional qualifications and standards of conduct) for obtaining and maintaining the necessary registration and license (or such exemption from registration and license) for the performance of your duties. A breach of the Group's Compliance policies or local compliance rules is a disciplinary offence that may justify summary dismissal.

In addition, you will at all times be conversant with and comply with any rules and regulations applicable to your specific area of work, such as (where applicable) the local Rules, Regulations and By-Laws. Violation of any of these rules, regulations or provisions may result in the immediate termination of your employment.

5. Confidentiality

During your employment by the Company, you may learn trade secrets or confidential information, which relates to the Company and the Group. Unless you are required to do so in the proper performance of your duties, you must not:

- a) divulge or communicate to any person;
- b) use for your own purposes or for any purposes other than those of the Company or, as appropriate, any of its clients; or
- c) cause any unauthorized disclosure, through any failure to exercise due care and attention, of any trade secrets or confidential information relating to the Company (or any of the Group) or any of its or their clients. You must at all times use your best endeavours to prevent publication or disclosure of any trade secrets or confidential information.

Confidential information includes but is not limited to lists of clients, suppliers, financial information including pricing information, administration and information systems, information about unique products and services and information relating to the business strategy of the Company or any other company within the Group.

If you are unsure about the confidential nature of specific information, you must seek your manager's advice and clarification. You will be subject to disciplinary action up to and including summary dismissal for any unauthorized disclosure of confidential information belonging to or related to the Company or any Group company. You understand and agree that your obligation of confidentiality survives termination of your employment.

You will promptly on demand or in any event upon when you cease to be an employee of the Company, return all confidential information including but not limited to documents, records, computer disks or other property in your possession or under your control belonging to the Company or any Group company or the clients thereof and you will not retain any copies thereafter.

In the same way that the Company's and its Group's confidential information must be kept confidential, the Company expects you to keep confidential the confidential information of your previous employers. During your employment with the Company, you must not use proprietary material, trade secrets or other highly confidential information or property obtained by you because of any prior employment without written authorization from the relevant organization.

6. Intellectual Property

For the purposes of this agreement, "Intellectual Property Rights" means any and all existing and future intellectual or industrial property rights (whether registered or unregistered) including, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, all existing and future patents, copyrights, design rights, database rights, trade marks, internet rights, domain names, know-how, confidential information and any and all applications for any of the foregoing and any and all rights to apply for any of the foregoing.

During your employment with the Company, you may either alone or in conjunction with others, generate or assist in the generation of documents, materials, designs, drawings, processes, formulae, computer coding, methodologies, confidential information and other works which relate to the business of the Company or any Group company or which are capable of being used or adapted for use therein or in connection therewith ("Works") and you agree that in respect of any such Works and all Intellectual Property Rights in relation thereto, you are obliged to further the interests of the Company and any Group company. Both the Works and the related Intellectual Property Rights will belong to and be the absolute property of the Company or any other person the Company may nominate.

You must immediately disclose to your Business Head all works and all related Intellectual Property Rights. You are required to assist the company and fully cooperate with it in every way to enforce the Company's right to execute whatever documentation is required to provide the Company with full ownership thereof.

If you join the Company part-way through a calendar or fiscal year, your Basic Salary and Flexi Benefits will be pro-rated, as applicable, to reflect the period of your service with the Company in the relevant year. Any payment of your salary or other sum due to you from the Company will be subject to any and all applicable withholding and/or other taxes payable and the Company will in such case be entitled to deduct or retain the amount of such tax from any sum payable to you. You will be solely responsible to pay all taxes and any other imposts as may be levied or assessed by any competent authority in any jurisdiction on any sums paid and/or other benefits provided to you by the Company.

You agree that the Company may deduct from your remuneration any sums due from you to the Company including, without limitation, your pension contributions (if any) and any overpayments, loans or advances made to you by the Company or any other company in the Group.

2. Variable Compensation

(a) Discretionary Variable Compensation

All employees are eligible to be considered for annual Discretionary Variable Compensation subject to the provisions set out below and the Variable Compensation Guiding Principles as each of these may be reviewed and amended from time to time at the discretion of the Company.

Dependent on your corporate title for the relevant performance year, you may be considered for Discretionary Variable Compensation based on a number of factors including but not limited to (in no particular order of importance) the performance of the Company and, as applicable, the specific contribution of its component business units, your individual personal contribution and the need to retain you in employment within the Company.

Based on your current corporate title, your eligibility for Discretionary Variable Compensation will be referred to as "Group Variable Compensation". Group Variable Compensation is discretionary variable compensation which is dependent on DB Group performance and is assessed and awarded in the sole and exclusive discretion of the Company. You are not currently eligible to be considered for any Individual Variable Compensation. You may however be nominated for a Recognition Award.

Generally, Discretionary Variable Compensation is determined in the sole and exclusive discretion of the Company and may be made wholly or partly in cash, restricted equity, nominal equity, restricted cash, or such other form as the Company may decide. The Company reserves the right to deliver a percentage (up to 100%) of all Discretionary Variable Compensation under and subject to, any applicable DB compensation plans (restricted equity, nominal equity, restricted cash, or in such other form as the Company may decide) that are in effect on the date Discretionary Variable Compensation is awarded. Such plans may provide for forfeiture of awards under such plans in certain circumstances. Discretionary Variable Compensation may be awarded or paid in any currency at the Company's discretion.

Your Discretionary Variable Compensation, including any restricted compensation awards and cash amounts awarded to you, are subject to the global and regional compensation policies and applicable regulation as well as any applicable clawback provisions, which may require you to repay any awards or cash amounts delivered and paid to you.

For the avoidance of doubt, you do not have a contractual entitlement to receive Discretionary Variable Compensation and any such Discretionary Variable Compensation in a given year will be at the absolute discretion of the Company and subject to regulatory requirements (as may be amended from time to time). Moreover, you will not receive Discretionary Variable Compensation if (for whatever reason) on the date on which Discretionary Variable Compensation is awarded in a given year, you are not employed within the Company or if you are under notice to terminate your employment (whether notice was given by you or the Company) or if the Company considers your performance or conduct to have been unsatisfactory.

If, on the date on which Discretionary Variable Compensation is usually communicated and/or paid, you are subject to an investigation that may result in disciplinary (or other) action being taken against you, consideration of whether you are eligible for, and payment of, any Discretionary Variable Compensation will be delayed until the conclusion of that investigation and, if relevant, any subsequent disciplinary (or other) procedure. Although, for the avoidance of doubt, you will not be eligible for consideration of a Discretionary Variable Compensation if, at the conclusion of the disciplinary (or other) procedure, you are given notice of termination of employment.

You should note that if you work in a number of locations, generally for the purposes of tax reporting and withholding, the settlement of any Discretionary Variable Compensation awarded to you will be apportioned between the locations you have worked in during the relevant period. Depending on individual circumstances, participants may become subject to multiple withholding taxes including double taxation. By accepting this offer, you agree to comply with any arrangements specified by the Company for the payment of any taxation (in any jurisdiction) by virtue of the settlement of any Discretionary Variable Compensation or portion thereof.

Any portion of Discretionary Variable Compensation awarded as a cash payment will usually be paid in March through the normal monthly payroll. Discretionary Variable Compensation in any other form, including an award under a DB compensation plan (restricted equity, notional equity, restricted cash, or in such other form as the Company may decide), will be payable when such awards vest and will be delivered in accordance with the applicable DB compensation plan rules and Award Statement(s).

3. Cash Sign-On Award

You will receive a one-off cash award, a "Sign-On Award," in the amount of INR 300,000. Payment of your Sign-On Award will be made in INR in the next available payroll after the later of (i) the commencement of your employment with the Company, and (ii) the date on which all conditions of this offer (as detailed in this letter) are satisfied. Any payments in relation to your Sign-On Award will be made less any deductions for tax and social security contributions as the Company may be required to withhold.

The Sign-On Award is subject to all requirements of, and will be structured to comply with, the Institutsvergütungsverordnung (InstitutsVergV) and any regional regulation that is applicable (as may be amended from time to time) including (amongst other provisions) the regulatory requirements set out in the Section 7 of the InstitutsVergV (as may be amended from time to time).

You will be required to repay the gross amount of the Sign-On Award if:

- the payment is made before you satisfy all the conditions of this offer and within six months of such payment being made to you, you subsequently fail to satisfy all or any of them, or
- you give notice to terminate your employment with the Company or you are dismissed for misconduct or capability within twelve months of the date the payment is made.

By accepting this offer you consent to the deduction of the gross amount of the payment of any Sign-On Award made to you from your salary or any emoluments or integrals arising from your employment if the Sign-On Award becomes repayable to the Company in the above circumstances. If these are insufficient to recover the whole of the gross amount of the Sign-On Award, you agree to repay any remaining amount to the Company within 30 days.

4. Relocation

(a) Relocation Benefits

In accordance with the terms and conditions of appointment and if need arises out of job responsibility, employee is liable to relocate between various locations within India at the discretion of the Company. The relocation assistance is designed to assist employees in the new location.

Please refer to Employee Handbook for more details.

(b) Claw back of Relocation Benefits

If your employment is terminated (voluntarily i.e. by your resignation or involuntarily i.e. termination for a cause), within twelve (12) months from the employment commencement date at the new location, you will be required to pay back the cost borne by the Company (ad gross) on account of the relocation i.e. travel, stay, and other relocation benefits, on a pro rata basis. For every full month of service post relocation, the recovery will reduce by 1/12th the total recoverable amount. The above provisions will not apply in case of redundancy.

5. Confirmation on Exam

We understand that you are yet to appear for your final examinations/ backlog of examinations, if any. Basis the university / college schedule, you will complete the examinations and upon the results of the said examinations being declared, you will provide us with copies of the supporting documents thereof immediately or within 90 days of joining us, whichever is earlier. Any delay or failure in providing the documents mentioned, will lead to your employment agreement being terminated. If for any reason, you are not able to provide us with copies of the documents aforementioned within the timelines mentioned, you will inform us of the reasons for such delays and also provide us with the estimated timelines within which time copies of the said documents will be made available to us. Should you fail to provide us with copies of the documents within the extended time lines, the organization will be entitled to terminate your employment with immediate effect.

Dear Kavish Rakesh,

Following our recent discussions, we are delighted to extend an offer of employment to you.

Enclosed are a Summary of Key Terms, any applicable Schedules and Detailed Terms and Conditions which set out important conditions relating to your employment and which, together, form your employment terms with Barclays ("Employment Letter").

The Employment Letter refers to the Barclays Values (Respect, Integrity, Service, Excellence and Stewardship) as these are a central part of everything we do. The Values, as well as our purpose and behaviours, will have formed a key part of your selection process when being offered a role at Barclays. You will be expected to act in accordance with the Values as a Barclays employee, and in particular, to follow our Code of Conduct (known as the 'Barclays Way'). More information on this, and how we 'live' the Values, will be available prior to and on joining Barclays.

This offer is conditional upon you satisfying Barclays recruitment and screening conditions and procedures and where applicable, the appropriate regulatory approvals. To start the process you will need to complete an application form. If you have not already received it, you will receive a link to the site shortly.

On or before your first day of employment, you will need to provide written documentation which proves your eligibility to work in India. You will also need to sign one copy of your Employment Letter (enclosed) confirming that you have read, understood and accept the terms. You must return this on your first day of employment.

We look forward to welcoming you to Barclays.

Yours sincerely,

Sarada Srinivas

Summary of Key Terms

Introduction to this Section

This section is intended as an "at a glance" summary of the key terms of the offer to you. You must, therefore, read these terms in conjunction with any applicable Schedules and the enclosed Detailed Terms and Conditions which together comprise your Employment Letter.

Name	Kevat Rajesh Dhanani
Employing Company	Barclays Global Service Centre Private Limited ("the Company")
Position	Your role will be Graduate Explorer (Developer), BBA (or equivalent), or such other role as the Company reasonably decides from time to time.
Start Date	10 July 2023, or such other date agreed between us in writing, subject to the pre-employment conditions being met to the Company's satisfaction. Your start date for the purposes of continuous employment is as set out above.
	In addition to the terms set out elsewhere in the Agreement, this offer of employment is contingent upon successful completion of your current degree prior to your anticipated start date. Successful completion of your degree means that it is completed within the specified timelines highlighted in your application and that your final degree classification matches or exceeds the predicted results stated in your application to Barclays. It is your responsibility to inform our recruitment team immediately, if you suspect that your grades will be lower than those predicted. Your start date for the purposes of continuous employment is as set out above.
Working Hours	Your hours of work will be an average of 40 per week. Rest intervals and breaks are separate from the 40 hours of work. The Company is operational 24 hours a day, 365 days a year, so depending on your business function, your working days and hours may involve day and night shifts, and working on weekends/weekly offs and holidays, as permitted under applicable laws. Your manager will inform you if you are required to work in a different shift.
	You will devote sufficient time to your duties. Subject to applicable laws, you may be required to work such additional hours as are required for the proper performance of your duties as per any applicable Company policy, which may require that you attend the office, or be available to fulfil your function, outside normal hours and days. Your working hours can be varied by the Company at its discretion, with reasonable notice and in accordance with applicable laws.

However, your place of work will be determined in line with the requirements of the scheme at Barclays' sole discretion. It is a condition of your employment that you agree that you may be required to work or travel to any branch or office (in India or overseas). Where you are required to work outside of India, additional terms and conditions may apply to your employment, which will be provided at the relevant time.

Probationary Period
Your employment is subject to a probationary period of 6 months, or such additional period as the company may in its discretion consider necessary.

Salary

Components	In INR Per Annum
Basic salary	462,000.00
Housing Rent Allowance	131,000.00
Flexible Benefit Plan (see further "Statutory and other Benefits" below)	462,000.00
Annual Salary	1,155,000.00
Provident Fund (Employer's Contribution)	15,440.00
Gratuity (per Company policy)	12,212.00
Total Fixed Pay	1,232,652.00

Salary will be payable on a monthly basis, subject to applicable taxes, duties, cesses, and other statutory deductions, and is currently paid on or around the 24th (or the prior working day if the 24th is not a working day) of each month. The estimated CTC above does not create any contractual right to any such payment.

You may be eligible to receive discretionary allowances as mentioned above or otherwise, subject to and in accordance with the Company's policy on such allowances / flexible benefit pay component of the salary, subject to amendment from time to time by the Company, to reflect changes in law, tax, or other reasons. These allowances may be reduced or withdrawn.

Your allowances will be paid along with your salary as mentioned above, subject to applicable taxes, duties, cesses and other statutory deductions.

Other Payments

The Company agrees to pay you a one-off non-pensionable scholarship and bursary payment of Rs.100000 (the "Scholarship and Bursary Payment") in recognition of your studying costs. The Scholarship and Bursary Payment will be paid within 90 days from your date of joining Barclays. The payment will be made subject to applicable tax and/or other withholdings or deductions as required by law or regulation.

As agreed by you, this Scholarship and Bursary Payment will be subject to your compliance with the following requirements:

You will be required to repay the Scholarship and Bursary Payment net of any taxes or other deductions or withholdings as required by law or regulation within 30 days of any of the following occurring:

- you have terminated your employment voluntarily (or have given the Company notice to terminate your employment) within 12 months of your start date; or
- you are dismissed for gross misconduct or fundamental breach of contract or for a serious breach of the Risk and/or Compliance requirements of the Barclays Group (or you have been given notice to terminate your employment for these reasons) within 12 months of your start date; or
- you fail to satisfy the pre-employment conditions of as set out in this Agreement or as otherwise determined by the Company.

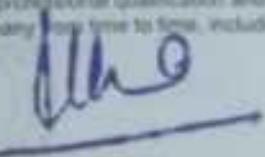

The Company may adjust this repayment amount from any amount payable to you by any Barclays Group company. The Scholarship and Bursary Payment should not be interpreted as giving rise to any right to or legitimate expectation of any other award, nor is it any assurance as to the level of any award which may be made to you in future, which will be at the Company's discretion.

You were also given an opportunity to join your employment without the Scholarship and Bursary Payment and therefore your liability to repay the amount, as has been mentioned above, in no case to be considered as a detriment to restrict your employment for a specific term.

Qualifications
Examinations

As a condition of your employment and continued employment with the Company that you successfully complete any professional qualification and/or examination as may be required and provided to you by the Company from time to time, including without limitation any qualifications or examinations required by the Regulator. You will be expected to pass all exams within a predetermined period and/or within one or more sittings, which shall be set out in the Company policy.

Subject to the terms set out below and the Company policy, the Company will be responsible for the cost of any first attempts at any such qualification with our preferred provider, including study books and associated examination fees. You should refer to the Company policy for details.

If you do not pass any exam or obtain a qualification within the period specified or within the relevant number of attempts (which may in some cases only be one) the Company reserves the right to terminate your employment.

In the event that your employment is terminated for gross misconduct, or if you resign from the Company or otherwise terminate your employment or if you fail to join the Company for any reason and / or you fail to satisfy the pre-conditions of employment as set out in this Agreement or as otherwise determined by the Company, you will be required (except where a qualification or examination is required by the Regulator) to repay to the Company the following sums in full within 30 days:

- 100% of all fees and costs paid for by the Company in respect of any course of study if your employment is terminated for gross misconduct or you resign or otherwise terminate your employment at any time during your course of study, or within six months of completing your course of study, or if you fail to join the Company for any reason and / or you fail to satisfy the pre-conditions of employment as set out in this Agreement or as otherwise determined by the Company; or
- 50% of all fees and costs paid for by the Company in respect of any course of study if your employment is terminated for gross misconduct or you resign or otherwise terminate your employment within six twelve months of completing your course of study.

Any such sums owed by you to the Company will be deducted from any sums due to you from the Company or, if such a deduction is not made, will be deemed to be due as a debt from you to the Company.

Discretionary Incentive Award

You may be eligible to be considered for a discretionary incentive award on an annual basis, at the absolute discretion of the Company and subject to you being eligible at the relevant time. Normally, awards are made in the first quarter, in respect of the previous financial year.

Statutory and Other Benefits

You will be eligible for various statutory benefits in accordance with the relevant laws. You will also be eligible to participate in the Company's benefits scheme, details of which are set out in the attached flyer which does not form part of your contract or have any contractual effect.

Any benefits are subject to the relevant policies/plans from time to time in force. The Company reserves the right to change the benefits or policies/plans from time to time.

If the Company pays or reimburses any expense on your joining the Company towards your relocation from your current place of stay to your place of posting as agreed between the Company and you, if your employment ends less than one year after the Start Date you confirm that you will pay to the Company (or alternatively Company may set-off against/ write off) any amount paid or reimbursed in respect of such relocation from the amount payable to you.

Annual Leave

You are entitled to avail annual leave which includes privilege leave, casual leave and sick leave entitlement in accordance with the applicable laws in the state of your Place of Work. Further details are included in the Detailed Terms and Conditions and on your contract.

Notice Period

Either you or the Company may terminate your employment by giving two months written notice, however, the Company may terminate your employment with immediate effect in accordance with applicable Company policies.

Any reduction/ waiver to notice period shall be at the sole discretion of the Company. Company may adjust balance of annual leaves while granting such reduction/ waiver.

Further information on Notice is included in the Detailed Terms and Conditions.

Overtime

Employees who are eligible under applicable laws to be paid Overtime for work beyond normal working hours, will be paid for the same in accordance to the applicable State laws at your Place of Work.

Further details in regard to Overtime are included within the Additional Time Guidelines available on the company's Intranet.

Data Privacy

The Company processes employee information for legal, regulatory, administrative and other purposes related to your employment and the conduct of the business of the Barclays Group (the "Agreed Purposes"). Processing includes obtaining, holding, editing, destroying and disclosing employee information to any Barclays Group company and its employees and/or any third parties (for example, insurers, pension scheme trustees, banks, auditors, consultants, lawyer/law firm, business partners, suppliers and vendors engaged to provide products or services to the Company, business partners, suppliers and vendors engaged to provide products or services to the Company, and other employers following a business transfer or merger) for the Agreed Purposes ("Processing" or "Process").

For the Agreed Purposes, the Company may transfer employee information to any Barclays Group company and/or any third parties (for example, insurers, pension scheme trustees, banks, business partners, suppliers and vendors engaged to provide products or services to the Company, and other employers following a business transfer or merger) in order to Process employee information for the Agreed Purposes.

You confirm that you will provide your employee information to the Company and consent to the Processing of employee information for the Agreed Purposes. This may include transfers to recipients based in another country to your place of employment (either within or outside the European Economic Area) with different levels of protection of your personal data to India.

You confirm that the Company and/or any Barclays Group company may monitor and/or record your use of office equipment, for example, e-mail, internet (including chats and blogs), telephones and mobile telephones for the purposes of compliance with Company procedures and policies, maintenance, security and regulatory requirements or as permitted by law.

After said clause/ conditions shall apply to information relating to your family members/ relatives with respect to insurance policy, emergency contact details, etc., in accordance with prevailing Barclays' Company policy. It is your responsibility to inform such individuals that their data will be processed in this manner and to obtain their consent.

Confidentiality

It is important that you recognise that during your employment with the Company you will have access to, and be entrusted with, confidential information and trade secrets relating to the Company, the Barclays Group and any of our clients and customers. Both during and after your employment you must comply with all policies and procedures relating to confidentiality, confidential information and trade secrets and any stricter policy which applies to your role.

Post-Termination Restrictions

In protecting the interests of the Company, you must not, for a period of 3 months from the termination date of your employment:

- approach, solicit or deal with any person, firm, company or other entity who is or was a customer/supplier of Barclays Group and with whom you had material dealings within the 12 months period immediately prior to your termination;
- solicit or entice, or attempt to solicit or entice away or engage or employ any director, officer or employee in the Barclays Group.

Full details of the restrictions you will be bound by are included in the Detailed Terms and Conditions.

Acceptance

In accepting the terms of this Employment Letter, you confirm that all information provided by you to us in connection with this offer of employment (including at interview) is true and not misleading. You further confirm that you will notify us of any change in that information between the date of this offer of employment and the Start Date and during the term of your employment with the Company, including any change in the information you provided during the pre-employment recruitment and screening process and any change in the circumstances of the termination of your employment with your current employer.

By accepting this offer, you accept that you are bound by the terms of this Employment Letter. This includes the Key Terms, any applicable Schedules and the enclosed Detailed Terms and Conditions. By accepting this offer, you further accept that you are bound by all applicable policies, guidelines, processes and procedures as amended from time to time and that you shall ensure that you acquaint yourself with the terms of all such policies, guidelines, processes and procedures. This Employment Letter set out the complete and exclusive terms and conditions between you and the Company and supersedes all proposals or prior agreements, oral or written and all other communications between the parties relating to the subject matter of these terms. In the event of any conflict between the Summary of Key Terms and any applicable Schedule and the Detailed Terms and Conditions, the Detailed Terms and Conditions will prevail. In addition, by accepting this offer you will be deemed to confirm that you have received, read, understood, accept and will comply with the requirements detailed in the Detailed Terms and Conditions.

Detailed Terms and Conditions

Introduction

About the Detailed Terms and Conditions

The purpose of the Detailed Terms and Conditions is to provide you with the relevant information on what the Company and the Barclays Group expects from its employees.

The Detailed Terms and Conditions also set out a list of key practices, guidelines and processes that the Barclays Group has developed to reflect our values, purpose and behaviour and as part of our high performance culture and, in accordance with your contractual obligations, must be adhered to at all times. Further information and policies can be found on your own business unit intranet site.

It is important that we review our policies, practices, guidelines and processes to ensure that we stay at the leading edge, enabling us to be one of the most admired financial services companies in the world. From time to time, our policies and procedures do change and you must familiarise yourself with them on joining and periodically throughout your employment. References in the Detailed Terms and Conditions to a policy, practice, guideline and / or process generally are references to the relevant policy, practice, guideline and / or process in force at the relevant time.

These detailed terms and conditions also refer to the Barclays Values which must be adhered to at all times. The Barclays Values (Respect, Integrity, Service, Excellence and Stewardship) are set out on your own business unit intranet site.

You should also refer to Appendix 1 which sets out definitions of the terms used in the Detailed Terms and Conditions.

Your Detailed Terms and Conditions of Employment

1. Introduction to this Section

This section sets out your detailed terms and conditions of employment and should be read alongside your enclosed Summary of Key Terms and any applicable Schedules. These documents form your employment terms with the Company and are referred to in this document as "Employment Letter". By signing the Employment Letter you confirm that you have read, understood and accept the terms set out in the Detailed Terms and Conditions.

2. Pre-employment and ongoing conditions

- 2.1 Your confirmation in the employment will be subject to successful completion of the Probationary Period as mentioned in the summary of terms or such additional period as the Company considers necessary in its absolute discretion. Your employment shall be deemed to be confirmed automatically unless communicated otherwise in writing.
- 2.2 You understand that the Company's offer of employment is made to you subject to and conditional on the completion of certain pre-employment procedures and processes. You certify that the information that you have provided in connection with completion of the procedures and otherwise in connection with this offer of employment (including at interview stage) is true and accurate both at the time it is given and on the Start Date. The Company reserves the right to carry out screening checks on all employees, and such procedures may include but are not limited to:
 - (a) receipt of references and documentary proof that are satisfactory to the Company that you are legally entitled to reside and work in your country;
 - (b) completion of credit checks to the satisfaction of the Company;
 - (c) where criminal record checks are applicable to your role, completion of those checks to the satisfaction of the Company;
 - (d) if requested by the Company, a medical examination by the Company's medical advisers;
 - (e) where Regulator approval for your appointment is required and such approval is sought before your employment commences, such approval either (i) being obtained or (ii) not being withdrawn by the Company or a Barclays Group company following consultation with the Regulator; (iii) receipt of documentary proof that you hold the appropriate and relevant qualifications; and
 - (f) the Company receiving a signed copy of the Terms from you.
- 2.3 Whilst every effort will be made to complete all the checks and processes in the pre-employment procedures before your Start Date, this may not always be possible. In case you are employed prior to completion of the pre-employment procedure, the Company may terminate your employment at any time on minimum statutory notice if the check reports are not up to our satisfaction or the procedures are not completed within a reasonable period of time.
- 2.4 This offer of employment and your continued employment is also subject to your obtaining, holding and maintaining to hold up applicable qualifications, licences and registrations as required by your role. Where Regulator approval for your role is required and such approval is sought after your employment commences, then your continued employment is conditional on such approval either: (i) being obtained, or (ii) not being withdrawn by the Company or a Barclays Group company following consultation with the Regulator (or other relevant regulatory body).
- 2.5 You shall be liable and responsible to inform and update your latest contact and address details, in the records of the Company, from time to time. Failure to comply may constitute gross negligence on your part.
- 2.6 You should not engage in any matter which would or could be anticipated to result in a conflict of interest between you and the Company.

- 2.7 This offer of employment and your continued employment is also subject to your successful completion of certain trainings (such as Communication & Culture and/or other process and policy trainings accreditations) that may be assigned to you by the Company from time to time. In case you return absent for more than 2 days during these training programs or you become unable to qualify the trainings to the satisfaction of the Company, the Company shall have the sole discretion to take appropriate action including termination of your employment forthwith in accordance with provisions of Clause 18.1 (e) viii of the detailed terms and conditions of this Employment Letter. In case of your absence due to any personal emergency, your Line Manager shall on his/her sole discretion and upon evaluation of the reason of your absence, may recommend the Company to realign you for the next available training within a period of 30 days of your returning from absence. In case you are realigned for the next training as mentioned above, there may be possible change in process and/or compensation on account of such realignment. If for any reason you do not agree to the realignment terms or no such realignment is possible within a period of 30 days of your returning from absence, the Company shall have the sole discretion to terminate your employment forthwith in accordance with provisions of Clause 18.1 (e) viii.

3. Place of Work and Mobility

Your place of work is as set out in your Summary of Key Terms. However you may need to travel to other locations and offices as reasonably required in the performance of your duties. You confirm that you will travel to such places (both inside and outside India) as the Company may reasonably require from time to time. Should the Company need to permanently change your place of work, you will be given reasonable notice of any such change (acceptable in e-mail/ letter format).

4. Duties

4.1 During your employment with the Company you confirm that you will:

- (a) act in a manner consistent with and which supports our values, purpose and behaviours and in particular the Barclays Values;
- (b) devote the whole of your working time and attention to the business of the Company and the Barclays Group;
- (c) diligently and faithfully perform such duties and exercise such powers and functions as may reasonably be assigned to you by the Company in relation to its business and that of the Barclays Group to the best of your ability and with integrity, due skill, care and diligence;
- (d) use your best efforts to promote and protect the interests of the Company and the Barclays Group and not do anything to harm those interests;
- (e) comply with all reasonable requests, instructions and regulations given by the Company and the Barclays Group and promptly provide such explanations, information and assistance as to your activities in the business of the Company and the Barclays Group as they may reasonably need;
- (f) neither engage in any activities which would detract from the proper performance of your duties under the terms of this Employment Letter, nor (without the prior written consent of the Company) in any capacity including as director, shareholder, principal, consultant, agent, partner or employee engage or be concerned or interested directly or indirectly in any other trade, business or occupation whatsoever provided always that such activities are in compliance with Barclays policies on outside or external business interests. This paragraph will not prevent you holding for investment purposes only, shares or securities which do not exceed three per cent (3%) in nominal value of the share capital or stock of any class of any company quoted on a recognised stock exchange;
- (g) not engage or be interested in any activities which place you in a position where your interests conflict improperly with those of the Barclays Group, its clients, customers or shareholders. Barclays recognises that, on occasion, a conflict of interest may arise which is unavoidable. In such circumstances you must make your line manager and local compliance control room or compliance contact aware of the issue immediately. You must not act in relation to the matter, without their written direction or approval; and
- (h) report any actual or proposed unlawful activity or behaviour affecting the Barclays Group by you or any other employee, officer, contractor of the Barclays Group or any other person to your manager (or, if they are potentially involved in such unlawful activity or behaviour, to your HR Business Partner or a member of your Compliance team) immediately on becoming aware of it.

5. Salary and allowances

Your salary will be paid on a monthly basis on or around the last working day of each month and is subject to applicable taxes, duties, cesses and other applicable withholdings. All tax liabilities arising out of your entire remuneration package, present or future, shall be borne by you. Your salary and any allowances will accrue on a daily basis and will be paid pro rata if you are employed for part of a month.

Your salary will be reviewed annually without commitment to increase. The Company may deduct from any payments to you any money owed by you to any Barclays Group company in accordance with the applicable laws.

Your acceptance to these terms shall confirm your consent to the Company making payment of your salary, compensation, award, incentive/ bonus etc. by way of credit to bank account with the bank of Company's choice or via such other mode as the Company may deem appropriate.

6. Discretionary incentive award

6.1 You may be eligible to be considered for a discretionary incentive award on an annual basis. The value, form, conditions of delivery and timing of any such awards are at the Company's discretion. This discretion includes the right to make the award in a proportion of the award in a form other than cash, including an award of Shares and to defer an element of an award under the terms of a Barclays Group incentive plan.

6.2 Any discretionary incentive award will only be made if, at that time, you are in employment and are not under notice (whether given or received) nor under suspension or investigation for a regulatory or disciplinary matter.

6.3 If you are subject to any investigation or disciplinary process at the time when communication, payment or making of any payment and/or award would otherwise occur, then the delivery of that payment and/or award will be suspended. If on conclusion of any investigation and/or disciplinary process, you are dismissed for gross misconduct or cause and / or have committed any serious breach of the Risk and / or Compliance requirements of the Barclays Group, then no payment and / or award will be made to you. If no disciplinary action (or disciplinary action short of dismissal) is taken against you, then a payment and / or award may be made to you after the conclusion of that process. However, the amount of any award and / or payment to which you are entitled may be reduced by the Company in its sole discretion. For the avoidance of doubt, any award and / or payment may be reduced to nil in such circumstances.

6.4 Notwithstanding paragraph 6.3, any unpaid or unvested award (or portion of an unpaid or unvested award) may be reduced (to nil if appropriate) at the Company's discretion and to the extent permitted by applicable laws. For the avoidance of doubt, the Company may exercise its discretion including as a result of:

(i) Barclays PLC or any subsidiary's financial statements having been materially restated for the period for which the award was made (other than restatement due to a change in accounting policy or to rectify a minor error); or

(ii) Your actions having, in the reasonable opinion of the Remuneration Committee, following consultation with the Company, deliberately misled the management of the Company, the market and/or Barclays PLC shareholders regarding the financial performance of Barclays PLC or of any subsidiary;

ii. caused harm to the reputation of the Barclays Group;

iii. amounted to misconduct, negligence, incompetence or poor performance ("misconduct", "negligence", "incompetence", and "poor performance" as determined by the Remuneration Committee acting in good faith, following consultation with the Company); or

(c) The Barclays Group or any of its subsidiaries, in the reasonable opinion of the Remuneration Committee, following consultation with the Risk Committee, has suffered a material failure of risk management.

6.5 Should the Company become aware that the amount of any award that has been paid or released to you was calculated on the basis of any false, incorrect or misstated information, then, the Company may, within one year of any such payment or release being made, require that you will repay as a debt to the Company the amount (or any part of the amount) as may be determined in the Company's sole discretion and to the extent permitted by applicable laws. You confirm that in the event a repayment obligation arises the Company is authorised to deduct an appropriate amount from your salary or any other amounts due to you (including in instalments) as it determines in its discretion and to the extent permitted by applicable laws.

- 6.6 A payment of cash and / or a release of Shares or other instruments under an award will be subject to tax and other applicable withholdings, taxes, duties, cesses, deductions and will be subject to the rules of any applicable incentive plan.
- 6.7 Whether you are eligible to receive a discretionary incentive award, and if so, the amount shall be determined at the absolute discretion of the Company. You have no contractual right, whether express or implied, to receive an award at all, or an award of any particular amount, and the making of an award in any year does not give rise to any obligation on the Company to make an award in any future year. For the avoidance of doubt, your employment may be terminated by the Company at any time, for any reason, in accordance with clauses 18 or 19 of this Employment Letter and the exercise of that right to terminate is not limited or fettered by any term (express or implied).
- 6.8 Within Barclays, certain (usually senior) roles are designated as 'Material Risk Taker' ('MRT') roles. Where you are a MRT for any particular year you will be notified of this during or following the end of the relevant year. At any time during the seven year period from the date on which any variable remuneration is awarded to you in respect of a period for which you are a MRT (the 'Relevant Variable Remuneration'), if Barclays determines that:

- (a) your actions or omissions have, in the reasonable opinion of Barclays amounted to misbehaviour or material error, and / or
- (b) Barclays or the relevant business unit has suffered a material failure of risk management
- then, without prejudice to Barclays other remedies, Barclays may require that you repay an amount, not exceeding the value of the Relevant Variable Remuneration. The repayment shall be of such value as may be determined in Barclays discretion acting in good faith, to such Barclays Group Company and on such terms as Barclays may direct.

In respect of paragraph 6.8 (a) above, Barclays shall take into account your proximity to the applicable failure and your level of responsibility before any request for repayment is made. In respect of paragraphs (a) and (b) above, before any request for repayment is made, Barclays shall take into consideration whether you (i) have participated in, or were responsible for, conduct which resulted in significant losses to the Barclays Group or (ii) failed to meet appropriate standards of fitness and propriety.

For the avoidance of doubt, the whole or any part of the Relevant Variable Remuneration can be clawed back if Barclays makes its determination within seven years from the date that the Relevant Variable Remuneration was awarded to you even if an event falling within (a) or (b) above occurred prior to the date of award.

The determination of what constitutes "misbehaviour", "material error", "material failure of risk management", "significant losses" and "appropriate standards of fitness and propriety" shall be determined by Barclays acting in good faith.

You confirm that in the event Barclays makes a repayment determination, you shall repay the amount subject to that determination within the time period specified in the determination. You further confirm and provide authorisation for Barclays to deduct the appropriate repayment amount from your salary or any other amounts due to you, to the full extent permitted under local law, whether from Barclays or any other Barclays Group company.

You acknowledge that, in addition to its rights at clause 16 (Amendments to terms and conditions of employment) the terms of this clause 6.8 may be amended by Barclays to the extent deemed reasonably necessary in order to comply with law, regulations or guidance published by any regulatory authority or other relevant authority from time to time.

This clause shall apply in addition to the general right of repayment set out in clause 6.5 of the Employment Letter.

7. Statutory and Other Benefits

- 7.1 You will be eligible for various statutory benefits as mentioned in the Summary of Key terms and in accordance with the relevant laws.
- 7.2 The Company operates or may operate a benefits programme for its employees and your benefits are/will set out in full in the attached benefits brochure (except the statutory benefits mentioned above, these benefits do not form part of your 'contract' of employment or have any contractual or other legal effect).
- 7.3 The Company has the right at its absolute discretion to amend or withdraw the benefits at any time and without any compensation or notice to you and / or replace any benefit with an alternative at its discretion.
- 7.4 Participation in any benefits scheme is subject to the rules of the relevant schemes, which may vary from time to time, and is subject to you satisfying any applicable requirements of the insurers or third party providers (where relevant). Your participation may be excluded where, in Barclays' opinion, cover can only be obtained on the basis that exceptional conditions or unusually high premiums are imposed or levied by the insurer or provider.

8. Annual Leave

- 8.1 Your annual leave entitlement is set out in the Summary of Key Terms. The Company's annual leave year currently runs from 1 January to the 31 December. The dates of the annual leave year may be changed. You are obliged to take all your annual leave entitlement in the relevant year, unless a policy/handbook applicable to you states otherwise, in which case leave may only be carried over subject to and in accordance with those terms and applicable law. Your annual leave dates must be agreed in advance with your line manager. You will be allowed to carry your unused privileged leaves over to the next annual leave year, subject to the limit and restrictions as may be defined in the company policy and subject to the applicable laws. There is no provision of encashment of unused leave (including in case of termination of employment), except where such encashment is mandated by law applicable at the place of your employment at the relevant time.
- 8.2 If your employment begins during an annual leave year, your annual leave entitlement (plus any Bank or Public Holidays which fall during this period), will be calculated pro rata. During the probationary period you may only take such annual leave as has accrued in your favour up until the time of taking such leave. Any unused leave at the time of cessation of employment shall lapse and any payment to be made in lieu of the unutilised leave shall be at the sole discretion of Barclays unless mandated by the applicable law. If you have taken more leave than your accrued entitlement, you shall be required to repay to the Company an amount equivalent to any holiday taken in excess of your pro rata holiday entitlement, and the Company is authorised to deduct the appropriate amount from your final salary instalment or any other sum owed by the Company to you at the Termination Date.
- 8.3 In accordance with regulatory guidelines and the Company's policies, the Company may require you to go on a mandatory block leave.

9. Intellectual Property

- 9.1 For the purposes of this paragraph:

"Intellectual Property Rights" means (i) copyright and related rights, patents, know-how, confidential information, database rights, inventions and rights in trademarks and designs (whether registered or unregistered), (ii) applications for registration, and the right to apply for registration, for any of the same, and (iii) all other intellectual property rights and equivalents or similar forms of protection existing anywhere in the world.

"Invention" means any invention, idea, discovery, development, improvement or innovation made, whether or not patentable, or capable of registration, and whether or not recorded in any medium; and

"Works" means all documents, materials, software, photographic or graphic works of any type, and other materials in any medium or format which are created or developed, or are in the process of being created or developed, or used (whether in final form or otherwise) by you or on your behalf or by the Company in the course of your employment with the Company or for the benefit of the Company and which are protected by, contain or relate to any intellectual property rights.

- 9.2 You will promptly disclose and deliver up to the Company all and any Works conceived, or made by you during and in the course of your employment (whether conceived, or made during normal working hours, in your normal place of work, or in conjunction with others, or otherwise). You confirm that you will provide the Company with all originals and copies of all correspondence, documents and other materials as whatever may be required or form relating to or concerning the Works and the intellectual property rights they contain.
- 9.3 You confirm that you will only use the Works to perform your obligations under Employment Letter and that you will not make permanent copies of any Works other than for the purposes of your employment with the Company.
- 9.4 It is understood that all intellectual property rights created by you in the course of your employment shall be "works for hire". You acknowledge that you have, and will have at all times while you are employed by the Company, a special obligation to further the interests of the undertakings of the Company, and that all Works and intellectual property rights in the Works will automatically, on creation, belong to and vest in the Company absolutely to the fullest extent provided by law.
- 9.5 To the extent that the Works and intellectual property rights do not vest in the Company or the Barclays Group automatically, you will hold such Works and intellectual property rights on trust for the benefit of the Company until the Works and intellectual property rights vest absolutely in the Company.
- 9.6 You confirm that you will immediately, upon request and at the Company's expense, provide all such documents and assistance as may be necessary to vest the Works and intellectual property rights in the Works in the Company, to enable the Company to enjoy the full benefit of the Intellectual Property Rights, and to enable the Company to enforce its Intellectual Property Rights against third parties or defend claims brought against the Company in relation to any Intellectual Property Rights.

- 9.7 By signing Employment Letter you accept and confirm to assign to the Company or a member of the Barclays Group (as specified by the Company) all current and future Intellectual Property Rights in the Works and any other proprietary rights capable of assignment by way of present assignment of future rights for the full term of such rights. You confirm that such assignment shall be perpetual, worldwide and royalty free. You also confirm that notwithstanding the provisions of Section 19(4) of the Copyright Act, 1957, such assignment in so far as it relates to copyrightable material shall not lapse nor the rights transferred thereon revert to the Employee, even if the Company does not exercise the rights under the assignment within a period of one year from the date of assignment. You acknowledge and confirm that you shall waive any right to and shall not raise any objection or claim to the Copyright Board with respect to the assignment, pursuant to Section 19A of the Copyright Act, 1957.
- 9.8 You unconditionally and irrevocably waive your moral rights in relation to existing and future Works, including your right to be identified as the author of the Works and not to have the Works subject to derogatory treatment. You acknowledge that, except as may be expressly provided by law, no further remuneration or compensation other than that provided for under Employment Letter is or may become due to you.
- 9.9 When this Employment Letter expires or terminates, for whatever reason, you will immediately deliver up to the Company all Works in your possession or under your control, and under no circumstances may any Works be retained by you except with the prior written consent of the Company.
- 9.10 Without prejudice to any specific legal rights which you may otherwise have, you acknowledge that no further remuneration or compensation other than that expressly provided for in this Employment Letter will become due to you in respect of your compliance with this Section 9.

10. Confidentiality

- 10.1 During your employment with the Company or at any time afterwards, you must not disclose to any person or make use of any Confidential Information or trade secrets that you have obtained in the course of your employment. This includes information that you have acquired in the course of your employment concerning the business or affairs of the Company and/or any other Barclays Group company or our customers or clients. You are required to use your best efforts to prevent the unauthorised publication or disclosure of any such Confidential information. Exceptions to this are the use of information for the proper performance of your duties under this Employment Letter, where the Company has given written consent or disclosure is required by law, where the information is already in or comes into the public domain (other than by your unauthorised disclosure).
- 10.2 During your employment or at any time afterwards, you must not make any copy or record (whether recorded in writing, on computer disc, electronically or otherwise) of any Confidential information, unless this is required for the proper performance of your duties under this Employment Letter. Any such information belongs to the Barclays Group and must be returned by you either at any time during the course of your employment on the request of the Company and immediately on termination of your employment.
- 10.3 For the purposes of this Employment Letter, "Confidential Information" means information concerning the business, affairs, finance, clients or trade connections of the Company, any member of the Barclays Group, or any of its customers, clients, suppliers or agents. This includes but is not limited to:
- (a) commercially sensitive information or trade secrets;
 - (b) corporate and marketing strategy, business development plans, sales reports and research results;
 - (c) business methods and processes, technical information and know-how relating to the Barclays Group's business and which is not available to the public generally, including inventions, designs, programmes, techniques, database systems, formulae and ideas;
 - (d) business contacts, lists or details of clients and suppliers and details of contacts with them, their business or affairs, including client names and client contact details, financial and personal affairs, and trading history and methodology;
 - (e) information on employees and the terms and conditions of their employment, details of employee benefits, incentive schemes/plans, salary scales and/or current or anticipated union/employee disputes;

(f) information or details of any actual, potential or threatened litigation, legal action, claim, dispute or arbitration against or with any member of the Barclays Group or any current or former director, officer or employee of the Barclays Group in such capacity and any information in respect of provisions for any such action;

(g) budgets, management accounts, trading statements and other financial reports;

(h) unpublished price sensitive information relating to shares or securities listed or dealt in on any recognised stock exchange; and

(i) any other information which any member of the Barclays Group or any of its employees or consultants has identified (orally, in writing, or by its or their actions) as being secret or confidential in nature or which would reasonably be considered as confidential.

10.4 You shall not solicit business for the Company from any clients belonging to your previous employer's in breach of your terms of employment with your previous employer. You shall not use any confidential information that came to your knowledge in the course of your previous employment while working with the Company. You undertake to indemnify the Company against any action that the Company may face on account of your actions in breach of your obligations to your previous employer(s).

11. Regulatory compliance and dealing codes

11.1 The nature of the Barclays Group's business is such that it is authorised and regulated by the appropriate Regulator.

11.2 It is your responsibility to know, understand and comply with all legal, regulatory and governance obligations, including the provisions of the Regulatory and Compliance policies that are relevant to you. If you are in any doubt as to your responsibilities in this regard or the rules which apply to you, you must contact the Compliance team within your business area.

11.3 If you are a Regulator approved person (or any equivalent status with any other regulator) you must comply with the Regulator's Statement of Principles and Code of Practice for Approved Persons (or meet the applicable standards). Failure to meet these Principles / Standards and / or to comply with this Code of Practice (or other applicable standards) may result in investigation by the regulator, applicable regulator and/or the Company, and / or disciplinary action being taken against you by the Company which may result in the termination of your employment.

11.4 You confirm that you will be bound by and will comply with the Barclays Group Share Dealing Code and with any more stringent dealing rules applicable to you or the area of the business in which you work. In particular, you agree not to make any investment, directly or indirectly, in any company or business which is a customer or client of the Barclays Group and which may in the reasonable opinion of the Company be expected to cause your personal or family interests to conflict with your duty to the Company in any respect.

11.5 Any incentives or compensation payable to you by any member of the Company or Group Company (under this Employment Letter or otherwise, including any guaranteed amounts and including, where applicable, the payment and settlement schedule and split of cash and Shares as set out in this Employment Letter) are subject to limitation or modification to the extent reasonably deemed necessary by the Company including in order to remain consistent with Barclays remuneration policy (as amended from time to time) or to comply with laws and regulations, including any regulations or guidance published by the Regulator from time to time.

12. Expenses

There may be occasions when you incur business expenses for instance, travelling to a training course or visiting another business location for a meeting. Any expenses must be pre-approved and claimed promptly and will be reimbursed to you in line with our procedures, a copy of which can be found on your intranet.

The Company at its sole discretion may bear certain expenses on your training, learning and developmental needs, subject to your acceptance of the terms and obligations as would be mentioned in the agreement ("Training Agreement") that may be executed with you.

As a consideration to the training expenses to be incurred by the Company, you may be asked to work with the Company for a certain period of time, post completion of the said trainings/programmes/courses, as the case may be and/or to compensate the Company by paying an agreed sum as liquidated damages. Your specific obligations will form part of the Training Agreement to be executed with you. For the execution of the Training Agreement, you will be asked to get a surety to undertake your obligations under the terms of the Training Agreement.

Unless otherwise agreed in the Training Agreement, any breach of the terms of the said Training Agreement, will be considered as the breach of the terms of this Letter.

13. Attendance at work

- 13.1 Your Summary of Key Terms will provide you with details of the particular working pattern that applies to you, and any specific arrangements that may apply regarding changes to this pattern. If you work full time, or for 8 hours or more on a given day, your normal working hours would additionally include up to a daily one hour break.
- 13.2 From time to time, the Company may need to vary your hours, days and times of work if this is necessary to accommodate the needs of the business or the absence of your colleagues. Should the Company need to vary your working hours, you will be given reasonable notice of any such changes.

14. Sickness Leave

- 14.1 If you are unable to work through ill health or injury you will be entitled to sick leave in accordance with the policy on Leave and Holidays, which can be found in the Company's Intranet. The Company reserves the right to only approve sick leave of more than two consecutive workdays if certified by a medical practitioner of the Company's choice, and you hereby confirm that you co-operate with such an examination and to authorise the full disclosure of any resulting report to Barclays.
- 14.2 The payment of salary and any allowances during periods of sickness will be subject to as prescribed under the applicable laws and you following the requirements regarding notification and certification of absence as set out in this Employment Letter, on your intranet and the Company being satisfied that you are unable to work due to illness or injury.

15. Other absences from work

Approval should be obtained in advance from your line manager for absence during working hours. If unexpected circumstances mean that this is not possible, you should inform your line manager as soon as possible. Absence without approval and / or explanation will be dealt with under the disciplinary procedure which could result in disciplinary action being taken against you by the Company and which may result in the termination of your employment.

16. Amendments to terms and conditions of employment

- 16.1 The Company reserves the right to review, revise, amend, replace or withdraw the contents of these Terms and introduce new policies, practices, guidelines and procedures from time to time to reflect the changing needs of the business or any changes in legislation or regulation from time to time.
- 16.2 For the avoidance of doubt, where the Company retains a discretion under these Terms (including but not limited to the discretion to make incentive award(s) to you, any matters considered in the decision whether to make such an award and the value, form, conditions and timing of delivery of any such award(s)) such discretion cannot be limited or fettered in any way other than by consent between you and the Company which is documented formally in writing on the Company's headed paper by an authorised member of the Human Resources Department.

17. Allocation of duties and transfer within the Barclays Group

You confirm that the Company will be entitled at any time and with prior notice (where required by applicable law) to: (i) assign you to carry out such projects and/or duties commensurate with your abilities as it will in its absolute discretion determine; and/or (ii) assign you on a temporary or permanent basis to undertake additional duties and/or different duties commensurate with your abilities within any part or parts of the Barclays Group as it will in its absolute discretion determine; and/or (iii) second you on a temporary or permanent basis to work for any company in the Barclays Group or to a third party and/or (iv) transfer your employment and its rights and obligations to another company in the Barclays Group.

18. Leaving Barclays

- 18.1 Subject to paragraph 2 of these Detailed Terms and Conditions the Company and you may each terminate this Employment Letter in accordance with the "Notice" paragraph set out in your Summary of Key Terms. In addition:

- (a) either you or the Company may terminate your employment by giving one month's written notice (or, if greater, the minimum notice according to local applicable law) during any probationary period that may apply to you as set out in your Summary of Key Terms;
- (b) your employment shall be conditional on your ability to start work on the agreed Start Date. If you fail to do so, you will have no entitlement to receive any payment or benefit whatever from the Company or the Barclays Group;

(c) your employment may also be terminated by the Company without notice or pay in lieu of notice if you commit an act of gross misconduct (as may be defined under applicable Company policy from time to time which may include failure to comply with any policies and/or procedures including those referred to in the Detailed Terms and Conditions, lack of competence, serious breach of the Terms including improper or unethical behaviour).

(d) Your contractual and normal retirement age is 60 years. On the day you attain that age, your employment shall end automatically without any need for either party to serve written notice; and

(e) the Company may (without notice, pay in lieu of notice or incurring any obligation to pay compensation) immediately terminate your employment if you:

- i. are convicted of any criminal offence (other than a minor offence which, in the opinion of the Company, does not affect your position as an employee of the Company); or
- ii. are guilty of any act of dishonesty or gross or serious misconduct or any conduct which brings or is intended to bring any member of the Barclays Group or yourself into disrepute or may damage the business or affairs of the Barclays Group; or
- iii. have been found by the Company to have materially or repeatedly breached or have not complied with the terms of this Employment Letter (or otherwise fail or refuse to carry out the duties assigned to you); or
- iv. have breached or otherwise failed the Barclays Group sanctions screening policy or process; or
- v. cease to hold or fail to obtain any regulatory approvals or consents which are required for the effective discharge by you of any duties assigned to you under this Employment Letter; or
- vi. materially breach the rules of the Regulator; or
- vii. breach any Barclays Group rules on anti-bribery or anti-corruption;
- viii. don't obtain or maintain the accreditation(s) or qualifications that you are required to have (in the Company's opinion, or according to relevant regulators or professional bodies) to be able to work in your job profile
- ix. be repeatedly absent without leave or absent without leave for a period exceeding 14 days.

This sub-paragraph is not exhaustive and does not restrict any other right which the Company may have (whether at common law or otherwise) to terminate your employment summarily.

18.2 You shall be liable to pay the Damages to the Company, in case you fail to serve the requisite notice as mentioned in the Summary of Key Terms. These Damages shall be in addition to the payment of salary in lieu of notice period. In respect of the Damages, the Company reserves the right to set-off against/ write off an amount payable/ withdraw from the salary and/or any allowances. Further, you shall not be relieved from your contractual notice period, unless expressly relieved in writing.

18.3 The termination of your employment will not affect any terms of this Employment Letter which are intended to operate after the termination date, including the paragraphs relating to Intellectual Property, Confidentiality and Post Termination Restrictions.

18.4 On termination of your employment, irrespective of the reason, or at any other time when asked by the Company, you will:

- (a) immediately return to the Company all vehicles, equipment and documents, whether electronic or otherwise, and any other property (of any kind) (security pass, business cards, etc) relating to the business of or belonging to the Barclays Group, together with all copies of any such documents that you have in your possession or under your control;
- (b) irretrievably delete any information relating to the business of the Company or the Barclays Group stored on any computer or storage device and all information derived from the same in your possession or control and held outside of any Barclays Group premises;
- (c) resign with immediate effect from any offices or appointments you hold within or connected to the Barclays Group; and
- (d) confirm in writing that you have complied fully with the terms of this paragraph and provide evidence of compliance as the Company may request.

19. Payment in lieu of notice

- 19.1 The Company reserves the right in its sole and absolute discretion to terminate your employment and your terms with immediate effect (whether or not notice has been given by either party) by giving notice in writing to you of its intention to make a payment in lieu of notice and, if it does so, the Company shall make you a payment in lieu of notice, equal to the salary which you would have been entitled to receive if you had worked during your Notice Period or, if your Notice Period has started, the unexpired portion (the "Payment in Lieu"). Where the Company elects to make a Payment in Lieu of some or all of your Notice Period, your employment shall terminate on the date specified by the Company, regardless of when the Payment in Lieu is paid.
- 19.2 Any Payment in Lieu will be paid less tax and any applicable withholdings. You will not be entitled to receive any payment in respect of holiday entitlement that would have accrued during the period for which the Payment in Lieu is made.
- 19.3 Any Payment in Lieu may be paid by the Company in accordance with the Company policies and subject to the applicable laws. Any Payment in Lieu may at the Company's discretion be paid as a lump sum within one month of the Termination Date or in equal monthly instalments from the date on which notice is served until what would have been the end of the Notice Period provided always that if after exercising its discretion to make a Payment in Lieu the Company becomes aware of any grounds that would permit it to summarily terminate your employment any payments due under this clause 19.3 will cease to be payable and the net value of any Payment in Lieu that has been received by you shall be repaid as a debt to the Company within 30 days of the Company notifying you of this repayment obligation.

20. Gender leave and suspension

- 20.1 The Company may suspend you at any time from the performance of all or any of your duties:
- (a) for the whole or any part of any applicable Notice Period; or
 - (b) for such periods and on such terms as is necessary to allow any investigation to take place (including, but not limited to an investigation by a regulatory authority or an investigation under the Company's disciplinary procedure).
- 20.2 During any period of suspension, the Company will be under no obligation to provide work for or assign any duties to you and may require you not to attend any premises of any member of the Barclays Group (other than as a customer) and may require you to:
- (a) not speak to, contact or otherwise communicate with or engage with any director, consultant, agent, contractor or employee of any member of the Barclays Group other than to carry out your personal banking, or any person, firm or company who, at the date of such suspension or exclusion is a client or customer of any member of the Barclays Group unless they are members of your immediate family;
 - (b) at any time to carry out such special projects or duties commensurate with your abilities as the Company shall in its absolute discretion determine;
 - (c) meet with representatives from the Company in order to facilitate a handover of work and provide assistance with ongoing business activity; and
 - (d) take any holiday which you have accrued.
- 20.3 During any period of suspension:
- (a) your employment with the Company and this Employment Letter will continue and you will continue to be bound by your obligations under it (except as expressly set out in this paragraph) including, but not limited to, your obligations of confidentiality, good faith and fidelity to the Company; and
 - (b) you shall continue to receive your basic salary and all contractual benefits in the usual way.

21. Post termination restrictions

- 21.1 You confirm to the Company (for itself and as trustee and agent for each member of the Barclays Group) that you will not, whether directly or indirectly, on your own behalf or on behalf of or in conjunction with any other person, firm, company or other entity:

(a) for a period of 6 months (if you are an MD, Director, or VP or equivalent grade) or 3 months (if you are an AVP or below or equivalent grade) from the Termination Date approach, solicit or deal with any person, firm, company or other entity who is or was a customer, client or supplier of the Company or the Barclays Group and with whom you had material dealings in the course of your employment with the Company or in respect of whom you were aware of material and confidential information in both cases within the 12 month period immediately prior to the Termination Date. Nothing in this paragraph will prohibit you from seeking or doing business which is not in direct or indirect competition with the business of the Barclays Group; and

(b) for a period of 6 months (if you are an MD, Director, or VP or equivalent grade) or 3 months (if you are an AVP or below or equivalent grade) from the Termination Date solicit or entice away or attempt to solicit or entice away or employ or engage any director, officer or employee of executive status in the Barclays Group with whom you had material dealings within the 12 months period immediately prior to the Termination Date. For the purposes of this paragraph "employee of executive status" will include without limitation any employee of the Barclays Group with a corporate grading Managing Director, Director, Vice President (or equivalent grades, or anything which replaces these grades) and any employees of the Barclays Group with a lower corporate grading where in the 12 months prior to the Termination Date, you have had line manager responsibilities in relation to that employee or they have had line manager responsibilities or have been engaged in work or projects which in the Company's reasonable opinion are key to its business and / or mean that they are in possession of material and confidential information relating to the Barclays Group.

21.2 Each of the restrictions contained in this paragraph are considered by the parties to be reasonable in all the circumstances as at the date of this Employment Letter. However, the parties acknowledge that if any one or more of such restrictions will be judged to be void as going beyond what is reasonable in all the circumstances for the protection of the interests of the Barclays Group, but would be enforceable if words were deleted or one or more of the duration, range of activities and area covered were reduced in scope, the restrictions will be deemed to apply with such modifications as may be necessary to make them valid and effective. Any such modification will not affect the validity of any other restriction contained in this Employment Letter and it is confirmed that each restriction in this paragraph will be construed as separate and individual restrictions.

21.3 You confirm that if, during either your employment with the Company or the period of the restrictions set out in this paragraph you receive an offer of employment or engagement, you will provide a copy of these restrictions to the offeror as soon as reasonably practicable after receiving the offer.

22. Further terms:

22.1 No omission to exercise or delay in exercising any right, power or remedy of the Company under this Employment Letter will constitute a waiver of that right, power or remedy.

22.2 During your employment:

(a) the Company may at its discretion require that you undergo screening, including for criminal record, sanctions list and/or credit reference checks from time to time. It is anticipated that any such screening would only be undertaken if required for regulatory purposes or in order to comply with the minimum standards for the role you are undertaking; and

(b) you should advise the Company should any of the circumstances as set out in paragraph 18.1(e) of this Employment Letter arise or be brought against you.

22.3 You acknowledge that in entering into these Terms you have not relied on any representation or undertaking by the Company whether oral or in writing, except as expressly incorporated into this Employment Letter.

22.4 You consent to the Company monitoring your use of all Company resources and its communication and electronic equipment (including without limitation the telephone, Internet, Blackberry, software applications and email systems) and information stored on the Company's computer equipment, as described in your local acceptable use policy in accordance with the Barclays Group procedure and / or guidance on electronic communications. A copy of the policy that applies to you can be found on your intranet.

22.5 You understand that you may, during your employment, be granted awards under the terms of one or more of the Company's long term incentive plans or any incentive or bonus plan operated by the Barclays Group. If, on termination of your employment, you lose any of the rights or benefits under any such plans you will not be entitled, by way of compensation for loss of office or otherwise, to any compensation for the loss of any rights under any such plans.

22.6 If your employment is terminated at any time by reason of any reconstruction or amalgamation of the Company or any Barclays Group company, whether by wings, merger, takeover, and you are offered employment with any concern or undertaking involved in or resulting from the reconstruction or amalgamation on terms which (considered in their entirety) are no less favourable to any material extent than the terms of this Employment Letter, you shall have no claim against the Company or any such undertaking arising out of or connected with the termination.

23. Certifications

23.1 You confirm and certify that:

- (a) you are not precluded or restricted by any term of any agreement, undertaking or court order or any obligation to any third party from entering into this Employment Letter or undertaking or properly performing any of the duties of your employment with the Company;
- (b) you will notify the Company of any change in circumstances around the termination of your employment with your previous employer between the date of this Employment Letter and the Start Date;
- (c) you are not currently, and have never been, the subject of an investigation by any company or body into suspected bribery or corruption activity where either: (i) the investigation was concluded and your conduct found to amount to misconduct; or (ii) where the investigation was on-going and did not reach a conclusion because your employment (or engagement) with that company or body was terminated during the investigation (whether by mutual consent or by voluntary termination or otherwise);
- (d) you are not currently, and have never been, the subject of an investigation into suspected criminal activity involving elements of dishonesty (including theft or fraud) or anti-competitive behaviour; and
- (e) you will not during your employment at the Company breach any third party's rights in respect of confidential information and/or intellectual property.

23.2 Any breach of these certifications will entitle Barclays to immediately terminate your employment.

24. Governing law

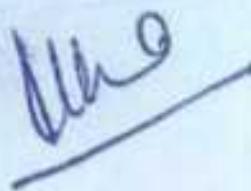

Your Terms are governed in accordance with the laws of the state of your normal place of work, or Mumbai if you work in Corporate Banking, Investment Banking or Wealth and Investment Management. The parties irrevocably submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the competent courts of the state of your normal place of work, or Mumbai if you work in Corporate Banking, Investment Banking or Wealth and Investment Management in relation to any legal action or proceedings that arise out of or in connection with this Employment Letter.

25. Key policies, procedures and practices

25.1 During your employment with the Company (and where applicable after your employment has terminated) you must comply with all of the Company's policies and procedures and any legal and/or statutory and/or regulatory obligations, including (but not limited to) Barclays Group policies and procedures on, and any other obligations relating to, anti-bribery and corruption. Failure to do so may result in disciplinary action being taken against you.

25.2 You should familiarise yourself with all policies and procedures that apply to your grade and business area as set out on your intranet. The Code of Conduct and the policies, guidelines and procedures on the following issues are particularly important (although this is not intended as a comprehensive list).

- Any applicable Employee Handbook
- Anti Bribery and Corruption
- Regulator's Business Principles
- Disclosure obligations
- Data protection, confidential information and Chinese walls
- Equality and Diversity
- Managing people, including on various types of leave and our disciplinary and grievance policies

- Electronic and other forms of communication
- Personal account and share dealing
- Conflicts of interest and outside business interests and affiliations
- Market conduct
- Gifts and Entertainment
- Health and Safety

- Whistleblowing or Raising Concerns
- Substance Abuse

25.3 Unless otherwise stated, these policies, guidelines and procedures do not form part of this Employment Letter.

25.4 The disciplinary and grievance rules and procedures which are applicable to your employment are set out on your intranet. These rules and procedures do not form part of this Employment Letter. If you wish to appeal against a disciplinary decision you should apply in writing to your line manager or HR contact in accordance with the Company's disciplinary procedure. If you wish to raise a grievance please apply in writing to your line manager or HR contact in accordance with the Company's grievance procedure.

LETTER OF APPOINTMENT

Dear Omkar,

We are delighted to welcome you to Axis Bank for an exciting career of learning, development and value driven growth. We take pleasure in offering you the position of Deputy Manager in Business Intelligence Unit.

The said offer shall be governed by the under mentioned terms and conditions apart from other policies and conditions that are applicable or may become applicable from time to time.

Terms of Employment

1. Compensation

- 1.1 The annual compensation payable to you will be INR 7,22,633 subject to tax deductions at source, as applicable by law. A detailed break up of this amount and other benefits is provided as an Annexure to this letter.
- 1.2 It is clarified that Axis Bank reserves the right to deduct all permissible taxes as per applicable laws from your compensation. Further, you hereby authorize Axis Bank to deduct any amounts from your compensation, which are owed by you to the Bank, including any overpayments, loans or advances outstanding at your end.

2. Code of Conduct & Ethics

- 2.1 As an employee of the Bank, you will be guided by the Code of Conduct & Ethics and rules and regulations of the Bank in force and as amended from time to time.
- 2.2 If any declaration, statement or information including your qualification, experience and/or any other details, as given by you at any time, is found to be false or untrue, if any material information is suppressed or if it comes to the notice of the Bank that you had been, prior to joining the Bank's services, convicted of any act involving moral turpitude and/or criminal in nature, your services will be liable to be terminated forthwith without any notice or compensation in lieu thereof at any time during or even after completion of the probation period. However, this does not preclude the Bank from initiating such disciplinary measures, as the Bank shall deem fit and any penalty may be imposed upon you in terms of the applicable company policies.
- 2.3 You shall undertake to read and remain in compliance with the Bank's internal policies and procedures (as implemented from time to time) throughout the term of your employment.

3. Whole-time / Alternative Employment

- 3.1 Your position is a whole time employment with the Bank and you shall not take any other work for remuneration (part-time or otherwise) or work in advisory capacity or be interested directly or indirectly except as shareholder or debenture holder in other trade or business during the employment with the Bank. You shall not be involved directly or indirectly with any business / trade / occupation / service / calling or perform any part-time or other work for remuneration or otherwise without obtaining prior written permission from Axis Bank.
- 3.2 During the employment in the services of the Bank, you shall not hold any other position in any organization nor shall you get employed directly or indirectly in any manner whatsoever nor shall act as an advisor to any organization, the exception being social organizations like clubs, NGOs etc. having no political affiliation and no monetary gains. However the Bank reserves the right to direct you to step down if, in the opinion of the Bank, such engagement interferes with your duties.

4. Fidelity & Secrecy

- 4.1 You shall not at any time during your employment and/or after the termination of your employment in any manner whatsoever divulge any confidential information relating to the Bank, any of its constituents or its employees without the prior written consent from the Management. In such an event, the Bank reserves the right to proceed against you.

5. Probation Period

- 5.1 The nature of your employment is Permanent, however you will be on probation for a period of 6 (six) months from the date of your joining. This period may be extended upto a maximum of 6 months in two tranches of 3 months each, if further assessment and observations are considered necessary on the sole discretion of the Management. Thereafter, on failure to be confirmed in the service of the Bank, your employment shall be terminated on account of non-confirmation of service.
- 5.2 On satisfactory completion of probation you will be confirmed in the services of the Bank.
- 5.3 Your probation can be extended not only by virtue of your non satisfactory performance but also by virtue of your non completion of the joining formalities.
- 5.4 Notwithstanding what is stated above, the bank reserves the right to confirm you in the services of the bank even during the extended period, provided, the extension of probation was solely due to non-completion of the joining formalities and such formalities are completed within the said period.

6. Mandatory Induction Certification

- 6.1 Induction Certification is a mandatory requirement for Confirmation - post completion of probation period.
- 6.2 100% attendance and 100% assessment clearance is required to be Induction Certified.
- 6.3 Non-adherence to Induction certification may lead to the following:
 - 6.3.1 You will not be able to join your team till you are Induction Certified.
 - 6.3.2 Not attending induction session on a particular day will result in loss of pay.
 - 6.3.3 Not meeting the attendance and assessment criteria within the stipulated time period would result in termination of services.

7. Transfer

- 7.1 Your services are liable to be transferred to any of the offices of the Bank within India and / or abroad at the sole discretion of the Bank and the Bank reserve the right to depute / transfer you at any time during your service in the Bank, to any of its subsidiaries or associates without any prior consent from you.
- 7.2 Notwithstanding the role assigned to you in terms of this letter, the Bank reserves the right to assign you any other role/function commensurate with your grade as may be deemed appropriate, depending on administrative exigencies and requirements.
- 7.3 Your services can be requisitioned by the Bank at any time outside the business / working hours.

8. Separation/ Retirement

8.1 Separation during probation

- 8.1.1 On account of Resignation: During the period of probation, you may resign from the Bank's service, subject to acceptance by your supervisor, for which you will be required to mandatorily serve a notice period of 30 days. However, waiver of the notice period (if any), will be at discretion of the Bank. In such an event, the gross salary equivalent of the notice period shortfall (if any) will be recovered from employee.
- 8.1.2 On account of Termination: During the probation period, this contract of employment is terminable by the Bank by way of giving notice of 15 days or on payment of salary in lieu thereof without assigning any reasons.

8.2 Separation after Confirmation:

- 8.2.1 On account of Resignation: After confirmation, you may resign from the Bank's service, subject to acceptance of your resignation by your supervisor, for which you will be required to mandatorily serve a notice period of 90 days. However, waiver of the notice period (if any), will be at discretion of the Bank. In such an event, the gross salary equivalent of the notice period shortfall (if any) will be recovered from employee.
- 8.2.2 On account of Termination: Notwithstanding what is provided in the company policies and the above paragraphs, your services, after confirmation, may be terminated by the Bank by giving 30 days' notice or payment of 30 days' salary in lieu thereof without assigning any reasons.

8.3 Separation arrangement

- 8.3.1 Voluntary resignation should be initiated on the exit management portal of the Bank. Upon receipt of your resignation, the acceptance of the same shall be at Bank's discretion.

8.3.2 Upon acceptance of your resignation and before your proposed relieving date, you will have to return all Bank's property / assets entrusted to you and in your possession, to the Bank. Before you are relieved, all correspondence, specifications, formulae, books, tablets, documents, cost data, market data, literature, drawings, effects etc. should be returned and you shall not make or retain any copies of these items.

8.3.3 On separation, you are required to submit your claim for settlement of Provident Fund in the prescribed form.

8.3.4 It is expected that you will continue to dispense your duties and responsibilities during the notice period. You are also required to display model behavior and adhere to the timings as prescribed by the Bank. Any lapse or non-performance may lead to disciplinary action and result in non-issuance of the relieving letter.

8.4 Retirement

8.4.1 The retirement age in the Bank is fixed as 60 years. You will accordingly stand relieved from the services of the Bank on the last day of the month of your attaining this age based on the Age Certificate furnished by you at the time of joining.

9. Reimbursement of Notice Period Pay

In certain cases of business criticality, the Bank, at its discretion and post approval from the Head - Human Resources, may reimburse any shortfall in notice period pay to your current employer. In such a case, the following terms and conditions shall apply:-

- 9.1 Upon joining, you are required to submit a certificate/ letter from your present employer stating the number of days of shortfall in notice period and the amount recovered from you basis which we shall process your request for reimbursement. This reimbursement shall be taxable and will be added to your Annual Taxable Income for the relevant Financial Year.
- 9.2. You are required to continue in Bank's employment for a minimum period of three years, from your date of joining, failing which amount so reimbursed shall be recovered from you along with interest at the Bank Base Rate prevailing on your last working day and any applicable taxes.

10. Conditions precedent /Joining formalities:

Your appointment and subsequent joining is subject to the following:

- 10.1 Submission of self-declaration of medical fitness provided on our onboarding portal.
- 10.2 The Bank receiving a satisfactory Background Verification report. For this purpose, you will be contacted by an authorized agency empanelled by the Bank.
- 10.3 Submission of all necessary documents:

10.3.1 Self-attested copies of all your degrees, professional qualifications certificates and documentary evidence of scholarships or prizes won, if any.

10.3.2 Proof of date of birth

10.3.3 Copy of Pan Card and Address Proof

10.3.4 One recent passport size color photograph

10.3.5 Copy of acceptance of resignation letter and relieving letter from your previous employer

10.4 It is brought to your notice that you need to complete your conditions precedent and / or joining formalities within 1 month from the date of joining, failing which your salary after 1st month shall not be released till the completion of joining formalities and the said salary shall be kept in the Bank's Sundry Account.

The Bank reserves the right to vary the terms and conditions of service governing your appointment as contained in this letter including your duties and responsibilities at any time.

Notwithstanding anything contained in the above paragraphs, your services may be terminated by the Bank if you are found to be indulging in the acts of Commission / Omission which may be prejudicial to the interests of the Bank or any act of dishonesty, disobedience, insubordination or any other misconduct or neglect of duty or incompetence in the discharge of duty on your part.

The terms and conditions set out in this letter of appointment inter alia constitute service conditions applicable to your employment in the Bank. Any dispute arising thereof are subject to Mumbai jurisdiction only and the Mumbai Courts will have exclusive jurisdiction.

The above terms and conditions are to be read in conjunction with the company policies accessible through the Bank's intranet. These shall be made available to you, post joining.

Kindly note that Axis Bank does not charge any money/deposit for giving employment offers/conducting employment interview, to anyone seeking a job at the bank, nor does it appoint any agent/agency/individuals to make or issue offers of employment/benefits on its behalf.

Employment Agreement

Dear Divya,

We are pleased to offer you employment on the terms and conditions set out below. Your employment will be with Deutsche India Pvt. Ltd (the "Company"). Deutsche India Pvt. Ltd is a company within the Deutsche Bank AG Group of Companies ("Group").

1. General Information

These terms and conditions outlined in this employment letter ("Agreement") as amended from time to time, together with the Company's "General Terms and Conditions of Service" as laid out in Schedule 1 of this Employment Agreement and as laid out in the Company's India Employee Handbook ("the Handbook"), the Deutsche Bank Group's Code of Conduct and all applicable regulations and policies of the Company, form the basis of your employment.

You are also expected to comply with all other applicable Company's regulations and policies (such as the Company's India Employee Handbook and the Code of Business Conduct and Ethics), and any other policies or procedures specific to your business or infrastructure unit. These policies and requirements are considered by the Company to be reasonable and lawful directions that you are required to comply with under the terms of your employment with the Company. You should therefore familiarize yourself with, and abide by, all applicable Company regulations and policies.

If there are any inconsistencies between the terms of this Employment Agreement and the provisions of the Handbook as at the date of your acceptance of this Employment Agreement, the terms of this Employment Agreement shall prevail. However, please note that any subsequent variations by the Company to any terms, conditions, rules or regulations (including the terms set out in the Handbook) generally governing the members of the Company's staff will prevail and be applicable to you.

2. Position

Your corporate title will be Analyst.

Your functional title will be Graduate Analyst.

Your local grade as per the internal grading system will be Grade 6.

During your employment, you may be required to perform work for other companies within the Group.

3. Employment Location

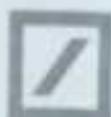

Your employment will initially be based at Pune, although you may be required to perform your duties at other locations from time to time and to travel on Company's business when the need arises, including overseas.

4. Hours of Work

You will be required to work nine (9) hours per day Monday through Friday including a one (1) hour break for lunch. Further, depending on the workload and business requirements, at any given time, you may be required to work in shifts and/or during weekends. You may also be expected to travel to other locations at times outside of your official hours of work. More details are available in the employee handbook.

5. Remuneration

Details of your remuneration and other benefits are provided in Schedule II.

Your salary will be paid in equal installments on a monthly basis directly into your company account. If you join the Company partway through a calendar year, your fixed pay will be pro-rated to reflect the portion of the year that you have started working for the Company.

Any payment of your salary or other sum due to you from the Company will be subject to any and all applicable withholding and/or other taxes payable and the Company will in such case be entitled to deduct or retain the amount of such tax from any sum payable to you. You will be solely responsible to pay all taxes and any other imposts as may be levied or assessed by any competent authority in any jurisdiction on any sums paid and/or other benefits provided to you by the Company.

You agree that the Company may deduct from your remuneration any sums due from you to the Company including, without limitation, your pension contributions (if any) and any overpayments, loans or advances (if applicable) made to you by the Company or any other company in the Group.

6. Notice Period

Corporate Title	Notice Period (in days)
Up to Associate (Local Grade 5)	60
AVP (Local Grade 4) and above	90

The Notice Period changes from 60 days to 90 days upon promotion from local grade 5 to local grade 4, as per the Company policy.

7. Other Conditions

Our offer and your employment are subject to:

- You completing, signing and returning the following forms to HR by the applicable date:
 - Personal information form (PIF)
 - Acknowledgement on Information Security
- You being free from any obligations owed to a third party which might prevent you from starting work on the commencement date;
- The information provided by you in relation to your employment by the Company regarding your background and/or previous employment being complete, accurate and not misleading in all respects and all information obtained by the Company in respect of you being fully satisfactory to the Company; and
- You holding or being granted the necessary approvals, regulatory registrations and/or licenses from the appropriate authorities for the performance of your duties (including a valid employment pass or work permit where applicable) prior to the commencement of your employment. Should there be any delay in your being granted such approvals, regulatory registrations and/or licenses (including where applicable an employment pass or a work permit), or should your application(s) in respect of the foregoing be rejected, your employment with the Company cannot commence and the Company will not be liable for any payment to you.

e) You having valid work authorization in India, including any one of the following:

- A valid Indian passport; or
- Voters id; or
- Notarized Nationality Declaration; or
- Overseas Citizen Of India card; or
- Work permit (Employment Visa) in the case of foreign passport holders.

It is your responsibility to notify HR sufficiently well in advance in case of any change in your citizenship status or expiry of your work authorization documents.

The Bank reserves the right to alter your terms and conditions of employment at any time, including your duties and responsibilities.

This contract will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of India and the parties agree to submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the Indian courts as regards any claim or matter arising under this contract.

Please indicate your acceptance of the above terms and conditions by signing and returning soft copy of this letter. This offer will remain open for your acceptance for 10 days, post which the validity of the offer will be at the discretion of the Company.

Yours sincerely,

Schedule I: General Terms and Conditions of Service

1. Leaves

(a) Annual Leave - Your annual leave entitlement will be in accordance with the Company policy. The annual leave entitlement will be pro-rated in your first year or in any incomplete year.

(b) Sick Leave - Sick leave will be granted as per Company policy.

(c) Parental Leave and related benefits - The Company offers a gender neutral parental leave policy for new parents to better manage their responsibilities. The leave duration and the benefits mentioned below are in accordance with The Maternity Benefits Act, 1961:

- i. Parental Leave: 26 weeks of paid leave for the primary caregiver. The mother is assumed to be the primary caregiver of the child.
- ii. Adoption/ Surrogacy Leave: 26 weeks of paid leave for the primary caregiver.
- iii. Maternity Expenses: Maternity related medical expenses are provided as per the Group Hospitalization policy.

More details on number of days and various types of leaves are available in the Employee Handbook.

2. Termination

(a) Termination with Notice

From the commencement of your employment, the Company or you may terminate your employment by giving a notice in writing for a period as stated in clause "Notice Period" in this Employment Agreement. The Company may choose to terminate your employment immediately or by a period of notice shorter than the stipulated notice period by making a payment to you equal to your fixed pay for all or part of the notice period in lieu of that notice. For the avoidance of doubt, this does not confer any entitlement on your part to receive, nor impose any obligation on the Company, to make such a payment.

If the Company or you have given notice of the termination of your employment, the Company may direct you not to perform any of your duties, to remain away from the Company's premises and/or not to contact clients or other employees of the Company for all or part of the notice period. During this time, you will remain employed by the Company and therefore remain subject to your conditions of employment and you will continue to receive your salary and contractual benefits during the notice period.

(b) Termination without Notice

The Company may terminate your employment immediately and without notice or payment in the event that:

- you are guilty of serious misconduct
- you are guilty of a serious breach of the employment rules as set out in the Handbook
- you breach any fundamental term or condition of your employment
- you intentionally disobey a lawful and reasonable direction of the Company
- you conduct yourself in a way which, in the Company's reasonable opinion, may bring any member of the Group into disrepute
- you are convicted of a serious criminal offence or a criminal offence which, in the Company's opinion, consists of your ability to perform your duties; or
- the results of any background checks or searches conducted by the Company are deemed unsatisfactory to it in its absolute discretion

(c) Consequences of Termination of your Employment

If your employment is terminated for any reason:

- a) before you leave the Company, you must return all of the Company's property and confidential information and you must not retain any copies, extracts or reproductions of all or any part of that property or confidential information;
- b) you will continue to be bound by your employment obligations to the Company relating to the Company's confidential information and Intellectual Property (as defined in the Intellectual Property clause below);
- c) you must not make any statements (whether verbally or in writing) or do anything which might damage the reputation of the Group or interfere with the Group's relationships with its clients and customers; and
- d) you will resign from all or any offices which you may hold as a director or otherwise with the Company or a Group company and from all other appointments or offices which you hold as nominee or representative thereof. If you fail to do so within seven days from the termination of your employment, the Company is irrevocably authorized to appoint another person in your name and on your behalf to do any acts or things necessary or desirable to effect the same.

(d) Retirement Age

The age of retirement with the Company is completion of 62 years.

(e) Non-Solicitation Obligations

During the course of your employment and after the termination of your employment, you shall be subject to the terms and covenants as set out below.

As you are likely to obtain in the course of your employment with the Company, trade secrets and/or other confidential information and since you have and/or are likely to obtain during the course of your employment with the Company personal knowledge and influence over customers and clients of the Company, for the protection by the Group of its businesses and, in particular, its confidential information, customer and client connections and the maintenance of a stable workforce, you agree and covenant with the Company and the Group collectively as set out below.

i. Non-Solicitation

- A. you shall not during your employment and during a period of twelve (12) months from the date on which notice of termination of your employment is given either on your own account or in conjunction with, or on behalf of, any other person solicit or entice away or endeavor to solicit or entice away or assist any other person, whether by means of the supply of names or expressing views on suitability or otherwise howsoever to solicit or entice away, from the Group any individual:-
 - a. who is an employee or director of any member of the Group (of Grades 1 to 4 in accordance with the Group's internal grading structure or the equivalent category of employees under the Group's internal grading structure as amended from time to time); or
 - b. who is contracted to render services to the Company and/ or any member of the Group, and in either case with whom you have had business dealings during the twelve month period immediately preceding the termination of your employment with the Company, whether or not you such person would commit a breach of contract by reason of his leaving service.

- B. You shall not during your employment and during a period of six (6) months from the date on which notice of termination of your employment is given either on your own account or in conjunction with, or on behalf of, any other person solicit, interfere with or entice away or attempt to induce, interfere with or entice away any person who is a Restricted Client; and
- C. You shall not during your employment and during a period of six (6) months from the date on which notice of termination of your employment is given either on your own account or in conjunction with, or on behalf of, any other person have business dealings, directly or indirectly, with any person who is a Restricted Client;
- D. However, you are not prohibited by any of these restrictions from seeking or doing business with a Restricted Client that is not in direct or indirect competition with the Restricted Business.

For the purposes of paragraphs 1(B) to 1(D) above, Restricted Business means the activities of the operating division or company of the Group to which you are assigned and to whom you provide your services, and Restricted Client means any person, firm or company who or which on the date of termination of your employment or at any time during the twelve-month period immediately prior to the date of termination was a client or customer of the Group in respect of the Restricted Business and with whom or with which during that period you have had business dealings.

- II. You agree that having regard to the facts and matters set out above the covenants herein contained are reasonable in all the circumstances for the protection of the Bank's legitimate interest including the trade secrets and/or other confidential information of the Bank/Company and the Group.
- III. You acknowledge that the breach of any of the restrictions specified in paragraph I above by you will cause irreparable injury to the Company and/or the Group which could not be adequately compensated in monetary damages and shall entitle the Bank and/or the Group to all equitable remedies, including without limitation injunction relief, specific performance and restraining orders. Equitable relief shall be in addition to all other remedies available to the Company and/or the Group.
- IV. The benefit of such agreement and obligation set out above may be assigned to and enforced by all successors or assigns for the time-being carrying on the business of the Group and such agreements and obligations shall operate and remain binding notwithstanding the termination of your employment.
- V. If any provision of these obligations after employment are determined to be illegal or unenforceable by any court of law or any competent governmental or other authority, the remaining obligations and the remainder of your contract of employment shall be severable and enforceable in accordance with their terms so long as your contract of employment without such terms or provisions does not fail of its essential purpose. You and the Company shall negotiate in good faith to replace any such illegal or unenforceable provisions with suitable substitute provisions, which will maintain as far as possible their purposes and the effect. If so required by the Company, you also agree to enter into separate covenants with any member of the Group to which you are assigned and to which you provide your services in a form identical to the covenants set out in this section in order to protect the legitimate business interests of the Group.
- VI. For the purposes of this section, the Company is entering into these restrictions with you on its own behalf and as agent for and/or as trustee of the business of the relevant member of the Group to which you are assigned and to whom you provide your services.

VII. Notification of Restrictions

You agree that in the event of your receiving from any person an offer of employment (whether oral or in writing and whether accepted or not) either during the continuance of your employment with the Company or during the continuance in force of all or any of the restrictions set out above you shall forthwith provide to the person making such an offer of employment a full and accurate copy of the post-termination restrictions set out above including details of any variations to them agreed with you on an individual basis, and if the offer is accepted, inform the Company of the identity of the person making the offer.

VIII. During and after the termination of your employment, you will not without the express written consent of the Company disclose or use any confidential information relating to the business or affairs of the Company or any company within the Group, or its or their clients, including without limitation lists of clients, suppliers and employees, financial information including pricing information, administration and information systems, information about unique products and services and information relating to the business strategy of the Company or any entity within the Group.

3. Other Employment

You will not engage in any other remunerative employment or accept any appointment as a director of any company outside the Group without the Company's prior written approval and, unless otherwise agreed by the Company in writing, all fees or other remuneration in respect of any such appointment will be for the account of the Company.

You will not during your employment be directly or indirectly engaged or concerned in the conduct of any business other than the business of the Group without the prior permission of the Company.

4. Compliance

The Company's rules, regulations and directions relating to employees, including the Group's Code of Conduct, which are now or may hereafter be in force, will apply to you and will be strictly complied with by you. You should therefore acquaint yourself with all Company rules and policies, which are applicable to you.

In particular, the Company attaches great importance to security, compliance and fair dealing procedures and your attention is drawn to the rules set out in the Group's Compliance Policies. You may be asked to disclose information as deemed necessary to comply with local regulatory requirements arising from the Company's business activities (including records relating to investments held by you and your connected persons), or which are otherwise consistent with market best practices of the Company.

Where applicable, you will also be expected to comply with any local compliance requirements of our overseas offices and all requirements (including any professional qualifications and standards of conduct) for obtaining and maintaining the necessary registration and license (or such exemption from registration and license) for the performance of your duties. A breach of the Group's Compliance policies or local compliance rules is a disciplinary offence that may justify summary dismissal.

In addition, you will at all times be conversant with and comply with any rules and regulations applicable to your specific area of work, such as (where applicable) the local Rules, Regulations and By-Laws. Violation of any of these rules, regulations or provisions may result in the immediate termination of your employment.

5. Confidentiality

During your employment by the Company, you may learn trade secrets or confidential information, which relates to the Company and the Group. Unless you are required to do so in the proper performance of your duties, you must not:

- divulge or communicate to any person;
- use for your own purposes or for any purposes other than those of the Company or, as appropriate, any of its clients; or
- cause any unauthorized disclosure, through any failure to exercise due care and attention, of any trade secrets or confidential information relating to the Company (or any of the Group) or any of its or their clients. You must at all times use your best endeavors to prevent publication or disclosure of any trade secrets or confidential information.

Confidential information includes but is not limited to lists of clients, suppliers, financial information including pricing information, administration and information systems, information about unique products and services and information relating to the business strategy of the Company or any other company within the Group.

If you are unsure about the confidential nature of specific information, you must seek your manager's advice and clarification. You will be subject to disciplinary action up to and including summary dismissal for any unauthorized disclosure of confidential information belonging to or related to the Company or any Group company. You understand and agree that your obligation of confidentiality survives termination of your employment.

You will promptly on demand or in any event upon when you cease to be an employee of the Company, return all confidential information including but not limited to documents, records, computer disks or other property in your possession or under your control belonging to the Company or any Group company or the clients thereof and you will not retain any copies thereafter.

In the same way that the Company's and its Group's confidential information must be kept confidential, the Company expects you to keep confidential the confidential information of your previous employers. During your employment with the Company, you must not use proprietary material, trade secrets or other highly confidential information or property obtained by you because of any prior employment without written authorization from the relevant organization.

6. Intellectual Property

For the purposes of this agreement, "Intellectual Property Rights" means any and all existing and future intellectual or industrial property rights (whether registered or unregistered) including, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, all existing and future patents, copyrights, design rights, database rights, trade marks, internet rights/domain names, know-how, confidential information and any and all applications for any of the foregoing and any and all rights to apply for any of the foregoing.

During your employment with the Company, you may either alone or in conjunction with others, generate or assist in the generation of documents, materials, designs, drawings, processes, formulae, computer coding, methodologies, confidential information and other works which relate to the business of the Company or any Group company or which are capable of being used or adapted for use thereon or in connection therewith ("Works") and you agree that in respect of any such Works and all Intellectual Property Rights in relation thereto, you are obliged to further the interests of the Company and any Group company. Both the Works and the related Intellectual Property Rights will belong to and be the absolute property of the Company or any other person the Company may nominate.

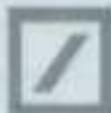

You must immediately disclose to your Business Head all works and all related Intellectual Property Rights. You are required to assist the company and fully cooperate with it in every way to enforce the Company's right to exclude where documentation is required to provide the Company with full ownership thereof.

7. Accountability

You shall properly, diligently and honestly perform all the duties, which the Company may assign to you from time to time and shall faithfully account for and deliver to the Company all monies, securities or other property belonging to the Company, which may come into your possession, custody or control.

8. Data Protection

By signing this statement, you acknowledge and agree that the Company is permitted to hold personal information about you as part of its personnel and other business records, and that the Company may use such information in the course of the Company's business. Please note that this may include transfer and storage of your personal information at offshore data storage facilities.

You agree that the Company may disclose information about you to other Group companies or third parties (including cross-border transfers) if the Company considers that to do so is required for the proper conduct of the Company's business or that of any of its associates. This Clause applies to information held, used or disclosed in any medium.

Schedule II

1. Remuneration and Allowance Details

- a) Basic Salary: Your Basic Salary will be INR 600,000 per annum, payable monthly.
- b) Flexi Basket: Your Flexi Basket will be INR 900,000 per annum.
- c) Fixed Pay: Your Fixed Pay, which consists of your Basic Salary and Flexi Basket, will be INR 1,500,000 per annum.
- d) Retirements:

i. Provident Fund: The Company/Bank will make a contribution towards your Provident Fund as per the requirements of the Employees' Provident Funds and Miscellaneous Provisions Act, 1952.

If you are an International Worker or during your employment lifecycle, if you become an international worker by dint of having attained a citizenship of another country, your Provident Fund contribution will be computed on your Fixed Pay minus allowances allocated for specific purposes e.g. housing, car, leave travel, etc. The exact amount of the Provident Fund contribution will be determined basis your Flexi Basket allocations post your joining the Company/Bank, and the same may also vary basis changes in your Flexi Pay allocations in line with the statutory provisions.

You will also be required to make an equal contribution towards your Provident Fund.

ii. Gratuity: Gratuity will accrue as per requirements of the Payment of Gratuity Act, 1972.

Flexi Basket

You can select your own benefit(s) as per your personal preference from a wide range of benefits that are applicable for your grade.

The different Flexi Basket options currently available across grades include House Rent Allowance, Meal Coupons (Sodexo), Leave Travel Allowance, Learning Development Allowance, Children Education Allowance and Children Hostel Allowance. Other Flexi Basket benefits like Fuel for Personal Car and benefits under Car Lease scheme are available at select grades.

You can make necessary allocations towards your selected benefits from the Flexi Basket, as per policy guidelines. The amount in Flexi Basket that remains unallocated, i.e., not utilized towards any benefit, will be paid to you in cash, through monthly payroll net of taxes in the form of Balance Supplementary Allowance.

On joining, you will be invited to make your Flexi Basket election on the Deutsche Bank intranet (HR Online). You will receive an email from TM Payroll within 4-6 weeks of your joining explaining the election process and timelines. If you do not receive this election email within 6 weeks of your joining, please write to hrdirect at hr direkt@db.com and also notify your HR Business Advisor immediately.

Further details on Flexi Basket are available in the Handbook. Please refer to the Handbook or get in touch with your HR Business Advisor for a detailed list and the policies governing the provision of benefits.

If you join the Company part-way through a calendar or fiscal year, your Basic Salary and Flexi-Benefits will be pro-rated, as applicable, to reflect the period of your service with the Company in the relevant year. Any payment of your salary or other sum due to you from the Company will be subject to any and all applicable withholding and/or other taxes payable and the Company will in such case be entitled to deduct or retain the amount of such tax from any sum payable to you. You will be solely responsible to pay all taxes and any other imposts as may be levied or assessed by any competent authority in any jurisdiction on any sums paid and/or other benefits provided to you by the Company.

You agree that the Company may deduct from your remuneration any sums due from you to the Company including, without limitation, your pension contributions (if any) and any overpayments, loans or advances made to you by the Company or any other company in the Group.

2. Variable Compensation

(a) Discretionary Variable Compensation

All employees are eligible to be considered for annual Discretionary Variable Compensation subject to the provisions set out below and the Variable Compensation Guiding Principles as each of these may be reviewed and amended from time to time at the discretion of the Company.

Dependent on your corporate title for the relevant performance year, you may be considered for Discretionary Variable Compensation based on a number of factors including but not limited to (in no particular order of importance) the performance of the Company and, as applicable, the specific contribution of its component business units, your individual personal contribution and the need to retain you in employment within the Company.

Based on your current corporate title, your eligibility for Discretionary Variable Compensation will be referred to as "Group Variable Compensation". Group Variable Compensation is discretionary variable compensation which is dependent on DB Group performance and is assessed and awarded in the sole and exclusive discretion of the Company. You are not currently eligible to be considered for any Individual Variable Compensation. You may however be nominated for a Recognition Award.

Generally, Discretionary Variable Compensation is determined in the sole and exclusive discretion of the Company and may be made wholly or partly in cash, restricted equity, national equity, restricted cash, or such other form as the Company may decide. The Company reserves the right to deliver a percentage (up to 100%) of all Discretionary Variable Compensation under, and subject to, any applicable DB compensation plans (restricted equity, national equity, restricted cash, or in such other form as the Company may decide) that are in effect on the date Discretionary Variable Compensation is awarded. Such plans may provide for forfeiture of awards under such plans in certain circumstances. Discretionary Variable Compensation may be awarded or paid in any currency at the Company's discretion.

Your Discretionary Variable Compensation, including any restricted compensation awards and cash amounts awarded to you, are subject to the global and regional compensation policies and applicable regulation as well as any applicable clawback provisions, which may require you to repay any awards or cash amounts delivered and paid to you.

For the avoidance of doubt, you do not have a contractual entitlement to receive Discretionary Variable Compensation and any such Discretionary Variable Compensation in a given year will be at the absolute discretion of the Company and subject to regulatory requirements (as may be amended from time to time). Moreover, you will not receive Discretionary Variable Compensation if (for whatever reason) on the date on which Discretionary Variable Compensation is awarded in a given year, you are not employed within the Company or if you are under notice to terminate your employment (whether notice was given by you or the Company) or if the Company considers your performance or conduct to have been unsatisfactory.

Reference Total Compensation Statement

Maryam Lacoste

This statement is intended to inform you of your 2023 Reference Total Compensation, as defined herein. If you have any questions about this information, please contact your manager.

Your annualised Reference Total Compensation shall be INR 1,562,500 based on a full-time working week and on the basis that you have been in employment for the entirety of the relevant performance year (1 January-31 December). Your actual Total Compensation for the relevant performance year will be based on, among other things, your actual working arrangements for that performance year.

Reference Total Compensation describes the reference value of annual Fixed Pay and Variable Compensation for an employee who remains eligible for Variable Compensation at the time Variable Compensation is made for the relevant year when all performance expectations on Group, divisional and individual levels, as applicable, are determined to have been satisfied by the Company in its sole discretion and subject to the Group's affordability.

Reference Total Compensation is not, and should not be viewed as, any promise or guarantee to pay any particular level of Variable Compensation or Total Compensation. The actual Total Compensation may vary from (and be more or less than) Reference Total Compensation. Reference Total Compensation will be reviewed each year in the sole discretion of the Company.

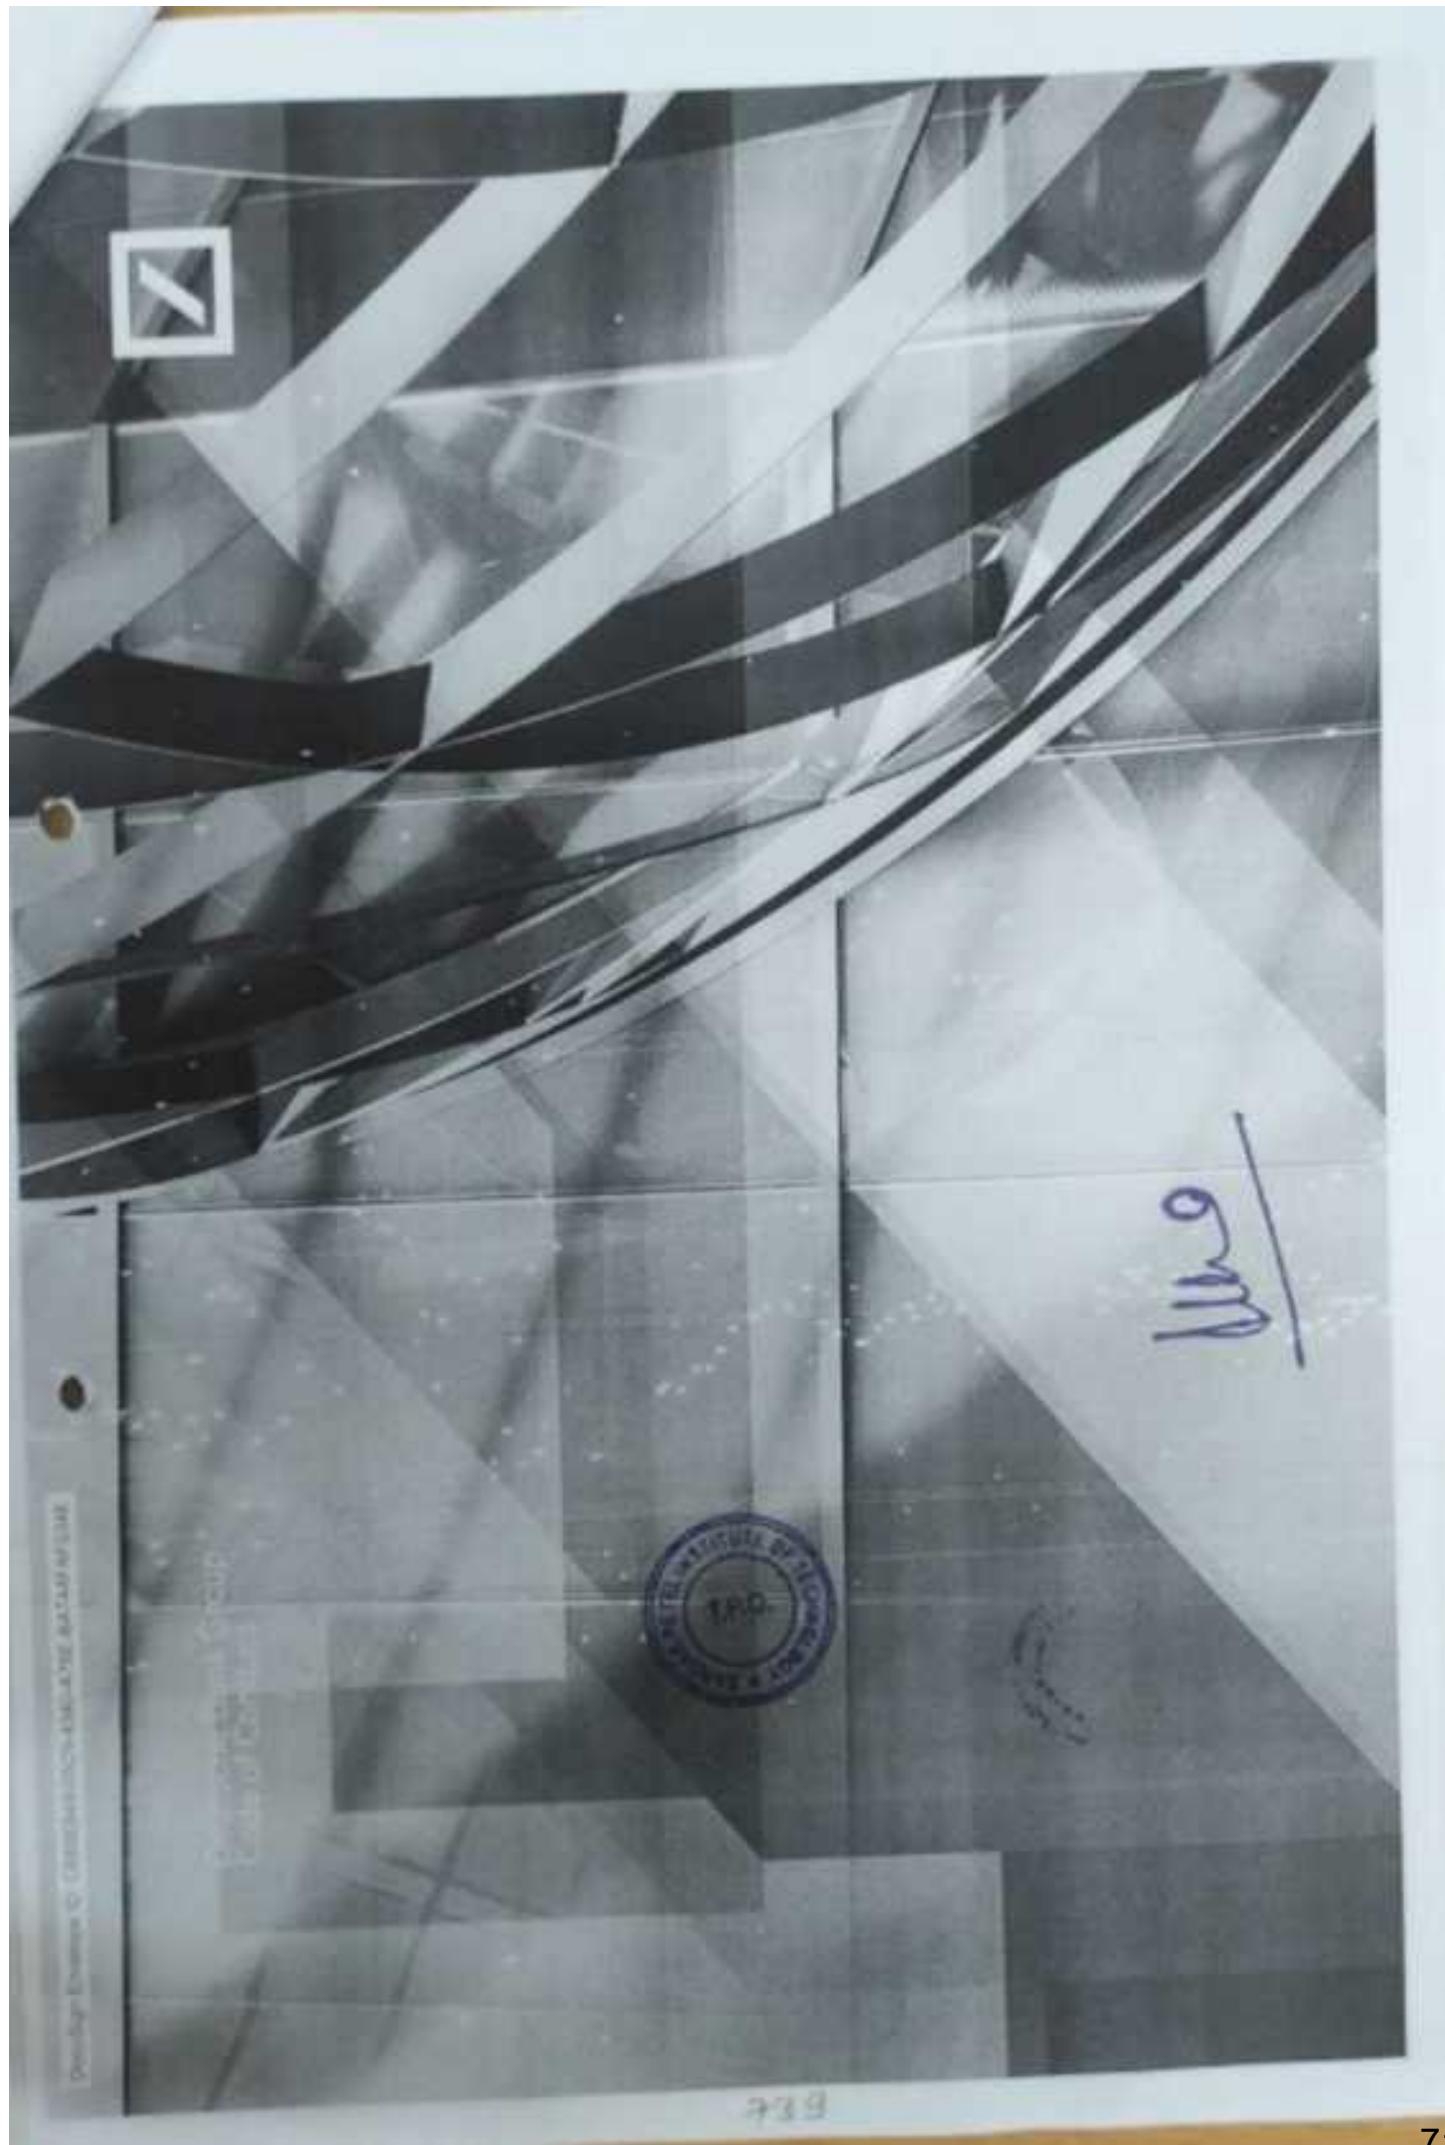

For the avoidance of doubt, employees do not have a contractual entitlement to receive any Variable Compensation. Variable Compensation is determined at the absolute discretion of the Company (including, without limitation to, employee's conduct and performance) and subject to regulatory requirements (as may be amended from time to time). Employees must continue to be employed by the Company and not be under notice of termination of employment (or any reason and whether given by the Company or the individual) at the relevant date that Variable Compensation is awarded.

"We earn the trust of our clients, regulators, investors and each other by always acting with integrity and holding ourselves to high standards. Acting according to our Code of Conduct is vital for us to be a bank that achieves sustainable success."

Christian Sewing
Chief Executive Officer

A message from Christian Sewing, Chief Executive Officer

On behalf of the Management Board, I am pleased to present Deutsche Bank's Code of Conduct (the "Code"). The Code sets out the standards of behaviour which all staff in a bank and all our employees are required to observe. As a global company and diverse institution, it is challenging to set out in the Code and all accompanying standards for the different world environments in which we operate. However, the Code applies in every situation, from the local and regional framework in which Deutsche Bank operates. We have a very broad range of (subsidiary, from local and Asset Management in Germany and to Investment Banking and Wealth Management in the United States and Australia,

I therefore ask not just one but a set of rules for specific situations, but also a general guide. The Code is a success depending on each of us taking our judgement to incorporate what is sometimes a complex regulatory environment and seeking advice as appropriate. Critical matters should also be weighed up promptly and appropriately.

As a bank, we have a responsibility to our clients, investors, customers and to each other. Fairness and maintaining the trust of these stakeholders is fundamental.

Our Code of Conduct aims to be a "line of everything" we do. It is designed to ensure that we conduct ourselves ethically, with integrity and transparency and Deutsche Bank's policies and procedures, as well as the legal and regulation that apply to us worldwide. Understanding all of this is a sensible starting point in order that we should do what is right and proper – it is not enough to just do the best!

The Code also articulates what our bank stands for and what we want our overall culture to be. We want to foster an environment that is open and honest, where staff "call out" mistakes and "pulling up" are valued, and our ambition as a top bank's success is built on respect, collaboration and teamwork, serving our clients, shareholders and communities.

The Management Board and I expect our senior management to personally commit to putting this Code at the centre of all we do. We are driving a culture of ethical conduct, reflecting in these standards, in what for us is the basis of achievable sustainable success.

Thank you.

Our purpose

We are here to build a sustainable economic model and mission-driven to be a game-changing partner in impact. As a company, our investors and our communities.

We believe that by being a leading European bank with a global reach, we value our German roots and remain committed to our environmental presence.

We serve our customers best by delivering solutions to the climate and biodiversity crisis while attracting top talent. By doing so, we seek to ensure that our bank is competitive and sustainable while being anchored by strong capital and liquidity. We are committed to a future that is demonstrably aligned

To achieve this, we aim to attract and develop talented individuals. We foster teamwork, partnership and inclusion, trusting that each of us will deliver to the expected standards.

Deutsche Bank Group
Our Core Values

Our values and beliefs

Our values

We aim to create an environment in which "speak up" and challenges are not just welcomed and encouraged, but are also a core part of our responsibility, especially when actions in a share to act are inconsistent with this belief.

Intrigue - We earn the trust of our clients, other stakeholders, communities and each other by acting with honesty and integrity and holding ourselves to high ethical standards. We seek to understand options, evaluate, construction and transform relationships both within ourselves, our clients and with our regulators.

Sustainable performance - Our board is committed to generating sustainable value by maintaining balanced roles and returns and by pursuing long-term success over short-term gain. We do this by implementing an appropriate oversight, controls and governance.

Client advocacy - We place clients at the centre of our service. To be successful, we must understand the rapidly changing needs of our clients. We aim to provide, via direct to support our clients in value creation. In providing our services, we deliver what we promise to our clients and treat our clients fairly.

Innovation - We continuously explore new and better ways of doing things while fully taking account of potential risks. Innovation is essential to our success. This means being innovative in light of the interests of our clients and stakeholders, and must include assessment of financial, operational, regulatory and reputational risks.

Decisive - We accept responsibility and assign clear accountability. We honour our commitments and meet timelines, targets and deliverables. We learn from our mistakes.

Partnership - We benefit from collaboration in an inclusive environment, where our diversity enriches our decision-making and adds value. We engage with and learn from others through open dialogue. We work to live in a spirit of partnership, not just with our colleagues but also with our clients, stakeholders, political decision-makers and the wider community.

What would it look like if you lived these?

Applicability of and adherence to the Code: Compliance with applicable law and regulation

Our open meetings, all electronic and members of the Management Board to make the other joint work of the Club as transparent as possible and to give the Club a more professional appearance and greater credibility. Valuing our employees and building trust in the workplace

Digitized by srujanika@gmail.com

Diversity and inclusion, equal opportunity, non-discrimination and building trust in the workplace.

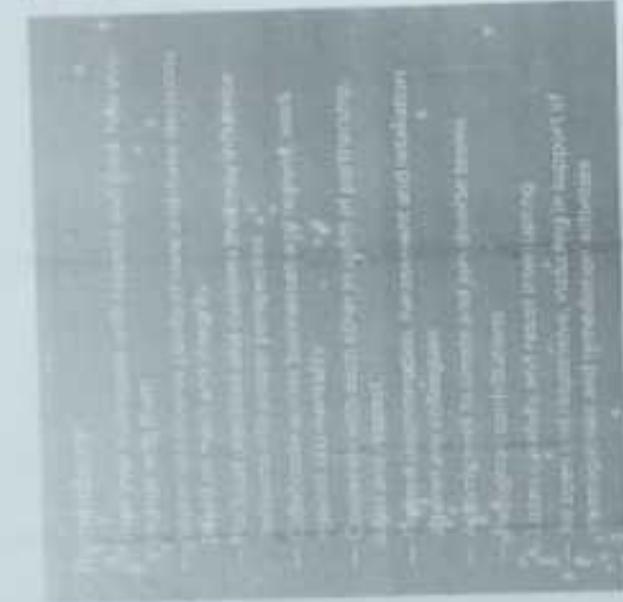

Mutual respect is the foundation to developing trust and to growing in partnership. That is why we do not tolerate discriminatory behaviour, discrimination or harassment, including sexual harassment, or any threatening, hostile or abusive behaviour.

We work together within a discrimination based culture, creating such a true colour, race, national origin, ethnicity, age, religion, disability, health status, appearance, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, education, or family characteristics, protected by law. We believe that diversity strengthens our business with their varying backgrounds, talents and contributions, enriches our interactions with clients, our teams, the wider communities in which we live and work. We support our employees' talents and value us as an employer of choice.

We consider it vital to have an inclusive environment providing equal opportunity and enhancement opportunities for all individuals.

We strive to maintain transparent communication as quickly and as confidentially as possible and in a manner that is respectful to our employees.

We do not tolerate retaliation against anyone for making an equality, discrimination complaint or complaint relating to harassment, discrimination, or any other form of discrimination.

Doing the right thing – acting ethically

You must be honest at all times in your conduct of business and holding true to the highest ethical standards.

Acting with integrity

You must always act with integrity. It means that you will be honest, courageous, and straightforward by adhering to the Code and applying its standards to everyday business decisions. You should raise concerns, ask questions and disclose anything that may be inappropriate.

Ethical decision-making

Acting ethically is not only the right thing to do, but also the right way to do business – it serves the interests of our clients and stakeholders while being financially successful. In the longer term, by making decisions and determining the appropriate course of action, you ensure the welfare of right and wrong, just as the debate is discussed in legal

If there appears to be a conflict between the Code and local laws, rules or regulations, the more restrictive provision applies. When you are faced with questions about your conduct, please contact your CCO. You should follow both the Code of the Code and related bank policies that cover the issue. Encourage customers to treat customers, Lenders, Customers, ABC or other relevant function, without it through the process of Customer service on standards set by the Company's Policies.

Taking personal responsibility

You are accountable for your actions or omissions, and will be held responsible for the consequences of illegal acts. Your conduct may be reported to regulators, which could ultimately result in loss of executive compensation or loss of your individual registration, if applicable.

Abuse of position

There may also be a situation to exercise influence, power or authority over one individual or decisions after long-term employment, which may appear as an abuse in the interests of stakeholders and may be perceived by persons of interests. This applies equally if you are not the manager of an otherwise in a highly ethical and legal relationship with that employee. Any abuse of your position, in whatever form, will not be tolerated. That includes taking your position of influence, power or authority for benefit (including yourself) or having a family or spouse, as well as letting your position be used for personal gain (such as benefits to family, friends, or others). Stakeholders, employees, contractors, suppliers, vendors, partners and others are entitled to benefit from a family member's position.

A close personal relationship involving an individual's financial relationships, or financial commitment, A family connection or an employee's spouse, or partner, domestic or otherwise, children or step-children, spouses, uncles, nephews, and nieces, should be free, willing to do things in their own interest, grant financial, direct, indirect, or other, aid, support, and advice.

Do you have time to discuss?

Decision-making tree

When faced with an ethical question or a challenging decision, you should ask yourself:

You should be able to answer "yes" to all questions. If you cannot tick "yes" to all questions, stop and seek advice from your supervisor, Compliance, AFC or Legal.

Responsibilities as a manager

If you are a manager, your employees will look to you to set an example. You do demonstrate the standards set out in the Code. You are responsible for creating an environment of mutual trust and respect that attracts and retains highly committed and dedicated staff. You have to speak up and stand by your principles. As a leader, you have to be an example. You should be approachable, with a commitment to supporting your employees in their work and development. You should be an authority figure who is worthy of respect, especially leaders and managers must deal with integrity and aspire trust.

As a manager, you are responsible for creating an environment where all employees feel safe, supported and secure, promoting the foundations for giving and taking responsibility, trust, openness and accountability.

At the same time, you understand the standards and guidelines of your employees and are required to have a responsibility to control and manage the way business is conducted in accordance with relevant requirements. Part of this control environment includes encouraging individuals to take responsibilities and sharing the signature on how to act.

Investment in skills and encouraging employee development and career development are essential components of this Code's principles. This is reflected in the local and regional agents, which help to develop and nurture future leaders who are accountable, well grounded in the Code, standards and who inspire the best in their colleagues.

You should encourage and document contacts, feedback and reviews as well as making available information in this Code of conduct to your colleagues.

Note that you can be held responsible for the actions of your staff or those you supervise, particularly if you have not exercised the kind of supervision expected by law or by your regulations.

Risk awareness and acting as a risk manager

At Deutsche Bank, each one of us has a role to play in building a stronger, more resilient and sustainable bank. We aim to foster a culture of strong risk awareness and consider risk, where all employees act as risk managers.

If you're responsible for the management of risk take a broader view of the risk, which could involve your actions or decisions, and to manage those risks in line with the bank's risk appetite and risk management framework.

For further information, reference the Risk Management section of the Annual Report.

Dear risk manager, what does it mean to act as a risk manager? It means that you are responsible for the risk, which could involve your actions or decisions, and to manage those risks in line with the bank's risk appetite and risk management framework.
For further information, reference the Risk Management section of the Annual Report.

Speaking up and raising concerns (including whistleblowing)

You are encouraged to use all resources, and you are expected to take advantage of all possible solutions at your disposal. This document does not reflect all information. Furthermore, the recommendations contained herein, including our current and future prospects, are subject to change.

Adaptations are required in either of the types of models to account for the observed responses.

In addition, no one, at this level, has the authority to tell you to do something that is a branch of the Code or our existing policies or laws as contained in Reg 2. If you have any questions, contact us about a potential course of action, not through the media.

There are various online channels you can use to report suspected misconduct or potential ethical concerns, including your supervisor, Head of Department and/or the Compliance A&C, your Hotline, Admin or Legal. You can also use the Employee Feedback System (EFS) webpage on the Network for the Integrity Hotline, which is an anonymous, secure, confidential and quick way to report concerns, and which can be used either anonymously or non-anonymously.

Further Information Resources

Non-relational
We create interactive environments where every employee can work, learn, socialise and raise concerns, including career development, personal growth, health and well-being.

We prohibit retaliation against any individual for reporting a concern. We will provide redaction against names being printed or displayed in a subsequent investigation of such concerns. Retaliation means any action taken against a reporter based on their exercise of a responsibility

Individuals who engage in terrorism are subject to disciplinary action by the teaching community. Students can also be held responsible for their actions in the university environment, unless they have been compelled to do so.

Protecting and handling confidential information

Q&A

Q1. A colleague at work has asked you whether it is appropriate to share confidential information with family members. Even if you believe that a family member is likely to misuse the information, is it not your obligation to share?

It is never appropriate to share confidential information with family members. Even if you believe that a family member is likely to misuse the information, it is not your obligation to share.

Q2. You have just disclosed that information to a friend. Your friend is a customer of your bank. He says he wants to withdraw his confidential information and you have a legal right to do so without this information being known by anyone else. By disclosing this information, you are breaching the Code and exposing yourself and our bank to legal liability.

Q3. Maria in Finance is working with the Director of Risk Services on the preparation of the bank's annual review. She has 2012 financial statements for all branches at 30 June 2012 prepared. She has had them checked by her manager, Helen Morris, who has said the document is in James' 25th birthday cake. Maria has also included the following statement along the top of her annual review in advance:

You may not share, make available or disclose such confidential information to anyone outside of our bank, without our "need to know" basis, i.e., with other staff who are involved in the transaction or providing the service and such disclosure is required for the proper execution of our bank's responsibilities. Sharing it may be done with other employees, clients or contractors with a client's permission as in breach of legal requirements, including a confidentiality agreement with the client. While information may be shared, you must limit the amount of information so as to ensure the stated purpose is achieved and make sure the recipient knows that the information is confidential and subject to restrictions relating to its use or dissemination.

Also remember, information from prior employees [including information from the clients of prior employees] is confidential information and should not be shared with new staff or bank employees – to do so is whether of course it has already been made public through no action of your own.

A1. No. You must not disclose that information to your friend. Your friend is a customer of your bank. He has a legal right to withdraw his confidential information and you have a legal right to do so without this information being known by anyone else. By disclosing this information, you are breaching the Code and exposing yourself and our bank to legal liability.

Conflicts of interest

Q&A

Q1 You are part of the CEO's team and you are selecting a new supplier for the bank. Your colleague who is in one of the vendors' franchises is a client.

A1 There is a potential conflict of interest, as one because the fact that your colleague works for one of the vendors could be viewed as influencing your judgement. You should make sure that the bank is aware of the vendor's conflict, and you should not be involved in the selection of the vendor.

Many of the major problems that have occurred in the industry, including here at our bank, originate from conflicts of interest arising in their role or from decisions or actions taken concerning business and the bearing of one interest that involve departmental or individual financial services providers, our business ownership, or our role as service, marketing and procurement conflicts. Examples of potential conflicts include in Markets, acting as principal with a client or as an agent between a buying and selling client; in Banking, acting on behalf of an issuer of securities while managing that issuer's Management and Investor Relations function; in those functions, between the bank and its clients; during negotiations to create or sell products that may be in the interests of our clients or the market.

When identifying conflicts, be sensitive to the potential conflicts that underlie initiatives in those functions, including:

- Between our clients;
- Between the bank and our employees;
- Between the bank and our shareholders;
- Between a service provider and an employee of the bank; and
- Between and among different groups within our business divisions of our bank.

Q2 An Islamic client who wants to end its business relationship with us due to pressure from one of our research analysts (as a more profitable firm can't offer it)?

A2 This situation requires an initial conflict of interest between the bank and its Islamic banking product. According to the client's demands would be appropriate.

We maintain organisational and business-related arrangements and take other measures to help avoid, minimise or mitigate potential conflicts. We are committed to treating our clients fairly and impartially, having clients' interests, including, for example, where the client's interests may be in conflict with another client's, where:

Other potential relationships, including family connections, with fellow employees or individuals at other banks with whom you be involved in more courageous dealings with them and our work to be influenced by external interests. All these kinds of conflicts of interest, including those that arise because of a close personal relationship or a family connection at our bank, a client, a vendor, etc., must be reported promptly to your supervisor and, as necessary, the relevant audit committee of the boardroom. Any such arrangements, by a client, external shareholder or otherwise, must be authorised in accordance with the bank's policy.

Q3 You work at a location in Berlin. You just received a call from a customer that is a small-scale business looking for some short-term working capital. The original source for the client is a short-term loan, but your colleague has suggested that you should pitch a overdraft option, which would affect much higher fees for the bank. Should you advise the customer to opt for a credit (loan) instead?

A3 No. The best option for the customer is the loan. The suggestion that you should make might be recommended as a result of the existence of the customer's friends for next door's convenience and would be a failure to manage the conflict, harming both the interests of the client and the bank.

In the Business Selection and Contracts Office, Compliance, Human Resources or Legal so that they can be addressed appropriately. You should not abuse your position at our bank by seeking other things, exerting inappropriate influence on behalf of, or showing inappropriate favouritism towards an individual with whom you have a close personal relationship or a family connection.

Conflicts can be inherent and, in dealing with potential conflicts, you should act with integrity and take good judgement in a manner consistent with the Code and our policies, and ask for guidance as necessary.

For further information, refer to the Conflict of Interest Policy – Quid to the Bank Draft.

Financial crime prevention and detection

Anti-financial crime

Our bank adheres to the development of sound regulations and internal procedures to combat financial crime, including tax evasion. These requirements are also intended to prevent our bank from committing or facilitating – intentionally or negligently – criminal offence(s).

You are personally accountable for ensuring to all applicable statutory and regulatory requirements to prevent financial crime. To accomplish this in managing the risk mitigation, our bank's Anti-Financial Crime (AFC) department is supported by the Management Board to develop and implement policies, procedures and processes to manage AFC risk within the bank, and enhance them in a continual basis, at both global and local levels.

Anti-money laundering/antiterrorism financing
Money laundering is the illicit movement of cash and/or assets derived from illegal and criminal activities with the intent to finance a terrorist financing system. The attempt to disrupt financial crime financing systems of the funds, to designate the true source of ownership of the funds, and to disrupt the ultimate disposition of those funds and to eliminate or neutralize them in part of the laundering process. Underlying crimes are defined by location and could concern, for example, foreign counterfeit, smuggling, corruption, organized crime, or terrorism, human trafficking, robbery, drug crime, as well as fraud, forgery, or embezzlement.

Terrorism financing is defined as the providing, depositing, distributing or collecting of funds, by any means, intended to be used, or knowing that they are to be used, or partially used, for committing terrorist acts. It is not relevant whether such funds are of legal or illegal origin.

To combat money laundering and terrorism financing together ("AML"), our bank has developed a set of policies, guidelines, procedures, AML standards and processes. You are required to adhere to these standards to protect our bank and its reputation from being misused for money laundering and terrorist financing or other illegal purposes.

For further information, refer to the PMS section titled "Risk Management of Financial Crime Risks - Disclosure".

Economic sanctions regulations & anti-boycott rules

National authorities and international organizations (e.g. the United Nations and the European Union) impose restrictive measures against targeted entities as well as countries, organizations, groups, entities and individuals which interfere with internationally accepted behaviour and norms, including those who have been identified as being involved in weapons proliferation:

- terrorists or supporters of terrorist organisations;
- violations of human rights; or
- being involved in bribery and corruption.

Such measures are more commonly known as embargoes or sanctions. Our bank has identified Restricted and Restricted Sanctuaries. Our bank has identified Restricted and Restricted Special Risk Countries in order to better safeguard against sanctions risks.

You are required to comply with applicable embargoes and sanctions as well as our bank's requirements on Special Risk Countries. Non-compliance can expose our bank, as well as individuals, to civil, regulatory and criminal penalties, including substantial monetary fines and, in the case of individuals, prison. Non-compliance with embargoes and sanctions also causes a substantial reputational risk for our bank. It is also important to note that there are developments

Anti-fraud

Fraud is defined as any intentional act of dishonesty, including misrepresentation, which results in loss or damage, or attempts to result in or cause, in order to gain a personal or business advantage, or to avoid a personal business disadvantage. Fraud may be committed by an individual, a group of individuals, or by one or more organisations.

If you have knowledge of fraud, then act on potential fraudulent activity, here referred to (subject) that fraud has occurred, or is about to occur, (also known as reasonable suspicion to ABC), by following the escalation procedure defined in the Anti-Fraud Policy. You are responsible for ensuring that you do not commit or contribute to fraud. For further information, refer to the Anti-Fraud Policy – Deutsche Bank India.

Fair and free markets

You must not engage in activities, practices or conduct that are manipulative, deceptive, unfair or abusive, or that result in conflicts between you and your bank and/or its clients, that are contrary to industry standards or applicable regulations, or that are otherwise damaging to our bank's reputation.

Our bank has a policy in place to specifically address Market Conduct as well as standards for specific bank products. For further information, refer to the Market Conduct Policy in our Code.

Q&A

Q. You purchased 5,000 shares in XYZ Ltd. You recently learned a financial opinion that XYZ Ltd. is the subject of a take-over by ABC Ltd. and PQR Corp. plc. The story spread quickly and it was felt the price of XYZ would rise sharply. You sold all of your shares quickly thereafter. Please advise what you think is inappropriate about the results of your actions if XYZ Ltd. fails to live up to its previous level. Have you done anything wrong?

A

You have engaged in market manipulation by attempting to profit from more than a single share.

Market conduct, market manipulation and market abuse

Maintaining the integrity of financial markets is critical to protecting fair and efficient markets and in regular conditions, appropriate market conduct enhances fairness, efficiency and confidence in the markets.

Market manipulation (market abuse) can have a significant negative impact on our clients, the financial markets and our bank as a whole.

As such, all business conducted by our employees must be driven by legitimate reasons and must be conducted in a manner that respects our clients, partners and action.

Abuse of information and inside trading
In the course of your work at our bank, you may come into possession of inside information, also referred to as material, non-public, prior sensitive information (PNSI) or confidential information (CNI). While this information may vary from communication to [REDACTED] bank, inside information can be described as information which has not been made public, whether directly or indirectly to one or more users or to one or more financial institutions, and which, if it were made public, would likely have a material effect on the price of listed financial instruments or on the price of related derivative financial instruments.

While you are in possession of confidential information, especially inside information, you shall suffer a duty of confidentiality in respect of the information you receive and may only use or disclose such information with due consideration and care to avoid a risk to the bank. Using such information for your personal gain or sharing with others who use it for their personal gain – so called “spiking” – is illegal and prohibited by the Code and our bank’s procedures.

For further information, refer to the Information: Whistleblower Policy – Disclosure Policy.

Q&A

Q. I have learned that Deutsche Bank is currently developing the acquisition of a small, publicly traded company. As an employee of the bank, may I acquire the stock of this company in preparation of the acquisition? May I share this information with my friends so that they can acquire the shares?

A. No. Trading on and buying others who trade on inside information is illegal and a violation of this Code.

Antitrust laws of certain countries in which we conduct business have imposed extensive moral codes and a prohibition on usury. Invariably, with all these severe prohibitions against them, our business is in a mess in which we sustain. The consequences of such restrictions are serious and far-reaching. US, EU and other enforcement authorities vigorously prosecute anti-competitive conduct. Any infringement of antitrust laws can have serious consequences, including: — Multimillion-dollar fines. Alternatives for our bank and us will. Multimillion-dollar fines have become standard for companies found guilty of infringing with us. Other liabilities consequences may arise from non-compliance with antitrust laws, including: — Individual liability to consumers or long-term shareholders — Starting consequences to affected parties — Reputation damage — Reputational damage, and/or — Void or unenforceable contracts.

For further information, please see the USDOJ website (<http://www.usdoj.gov/trusts/sep/orm.htm>) or the ECB website, where the code of conduct is critical for you and our bank.

Antitrust

Ensuring that employees in all units comply with applicable antitrust laws is a key priority of the bank. The financial sector is illiquid due to a lack of antitrust laws and a stable marketplace. Understanding the basic elements of the antitrust laws and the industry standards can inform on your activities, and help shift to identify areas of concern, where the code of conduct is critical for you and our bank.

Antitrust laws prohibit firms from combining to restrict certain anti-competitive practices illegal. This practice is caught by antitrust laws, which is a wide range of market structures. In particular, demand the below. This has been indicated agreement that it is not competitive. Modern in concert with a company's agreement with a competitor on pricing, all agreements to exclude others from a commodity, facilitating the exchange of commodities and the sharing of information and resources among competitors.

Q&A

Q. Are Deutsche Bank Swap traders, who do hold a statement of risk, exposed to swaps trading losses that are used by the administrator of a swap benchmark? The benchmark administrator can trade quotes from regulated, derivatives, multilateral trading systems and represents the firm or for Swap (fixed leg) at particular time of the day?

Every one morning a long-standing colleague, who now works for another bank, emails you with the following response:

"Hi Murray,

Need a favour from you. Can you nudge your GBP fix down a couple of pips on TradeX today? I know you don't do much volume on that venue so you're unlikely to benefit and it would be a great help to me. I can return the favour sometime in the future to help you out."

Is it acceptable to agree to this proposition?

A. No. As a form of collusion among competitors in order to manipulate, or to attempt to manipulate or fix prices, it goes to monopoly, benchmarks, price-fixing, or reference rates capable of distorting the overall course of pricing is not acceptable.

Secondly, attempting to influence the bank, the benchmark to influence normal market conditions is attempted to make this behaviour illegal and be in violation of antitrust law.

As a result, we have an eco-tourism market centred around the management of these resources. In the original marketing plan, we proposed that services were offered. Our local tourism authority has been instrumental in developing a marketing plan to encourage local tourism.

In practical terms, it means that we may not have certain advantages of government if we encourage them through privatization, corporatism, share of control and so on, but we can still have a significant role in the economy by playing our role as a regulator, as a monitor and as a source of information.

For customer-facing employees, you would introduce your customers' needs, expectations and interests in order to provide them with appropriate solutions that lead to the right outcomes for them based on their stated requirements.

You must always act with honesty and transparency and avoid giving customers with unclear payment terms benefit over other clients.

Committing with charity

It is important to understand with our clients that our communications – both oral and written, are fair, clear and accurate. Statements that can be viewed as misleading or that omit material information, including information necessary to making an investment decision – whether the client is retail, professional or institutional – can violate applicable law. Fair, clear and accurate communications protect the bank and you.

In the case of communications with an advertising committee or research, this document provides a framework by ensuring that all market participants have the opportunity to act on information that is accurate, complete and in time.

All basic communications must meet certain minimum standards and requirements, including specific information classification standards. In addition, specific requirements relating to certain categories of communications such as research, sales, marketing and advertising are included in the General Bulletin.

Customer complaints

A complainant wants an explanation of dissatisfaction over the failure of a card issuer or customer service about a bank's provision of or failure to provide the usual services, thus causing the execution of any transaction in his statement of account (or turnover). Take this into account when matters regarding certain statements presented to the client in connection with the bank's regulation, branch and market share. Customers may be required to sign a complaint sheet, directly or through an authorized agent, and can be transmitted via various means, including letters, telephone, e-mail or in person. The manager should, however, request a copy of the signed or signed and witnessed document.

Locally available outlets will communicate to the complainant about the nature of the complaint. A copy of the original letter or email will be sent to the complainant and to the concerned branch. If necessary, further investigation will be conducted by the concerned branch. The manager should immediately inform the supervisor, Manager and Customer Service and compliance officer of the occurrence and its outcome.

For further information, refer back to the relevant section on handling and managing of complaints - Observe.

Q&A

- Q You have received a call from a client to report that there are unusual transactions which they do not recognise on the account, and these statements are writing much out of their balance. Is this a complaint if all bank regulations are due to system and software?
- Do you require the complainant to sign a statement sheet in writing or orally? Can you compromise?
- Does it mean the bank has a complaint file? Handling process is used by a year at least?
- How many times the complainant has to issue the same letter and ensure that it is printed, right to a complainant in this business?
- Complain handling procedure
- In handover of documents, some documents about introducing to and updating complaint. Further, complaint to combine all the necessary details. The scope of the firm is a running, the concern of the bank can take a look.

Protecting customer assets and accounts

The protection of customer assets and accounts is important. Each function is responsible for implementing policies necessary to prevent damage to assets and assets are appropriately safeguarded, and the depositors' funds are only used by the holder(s) of accounts, and in the case of agency accounts, by their agents on the basis of a power of attorney or by virtue of agreement or all other official measures. Banks must, therefore, protect customers' accounts and agency accounts with no thought about every next best book to never run by due date.

For further information, refer back to the relevant section on handling and managing of complaints - Observe.

Sustainability and respecting human rights

We maintain sound governance in line with international guidelines. Well-established sustainability frameworks such as the United Nations Global Compact, and the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals, provide guidance for our thinking and actions.

We ensure that our internal and external stakeholders are safeguarded by adequate processes and controls. In this context we promote the respect of human rights, including the Convention of Child Labour, ILO's Declaration on Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms, and the UN Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights. We have a policy. The same accounts for conducting due diligence. We strive to be the employer of choice for diversity and future employees, and to invest in society and create a positive impact. By supporting volunteering initiatives by our staff we show the commitment, knowledge and support the employees in these efforts.

Our business operations contribute to common sustainability requirements, for example, by purchasing renewable energy, by reducing and where possible, increasing our environmental initiatives. This includes our own carbon neutrality.

We strive to address the social and legal aspects of our business decisions and to support a more fairable future for society and the environment. We monitor and mitigate the possible negative impacts and we apply measures that encourage customers to balance and to strive emerging initiatives of social and ethical standards.

We strive to address the social and legal aspects of our business decisions and to support a more fairable future for society and the environment. We monitor and mitigate the possible negative impacts and we apply measures that encourage customers to balance and to strive emerging initiatives of social and ethical standards.

You should ask yourself:

- Does a prominent business transaction or initiative present any risks to the environment or society?
- Are there allegations one could file in place to mitigate the risks associated with the proposed transaction?
- Are the transaction only of real benefit without sparing all potential long-term risks?
- Are you confident that your actions would stand up to public scrutiny?
- Are you using your skills to build moral capital and to benefit society?

Safeguarding our bank's interests

Information security

Each day we implement measures to ensure that your information is safe and to minimize the risk of unauthorized access by third parties. Your former employer and we are committed to security. Your former employer, in particular, has implemented strict security measures.

You must also take steps to ensure you follow these policies to protect information about him, yourself and your new employer and your colleagues.

Five things to know if you're transferring from an external to an internal Deutsche Bank employee

1. Your Human Resources ID should not change. Everybody at Deutsche Bank has a life-long-ID. Your HR recruiter and Deutsche Bank sponsor/manager should know this when they start the process on Workday. For more information please refer to this Workday training.
2. You will keep all of your DeuBa/DBE/DBG account data, mails, tools, and applications if your change between external and internal employment is immediate (i.e. less than 30 days) and your email address stays the same. Please note: if for some reason or another your email address does need to be changed, data can be retrieved with a "data transfer request" via your line manager and dbsupport+.
3. Should you plan to take a longer break, your Deutsche Bank sponsor/new manager can amend the date via the dbAccessGate portal with an approval of the Chief BISG of your department. For more information please refer to this Workday training. In case of issues: Please open a ticket in dbsupport+ and ask for help from the "IAM_dbAccessGate_Ops"-team. For more help from dbAccessGate please visit their myDB page.
4. Please note that under your employment contract it is not permissible for you to upload any non-public Deutsche Bank data to any personal or non-Deutsche-Bank-compliant sites or databases. Non-compliance with this is a serious breach and may lead to consequences up to the termination of your contract as well as a claim of compensation by Deutsche Bank.
5. Should you need to share information prior to leaving Deutsche Bank as an external, please follow the standard hand over process of saving business sensitive data or messages. Forward any important emails to your Deutsche Bank sponsor/manager, save important messages or documents to your team-SharePoint or to the department file-share/network-drive. Please contact dbsupport+ should you be in doubt.

You will be contacted by SIRVA within 24 hours of your relocation authorization. If you are not contacted by SIRVA within a few days, please contact your Oracle manager to ensure s/he has completed the necessary steps to authorize your relocation.

Do not take any steps to initiate your own relocation prior to speaking to SIRVA. Doing so may result in a refusal to reimburse associated costs. SIRVA will review the Grade JAPAC and India Relocation Policy and processes with you and help you manage the relocation budget. Before receiving any relocation assistance you will be required to sign and return a Relocation Agreement (provided and collected by SIRVA).

This offer is our formal contract and must be read and accepted in conjunction with the Employment Agreement & Employment Benefits, Proprietary Agreement and Disclosure of Interest. In addition to these terms and conditions stated in the above documents, there are other company policies and procedures which you agree to observe and follow during your employment with Oracle. These company policies and procedures may be varied from time to time.

This offer of employment is contingent upon no adverse information being obtained during reference checking with previous employers, approval of your employment / immigration pass application (if applicable) and upon satisfactory clearance of criminal check prior to commencement of employment. If you fail any of the above checks, validation or approval process, or do not cooperate or provide assistance in undergoing such checks, validation or approval process, this offer will immediately lapse without any claim against, or liability to Oracle.

This offer is made with the explicit understanding that you will pass the qualifying examination in the first attempt and that you will not have any arrears till the final examination. In the event that you do not satisfy any of the aforesaid conditions, the Company may withdraw its offer of employment and revoke the appointment at any time without compensation. Your on-board date will be at your Hiring Manager's discretion, and the Hiring Manager's decision will be final.

By accepting this offer you confirm that there are no contractual or other legal impediments which may prevent you commencing employment with the Company. Upon acceptance by you, this offer shall form the employment agreement between you and the Company.

On your day of commencement you will be required to sign in all pages including Employment Agreement for our records, a copy of the offer and the Proprietary Information Agreement.

The letter of offer is valid for two (2) weeks from the date hereof for conveying your acceptance and conditional on confirmation by you that you will commence employment on the date specified by your Manager Ranul Bhowmik (unless agreed otherwise by your Manager).

This offer will automatically lapse if not accepted within two (2) weeks from the date hereof.

We look forward to having you with us in our team.

Yours Sincerely,
For and on behalf of Oracle Financial Services Software Limited

Dear Arun Antony,

Following our recent discussions, we are delighted to extend an offer of employment to you.

Enclosed are a Summary of Key Terms, key applicable Policies and Detailed Terms and Conditions which outline important conditions relating to your employment and whilst, together, form your employment terms with Barclays ('Employment Letter').

The Employment Letter refers to the Barclays Values (Respect, Integrity, Service, Excellence and Transformation) as these will be integral part of everything we do. The Values as well as our processes and behaviours will have formed a key part of your selection process when being offered a role at Barclays. You will be expected to act in accordance with the values in all business operations, and in particular, to follow our Code of Conduct (known as the Barclays Way). More information on this, and how we treat the Values will be available prior to and on joining Barclays.

This offer is conditional upon you satisfying Barclays recruitment and onboarding processes and procedures and relevant applicable law, appropriate regulatory approvals, to meet the process you will need to complete an application form. If you have not already received it, you will receive a link to the site shortly.

On or before your first day of employment, you will need to provide written acknowledgement which proves your eligibility to work in the UK. You will also need to sign and return your Employment Letter, confirming that you have read, understood and accepted fully the terms set out on your first day of employment.

We look forward to welcoming you to Barclays.

Yours sincerely,

Information for New Staff

This section is intended set out an 'at a glance' summary of the key terms of the offer to you. You must, therefore, read these terms in conjunction with any applicable Schedule and the enclosed Detailed Terms and Conditions which together comprise your Employment Letter.

Name: Arun Antony Srinivasan

Employing Company: Barclays Global Service Europe Private Limited ('the Company')

Title: Analyst

Your role will be Graduate Analyst, B&C (or equivalent), or such other role as the Company reasonably requires from time to time.

Start Date:

10 July 2015, or such other date agreed between us in writing, subject to the pre-employment conditions being met in the Company's satisfaction. Your start date for the purposes of confirmation of employment is as set out above.

In addition to the terms set out elsewhere in the Agreement, this offer of employment is contingent upon successful completion of your current degree prior to your anticipated start date. Successful completion of your degree means that it is completed within the specified timelines highlighted in your application profile or your final degree classification matches or exceeds the predicted results stated in your application to Barclays. It is your responsibility to inform our recruitment team immediately if you suspect that your grades will be lower than those predicted. Your start date for the purposes of continuous employment is as set out above.

Working Hours

Your hours of work will be an average of 40 per week. Rest intervals and breaks are separate from the 40 hours of work.

The Company is operational 24 hours a day, 365 days a year; so depending on your business function, your working days and hours may involve early night shifts, and working on weekends/annually off and holidays, as permitted under applicable laws. Your manager will inform you if you are required to work in a different shift.

You will receive sufficient time to your status. Subject to applicable laws, you may be required to work such additional hours as are required for the proper performance of your duties as per any applicable Company policy, which may require that you attend the office, or be available to fulfil your function, outside normal hours and days. Your working hours can be varied by the Company at its discretion, with reasonable notice and in accordance with applicable laws.

Initial Place of Work

You will initially be based in LTC - Statkraft Global Services Centre, Gore Commerce Park SEZ, Survey No 5E, Village Kharsoli Phata - 411014.

However, your place of work will be determined in line with the requirements of the scheme of Barclays' role descriptors. It is a condition of your employment that you agree that you may be required to work or travel to any branch or office in India or overseas. Where you are required to work outside of India, additional terms and conditions may apply to your employment, which will be provided in the individual case.

Probationary Period

Your employment is subject to a probationary period of 6 months, or such additional period as the company may in its discretion consider necessary.

Components	In GBP Per Annum
Basic Salary	462,000.00
Holiday Pay Allowance	231,000.00
Pension Benefit Plan (less further 'Statutory and other Benefits' below)	462,000.00
Annual Salary	1,155,000.00
Pension Fund (Employee's Contributions)	35,440.00
Statutory (per Company policy)	20,213.00
Total Fixed Pay	1,202,653.00

Salary will be payable on a monthly basis, subject to applicable laws, rules, codes, and other statutory deductions, and is currently paid on or around the 28th on the prior working day if the 28th is not a working day of each month. The estimated CTC above does not create any contractual right to any such payment.

You may be eligible to receive discretionary allowances as mentioned above or otherwise, subject to and in accordance with the Company's policy on such allowances / flexible benefit pay component of the salary, subject to amendment from time to time by the Company, in respect of changes in law, tax or other issues. These allowances may be reduced or withdrawn.

Your allowances will be paid along with your salary as mentioned above, subject to applicable laws, rules, codes and other statutory deductions.

Other Payments:

The Company agrees to pay you a one off non-guaranteed educational and bursary payment of £1,100,000.00 ('the Scholarship and Bursary Payment') in recognition of your starting year. The Scholarship and Bursary Payment will be paid within 30 days from your date of joining Barclays. The payment will be made subject to applicable law and/or other withholdings or deductions as required by law or regulation.

As agreed by you, this Scholarship and Bursary Payment will be subject to your compliance with the following requirements. You will be required to repay the Scholarship and Bursary Payment (net of any taxes or other deductions or withholdings as required by law or regulation) within 30 days of any of the following occurring:

- you have terminated your employment voluntarily or have given the Company notice to terminate your employment within 12 months of your start date; or
- you are dismissed for gross misconduct or fundamental breach of contract or for a serious breach of the Risk and Compliance requirements of the Barclays Group (or you have been given notice to terminate your employment for these reasons) within 12 months of your start date; or
- you fail to satisfy the pre-employment conditions set out in this Agreement or as otherwise determined by the Company.

The Company may adjust the repayment amount from any amount payable to you by any Barclays Group company. The Scholarship and Bursary Payment should not be interpreted as giving rise to any right to or legitimate expectation of any other award, nor is it any reference as to the level of any award which may be made to you in future, which will be at the Company's discretion.

You are also given an opportunity to join your employment without the Scholarship and Bursary Payment paid therefore you need to repay the amount, as has been mentioned above, in the case of termination as a result of your employment for a specific term.

Qualifications:

If as a part of your enrolment and continued employment with the Company that you successfully complete any professional qualification and/or examination as may be required and invited to you by the Company from time to time, including without limitation any qualifications or examinations required by the Regulator. You will be entitled to pass all exams within a 12-month period and/or within one or more attempts, which shall be set out in the Company policy.

Subject to the terms set out below and the Company policy, the Company will be responsible for the cost of any first attempt at any such qualification with our preferred provider, including study leave and associated examination fees. You should refer to the Company policy for details.

If you do not pass any exam or obtain a qualification within the period specified or after the relevant number of attempts (which may in some cases only be one), the Company reserves the right to terminate your employment.

In the event that your employment is terminated for gross misconduct, or if you resign from the Company or otherwise terminate your employment or if you fail to join the Company for any reason and/or you fail to satisfy the pre-conditions of employment as set out in this Agreement or as otherwise determined by the Company, you will be required (except where a cancellation or exemption is granted by the Regulator) to repay to the Company the following sum in full within 30 days:

- 100% of all fees and costs paid for by the Company in respect of any course of study if your employment is terminated for gross misconduct or you resign or otherwise terminate your employment at any time during your course of study, or within six months of completing your course of study, or if you fail to join the Company for any reason and/or you fail to satisfy the pre-conditions of employment as set out in this Agreement or as otherwise determined by the Company; or
- 100% of all fees and costs paid for by the Company in respect of any course of study if your employment is terminated for gross misconduct or you resign or otherwise terminate your employment within 12 months of completing your course of study.

Any such sums owing by you to the Company will be deducted from any sums due to you from the Company in, if such a deduction is not made, will be deemed to be due as a debt from you to the Company.

Will may be eligible to be interviewed for a discretionary incentive award on an annual basis, at the absolute discretion of the Company and subject to you being eligible at the relevant time. Normally, awards are made in the first quarter in respect of the previous financial year.

You will be eligible for various statutory benefits in accordance with the relevant laws. You will also be eligible to contribute to the Company's benefits scheme, details of which are set out in the attached FyP which does not form part of your contract of hire and has no contractual effect.

Any benefits are subject to the relevant guidelines from time to time in force. The Company reserves the right to change the benefits or policies/policy from time to time.

If the Company pays or reimburses any expense on your paying the Company towards your relocation from your current place of residence to your place of posting as agreed between the Company and you, if your employment ends less than one year after the Start Date you confirm that you will pay to the Company (or alternatively Company may set-off against write-offs) any amount paid or reimbursed in respect of such relocations from the amount payable to you.

You are entitled to avoid annual leave which includes privilege leave, casual leave and sick leave entitlement in accordance with the applicable laws in the state of your Place of Work. Further details are included in the Detailed Terms and Conditions and on your contract.

Either you or the Company may terminate your employment by giving two months written notice, however, the Company may terminate your employment with immediate effect in accordance with applicable Company policies.

Any redundancy waiver is written period and is at the sole discretion of the Company. Company may adjust balance of annual leave, while granting such redundancy waiver.

Further information on Notice is included in the Detailed Terms and Conditions.

Employees who are eligible under applicable laws to be paid Overtime for work beyond normal working hours, will be paid for the same in accordance to the applicable State laws or rules (Place of Issue).
Further details in regard to Overtime are included within the Additional Time Guidelines available on the company's intranet.

The Company processes employee information for legal, regulatory, administrative and other purposes related to your employment and the conduct of the business of the Barclays Group (the "Agreed Purposes"). Processing includes obtaining, holding, editing, destroying and disclosing employee information in any Barclays Group company and its employees, or to any third parties (for example, insurers, pension scheme trustees, banks, auditors, consultants, legal and firm, business partners, suppliers and vendors engaged to provide products or services to the Company, business partners, suppliers and vendors engaged to provide products or services to the Company, and other employees following a business transfer or merger) for the Agreed Purposes ("Processing" or "Processors").

Defined Terms and Conditions

Definitions

Client-Run Detailed Terms and Conditions

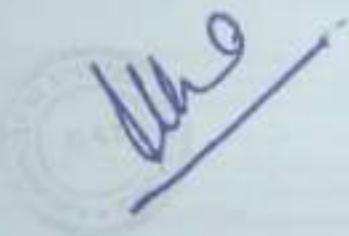

The purpose of the Detailed Terms and Conditions is to provide you with the relevant information on what the Company and the Barclays Group expects from its employees.

The Detailed Terms and Conditions also set out a list of key practices, guidelines and processes that the Barclays Group has developed to reflect our values, purpose and behaviour and as part of our high performance culture and, in accordance with your contractual obligations, must be adhered to at all times. Further information and policies can be found on your own business unit intranet site.

It is important that we review our policies, practices, guidelines and processes to ensure that we stay at the leading edge, enabling us to be one of the most admired financial services companies in the world. From time to time, our policies and procedures do change and you must familiarise yourself with them on joining and periodically throughout your employment. References to the Detailed Terms and Conditions in a policy, practice, guideline and / or process generally are references to the relevant policy, practice, guideline and / or process referred to above.

These detailed terms and conditions also refer to the Barclays Values which must be adhered to at all times. The Barclays Values (Respect, Integrity, Service, Excellence and Stewardship) are set out on your own business unit intranet site.

You should also refer to Appendix 1 which sets out definitions of the terms used in the Detailed Terms and Conditions.

Detained Terms and Conditions of Employment

1.1 Detained Terms and Conditions

This document sets out your detailed terms and conditions of employment and should be read alongside your enclosed Summary of Key Terms. Subject to any applicable Schedule(s), these terms form your employment terms with the Company and are referred to in this document as "Employment Letter". By signing the Employment Letter you confirm that you have read, understood and accept the terms set out in the Detained Terms and Conditions.

1. Pre-employment and signing conditions

2.1 Your confirmation to the Employment will be subject to successful completion of the Probationary Period as indicated in the Summary of Key Terms or such additional period as the Company deems necessary in its absolute discretion. Your employment shall be deemed to be confirmed automatically unless communicated otherwise in writing.

(g) the Company receiving a signed copy of the Terms from you.

2.3 Your offer of employment will be made in compliance with the checks and processes in the pre-employment procedure before your Start Date, this may not always be possible. If after you are employed prior to completion of the pre-employment processes, The Company may terminate your employment on any basis or statutory notice if the check results are not up to our satisfaction or the procedure are not carried out within a reasonable period of time.

2.4 This offer of employment and your continued employment shall commence upon acceptance, nothing will commence to have effect until such time as you have completed all checks and processes as required by your role. Where Regulator approval for your role is required and such approval is sought after your employment commences, then your current employment is conditional on such approval either (i) being obtained or (ii) not being withdrawn by the Company or a Barclays Group company following consultation with the Regulator (or other relevant regulatory body).

2.5 You shall be liable and responsible to inform and update your local contact and address details in the records of the Company from time to time. Failure to do so may constitute gross negligence on your part.

2.6 You should not engage in any matter which could reasonably be anticipated to result in a conflict of interest between you and the Company.

2.7 This offer of employment and your continued employment shall be subject to your successful completion of certain training (the "Key Communication & Culture" and "Operational and Policy Training" (as defined) that may be required by you for the Company from time to time). In total you must attend for more than 2 days during these training programs or you must satisfy the Company to the satisfaction of the Company, the Company shall have the sole discretion to take appropriate action including termination of your employment forthwith in accordance with provisions of Clause 10.1 (a) of the detailed terms and conditions in this Employment Letter. In case of your absence due to any personal emergency, your Line Manager will be responsible for discretion and upon evaluation of the reason of your absence, your supervisor or the Company to highlight you as the most available leaving within a period of 10 days of your returning from absence. In case you are not present for the first training as mentioned above, there may be possible change in process and/or compensation on account of such non-attendance. If you are absent from the induction or the commencement of your employment for a period of 10 days or your returning from absence, the Company shall have the sole discretion to terminate your employment forthwith in accordance with provisions of Clause 10.1 (a) of the

2. Place of Work and Mobility

Your place of work is as set out in your Summary of Key Terms. However, you may need to travel to other locations and offices as may be required in the performance of your duties. You confirm that you will travel to such places both inside and outside India as the Company may reasonably require from time to time. Should the Company need to permanently change your place of work, you will be given reasonable notice of such change (subject to a written letter from us).

3. Duties

4.1 During your employment with the Company you confirm that you will:

(i) act in a manner consistent with and which supports our values, purpose and behaviours and in particular the Barclays Values;

(ii) observe the code of your working life and attention to the interests of the Company and the Barclays Group;

W.M.

(c) Disloyalty and fail to perform such duties and exercise such powers and functions as may reasonably be required by you by the Company in relation to its business and that of the Barclays Group to the best of your ability, and will integrity, due skill, care and diligence;

(d) use your best efforts to promote and protect the interests of the Company and the Barclays Group and not do anything to harm those interests;

(e) comply with all reasonable requests, instructions and requirements given by the Company and the Barclays Group and disapply yourself from any restrictions, understandings and covenants as to your activities in the business of the Company and the Barclays Group as they may reasonably insist;

(f) neither engage in any activities which would detract from the proper performance of your duties under the terms of this Employment Contract, nor continue the prior written consent of the Company in any capacity including as director, shareholder, consultant, contractor, agent, partner or employee, except or be concerned in fiduciary capacity or indirectly in any other trade, commerce or occupation whatsoever provided always that such activities are in compliance with Barclays' policies on disclosure of external business interests. This paragraph will not prevent you holding investment purposes only, shares or securities which do not exceed three per cent (3%) in nominal value of the share capital or stock of any company quoted on a recognised stock exchange;

(g) not engage or be interested in any activities which place you in a position where your interests conflict, improperly with those of the Barclays Group, its clients, customers or shareholders, Barclays' business or its reputation, a conflict of interest may arise where it is unavoidable. In such circumstances, you must make your line manager and/or your supervisor aware of non-compliance without delay. You must not act in relation to the market, without their written direction if appropriate, and;

(h) report any actual or proposed unlawful activity or behaviour affecting the Barclays Group by you or any other employee, officer, contractor of the Barclays Group in any other manner to your manager (or, if they are potentially involved in such unlawful activity or behaviour, to your HR Business Partner or a member of your Department) immediately on becoming aware of it.

5. Salary and allowances

Your salary will be paid on a monthly basis on or around the last working day in each month and is subject to applicable laws, dates, calendar and other applicable withholdings. All tax withholdings out of your salary remuneration package, amount or salary, shall be borne by you. Your salary and any allowances will accrue on a daily basis and will be paid monthly. If you are employed for part of a month,

This salary will be reviewed annually without detriment to yourself. The Company may deduct from any payments to you any money owed by you to any Barclays Group company in accordance with the applicable laws.

Your acceptance of these terms shall constitute your consent to the Company making payment of your salary, compensation, award, incentive benefits and/or of credit to have account with the bank of Company's choice or via such other means as the Company may deem appropriate.

6. Disqualifying circumstances

- 6.1 You may be eligible to be compensated for a compulsory recall or award on an annual basis. The value, form, conditions of, payment and timing of any such awards are at the Company's discretion. This discretion includes the right to reduce the award or a proportion of the award in favour of other staff, including an award of shares and to defer an award or an award under the terms of a Barclays Group incentive plan;
- 6.2 Any disqualification award will only be made if, at that time, you are in employment and are not under notice (whether given or received) nor on the suspension or investigation for a regulatory or disciplinary matter;
- 6.3 If you are subject to an investigation or disciplinary process at the time when compensation is agreed for making of any payment under award or otherwise grant, then the delivery of that payment whilst on award will be suspended. If no finalisation of any investigation and/or disciplinary process, you are discharged for gross misconduct or cause and/or have suspended any form of award of the Bank and/or Compensation requirements of the Barclays Group, then no payment and/or award will be made to you. If no disciplinary action or form of disqualification taken against you, then a payment and/or award may be made to you after the conclusion of that process. However, the amount of any award and/or payment to which you are entitled may be reduced by the Company in its sole discretion, for the avoidance of doubt, any award and/or payment may be reduced by up to 20% or more;
- 6.4 Notwithstanding paragraphs 6.1, any unpaid or unvested award pursuant of an option or incentive may be reduced to 50% as approved by the Company's shareholders or to the value permitted by applicable laws. For the avoidance of doubt, the Company may exercise discretion including at a lesser rate;

(a) Barclays PLC or any subsidiary or parent company having been materially reduced for the period for which the award was made and that reduction due to a change in accounting policy or to satisfy a regulatory or

(b) Your conduct failing, in the reasonable opinion of the Remuneration Committee, following consultation with the Company;

(c) failure and/or refusal the management of the Company, the market and/or Barclays PLC shareholders regarding the financial performance of Barclays PLC or of any subsidiary;

(d) caused harm to the interests of the Barclays Group;

(e) amounted to misconduct, negligence, incompetence or poor performance ("incompetence", "negligence" and "poor performance" as determined by the Remuneration Committee acting in good faith, following consultation with the Company); or

The Executive Officer or any of its subsidiaries, in the reasonable opinion of the Remuneration Committee, following consultation with the Risk Committee, has suffered a material breach of risk management.

6.5 Should the Company become aware that the amount of any award that has been paid or relevant to you was calculated on the basis of any false, incorrect or misleading information, then, the Company may, within the period of any such payment or relevant being made, request that you will repay to it all or the Company the amount for any part of the amount as may be determined in the Company's sole discretion and to the extent permitted by applicable laws. This confirms that in the event of repayment obligation where the Company is authorized to deduct the appropriate amount from your salary or any other amounts due to you (including in instalments) as it determines in its discretion and to the extent permitted by applicable laws.

6.6 A payment of cash and/or a release of shares, or other instruments, under an award will be subject to tax and other deductible withholdings, taxes, duties, charges, deductions and will be subject to the rules of any applicable incentive plan.

6.7 Whether you are eligible to receive a discretionary incentive award, and if so, the amount shall be determined at the absolute discretion of the Company. You have no contractual right, whether express or implied, to receive an award at all, or for payment of any particular amount, and the making of an award in any year does not give rise to any obligation on the Company to make an award in any future year. For the avoidance of doubt, your employment may be terminated by the Company at any time, for any reason, in accordance with clauses 18 or 19 of the Employment Letter and the exercise of the right to terminate is not limited or limited by any term (express or implied).

6.8 When Barclays, certain unusual events are designated as Material Risk Events ("MRE") from. When you are a MRE by any particular year you will be notified of this during or following the end of the relevant year. At any time during the seven year period from the Date 24 which the committee is nominated to you in respect of a period for which you are a MRE, one "Relevant Variable Remuneration" of Barclays determines that:

(A) your actions or omissions have in the reasonable opinion of Barclays amounted to misconduct or material error, and/or

(B) Barclays is the relevant business and has suffered a material failure of risk management.

Then, without prejudice to Barclays other remedies, Barclays may require that you repay any awards, not exceeding the value of the Relevant Variable Remuneration. The repayment shall be of such value as may be determined in Barclays' absolute acting in good faith, in such Barclays Group Company and/or branch office as Barclays may direct.

In respect of paragraph 6.8 (B) above, Barclays shall take into account your position by the applicable function and your level of responsibility before any request for repayment is made. In respect of paragraphs 6.1 and 6.2 above, before any request for repayment is made, Barclays shall take into consideration whether you (i) have participated in, or were responsible for conduct which resulted in significant losses to the Barclays Group, or (ii) failed to meet minimum standards of financial conduct.

For the avoidance of doubt, the whole or any part of the Relevant Variable Remuneration can be claimed back if Barclays makes a determination within seven years from the date that the Relevant Variable Remuneration was awarded to you even if all errors failing within set or pay-out occurred prior to the date of award.

The determination of what constitutes "misconduct", "material error", "imperial failure of risk management", "significant losses" and "minimum standards of financial conduct" shall be determined by Barclays acting in good faith.

You confirm that in the event Barclays makes a repayment determination, you shall retain the amount subject to that determination within the time period specified in the determination. You further confirm and provide authorisation for Barclays to deduct the appropriate repayment amount from your salary or any other entitlements to you, to the full extent permitted by law, whether they Barclays or any other Barclays Group company.

You acknowledge that, in addition to its rights of clause 16 (discretionary terms and conditions of employment) the terms of this clause 6.8 may be amended by the place to the extent deemed reasonable necessary — subject to comply with law, regulations or guidance published by any regulatory authority or other relevant authority from time to time.

This clause shall apply in addition to the general right of repayment set out in clause 6.8 of the Employment Letter.

7. Benefits and Other Benefits

7.1 You will be eligible for various statutory benefits as mentioned in the Summary of Key Terms and in accordance with the relevant laws.

7.2 The Company operates many optional benefits programme for its employees and these benefits are not set out in Table 1D, attached hereto. Notwithstanding the foregoing, provided that these benefits do not form part of your contract of employment or have any commercial or other legal effect.

7.3 The Company has the right to provide additional or extend or withdraw the benefits at any time and without any compensation or notice to you and/or replace any benefit with or otherwise at its discretion.

7.4 Protection of any benefits scheme is subject to the rules of the relevant scheme, which may vary from time to time, and is subject to you satisfying any applicable requirements of the insurer, or third party provider (where necessary). Your participation may be exercised where, in the sole opinion, there can only be obtained on the basis that exceptional conditions or unusually high premiums are required or fixed by the insurer or provider.

8. Annual leave

8.1 Your annual leave entitlement is set out in the Summary of Key Terms. The Company's annual leave year currently runs from 1 January to the 31 December. The date of the annual leave year may be changed. You are entitled to take off your annual leave entitlement in the relevant year, subject to the individual applicable to your terms of service, in which case leave may only be taken over sufficient to end in accordance with those terms and applicable law. Your annual leave days must be agreed in advance with your line manager. You will be allowed to carry your unused annual leave over to the next annual leave year, subject to the limit and restrictions as may be defined in the Company policy and subject to the applicable laws. This policy provides for establishment of unused leave (excluding in case of termination of employment), which will be carried forward by law applicable to the place of your employment at the relevant time.

6.2 If your employment begins during an annual leave year, your annual leave entitlement (plus any Bank or Public Holidays which fall during this period) will be calculated pro rata. During the probationary period you may only take such annual leave as has accrued to you before up until the time of taking such leave. Any unused leave at the time of cessation of employment shall expire and any payment to be made in respect of the unused leave shall be at the sole discretion of Barclays unless mandated by law. If you have taken more leave than your accrued entitlement, you shall be required to repay to the Company an amount equivalent to any holiday taken in excess of your pro rata holiday entitlement, and the Company is authorised to deduct the appropriate amount from your final salary instalment or any other sum owed by the Company to you at the Termination Date.

6.3 In accordance with regulatory guidelines and the Company's policies, the Company may require you to go on a mandatory SAAK break.

5. Intellectual Property

5.1 For the purposes of this paragraph:

"Intellectual Property Rights" means (i) copyrights and related rights, patents, trademarks, confidential information, database rights, inventions and rights in trademarks and designs (whether registered or unregistered), (ii) applications for registration, and the right to apply for registration, for any of the same, and (iii) all other intellectual property rights, and equivalent or similar forms of protection existing anywhere in the world.

"Invention" means any invention, idea, discovery, development, improvement or intellectual-creation, whether or not patentable or capable of registration, and whether or not disclosed in any document; and

"Works" means all documents, materials, software, photographs or graphic works of any type, and other materials in any medium or format which are created or developed, or are in the process of being created or developed, or used (whether in final form or otherwise) by you (or on your behalf) or by the Company in the course of your employment with the Company or for the benefit of the Company and which are protected by, or relate or relate to any Intellectual Property Rights.

5.2 You will promptly disclose and deliver up to the Company all and any Works conceived, or made by you during and in the course of your employment (whether conceived, or made during normal working hours, in your normal place of work, or in connection with others, or otherwise). You confirm that you will provide the Company with original and copies of all correspondence, documents and other materials in whatever medium or form relating to or concerning the Works and the Intellectual Property Rights they contain.

5.3 You confirm that you will only use the Works to perform your obligations under Employment Letter and that you will not make personal copies of any Works other than for the purposes of your employment with the Company.

5.4 It is understood that all Intellectual Property Rights created by you in the course of your employment shall be "works for hire". You acknowledge that you have, and will have at all times while you are employed by the Company a special obligation to further the interests of the shareholders of the Company, and that all Works and Intellectual Property Rights in the Works will automatically on creation, belong to and rest in the Company absolutely to the fullest extent provided by law.

5.5 To the extent that the Works and Intellectual Property Rights do not rest in the Company or the Barclays Group, automatically you will hold such Works and Intellectual Property Rights on trust for the benefit of the Company until the Works and Intellectual Property Rights rest absolutely in the Company.

5.6 You confirm that you will immediately upon request and at the Company's expense, provide all such documents and assistance as may be necessary to vest the Works and Intellectual Property Rights in the Works in the Company, to enable the Company to enjoy the full benefit of the Intellectual Property Rights, and to enable the Company to enforce its Intellectual Property Rights against third parties or anyone acting brought against the Company in relation to any Intellectual Property Rights.

5.7 By signing Employment Letter you accept and consent to assign to the Company as a member of the Barclays Group (as specified by the Company) all current and future Intellectual Property Rights in the Works and any other proprietary rights (subject to compensation by way of precise assignment of future rights for the full term of such rights). You confirm that such assignment shall be permanent, non-exclusive and royalty free. You also confirm that notwithstanding the provisions of Section 19(1) of the Copyright Act, 1987, such assignment in so far as it relates to copyrighted material shall not affect the rights transferred thereto (such as the Employee, and if the Company does not exercise the rights under the assignment within a period of one year from the end of employment). You acknowledge and confirm that you shall retain any right to and shall not raise any objection or claim to the Copyright Board with respect to the assignment, pursuant to Section 19A of the Copyright Act, 1987.

5.8 You acknowledge and acknowledge, waive your moral rights in relation to existing and future Works, including your right to be identified as the author of the Works, and not to have the Works subject to derogatory treatment. You acknowledge that, except as may be expressly provided by law, no further remuneration or compensation other than that provided for under Employment Letter is or may become due to you.

5.9 When the Employee's offer ceases of existence, for whatever reason, you will immediately deliver up to the Company all Works in your possession in either paper format, and under no circumstances has any Works be released by you except with the prior written consent of the Company.

5.10 Without prejudice to any specific legal rights which you may otherwise have, you acknowledge that no further remuneration or compensation other than that expressly provided for in this Employment Letter will become due to you in respect of your compliance with this clause 5.

6. Confidentiality

6.1 During your employment with the Company or at any time afterwards, you must not disclose to any person or make use of any Confidential Information or trade secrets that you have obtained in the course of your employment. This includes information that you have acquired in the course of your employment concerning the business or affairs of the Company, similar any other Barclays Group company or its customers or clients. You are required to use your best efforts to prevent the unauthorised publication or disclosure of any such Confidential Information. 14. We Complain that it is unacceptable practice for any authority screening, considering for approval, rejected, suspended or partially-reduced references checks from time to time. This approach has the very much concerning result that only the unselected references are supported or released to comply with the minimum standards for the role you are applying for.

(b) You should retain the currency shown by any of the mechanisms set out in paragraph 18(1)(c) of the Employment Lien Act or the relevant successor legislation.

22.2 That you will not use or distribute the Company's Software, and you shall not make any representation or warranty to the Company, either oral or in writing, which are inaccurate or inconsistent with the terms of this License Agreement.

(2) Not furnished to the Company, illustrating your use of all Company resources and its communication and material equipment, including without limitation the telephone, internet, stationary, wireless applications and email systems) and information stored on the Company's computer system(s), as described in your local appropriate data policy or otherwise in accordance with the Bank's Data protection and/or guidance on electronic communications. A copy of such policy or guidance must be provided.

22.5. You understand that you shall, during your employment, be granted access under the terms of your contract of hire to all records, books, notes, accountings or other documents or files which are maintained by the Company, whether any of the rights or benefits for which you are entitled will not be affected by any way of compensation by loss of office or otherwise, as such documents are used for the transaction of business.

2.2 If your appointment is terminated at any time by reason of any non-compliance or infringement of the Company or any Business Person's instructions, whether by writing or otherwise, and you are relieved of your services with any comment or undertaking included in or resulting from the non-compliance or infringement, you shall remain in trust until such time as the Company or any Business Person ceases to be party to the terms of this Employment Letter, you shall have no claim against the Company or any such undertaking entered into or contracted with this instrument.

and verify that

(i) you are not precluded or restricted by any terms of any agreement, undertaking, or covenant or any obligation to any third party from entering into this Employment Letter or undertaking to properly performing any of the duties of your employment with the Company;

(ii) you will notify the Company of any change in circumstances around the termination of your employment with your previous employer between the date of this Employment Letter and the Start Date;

(iii) you are not currently, and have never been, the subject of an investigation by any company or body for suspected bribery or corruption activity where either (a) the investigation was conducted and your conduct found to amount to misconduct; or (b) where the investigation was ongoing and did not reach a conclusion because your employment (or engagement) with that company or body was terminated during the investigation (whether by mutual consent or by voluntary resignation or otherwise);

(iv) you are not currently and have never been, the subject of an investigation into suspected corrupt activity involving elements of bribery (including that of itself) or anti-competitive behaviour; and

(v) you will not during your employment at the Company breach any third party's rights in respect of confidential information, whether intellectual property;

(D.2) Any breach of these certifications will enable Barclays to immediately terminate your employment.

24. Governing Law

These Terms are governed in accordance with the laws of the state of your normal place of work, or (if neither if you work in Corporate Banking, Investment Banking or Wealth and Investment Management, the jurisdiction referred to is the exclusive jurisdiction of the competent courts of the state of your normal place of work, or (if neither if you work in Corporate Banking, Investment Banking or Wealth and Investment Management in relation to any legal action or proceeding) that a law set out in connection with this Employment Letter.

25. Your Rights, Responsibilities and Procedures

(25.1) During your employment with the Company (and where appropriate after your employment has terminated), you must comply with all of the Company's policies and procedures and any legal and/or regulatory requirements, including those referred to in Schedule One (policies and procedures) and any other regulations relating to, and relevant to, consumer finance which do not may result in disciplinary action being taken against you.

(25.2) You should familiarise yourself with all policies and procedures. For example, if you provide financial advice and sell products on your behalf, The Code of Conduct and the policies, guidelines and procedures on the following issues are particularly important although this is not intended as a non-exhaustive list:

CONFIDENTIALITY AND INVENTION ASSIGNMENT AGREEMENT FOR ENGLAND/WALES BASED, LEVEL 1-5 EMPLOYEES

Agreement dated 7 June 2022

BETWEEN

(1) EVI TECHNOLOGIES LIMITED a company incorporated in England and Wales whose registered office is located at Poseidon House, Castle Park, Cambridge, CB3 0RD (the "Company")

AND

(2) Samkit Shah of L-1, Mangal Kunj, Jambli Gali S.V.Road, Borivali West,Mumbai 400092, IN (the "Employee").

RECITALS

- A. The Employee is entering into this agreement in connection with the Employee's acceptance of a new contract of employment with the Company or as a condition of the Employee's continued employment or in consideration of receiving a promotion;
- B. The Company is a wholly owned subsidiary of Amazon.com, Inc., a Delaware, USA corporation ("Amazon").

NOW IT IS AGREED as follows:

1. Disclosure and Delivery to the Company

Disclosure and Delivery to the Company

- 1.1. The Employee shall, without additional reward, promptly disclose and deliver over to the Company, to the extent that such disclosure could reasonably be expected to be of interest to the Company, in writing, or in such form and manner as the Company may reasonably require, the following ("Disclosure Information"):
 - 1.1.1. any and all algorithms, procedures or techniques related to the Company's business activities or to the Employee's work with the Company, and the essential ideas and principles underlying such algorithms, procedures or techniques, conceived, originated, adapted, discovered, developed, acquired, evaluated, tested or applied by the Employee while employed by the Company, whether or not such algorithms, procedures or techniques are embodied in a computer program;
 - 1.1.2. any and all pricing or marketing strategies, the essential ideas and principles on which such strategies are based, and any information that might reasonably be expected to lead to the development of such strategies, conceived, originated, adapted, discovered, developed, acquired, evaluated, tested, or applied by the Employee while employed by the Company;
 - 1.1.3. any and all products and services, and the essential ideas and principles underlying such products and services, conceived, originated, adapted, discovered, developed, acquired, evaluated, tested or applied by the Employee while employed by the Company, whether or not such products or services are marketed, sold or provided by the Company; and
 - 1.1.4. any other ideas or information conceived, originated, adapted, discovered, developed, acquired, evaluated, tested, or applied by the Employee while employed by the Company if the idea or information could reasonably be expected to prove useful or valuable to the Company.

1.2. Certain Qualifications and Recognitions

The Employee recognises that the Employee will hold an important position at the Company, and that, as one of the Employee's important job duties, the Employee will be expected to conceive, originate, adapt, discover, develop, acquire, evaluate, test and/or apply ("Conceive and/or Originate") products, services, techniques, algorithms, strategies, procedures and/or ideas ("Products and/or Services"), even when, in order to do so, the Employee must help lead the Company in new directions, or into activities and business areas which are new to the Company. However, the Company recognises that the Employee may Conceive and/or Originate certain Products and/or Services which are unrelated to the activities of the Company, unrelated to the planned activities of the Company, and unrelated to any reasonable extension of the activities or planned activities of the Company ("Unrelated Products and/or Services"). The parties therefore agree that, notwithstanding the other provisions of this Clause 1:

- 1.2.1. any Unrelated Products and/or Services Conceived and/or Originated by the Employee, even while employed by the Company, shall not be considered Disclosure Information;
 - 1.2.2. the fact that the Employee used modest amounts of Company equipment or facilities (for example, by sending e-mail messages using Company computers and network connections) in the course of Conceiving and/or Originating an Unrelated Product and/or Service shall not cause such an Unrelated Product and/or Service to be considered Disclosure Information;
 - 1.2.3. the fact that the Employee Conceived and/or Originated a Product and/or Service during the Company's normal operating hours or on the Company's premises shall not cause an Unrelated Product and/or Service to be considered Disclosure Information;
 - 1.2.4. the fact that the Employee Conceived and/or Originated a Product and/or Service outside of the Company's normal operating hours or off the Company's premises shall not, in and of itself, prevent such a Product and/or Service from being considered Disclosure Information.
- 1.3. Information obtained from Third Parties

For purposes of this Clause 1, information "acquired" shall be deemed to include information relayed to the Employee by third parties, whether or not such third parties were compensated by the Company in connection with such acquisition.

NOTICE Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement to the contrary, this Agreement does not obligate the Employee to assign or offer to assign to the Company any of the Employee's rights in an invention for which no equipment, supplies, facilities or trade secret information of the Company was used and which was developed entirely on the Employee's own time, unless (a) the invention relates (i) directly to the business of the Company or (ii) to the Company's actual or demonstrably anticipated research or development, or (b) the invention results from any work performed by the Employee for the Company.

2. Confidential Information

2.1. Definition of Confidential Information

The parties acknowledge that, in order to permit the Employee to successfully perform and/or continue to perform the duties associated with the Employee's employment with the Company, it is necessary for the Company to provide the Employee with access to certain valuable proprietary information and knowledge of certain modes of business operation ("Confidential Information") which are essential to the effective operation of the Company, and which give the Company a competitive advantage over other firms pursuing related business activities. In the context of this Agreement, the term "Confidential Information" shall be deemed to include but not limited to:

- 2.1.1. the identity of and any contact lists or databases relating to the Company's business partners, customers, investors, or joint venturers, vendors or suppliers and the terms on which the Company does business with each such entity or generally;
- 2.1.2. computer software developed by or for the Company;
- 2.1.3. data of any sort compiled by or for the Company, including, but not limited to, data on the effectiveness of any particular marketing campaign or advertising venue or method or demographic or other data related to the Company's customers or prospective customers;

- 2.1.4. the fact that the Company uses, has used, or has evaluated for potential use a particular computer program or system, or any particular database or source of data, supplied by a party other than the Company;
- 2.1.5. algorithms, procedures or techniques, or the essential ideas and principles underlying such algorithms, procedures or techniques, developed by, or whose workings are otherwise known to, the Company (but excluding any algorithms, procedures or techniques in each case which is in the public domain and excluding any algorithms, procedures or techniques licensed by the Company from a third party on a non-exclusive basis unless such licence or other circumstances identify such algorithms, procedures or techniques as being of a confidential nature to which obligations of confidentiality are attached), whether or not such algorithms, procedures or techniques are embodied in a computer program, including, but not limited to, techniques for identifying prospective customers, communicating effectively with prospective or current customers, reducing operating costs, or increasing system reliability;
- 2.1.6. details of any marketing, development, pre-selling or other exploitation of any intellectual property, or other rights of the Company, any proposed options or agreements to purchase, licence or otherwise exploit any intellectual property of the Company, any intellectual property which is under consideration for development by the Company, any advertising, marketing, or promotional campaign which the Company is to conduct;
- 2.1.7. the fact that the Company uses, has used, or has evaluated for potential use any particular algorithm, procedure or technique, or the essential ideas and principles underlying such algorithm, procedure or technique, developed by a party other than the Company (including any algorithms, procedures or techniques in the public domain), whether or not such algorithms, procedures or techniques are embodied in a computer program;
- 2.1.8. pricing or marketing strategies developed, investigated, acquired, evaluated, modified, tested or employed by the Company, or any information related to, or that might reasonably be expected to lead to, the development of such strategies; prices and pricing strategy, discounts, mark-ups or profit margins, marketing, tenders and any price sensitive information;
- 2.1.9. information about the Company's plans, including, but not limited to, plans for expanding into new products or services, maturing business opportunities, business strategy, marketing plans, presentations, tenders, projects, joint ventures or acquisitions and developments;
- 2.1.10. financial information relating to the Company including, but not limited to, management accounts, sales forecasts, dividend forecasts, profit and loss accounts and balance sheets, draft accounts, results, profit margins and any information that would typically be included in the Company's financial statements, including, but not limited to, the amount of the Company's assets, liabilities, net worth, revenues, expenses, or net income;
- 2.1.11. information related to, or that might reasonably be expected to lead to, understanding the viability of selling any particular product or service via any particular vehicle such as interactive, computer-based shopping;
- 2.1.12. details of the individual names, the job skills and capabilities, the performance or remuneration and benefits of any employee or temporary worker of the Company or any Affiliate;
- 2.1.13. and information in respect of which the Company is bound by an obligation of confidence to a third party; and
- 2.1.14. any other information gained in the course of the Employee's employment with the Company which the Employee ought reasonably to know is confidential and/or that could reasonably be expected to prove detrimental to the Company if disclosed to third parties, including without limitation any information that could reasonably be expected to aid a competitor or potential competitor of the Company (a "Competitor") in making inferences regarding the nature or scope of the Company's business activities, where such inferences could reasonably be expected to allow such a Competitor to compete more efficiently or effectively with the Company; but will be deemed not to include any information that:

- 2.1.15. is in or enters the public domain without breach of this Agreement;
- 2.1.16. is received by the Employee from a third party who did not acquire or disclose such information by a wrongful or tortious act; or
- 2.1.17. can be shown to have been obtained by the Employee prior to the commencement of the Employee's period of continuous employment (as defined in the Employment Rights Act 1996) with the Company (save for information obtained by the Employee from the Company) and any information which is obtained by the Employee subsequent to and independent of the Employee's relationship with the Company (save for information obtained by the Employee from the Company).

2.2. Use and Disclosure of Confidential Information

2.2.1. The Employee acknowledges that the Employee has acquired and/or will acquire Confidential Information in the course of or incidental to the Employee's employment with the Company, that the ability of the Company to continue in business could be seriously jeopardised if such Confidential Information were to be disclosed generally and/or were to be used by the Employee or by other persons or firms to compete with the Company. Accordingly, the Employee acknowledges that the following restraints are necessary for the reasonable protection of the Company, of its business, and its partners, customers, investors, or joint venturers, vendors or suppliers and therefore agrees that:

- (a) the Employee shall not, directly or indirectly, at any time, during the term of the Employee's employment with the Company or at any time thereafter, and without regard to when or for what reason, if any, such employment shall terminate, use or cause to be used any such Confidential Information in connection with any activity or business except the business of the Company, and shall not cause or facilitate the publication or disclosure of such Confidential Information to any individual, partnership, corporation, or other entity unless such disclosure has been specifically authorised in writing by the Company;
- (b) the Employee shall observe strict secrecy as to the affairs and dealings of the Company;
- (c) the Employee shall not make or store copies of any Confidential Information onto personal folders or directories (whether electronic or otherwise), and shall not transmit Confidential Information or copies thereof to any personal email accounts; and
- (d) during the continuance of the Employee's employment with the Company the Employee shall ensure as far as practicable that other employees of the Company comply with the provisions of this clause 2.2.1. and shall notify the Company as soon as possible if the Employee discovers, or reasonably believes, that any third party (including, without limitation, any employee or temporary worker of the Company) has used, divulged or disclosed or will use, divulge or disclose Confidential Information.

2.2.2 Notwithstanding Clause 2.2.1, the Employee may disclose Confidential Information as required to comply with binding orders of governmental entities or regulatory authorities that have jurisdiction over the Employee, provided that the Employee:

- (a) gives the Company reasonable written notice to allow the Company to seek an injunctive order or other appropriate remedy;
- (b) provides any assistance which the Company may reasonably require in order to secure such order or such remedy (with the Employee's expenses reasonably incurred in providing such assistance to be reimbursed by the Company);
- (c) discloses only such information as is required by the governmental entity or regulatory authority; and

- (d) uses reasonable efforts to obtain confidential treatment for any Confidential Information so disclosed.
- 2.3. No Waiver of Trade Secret Protection
Nothing contained in this Agreement shall be deemed to weaken or waive any rights related to the protection of trade secrets that the Company may have under common law or any applicable statutes.
- 2.4. Patents, Copyright and Other Intellectual Property
- 2.4.1. Subject to the Employee's rights under Section 39-43 of the Patents Act 1977, all patents, copyrights, design rights, registered designs, trade secrets, trade marks, trade names and domain names, rights in get-up, goodwill and the right to sue for passing off, unfair competition rights, rights in computer software, database rights, topography rights, and other proprietary rights relating to the Confidential Information or to the Disclosure Information as defined in Clause 1 shall be automatically owned by the Company to the fullest extent permitted by the law. The Employee hereby irrevocably transfers and assigns to the Company and its successors the Employee's entire right, title and interest in the Confidential Information and/or Disclosure Information and any modifications throughout the world, including, without limitation:
- (a) all patents and registered designs in the Confidential Information and/or the Disclosure Information and all rights to secure registrations, renewals and extensions of the same;
 - (b) by way of future assignment, all copyrights, design rights, trade secrets and other proprietary rights in the Confidential Information and/or the Disclosure Information for the full terms of each throughout the world and all rights to secure (where applicable) registrations, renewals and extensions of the same;
 - (c) all rights to make, use, practice, import, export and otherwise fully exploit the Confidential Information and/or the Disclosure Information and any and all modifications that the Employee or Company may hereafter make or develop;
 - (d) all rights to file and prosecute applications for patent protection and registered designs covering the Confidential Information and/or the Disclosure Information and modifications thereon, and the processes and designs embodied therein, in the United Kingdom, United States and in every other country throughout the world;
 - (e) all rights under any patent which may be issued on the Confidential Information and/or the Disclosure Information or the modifications thereon, and any processes and designs therein, and all rights to enjoy the same; and
 - (f) all documents, notes, notebooks, drawings, schematics, prototypes, magnetically encoded media, or other materials related to the Confidential Information or to the Disclosure Information.
- 2.4.2. To the extent that any intellectual property rights of the kind listed in Clause 2.4.1 do not vest automatically in the Company or are not assigned to the Company by virtue of that clause, the Employee agrees to hold such rights on trust for the sole benefit of the Company and its successors.
- 2.4.3. During the period of the Employee's employment with the Company, the Employee agrees to provide the Company with such information and know-how in the Employee's possession or control as may be necessary for the Company to use, market, develop and/or commercially exploit the Confidential Information and the Disclosure Information and modifications.
- 2.4.4. During the period of the Employee's employment with the Company and as may be reasonably necessary subsequent to the Employee's employment, the Employee agrees to cooperate with the Company as may be necessary and at the Company's reasonable expense, to obtain patent, registered design, copyright and design rights protection for the Confidential Information and the Disclosure Information and modifications and agrees to do such further acts and execute and deliver to the Company such instruments

- as may be required to perfect, register, protect or enforce the Company's ownership of the rights assigned under this Agreement.
- 2.4.5. The Employee irrevocably and unconditionally waives in favour of the Company any and all moral rights in any Confidential Information and the Disclosure Information conferred on the Employee by Chapter IV of Part 1 of the Copyright Designs and Patents Act 1988 and agrees not to support, maintain or permit any claim for infringement of moral rights in such copyright works.
- 2.4.6. The Employee acknowledges that, for the purpose of the proviso to section 2(1) of the Registered Designs Act 1949 (as amended), the covenants on the Employee's part and the Company will be treated as good consideration and the Company will be the proprietor of any design contained in the Employee's right title and interest in the Confidential Information and the Disclosure Information.
- 2.5. For purposes of this Clause 2, the term Company shall be deemed to include Amazon as well as any subsidiaries or affiliates of Amazon that may, from time to time, become associated with Amazon.

3. Attention and Effort

During the term of the Employee's employment with the Company, and without limiting any other provision hereof, the Employee will devote all of the Employee's entire productive time, ability, attention and effort to the Company's business and will skillfully serve its interests and will not carry on any other profession, trade or gainful employment.

4. Protected Disclosures

Nothing in this Agreement shall restrict the rights of the Employee to make a Protected Disclosure under the Employment Rights Act 1996 ("ERA"). If the Employee has a particular grievance, concern, disclosure or information of a particularly sensitive nature or has reasonable grounds to believe that the Company has committed a crime, a breach of its legal obligations, a miscarriage of justice, or a breach of health and safety or environmental legislation, the Employee should raise this in the first instance with a manager of the Employee's choice. For the purposes of this clause "Protected Disclosure" shall mean a qualifying disclosure as defined by section 43B ERA which is made by the Employee in accordance with any of sections 43C to 43H ERA.

5. Severability

Each provision of this Agreement is separate and severable from the remaining provisions and enforceable accordingly. If any provision of this Agreement is unenforceable for any reason, but would be enforceable if some of its wording were deleted, it shall apply with such deletions as are necessary to make it enforceable.

6. Waiver

The failure of a party to insist upon strict adherence to any term of this Agreement on any occasion or occasions shall not be considered a waiver thereof or deprive that party of the right thereafter to insist upon strict adherence to that term or any other term of this Agreement.

7. Survival

The obligations of the Employee under Clause 2 of this Agreement shall survive the termination of this Agreement and of the Employee's employment with the Company.

8. Headings

The Clause headings appearing in this Agreement are used for convenience of reference only and shall not be considered a part of this Agreement or in any way modify, amend or affect the meaning of any of its provisions.

9. Rules of Construction

Whenever the context so requires the use of the singular shall be deemed to include the plural and vice versa.

10. Governing Law

The formation, construction and performance of this Agreement shall be governed by the law of England and Wales and the parties irrevocably submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of England and Wales.

Agreement for Reimbursement of Secondary Class 1 National Insurance Liability

This agreement (the "NIC Agreement") relates to options and restricted stock units that are to be settled in shares, and any other rights to acquire shares, that are or may be granted to you under the Amazon.com, Inc. 1997 Stock Incentive Plan (the "Plan") ("Rights").

If you acquire shares pursuant to Rights, if Rights are assigned, released or cancelled or if benefits are received in connection with Rights, any gain arising upon such event will be subject to income tax and employees' National Insurance Contributions ("NICs"). In addition, Amazon.com, Inc. or your employing company (the "Employing Company") has a liability to pay employer's National Insurance Contributions (by virtue of section 4(4)(a) of the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992) on any gains which are subject to income tax and employee's NICs in connection with your Rights ("Secondary NICs"). The Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992, as amended, enables you and the Employing Company to enter into an agreement pursuant to which you will reimburse the Employing Company for any amount of the Secondary NICs that becomes payable by the Employing Company.

Participation in the Plan and the acquisition of shares pursuant to any Rights granted to you under the Plan is subject to you entering into an agreement, whereby you agree to accept the whole or any part of any liability to Secondary NICs that arises in connection with any Rights granted to you under the Plan, as determined by Amazon.com, Inc. in its absolute discretion. Accordingly, and by signing this NIC Agreement, you agree that in the event you acquire shares pursuant to your Rights, you assign or release your Rights or in the event of cancellation of or receipt of a benefit in connection with your Rights (each within the meaning of section 477 of the Income Tax (Earnings and Pensions) Act 2003), or any other event or circumstance which gives rise to a charge pursuant to section 4(4)(a) of the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992, you will be liable to pay any Secondary NICs which is due on any gain which you make that Amazon.com Inc., in its absolute discretion, determines shall be payable by you.

Your Agreement

By signing this NIC Agreement:

1. You hereby agree with Amazon.com, Inc. and the Employing Company (which, for the purposes of this NIC Agreement, shall include any entity employing you from time to time), as a condition of participation in the Plan and the acquisition of shares pursuant to any Rights granted to you under the Plan, to accept the whole or any part of any liability to secondary Class 1 National Insurance contributions that arises pursuant to section 4(4)(a) of the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992 in connection with any Rights granted to you under the Plan at any time, as determined by Amazon.com, Inc. in its absolute discretion (the "Relevant Secondary NICs").
2. You understand that this NIC Agreement, which is permitted by paragraph 3A(2) and (4) of Schedule 1 to the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992, will not apply to the extent that it relates to Secondary NICs arising by virtue of Chapter 3A of Part 7 of the Income Tax (Earnings and Pensions) Act 2003 (employment income: securities with artificially depressed market value). You further understand that this NIC Agreement further does not apply in relation to any liability, or any part of any liability, arising as a result of regulations being given retrospective effect by virtue of section 4B(2) of either the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992 or the Social Security Contributions and Benefits (Northern Ireland) Act 1992.
3. You hereby authorise the Employing Company, or Amazon.com, Inc. on behalf of the Employing Company, to collect any Relevant Secondary NICs payable by you pursuant to this NIC Agreement, together with any applicable income tax and employee's National Insurance Contributions, (together, the "withholding requirement") in one or more of the following ways:-

- a. if you wish to retain the shares that you acquire in respect of the Rights, by you providing the Employing Company, not later than the time you are entitled to acquire such shares, with the amount (in cleared funds) of the withholding requirement that is due on the gain (in addition to the price of the shares). With respect to options, you will be required to pay the said amount through a brokerage firm designated by Amazon.com, Inc. and in the case of restricted stock units you will be required to pay the said amount directly to Amazon.com, Inc. on behalf of the Employing Company;
 - b. if you wish the exercise of a Right which is an option to be a "cashless" exercise, i.e., there is a simultaneous exercise of the Right and sale of the underlying shares, by you authorising a brokerage firm designated by Amazon.com, Inc. to remit to the Employing Company or to Amazon.com, Inc. on behalf of the Employing Company, not later than the settlement date for the sale of such shares, an amount equal to the withholding requirement (in addition to the price of the shares);
 - c. in the case of restricted stock units, by your authorising Amazon.com, Inc. to arrange the sale of the number of whole shares with a value net of sale expenses equal to the withholding requirement on your behalf and deliver the proceeds of such sale to the Employing Company;
 - d. by deduction from any salary payment or any other money or shares which may be due to you; and/or
 - e. by any other method referred to in the award agreement(s) applicable to the relevant Right(s).
4. Where payment is due from the Employing Company or from the designated brokerage firm for the assignment, release or cancellation of the Rights, you hereby authorise a deduction of the relevant amount of the Secondary NICs sufficient to cover the liability from such payment. Where any agreement is made between you and a third party for the assignment, release or cancellation of the Right, and payment is made from a third party, you authorise the third party to withhold an amount sufficient to cover the relevant amount of the Secondary NICs due from the payment, for onward remittance to the Employing Company.
5. You hereby agree that no shares shall be registered in your name pursuant to a Right if you have not met the amount of the Relevant Secondary NICs due from you pursuant to this NIC Agreement, and any other tax liability applicable to you, in respect of the relevant Right.
6. You hereby understand and agree that this NIC Agreement shall continue in full force and effect for such period as the Employing Company is responsible for the Relevant Secondary NICs (notwithstanding any cessation of your employment with the Employing Company or in the United Kingdom), except to the extent that this NIC Agreement is terminated by Amazon.com, Inc. or the Employing Company in its absolute discretion as may be notified to you in writing.

Please electronically sign this NIC Agreement. If Amazon.com, Inc. does not receive your signed NIC Agreement, you will not be entitled to acquire shares pursuant to any Right(s) granted to you under the Plan.

Dear Samkit,

I am pleased to offer you the position of Software Dev Engineer Intern with Evi Technologies Limited ("the Company") as outlined in this letter and the attached statement of Terms and Conditions of Employment, given to you in accordance with the Employment Rights Act 1996. The offer is conditional on and subject to:

- (a) the Company receiving:
 - a. satisfactory employment references;
 - b. the result of a background check including a Disclosure Scotland check, and certificate issued by the Disclosure and Barring Service (if applicable);
 - c. a standard criminal records check in the country in which you were resident if you have lived outside the UK for more than one year within the last seven years;
 - d. confirmation of your educational/professional qualifications where it is a requirement of your role;
 - e. and of course, confirmation (prior to joining) of your eligibility to work in the UK.
- (b) on your start date (as set out in the attached Statement of Terms and Conditions of Employment), you being contractually free to commence employment with the Company and not subject to any contractual obligation or restriction which would be breached by you commencing employment with the Company on the intended start date and carrying out the duties of Software Dev Engineer Intern.

It is a requirement of your employment with the Company that you complete and submit the employee section of the background check before your start date with the Company, and you may not commence employment with the Company if you fail to do so.

Start Date, Salary, and other entitlements

Details of your start date, salary, and other entitlements are set out in the attached documents. Please also note that if you join the Company after the 19th of the month your first salary payment including any sign on bonus being paid to you, will not be made until the payroll date of the following month.

Confidential Information

The Company, and all Amazon companies take the protection of Confidential Information very seriously. We protect our own Confidential Information and we do not solicit or use the Confidential Information belonging to third parties. This applies to all employees during the recruitment process, employment with us, and afterwards.

You will therefore ensure that you do not bring with you to the Company any document or other material (in whatsoever medium) embodying any Confidential Information from your previous employer, or in any way disclose such information to us. Should you be asked to disclose Confidential Information by any employee of the Company you must refuse.

The Company also expects you to comply in full with any obligations you may owe to any former employer or any third party in relation to the protection of their confidential information. You should familiarize yourself with the terms of any such obligations and ensure that you comply with your obligations at all times.

Any breach by you of your obligations to Amazon to protect its Confidential Information, or of any obligations you may owe a third party in relation to the protection of their confidential information whilst you are an Amazon employee, may lead to disciplinary proceedings being commenced against you.

Confidentiality and Invention Assignment Deed

As a condition of this offer of employment, we require that you sign the enclosed Amazon.com, Inc. Group Confidentiality and Invention Assignment Deed. This needs to be signed in the presence of an adult witness. The Company reserves the right to withdraw this offer or terminate your employment if you do not sign the Deed, or if you amend any term of the Deed.

Acceptance of this Offer of Employment

If you wish to accept employment with the Company, please indicate so by signing:

- Statement of Terms and Conditions of Employment
- NIC Agreement
- Confidentiality and Invention Assignment Deed
- New Employee Mandatory Certification form

Please also read and acknowledge the Company Policies included on the MyDocs Portal.

Additionally, please complete the following forms:

- New Starter form
- Starter checklist (tax declaration). When you have a P45 available, please send it to the HR Department.

Please complete these actions within 10 business days. If you have not done so by then, this offer will lapse.

Reimbursement of Secondary NIC Liability

Please take note of the attached document 'NIC Agreement' which you are required to sign as part of your acceptance to this offer of employment. At each vest (date of you becoming owner of Amazon shares) the value of the shares that are being transferred to you at that time is subject to tax and national insurance contributions. By signing the attached document, you agree to bear the whole or any part of any liability to secondary Class 1 National Insurance contributions that arises in connection with stock-related earnings ("Secondary NICs"), as determined by Amazon.com, Inc. in its absolute discretion (currently 50% of the Secondary NICs, which applies to stock-related earnings at a rate of 13.8%). This is administered through payroll and based on the value of the stock that you become the owner of at the time of vest.

Educational and Professional Qualifications

On or before your first day of employment, please provide the originals of all qualification documents and/or the certificates of any professional qualifications that were listed in your curriculum vitae or discussed with you during the hire process and which: (i) are a requirement of your role; and/or (ii) the Company has specifically requested that you provide. These should be provided to the HR Department.

Immigration Law Requirements

It is your obligation to ensure that you hold the correct immigration status to enable you to work lawfully in the UK at all times and that you can evidence this to Amazon's satisfaction as/when required. Therefore, on or before your first day of employment, you will need to produce original documents to evidence your entitlement to work in the UK for inspection in accordance with Home Office's guidance on the prevention of illegal working. Examples of acceptable documents include the following:

- Passports and/or a national Identity card in the manner/form permitted by the Home Office's guidance on acceptable right to work documents from time to time;
- Evidence of your holding valid status under the EU Settlement Scheme;
- UK birth certificate accompanied with proof of national insurance;
- A current Biometric Residence Permit card or vignette printed inside a valid passport;
- Any other List A or B document permitted by Home Office guidelines or a satisfactory response from the Home Office's online right to work checking service confirming that you are entitled to work in the UK.

Should your immigration status change at any time, you must inform your line manager and the relevant authorities immediately. Amazon may terminate your employment if you are unable to demonstrate your right to work in the UK in line with Home Office guidance.

We are very excited about the possibility of your joining us. I hope that you will accept this offer and look forward to a productive and mutually beneficial working relationship. Please let me know if I can answer any questions for you about any of the matters outlined in this letter.

I look forward to receiving your written acceptance and working with you at the Company.

Yours sincerely
Amazon Recruiting Team

STATEMENT OF TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT

EMPLOYER: Evi Technologies Limited ("the Company")
EMPLOYEE: Samkit Shah

The following main terms and conditions will apply to your employment with the Company. This Statement is given to you in accordance with the Employment Rights Act 1996 and forms your contract of employment.

The Company also has a number of policies and procedures (the "Company's Policies and Procedures") and a Code of Conduct. The Company's Policies and Procedures and the Code of Conduct are accessible via the Company's Intranet (and hard copies can be requested from the Human Resources Department). You are expected to familiarize yourself with these Policies and Procedures and the Code of Conduct and by signing this Statement you agree to comply with them, as amended from time to time. Any breach of the Company's Policies and Procedures or the Code of Conduct may result in disciplinary action being taken, up to and including summary termination of your employment. Except where otherwise stated, the Company's Policies and Procedures and the Code of Conduct do not form part of your terms and conditions of employment. The Company reserves the right to change these Policies and Procedures and the Code of Conduct from time to time.

1. Date of Commencement

- 1.1. Your employment with the Company will be for a fixed term beginning on 9 January 2023 and terminating on 28 April 2023 at which time your employment will end automatically without the need for further notice, unless otherwise agreed in writing between you and the Company or terminated earlier at any time by you or the Company in accordance with clause 20 (Termination of Employment).
- 1.2. This employment is not continuous with a previous period of employment.
- 1.3. Your contract of employment is subject to a six month probationary period which commences on your first day of employment with the Company. At the end of this period the Company will notify you whether or not you have satisfactorily completed your probationary period. The Company reserves the right to extend your probationary period (and your probationary period will not end unless and until the Company confirms to you that your probationary period has ended).

2. Duties

- 2.1. You will be employed in the position of Software Dev Engineer Intern. You will be expected to do your job to the best of your ability at all times.
- 2.2. You will be required to comply with the Company's rules, regulations and policies from time to time in force, including, without limitation, those policies set out in the Company's Policies and Procedures and in the Code of Conduct. Unless otherwise stated, such rules, regulations and policies do not form part of your contract of employment.
- 2.3. You should recognize that during the course of your employment, as the business of the Company changes, it may be necessary to change your duties. The Company therefore reserves the right to change your responsibilities and duties and job title from time to time, including but not limited to requiring you to work for another company within the Amazon group of companies, it being understood that you will not be assigned responsibilities which you cannot reasonably perform.

Evi Technologies Limited

Registered Office: Poseidon House, Castle Park, CB3 0RD Cambridge, United Kingdom
Registered in England and Wales • Company Registration No. 04660006 • VAT No. GB 883430612

3. Hours of Work

- 3.1. Your normal working hours will be 40 hours per week plus such other reasonable hours as are necessary to fulfil your duties to the Company's satisfaction. Your normal daily working hours will be 8.30am to 5.30pm Monday to Friday inclusive, with a one hour lunch break, to be taken at a mutually agreed time. However, the Company reserves the right to change your working days or hours or to require you to work other shifts without changing the total weekly hours to be worked, provided that before implementing any changes the Company will consult with you and consider any reasonable objections which you may have to the proposed changes. You may be required to work on public holidays and/or at weekends (including Sundays).
- 3.2. You are not eligible for payment in respect of overtime.
- 3.3. The Company has the right to require you not to carry out your normal job duties and/or to remain away from work on full pay and benefits and on such conditions as the Company may specify from time to time during all or any part of any notice period (whether given by you or the Company). During such time you remain an employee of the Company and remain subject to your duty of fidelity to the Company and to the remaining terms and conditions of this Statement. If the Company exercises its rights under this clause you may not contact any supplier, vendor, employee or customer of the Company unless agreed in advance with HR.
- 3.4. You agree that the 48-hour limit under the Working Time Regulations 1998 (the "Regulations") shall not apply to you. Your agreement to opt out of the 48-hour limit under the Regulations will remain in force indefinitely. However, the Company or you may opt back into the 48-hour limit under the Regulations at any time by giving not less than 3 months' written notice to the Company.

4. Place of Work

- 4.1. Your normal place of work will be the Company offices based in Cambridge. You will work within the Ring Eng.
- 4.2. You should also be aware that Amazon is an international company having locations throughout Europe, Asia and the USA and because of the nature of your duties you may be required to transfer to another department and/or place of work either in the UK or outside of the UK on a temporary or permanent basis provided that before implementing any such permanent transfer the Company will consult you and consider any reasonable objections which you may have to the proposed changes.

5. Remuneration

5.1. Pay

- 5.1.1. Your salary will be £42,000 (GBP) per annum. This will be payable in equal monthly installments for the length of your contract with the exception of your first monthly salary payment following your start date which will be calculated pro rata based on the proportion of the first calendar month you work. This is payable in arrears in accordance with the Company's standard payroll practice and is currently usually paid on or around the 28 of the month and subject to deduction of income tax and National Insurance contributions under "PAYE". If your employment starts after the 19 day of the calendar month, your first salary payment will be made in the following calendar month. Your salary will be reviewed in accordance with internal performance reviews systems, details of which are set out in the Company's Policies and Procedures.

- 5.1.2. The Company has the right to deduct from your pay or any other sums owing to you, any sums which you may owe the Company, including without limitation, any over-payments or loans made to you by the Company or losses suffered by the Company as a result of your negligence or breach of the Company's Policies and Procedures or failure to return the Company's property. The Company also has the right to deduct from your pay the cost of a medical examination or other medical appointment if you have agreed to attend the appointment and then fail to attend without good reason. The Company will also deduct any Company Sick Pay that the Company has paid to you if you claimed it dishonestly or in breach of the Absence policy for corporate employees, for example if you were not genuinely ill or submitted a forged sick note.

6. Expenses

- 6.1. You will be reimbursed for any reasonable expenses properly incurred by you while performing your duties on behalf of the Company, subject to compliance with the Expenses and Travel policies contained in the Company's Policies and Procedures.
- 6.2. You must not bribe anyone for any reason, whether in dealings with governments or the private sector, and must comply at all times with the Code of Conduct. You must not, without the prior written authorisation of the Company or in breach of any applicable legislation, directly or indirectly seek, receive or obtain, in respect of the performance of your duties or of any goods or services sold or purchased or other business transacted (whether or not by you) by or on behalf of the Company or the Amazon Group, anything of value, or any personal benefits, discount, rebate, commission, bribe, kickback or other inducement, whether in cash or in kind.

7. Sickness and Notification of Absence

- 7.1. Details of your entitlement to Company Sick Pay are set out below. Please note that if you are absent from work you must comply with the notification requirements set out in the Absence policy for corporate employees. Failure to comply with this policy may result in disciplinary action being taken and may result in Company Sick Pay not being paid. Therefore, please study this policy and the notification requirements with care. A copy of the policy is available on the intranet or from HR.
- 7.2. The Company may request that you undergo a medical examination at its expense through a GP or other certified medical health expert/s appointed by the Company and at the Company's expense. By signing this contract, you agree that you will not unreasonably refuse to attend such an appointment and that any report produced in connection with any such examination may be disclosed to the Company, and that the Company may discuss the contents of the report with the relevant medical expert. Disciplinary action may be taken for breach of contract if you refuse to attend such an appointment.
- 7.3. Company Sick Pay will be in accordance with the Company arrangements as set out below and is subject to the Sick Leave policy for corporate employees (as amended by the Company from time to time) as well as your compliance with this Agreement:

Maximum number of working days that Company Sick Pay will be paid to a standard full time employee (contracted to work a minimum of 40 hours per week, working 5 days per week based on an 8 hour working day) in a tax year (6 April – 5 April) whilst absent due to illness:

Period Of Service	(6 April - 5 April)
Up to 4 Weeks	No payment
4 Weeks up to 1 year	30 working days
1 year up to 3 years	40 working days
3+ years	50 working days

- 7.4. The amount of Company Sick Pay entitlement is cumulative in any one tax year (6 April/5 April) so that for the purpose of calculating your entitlement you should add together all periods of sickness during that year. Any Company Sick Pay payments made will be inclusive of any Statutory Sick Pay that may be due to you for the same period.
- 7.5. Should your contractual hours be less than 40 hours per week, and/or your working arrangements mean that you work on fewer than five days per week (even if you work 40 hours per week), your Company Sick Pay entitlement will be calculated on an appropriate pro rata basis to reflect your working pattern (as the Company in its sole discretion may determine).
- 7.6. When your absence exceeds both your contractual Sick Pay entitlement and your entitlement to Statutory Sick Pay you may be eligible for sickness benefit claimable from the Benefits Agency.

8. Holidays

- 8.1. You will be entitled (in addition to public or bank holidays) to take 25 working days as holidays in each holiday year which runs from 1 January until 31 December and you will be paid your basic remuneration during such holidays. Should your contractual hours be less than 40 hours per week, and/or your working arrangements mean that you work on fewer than five days per week (even if you work 40 hours per week) your holiday entitlement (including public and bank holidays) will be calculated on an appropriate pro rata basis to reflect your working pattern (as the Company in its sole discretion may determine).
- 8.2. You do not have an absolute right to take holiday on a public or bank holiday. You may be required to work on a public or bank holiday to meet the needs of the business. If you are required to work on a public or bank holiday, you will be notified of this in advance and will be given a day off in lieu.
- 8.3. Your holiday entitlement accrues at the rate of 2.08 days per month (or an appropriate pro-rata equivalent if your contractual hours are less than 40 hours per week, and/or you work on fewer than five days per week (even if you work 40 hours per week) from the commencement of your employment.
- 8.4. Any holiday entitlement that is unused at the end of the holiday year can only be carried over into the following holiday year in exceptional circumstances and only with prior written authorization from your manager. This unused entitlement must not exceed 5 days and must be taken by 31 March of the following holiday year. If you do not take your carried over holiday by the above date, it will be forfeited and you will not be entitled to receive any compensation for this.
- 8.5. If your employment commences or terminates part way through the holiday year your entitlement to holidays during that year will be assessed on a pro rata basis. If on termination you have taken holidays in excess of your accrued entitlement, you authorize the Company to deduct pay in respect of the excess from your final salary payment. If on termination you have taken fewer holidays than your accrued entitlement, you will be paid in lieu of any accrued but untaken holiday. One day's holiday pay will be deemed to be 1/260th of your annual basic salary (or a pro-rata equivalent if your contractual hours are less than 40 hours per week).

- 8.6. The Company reserves the right to require you to take any accrued but untaken holiday entitlement during your notice period.
- 8.7. All holiday scheduling and organization will be arranged to ensure smooth business operation and your manager's approval is required prior to your scheduling or changing any holiday. Please note that there may be times of the year when you will be unable to take leave because of high levels of work. Your line manager will inform you of such situations. Please refer to the Annual Leave policy for corporate employees for further details regarding the taking of holiday.

9. Other Paid Leave

- 9.1. Apart from holiday and sickness absence, you may be eligible to take the following types of paid leave, subject to any statutory or Company eligibility requirements or the terms and conditions of the Company's Policies and Procedures in place from time to time:
 - 9.1.1. maternity leave. In addition to any Statutory Maternity Pay entitlement you may have, you may be eligible to receive Company Maternity Pay;
 - 9.1.2. Statutory Paternity Leave;
 - 9.1.3. paid parental leave. You may be eligible to receive paid parental leave pay. Please note that, for eligible employees, paid parental leave pay includes any applicable entitlements you may have to Statutory Paternity Leave and Statutory Paternity Pay;
 - 9.1.4. adoption leave. In addition to any Statutory Adoption Pay entitlement you may have, you may be eligible to receive Company Adoption Pay;
 - 9.1.5. shared parental leave;
 - 9.1.6. bereavement (compassionate) leave. You may be eligible to receive pay during bereavement (compassionate) leave;
 - 9.1.7. Statutory Parental Bereavement Leave;
 - 9.1.8. jury service leave. You may be eligible to receive pay during all or part of jury service leave;
 - 9.1.9. time off for reserve forces training leave. You may be eligible to receive pay during all or part of time off for reserve forces training leave;
 - 9.1.10. time off for doctor/dentist appointments. You may be eligible to receive pay during all or part of time off for doctor/dentist appointments; and
 - 9.1.11. any other form of paid statutory leave from time to time.

10. Confidential Information

- 10.1. Much of your work for the Company will be highly confidential. Your employment is therefore subject to and conditional upon you signing and returning the Amazon.com, Inc. Group Confidentiality and Invention Assignment Deed to the Company.

11. Exclusivity of Services

- 11.1. You will be required to devote your full time, attention and abilities to your job duties during working hours, and to act in the best interests of the Company at all times.
- 11.2. Should you wish to be engaged in or to undertake any other work you must inform your line manager in writing before doing so. You may not, without the written consent of the Company, be in any way directly or indirectly actively engaged or concerned in any other business or undertaking where this is or is likely to be in conflict with the Company's interests or where it affects or is likely to affect your ability to carry out your role at the Company. The Company reserves the right to restrict you from taking on such additional work.

12. Disciplinary Rules and Procedure

- 12.1. The Company expects high standards of conduct and performance from its employees. Details of the Company's disciplinary procedures are contained in the Company's Policies and Procedures, which are available on the intranet or from HR. The Disciplinary policy does not form part of your terms and conditions of employment.
- 12.2. The Company reserves the right to suspend you on full pay pending a disciplinary or grievance investigation and/or disciplinary or grievance hearing.
- 12.3. As part of the disciplinary process, you agree that the Company may, where it deems it to be appropriate, take action short of dismissal, such as demotion, re-deployment and/or suspension without pay. If you are suspended without pay the period of suspension will vary in length at the Company's discretion according to the gravity of the misconduct.
- 12.4. If you wish to appeal against any disciplinary decision you must do so in writing within seven calendar days from the date of the letter notifying you of the disciplinary decision, and address this to the person nomination in the disciplinary outcome notification, clearly setting out the reasons for your appeal.

13. Grievance Procedure

- 13.1. If you are unhappy about any aspect of your employment with the Company, you should first discuss the matter with your manager. If you are still unhappy you should pursue the matter through the Grievance Procedure. Details of the Grievance Procedure are contained in the Company's Policies and Procedures, which are available on the intranet or from HR. The Grievance Procedure does not form part of your terms and conditions of employment.

14. Smoking

- 14.1. Smoking is not allowed in any part of the Company's workplaces at any time, without exception. Where available, you may smoke in the designated areas outside provided for this purpose. You should not smoke in the car parks (apart from the designated areas) or anywhere near to the Company's buildings that are in public view. Disciplinary action may be taken, up to and including summary termination of your employment, if you are caught smoking in the building or if you breach the Smoking policy.

15. Equal Opportunities

- 15.1. The Company is an equal opportunities employer and your attention is drawn to the Equal Opportunities policy, a copy of which is available on the intranet or from HR. As an employee you are expected to comply with this policy and disciplinary action, up to and including summary dismissal, may be taken if you breach this policy. If, during the course of your employment, you should become aware that the Company or any of its officers or employees is failing to comply with the terms of the policy, you must report the matter immediately to HR.

16. Drugs and Alcohol

- 16.1. The Company has a Drugs and Alcohol policy which applies to all employees. Details of the Drugs and Alcohol policy are contained in the Company's Policies and Procedures, which are available on the intranet or from HR.

17. Searches

- 17.1. By signing this Statement, you agree that if you are working at or visiting an Operations site in the UK, the Company (or any member of the Amazon Group) may search you and/or your property on its premises (including the Company's / Amazon's car parks) and you agree that the Company (or any member of the Amazon Group) may carry out a body search and/or ask you to empty your pockets. If you refuse without good reason to submit to a search, the Company will treat your refusal as a disciplinary offence. Please see the Stop and Search policy for further details.

18. New Hire Vetting

- 18.1. Your employment is conditional upon the information contained in your application form, any Convictions Declaration form and/or curriculum vitae being true and accurate, including (but not limited to) your educational and professional qualifications and experience. By signing this Statement, you confirm that the information contained in your application form, any Convictions Declaration form and/or curriculum vitae is true and accurate and is not misleading. You also agree to co-operate with and submit to a background check in line with the Company's Employee Screening policy as required by the Company. It is a requirement of your employment with the Company that you complete and submit the employee section of the background check before your start date with the Company, and you may not commence employment with the Company if you fail to do so.

- 18.2. Your employment, and continued employment, is conditional upon having and retaining all educational, vocational, professional and any other appropriate qualifications that you stated you had in your application form and/or curriculum vitae where it is relevant to your role. It is also expected that the grades of all examinations you have taken are as you have stated in your application form and/or curriculum vitae. You therefore agree to co-operate with providing such documents to satisfy the Company of your educational and professional qualifications, where requested. The Company also expects that you have the work experience that you have stated in your application form and/or curriculum vitae or in your interview. The Company reserves the right to terminate your employment, with or without notice or payment in lieu of notice, in any case where it is discovered that you do not have said qualifications or experience, or where you fail to acquire any appropriate examination or license or become disbarred from the appropriate regulatory body or authority.

- 18.3. If your employment commences before the Company has received: satisfactory employment references; evidence of your educational, vocational, professional and any other appropriate qualifications that you stated you had in your application form and/or curriculum vitae where it is relevant to your role; verification of any relevant license or certificate where it is relevant to your role; and the results of any criminal check that has been carried out, your employment will be conditional on the Company receiving these items which it considers to be satisfactory within 12 weeks of the commencement of your employment.
- 18.4. You authorize the Company to conduct such searches with government or enforcement authorities as are necessary to enable it to verify that you do not hold any unspent criminal convictions.
- 18.5. You must disclose to the HR Department any relevant information about current, pending or future convictions which are “unspent” under the provisions of the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974, or current or future prosecutions during your employment with the Company. It is a condition of your employment and continued employment that you comply with the Company’s Employee Screening policy and that you inform the Human Resources department if you: have any criminal convictions including driving offences which are “unspent” under the provisions of the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974; have any pending criminal convictions; receive a criminal conviction(s) in the future during your employment with the Company; and/or are subject to a prosecution in the future during your employment with the Company. Any information you provide will be treated as completely confidential and will be considered only in relation to the position you will be undertaking. The Company takes criminal convictions very seriously and reserves the right to terminate your employment, with or without notice or payment in lieu of notice, where you obtain a criminal conviction during your employment with the Company and also in any case where it is discovered that you have not declared that: you are subject to a prosecution; have any pending criminal convictions; or have a criminal conviction which is “unspent” under the provisions of the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974.

19. Ability to Work in the UK

- 19.1. This offer is conditional upon you demonstrating to the Company’s satisfaction that you are lawfully entitled to live in and to work for the Company in the UK and that you continue to be able to do so. Originals of all documents relevant to this should be provided to the Company upon request so that the Company may check these documents and take copies.
- 19.2. The Company may terminate your employment without notice (or payment in lieu of notice) if you do not have the right, or cease to have the right, to work for the Company in the UK. If you have limited leave to remain in the UK, the Company reserves the right to carry out checks every twelve months to ensure you still have the right to work for the Company in the UK. You agree to co-operate with such checks by providing the original of your passport or such other documents, or satisfactory access to such online documents, as the Company may reasonably request to satisfy itself that you have the right to work in the UK. You also agree that the Company may contact the Home Office in order to enable the Company to check that you have the right to work for the Company in the UK.

- 19.3. If you are unable to provide satisfactory evidence of your right to work in the UK, the Company may suspend you without pay pending a disciplinary investigation or hearing to determine whether you have the right to work in the UK.

20. Termination of Employment

- 20.1. Following successful completion of your probationary period, your contract of employment will be terminable by you giving to the Company one month's written notice (exclusive of any holiday entitlement) and by the Company giving to you the longer of:

One month's written notice; or

One week's written notice for each complete year of service up to a maximum of 12 weeks' written notice after 12 years' continuous service.

- 20.2. During your probationary period only, your contract of employment will be terminable by you giving to the Company one week's notice and by the Company giving to you one week's notice.

- 20.3. The Company reserves the right to terminate your employment with immediate effect and thereafter pay you basic salary only in lieu of notice (or the remaining balance of your notice period) whether during your probationary period or after completion of your probationary period. You shall not be entitled to any pay in lieu of the holiday you would have received during your notice period.

- 20.4. The Company reserves the right to terminate your employment without notice or payment in lieu of notice if it has reasonable grounds to believe you are guilty of gross misconduct, gross negligence or if there are other grounds justifying summary dismissal. A non-exhaustive list of examples of gross misconduct is laid out in the Disciplinary policy.

- 20.5. On the termination of your employment for whatever reason you will return to the Company without delay all correspondence, records, specifications, models, notes, formulations, lists, papers, reports and other documents and all copies thereof and other property belonging to the Company or relating to its business affairs or dealings (whether in electronic or hard copy form) which are in your possession or under your control (together "Company Property"). Where it is not practical to return any item of Company Property (for example, Company Property stored on a personal smartphone) you will, without delay, provide to the Company a complete written list of any such Company Property (and where it is stored) and will immediately, on instruction from the Company, irretrievably delete any such Company Property and provide to the Company such evidence as it may reasonably require of such deletion. You agree that you will follow any instructions provided by the Company in relation to the manner of deletion of any such Company Property.

- 20.6. Company Sick Pay will not be paid during your notice period but you may still be entitled to Statutory Sick Pay.

21. Benefits

- 21.1. You will be eligible to participate in and receive benefits made available by the Company (including any medical or pension scheme) to the extent generally applicable to other employees of your grade and status within the Company and subject to the terms of the schemes from time to time in force, and subject to you satisfying the normal underwriting requirements (or any other requirements) of the relevant insurance provider and the relevant premium being at a rate which the Company considers reasonable. The Company currently provides Business Travel Accident Insurance and will automatically enroll you in the Life Assurance scheme, subject to the terms of the schemes from time to time in force. Further, you will be eligible to join the Private Health Insurance Scheme subject always to the terms and conditions of the scheme from time to time in force. All relevant information and enrolment instructions will be made available to you.

- 21.2. The Company will comply with its obligations under the Pensions Act 2008 in so far as it applies to you from time to time. Under this contract, you give your express consent to the deduction of pension contributions from your salary in so far as it is reasonably necessary for the Company to comply with its obligations under the Pensions Act 2008. Further details about the Company's pension arrangements can be obtained by accessing the MyBenefits site. The Company's pension arrangements and contributions payable under those arrangements may change from time to time, at the Company's sole and absolute discretion, provided that it complies with its obligations under the Pensions Act 2008.
- 21.3. In addition to the benefits referred to above, the Company operates a flexible benefits system currently "MyBenefits" (subject to any policies and terms and conditions relating to flexible benefits in place from time to time) where you can choose from a number of discretionary benefits (subject to any applicable terms and conditions or criteria). Details of the discretionary benefits the Company offers (as may be replaced/changed from time to time) can be found on MyBenefits, which is accessible to all employees on joining the Company. Please note that these benefits and their details do change so please review the details frequently.

The discretionary benefits provided by the Company (and any replacement or additional discretionary benefits that may be offered from time to time) are non-contractual benefits and do not form part of your terms and conditions of employment with the Company.

- 21.4. From time to time the Company may, at its absolute discretion, amend, alter or substitute the terms and conditions of any or all of the benefits (or any replacement or additional benefits the Company may offer from time to time), or withdraw or replace them wholly without payment of any compensation to you. Participation in certain insurance or assurance schemes provided for you in accordance with this Statement, or otherwise, by the Company may end when you attain an age specified by the scheme or legislation from time to time.
- 21.5. Neither any outstanding or prospective entitlement to the benefits referred to in this Statement nor any actual or prospective loss or diminishment of entitlement to those benefits, including but not limited to any benefits under any Income Protection scheme or Critical Illness Insurance scheme or any equivalent to replacement scheme, shall preclude the Company from exercising any right to terminate your employment under this Statement
- 21.6. If any benefits provider (including but not limited to any insurance company) refuses for any reason to provide any benefits to you, the Company shall not be liable to provide any such benefits itself, or to pay any compensation in lieu.

22. Training

- 22.1. You must complete any mandatory induction, compliance, and health and safety training (or any other form of mandatory training) applicable to your role for the Company or the Amazon Group from time to time. Any such mandatory training will be paid for by the Company.

22.2. You may also be eligible to take training courses applicable to your role from time to time. Details of what training courses may be available from time to time can be found on the Inside Amazon site.

23. Other Statutory Particulars

23.1. There are no collective agreements with trade unions that directly affect the terms and conditions of your employment.

24. Definitions

24.1. "Amazon Group" means the Company and any "group undertaking" (as defined in section 1161 of the Companies Act 2006) of the Company.

25. Variations

25.1. The terms described in this Statement and the attached letter will be the terms of your employment, and this Statement supersedes any previous discussions or offers. Any additions or modifications of these terms would have to be in writing and signed by you and an officer of the Company or of a company in the Amazon.com, Inc. group.

25.2. If there is any discrepancy between your terms and conditions of employment set out in this Statement or in the offer letter, this Statement shall take precedence.

25.3. This Statement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of England and Wales and the parties hereto irrevocably submit to the non - exclusive jurisdiction of the Courts of England and Wales for the determination of all disputes or claims which may arise out of or in connection with this Statement.

We must take necessary steps to protect your information.

As you may know, the collection process is inherently incomplete. We must therefore make a educated guess as to what the injury involved truly looked and/or originated. We can only, as required by law, disclose medical conclusions, based on the information being filed.

In this process, they will have the opportunity to look, with a licensed, independent reader, at a copy of the form for both the four states. There will be enough time to review the contents, growth of the injury, condition, relevant findings and relevant treatments. All findings will be included in the final report.

JPMORGAN CHASE & CO.

Message from Jamie Dimon, Chairman and CEO

Welcome to JPMorgan Chase. We are pleased that you will be starting your career at an exceptional company – one of the world's oldest, largest and best-known financial institutions.

Across our businesses, we continue to deliver record results, innovative products and services for our customers, and great experiences for our employees. Named #1 in Fortune's Change the World list, we are focused on helping communities large and small grow around the world. It's an exciting time to join JPMorgan Chase, and now – with your skills, experience and creative ideas – you'll help us continue to drive change.

During your time here, you will have opportunities to learn and grow in a supportive, respectful and inclusive environment. Do your best to contribute and excel in everything you do. By building strong relationships and doing the right thing – at all times – we have made this a company of which we can all be proud. It's how we do business. And, it is what has made us a top employer and a great business partner.

As you begin your career with JPMorgan Chase, I offer you an essential piece of advice: do your job well, and earn the trust and respect of the people around you. Throughout your employment, you will hear advice like this from our senior leaders – and we encourage you to put it into practice every day.

I hope you enjoy working here as much as I do, and I look forward to meeting many of you.

Best of luck in what I am sure will be a rewarding experience.

Your Internship by J.P. Morgan

Congratulations on joining the J.P. Morgan family. We are pleased to confirm your internship with J.P. Morgan Services India Private Limited (the "Company").

You will find your personal internship terms outlined in Appendix A with general internship terms and conditions in Appendix B. Please note these terms and conditions supersede any verbal discussions you may have previously had with any JPMorgan Chase employee with regards to your internship arrangements.

A number of important policies will apply to your internship with the Company, including the Personal Account Dealing Policy and the Code of Conduct. We provide more information about these policies in Appendix C and it is essential that you carefully read and understand their requirements. By signing this letter, you confirm that you have read, understood and agree to be bound by these policies. In addition, you will be required to abide by all other Company policies and regulations (including JPMorgan Chase group of companies (the "Group") policies) and with applicable law.

Should you have queries in relation to your employment terms, your benefits or Company policies, please contact our HR Answers hotline at 000 800 440 5210 (local toll free) or +1 212-552-5100 (international).

Please be reminded your internship terms should be treated with the strictest confidence. To accept this offer of internship, please click on the 'Accept' button at the bottom of this page on or before 28-Nov-2022.

We are excited to welcome you to our Company and take this opportunity to wish you every success in taking this next step of your career with us.

Appendix A – PERSONAL INTERNSHIP TERMS AND CONDITIONS

A1. Title/Category

You will join us as an intern in the CIB Research & Analytics Program at JPMorgan Chase & Co., and will carry out your role while physically present in the J.P. Morgan offices in Mumbai, India.

A2. Internship Commencement Date

Your internship shall begin on 16-Jan-2023 ("Start Date") and shall continue, subject to the remaining terms of this agreement, until it terminates on 30-Jun-2023 ("End Date") without the need for notice, unless previously terminated by either party pursuant to paragraph 4 of Appendix B.

In addition to the conditions set out in paragraph 1 of Appendix B, your offer is subject to you successfully meeting the educational criteria that has already been communicated to you in writing.

A3. Working Hours

Your manager will assign you specific working hours, often during the Company's normal office hours. Depending on the needs of your department, however, you may be required to work outside the official hours to fulfill your duties.

A4. Stipend

Your stipend will be INR60,000/- per month.

Relocation Lump Sum

You will receive an additional, one-time lump sum of INR85000("the Additional Sum") gross with your first stipend. This payment will be made to you in the first available payroll after you join the Company. You should be aware that this might be in the month of joining or the following month depending on your commencement date and when all necessary data is received. This is to assist with any relocation expenses you may incur prior to joining.

If you leave the internship or your internship is terminated for any reason, you must repay to the Company the Additional Sum on a pro-rated basis as set out below:

If your internship period is longer than 3 months and you leave the internship or your internship is terminated for any reason within three months of your date of commencement you must repay to the Company 100% of the gross amount of the Additional Sum.

If your internship period is longer than 3 months and you leave the internship or your internship is terminated for any reason more than three months but within twelve months of your date of commencement you must repay to the Company 50% of the gross amount of the Additional Sum. If your internship period is less than 3 months and you leave the internship or your internship is terminated for any reason before completion of your internship period you must repay the Company 100% of the gross amount of the Additional Sum.

A5. Probationary Period

Your internship will be subject to a probation period as outlined in paragraph 4.3 of Appendix B.

A6. Leave Entitlement

A6.1. Annual Leave

You are entitled to 20 working days of annual leave with full pay in every calendar year, pro-rated according to the duration of your employment in accordance with the Company's Human Resources Policies and applicable law. If you work part-time hours, your annual leave entitlement will be pro-rated to reflect your part-time hours worked.

A6.2. Other Leave

You can find further details of other leave entitlements in paragraph 5 of Appendix B.

A7. Benefits

You will not be entitled to join the Company's benefits programs, given the short length of your fixed-term contract.

A8. Retirement Scheme

You are not eligible for retirement benefits.

A9. Notice Period

During your probationary period, starting the day you join the Company, either you or the Company may terminate your employment with at least 14 days' written notice or payment of wages in lieu of such notice period.

After the probationary period, either party can terminate the employment by giving the other party 30 Days written notice ("Notice Period") or by the Company making a payment in lieu of Notice Period.

APPENDIX B – GENERAL INTERNSHIP TERMS AND CONDITIONS

B1. Internship

B1.1 Your internship is subject to:

- a) you being able to carry out your role in India while being able to be physically present in an JPMC office in Mumbai, India and obtaining and maintaining throughout your entire period of internship a valid work permit and such other permission, license or registration as may from time to time be necessary to enable you to carry out your duties and continue your internship;
- b) the completion of all pre-employment screening processes to the satisfaction of the Company, including obtaining education verification, background references and checks as sought and the execution of any other forms necessary for internship, etc.; and
- c) you being legally able to work with the Company. You undertake to disclose any internship or contractual post-internship restraints to which you are subject and which may, and will continue to, affect your internship with us and represent and warrant that:
 - ix. by entering into internship with the Company and performing the duties set out in this letter, you will not be in breach of any express or implied term of any internship or other agreement or arrangement to which you are party;
 - i. you have not taken or otherwise misappropriated and you do not have in your possession or control any confidential and proprietary information belonging to any of your prior employers, or any third party providing services to your prior employer, or connected with or derived from your services to prior employers and you have returned to all prior employers any and all such confidential or proprietary information; and
 - ii. you are not subject to any other internship, including being subject to garden leave or any contractual post-internship restraints.

You shall indemnify and hold harmless the Company from any and all claims arising from any breach of the warranties in this paragraph B1.

- B1.2 Whilst you and/or the Company may have agreed a tentative date of commencement of internship with the Company, you will not, unless the Company decides otherwise, be able to commence internship with the Company without our receipt of completed and satisfactory results from our pre-employment screening process.
- B1.3 You may be required to provide services for other members of the Group throughout your internship. When providing these services, you may from time to time be required to travel and work in different locations within and outside your hiring location.

B1.4 You will not undertake outside employment or activities with or without remuneration, unless you have the prior written approval of senior management of the Company or its delegate. Outside activities may include (but are not limited to) activities as a director, officer, partner, sole proprietor, consultant or controlling stockholder of any business. If your request to undertake outside activity is not approved by management and you decide to engage in the activity, your internship may be terminated without any notice or compensation.

B2. Remuneration

B2.1 We will deposit your stipend (paragraph 4 of Appendix A) on or around the 30th of each month.

B2.2 You will be responsible for all tax liabilities worldwide arising out of payments pursuant to your internship with the Company.

B2.3 Any payment of salary or bonus by, or other sum due to you from the Company shall be subject to any and all withholding or deduction (for, including but not limited to, any taxes, contributions, repayments or other sums which you have agreed that the Company may withhold/deduct or which the Company is obliged or entitled to withhold/deduct from time to time under any applicable law), and the Company shall in such case be entitled to withhold, deduct or retain the amount of such tax, withholding or deduction from any sum payable to you.

B3. Incentive Compensation

For this position, you won't be eligible for incentive awards under the JPMorgan Chase Performance-Based Incentive Compensation Plan or any other non-annual incentive compensation plan.

B4. Termination

B4.1 Your internship may be terminated as follows:

- a) By either party giving to the other prior written notice of at least the period specified, as applicable, in paragraph 9 in Appendix A (the "Notice Period"), or by the Company making a payment in lieu of notice for all or part of such Notice Period of an amount equal to basic salary you would have been entitled to receive during the Notice period or part of the Notice Period;
- b) By the Company at any time without notice or compensation if you:
 - i) are guilty of fraud, dishonesty or misconduct which is inconsistent with the due and faithful discharge of your duties;

Uma

-6(b)

- ii) seriously breach the Code of Conduct and any other Company policies;
- iii) disobey the Company's lawful and reasonable instructions/requirements;
- iv) habitually neglect your duties; or
- v) otherwise commit a material or repeated breach of your internship terms or any of the Company's or Group's policies.

B4.2 During any Notice Period, the Company may put you on "garden leave" and may, amongst other things, do any or a combination of the following:

- (a) suspend you from the performance of any duties or assign you alternative duties;
- (b) exclude you from any premises of the Company or any of the Group companies and/or require you to work from another location;
- (c) require that you have no or limited contact or communication, other than purely social contact, with any employees, officers, directors, agents or consultants of the Company or any other member of the Group;
- (d) require that you have no or limited contact or communication with any customer or client of the Company or any other member of the Group;
- (e) remove your access to the Company premises and computer systems;
- (f) require that you return any property belonging to the Company under paragraph 7 in this Appendix;
- (g) require you not to do any act or thing, or make or cause to be made, any statement reasonably likely to damage the business or reputation of the Company or the Group.

B4.3 If paragraph 5 of Appendix A states that your employment is subject to probation, your probation period will be the first 3 months of employment, which you agree is reasonable and fair, in light of the responsibilities of the role.

B4.4 At its sole discretion, the Company may notify you of an extension to your probationary period.

B4.5 All your duties (whether express or implied) under your internship and this letter, including without limitation your duty of fidelity, good faith, exclusive service and duties in relation to the Group's confidential information shall continue throughout the Notice Period including any period that you are on garden leave.

B4.6 During any Notice Period:

- (a) you will provide such assistance as the Company may require to effect an orderly handover of your duties and responsibilities to any individual appointed by the Company or any of the Group Companies to take over your role or responsibilities; and
- (b) you shall make yourself available to deal with requests for information, provide assistance, be available for meetings and to advise on matters relating to work.

B5. Leave

B5.1 Annual Leave

- (a) You will be entitled to annual leave with full pay in every calendar year – please see paragraph 6 of Appendix A, pro-rated according to the duration of your employment. The Company will be entitled to determine when annual leave is taken, although as far as possible, arrangements will be made to suit your convenience. Annual leave entitlement for each calendar year must be taken in that calendar year and only in exceptional circumstances can annual leave (other than unused statutory entitlement, if any) be carried forward into the following calendar year. All annual leave days taken will be deducted first from the statutory entitlement accumulation.
- (b) After a notice of termination has been given pursuant to paragraph B4.1 of this Appendix, you will not be entitled to take any annual leave without the express consent of the Company provided after notice of termination has been given.
- (c) You must comply with the Company's 'consecutive days leave' policies.

B5.2 Sick Leave

Any sick leave entitlement will be subject to relevant legislation and J.P.Morgan internal policies that are in force and amended from time to time. More details are set out in the me@jpmc website, which will be accessible to you upon commencement of your employment.

B5.3 Suspension Leave

The Company has the right to suspend you from your work duties with full pay when it considers it necessary to investigate any allegation of misconduct or impropriety on your part. The Company can exercise this right at its sole discretion, acting in good faith.

B6. Confidentiality

You acknowledge that a vast amount of privileged and confidential information will be disclosed to you in course of your internship with the Company and during your internship with the Company and thereafter, you shall keep secret and shall not at any time (whether during or after the period of your internship) use for your own or another's advantage, or reveal to any person, firm or company, any of the trade secrets, business methods and plans, financial matters, client lists, investments, marketing plans, personnel matters or other information which you knew or reasonably ought to have known to be confidential concerning the business or affairs of the Company or any other member of the Group or any of their related companies, clients or suppliers.

You agree to abide by the specific provisions on the use of confidential information in the Company's policies and Group code of conduct.

The restriction contained in this paragraph shall not apply to any disclosure or use authorised by the Company or required by law.

B7. Return of Company Property

You acknowledge that any privileged or confidential information disclosed to you in the course of your internship with the Company remains the exclusive property of the Company and whenever requested by the Company and/or Group and in any event upon the termination of your internship, you will promptly deliver to the Company and/or Group all documents and other materials (whether originals or copies or in hard copy or electronic form) concerning the Company and/or Group or their respective clients and suppliers, which may have been prepared by you or have come into your possession, custody or control in the course of your internship with the Company. This includes, without limitation, any confidential information, lists of clients or suppliers, correspondence, electronic equipment, computer software or hardware, staff identity cards card and other property used in connection with the operations of the Company and/or Group. You will not be entitled to, and will not retain, any copies, title and copyright in such correspondence and other documents, papers, records and property are vested in the Company and/or Group.

B8. Post internship Restrictions

- B8.1 For a period of three months commencing on the Relevant Date, you shall not directly or indirectly (whether on your own account, for or with any other person, firm or company) solicit or endeavor to entice away from the Company or any other Group Company any Critical Person.
- B8.2 For a period of three months commencing on the Relevant Date, you shall not directly or indirectly (whether on your own account, for or with any other person, firm or company) solicit or endeavor to entice away from the Company or any other Group Company the business or custom of any Restricted Client.
- B8.3 The duration of the restrictions will be reduced by any period of notice that you work out or

Uma

any period of garden leave as provided in this offer letter.

B8.4 In this paragraph B8:

- a) "Critical Person" means any person who was an employee or director of the Company or any other Group Company at any time within one year prior to the Relevant Date who had access to trade secrets or confidential information of the Company or any other Group Company. This includes knowledge of, involvement with or influence over suppliers or clients of the Company or any other Group Company with whom you worked at any time during that period.
- b) "Group Company" means the Company, its ultimate holding company, any subsidiary of the Company and any holding company from time to time. "Subsidiary" and "holding company" shall have the same meaning as in the relevant companies' legislation.
- c) "Restricted Client" means any person:
 - i. who in the one year before the Relevant Date was a client of, or has dealt with, the Company or any other Group Company; and
 - ii. with whose custom or business you, or persons reporting to you, were personally involved with during the period of one year prior to the Relevant Date
 - iii. but does not include publicly known institutional clients which you serve subsequent to your internship with the Company without the use of confidential or proprietary information of the Company and the Group.
- d) "Relevant Date" means the date your internship with the Company or the Group terminates for whatever reason,

B8.5 You acknowledge and agree:

- a) that each of the foregoing paragraphs constitutes an entirely separate and independent restriction on you;
- b) that the duration, extent and application of each restrictions, obligations and undertakings are reasonable and necessary to protect legitimate interests of the Company and the Group, considering, among other things, that the Company has commercial dealings with business partners throughout the world and that you will regularly be dealing with such partners as part of your duties and you understand that it does not by any means prevent you from earning a living in a satisfactory way;
- c) that, if any such restriction (or parts of a restriction) shall be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be void or unenforceable, the validity or enforceability of the remaining restrictions (or parts of a restriction) shall remain in full force and effect as #

the unenforceable parts had been deleted. Damages may be an inadequate compensation for breach of any of the restrictions in this paragraph and, subject to a court's discretion, in the event of any actual or threatened breach of any provision of this paragraph, you agree that the Company shall be entitled to (on behalf of itself and on behalf of any other Group Company) restrain, by injunction, equitable relief or similar remedy, any conduct or threatened conduct by you. You expressly submit to the jurisdiction of any court of competent jurisdiction for this purpose, and in the event you receive from any person an offer of employment (whether oral or in writing and whether accepted or not), either during your internship or the continuation in force of all or any of the restrictions applicable to you, whether pursuant to this letter or the Code of Conduct, you shall provide to the person making such an offer of employment a full and accurate copy of the then current restrictions applicable to you.

- d) that any benefit given or deemed to be given by you to the Group under the terms of this paragraph is received and held on trust by the Company for the relevant Group Company. You will enter into appropriate restrictive covenants directly with other Group Companies if asked to do so by the Company.
- e) that your internship with the Company and the compensation paid and/or payable to you by the Company shall be sufficient consideration for the purposes of this clause. You further agree and acknowledge that the limitations as to time and the character or nature placed in this clause are reasonable and fair and will not preclude you from earning a livelihood, nor will they unreasonably impose limitations on your ability to earn a living.
- f) that this offer letter constitutes a valid, legally binding and enforceable obligation on you and this document is not in violation of any applicable law.
- g) that any breach or threat of breach on your part of any one of such obligations and/or undertakings would cause serious harm to the Company or the Group which may then institute any legal recourse against you that is deemed appropriate and/or recourse in damages, without further notice or delay.
- i) in addition, you agree and acknowledge that the potential harm to the Company of the non-enforcement of this clause outweighs any potential harm to you and that you have given careful consideration to the restraints imposed upon you by this clause and that you are in full agreement as to their necessity for the reasonable and proper protection of the Company's interests. You expressly acknowledge and agree that each and every restraint imposed by this clause is reasonable with respect to subject matter, time period and geographical area.

B9. Code of Conduct and Staff Regulations and Affirmation

- B9.1 It is a condition of your continuing internship and it is your obligation that you comply with:
- the Code of Conduct (as amended from time to time or superseded). At the time of acceptance of the offer of internship and on a periodic basis, you will be required to sign an affirmation (or reaffirmation) confirming your understanding and compliance with the provisions of the Code of Conduct; and
 - the Company's other internal policies and procedures and all relevant policies and procedures for the line of business in which you are to undertake work.
- B9.2 The Company shall be entitled at any time to amend the Company's internal policies and procedures (including but not limited to the Code of Conduct), the benefits set out in the Appendices and other staff regulations, as well as to put in place new policies as the Company sees fit. Any such amendments shall be notified in writing to each employee and shall on provision of such notice, become legally binding.
- B9.3 The Company's Human Resources work policies are set out in the me@jpmc website, as amended from time to time. Please take time to familiarise yourself with these policies when you begin your internship.
- B9.4 To the extent that the contents of policies or procedures refer to obligations on the Company, you agree that they are guides only and are not contractual terms, conditions or representations on which you rely.

B10. Working Hours

- B10.1 Your total working hours (including break(s)) is 40 hours per working week during the tenure of your internship and you should attend office 5 days every working week. Your working hours may be revised at the discretion of the Company.

B11. Retirement Benefits

You are not eligible for retirement benefits.

B12. Contract Execution

B12.1 You acknowledge and agree that:

- This letter may be delivered in a digital or physical format. Subject to any applicable law, where the letter is provided in a digital format, you acknowledge and agree that it is being executed electronically and that it is enforceable.

- (b) You have read and understood the terms of this letter and have been provided with an opportunity to review and discuss the terms of it with advisors, if you so desire.
- (c) Should any further assurances be required or sought by the Company, you shall in good faith perform such further actions (including executing a physical copy of this letter)

B13. Governing Law and Jurisdiction

This letter and any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with it or its subject matter or formation (including non-contractual disputes or claims) shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of India. You and the Company submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the Mumbai, Maharashtra courts in relation to any dispute arising in connection with your internship and this letter.

APPENDIX C - SYSTEMS MONITORING ACTIVITIES AND CROSS-BORDER TRANSFERS, PERSONAL ACCOUNT DEALING POLICY, AND CODE OF CONDUCT

Appendix: Systems Monitoring Activities and Cross-Border Transfers:

The following provides a summary of how JPMorgan Chase & Co., its affiliates and its subsidiaries and the entity that employs you, or for which you provide services (collectively, "JPMC"), conducts Systems monitoring. JPMC may conduct monitoring to the extent permitted by applicable law.

JPMC conducts monitoring of JPMC's physical facilities and its equipment and systems (collectively, the "Systems"). System monitoring applies to your JPMC equipment, your personal equipment when accessing the Systems, and the communications, information, and materials conveyed or accessed using the Systems. Monitoring activities may include the monitoring and logging of traffic and usage data of all electronic communications; monitoring of telephone calls to or from JPMC work telephones as permitted by applicable laws and subject to any required notices; monitoring of the contents of electronic communications, files, databases, applications, and internet usage; and logging hours worked and physical presence at JPMC's facilities if applicable. JPMC may at all times monitor, access, retrieve, record and review information obtained from the monitoring activities for various purposes, such as preventing and investigating activities that may violate JPMC's policies and ensuring compliance with legal or regulatory obligations. While conducting monitoring activities, JPMC may obtain and process personal information about you and others that may reside on the Systems.

The monitoring activities (including JPMC's collection and processing of personal or other information) are required for purposes of your employment or work assignment to promote adherence to applicable policies and regulations. Subject to applicable laws and regulations, if you object to this processing, JPMC may prohibit you from using the Systems, terminate offers of employment or work assignment; and, for employees, take disciplinary action against you, up to and including termination of your employment with JPMC.

JPMC may disclose the information it obtains in connection with monitoring activities to JPMC affiliates and to third parties, service providers, regulators, supervisory bodies, law enforcement and other government agencies. Information obtained from the monitoring activities may be used as the basis to take disciplinary actions, up to and including termination or other legal action, for violations of JPMC's policies or applicable laws.

In addition to the monitoring activities discussed above, JPMC may obtain and store other information related to your employment or other working relationship, such as your compensation information, performance information, benefits information and other workplace-related data. JPMC may transfer such information, and the information it obtains in connection with monitoring activities, to countries other than the country in which the information originally was collected, including to the United States.

Understanding Obligations under the Firm's Personal Account Dealing Policy (PAD):

The Personal Account Dealing Policy (Policy) of JPMorgan Chase & Co. (firm or JPMC) is designed to help prevent and detect violations of securities laws and industry conduct standards and to minimize actual or perceived conflicts of interest that could arise due to personal investing activities.

PAD Compliance will notify you if the position you are being offered is considered to be subject to the Policy. You will remain subject for the duration of your time working in a subject group, unless notified otherwise of a change in subject status. Unless otherwise notified, you will continue to be subject to the provisions of the Policy even during leaves of absence from the firm, including, but not limited to, garden leave or medical leave.

You as well as your Connected Persons are subject to the provisions of this Policy and will need to be familiar with the obligations set forth in this policy. Connected Persons includes your spouse, domestic partner or minor children (even if financially independent) as well as anyone to whom you provide significant financial support or for which you, or anyone listed above, has or shares the power, directly or indirectly, to make investment decisions.

Once subject to the Policy, you must disclose and certify your Covered Accounts (which include accounts of your Connected Persons). You will be required to maintain your self-directed Covered Accounts with one of the firm's Approved Brokers and pre-clear all purchases, sales, pledges and gifts (received and given) of publicly traded and privately held financial instruments, unless listed as specifically exempt. Pre-approval confirmations must be received prior to executing the trade or investment. The firm may impose periodic restrictions on personal trading in certain financial securities. These restrictions can apply to all firm subject Workforce Members and their Connected Persons or may be limited to certain groups. Subject Workforce Members and their Connected Persons are not permitted to recommend or transact in the financial instruments of an issuer while in the possession of material non-public information (MNPI) regarding that issuer.

If you are a seasonal or short term employee the following requirements will apply:

JPMorgan Chase requires that seasonal workers refrain from trading in Covered Accounts for the time period that you are employed in a short term training program. Please verify that you will comply with the following personal trading requirements:

1. For the duration of the short term program I am joining I will not trade in any of my Covered Accounts
2. I understand that the Firm has the right to request account information for any of my Covered Accounts
3. If there is an extenuating circumstance that would compel me to place a trade in my Covered Accounts, I will obtain pre-approval of the trade by the Personal Account Dealing Group and I would be responsible for supplying all confirmations and statements to the Personal Account Dealing Group for that trade

*The term Covered Accounts refers to any securities accounts no matter where they are located and includes, but is not limited to, those accounts that are established, maintained or controlled (either directly or indirectly) by you, your spouse, domestic partner or minor children (even if financially independent), anyone to whom you provide significant financial support, and in which the employee has a direct or indirect financial interest.

Global Personal Trading Policy:

The Personal Account Dealing of JPMorgan Chase & Co. is designed to help prevent and detect violations of securities laws and industry conduct standards and to minimize actual or perceived conflicts of interest that could arise due to personal investing activities. This Policy includes requirements for disclosing Covered Accounts, maintaining certain accounts at one of the firm's Approved Brokers, preclearing trades, and restrictions and prohibitions on certain types of trading activity. This Policy is subject to any applicable local laws and rules and should be read in conjunction with Supplements (regional/LOB) as well as the firm's Code of Conduct.

Conflict of Interests and Outside Interests:

Under JPMorgan Chase & Co.'s (JPMC) Code of Conduct, employees are responsible for avoiding activities or relationships that might affect their objectivity in making decisions as an employee. Employees are not permitted to allow their personal interest to conflict, or appear to conflict, with their JPMC role and responsibilities.

Outside Interests include second jobs, not for profit activities, government positions, and positions with external companies and organizations as a director, officer, advisor, sole proprietor, consultant or owner of any business. Outside Interests may result in an actual or perceived conflict of interest. Where actual or potential conflicts of interest cannot be mitigated, you may be required to discontinue the activity or dissolve your investment.

Employees are required to seek preclearance prior to engaging in Outside Interests or immediately upon joining JPMC. Where preclearance is not required, employee must adhere to all restrictions and conditions outlined in Section 5 and 6 of the Outside Interest Policy.

Conflicts of interests may also arise from: (1) personal and business relationships; (2) the exchange of gifts and business hospitality; (3) political engagement; and (4) personal finances. Employees should avoid activities or relationships that might affect their objectivity in making decisions on behalf of JPMC or undermine their credibility. Employees may never place personal interests ahead of our clients' interests. All potential and actual conflicts must be escalated to your manager for review and mitigation.

Acceptance and Code Affirmation:

Upon signing this letter I accept the terms and conditions described above.

I hereby affirm that I have read, understand, and am in compliance with the JPMorgan Chase ("JPMC") Code of Conduct and all internal JPMC policies that apply to me. I agree, as a condition of my employment, to remain in compliance with the Code of Conduct and all applicable JPMC policies.

I understand that I must conduct myself in a way that is consistent with the Code of Conduct, demonstrating compliance with the principles and intent of the Code of Conduct, and applicable laws and regulations.

I also affirm that I have reported any potential or actual violations of the Code of Conduct, JPMC policies, or laws or regulations applicable to JPMC's business, as required by the Code of Conduct. I understand that failure to do so can result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

I understand that the Code of Conduct may be updated periodically, as necessary; and that the current version is posted on the JPMorgan Chase intranet as well as on its public website.

Independent Auditor Tax Services to Employees of JPMorgan Chase and its Affiliates:

To be in compliance with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (PCAOB) Rule 3523, it is JPMorgan Chase's (JPMC) policy that PricewaterhouseCoopers (PwC) cannot provide any tax services to employees of JPMC or any of its controlled entities (hereafter referred to as JPMC employee). This restriction is regardless of whether the individual is in a financial reporting oversight role or not, and whether PwC is engaged by the individual or by JPMC. PwC is also prohibited from providing any tax services to a spouse of a JPMC employee if the work is related to a joint tax return. Exceptions to this policy will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis and will require the approval of the JPMC Controller.

BNP PARIBAS

Strictly Private & Confidential

Sumit Kulkarni

January 12, 2023

Dear Sumit,

Internship Letter ("Agreement")

We are pleased to offer you a position as a Student Intern with IT Department of BNP Paribas India Solutions Pvt. Ltd ("BNPP") in India on the terms and conditions set out in this Agreement.

For the purposes of this Agreement, an "affiliate" shall include any subsidiary or holding company of BNP Paribas.

1. Period of Internship

The term of your internship will be for a period of 5 Months, commencing on January 19, 2023 and ending on June 16, 2023. For the avoidance of doubt, the terms and conditions of internship set out herein will be effective from the date you commence your internship with BNPP.

2. Internship Allowance

2.1 You will receive an internship allowance of INR 50,000 (less applicable deductions) per calendar month (pro-rated for any incomplete month of internship). You acknowledge and agree that you will not receive any other benefit (in cash or in kind) from BNPP.

2.2 You may be permitted, at the discretion of BNPP, to be absent from your internship for urgent personal reasons for a period not exceeding 10 working days, and no deduction from your internship allowance will be made provided you have obtained prior written permission from BNPP for such absence. For the avoidance of doubt, deduction from your internship allowance will be made in respect of any unauthorized absence.

3. Place of Internship

Your place of internship will be at our offices in Mumbai or such other location(s) within India as BNPP may require from time to time. During the course of your internship with BNPP, you may be assigned to any current or future divisions or departments of BNPP or its affiliates. You may also be required to travel within India or overseas as BNPP may request from time to time.

4. Hours of Internship

4.1 Your core internship hours are from 9:30 a.m. to 6:00 p.m., Monday to Friday (including half an hour lunch break). Your normal rest day will be Sunday (or such other day scheduled as a rest day). Saturday will normally be a contractual day off (unless an alternative contractual day off is scheduled). BNPP reserves the right to adjust the internship hours at its discretion.

4.2 From time to time you may be required to perform your internship duties outside the abovementioned core hours in order to meet our business needs and your individual objectives. You acknowledge and agree that you will not receive additional payment for any internship duties you perform outside of the abovementioned core hours.

Medical & Sickness:

Should the Internee be absent from work due to sickness, he/she must inform the Supervisor immediately. A registered medical practitioner must certify periods of sick leave in excess of two days. Sick leave will be paid in accordance with Company policy.

Termination of the Internship:

Should Baker Hughes become dissatisfied with the performance of a student, Baker Hughes may request the termination of the Internship arrangement.

- In case the Intern was referred by a University, the termination should occur only after University/College personnel have been notified in advance and a satisfactory resolution cannot be obtained.
- In case the Intern is a walk-in candidate who directly applied to Baker Hughes, the Company may request the termination of the Internship arrangement by giving the candidate 2-day's notice.

Governing Law:

The provisions contained herein shall be construed and governed in accordance with the laws of India. The Courts at Mumbai shall have exclusive jurisdiction over matters contained herein.

Miscellaneous:

These terms and conditions constitute the entire agreement and understanding between the parties with respect to the Internship. Headings are for reference only. A party's failure to insist upon or enforce strict performance of any provision of the terms and conditions shall not be construed as a waiver of any provision or right. If any particular provision of the terms and conditions is held to be invalid or unenforceable, such determination shall not affect any other provision of the terms and conditions which shall remain in full force and effect. In case of any conflict between applicable laws and terms and conditions contained herein, the applicable law shall prevail.

Sincerely,

Employee Confidentiality and Innovation Agreement

This Employee Confidentiality and Innovation Agreement ("Agreement") is entered into by and between Prathamesh Kadam (referred to herein as "you" or "your"); and GE Oil & Gas India Private Limited, and all of its affiliates (collectively referred to herein as "Company").

Background

The Company desires to employ you in a position of trust and confidence, in which you will have significant responsibilities and opportunities for additional compensation, advancement, and transfer, and will necessarily receive, use, and develop Confidential Information, and you desire to be employed in the position. In consideration for your employment, receipt of Confidential Information, benefits, participation in the Company's severance plan or plans, amongst other compensation and additional consideration, you agree to the following:

Terms and Conditions

1. Duty of Loyalty

- 1.1. You will perform your assigned duties in accordance with Company policies, guidelines, rules, and procedures.
- 1.2. You will remain loyal to the Company, avoid conflicts of interest, and promptly inform the Company of all opportunities relating to its business or the business of its subsidiaries, parents, or affiliated companies with which you have contact through your work.
- 1.3. You understand that a substantial portion of your compensation is provided to buy this loyalty. It will be a conflict of interest and a breach of your duty of loyalty for you to, among other things, compete with or prepare to compete with the Company while still employed by the Company, or to later compete with the Company in violation of this Agreement.

2. Inventions

- 2.1. You must disclose and assign, and you hereby unconditionally and irrevocably assign, to the Company (or as the Company may direct) all Company IP as the Company's exclusive property.
- 2.2. You must disclose all original works of authorship you make (solely or jointly with others) within the scope of your employment. If such works are protectable by copyright, then they will be "works made for hire," and if the work is determined not to be a "work made for hire," then you will assign, and hereby assign, those works and any copyright in such works to the Company (or as the Company may direct) as the Company's exclusive property. You agree that the Company may modify such works at its sole discretion and you unconditionally waive all moral rights you may have in respect to such works.
- 2.3. You must disclose and grant, and you hereby grant, to the Company a nonexclusive, transferable, sublicensable, royalty-free, irrevocable, perpetual, worldwide license to make, have made, modify, use and otherwise exploit any inventions, original works of authorship, developments, improvements or trade secrets that are owned or conceived by you or in which you have an interest and that is not already Company IP that you incorporate into Company products, processes, or machines while employed by the Company.

ECIA- India

- 2.4. You must execute, upon the Company's request, all necessary agreements, instruments, notices, acknowledgments and other papers and assist the Company or its nominee (at the Company's expense), during and after your employment, to perfect and register (if required under applicable law) the assignment of Company IP pursuant to Section 2.1 and to obtain (and to vest legal title in the Company or its nominee), patents, copyrights, or other legal protection for Company IP in all countries. Immediately upon creation or development of any Company IP or upon you acquiring, becoming vested in, being granted or asserting any assignable or transferable right (legal, beneficial, proprietary or otherwise) in relation to any Company IP, you shall, if required by the Company at its sole discretion, promptly deliver to the Company a further notice of assignment of such Company IP or right to the Company on such terms as the Company may require.
- 2.5. You must make and maintain adequate and current written records of all Company IP that you conceive, create, or develop relating to your work.
- 2.6. You may not disclose or use in your work for the Company any confidential or proprietary information of others (including any prior employers), or any inventions or innovations you own that are not within the scope of this Agreement.
- 2.7. You are not obligated to assign to the Company any rights in an invention that you developed entirely on your own time without using the Company's equipment, supplies, facilities, material, Confidential Information, or trade secret information, unless those inventions: (a) relate to the Company, or the Company's actual or demonstrably-anticipated research or development at the time the invention was made; or (b) result from any work you performed for the Company.

3. Confidential Information

- 3.1. You acknowledge that: (a) the Company's business is highly competitive; (b) the Company's Confidential Information is a valuable, special, and unique asset the Company uses in its business to obtain a competitive advantage over its competitors who do not have access to the Company's Confidential Information; and (c) protecting the Company's Confidential Information against unauthorized disclosure and use is of critical importance to the Company maintaining its competitive position.
- 3.2. You will not, at any time during or after your employment with the Company, make any unauthorized disclosure of any Confidential Information or any information of others that the Company is obligated to maintain in confidence, or make any use of it except in performing your responsibilities under this Agreement.
- 3.3. You may not store the Company's data, including Confidential Information, on any electronic storage device that the Company does not own without the Company's prior written consent. If you store the Company's data on an electronic storage device (e.g., USB drive, external hard drive, smartphone, personal computer, tablet computer, personal email addresses, Cloud-based storage accounts, etc.) that the Company does not own, regardless of whether the device also contains your personal information, in addition to all other available remedies, you will deliver to the Company within three business days after the Company requests all electronic storage devices for inspection, data retrieval, and data removal (including any personal information you have stored on the device) and you acknowledge that that your obligations in this regard are reasonable and necessary for the Company to protect its data, including Confidential Information.

- 3.4. You will promptly deliver to the Company, at the Company's request or upon any ending of your employment, all items or information belonging to the Company; or that by their nature are only for the use by the Company's employees, including all materials that are of a secret, restricted, confidential, highly-confidential, or proprietary nature.
- 3.5. You understand and agree that nothing in this Agreement prevents you from reporting in good faith, potential violations of law to the relevant law enforcement agency, or from cooperating in an investigation conducted by a government agency.
- 3.6. You understand that you may not be held liable for the disclosure of any information that is made in good faith and in confidence to a government official or to an attorney solely for reporting or investigating a suspected violation of law, and you will not be held liable under any trade secret law for the disclosure of a trade secret made to your attorney or in a complaint or other document that is filed under seal in a lawsuit or other proceeding. If you file a lawsuit for retaliation by the Company for your reporting of a suspected violation of law, you understand that you may also disclose a trade secret under the same conditions mentioned in this Section 3.5.
- 4. Non-Competition and Non-Solicitation
- 4.1. While employed by the Company and during the Restricted Period, you will not directly or indirectly render Restricted Services in the Restricted Region to a Competitor.
- 4.2. You understand that the restriction in Section 4.1 may limit your ability to engage in certain businesses in one or more geographic regions during the Restricted Period. You acknowledge that the restriction is necessary to protect the Confidential Information you had access to during your employment and the Company's customer relationships and stable workforce.
- 4.3. You agree that the provision in Section 4.1 defining the scope of restricted activities is narrow and reasonable for the following reasons: (a) you are free to seek employment with other companies that provide products and services that do not directly or indirectly compete with the Company; (b) you are free to seek employment with other companies in the oil and gas industry that do not directly or indirectly compete with the Company; and (c) there are many other companies in the oil and gas industry that do not directly or indirectly compete with the Company. Thus, the restriction on your ability to compete does not prevent you from using and offering your skills to other employers.
- 4.4. While employed by the Company, and for 12 months after the termination of your employment for any reason, you must give written notice to the Company's Chief Human Resources Officer within three business days of accepting employment or a business engagement with a Competitor or a Covered Customer. The written notice must identify the Competitor or Covered Customer, identify your new job title, and provide the Company with sufficient information about your new employment or engagement to enable the Company to determine if your services in the new employment or engagement may violate the post-employment obligations in this Agreement.
- 4.5. Before accepting employment or a business engagement with any other person or entity while employed by the Company or within 12 months after the termination of your employment for any reason, you must inform the person or entity of the restrictions contained in this Agreement.
- 4.6. While you are employed by the Company, and for 24 months following termination of your employment for any reason, you will not, directly or indirectly: (a) encourage or attempt to encourage (or assist another in encouraging or attempting to encourage) any of the Company's employees, contractors, consultants, suppliers, or vendors to terminate their relationship with the Company; or (b) solicit or contact for employment, engagement, or hire (or assist another in those activities) any of the Company's employees, contractors, or consultants.

- 4.7. While you are employed by the Company, and for 18 months following the termination of your employment for any reason, you will not directly or indirectly call on, service, solicit, or accept competing business (or assist another in calling on, servicing, soliciting or accepting competing business) from any Covered Customer on behalf of a Competitor. These restrictions, however, are limited by geography to the specific places, addresses, or locations where the Covered Customer is present and available for soliciting or servicing competitive products or services.
- 4.8. You will make yourself reasonably available to the Company to respond to requests by the Company for information which you may know related to the Company and its Representatives.
- 4.9. You will cooperate fully with the Company in connection with all existing or future litigations or investigations brought by or against the Company or any of its past or present Representatives, whether administrative, civil or criminal in nature, in which, and to the extent, the Company deems your cooperation necessary.
- 4.10. Nothing in this Agreement is intended to reduce the Company's protections or your obligations under: (a) any pre-existing agreement between you and the Company, (b) any applicable statute, order, regulation or other law or (c) general principles of law.
- 4.11. If you have any pre-existing, enforceable agreements that provide greater protection for the Company by having more restrictive terms relating to nondisclosure, non-competition, non-solicitation of customers, or non-solicitation of employees, you agree that, in addition to the provisions contained in this Agreement, you will continue to comply with and be bound by those pre-existing terms, which are hereby incorporated by reference.
- 4.12. For 12 months after the termination of your employment for any reason, and within 5 days of any written or oral request by the Company, you must certify in writing that you have always fully complied with your obligations under the terms of this Agreement. If you fail or refuse to do so, you and the Company agree that such failure amounts to a material breach of the terms of this Agreement.

5. General Provisions

- 5.1. Severability. If any part of this Agreement is held indefinite, invalid, or otherwise unenforceable, the rest of the Agreement will continue in full force. If any period or in the event the period is not fixed or determined under this Agreement, the Restricted Services or the Restricted Region stipulated under this Agreement is/are held excessive, indefinite, invalid, or otherwise unenforceable, such period or restriction shall be adjusted and/or determined to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law.
- 5.2. Waiver. A party's waiver of enforcement of any of this Agreement's terms or conditions will be effective only if in writing. A party's specific waiver will not constitute a waiver by that party of any earlier, concurrent, or later breach or default.
- 5.3. Merger. Except as set forth in Sections 4.10 and 4.11, this Agreement is your entire agreement with the Company with respect to the subject matter hereof, and it amends (to the extent enforceable) all previous oral or written understandings or agreements, if any, made by or with the Company regarding the same subject matter and can be revoked or modified only by a written agreement signed by you and the Company. Further, you acknowledge and agree that you have not, will not, and cannot rely on any representations not expressly made herein.

- 5.4. Choice of Law. This Agreement is governed by and must be interpreted under laws of GE OIL & GAS INDIA PRIVATE LIMITED without regard to its choice of law rules. Any dispute arising out of or in connection with this Agreement, including any question regarding its existence, validity or termination, shall be referred to and finally resolved by the competent courts of GE OIL & GAS INDIA PRIVATE LIMITED.
- 5.5. Survival. The covenants in Section 2, Section 3, Section 4, and Section 5 will survive the expiration or any termination of this Agreement and shall be construed as agreements independent of one another and any other provision of this Agreement and shall survive the termination of this Agreement and your employment with the Company. The existence of any claim or cause of action against the Company, whether predicated on this Agreement or otherwise, shall not constitute a defense to the enforcement by the Company of such provisions.
- 5.6. Assignment. This Agreement will inure to the benefit of the Company, its Representatives, and their respective successors and assigns, without need for any further action by the Company, and may be enforced by any one of them. You expressly agree to the assignment of this Agreement in accordance with this Section 5.6. You will continue to be bound by the terms of this Agreement regardless of any promotions, demotions, or transfers that you may receive in the future. Your services under this Agreement are personal in nature and cannot be assigned by you without the Company's consent.
- 5.7. Modification. This Agreement can be modified or changed only by a written document signed by both parties.
- 5.8. Warranty and Indemnification. You warrant that you: (a) are not a party to any other agreement limiting your activities for the Company; (b) at the time you signed this Agreement, do not know of a written or oral contract or of any other impediment that would inhibit or prohibit your employment with the Company; (c) will not knowingly use any trade secret, confidential information, or other intellectual property right of any other party in the performance of your duties with the Company; and (d) will hold the Company harmless from all suits and claims arising out of your breach of a restrictive covenant or agreement with a third party.
- 5.9. Remedies. You agree that if you breach or threaten to breach Section 4, the Company will not have an adequate remedy at law. If you breach or threatened breach any of these provisions, the Company is entitled to: (a) injunctive relief by temporary restraining order, temporary injunction, and permanent injunction; (b) recovery of attorneys' fees and costs incurred by the Company in obtaining that relief; and (c) any other legal and equitable relief to which the Company may be entitled, including all monetary damages that the Company may incur because of such breach or threatened breach. Injunctive relief will not be the exclusive relief and may be in addition to any other relief the Company would otherwise be entitled. The agreed amount for the bond to be posted if an injunction is sought by the Company is US$1,000. The existence of any cause of action by you against the Company, including any cause of action relating to this Agreement, will not constitute a defense to enforcement of the restrictions on you under this Agreement. If you fail to comply with a restriction in this Agreement, the period for that restriction will be extended by one day for each day you are found to have violated the restriction, up to a maximum of the original number of restrictive months.

Renuka Dyawarkonda
Sardar Patel Institute of Technology
Mumbai - 400 058

Dear Renuka,

Congratulations on receiving our offer of internship with Nomura Services India Private Limited ("the firm") in Risk & Capital IT division. We seek individuals with a distinguished record of achievement, superior leadership skills and commitment to excellence. Throughout our meetings, you have demonstrated these qualities, and we are confident that you will be a strong contributor to our firm.

For the avoidance of doubt, this is a volunteer work placement and you shall not have any employment relationship with the firm. Please understand that the terms and conditions of your internship are governed by the standard firm policies. Among other stipulations, this offer of internship is contingent upon the successful completion of reference checks and you satisfactorily meeting all pre-internship requirements and producing identification to verify your identity.

The firm will provide you with a stipend of INR 50,000 per month, less applicable tax withholdings, as soon as practicable following your internship start date. You will not be entitled to this payment if you fail to commence internship with the firm on the anticipated start date.

This offer of internship is based on your commitment to work exclusively for Nomura for a minimum 25 weeks period beginning on 09 January 2023. It is important that you work the entire period so that we may involve you in a variety of assignments and properly evaluate your potential contribution to the firm. If for any reason you are unable to commit to the 25 weeks period, please notify us before signing this letter.

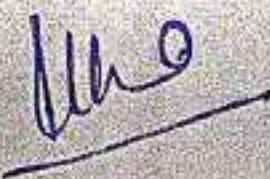

You shall be eligible to take 1.5 days of leave in a calendar month applicable cumulatively for the term of your internship, together with relevant public holidays, subject to prior written approvals from your reporting manager.

You will be eligible for additional study leave subject to prior written approvals from the firm. You will be required to resume your internship after the completion of your study leave. If at any point in time you exceed the specified days of leaves during your internship then you will be required to put in additional days of work to complete the above mentioned months of internship.

All developments, productions, written work, inventions and improvements of inventions, whether patentable or not, made by you or to which you would have contributed in the course of your internship, and all industrial and intellectual property rights and copyrights made by you or to which you would have contributed in the course of your internship will be and remain the exclusive property of the firm and to the extent necessary you assign any potential rights relating thereto to the firm. This includes but is not limited to all research and research products, firm templates, training materials, and presentations, "know-how" developed in spreadsheets and systems developments.

For the purpose of your internship, you may be required to process Personal Information. "Personal Information" means information concerning a living person and includes the full name, date of birth and any other description that can be used to identify a particular person. You agree not to disclose any Personal Information to any third party or agent who does not need to have access to the same in order for you to perform your work as an intern or use Personal Information for any other purpose other than your internship without the firm's prior consent. You will take all necessary measures to protect any Personal Data processed by you against unauthorized or unlawful processing, accidental loss, leakage or destruction and notify the firm immediately if a leak, loss or misuse of Personal Information or any such breach is discovered by you. You shall hold harmless and indemnify the firm against any loss suffered by it as a result of any breach by you of the provisions of this clause.

You will be eligible for medical insurance coverage for self upto INR 300,000/- per year.

The firm may procure commercial general liability insurance or such other insurance cover as it may require in connection with the internship. You hereby agree that if for any reason you receive any payments by way of compensation or costs or in any other manner under the relevant insurance policy, you shall promptly repay/refund such amounts to the firm in such manner as may be prescribed by the firm. You shall not without the prior consent in writing from the firm make any admission, offer, promise or payment in connection with any claim against you by any third party in connection with the insurance procured by the firm and the firm if it so desires, shall be entitled to take over and conduct in the name of the firm the defense or settlement of any claim.

You agree to indemnify the firm, its officers and its affiliates from and against any claim, action or damages arising out of your work and/or a breach of the terms of this letter.

The firm may terminate this internship at any time (without cause, reason and penalty), upon 7 days prior notice ("Notice Period"). Notwithstanding the said Notice Period, the firm may terminate your Internship immediately upon occurrence of any of the following events: (a) If the firm deems your performance to be unsatisfactory or not in accordance with these terms and conditions; (b) If you fail to clear background check as carried out by the Firm; (c) If you fail to satisfy any of the terms and conditions of this letter; and (d) If you breach any of the firm's policies, any obligations relating to confidentiality, intellectual property. In an event you're unable to intern during the Notice Period while the firm requires you to do so, then you shall be liable to pay to the firm an amount equivalent to your stipend for the said period.

The terms and conditions of this letter of internship shall be governed and interpreted according to the laws of India. Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or in connection with this letter of internship shall be resolved by binding, final arbitration in Mumbai, pursuant to the Rules of Arbitration of the International Chamber of Commerce. The language of the arbitration shall be English.

Dear Bhavika Vaishnavi,

Your Employment by J.P. Morgan

Congratulations on joining the J.P. Morgan family. We are pleased to confirm your employment with J.P. Morgan Services India Private Limited (the "Company").

You will find your personal employment terms outlined in Appendix A with general employment terms and conditions in Appendix B. Please note these terms and conditions supersede any verbal discussions you may have previously had with any J.P. Morgan employee with regards to your employment arrangements.

A number of important policies will apply to your employment with the Company, including the Personal Account Dealing Policy and the Code of Conduct. We provide more information about these policies in Appendix C and it is essential that you carefully read and understand their requirements. By signing this letter, you confirm that you have read, understood and agree to be bound by these policies. In addition, you will be required to abide by all other Company policies and regulations (including JPMorgan Chase group of companies ("Group") policies) and with applicable law.

Should you have queries in relation to your employment terms, your benefits or Company policies, please contact our HR Answers hotline at 000 800 440 5210 (local toll free) or +1 212-552-5100 (international).

Please be reminded your employment terms should be treated with the strictest confidence. To accept this offer of employment, please click on the 'Accept' button at the bottom of this page on or before 19-Jun-2023.

We are excited to welcome you to our Company and take this opportunity to wish you every success in taking this next step of your career with us.

APPENDIX A - Personal Employment Terms and Conditions

A1. Title/Category

You will join us as a/an Full-time Analyst in the Corporate Analyst Development Program (CADP) Class of 2023, at JPMorgan Chase & Co. and will carry out your role while physically present in the J.P. Morgan offices in Mumbai, India.

Your position and title may change as a result of successful completion of the Program, promotion or other operational requirements of the Company's business.

A2. Employment Commencement Date

Your employment is expected to commence on 17 Jul-2023. We will confirm any change in this date to you in writing in advance.

In addition to the conditions set out in paragraph 1 of Appendix B, your offer is subject to you successfully meeting the educational criteria that has already been communicated to you in writing.

Rotational Structure:

The Corporate Analyst Development Program (CADP) provides broad-line of business and intra-functional exposure through a series of targeted rotations. We expect this position will be 2 years long.

Rotations are the cornerstone of the Full-Time Analyst experience, so you must fulfill all required rotations before completing the program.

A3. Working Hours / Place of Work

Your manager will assign you specific working hours, often during J.P. Morgan's normal office hours. Depending on the needs of your department, however, you may be required to work outside the official hours to fulfill your duties.

You will normally work at the Company's offices in Mumbai, but you may be required to work at any other location of the Company or its affiliates, as required by the Company.

A4. Remuneration

Your total fixed pay will be INR 8,50,000 per annum and comprises the following components:
Rupees p.a.

1. Basic Salary	2,55,000
2. Leave Travel Assistance	40,000
3. House Rent Allowance	1,27,500
4. Provident Fund	30,600
5. Special Allowance	3,96,900
A. Total Fixed Pay	8,50,000

Internet Allowances: An amount up to INR 12,000/- per annum can be claimed by you as tax exempt amount towards personal internet / broadband expense, subject to Income Tax rules and regulations. You would be required to submit required proofs of expense as per the applicable guidelines.

Special Cash Award

As soon as administratively practical and typically within 60 days from your start date, we will pay you a one-time sign-on award of INR1,00,000, less applicable taxes and deductions.

If your employment with J.P. Morgan terminates for any reason other than job elimination within twelve months after your start date, you must repay to J.P. Morgan the full amount of this cash payment, within 30 days of your termination date. You agree that J.P. Morgan may satisfy all or part of this repayment obligation by withholding, to the fullest extent permitted by law, any amounts not yet paid to you at the time you leave J.P. Morgan.

Relocation Lump Sum

You will be paid a one-time Relocation lump sum of INR1,25,000/-, which is taxable and will be paid within a reasonable period after your start date. The relocation lump sum coverage includes the cost of air and tickets, other transportation and hotel stay of your choice.

If you resign or are terminated for any reason other than job elimination (as determined within the company's discretion) within 12 months of your commencement date, you agree to reimburse the Company in full for the amount of any relocation lump sum you have received in connection with this employment offer. This reimbursement shall become due and payable within 30 days of your last day of employment with the Company. Further, the Company may seek reimbursement by withholding any other payments not yet paid to you at the time you leave the firm.

A5. Probationary Period

Your employment will be subject to a probationary period as outlined in paragraph 4.3 of Appendix B.

A6. Leave Entitlement

A6.1 Annual Leave

You are entitled to 20 working days of annual leave with full pay in every calendar year in accordance with the Company's Human Resources Policies and applicable law. If you work part-time hours, your annual leave entitlement will be pro-rated to reflect your part-time hours worked.

A6.2 Other Leave

You can find further details of other leave entitlements in paragraph 5 of Appendix B.

A7. Benefits

You are eligible to join the Company's benefits programs as amended from time to time. Further details will be provided to you separately.

A8. Retirement Scheme

You are eligible for retirement benefits, and can find details in paragraph 11 of Appendix B.

A9. Notice Period

During your probationary period, starting the day you join the Company, either you or the Company may terminate your employment with at least 14 days' written notice or payment of wages in lieu of such notice period.

After the probationary period, either party can terminate the employment by giving the other party 60 Days written notice ("Notice Period") or by the Company making a payment in lieu of Notice Period.

As outlined in the Company's Code of Conduct, we expect all employees to hold themselves to the highest standards of ethical conduct. In order to avoid conflicts of interest or the appearance of conflicts of interest, in the event that during your participation in J.P. Morgan's Analyst Associate program you accept an offer of employment from another employer (regardless of the nature of its business or whether it is a client or competitor of J.P. Morgan), you must notify your manager no later than 3 business days of your acceptance of the offer.

APPENDIX B – GENERAL EMPLOYMENT TERMS AND CONDITIONS

B1. Employment

B1.1 Your employment is subject to:

- a) your being able to carry out your role in India while being able to be physically present in a JPMC office in Mumbai, India and obtaining and maintaining a valid work permit and such other permission, license or registration as may from time to time may be necessary to enable you to carry out your duties and continue your employment;
- b) the satisfactory completion of all pre-employment screening processing, including obtaining background references and checks as required, and the execution of any other forms necessary for employment; and
- c) your being legally able to work with the Company. You agree to disclose any employment or contractual post-employment restraints you are subjected to which may, and will continue to, affect your employment with the Company and affirm that:
 - i) you are not in breach of any prior employment contract;
 - ii) you have not taken or otherwise misappropriated – and you do not have in your possession or control – any confidential and proprietary information belonging to any of your prior employers or connected with or derived from your services to prior employers, and you have returned to all prior employers any and all such confidential or proprietary information; and
 - iii) you are not subject to any other employment or any contractual post-employment restraints
 - iv) you shall indemnify and hold harmless the Company from any and all claims arising from any breach of the warranties in this paragraph.

B1.2 Whilst you and/or the Company may have agreed a tentative date of commencement of employment with the Company, you will not, unless the Company decides otherwise, be able to commence employment with the Company without our receipt of completed and satisfactory results from our pre-employment screening process.

B1.3 You may be required to provide services for other members of the Group throughout your employment. When providing these services, you may from time to time be required to travel and work in different locations within and outside your hiring location.

B1.4 Your retirement age will be as per Company's policy and subject to satisfactory completion of your probation period and provided that your employment is not terminated.

B2. Remuneration

- B2.1 We will pay your total monetary remuneration in 12 equal monthly installments on or around the 30th of each month. We will review this remuneration annually, and we reserve the right to amend its terms, level and structure from time to time at our sole discretion.
- B2.2 You will be liable for all tax payments and any other imposts that may be levied or payable on any sums paid and/or other benefits we provide to you. We are entitled to deduct or retain from the sum payable to you any withholding and other taxes levied or payable.
- B2.3 Any payment of salary or bonus by, or other sum due to you from the Company shall be subject to any and all withholding or deduction (for, including but not limited to, any taxes, contributions, repayments or other sums which you have agreed that the Company may withhold/deduct or which the Company is obliged or entitled to withhold/deduct from time to time under any applicable law), and the Company shall in such case be entitled to withhold, deduct or retain the amount of such tax, withholding or deduction from any sum payable to you.

B3. Incentive Compensation

- B3.1 In its absolute discretion, the Company may pay you an annual incentive award ("Award") in accordance with the terms of its performance based incentive compensation plan in place and as amended or varied from time to time ("Incentive Plan"). The Award may be in the form of cash, restricted shares or units of JPMorgan Chase & Co. common stock ("Restricted Stock") and/or stock options or stock appreciation awards. In granting an Award, the Company may consider any factors it considers appropriate including but not limited to the motivation of future performance, individual achievement, business unit and Group corporate results. The Award will be planned and communicated in United States dollars or in your local currency in accordance with the published Incentive Plan then in effect and applicable to your role and business area within the Company.
- B3.2 Awards are subject to applicable taxes, the JPMorgan Chase Bonus Recoupment Policy and to the terms and conditions of Award Agreements, which will include recovery provisions, non-solicitation and similar covenants. Awards and payment thereof is conditional upon you being in employment with the Company and not under notice of termination (whether given by you or the Company) at the date of payment of any cash component of the Award. The Award is not pro-rated for the period worked if your employment terminates prior to the payment date.
- B3.3 Vesting of Restricted Stock is conditional upon your continued employment as of each vesting date, and the terms and conditions set forth in the associated Award agreement. Stock options or stock appreciation awards will become exercisable on the exercisable dates set forth in the Award agreement(s) conditional on your continued employment as of each exercisable date, and the terms and conditions set forth in the associated Award agreement.
- B3.4 The Company has absolute discretion over the payment and amount of any Award to you for any year. If paid, it shall not give rise to any expectation of the Award or the amount in future years of employment. No employee or officer of the Company is authorized to make any oral promises to you about an Award. During your employment any commitment as to an amount or timing of an Award must be in writing signed by a Senior Vice President or Managing Director of the Company and a human resources officer at the level of Vice-President or above. Awards do not form part of your salary for the purposes of pension or termination benefits.

B4. Termination

- B4.1 Your employment may be terminated as follows:

a) By either party giving to the other prior written notice of at least the period specified, as applicable, in paragraph 9 in Appendix A (the "Notice Period"), or by the Company making a payment in lieu of notice for all or part of such Notice Period of an amount equal to basic salary you would have been entitled to receive during the Notice period or part of the Notice Period.

b) By the Company at any time without notice or compensation if you:

- i) are guilty of fraud, dishonesty or misconduct which is inconsistent with the due and faithful discharge of your duties;
- ii) seriously breach the Code of Conduct and any other Company policies;
- iii) disobey the Company's lawful and reasonable instructions/requirements;
- iv) habitually neglect your duties; or
- v) otherwise commit a material or repeated breach of your employment terms or any of the Company's or Group's policies.

B4.2 During any Notice Period, the Company may put you on "garden leave" and may, amongst other things, do any or a combination of the following:

- (a) suspend you from the performance of any duties or assign you alternative duties;
- (b) exclude you from any premises of the Company or any of the Group companies and/or require you to work from another location;
- (c) require that you have no or limited contact or communication, other than purely social contact, with any employees, officers, directors, agents or consultants of the Company or any other member of the Group;
- (d) require that you have no or limited contact or communication with any customer or client of the Company or any other member of the Group;
- (e) remove your access to the Company premises and computer systems;
- (f) require that you return any property belonging to the Company under paragraph 7 in this Appendix; or
- (g) require you not to do any act or thing, or make or cause to be made, any statement reasonably likely to damage the business or reputation of the Company or the Group.

B4.3 If paragraph 5 of Appendix A states that your employment is subject to probation, your probation period will be the first 3 months of employment, which you agree is reasonable, and fair, in light of the responsibilities of the role.

B4.4 At its sole discretion, the Company may notify you of an extension to your probationary period.

B4.5 All your duties (whether express or implied) under your employment and this letter, including without limitation your duty of fidelity, good faith, exclusive service and duties in relation to the Group's confidential information shall continue throughout the Notice Period including any period that you are on garden leave.

B4.6 During any Notice Period:

- a) you will provide such assistance as the Company may require to effect an orderly handover of your duties and responsibilities to any individual appointed by the Company or any of the Group Companies to take over your role or responsibilities; and
- b) you shall make yourself available to deal with requests for information, provide assistance, be available for meetings and to advise on matters relating to work.
- c) you shall not, directly or indirectly, in any capacity whatsoever, interfere in any way whatsoever with the business or operations of the J.P. Morgan.

B5.- Leave

B5.1 Annual Leave

- a) Your annual leave entitlement will be subject to relevant legislation and JPMorgan Chase internal policies that are in force and amended from time to time. You will be entitled to annual leave with full pay in every calendar year, to be applied and taken in accordance with applicable law and JPMorgan Chase internal policies that are in force and amended from time to time. The Company will be entitled to determine when this is taken although, as far as possible, arrangements will be made to suit your convenience. J.P. Morgan encourages you to use your annual leave entitlement for each calendar year in that calendar year.
- b) After a notice of termination has been given, you will not be entitled to take annual leave notwithstanding any approval given before the date of the notice of termination unless the Company in its discretion otherwise determines.
- c) You must comply with the Company's 'consecutive days leave' policies.
- d) For the calendar year during which your employment with the Company commences or terminates, you will be entitled to such proportion of your annual leave entitlement as the period of your employment in each such year bears to one calendar year. Upon termination of your employment for whatever reason you shall, if appropriate and permitted under the law, either be entitled to a payment in lieu of any outstanding annual leave entitlement or be required to pay to the Company any salary received in respect of annual leave taken in excess of your proportionate annual leave entitlement.

B5.2 Sick Leave

Your sick leave entitlement will be subject to relevant legislation and JPMorgan Chase internal policies that are in force and amended from time to time.

B5.3 Suspension Leave

J.P. Morgan has the right to suspend you from your work duties with full pay where the Company considers it necessary to investigate any allegation of misconduct or impropriety on your part. Such right shall be exercised at the Company's sole discretion.

B6. Confidentiality

You acknowledge that a vast amount of privileged and confidential information will be disclosed to you in course of your employment with the Company and during your employment with the Company and thereafter, you shall keep secret and shall not at any time (whether during or after the period of your employment) use for your own or another's advantage, or reveal to any person, firm or company, any of the trade secrets, business methods and plans, financial matters, client lists, investments, marketing plans, personnel matters or other information which you knew or reasonably ought to have known to be confidential concerning the business or affairs of the Company or any other member of the Group or any of their related companies, clients or suppliers.

You agree to abide by the specific provisions on the use of confidential information in the Company's policies and Group code of conduct.

The restriction contained in this paragraph shall not apply to any disclosure or use authorised by the Company or required by law.

B7. Return of Company Property

You acknowledge that any privileged or confidential information disclosed to you in the course of your employment with the Company remains the exclusive property of the Company and whenever requested by the Company and/or J.P. Morgan and in any event upon the termination of your employment, you will promptly deliver to the Company and/or J.P. Morgan all documents and other materials (whether originals or copies or in hard copy or electronic form) concerning the Company and/or J.P. Morgan or their respective clients and suppliers, which may have been prepared by you or have come into your possession, custody or control in the course of your employment with the Company. This includes, without limitation, any confidential information, lists of clients or suppliers, correspondence, electronic equipment, computer software or hardware, staff identity cards card and other property used in connection with the operations of the Company and/or J.P. Morgan. You will not be entitled to, and will not retain, any copies, title and copyright in such correspondence and other documents, papers, records and property are vested in the Company and/or J.P. Morgan.

B8. Post Employment Restrictions

B8.1 For a period of three months commencing on the Relevant Date, you shall not directly or indirectly (whether on your own account, for or with any other person, firm or company) solicit or endeavor to entice away from the Company or any other Group Company any Critical Person.

B8.2 For a period of three months commencing on the Relevant Date, you shall not directly or indirectly (whether on your own account, for or with any other person, firm or company) solicit or endeavor to entice away from the Company or any other Group Company the business or custom of any Restricted Client.

B8.3 The duration of the restrictions will be reduced by any period of notice that you work out or any period of garden leave as provided in this offer letter.

B8.4 In this paragraph B8:

a) "Critical Person" means any person who was an employee or director of the Company or any other Group Company at any time within one year prior to the Relevant Date who had access to trade secrets or confidential information of the Company or any other Group Company. This includes knowledge of, involvement with or influence over suppliers or clients of the Company or any other Group Company with whom you worked at any time during that period.

b) "Group Company" means the Company, its ultimate holding company, any subsidiary of the Company and any holding company from time to time. "Subsidiary" and "holding company" shall have the same meaning as in the relevant companies' legislation.

c) "Restricted Client" means any person:

i) who in the one year before the Relevant Date was a client of, or has dealt with, the Company or any other Group Company; and

- ii) with whose custom or business you, or persons reporting to you, were personally involved with during the period of one year prior to the Relevant Date;
 - iii) but does not include publicly known institutional clients which you serve subsequent to your employment with the Company without the use of confidential or proprietary information of the Company and J.P. Morgan.
- d) "Relevant Date" means the date your employment with the Company or the Group terminates for whatever reason.

B8.5. You acknowledge and agree:

- i. that each of the foregoing paragraphs constitutes an entirely separate and independent restriction on you;
- ii. that the duration, extent and application of each restrictions, obligations and undertakings are reasonable and necessary to protect legitimate interests of the Company and J.P. Morgan; considering, among other things, that the Company has commercial dealings with business partners throughout the world and that you will regularly be dealing with such partners as part of your duties and you understand that it does not by any means prevent you from earning a living in a satisfactory way;
- iii. that, if any such restriction (or parts of a restriction) shall be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be void or unenforceable, the validity or enforceability of the remaining restrictions (or parts of a restriction) shall remain in full force and effect as if the unenforceable parts had been deleted. Damages may be an inadequate compensation for breach of any of the restrictions in this paragraph and, subject to a court's discretion, in the event of any actual or threatened breach of any provision of this paragraph, you agree that the Company shall be entitled to (on behalf of itself and on behalf of any other Group Company) restrain, by injunction, equitable relief or similar remedy, any conduct or threatened conduct by you. You expressly submit to the jurisdiction of any court of competent jurisdiction for this purpose, and in the event you receive from any person an offer of employment (whether oral or in writing and whether accepted or not), either during your employment or the continuation in force of all or any of the restrictions applicable to you, whether pursuant to this letter or the Code of Conduct, you shall provide to the person making such an offer of employment a full and accurate copy of the then current restrictions applicable to you.
- iv. that any benefit given or deemed to be given by you to J.P. Morgan under the terms of this paragraph is received and held on trust by the Company for the relevant J.P. Morgan group company. You will enter into appropriate restrictive covenants directly with other J.P. Morgan group companies if asked to do so by the Company.
- v. that your employment with the Company and the compensation paid and/or payable to you by the Company shall be sufficient consideration for the purposes of this clause. You further agree and acknowledge that the limitations as to time and the character or nature placed in this clause are reasonable and fair and will not preclude you from earning a livelihood, nor will they unreasonably impose limitations on your ability to earn a living.
- vi. that this offer letter constitutes a valid, legally binding and enforceable obligation on you and this document is not in violation of any applicable law.
- vii. that any breach or threat of breach on your part of any one of such obligations and/or undertakings would cause serious harm to the Company or J.P. Morgan which may then institute any legal recourse against you that is deemed appropriate and/or recourse in damages, without further notice or delay.

Mr. O

viii. that you shall not assign this offer letter or the rights and/or obligations hereunder. The Company may assign its rights and obligations herein in all circumstances without your consent, including in connection with any sale, transfer or disposition of all or substantially all of its business and operations and its assets, in which case the Company's rights and obligations shall vest to the successor.

ix. in addition, you agree and acknowledge that the potential harm to the Company of the non-enforcement of this clause outweighs any potential harm to you and that you have given careful consideration to the restraints imposed upon you by this clause and that you are in full agreement as to their necessity for the reasonable and proper protection of the Company's interests. You expressly acknowledge and agree that each and every restraint imposed by this clause is reasonable with respect to subject matter, time period and geographical area.

B9. Code of Conduct and Staff Regulations and Affirmation

B9.1 It is a condition of your continuing employment and it is your obligation that you comply with:

- (a) the Code of Conduct (as amended from time to time or superseded). At the time of acceptance of the offer of employment and on a periodic basis, you will be required to sign an affirmation (or reaffirmation) confirming your understanding and compliance with the provisions of the Code of Conduct; and
- (b) the Company's other internal policies and procedures and all relevant policies and procedures for the line of business in which you are to undertake work.

B9.2 The Company shall be entitled at any time to amend the Company's internal policies and procedures (including but not limited to the Code of Conduct), the benefits set out in the Appendices and other staff regulations, as well as to put in place new policies as the Company sees fit. Any such amendments shall be notified in writing to each employee and shall on provision of such notice, become legally binding.

B9.3 The Company's Human Resources work policies are set out in the me@jpmc website, as amended from time to time. Please take time to familiarise yourself with these policies when you begin your employment.

B9.4 To the extent that the contents of policies or procedures refer to obligations on the Company, you agree that they are guides only and are not contractual terms, conditions or representations on which you rely.

B10. Working Hours

B10.1 The total of your official working hours (excluding one hour lunch daily) is 40 hours per week. Your local business management will schedule your work hours, which depend on the needs of the business and may be outside of these core hours.

B11. Retirement Benefits

B11.1 Your entitlement to Provident Fund and Gratuity will be subject to relevant legislation and the Company's Human Resources policies that are in force and amended from time to time.

B12. Miscellaneous

B12.1 This letter represents the entire agreement between the parties with respect to your employment by the Company and supersedes any previous written or oral agreement between the parties in relation to the matters dealt with in it. You acknowledge that you have not been induced to enter into this letter by my representation, warranty or undertaking not expressly incorporated into it.

- B12.2 If any paragraph (or part of any paragraph) of this letter is invalid or unenforceable, the validity or enforceability of the remaining paragraphs (or parts of a paragraph) shall not be affected and the other paragraph (or parts of a paragraph) shall remain in full force and effect as if the invalid or unenforceable parts had been deleted. This letter shall remain in full force and effect and survive the termination of your employment for any reason whatsoever.
- B12.3 If, during your employment with the Company, you become indebted to the Company or are overpaid any amount for any reason, the Company will be entitled to recover that amount from you. The Company may, if it so elects, set off any sum due to the Company from you against the compensation payable to you, including any final salary payments due to you on the termination of your employment, and collect any remaining balance from you.
- B12.4 The Company may, in connection with your employment, receive personal data relating to you or your family. Such data may be received from you, or from other sources including third party sources. The Company may process your personal data for the purposes of your employment and the operation of the Group's business and as set out in the Code of Conduct and relevant Privacy Policies and Privacy Handbook. You hereby consent to the processing, storage and transfer of your personal data (including transfer worldwide amongst members of the Group).

B13. Contract Execution

B13.1 You acknowledge and agree that:

- This letter may be delivered in a digital or physical format. Subject to any applicable law, where the letter is provided in a digital format, you acknowledge and agree that it is being executed electronically and that it is enforceable.
- You have read and understood the terms of this letter and have been provided with an opportunity to review and discuss the terms of it with advisers, if you so desire.
- Should any further assurances be required or sought by the Company, you shall in good faith perform such further actions (including executing a physical copy of this letter)

B14. Governing Law and Jurisdiction

This letter and any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with it or its subject matter or formation (including non-contractual disputes or claims) shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of India. You and the Company submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the Mumbai courts in relation to any dispute arising in connection with your employment and this letter.

APPENDIX C - SYSTEMS MONITORING ACTIVITIES AND CROSS-BORDER TRANSFERS, PERSONAL ACCOUNT DEALING POLICY, AND CODE OF CONDUCT

Appendix: Systems Monitoring Activities and Cross-Border Transfers:

The following provides a summary of how JPMorgan Chase & Co., its affiliates and its subsidiaries and the entity that employs you, or for which you provide services (collectively, "JPMC"), conducts Systems monitoring. JPMC may conduct monitoring to the extent permitted by applicable law.

"Systems"). System monitoring applies to your JPMC equipment, your personal equipment when accessing the Systems, and the communications, information, and materials conveyed or accessed using the Systems. Monitoring activities may include the monitoring and logging of traffic and usage data of all electronic communications; monitoring of telephone calls to or from JPMC work telephones as permitted by applicable laws and subject to any required notices; monitoring of the contents of electronic communications, files, databases, applications, and internet usage; and logging hours worked and physical presence at JPMC facilities if applicable. JPMC may at all times monitor, access, retrieve, record and review information obtained from the monitoring activities for various purposes such as preventing and investigating activities that may violate JPMC's policies and ensuring compliance with legal or regulatory obligations. While conducting monitoring activities, JPMC may obtain and process personal information about you and others that may reside on the Systems.

The monitoring activities (including JPMC's collection and processing of personal or other information) are required for purposes of your employment or work assignment to promote adherence to applicable policies and regulations. Subject to applicable laws and regulations, if you object to this processing, JPMC may prohibit you from using the Systems; terminate offers of employment or work assignment; and, for employees, take disciplinary action against you, up to and including termination of your employment with JPMC.

JPMC may disclose the information it obtains in connection with monitoring activities to JPMC affiliates and to third parties, service providers, regulators, supervisory bodies, law enforcement and other government agencies. Information obtained from the monitoring activities may be used as the basis to take disciplinary actions, up to and including termination or other legal action, for violations of JPMC's policies or applicable laws.

In addition to the monitoring activities discussed above, JPMC may obtain and store other information related to your employment or other working relationship, such as your compensation information, performance information, benefits information and other workplace-related data. JPMC may transfer such information, and the information it obtains in connection with monitoring activities, to countries other than the country in which the information originally was collected, including to the United States.

Understanding Obligations under the Firm's Personal Account Dealing Policy (PAD):

The Personal Account Dealing Policy (Policy) of JP Morgan Chase & Co. (firm or JPMC) is designed to help prevent and detect violations of securities laws and industry conduct standards and to minimize actual or perceived conflicts of interest that could arise due to personal investing activities.

PAD Compliance will notify you if the position you are being offered is considered to be subject to the Policy. You will remain subject for the duration of your time working in a subject group, unless notified otherwise of a change in subject status. Unless otherwise notified, you will continue to be subject to the provisions of the Policy even during leaves of absence from the firm, including, but not limited to, garden leave or medical leave.

You as well as your Connected Persons are subject to the provisions of this Policy and will need to be familiar with the obligations set forth in this policy. Connected Persons includes your spouse, domestic partner or minor children (even if financially independent) as well as anyone to whom you provide significant financial support or for which you, or anyone listed above, has or shares the power, directly or indirectly, to make investment decisions.

Once subject to the Policy, you must disclose and certify your Covered Accounts (which include accounts of your Connected Persons). You will be required to maintain your self-directed Covered Accounts with one of the firm's Approved Brokers and pre-clear all purchases, sales, pledges and gifts (received and given) of publicly traded and privately held financial instruments, unless listed as specifically exempt. Pre-approval confirmations must be received prior to executing the trade or investment. The firm may impose periodic restrictions on personal trading in certain financial securities. These restrictions can apply to all firm subject Workforce Members and their Connected Persons or may be limited to certain groups. Subject Workforce

Members and their Connected Persons are not permitted to recommend or transact in the financial instruments of an issuer while in the possession of material non-public information (MNPI) regarding that issuer.

If you are a seasonal or short term employee the following requirements will apply:

JPMorgan Chase requires that seasonal workers refrain from trading in Covered Accounts for the time period that you are employed in a short term training program. Please verify that you will comply with the following personal trading requirements:

1. For the duration of the short term program I am joining I will not trade in any of my Covered Accounts.
2. I understand that the Firm has the right to request account information for any of my Covered Accounts.
3. If there is an extenuating circumstance that would compel me to place a trade in my Covered Accounts, I will obtain pre-approval of the trade by the Personal Account Dealing Group and I would be responsible for supplying all confirmations and statements to the Personal Account Dealing Group for that trade.

*The term Covered Accounts refers to any securities accounts no matter where they are located and includes, but is not limited to, those accounts that are established, maintained or controlled (either directly or indirectly) by you, your spouse, domestic partner or minor children (even if financially independent), anyone to whom you provide significant financial support, and in which the employee has a direct or indirect financial interest.

Global Personal Trading Policy:

The Personal Account Dealing of JPMorgan Chase & Co. is designed to help prevent and detect violations of securities laws and industry conduct standards and to minimize actual or perceived conflicts of interest that could arise due to personal investing activities. This Policy includes requirements for disclosing Covered Accounts, maintaining certain accounts at one of the firm's Approved Brokers, preclearing trades, and restrictions and prohibitions on certain types of trading activity. This Policy is subject to any applicable local laws and rules and should be read in conjunction with Supplements (regional/LOB) as well as the firm's Code of Conduct.

Conflict of Interests and Outside Interests:

Under JPMorgan Chase & Co.'s (JPMC) Code of Conduct, employees are responsible for avoiding activities or relationships that might affect their objectivity in making decisions as an employee. Employees are not permitted to allow their personal interest to conflict, or appear to conflict, with their JPMC role and responsibilities.

Outside Interests include second jobs, not for profit activities, government positions, and positions with external companies and organizations as a director, officer, advisor, sole proprietor, consultant or owner of any business. Outside Interests may result in an actual or perceived conflict of interest. Where actual or potential conflicts of interest cannot be mitigated, you may be required to discontinue the activity or dissolve your investment.

Employees are required to seek preclearance prior to engaging in Outside Interests or immediately upon joining JPMC. Where preclearance is not required, employee must adhere to all restrictions and conditions outlined in Section 5 and 6 of the Outside Interest Policy.

Conflicts of interests may also arise from: (1) personal and business relationships; (2) the exchange of gifts and business hospitality; (3) political engagement; and (4) personal finances. Employees should avoid activities or relationships that might affect their objectivity in making decisions on behalf of JPMC or undermine their credibility. Employees may never place personal interests ahead of our clients' interests. All potential and actual conflicts must be escalated to your manager for review and mitigation.

Acceptance and Code Affirmation:

Upon signing this letter I accept the terms and conditions described above.

I hereby affirm that I have read, understand, and am in compliance with the JPMorgan Chase ("JPMC") Code of Conduct and all internal JPMC policies that apply to me. I agree, as a condition of my employment, to remain in compliance with the Code of Conduct and all applicable JPMC policies.

I understand that I must conduct myself in a way that is consistent with the Code of Conduct, demonstrating compliance with the principles and intent of the Code of Conduct, and applicable laws and regulations.

I also affirm that I have reported any potential or actual violations of the Code of Conduct, JPMC policies, or laws or regulations applicable to JPMC's business, as required by the Code of Conduct. I understand that failure to do so can result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

I understand that the Code of Conduct may be updated periodically, as necessary; and that the current version is posted on the JPMorgan Chase intranet as well as on its public website.

Independent Auditor Tax Services to Employees of JPMorgan Chase and its Affiliates:

To be in compliance with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (PCAOB) Rule 3523, it is JPMorgan Chase's (JPMC) policy that PricewaterhouseCoopers (PwC) cannot provide any tax services to employees of JPMC or any of its controlled entities (hereafter referred to as JPMC employee). This restriction is regardless of whether the individual is in a financial reporting oversight role or not, and whether PwC is engaged by the individual or by JPMC. PwC is also prohibited from providing any tax services to a spouse of a JPMC employee if the work is related to a joint tax return. Exceptions to this policy will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis and will require the approval of the JPMC Controller.

APPENDIX D – SPECIFIC CONSENTS

You are required to provide specific consents in accordance with the applicable laws, details of which are provided in Annexure 1 and 2 respectively. It is essential that you carefully read/understand and specifically agree to the same.

Annexure – 1

Please read the following statements carefully. The term "J.P. Morgan" as used in these statements, refers to and is defined as including, either jointly or individually, J.P. Morgan Chase & Co., and/or any of its subsidiaries and affiliates and related body corporates (as defined in the Corporations Act, 2001 (Cwlth)), and/or their respective officers, agents, or employees.

Verification: The information I have provided in this Statement of Information is accurate to the best of my knowledge and subject to verification. I understand that any untrue statement or misrepresentation of fact in any of these statements to any extent, at J.P. Morgan sole discretion, may be grounds for terminating my employment with J.P. Morgan with immediate effect in accordance with the terms and conditions set out in J.P. Morgan Offer Letter.

Security Procedures: At all times during the performance of services for J.P. Morgan, I shall abide by all applicable J.P. Morgan security standards, guidelines and procedures, including, where applicable, those set forth in J.P. Morgan Data Security Policies and Standards Manual and Technical Users' Security Policies and Standards Manual.

Ownership of Intellectual Property: I hereby agree that J.P. Morgan shall have ownership of the entire rights, title and interest in all inventions, original works of authorship, developments, improvements, technical or other contributions, including computer software and trade secrets, and other works which I make, conceive, create or write, alone or jointly with others, during the course of and within the scope of my employment with J.P. Morgan or within six months after termination of such employment if the same is related to the course of my employment ("Developments"). In connection therewith, I hereby assign to J.P. Morgan, all rights, title and interest in and to the Developments to which I am or may at any time after the date of my employment be entitled to by virtue of or pursuant to any of the laws in force in any part of the world, whether or not patentable or registrable under copyright or similar laws, which assignment shall include, without limitation, the right to file and prosecute patent applications and copyright registrations in any and all countries and all rights of priority under international conventions. I further acknowledge that all original works of authorship which are made by me (solely or jointly with others) within the scope of and during the period of my employment with J.P. Morgan are protectable by Section 195awa of the Copyright Act, 1968 (Cwlth). I agree to keep and maintain complete, adequate and current written records of all Developments and to disclose the same to J.P. Morgan. The records will be in the form of notes, sketches, drawings, and any other format as J.P. Morgan shall reasonably request and/or specify during the term of my employment. I agree to, during and after such period, assist and co-operate fully with J.P. Morgan Chase (entirely at its expense) to do any and all acts to obtain and protect J.P. Morgan rights in the Developments and any copyrights, trademarks, patents, designs, layout-designs, proprietary information, mask work rights or other intellectual property rights relating thereto in any and all countries ("Intellectual Property Rights"), including, the execution of any and all applications, assignments and all other instruments in such manner and at such location which J.P. Morgan shall deem necessary in order to apply for and obtain or assign to J.P. Morgan the Intellectual Property Rights. I understand and agree that all such Developments shall be and remain the property of J.P. Morgan regardless of whether or not patented or registered for copyright and that my obligation to execute or cause to be executed, any instrument or papers shall continue after the termination of my employment with J.P. Morgan.

Moral Rights: I consent to do all such acts and deeds and fully assign to J.P. Morgan any and all moral rights in respect of all Developments and works made or to be made by me in the course of my employment with J.P. Morgan. I agree and acknowledge that I may be required to submit my name, likeness, statements, voice, photographic image, videos and any other information or material ("Material") to J.P. Morgan from time to time in relation to my employment with J.P. Morgan. I hereby understand, fully agree and freely consent to and I represent and warrant the following to and for the benefit of J.P. Morgan:

I have full legal authority, including all necessary intellectual property rights, to submit this Material to J.P. Morgan on behalf of myself or anyone depicted in the Material. If this Material contains any name or likeness of an individual under the age of 18 years or an incapacitated adult, I represent and warrant that I have the full legal authority to submit this Material on their behalf.

If I have voluntarily agreed with/been engaged by J.P. Morgan to create any Material, I hereby expressly undertake to hand over all the Material to the designated representative of J.P. Morgan and irrevocably consent to the use, publication, retention and/or destruction of the same by J.P. Morgan. I hereby grant to J.P. Morgan all right, title and interest in and to the Material without royalties or other compensation and agree that J.P. Morgan alone has the exclusive right to create copies of the Material, prepare derivative works based on the Material, distribute copies of the Material and / or publicly display.

In the event I have created the Material, I confirm and agree that the Material is my own original work, is not copied, and does not contain any third-party materials and/or content that I do not have permission to use. I further warrant and represent that the Material is not obscene, defamatory or in breach of any applicable legislation or regulations.

I consent and grant permission to J.P. Morgan and any applicable media agencies acting on behalf of J.P. Morgan, a perpetual, worldwide, non-exclusive, irrevocable, royalty-free license to use, reproduce, distribute and publish the Material or for any other information I provide in any media now or hereinafter developed for any purpose in which J.P. Morgan engages, including any promotion, advertisement or other conduct of trade, without royalties, payment or any other consideration. I irrevocably authorize J.P. Morgan to edit, alter, copy, exhibit, publish or distribute the Material for purposes of publicizing programs on the J.P. Morgan intranet or for any other lawful purpose in India and in any other country. I agree that the Material will not be returned to me. I waive the right to inspect or approve any finished product of the Material, including written or electronic copy, wherein my or that of any person's likeness appears.

I will not hold J.P. Morgan liable or responsible for the Material that are lost, delayed, misdirected or incomplete or cannot be delivered for any technical or other reason. J.P. Morgan shall not be liable for any loss or damage resulting from submission or publication of the Material.

I, for myself and anyone entitled to act on my behalf, waive and release, to the maximum extent permitted by law, J.P. Morgan from any claims or liabilities of any kind arising in connection with the Material or the use thereof even though that liability may arise out of negligence or carelessness of any such party. This Agreement and Release Form may be asserted as a full and complete defense to, and may be used as the basis for an injunction against any claims, action or lawsuit alleged or brought by me against J.P. Morgan. The rights granted herein shall be binding upon my estate, heirs and assigns.

This Agreement and Release is deemed to be made under and shall be construed according to the laws of India and subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of Mumbai Courts. J.P. Morgan - Pre Employment Screening

Confidentiality of Information: I agree that I shall hold on trust for J.P. Morgan Chase & Co, including its subsidiaries and affiliates (respectively or jointly) (JP Morgan) and shall not use, except for the purposes of the performance of my duties during my employment with J.P. Morgan, or disclose to any other party any Confidential Information (as such term is hereinafter defined) which may be disclosed to or created by me in connection with the course of my employment with J.P. Morgan. As used herein, the term "Confidential Information" means any information which relates to confidential, proprietary and/or trade secret information in oral, demonstrative, written, electronic, graphic or machine readable form contained in any documents, manuals, diskettes and other storage medium including but not limited to internal controls, computer or data processing programs, algorithms, electronic data processing applications, routines, subroutines, techniques or systems, or information concerning the business or financial affairs and methods of operation or proposed methods of operation, accounts, transactions, proposed transactions or security procedures, know-how, inventions, training methods or other information relating to the business and other operations of either J.P. Morgan, any affiliate of J.P. Morgan, or any client, customer or vendor of J.P. Morgan and all copies and reproductions thereof, whether or not owned or developed by J.P. Morgan, except such information which is in the public domain at the time of its disclosure to me or which subsequently enters the public domain other than as a result of a breach of duty on my part. I agree that, upon J.P. Morgan written demand for whatever reason, I shall immediately deliver to J.P. Morgan any and all notes, drawings, documents, manuals, diskettes and other m copies or excerpts thereof and confirm to J.P. Morgan, in writing, the return or destruction of the same. I acknowledge that my right to retain and/or use the Confidential Information shall terminate forthwith upon J.P. Morgan written demand and I shall immediately cease to use the Confidential Information. The obligations imposed by this clause shall survive the term of my employment with J.P. Morgan with respect to the performance of services, or of my employment or assignment to render services in connection therewith. I understand and agree that any breach of these confidentiality obligations will cause J.P. Morgan irreparable damage and J.P. Morgan shall have the right to enforce the provisions of this paragraph by means of injunctive relief including specific performance.

Appendix A – PERSONAL INTERNSHIP TERMS AND CONDITIONS

A1. Title/Category

You will join us as an intern in the CIB Research & Analytics Program at JPMorgan Chase & Co., and will carry out your role while physically present in the J.P. Morgan offices in Mumbai, India.

A2. Internship Commencement Date

Your internship shall begin on 16-Jan-2023 ("Start Date") and shall continue, subject to the remaining terms of this agreement, until it terminates on 30-Jun-2023 ("End Date") without the need for notice, unless previously terminated by either party pursuant to paragraph 4 of Appendix B.

In addition to the conditions set out in paragraph 1 of Appendix B, your offer is subject to you successfully meeting the educational criteria that has already been communicated to you in writing.

A3. Working Hours

Your manager will assign you specific working hours, often during the Company's normal office hours. Depending on the needs of your department, however, you may be required to work outside the official hours to fulfill your duties.

A4. Stipend

Your stipend will be INR60,000/- per month.

Relocation Lump Sum

You will receive an additional, one-time lump sum of INR85000("the Additional Sum") gross with your first stipend. This payment will be made to you in the first available payroll after you join the Company. You should be aware that this might be in the month of joining or the following month depending on your commencement date and when all necessary data is received. This is to assist with any relocation expenses you may incur prior to joining.

If you leave the internship or your internship is terminated for any reason, you must repay to the Company the Additional Sum on a pro-rated basis as set out below:

If your internship period is longer than 3 months and you leave the internship or your internship is terminated for any reason within three months of your date of commencement you must repay to the Company 100% of the gross amount of the Additional Sum.
If your internship period is longer than 3 months and you leave the internship or your internship is terminated for any reason more than three months but within twelve months of your date of commencement you must repay to the Company 50% of the gross amount of

the Additional Sum

If your internship period is less than 3 months and you leave the internship or your internship is terminated for any reason before completion of your internship period you must repay the Company 100% of the gross amount of the Additional Sum

A5. Probationary Period

Your internship will be subject to a probation period as outlined in paragraph 4.3 of Appendix B.

A6. Leave Entitlement

A6.1 Annual Leave

You are entitled to 20 working days of annual leave with full pay in every calendar year, pro-rated according to the duration of your employment in accordance with the Company's Human Resources Policies and applicable law. If you work part-time hours, your annual leave entitlement will be pro-rated to reflect your part-time hours worked.

A6.2 Other Leave

You can find further details of other leave entitlements in paragraph 5 of Appendix B

A7. Benefits

You will not be entitled to join the Company's benefits programs, given the short length of your fixed-term contract.

A8. Retirement Scheme

You are not eligible for retirement benefits.

A9. Notice Period

During your probationary period, starting the day you join the Company, either you or the Company may terminate your employment with at least 14 days' written notice or payment of wages in lieu of such notice period.

After the probationary period, either party can terminate the employment by giving the other party 30 Days written notice ("Notice Period") or by the Company making a payment in lieu of Notice Period.

APPENDIX B – GENERAL INTERNSHIP TERMS AND CONDITIONS

B1. Internship

B1.1 Your internship is subject to:

- a) you being able to carry out your role in India while being able to be physically present in an JPMC office in Mumbai, India and obtaining and maintaining throughout your entire period of internship a valid work permit and such other permission, license or registration as may from time to time be necessary to enable you to carry out your duties and continue your internship;
- b) the completion of all pre-employment screening processes to the satisfaction of the Company, including obtaining education verification, background references and checks as sought and the execution of any other forms necessary for internship, etc.; and
- c) you being legally able to work with the Company. You undertake to disclose any internship or contractual post-internship restraints to which you are subject and which may, and will continue to, affect your internship with us and represent and warrant that:
 - i. by entering into internship with the Company and performing the duties set out in this letter, you will not be in breach of any express or implied term of any internship or other agreement or arrangement to which you are party;
 - ii. you have not taken or otherwise misappropriated and you do not have in your possession or control any confidential and proprietary information belonging to any of your prior employers, or any third party providing services to your prior employer, or connected with or derived from your services to prior employers and you have returned to all prior employers any and all such confidential or proprietary information; and
 - iii. you are not subject to any other internship, including being subject to garden leave or any contractual post-internship restraints.

You shall indemnify and hold harmless the Company from any and all claims arising from any breach of the warranties in this paragraph B1.

- B1.2 Whilst you and/or the Company may have agreed a tentative date of commencement of internship with the Company, you will not, unless the Company decides otherwise, be able to commence internship with the Company without our receipt of completed and satisfactory results from our pre-employment screening process,
- B1.3 You may be required to provide services for other members of the Group throughout your internship. When providing these services, you may from time to time be required to travel and work in different locations within and outside your hiring location.

B1.4 You will not undertake outside employment or activities with or without remuneration, unless you have the prior written approval of senior management of the Company or its delegate. Outside activities may include (but are not limited to) activities as a director, officer, partner, sole proprietor, consultant or controlling stockholder of any business. If your request to undertake outside activity is not approved by management and you decide to engage in the activity, your internship may be terminated without any notice or compensation.

B2. Remuneration

B2.1 We will deposit your stipend (paragraph 4 of Appendix A) on or around the 30th of each month.

B2.2 You will be responsible for all tax liabilities world-wide arising out of payments pursuant to your internship with the Company.

B2.3 Any payment of salary or bonus by, or other sum due to you from the Company shall be subject to any and all withholding or deduction (for, including but not limited to, any taxes, contributions, repayments or other sums which you have agreed that the Company may withhold/deduct or which the Company is obliged or entitled to withhold/deduct from time to time under any applicable law), and the Company shall in such case be entitled to withhold, deduct or retain the amount of such tax, withholding or deduction from any sum payable to you.

B3. Incentive Compensation

For this position, you won't be eligible for incentive awards under the JPMorgan Chase Performance-Based Incentive Compensation Plan or any other non-annual incentive compensation plan.

B4. Termination

B4.1 Your internship may be terminated as follows:

- a) By either party giving to the other prior written notice of at least the period specified, as applicable, in paragraph 9 in Appendix A (the "Notice Period"), or by the Company making a payment in lieu of notice for all or part of such Notice Period of an amount equal to basic salary you would have been entitled to receive during the Notice period or part of the Notice Period.
- b) By the Company at any time without notice or compensation if you:
 - i) are guilty of fraud, dishonesty or misconduct which is inconsistent with the due and faithful discharge of your duties;

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "M. S. Ramaiah".

- ii) seriously breach the Code of Conduct and any other Company policies;
- iii) disobey the Company's lawful and reasonable instructions/requirements;
- iv) habitually neglect your duties; or
- v) otherwise commit a material or repeated breach of your Internship terms or any of the Company's or Group's policies.

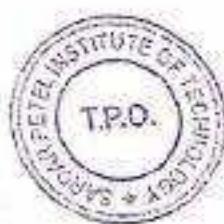

B4.2 During any Notice Period, the Company may put you on "garden leave" and may, amongst other things, do any or a combination of the following:

- (a) suspend you from the performance of any duties or assign you alternative duties;
- (b) exclude you from any premises of the Company or any of the Group companies and/or require you to work from another location;
- (c) require that you have no or limited contact or communication, other than purely social contact, with any employees, officers, directors, agents or consultants of the Company or any other member of the Group;
- (d) require that you have no or limited contact or communication with any customer or client of the Company or any other member of the Group;
- (e) remove your access to the Company premises and computer systems;
- (f) require that you return any property belonging to the Company under paragraph 7 in this Appendix;
- (g) require you not to do any act or thing, or make or cause to be made, any statement reasonably likely to damage the business or reputation of the Company or the Group.

B4.3 If paragraph 5 of Appendix A states that your employment is subject to probation, your probation period will be the first 3 months of employment, which you agree is reasonable, and fair, in light of the responsibilities of the role.

B4.4 At its sole discretion, the Company may notify you of an extension to your probationary period.

B4.5 All your duties (whether express or implied) under your Internship and this letter, including without limitation your duty of fidelity, good faith, exclusive service and duties in relation to the Group's confidential information shall continue throughout the Notice Period including any period that you are on garden leave.

B4.6 During any Notice Period:

- (a) you will provide such assistance as the Company may require to effect an orderly handover of your duties and responsibilities to any individual appointed by the Company or any of the Group Companies to take over your role or responsibilities; and
- (b) you shall make yourself available to deal with requests for information, provide assistance, be available for meetings and to advise on matters relating to work.

B5. Leave

B5.1 Annual Leave

- (a) You will be entitled to annual leave with full pay in every calendar year – please see paragraph 6 of Appendix A, pro-rated according to the duration of your employment. The Company will be entitled to determine when annual leave is taken, although as far as possible, arrangements will be made to suit your convenience. Annual leave entitlement for each calendar year must be taken in that calendar year and only in exceptional circumstances can annual leave (other than unused statutory entitlement, if any) be carried forward into the following calendar year. All annual leave days taken will be deducted first from the statutory entitlement accumulation.
- (b) After a notice of termination has been given pursuant to paragraph B4.1 of this Appendix, you will not be entitled to take any annual leave without the express consent of the Company provided after notice of termination has been given.
- (c) You must comply with the Company's 'consecutive days leave' policies.

B5.2 Sick Leave

Any sick leave entitlement will be subject to relevant legislation and J.P. Morgan internal policies that are in force and amended from time to time. More details are set out in the me@jpmc website, which will be accessible to you upon commencement of your employment.

B5.3 Suspension Leave

The Company has the right to suspend you from your work duties with full pay when it considers it necessary to investigate any allegation of misconduct or impropriety on your part. The Company can exercise this right at its sole discretion, acting in good faith.

B6. Confidentiality

Udo

You acknowledge that a vast amount of privileged and confidential information will be disclosed to you in course of your internship with the Company and during your internship with the Company and thereafter, you shall keep secret and shall not at any time (whether during or after the period of your internship) use for your own or another's advantage, or reveal to any person, firm or company, any of the trade secrets, business methods and plans, financial matters, client lists, investments, marketing plans, personnel matters or other information which you knew or reasonably ought to have known to be confidential concerning the business or affairs of the Company or any other member of the Group or any of their related companies, clients or suppliers.

You agree to abide by the specific provisions on the use of confidential information in the Company's policies and Group code of conduct.

The restriction contained in this paragraph shall not apply to any disclosure or use authorised by the Company or required by law.

B7. Return of Company Property

You acknowledge that any privileged or confidential information disclosed to you in the course of your internship with the Company remains the exclusive property of the Company and whenever requested by the Company and/or Group and in any event upon the termination of your internship, you will promptly deliver to the Company and/or Group all documents and other materials (whether originals or copies or in hard copy or electronic form) concerning the Company and/or Group or their respective clients and suppliers, which may have been prepared by you or have come into your possession, custody or control in the course of your internship with the Company. This includes, without limitation, any confidential information, lists of clients or suppliers, correspondence, electronic equipment, computer software or hardware, staff identity cards card and other property used in connection with the operations of the Company and/or Group. You will not be entitled to, and will not retain, any copies, title and copyright in such correspondence and other documents, papers, records and property are vested in the Company and/or Group.

B8. Post internship Restrictions

- B8.1 For a period of three months commencing on the Relevant Date, you shall not directly or indirectly (whether on your own account, for or with any other person, firm or company) solicit or endeavor to entice away from the Company or any other Group Company any Critical Person.
- B8.2 For a period of three months commencing on the Relevant Date, you shall not directly or indirectly (whether on your own account, for or with any other person, firm or company) solicit or endeavor to entice away from the Company or any other Group Company the business or custom of any Restricted Client.
- B8.3 The duration of the restrictions will be reduced by any period of notice that you work out or

B8.4 In this paragraph B8:

- a) "Critical Person" means any person who was an employee or director of the Company or any other Group Company at any time within one year prior to the Relevant Date who had access to trade secrets or confidential information of the Company or any other Group Company. This includes knowledge of, involvement with or influence over suppliers or clients of the Company or any other Group Company with whom you worked at any time during that period.
- b) "Group Company" means the Company, its ultimate holding company, any subsidiary of the Company and any holding company from time to time. "Subsidiary" and "holding company" shall have the same meaning as in the relevant companies' legislation.
- c) "Restricted Client" means any person:
 - i. who in the one year before the Relevant Date was a client of, or has dealt with, the Company or any other Group Company; and
 - ii. with whose custom or business you, or persons reporting to you, were personally involved with during the period of one year prior to the Relevant Date
 - iii. but does not include publicly known institutional clients which you serve subsequent to your internship with the Company without the use of confidential or proprietary information of the Company and the Group.
- d) "Relevant Date" means the date your internship with the Company or the Group terminates for whatever reason.

B8.5 You acknowledge and agree:

- a) that each of the foregoing paragraphs constitutes an entirely separate and independent restriction on you;
- b) that the duration, extent and application of each restrictions, obligations and undertakings are reasonable and necessary to protect legitimate interests of the Company and the Group, considering, among other things, that the Company has commercial dealings with business partners throughout the world and that you will regularly be dealing with such partners as part of your duties and you understand that it does not by any means prevent you from earning a living in a satisfactory way;
- c) that, if any such restriction (or parts of a restriction) shall be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be void or unenforceable, the validity or enforceability of the remaining restrictions (or parts of a restriction) shall remain in full force and effect as if the unenforceable parts had been deleted. Damages may be an inadequate compensation for breach of any of the restrictions in this paragraph and, subject to a court's discretion, in the event of any actual or threatened breach of any provision of this paragraph, you agree that the Company shall be entitled to (on behalf of itself and on behalf of any other Group Company) restrain, by injunction, equitable relief or similar remedy, any conduct or threatened conduct by you. You expressly submit to the jurisdiction of any court of competent jurisdiction for this purpose, and in the event you receive from any person an offer of employment (whether oral or in writing and whether accepted or not), either during your internship or the continuation in force of all or any of the restrictions applicable to you, whether pursuant to this letter or the Code of Conduct, you shall provide to the person making such an offer of employment a full and accurate copy of the then current restrictions applicable to you.

- d) that any benefit given or deemed to be given by you to the Group under the terms of this paragraph is received and held on trust by the Company for the relevant Group Company. You will enter into appropriate restrictive covenants directly with other Group Companies if asked to do so by the Company.
- e) that your internship with the Company and the compensation paid and/or payable to you by the Company shall be sufficient consideration for the purposes of this clause. You further agree and acknowledge that the limitations as to time and the character or nature placed in this clause are reasonable and fair and will not preclude you from earning a livelihood, nor will they unreasonably impose limitations on your ability to earn a living.
- f) that this offer letter constitutes a valid, legally binding and enforceable obligation on you and this document is not in violation of any applicable law.
- g) that any breach or threat of breach on your part of any one of such obligations and/or undertakings would cause serious harm to the Company or the Group which may then institute any legal recourse against you that is deemed appropriate and/or recourse in damages, without further notice or delay.
- i) in addition, you agree and acknowledge that the potential harm to the Company of the non-enforcement of this clause outweighs any potential harm to you and that you have given careful consideration to the restraints imposed upon you by this clause and that you are in full agreement as to their necessity for the reasonable and proper protection of the Company's interests. You expressly acknowledge and agree that each and every restraint imposed by this clause is reasonable with respect to subject matter, time period and geographical area.

B9. Code of Conduct and Staff Regulations and Affirmation

- B9.1 It is a condition of your continuing internship and it is your obligation that you comply with:
- (a) the Code of Conduct (as amended from time to time or superseded). At the time of acceptance of the offer of internship and on a periodic basis, you will be required to sign an affirmation (or reaffirmation) confirming your understanding and compliance with the provisions of the Code of Conduct; and
 - (b) the Company's other internal policies and procedures and all relevant policies and procedures for the line of business in which you are to undertake work.
- B9.2 The Company shall be entitled at any time to amend the Company's internal policies and procedures (including but not limited to the Code of Conduct), the benefits set out in the Appendices and other staff regulations, as well as to put in place new policies as the Company sees fit. Any such amendments shall be notified in writing to each employee and shall on provision of such notice, become legally binding.
- B9.3 The Company's Human Resources work policies are set out in the me@jpmc website, as amended from time to time. Please take time to familiarise yourself with these policies when you begin your internship.
- B9.4 To the extent that the contents of policies or procedures refer to obligations on the Company, you agree that they are guides only and are not contractual terms, conditions or representations on which you rely.

B10. Working Hours

- B10.1 Your total working hours (including break(s)) is 40 hours per working week during the tenure of your internship and you should attend office 5 days every working week. Your working hours may be revised at the discretion of the Company.

B11. Retirement Benefits

You are not eligible for retirement benefits.

B12. Contract Execution

- B12.1 You acknowledge and agree that:

- (a) This letter may be delivered in a digital or physical format. Subject to any applicable law, where the letter is provided in a digital format, you acknowledge and agree that it is being executed electronically and that it is enforceable.

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "W.M.", written over a solid blue horizontal line.

- (b) You have read and understood the terms of this letter and have been provided with an opportunity to review and discuss the terms of it with advisors, if you so desire.
- (c) Should any further assurances be required or sought by the Company, you shall in good faith perform such further actions (including executing a physical copy of this letter)

B13. Governing Law and Jurisdiction

This letter and any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with it or its subject matter or formation (including non-contractual disputes or claims) shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of India. You and the Company submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the Mumbai, Maharashtra courts in relation to any dispute arising in connection with your internship and this letter.

APPENDIX C - SYSTEMS MONITORING ACTIVITIES AND CROSS-BORDER TRANSFERS, PERSONAL ACCOUNT DEALING POLICY, AND CODE OF CONDUCT

Appendix: Systems Monitoring Activities and Cross-Border Transfers:

The following provides a summary of how JPMorgan Chase & Co., its affiliates and its subsidiaries and the entity that employs you, or for which you provide services (collectively, "JPMC"), conducts Systems monitoring. JPMC may conduct monitoring to the extent permitted by applicable law.

JPMC conducts monitoring of JPMC's physical facilities and its equipment and systems (collectively, the "Systems"). System monitoring applies to your JPMC equipment, your personal equipment when accessing the Systems, and the communications, information, and materials conveyed or accessed using the Systems. Monitoring activities may include the monitoring and logging of traffic and usage data of all electronic communications; monitoring of telephone calls to or from JPMC work telephones as permitted by applicable laws and subject to any required notices; monitoring of the contents of electronic communications, files, databases, applications, and internet usage; and logging hours worked and physical presence at JPMC's facilities if applicable. JPMC may at all times monitor, access, retrieve, record and review information obtained from the monitoring activities for various purposes, such as preventing and investigating activities that may violate JPMC's policies and ensuring compliance with legal or regulatory obligations. While conducting monitoring activities, JPMC may obtain and process personal information about you and others that may reside on the Systems.

The monitoring activities (including JPMC's collection and processing of personal or other information) are required for purposes of your employment or work assignment to promote adherence to applicable policies and regulations. Subject to applicable laws and regulations, if you object to this processing, JPMC may prohibit you from using the Systems; terminate offers of employment or work assignment; and, for employees, take disciplinary action against you, up to and including termination of your employment with JPMC.

JPMC may disclose the information it obtains in connection with monitoring activities to JPMC affiliates and to third parties, service providers, regulators, supervisory bodies, law enforcement and other government agencies. Information obtained from the monitoring activities may be used as the basis to take disciplinary actions, up to and including termination or other legal action, for violations of JPMC's policies or applicable laws.

In addition to the monitoring activities discussed above, JPMC may obtain and store other information related to your employment or other working relationship, such as your compensation information, performance information, benefits information and other workplace-related data. JPMC may transfer such information, and the information it obtains in connection with monitoring activities, to countries other than the country in which the information originally was collected, including to the United States.

Understanding Obligations under the Firm's Personal Account Dealing Policy (PAD):

The Personal Account Dealing Policy (Policy) of JPMorgan Chase & Co. (firm or JPMC) is designed to help prevent and detect violations of securities laws and industry conduct standards and to minimize actual or perceived conflicts of interest that could arise due to personal investing activities.

PAD Compliance will notify you if the position you are being offered is considered to be subject to the Policy. You will remain subject for the duration of your time working in a subject group, unless notified otherwise of a change in subject status. Unless otherwise notified, you will continue to be subject to the provisions of the Policy even during leaves of absence from the firm, including, but not limited to, garden leave or medical leave.

You as well as your Connected Persons are subject to the provisions of this Policy and will need to be familiar with the obligations set forth in this policy. Connected Persons includes your spouse, domestic partner or minor children (even if financially independent) as well as anyone to whom you provide significant financial support or for which you, or anyone listed above, has or shares the power, directly or indirectly, to make investment decisions.

Once subject to the Policy, you must disclose and certify your Covered Accounts (which include accounts of your Connected Persons). You will be required to maintain your self-directed Covered Accounts with one of the firm's Approved Brokers and pre-clear all purchases, sales, pledges and gifts (received and given) of publicly traded and privately held financial instruments, unless listed as specifically exempt. Pre-approval confirmations must be received prior to executing the trade or investment. The firm may impose periodic restrictions on personal trading in certain financial securities. These restrictions can apply to all firm subject Workforce Members and their Connected Persons or may be limited to certain groups. Subject Workforce Members and their Connected Persons are not permitted to recommend or transact in the financial instruments of an issuer while in the possession of material non-public information (MNPI) regarding that issuer.

If you are a seasonal or short term employee the following requirements will apply:

JPMorgan Chase requires that seasonal workers refrain from trading in Covered Accounts for the time period that you are employed in a short term training program. Please verify that you will

comply with the following personal trading requirements:

1. For the duration of the short term program I am joining I will not trade in any of my Covered Accounts
2. I understand that the Firm has the right to request account information for any of my Covered Accounts
3. If there is an extenuating circumstance that would compel me to place a trade in my Covered Accounts, I will obtain pre-approval of the trade by the Personal Account Dealing Group and I would be responsible for supplying all confirmations and statements to the Personal Account Dealing Group for that trade

*The term Covered Accounts refers to any securities accounts no matter where they are located and includes, but is not limited to, those accounts that are established, maintained or controlled (either directly or indirectly) by you, your spouse, domestic partner or minor children (even if financially independent), anyone to whom you provide significant financial support, and in which the employee has a direct or indirect financial interest.

Global Personal Trading Policy:

The Personal Account Dealing of JPMorgan Chase & Co. is designed to help prevent and detect violations of securities laws and industry conduct standards and to minimize actual or perceived conflicts of interest that could arise due to personal investing activities. This Policy includes requirements for disclosing Covered Accounts, maintaining certain accounts at one of the firm's Approved Brokers, preclearing trades, and restrictions and prohibitions on certain types of trading activity. This Policy is subject to any applicable local laws and rules and should be read in conjunction with Supplements (regional/LOB) as well as the firm's Code of Conduct.

Conflict of Interests and Outside Interests:

Under JPMorgan Chase & Co.'s (JPMC) Code of Conduct, employees are responsible for avoiding activities or relationships that might affect their objectivity in making decisions as an employee. Employees are not permitted to allow their personal interest to conflict, or appear to conflict, with their JPMC role and responsibilities.

Outside Interests include second jobs, not for profit activities, government positions, and positions with external companies and organizations as a director, officer, advisor, sole proprietor, consultant or owner of any business. Outside Interests may result in an actual or perceived conflict of interest. Where actual or potential conflicts of interest cannot be mitigated, you may be required to discontinue the activity or dissolve your investment.

Employees are required to seek preclearance prior to engaging in Outside Interests or immediately upon joining JPMC. Where preclearance is not required, employee must adhere to all restrictions and conditions outlined in Section 5 and 6 of the Outside Interest Policy.

Conflicts of interests may also arise from: (1) personal and business relationships; (2) the exchange of gifts and business hospitality; (3) political engagement; and (4) personal finances. Employees should avoid activities or relationships that might affect their objectivity in making decisions on behalf of JPMC or undermine their credibility. Employees may never place personal interests ahead of our clients' interests. All potential and actual conflicts must be escalated to your manager for review and mitigation.

Acceptance and Code Affirmation:

Upon signing this letter I accept the terms and conditions described above.

I hereby affirm that I have read, understand, and am in compliance with the JPMorgan Chase ("JPMC") Code of Conduct and all internal JPMC policies that apply to me; I agree, as a condition of my employment, to remain in compliance with the Code of Conduct and all applicable JPMC policies.

I understand that I must conduct myself in a way that is consistent with the Code of Conduct, demonstrating compliance with the principles and intent of the Code of Conduct, and applicable laws and regulations.

I also affirm that I have reported any potential or actual violations of the Code of Conduct, JPMC policies, or laws or regulations applicable to JPMC's business, as required by the Code of Conduct. I understand that failure to do so can result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

I understand that the Code of Conduct may be updated periodically, as necessary, and that the current version is posted on the JPMorgan Chase intranet as well as on its public website.

Independent Auditor Tax Services to Employees of JPMorgan Chase and its Affiliates:

To be in compliance with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (PCAOB) Rule 3523, it is JPMorgan Chase's (JPMC) policy that PricewaterhouseCoopers (PwC) cannot provide any tax services to employees of JPMC or any of its controlled entities (hereafter referred to as JPMC employee). This restriction is regardless of whether the individual is in a financial reporting oversight role or not, and whether PwC is engaged by the individual or by JPMC. PwC is also prohibited from providing any tax services to a spouse of a JPMC employee if the work is related to a joint tax return. Exceptions to this policy will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis and will require the approval of the JPMC Controller.

Dear Shivam,

Your Internship by J.P. Morgan

Congratulations on joining the J.P. Morgan family. We are pleased to confirm your internship with J.P. Morgan Services India Private Limited (the "Company").

You will find your personal internship terms outlined in Appendix A with general internship terms and conditions in Appendix B. Please note these terms and conditions supersede any verbal discussions you may have previously had with any JPMorgan Chase employee with regards to your internship arrangements.

A number of important policies will apply to your internship with the Company, including the Personal Account Dealing Policy and the Code of Conduct. We provide more information about these policies in Appendix C and it is essential that you carefully read and understand their requirements. By signing this letter, you confirm that you have read, understood and agree to be bound by these policies. In addition, you will be required to abide by all other Company policies and regulations (including JPMorgan Chase group of companies (the "Group") policies) and with applicable law.

Should you have queries in relation to your employment terms, your benefits or Company policies, please contact our HR Answers hotline at 000 800 440 5210 (local toll free) or +1 212-552-5100 (international).

Please be reminded your Internship terms should be treated with the strictest confidence. To accept this offer of internship, please click on the 'Accept' button at the bottom of this page on or before 13-Dec-2022.

We are excited to welcome you to our Company and take this opportunity to wish you every success in taking this next step of your career with us.

Appendix A – PERSONAL INTERNSHIP TERMS AND CONDITIONS

A1. Title/Category

You will join us as an intern in the Software Engineer Program at JPMorgan Chase & Co., and will carry out your role while physically present in the J.P. Morgan offices in Mumbai, India.

A2. Internship Commencement Date

Your internship shall begin on 06-Feb-2023 ("Start Date") and shall continue, subject to the remaining terms of this agreement, until it terminates on 31-May-2023 ("End Date") without the need for notice, unless previously terminated by either party pursuant to paragraph 4 of Appendix B.

In addition to the conditions set out in paragraph 1 of Appendix B, your offer is subject to you successfully meeting the educational criteria that has already been communicated to you in writing.

A3. Working Hours

Your manager will assign you specific working hours, often during the Company's normal office hours. Depending on the needs of your department, however, you may be required to work outside the official hours to fulfill your duties.

A4. Stipend

Your stipend will be INR 70,000/- per month.

Relocation Lump Sum

You will receive an additional, one-time lump sum of INR 85000 ("the Additional Sum") gross with your first stipend. This payment will be made to you in the first available payroll after you join the Company. You should be aware that this might be in the month of joining or the following month depending on your commencement date and when all necessary data is received. This is to assist with any relocation expenses you may incur prior to joining.

If you leave the internship or your internship is terminated for any reason, you must repay to the Company the Additional Sum on a pro-rated basis as set out below:

If your internship period is longer than 3 months and you leave the internship or your internship is terminated for any reason within three months of your date of commencement you must repay to the Company 100% of the gross amount of the Additional Sum
If your internship period is longer than 3 months and you leave the internship or your internship is terminated for any reason more than three months but within twelve months of your date of commencement you must repay to the Company 50% of the gross amount of

the Additional Sum

If your internship period is less than 3 months and you leave the internship or your internship is terminated for any reason before completion of your internship period you must repay the Company 100% of the gross amount of the Additional Sum.

A5. Probationary Period

Your internship will be subject to a probation period as outlined in paragraph 4.3 of Appendix B.

A6. Leave Entitlement

A6.1 Annual Leave

You are entitled to 20 working days of annual leave with full pay in every calendar year, pro-rated according to the duration of your employment in accordance with the Company's Human Resources Policies and applicable law. If you work part-time hours, your annual leave entitlement will be pro-rated to reflect your part-time hours worked.

A6.2 Other Leave

You can find further details of other leave entitlements in paragraph 5 of Appendix B.

A7. Benefits

You will not be entitled to join the Company's benefits programs, given the short length of your fixed-term contract.

A8. Retirement Scheme

You are not eligible for retirement benefits.

A9. Notice Period

During your probationary period, starting the day you join the Company, either you or the Company may terminate your employment with at least 14 days' written notice or payment of wages in lieu of such notice period.

After the probationary period, either party can terminate the employment by giving the other party 30 Days written notice ("Notice Period") or by the Company making a payment in lieu of Notice Period.

APPENDIX B – GENERAL INTERNSHIP TERMS AND CONDITIONS

904

B1. Internship

B1.1 Your internship is subject to:

- a) you being able to carry out your role in India while being able to be physically present in an JPMC office in Mumbai, India and obtaining and maintaining throughout your entire period of internship a valid work permit and such other permission, license or registration as may from time to time be necessary to enable you to carry out your duties and continue your internship.
- b) the completion of all pre-employment screening processes to the satisfaction of the Company, including obtaining education verification, background references and checks as sought and the execution of any other forms necessary for internship, etc.; and
- c) you being legally able to work with the Company. You undertake to disclose any internship or contractual post-internship restraints to which you are subject and which may, and will continue to, affect your internship with us and represent and warrant that:
 - ix. by entering into internship with the Company and performing the duties set out in this letter, you will not be in breach of any express or implied term of any internship or other agreement or arrangement to which you are party;
 - i. you have not taken or otherwise misappropriated and you do not have in your possession or control any confidential and proprietary information belonging to any of your prior employers, or any third party providing services to your prior employer, or connected with or derived from your services to prior employers and you have returned to all prior employers any and all such confidential or proprietary information; and
 - ii. you are not subject to any other internship, including being subject to garden leave or any contractual post-internship restraints.

You shall indemnify and hold harmless the Company from any and all claims arising from any breach of the warranties in this paragraph B1.

- B1.2 Whilst you and/or the Company may have agreed a tentative date of commencement of internship with the Company, you will not, unless the Company decides otherwise, be able to commence internship with the Company without our receipt of completed and satisfactory results from our pre-employment screening process.
- B1.3 You may be required to provide services for other members of the Group throughout your internship. When providing these services, you may from time to time be required to travel and work in different locations within and outside your hiring location.

M

B1.4 You will not undertake outside employment or activities with or without remuneration, unless you have the prior written approval of senior management of the Company or its delegate. Outside activities may include (but are not limited to) activities as a director, officer, partner, sole proprietor, consultant or controlling stockholder of any business. If your request to undertake outside activity is not approved by management and you decide to engage in the activity, your internship may be terminated without any notice or compensation.

B2. Remuneration

B2.1 We will deposit your stipend (paragraph 4 of Appendix A) on or around the 30th of each month.

B2.2 You will be responsible for all tax liabilities world-wide arising out of payments pursuant to your internship with the Company.

B2.3 Any payment of salary or bonus by, or other sum due to you from the Company shall be subject to any and all withholding or deduction (for, including but not limited to, any taxes, contributions, repayments or other sums which you have agreed that the Company may withhold/deduct or which the Company is obliged or entitled to withhold/deduct from time to time under any applicable law), and the Company shall in such case be entitled to withhold, deduct or retain the amount of such tax, withholding or deduction from any sum payable to you.

B3. Incentive Compensation

For this position, you won't be eligible for incentive awards under the JPMorgan Chase Performance-Based Incentive Compensation Plan or any other non-annual incentive compensation plan.

B4. Termination

B4.1 Your internship may be terminated as follows:

a) By either party giving to the other prior written notice of at least the period specified, as applicable, in paragraph 9 in Appendix A (the "Notice Period"), or by the Company making a payment in lieu of notice for all or part of such Notice Period of an amount equal to basic salary you would have been entitled to receive during the Notice period or part of the Notice Period.

b) By the Company at any time without notice or compensation if you:

i) are guilty of fraud, dishonesty or misconduct which is inconsistent with the due and faithful discharge of your duties;

Uma

- ii) seriously breach the Code of Conduct and any other Company policies;
 - iii) disobey the Company's lawful and reasonable instructions/requirements;
 - iv) habitually neglect your duties; or
 - v) otherwise commit a material or repeated breach of your internship terms or any of the Company's or Group's policies.
- B4.2 During any Notice Period, the Company may put you on "garden leave" and may, amongst other things, do any or a combination of the following:
- (a) suspend you from the performance of any duties or assign you alternative duties;
 - (b) exclude you from any premises of the Company or any of the Group companies and/or require you to work from another location;
 - (c) require that you have no or limited contact or communication, other than purely social contact, with any employees, officers, directors, agents or consultants of the Company or any other member of the Group;
 - (d) require that you have no or limited contact or communication with any customer or client of the Company or any other member of the Group;
 - (e) remove your access to the Company premises and computer systems;
 - (f) require that you return any property belonging to the Company under paragraph 7 in this Appendix
 - (g) require you not to do any act or thing, or make or cause to be made, any statement reasonably likely to damage the business or reputation of the Company or the Group.
- B4.3 If paragraph 5 of Appendix A states that your employment is subject to probation, your probation period will be the first 3 months of employment, which you agree is reasonable, and fair, in light of the responsibilities of the role.
- B4.4 At its sole discretion, the Company may notify you of an extension to your probationary period.
- B4.5 All your duties (whether express or implied) under your internship and this letter, including without limitation your duty of fidelity, good faith, exclusive service and duties in relation to the Group's confidential information shall continue throughout the Notice Period including any period that you are on garden leave.

B4.6 During any Notice Period:

- (a) you will provide such assistance as the Company may require to effect an orderly handover of your duties and responsibilities to any individual appointed by the Company or any of the Group Companies to take over your role or responsibilities; and
- (b) you shall make yourself available to deal with requests for information, provide assistance, be available for meetings and to advise on matters relating to work.

B5. Leave

B5.1 Annual Leave

- (a) You will be entitled to annual leave with full pay in every calendar year – please see paragraph 6 of Appendix A, pro-rated according to the duration of your employment. The Company will be entitled to determine when annual leave is taken, although as far as possible, arrangements will be made to suit your convenience. Annual leave entitlement for each calendar year must be taken in that calendar year and only in exceptional circumstances can annual leave (other than unused statutory entitlement, if any) be carried forward into the following calendar year. All annual leave days taken will be deducted first from the statutory entitlement accumulation.
- (b) After a notice of termination has been given pursuant to paragraph B4.1 of this Appendix, you will not be entitled to take any annual leave without the express consent of the Company provided after notice of termination has been given.
- (c) You must comply with the Company's 'consecutive days leave' policies.

B5.2 Sick Leave

Any sick leave entitlement will be subject to relevant legislation and J.P. Morgan internal policies that are in force and amended from time to time. More details are set out in the me@jpmc website, which will be accessible to you upon commencement of your employment.

B5.3 Suspension Leave

The Company has the right to suspend you from your work duties with full pay when it considers it necessary to investigate any allegation of misconduct or impropriety on your part. The Company can exercise this right at its sole discretion, acting in good faith.

B6. Confidentiality

You acknowledge that a vast amount of privileged and confidential information will be disclosed to you in course of your internship with the Company and during your internship with the Company and thereafter, you shall keep secret and shall not at any time (whether during or after the period of your internship) use for your own or another's advantage, or reveal to any person, firm or company, any of the trade secrets, business methods and plans, financial matters, client lists, investments, marketing plans, personnel matters or other information which you knew or reasonably ought to have known to be confidential concerning the business or affairs of the Company or any other member of the Group or any of their related companies, clients or suppliers.

You agree to abide by the specific provisions on the use of confidential information in the Company's policies and Group code of conduct.

The restriction contained in this paragraph shall not apply to any disclosure or use authorised by the Company or required by law.

B7. Return of Company Property.

You acknowledge that any privileged or confidential information disclosed to you in the course of your internship with the Company remains the exclusive property of the Company and whenever requested by the Company and/or Group and in any event upon the termination of your internship, you will promptly deliver to the Company and/or Group all documents and other materials (whether originals or copies or in hard copy or electronic form) concerning the Company and/or Group or their respective clients and suppliers, which may have been prepared by you or have come into your possession, custody or control in the course of your internship with the Company. This includes, without limitation, any confidential information, lists of clients or suppliers, correspondence, electronic equipment, computer software or hardware, staff identity cards card and other property used in connection with the operations of the Company and/or Group. You will not be entitled to, and will not retain, any copies, title and copyright in such correspondence and other documents, papers, records and property are vested in the Company and/or Group.

B8. Post internship Restrictions

- B8.1 For a period of three months commencing on the Relevant Date, you shall not directly or indirectly (whether on your own account, for or with any other person, firm or company) solicit or endeavor to entice away from the Company or any other Group Company any Critical Person.
- B8.2 For a period of three months commencing on the Relevant Date, you shall not directly or indirectly (whether on your own account, for or with any other person, firm or company) solicit or endeavor to entice away from the Company or any other Group Company the business or custom of any Restricted Client.
- B8.3 The duration of the restrictions will be reduced by any period of notice that you work out or any period of garden leave as provided in this offer letter.

B8.4 In this paragraph B8:

- a) "Critical Person" means any person who was an employee or director of the Company or any other Group Company at any time within one year prior to the Relevant Date who had access to trade secrets or confidential information of the Company or any other Group Company. This includes knowledge of, involvement with or influence over suppliers or clients of the Company or any other Group Company with whom you worked at any time during that period.
- b) "Group Company" means the Company, its ultimate holding company, any subsidiary of the Company and any holding company from time to time. "Subsidiary" and "holding company" shall have the same meaning as in the relevant companies' legislation.
- c) "Restricted Client" means any person:
 - i. who in the one year before the Relevant Date was a client of, or has dealt with, the Company or any other Group Company; and
 - ii. with whose custom or business you, or persons reporting to you, were personally involved with during the period of one year prior to the Relevant Date
 - iii. but does not include publicly known institutional clients which you serve subsequent to your internship with the Company without the use of confidential or proprietary information of the Company and the Group.
- d) "Relevant Date" means the date your internship with the Company or the Group terminates for whatever reason.

B8.5 You acknowledge and agree:

- a) that each of the foregoing paragraphs constitutes an entirely separate and independent restriction on you;
- b) that the duration, extent and application of each restrictions, obligations and undertakings are reasonable and necessary to protect legitimate interests of the Company and the Group, considering, among other things, that the Company has commercial dealings with business partners throughout the world and that you will regularly be dealing with such partners as part of your duties and you understand that it does not by any means prevent you from earning a living in a satisfactory way;
- c) that, if any such restriction (or parts of a restriction) shall be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be void or unenforceable, the validity or enforceability of the remaining restrictions (or parts of a restriction) shall remain in full force and effect as if the unenforceable parts had been deleted. Damages may be an inadequate compensation for breach of any of the restrictions in this paragraph and, subject to a court's discretion, in the event of any actual or threatened breach of any provision of this paragraph, you agree that the Company shall be entitled to (on behalf of itself and on behalf of any other Group Company) restrain, by injunction, equitable relief or similar remedy, any conduct or threatened conduct by you. You expressly submit to the jurisdiction of any court of competent jurisdiction for this purpose, and in the event you receive from any person an offer of employment (whether oral or in writing and whether accepted or not), either during your internship or the continuation in force of all or any of the restrictions applicable to you, whether pursuant to this letter or the Code of Conduct, you shall provide to the person making such an offer of employment a full and accurate copy of the then current restrictions applicable to you.

- d) that any benefit given or deemed to be given by you to the Group under the terms of this paragraph is received and held on trust by the Company for the relevant Group Company. You will enter into appropriate restrictive covenants directly with other Group Companies if asked to do so by the Company.
- e) that your internship with the Company and the compensation paid and/or payable to you by the Company shall be sufficient consideration for the purposes of this clause. You further agree and acknowledge that the limitations as to time and the character or nature placed in this clause are reasonable and fair and will not preclude you from earning a livelihood, nor will they unreasonably impose limitations on your ability to earn a living.
- f) that this offer letter constitutes a valid, legally binding and enforceable obligation on you and this document is not in violation of any applicable law.
- g) that any breach or threat of breach on your part of any one of such obligations and/or undertakings would cause serious harm to the Company or the Group which may then institute any legal recourse against you that is deemed appropriate and/or recourse in damages, without further notice or delay,
- i) in addition, you agree and acknowledge that the potential harm to the Company of the non-enforcement of this clause outweighs any potential harm to you and that you have given careful consideration to the restraints imposed upon you by this clause and that you are in full agreement as to their necessity for the reasonable and proper protection of the Company's interests. You expressly acknowledge and agree that each and every restraint imposed by this clause is reasonable with respect to subject matter, time period and geographical area.

- B9. Code of Conduct and Staff Regulations and Affirmation
- B9.1 It is a condition of your continuing internship and it is your obligation that you comply with:
- (a) the Code of Conduct (as amended from time to time or superseded). At the time of acceptance of the offer of internship and on a periodic basis, you will be required to sign an affirmation (or reaffirmation) confirming your understanding and compliance with the provisions of the Code of Conduct; and
 - (b) the Company's other internal policies and procedures and all relevant policies and procedures for the line of business in which you are to undertake work.
- B9.2 The Company shall be entitled at any time to amend the Company's internal policies and procedures (including but not limited to the Code of Conduct), the benefits set out in the Appendices and other staff regulations, as well as to put in place new policies as the Company sees fit. Any such amendments shall be notified in writing to each employee and shall on provision of such notice, become legally binding.
- B9.3 The Company's Human Resources work policies are set out in the me@jpmc website, as amended from time to time. Please take time to familiarise yourself with these policies when you begin your internship.
- B9.4 To the extent that the contents of policies or procedures refer to obligations on the Company, you agree that they are guides only and are not contractual terms, conditions or representations on which you rely.
- B10. Working Hours
- B10.1 Your total working hours (including break(s)) is 40 hours per working week during the tenure of your internship and you should attend office 5 days every working week. Your working hours may be revised at the discretion of the Company.
- B11. Retirement Benefits
- You are not eligible for retirement benefits.
- B12. Contract Execution
- B12.1 You acknowledge and agree that:
- (a) This letter may be delivered in a digital or physical format. Subject to any applicable law, where the letter is provided in a digital format, you acknowledge and agree that it is being executed electronically and that it is enforceable.

- (b) You have read and understood the terms of this letter and have been provided with an opportunity to review and discuss the terms of it with advisors, if you so desire.
- (c) Should any further assurances be required or sought by the Company, you shall in good faith perform such further actions (including executing a physical copy of this letter)

B13. Governing Law and Jurisdiction:

This letter and any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with it or its subject matter or formation (including non-contractual disputes or claims) shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of India. You and the Company submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the Mumbai, Maharashtra courts in relation to any dispute arising in connection with your internship and this letter.

APPENDIX C - SYSTEMS MONITORING ACTIVITIES AND CROSS-BORDER TRANSFERS,
PERSONAL ACCOUNT DEALING POLICY, AND CODE OF CONDUCT

Appendix: Systems Monitoring Activities and Cross-Border Transfers:

The following provides a summary of how JPMorgan Chase & Co., its affiliates and its subsidiaries, and the entity that employs you, or for which you provide services (collectively, "JPMC"), conducts Systems monitoring. JPMC may conduct monitoring to the extent permitted by applicable law.

JPMC conducts monitoring of JPMC's physical facilities and its equipment and systems (collectively, the "Systems"). System monitoring applies to your JPMC equipment, your personal equipment when accessing the Systems, and the communications, information, and materials conveyed or accessed using the Systems. Monitoring activities may include the monitoring and logging of traffic and usage data of all electronic communications; monitoring of telephone calls to or from JPMC work telephones as permitted by applicable laws and subject to any required notices; monitoring of the contents of electronic communications, files, databases, applications, and internet usage; and logging hours worked and physical presence at JPMC's facilities if applicable. JPMC may at all times monitor, access, retrieve, record and review information obtained from the monitoring activities for various purposes, such as preventing and investigating activities that may violate JPMC's policies and ensuring compliance with legal or regulatory obligations. While conducting monitoring activities, JPMC may obtain and process personal information about you and others that may reside on the Systems.

The monitoring activities (including JPMC's collection and processing of personal or other information) are required for purposes of your employment or work assignment to promote adherence to applicable policies and regulations. Subject to applicable laws and regulations, if you object to this processing, JPMC may prohibit you from using the Systems; terminate offers of employment or work assignment; and, for employees, take disciplinary action against you, up to and including termination of your employment with JPMC.

JPMC may disclose the information it obtains in connection with monitoring activities to JPMC affiliates and to third parties, service providers, regulators, supervisory bodies, law enforcement and other government agencies. Information obtained from the monitoring activities may be used as the basis to take disciplinary actions, up to and including termination or other legal action, for violations of JPMC's policies or applicable laws.

In addition to the monitoring activities discussed above, JPMC may obtain and store other information related to your employment or other working relationship, such as your compensation information, performance information, benefits information and other workplace-related data. JPMC may transfer such information, and the information it obtains in connection with monitoring activities, to countries other than the country in which the information originally was collected, including to the United States.

Understanding Obligations under the Firm's Personal Account Dealing Policy (PAD):

The Personal Account Dealing Policy (Policy) of JPMorgan Chase & Co. (firm or JPMC) is designed to help prevent and detect violations of securities laws and industry conduct standards and to minimize actual or perceived conflicts of interest that could arise due to personal investing activities.

PAD Compliance will notify you if the position you are being offered is considered to be subject to the Policy. You will remain subject for the duration of your time working in a subject group, unless notified otherwise of a change in subject status. Unless otherwise notified, you will continue to be subject to the provisions of the Policy even during leaves of absence from the firm, including, but not limited to, garden leave or medical leave.

You as well as your Connected Persons are subject to the provisions of this Policy and will need to be familiar with the obligations set forth in this policy. Connected Persons includes your spouse, domestic partner or minor children (even if financially independent) as well as anyone to whom you provide significant financial support or for which you, or anyone listed above, has or shares the power, directly or indirectly, to make investment decisions.

Once subject to the Policy, you must disclose and certify your Covered Accounts (which include accounts of your Connected Persons). You will be required to maintain your self-directed Covered Accounts with one of the firm's Approved Brokers and pre-clear all purchases, sales, pledges and gifts (received and given) of publicly traded and privately held financial instruments, unless listed as specifically exempt. Pre-approval confirmations must be received prior to executing the trade or investment. The firm may impose periodic restrictions on personal trading in certain financial securities. These restrictions can apply to all firm subject Workforce Members and their Connected Persons or may be limited to certain groups. Subject Workforce Members and their Connected Persons are not permitted to recommend or transact in the financial instruments of an issuer while in the possession of material non-public information (MNPI) regarding that issuer.

If you are a seasonal or short term employee the following requirements will apply:

JPMorgan Chase requires that seasonal workers refrain from trading in Covered Accounts for the time period that you are employed in a short term training program. Please verify that you will

comply with the following personal trading requirements:

1. For the duration of the short term program I am joining I will not trade in any of my Covered Accounts
2. I understand that the Firm has the right to request account information for any of my Covered Accounts
3. If there is an extenuating circumstance that would compel me to place a trade in my Covered Accounts, I will obtain pre-approval of the trade by the Personal Account Dealing Group and I would be responsible for supplying all confirmations and statements to the Personal Account Dealing Group for that trade

*The term Covered Accounts refers to any securities accounts no matter where they are located and includes, but is not limited to, those accounts that are established, maintained or controlled (either directly or indirectly) by you, your spouse, domestic partner or minor children (even if financially independent), anyone to whom you provide significant financial support, and in which the employee has a direct or indirect financial interest.

Global Personal Trading Policy:

The Personal Account Dealing of JPMorgan Chase & Co. is designed to help prevent and detect violations of securities laws and industry conduct standards and to minimize actual or perceived conflicts of interest that could arise due to personal investing activities. This Policy includes requirements for disclosing Covered Accounts, maintaining certain accounts at one of the firm's Approved Brokers, preclearing trades, and restrictions and prohibitions on certain types of trading activity. This Policy is subject to any applicable local laws and rules and should be read in conjunction with Supplements (regional/LOB) as well as the firm's Code of Conduct.

Conflict of Interests and Outside Interests:

Under JPMorgan Chase & Co.'s (JPMC) Code of Conduct, employees are responsible for avoiding activities or relationships that might affect their objectivity in making decisions as an employee. Employees are not permitted to allow their personal interest to conflict, or appear to conflict, with their JPMC role and responsibilities.

Outside Interests include second jobs, not for profit activities, government positions, and positions with external companies and organizations as a director, officer, adviser, sole proprietor, consultant or owner of any business. Outside Interests may result in an actual or perceived conflict of interest. Where actual or potential conflicts of interest cannot be mitigated, you may be required to discontinue the activity or dissolve your investment.

Employees are required to seek preclearance prior to engaging in Outside Interests or immediately upon joining JPMC. Where preclearance is not required, employee must adhere to all restrictions and conditions outlined in Section 5 and 6 of the Outside Interest Policy.

Conflicts of interests may also arise from: (1) personal and business relationships; (2) the exchange of gifts and business hospitality; (3) political engagement; and (4) personal finances. Employees should avoid activities or relationships that might affect their objectivity in making decisions on behalf of JPMC or undermine their credibility. Employees may never place personal interests ahead of our clients' interests. All potential and actual conflicts must be escalated to your manager for review and mitigation.

Acceptance and Code Affirmation:

Upon signing this letter I accept the terms and conditions described above:

I hereby affirm that I have read, understand, and am in compliance with the JPMorgan Chase ("JPMC") Code of Conduct and all internal JPMC policies that apply to me. I agree, as a condition of my employment, to remain in compliance with the Code of Conduct and all applicable JPMC policies.

I understand that I must conduct myself in a way that is consistent with the Code of Conduct, demonstrating compliance with the principles and intent of the Code of Conduct, and applicable laws and regulations.

I also affirm that I have reported any potential or actual violations of the Code of Conduct, JPMC policies, or laws or regulations applicable to JPMC's business, as required by the Code of Conduct. I understand that failure to do so can result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

I understand that the Code of Conduct may be updated periodically, as necessary, and that the current version is posted on the JPMorgan Chase intranet as well as on its public website.

Independent Auditor Tax Services to Employees of JPMorgan Chase and its Affiliates:

To be in compliance with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (PCAOB) Rule 3523, it is JPMorgan Chase's (JPMC) policy that PricewaterhouseCoopers (PwC) cannot provide any tax services to employees of JPMC or any of its controlled entities (hereafter referred to as JPMC employee). This restriction is regardless of whether the individual is in a financial reporting oversight role or not, and whether PwC is engaged by the individual or by JPMC. PwC is also prohibited from providing any tax services to a spouse of a JPMC employee if the work is related to a joint tax return. Exceptions to this policy will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis and will require the approval of the JPMC Controller.

Dear Aditi,

Your Internship by J.P. Morgan

Congratulations on joining the J.P. Morgan family. We are pleased to confirm your internship with J.P. Morgan Services India Private Limited (the "Company").

You will find your personal internship terms outlined in Appendix A with general internship terms and conditions in Appendix B. Please note these terms and conditions supersede any verbal discussions you may have previously had with any JPMorgan Chase employee with regards to your internship arrangements.

A number of important policies will apply to your internship with the Company, including the Personal Account Dealing Policy and the Code of Conduct. We provide more information about these policies in Appendix C and it is essential that you carefully read and understand their requirements. By signing this letter, you confirm that you have read, understood and agree to be bound by these policies. In addition, you will be required to abide by all other Company policies and regulations (including JPMorgan Chase group of companies (the "Group") policies) and with applicable law.

Should you have queries in relation to your employment terms, your benefits or Company policies, please contact our HR Answers hotline at 000 800 440 5210 (local toll free) or +1 212-552-5100 (international).

Please be reminded your internship terms should be treated with the strictest confidence. To accept this offer of internship, please click on the 'Accept' button at the bottom of this page on or before 26-Nov-2022.

We are excited to welcome you to our Company and take this opportunity to wish you every success in taking this next step of your career with us.

Appendix A – PERSONAL INTERNSHIP TERMS AND CONDITIONS

A1. Title/Category

You will join us as an intern in the Global Risk & Compliance Program at JPMorgan Chase & Co., and will carry out your role while physically present in the J.P. Morgan offices in Mumbai, India.

A2. Internship Commencement Date

Your internship shall begin on 16-Jan-2023 ("Start Date") and shall continue, subject to the remaining terms of this agreement, until it terminates on 30-Jun-2023 ("End Date") without the need for notice, unless previously terminated by either party pursuant to paragraph 4 of Appendix B.

In addition to the conditions set out in paragraph 1 of Appendix B, your offer is subject to you successfully meeting the educational criteria that has already been communicated to you in writing.

A3. Working Hours

Your manager will assign you specific working hours, often during the Company's normal office hours. Depending on the needs of your department, however, you may be required to work outside the official hours to fulfill your duties.

A4. Stipend

Your stipend will be INR60,000/- per month.

Relocation Lump Sum

You will receive an additional, one-time lump sum of INR85000("the Additional Sum") gross with your first stipend. This payment will be made to you in the first available payroll after you join the Company. You should be aware that this might be in the month of joining or the following month depending on your commencement date and when all necessary data is received. This is to assist with any relocation expenses you may incur prior to joining.

If you leave the internship or your internship is terminated for any reason, you must repay to the Company the Additional Sum on a pro-rated basis as set out below:

If your internship period is longer than 3 months and you leave the internship or your internship is terminated for any reason within three months of your date of commencement you must repay to the Company 100% of the gross amount of the Additional Sum
If your internship period is longer than 3 months and you leave the internship or your internship is terminated for any reason more than three months but within twelve months of your date of commencement you must repay to the Company 50% of the gross amount of

If your internship period is less than 3 months and you leave the internship or your internship is terminated for any reason before completion of your internship period you must repay the Company 100% of the gross amount of the Additional Sum

A5. Probationary Period

Your internship will be subject to a probation period as outlined in paragraph 4.3 of Appendix B.

A6. Leave Entitlement

A6.1 Annual Leave

You are entitled to 20 working days of annual leave with full pay in every calendar year, pro-rated according to the duration of your employment in accordance with the Company's Human Resources Policies and applicable law. If you work part-time hours, your annual leave entitlement will be pro-rated to reflect your part-time hours worked.

A6.2 Other Leave

You can find further details of other leave entitlements in paragraph 5 of Appendix B.

A7. Benefits

You will not be entitled to join the Company's benefits programs, given the short length of your fixed-term contract.

A8. Retirement Scheme

You are not eligible for retirement benefits.

A9. Notice Period

During your probationary period, starting the day you join the Company, either you or the Company may terminate your employment with at least 14 days' written notice or payment of wages in lieu of such notice period.

After the probationary period, either party can terminate the employment by giving the other party 30 Days written notice ("Notice Period") or by the Company making a payment in lieu of Notice Period.

APPENDIX B – GENERAL INTERNSHIP TERMS AND CONDITIONS

B1. Internship

B1.1 Your internship is subject to:

- a) you being able to carry out your role in India while being able to be physically present in an JPMC office in Mumbai, India and obtaining and maintaining throughout your entire period of internship a valid work permit and such other permission, license or registration as may from time to time be necessary to enable you to carry out your duties and continue your internship.
- b) the completion of all pre-employment screening processes to the satisfaction of the Company, including obtaining education verification, background references and checks as sought and the execution of any other forms necessary for internship, etc.; and
- c) you being legally able to work with the Company. You undertake to disclose any internship or contractual post-internship restraints to which you are subject and which may, and will continue to, affect your internship with us and represent and warrant that:
 - ix. by entering into internship with the Company and performing the duties set out in this letter, you will not be in breach of any express or implied term of any internship or other agreement or arrangement to which you are party;
 - i. you have not taken or otherwise misappropriated and you do not have in your possession or control any confidential and proprietary information belonging to any of your prior employers, or any third party providing services to your prior employer, or connected with or derived from your services to prior employers and you have returned to all prior employers any and all such confidential or proprietary information; and
 - ii. you are not subject to any other internship, including being subject to garden leave or any contractual post-internship restraints.

You shall indemnify and hold harmless the Company from any and all claims arising from any breach of the warranties in this paragraph B1.

- B1.2 Whilst you and/or the Company may have agreed a tentative date of commencement of internship with the Company, you will not, unless the Company decides otherwise, be able to commence internship with the Company without our receipt of completed and satisfactory results from our pre-employment screening process.
- B1.3 You may be required to provide services for other members of the Group throughout your internship. When providing these services, you may from time to time be required to travel and work in different locations within and outside your hiring location.

B2. Remuneration

B2.1 We will deposit your stipend (paragraph 4 of Appendix A) on or around the 30th of each month.

B2.2 You will be responsible for all tax liabilities world-wide arising out of payments pursuant to your internship with the Company.

B2.3 Any payment of salary or bonus by, or other sum due to you from the Company shall be subject to any and all withholding or deduction (for, including but not limited to, any taxes, contributions, repayments or other sums which you have agreed that the Company may withhold/deduct or which the Company is obliged or entitled to withhold/deduct from time to time under any applicable law), and the Company shall in such case be entitled to withhold, deduct or retain the amount of such tax, withholding or deduction from any sum payable to you.

B3. Incentive Compensation

For this position, you won't be eligible for incentive awards under the JPMorgan Chase Performance-Based Incentive Compensation Plan or any other non-annual incentive compensation plan.

B4. Termination

B4.1 Your internship may be terminated as follows:

- a) By either party giving to the other prior written notice of at least the period specified, as applicable, in paragraph 9 in Appendix A (the "Notice Period"), or by the Company making a payment in lieu of notice for all or part of such Notice Period of an amount equal to basic salary you would have been entitled to receive during the Notice period or part of the Notice Period.
- b) By the Company at any time without notice or compensation if you:
 - i) are guilty of fraud, dishonesty or misconduct which is inconsistent with the due and faithful discharge of your duties;

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read 'Uma' or similar, is written over a solid blue horizontal line.

- ii) seriously breach the Code of Conduct and any other Company policies;
 - iii) disobey the Company's lawful and reasonable instructions/requirements;
 - iv) habitually neglect your duties; or
 - v) otherwise commit a material or repeated breach of your internship terms or any of the Company's or Group's policies.
- B4.2 During any Notice Period, the Company may put you on "garden leave" and may, amongst other things, do any or a combination of the following:
- (a) suspend you from the performance of any duties or assign you alternative duties;
 - (b) exclude you from any premises of the Company or any of the Group companies and/or require you to work from another location;
 - (c) require that you have no or limited contact or communication, other than purely social contact, with any employees, officers, directors, agents or consultants of the Company or any other member of the Group;
 - (d) require that you have no or limited contact or communication with any customer or client of the Company or any other member of the Group;
 - (e) remove your access to the Company premises and computer systems;
 - (f) require that you return any property belonging to the Company under paragraph 7 in this Appendix;
 - (g) require you not to do any act or thing, or make or cause to be made, any statement reasonably likely to damage the business or reputation of the Company or the Group.
- B4.3 If paragraph 5 of Appendix A states that your employment is subject to probation, your probation period will be the first 3 months of employment, which you agree is reasonable, and fair, in light of the responsibilities of the role.
- B4.4 At its sole discretion, the Company may notify you of an extension to your probationary period.
- B4.5 All your duties (whether express or implied) under your internship and this letter, including without limitation your duty of fidelity, good faith, exclusive service and duties in relation to the Group's confidential information shall continue throughout the Notice Period including any period that you are on garden leave.

Q30

Uma

B4.6 During any Notice Period:

- (a) you will provide such assistance as the Company may require to effect an orderly handover of your duties and responsibilities to any individual appointed by the Company or any of the Group Companies to take over your role or responsibilities; and
- (b) you shall make yourself available to deal with requests for information, provide assistance, be available for meetings and to advise on matters relating to work.

B5. Leave

B5.1 Annual Leave:

- (a) You will be entitled to annual leave with full pay in every calendar year – please see paragraph 6 of Appendix A, pro-rated according to the duration of your employment. The Company will be entitled to determine when annual leave is taken, although as far as possible, arrangements will be made to suit your convenience. Annual leave entitlement for each calendar year must be taken in that calendar year and only in exceptional circumstances can annual leave (other than unused statutory entitlement, if any) be carried forward into the following calendar year. All annual leave days taken will be deducted first from the statutory entitlement accumulation.
- (b) After a notice of termination has been given pursuant to paragraph B4.1 of this Appendix, you will not be entitled to take any annual leave without the express consent of the Company provided after notice of termination has been given.
- (c) You must comply with the Company's 'consecutive days leave' policies.

B5.2 Sick Leave

Any sick leave entitlement will be subject to relevant legislation and J.P. Morgan internal policies that are in force and amended from time to time. More details are set out in the me@jpmc website, which will be accessible to you upon commencement of your employment.

B5.3 Suspension Leave

The Company has the right to suspend you from your work duties with full pay when it considers it necessary to investigate any allegation of misconduct or impropriety on your part. The Company can exercise this right at its sole discretion, acting in good faith.

B6. Confidentiality

Udo

You acknowledge that a vast amount of privileged and confidential information will be disclosed to you in course of your internship with the Company and during your internship with the Company and thereafter, you shall keep secret and shall not at any time (whether during or after the period of your internship) use for your own or another's advantage, or reveal to any person, firm or company, any of the trade secrets, business methods and plans, financial matters, client lists, investments, marketing plans, personnel matters or other information which you knew or reasonably ought to have known to be confidential concerning the business or affairs of the Company or any other member of the Group or any of their related companies, clients or suppliers.

You agree to abide by the specific provisions on the use of confidential information in the Company's policies and Group code of conduct.

The restriction contained in this paragraph shall not apply to any disclosure or use authorised by the Company or required by law.

B7. Return of Company Property

You acknowledge that any privileged or confidential information disclosed to you in the course of your internship with the Company remains the exclusive property of the Company and whenever requested by the Company and/or Group and in any event upon the termination of your internship, you will promptly deliver to the Company and/or Group all documents and other materials (whether originals or copies or in hard copy or electronic form) concerning the Company and/or Group or their respective clients and suppliers, which may have been prepared by you or have come into your possession, custody or control in the course of your internship with the Company. This includes, without limitation, any confidential information, lists of clients or suppliers, correspondence, electronic equipment, computer software or hardware, staff identity cards card and other property used in connection with the operations of the Company and/or Group. You will not be entitled to, and will not retain, any copies, title and copyright in such correspondence and other documents, papers, records and property are vested in the Company and/or Group.

B8. Post internship Restrictions.

- B8.1 For a period of three months commencing on the Relevant Date, you shall not directly or indirectly (whether on your own account, for or with any other person, firm or company) solicit or endeavor to entice away from the Company or any other Group Company any Critical Person.
- B8.2 For a period of three months commencing on the Relevant Date, you shall not directly or indirectly (whether on your own account, for or with any other person, firm or company) solicit or endeavor to entice away from the Company or any other Group Company the business or custom of any Restricted Client.
- B8.3 The duration of the restrictions will be reduced by any period of notice that you work out or any period of garden leave as provided in this offer letter.

B8.4 In this paragraph B8:

- a) "Critical Person" means any person who was an employee or director of the Company or any other Group Company at any time within one year prior to the Relevant Date who had access to trade secrets or confidential information of the Company or any other Group Company. This includes knowledge of, involvement with or influence over suppliers or clients of the Company or any other Group Company with whom you worked at any time during that period.
- b) "Group Company" means the Company, its ultimate holding company, any subsidiary of the Company and any holding company from time to time. "Subsidiary" and "holding company" shall have the same meaning as in the relevant companies' legislation.
- c) "Restricted Client" means any person:
 - i. who in the one year before the Relevant Date was a client of, or has dealt with, the Company or any other Group Company; and
 - ii. with whose custom or business you, or persons reporting to you, were personally involved with during the period of one year prior to the Relevant Date
 - iii. but does not include publicly known institutional clients which you serve subsequent to your internship with the Company without the use of confidential or proprietary information of the Company and the Group.
- d) "Relevant Date" means the date your internship with the Company or the Group terminates for whatever reason.

B8.5 You acknowledge and agree:

- a) that each of the foregoing paragraphs constitutes an entirely separate and independent restriction on you;
- b) that the duration, extent and application of each restrictions, obligations and undertakings are reasonable and necessary to protect legitimate interests of the Company and the Group, considering, among other things, that the Company has commercial dealings with business partners throughout the world and that you will regularly be dealing with such partners as part of your duties and you understand that it does not by any means prevent you from earning a living in a satisfactory way;
- c) that, if any such restriction (or parts of a restriction) shall be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be void or unenforceable, the validity or enforceability of the remaining restrictions (or parts of a restriction) shall remain in full force and effect as if the unenforceable parts had been deleted. Damages may be an inadequate compensation for breach of any of the restrictions in this paragraph and, subject to a court's discretion, in the event of any actual or threatened breach of any provision of this paragraph, you agree that the Company shall be entitled to (on behalf of itself and on behalf of any other Group Company) restrain, by injunction, equitable relief or similar remedy, any conduct or threatened conduct by you. You expressly submit to the jurisdiction of any court of competent jurisdiction for this purpose, and in the event you receive from any person an offer of employment (whether oral or in writing and whether accepted or not), either during your internship or the continuation in force of all or any of the restrictions applicable to you, whether pursuant to this letter or the Code of Conduct, you shall provide to the person making such an offer of employment a full and accurate copy of the then current restrictions applicable to you.

- d) that any benefit given or deemed to be given by you to the Group under the terms of this paragraph is received and held on trust by the Company for the relevant Group Company. You will enter into appropriate restrictive covenants directly with other Group Companies if asked to do so by the Company.
- e) that your internship with the Company and the compensation paid and/or payable to you by the Company shall be sufficient consideration for the purposes of this clause. You further agree and acknowledge that the limitations as to time and the character or nature placed in this clause are reasonable and fair and will not preclude you from earning a livelihood, nor will they unreasonably impose limitations on your ability to earn a living.
- f) that this offer letter constitutes a valid, legally binding and enforceable obligation on you and this document is not in violation of any applicable law.
- g) that any breach or threat of breach on your part of any one of such obligations and/or undertakings would cause serious harm to the Company or the Group which may then institute any legal recourse against you that is deemed appropriate and/or recourse in damages, without further notice or delay.
- h) that you shall not assign this offer letter or the rights and/or obligations hereunder. The Company may assign its rights and obligations herein in all circumstances without your consent, including in connection with any sale, transfer or disposition of all or substantially all of its business and operations and its assets, in which case the Company's rights and obligations shall vest to the successor.
- i) in addition, you agree and acknowledge that the potential harm to the Company of the non-enforcement of this clause outweighs any potential harm to you and that you have given careful consideration to the restraints imposed upon you by this clause and that you are in full agreement as to their necessity for the reasonable and proper protection of the Company's interests. You expressly acknowledge and agree that each and every restraint imposed by this clause is reasonable with respect to subject matter, time period and geographical area.

B9. Code of Conduct and Staff Regulations and Affirmation

B9.1 It is a condition of your continuing internship and it is your obligation that you comply with:

- (a) the Code of Conduct (as amended from time to time or superseded). At the time of acceptance of the offer of internship and on a periodic basis, you will be required to sign an affirmation (or reaffirmation) confirming your understanding and compliance with the provisions of the Code of Conduct; and
 - (b) the Company's other internal policies and procedures and all relevant policies and procedures for the line of business in which you are to undertake work.
- B9.2 The Company shall be entitled at any time to amend the Company's internal policies and procedures (including but not limited to the Code of Conduct), the benefits set out in the Appendices and other staff regulations, as well as to put in place new policies as the Company sees fit. Any such amendments shall be notified in writing to each employee and shall on provision of such notice, become legally binding.
- B9.3 The Company's Human Resources work policies are set out in the me@jpmc website, as amended from time to time. Please take time to familiarise yourself with these policies when you begin your internship.
- B9.4 To the extent that the contents of policies or procedures refer to obligations on the Company, you agree that they are guides only and are not contractual terms, conditions or representations on which you rely.

B10. Working Hours

B10.1 Your total working hours (including break(s)) is 40 hours per working week during the tenure of your internship and you should attend office 5 days every working week. Your working hours may be revised at the discretion of the Company.

B11. Retirement Benefits

You are not eligible for retirement benefits.

B12. Contract Execution

B12.1 You acknowledge and agree that:

- (a) This letter may be delivered in a digital or physical format. Subject to any applicable law, where the letter is provided in a digital format, you acknowledge and agree that it is being executed electronically and that it is enforceable.

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "M. S. R.", is placed over a blue arrow pointing towards the stamp.

- (b) You have read and understood the terms of this letter and have been provided with an opportunity to review and discuss the terms of it with advisors, if you so desire.
- (c) Should any further assurances be required or sought by the Company, you shall in good faith perform such further actions (including executing a physical copy of this letter)

B13. Governing Law and Jurisdiction

This letter and any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with it or its subject matter or formation (including non-contractual disputes or claims) shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of India. You and the Company submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the Mumbai, Maharashtra courts in relation to any dispute arising in connection with your internship and this letter.

APPENDIX C - SYSTEMS MONITORING ACTIVITIES AND CROSS-BORDER TRANSFERS,
PERSONAL ACCOUNT DEALING POLICY, AND CODE OF CONDUCT

Appendix: Systems Monitoring Activities and Cross-Border Transfers:

The following provides a summary of how JPMorgan Chase & Co., its affiliates and its subsidiaries and the entity that employs you, or for which you provide services (collectively, "JPMC"), conducts Systems monitoring. JPMC may conduct monitoring to the extent permitted by applicable law.

JPMC conducts monitoring of JPMC's physical facilities and its equipment and systems (collectively, the "Systems"). System monitoring applies to your JPMC equipment, your personal equipment when accessing the Systems, and the communications, information, and materials conveyed or accessed using the Systems. Monitoring activities may include the monitoring and logging of traffic and usage data of all electronic communications; monitoring of telephone calls to or from JPMC work telephones as permitted by applicable laws and subject to any required notices; monitoring of the contents of electronic communications, files, databases, applications, and internet usage; and logging hours worked and physical presence at JPMC's facilities if applicable. JPMC may at all times monitor, access, retrieve, record and review information obtained from the monitoring activities for various purposes, such as preventing and investigating activities that may violate JPMC's policies and ensuring compliance with legal or regulatory obligations. While conducting monitoring activities, JPMC may obtain and process personal information about you and others that may reside on the Systems.

The monitoring activities (including JPMC's collection and processing of personal or other information) are required for purposes of your employment or work assignment to promote adherence to applicable policies and regulations. Subject to applicable laws and regulations, if you object to this processing, JPMC may prohibit you from using the Systems; terminate offers of employment or work assignment; and, for employees, take disciplinary action against you, up to and including termination of your employment with JPMC.

JPMC may disclose the information it obtains in connection with monitoring activities to JPMC affiliates and to third parties, service providers, regulators, supervisory bodies, law enforcement and other government agencies. Information obtained from the monitoring activities may be used as the basis to take disciplinary actions, up to and including termination or other legal action, for violations of JPMC's policies or applicable laws.

In addition to the monitoring activities discussed above, JPMC may obtain and store other information related to your employment or other working relationship, such as your compensation information, performance information, benefits information and other workplace-related data. JPMC may transfer such information, and the information it obtains in connection with monitoring activities, to countries other than the country in which the information originally was collected, including to the United States.

Understanding Obligations under the Firm's Personal Account Dealing Policy (PAD):

The Personal Account Dealing Policy (Policy) of JPMorgan Chase & Co. (firm or JPMC) is designed to help prevent and detect violations of securities laws and industry conduct standards and to minimize actual or perceived conflicts of interest that could arise due to personal investing activities.

PAD Compliance will notify you if the position you are being offered is considered to be subject to the Policy. You will remain subject for the duration of your time working in a subject group, unless notified otherwise of a change in subject status. Unless otherwise notified, you will continue to be subject to the provisions of the Policy even during leaves of absence from the firm, including, but not limited to, garden leave or medical leave.

You as well as your Connected Persons are subject to the provisions of this Policy and will need to be familiar with the obligations set forth in this policy. Connected Persons includes your spouse, domestic partner or minor children (even if financially independent) as well as anyone to whom you provide significant financial support or for which you, or anyone listed above, has or shares the power, directly or indirectly, to make investment decisions.

Once subject to the Policy, you must disclose and certify your Covered Accounts (which include accounts of your Connected Persons). You will be required to maintain your self-directed Covered Accounts with one of the firm's Approved Brokers and pre-clear all purchases, sales, pledges and gifts (received and given) of publicly traded and privately held financial instruments, unless listed as specifically exempt. Pre-approval confirmations must be received prior to executing the trade or investment. The firm may impose periodic restrictions on personal trading in certain financial securities. These restrictions can apply to all firm subject Workforce Members and their Connected Persons or may be limited to certain groups. Subject Workforce Members and their Connected Persons are not permitted to recommend or transact in the financial instruments of an issuer while in the possession of material non-public information (MNPI) regarding that issuer.

If you are a seasonal or short term employee the following requirements will apply:

JPMorgan Chase requires that seasonal workers refrain from trading in Covered Accounts for the time period that you are employed in a short term training program. Please verify that you will

comply with the following personal trading requirements:

1. For the duration of the short term program I am joining I will not trade in any of my Covered Accounts

2. I understand that the Firm has the right to request account information for any of my Covered Accounts
3. If there is an extenuating circumstance that would compel me to place a trade in my Covered Accounts, I will obtain pre-approval of the trade by the Personal Account Dealing Group and I would be responsible for supplying all confirmations and statements to the Personal Account Dealing Group for that trade

*The term Covered Accounts refers to any securities accounts no matter where they are located and includes, but is not limited to, those accounts that are established, maintained or controlled (either directly or indirectly) by you, your spouse, domestic partner or minor children (even if financially independent), anyone to whom you provide significant financial support, and in which the employee has a direct or indirect financial interest.

Global Personal Trading Policy:

The Personal Account Dealing of JPMorgan Chase & Co. is designed to help prevent and detect violations of securities laws and industry conduct standards and to minimize actual or perceived conflicts of interest that could arise due to personal investing activities. This Policy includes requirements for disclosing Covered Accounts, maintaining certain accounts at one of the firm's Approved Brokers, preclearing trades, and restrictions and prohibitions on certain types of trading activity. This Policy is subject to any applicable local laws and rules and should be read in conjunction with Supplements (regional/LOB) as well as the firm's Code of Conduct.

Conflict of Interests and Outside Interests:

Under JPMorgan Chase & Co.'s (JPMC) Code of Conduct, employees are responsible for avoiding activities or relationships that might affect their objectivity in making decisions as an employee. Employees are not permitted to allow their personal interest to conflict, or appear to conflict, with their JPMC role and responsibilities.

Outside Interests include second jobs, not for profit activities, government positions, and positions with external companies and organizations as a director, officer, advisor, sole proprietor, consultant or owner of any business. Outside Interests may result in an actual or perceived conflict of interest. Where actual or potential conflicts of interest cannot be mitigated, you may be required to discontinue the activity or dissolve your investment.

Employees are required to seek preclearance prior to engaging in Outside Interests or immediately upon joining JPMC. Where preclearance is not required, employee must adhere to all restrictions and conditions outlined in Section 5 and 6 of the Outside Interest Policy.

Conflicts of interests may also arise from: (1) personal and business relationships; (2) the exchange of gifts and business hospitality; (3) political engagement; and (4) personal finances. Employees should avoid activities or relationships that might affect their objectivity in making decisions on behalf of JPMC or undermine their credibility. Employees may never place personal interests ahead of our clients' interests. All potential and actual conflicts must be escalated to your manager for review and mitigation.

Acceptance and Code Affirmation:

Upon signing this letter I accept the terms and conditions described above.

I hereby affirm that I have read, understand, and am in compliance with the JPMorgan Chase ("JPMC") Code of Conduct and all internal JPMC policies that apply to me. I agree, as a condition of my employment, to remain in compliance with the Code of Conduct and all applicable JPMC policies.

I understand that I must conduct myself in a way that is consistent with the Code of Conduct, demonstrating compliance with the principles and intent of the Code of Conduct, and applicable laws and regulations.

I also affirm that I have reported any potential or actual violations of the Code of Conduct, JPMC policies, or laws or regulations applicable to JPMC's business, as required by the Code of Conduct. I understand that failure to do so can result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

I understand that the Code of Conduct may be updated periodically, as necessary; and that the current version is posted on the JPMorgan Chase intranet as well as on its public website.

Independent Auditor Tax Services to Employees of JPMorgan Chase and its Affiliates:

To be in compliance with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (PCAOB) Rule 3523, it is JPMorgan Chase's (JPMC) policy that PricewaterhouseCoopers (PwC) cannot provide any tax services to employees of JPMC or any of its controlled entities (hereafter referred to as JPMC employee). This restriction is regardless of whether the individual is in a financial reporting oversight role or not, and whether PwC is engaged by the individual or by JPMC. PwC is also prohibited from providing any tax services to a spouse of a JPMC employee if the work is related to a joint tax return. Exceptions to this policy will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis and will require the approval of the JPMC Controller.

Appendix A – PERSONAL INTERNSHIP TERMS AND CONDITIONS

A1. Title/Category

You will join us as an intern in the CIB Research & Analytics Program at JPMorgan Chase & Co., and will carry out your role while physically present in the J.P. Morgan offices in Mumbai, India.

A2. Internship Commencement Date

Your internship shall begin on 16-Jan-2023 ("Start Date") and shall continue, subject to the remaining terms of this agreement, until it terminates on 30-Jun-2023 ("End Date") without the need for notice, unless previously terminated by either party pursuant to paragraph 4 of Appendix B.

In addition to the conditions set out in paragraph 1 of Appendix B, your offer is subject to you successfully meeting the educational criteria that has already been communicated to you in writing.

A3. Working Hours

Your manager will assign you specific working hours, often during the Company's normal office hours. Depending on the needs of your department, however, you may be required to work outside the official hours to fulfill your duties.

A4. Stipend

Your stipend will be INR60,000/- per month.

Relocation Lump Sum

You will receive an additional, one-time lump sum of INR85000("the Additional Sum") gross with your first stipend. This payment will be made to you in the first available payroll after you join the Company. You should be aware that this might be in the month of joining or the following month depending on your commencement date and when all necessary data is received. This is to assist with any relocation expenses you may incur prior to joining.

If you leave the internship or your internship is terminated for any reason, you must repay to the Company the Additional Sum on a pro-rated basis as set out below:

If your internship period is longer than 3 months and you leave the internship or your internship is terminated for any reason within three months of your date of commencement you must repay to the Company 100% of the gross amount of the Additional Sum

If your internship period is longer than 3 months and you leave the internship or your internship is terminated for any reason more than three months but within twelve months of your date of commencement you must repay to the Company 50% of the gross amount of

the Additional Sum

If your internship period is less than 3 months and you leave the internship or your internship is terminated for any reason before completion of your internship period you must repay the Company 100% of the gross amount of the Additional Sum.

A5. Probationary Period

Your internship will be subject to a probation period as outlined in paragraph 4.3 of Appendix B.

A6. Leave Entitlement

A6.1 Annual Leave

You are entitled to 20 working days of annual leave with full pay in every calendar year, pro-rated according to the duration of your employment in accordance with the Company's Human Resources Policies and applicable law. If you work part-time hours, your annual leave entitlement will be pro-rated to reflect your part-time hours worked.

A6.2 Other Leave

You can find further details of other leave entitlements in paragraph 5 of Appendix B.

A7. Benefits

You will not be entitled to join the Company's benefits programs, given the short length of your fixed-term contract.

A8. Retirement Scheme

You are not eligible for retirement benefits.

A9. Notice Period

During your probationary period, starting the day you join the Company, either you or the Company may terminate your employment with at least 14 days' written notice or payment of wages in lieu of such notice period.

After the probationary period, either party can terminate the employment by giving the other party 30 Days written notice ("Notice Period") or by the Company making a payment in lieu of Notice Period.

APPENDIX B – GENERAL INTERNSHIP TERMS AND CONDITIONS

M. H. O

B1. Internship

B1.1 Your internship is subject to:

- a) you being able to carry out your role in India while being able to be physically present in an JPMC office in Mumbai, India and obtaining and maintaining throughout your entire period of internship a valid work permit and such other permission, license or registration as may from time to time be necessary to enable you to carry out your duties and continue your internship.
- b) the completion of all pre-employment screening processes to the satisfaction of the Company, including obtaining education verification, background references and checks as sought and the execution of any other forms necessary for internship, etc.; and
- c) you being legally able to work with the Company. You undertake to disclose any internship or contractual post-internship restraints to which you are subject and which may, and will continue to, affect your internship with us and represent and warrant that:
 - ix. by entering into internship with the Company and performing the duties set out in this letter, you will not be in breach of any express or implied term of any internship or other agreement or arrangement to which you are party;
 - i. you have not taken or otherwise misappropriated and you do not have in your possession or control any confidential and proprietary information belonging to any of your prior employers, or any third party providing services to your prior employer, or connected with or derived from your services to prior employers and you have returned to all prior employers any and all such confidential or proprietary information; and
 - ii. you are not subject to any other internship, including being subject to garden leave or any contractual post-internship restraints.

You shall indemnify and hold harmless the Company from any and all claims arising from any breach of the warranties in this paragraph B1.

- B1.2 Whilst you and/or the Company may have agreed a tentative date of commencement of internship with the Company, you will not, unless the Company decides otherwise, be able to commence internship with the Company without our receipt of completed and satisfactory results from our pre-employment screening process.
- B1.3 You may be required to provide services for other members of the Group throughout your internship. When providing these services, you may from time to time be required to travel and work in different locations within and outside your hiring location.

S1.4 You will not undertake outside employment or activities with or without remuneration, unless you have the prior written approval of senior management of the Company or its delegate. Outside activities may include (but are not limited to) activities as a director, officer, partner, sole proprietor, consultant or controlling stockholder of any business. If your request to undertake outside activity is not approved by management and you decide to engage in the activity, your internship may be terminated without any notice or compensation.

B2. Remuneration

B2.1 We will deposit your stipend (paragraph 4 of Appendix A) on or around the 30th of each month.

B2.2 You will be responsible for all tax liabilities world-wide arising out of payments pursuant to your internship with the Company.

B2.3 Any payment of salary or bonus by, or other sum due to you from the Company shall be subject to any and all withholding or deduction (for, including but not limited to, any taxes, contributions, repayments or other sums which you have agreed that the Company may withhold/deduct or which the Company is obliged or entitled to withhold/deduct from time to time under any applicable law), and the Company shall in such case be entitled to withhold, deduct or retain the amount of such tax, withholding or deduction from any sum payable to you.

B3. Incentive Compensation

For this position, you won't be eligible for incentive awards under the JPMorgan Chase Performance-Based Incentive Compensation Plan or any other non-annual incentive compensation plan.

B4. Termination

B4.1 Your internship may be terminated as follows:

- a) By either party giving to the other prior written notice of at least the period specified, as applicable, in paragraph 9 in Appendix A (the "Notice Period"), or by the Company making a payment in lieu of notice for all or part of such Notice Period of an amount equal to basic salary you would have been entitled to receive during the Notice period or part of the Notice Period.
- b) By the Company at any time without notice or compensation if you:
 - i) are guilty of fraud, dishonesty or misconduct which is inconsistent with the due and faithful discharge of your duties;

Me

- ii) seriously breach the Code of Conduct and any other Company policies;
- iii) disobey the Company's lawful and reasonable instructions/requirements;
- iv) habitually neglect your duties; or
- v) otherwise commit a material or repeated breach of your internship terms or any of the Company's or Group's policies.

B4.2 During any Notice Period, the Company may put you on "garden leave" and may, amongst other things, do any or a combination of the following:

- (a) suspend you from the performance of any duties or assign you alternative duties;
- (b) exclude you from any premises of the Company or any of the Group companies and/or require you to work from another location;
- (c) require that you have no or limited contact or communication, other than purely social contact, with any employees, officers, directors, agents or consultants of the Company or any other member of the Group;
- (d) require that you have no or limited contact or communication with any customer or client of the Company or any other member of the Group;
- (e) remove your access to the Company premises and computer systems;
- (f) require that you return any property belonging to the Company under paragraph 7 in this Appendix;
- (g) require you not to do any act or thing, or make or cause to be made, any statement reasonably likely to damage the business or reputation of the Company or the Group.

B4.3 If paragraph 5 of Appendix A states that your employment is subject to probation, your probation period will be the first 3 months of employment, which you agree is reasonable, and fair, in light of the responsibilities of the role.

B4.4 At its sole discretion, the Company may notify you of an extension to your probationary period.

B4.5 All your duties (whether express or implied) under your internship and this letter, including without limitation your duty of fidelity, good faith, exclusive service and duties in relation to the Group's confidential information shall continue throughout the Notice Period including any period that you are on garden leave.

B4.6 During any Notice Period:

- (a) you will provide such assistance as the Company may require to effect an orderly handover of your duties and responsibilities to any individual appointed by the Company or any of the Group Companies to take over your role or responsibilities; and
- (b) you shall make yourself available to deal with requests for information, provide assistance, be available for meetings and to advise on matters relating to work.

B5 Leave

B5.1 Annual Leave:

- (a) You will be entitled to annual leave with full pay in every calendar year – please see paragraph 6 of Appendix A, pro-rated according to the duration of your employment. The Company will be entitled to determine when annual leave is taken, although as far as possible, arrangements will be made to suit your convenience. Annual leave entitlement for each calendar year must be taken in that calendar year and only in exceptional circumstances can annual leave (other than unused statutory entitlement, if any) be carried forward into the following calendar year. All annual leave days taken will be deducted first from the statutory entitlement accumulation.
- (b) After a notice or termination has been given pursuant to paragraph B4.1 of this Appendix, you will not be entitled to take any annual leave without the express consent of the Company provided after notice of termination has been given.
- (c) You must comply with the Company's 'consecutive days leave' policies.

B5.2 Sick Leave

Any sick leave entitlement will be subject to relevant legislation and J.P Morgan internal policies that are in force and amended from time to time. More details are set out in the me@jpmc website, which will be accessible to you upon commencement of your employment.

B5.3 Suspension Leave

The Company has the right to suspend you from your work duties with full pay when it considers it necessary to investigate any allegation of misconduct or impropriety on your part. The Company can exercise this right at its sole discretion, acting in good faith.

B6. Confidentiality

Uma

You acknowledge that a vast amount of privileged and confidential information will be disclosed to you in course of your internship with the Company and during your internship with the Company and thereafter, you shall keep secret and shall not at any time (whether during or after the period of your internship) use for your own or another's advantage, or reveal to any person, firm or company, any of the trade secrets, business methods and plans, financial matters, client lists, investments, marketing plans, personnel matters or other information which you knew or reasonably ought to have known to be confidential concerning the business or affairs of the Company or any other member of the Group or any of their related companies, clients or suppliers.

You agree to abide by the specific provisions on the use of confidential information in the Company's policies and Group code of conduct.

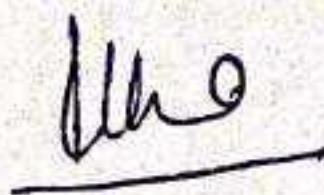

The restriction contained in this paragraph shall not apply to any disclosure or use authorised by the Company or required by law.

B7. Return of Company Property

You acknowledge that any privileged or confidential information disclosed to you in the course of your internship with the Company remains the exclusive property of the Company and whenever requested by the Company and/or Group and in any event upon the termination of your internship, you will promptly deliver to the Company and/or Group all documents and other materials (whether originals or copies or in hard copy or electronic form) concerning the Company and/or Group or their respective clients and suppliers, which may have been prepared by you or have come into your possession, custody or control in the course of your internship with the Company. This includes, without limitation, any confidential information, lists of clients or suppliers, correspondence, electronic equipment, computer software or hardware, staff identity cards card and other property used in connection with the operations of the Company and/or Group. You will not be entitled to, and will not retain, any copies, title and copyright in such correspondence and other documents, papers, records and property are vested in the Company and/or Group.

B8. Post internship Restrictions

- B8.1 For a period of three months commencing on the Relevant Date, you shall not directly or indirectly (whether on your own account, for or with any other person, firm or company) solicit or endeavor to entice away from the Company or any other Group Company any Critical Person.
- B8.2 For a period of three months commencing on the Relevant Date, you shall not directly or indirectly (whether on your own account, for or with any other person, firm or company) solicit or endeavor to entice away from the Company or any other Group Company the business or custom of any Restricted Client.
- B8.3 The duration of the restrictions will be reduced by any period of notice that you work out or

B8.4 In this paragraph B8:

- a) "Critical Person" means any person who was an employee or director of the Company or any other Group Company at any time within one year prior to the Relevant Date who had access to trade secrets or confidential information of the Company or any other Group Company. This includes knowledge of, involvement with or influence over suppliers or clients of the Company or any other Group Company with whom you worked at any time during that period.
- b) "Group Company" means the Company, its ultimate holding company, any subsidiary of the Company and any holding company from time to time. "Subsidiary" and "holding company" shall have the same meaning as in the relevant companies' legislation.
- c) "Restricted Client" means any person:
 - i. who in the one year before the Relevant Date was a client of, or has dealt with, the Company or any other Group Company; and
 - ii. with whose custom or business you, or persons reporting to you, were personally involved with during the period of one year prior to the Relevant Date
 - iii. but does not include publicly known institutional clients which you serve subsequent to your internship with the Company without the use of confidential or proprietary information of the Company and the Group.
- d) "Relevant Date" means the date your internship with the Company or the Group terminates for whatever reason.

B8.5 You acknowledge and agree:

- a) that each of the foregoing paragraphs constitutes an entirely separate and independent restriction on you;
- b) that the duration, extent and application of each restrictions, obligations and undertakings are reasonable and necessary to protect legitimate interests of the Company and the Group, considering, among other things, that the Company has commercial dealings with business partners throughout the world and that you will regularly be dealing with such partners as part of your duties and you understand that it does not by any means prevent you from earning a living in a satisfactory way;
- c) that, if any such restriction (or parts of a restriction) shall be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be void or unenforceable, the validity or enforceability of the remaining restrictions (or parts of a restriction) shall remain in full force and effect as if

the unenforceable parts had been deleted. Damages may be an inadequate compensation for breach of any of the restrictions in this paragraph and, subject to a court's discretion, in the event of any actual or threatened breach of any provision of this paragraph, you agree that the Company shall be entitled to (on behalf of itself and on behalf of any other Group Company) restrain, by injunction, equitable relief or similar remedy, any conduct or threatened conduct by you. You expressly submit to the jurisdiction of any court of competent jurisdiction for this purpose, and in the event you receive from any person an offer of employment (whether oral or in writing and whether accepted or not), either during your Internship or the continuation in force of all or any of the restrictions applicable to you, whether pursuant to this letter or the Code of Conduct, you shall provide to the person making such an offer of employment a full and accurate copy of the then current restrictions applicable to you.

- d) that any benefit given or deemed to be given by you to the Group under the terms of this paragraph is received and held on trust by the Company for the relevant Group Company. You will enter into appropriate restrictive covenants directly with other Group Companies if asked to do so by the Company.
- e) that your internship with the Company and the compensation paid and/or payable to you by the Company shall be sufficient consideration for the purposes of this clause. You further agree and acknowledge that the limitations as to time and the character or nature placed in this clause are reasonable and fair and will not preclude you from earning a livelihood, nor will they unreasonably impose limitations on your ability to earn a living.
- f) that this offer letter constitutes a valid, legally binding and enforceable obligation on you and this document is not in violation of any applicable law.
- g) that any breach or threat of breach on your part of any one of such obligations and/or undertakings would cause serious harm to the Company or the Group which may then institute any legal recourse against you that is deemed appropriate and/or recourse in damages, without further notice or delay.
- i) in addition, you agree and acknowledge that the potential harm to the Company of the non-enforcement of this clause outweighs any potential harm to you and that you have given careful consideration to the restraints imposed upon you by this clause and that you are in full agreement as to their necessity for the reasonable and proper protection of the Company's interests. You expressly acknowledge and agree that each and every restraint imposed by this clause is reasonable with respect to subject matter, time period and geographical area.

B9. Code of Conduct and Staff Regulations and Affirmation

- B9.1 It is a condition of your continuing internship and it is your obligation that you comply with:
- (a) the Code of Conduct (as amended from time to time or superseded). At the time of acceptance of the offer of internship and on a periodic basis, you will be required to sign an affirmation (or reaffirmation) confirming your understanding and compliance with the provisions of the Code of Conduct, and
 - (b) the Company's other internal policies and procedures and all relevant policies and procedures for the line of business in which you are to undertake work.
- B9.2 The Company shall be entitled at any time to amend the Company's internal policies and procedures (including but not limited to the Code of Conduct), the benefits set out in the Appendices and other staff regulations, as well as to put in place new policies as the Company sees fit. Any such amendments shall be notified in writing to each employee and shall on provision of such notice, become legally binding.
- B9.3 The Company's Human Resources work policies are set out in the me@jpmc website, as amended from time to time. Please take time to familiarise yourself with these policies when you begin your internship.
- B9.4 To the extent that the contents of policies or procedures refer to obligations on the Company, you agree that they are guides only and are not contractual terms, conditions or representations on which you rely.

B10. Working Hours

- B10.1 Your total working hours (including break(s)) is 40 hours per working week during the tenure of your internship and you should attend office 5 days every working week. Your working hours may be revised at the discretion of the Company.

B11. Retirement Benefits

You are not eligible for retirement benefits.

B12. Contract Execution

B12.1 You acknowledge and agree that:

- (a) This letter may be delivered in a digital or physical format. Subject to any applicable law, where the letter is provided in a digital format, you acknowledge and agree that it is being executed electronically and that it is enforceable.

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "Uma", written over a solid black horizontal line.

- (b) You have read and understood the terms of this letter and have been provided with an opportunity to review and discuss the terms of it with advisors, if you so desire.
- (c) Should any further assurances be required or sought by the Company, you shall in good faith perform such further actions (including executing a physical copy of this letter)

B13. Governing Law and Jurisdiction

This letter and any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with it or its subject matter or formation (including non-contractual disputes or claims) shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of India. You and the Company submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the Mumbai, Maharashtra courts in relation to any dispute arising in connection with your internship and this letter.

APPENDIX C - SYSTEMS MONITORING ACTIVITIES AND CROSS-BORDER TRANSFERS,
PERSONAL ACCOUNT DEALING POLICY, AND CODE OF CONDUCT

Appendix: Systems Monitoring Activities and Cross-Border Transfers:

The following provides a summary of how JPMorgan Chase & Co., its affiliates and its subsidiaries and the entity that employs you, or for which you provide services (collectively, "JPMC"), conducts Systems monitoring. JPMC may conduct monitoring to the extent permitted by applicable law.

JPMC conducts monitoring of JPMC's physical facilities and its equipment and systems (collectively, the "Systems"). System monitoring applies to your JPMC equipment, your personal equipment when accessing the Systems, and the communications, information, and materials conveyed or accessed using the Systems. Monitoring activities may include the monitoring and logging of traffic and usage data of all electronic communications; monitoring of telephone calls to or from JPMC work telephones as permitted by applicable laws and subject to any required notices; monitoring of the contents of electronic communications, files, databases, applications, and internet usage; and logging hours worked and physical presence at JPMC's facilities if applicable. JPMC may at all times monitor, access, retrieve, record and review information obtained from the monitoring activities for various purposes, such as preventing and investigating activities that may violate JPMC's policies and ensuring compliance with legal or regulatory obligations. While conducting monitoring activities, JPMC may obtain and process personal information about you and others that may reside on the Systems.

The monitoring activities (including JPMC's collection and processing of personal or other information) are required for purposes of your employment or work assignment to promote adherence to applicable policies and regulations. Subject to applicable laws and regulations, if you object to this processing, JPMC may prohibit you from using the Systems; terminate offers of employment or work assignment; and, for employees, take disciplinary action against you, up to and including termination of your employment with JPMC.

JPMC may disclose the information it obtains in connection with monitoring activities to JPMC affiliates and to third parties, service providers, regulators, supervisory bodies, law enforcement and other government agencies. Information obtained from the monitoring activities may be used as the basis to take disciplinary actions, up to and including termination or other legal action, for violations of JPMC's policies or applicable laws.

In addition to the monitoring activities discussed above, JPMC may obtain and store other information related to your employment or other working relationship, such as your compensation information, performance information, benefits information and other workplace-related data. JPMC may transfer such information, and the information it obtains in connection with monitoring activities, to countries other than the country in which the information originally was collected, including to the United States.

Understanding Obligations under the Firm's Personal Account Dealing Policy (PAD):

The Personal Account Dealing Policy (Policy) of JPMorgan Chase & Co. (firm or JPMC) is designed to help prevent and detect violations of securities laws and industry conduct standards and to minimize actual or perceived conflicts of interest that could arise due to personal investing activities.

PAD Compliance will notify you if the position you are being offered is considered to be subject to the Policy. You will remain subject for the duration of your time working in a subject group, unless notified otherwise of a change in subject status. Unless otherwise notified, you will continue to be subject to the provisions of the Policy even during leaves of absence from the firm, including, but not limited to, garden leave or medical leave.

You as well as your Connected Persons are subject to the provisions of this Policy and will need to be familiar with the obligations set forth in this policy. Connected Persons includes your spouse, domestic partner or minor children (even if financially independent) as well as anyone to whom you provide significant financial support or for which you, or anyone listed above, has or shares the power, directly or indirectly, to make investment decisions.

Once subject to the Policy, you must disclose and certify your Covered Accounts (which include accounts of your Connected Persons). You will be required to maintain your self-directed Covered Accounts with one of the firm's Approved Brokers and pre-clear all purchases, sales, pledges and gifts (received and given) of publicly traded and privately held financial instruments, unless listed as specifically exempt. Pre-approval confirmations must be received prior to executing the trade or investment. The firm may impose periodic restrictions on personal trading in certain financial securities. These restrictions can apply to all firm subject Workforce Members and their Connected Persons or may be limited to certain groups. Subject Workforce Members and their Connected Persons are not permitted to recommend or transact in the financial instruments of an issuer while in the possession of material non-public information (MNPI) regarding that issuer.

If you are a seasonal or short term employee the following requirements will apply:

JPMorgan Chase requires that seasonal workers refrain from trading in Covered Accounts for the time period that you are employed in a short term training program. Please verify that you will

comply with the following personal trading requirements:

- I am joining I will not trade in any of my Covered Accounts
1. For the duration of the short term program I am joining I will not trade in any of my Covered Accounts
 2. I understand that the Firm has the right to request account information for any of my Covered Accounts
 3. If there is an extenuating circumstance that would compel me to place a trade in my Covered Accounts, I will obtain pre-approval of the trade by the Personal Account Dealing Group and I would be responsible for supplying all confirmations and statements to the Personal Account Dealing Group for that trade.

*The term Covered Accounts refers to any securities accounts no matter where they are located and includes, but is not limited to, those accounts that are established, maintained or controlled (either directly or indirectly) by you, your spouse, domestic partner or minor children (even if financially independent), anyone to whom you provide significant financial support, and in which the employee has a direct or indirect financial interest.

Global Personal Trading Policy:

The Personal Account Dealing of JPMorgan Chase & Co. is designed to help prevent and detect violations of securities laws and industry conduct standards and to minimize actual or perceived conflicts of interest that could arise due to personal investing activities. This Policy includes requirements for disclosing Covered Accounts, maintaining certain accounts at one of the firm's Approved Brokers, preclearing trades, and restrictions and prohibitions on certain types of trading activity. This Policy is subject to any applicable local laws and rules and should be read in conjunction with Supplements (regional/LOB) as well as the firm's Code of Conduct.

Conflict of Interests and Outside Interests:

Under JPMorgan Chase & Co.'s (JPMC) Code of Conduct, employees are responsible for avoiding activities or relationships that might affect their objectivity in making decisions as an employee. Employees are not permitted to allow their personal interest to conflict, or appear to conflict, with their JPMC role and responsibilities.

Outside Interests include second jobs, not for profit activities, government positions, and positions with external companies and organizations as a director, officer, advisor, sole proprietor, consultant or owner of any business. Outside Interests may result in an actual or perceived conflict of interest. Where actual or potential conflicts of interest cannot be mitigated, you may be required to discontinue the activity or dissolve your investment.

Employees are required to seek preclearance prior to engaging in Outside Interests or immediately upon joining JPMC. Where preclearance is not required, employee must adhere to all restrictions and conditions outlined in Section 5 and 6 of the Outside Interest Policy.

Conflicts of interests may also arise from: (1) personal and business relationships; (2) the exchange of gifts and business hospitality; (3) political engagement; and (4) personal finances. Employees should avoid activities or relationships that might affect their objectivity in making decisions on behalf of JPMC or undermine their credibility. Employees may never place personal interests ahead of our clients' interests. All potential and actual conflicts must be escalated to your manager for review and mitigation.

Acceptance and Code Affirmation:

Upon signing this letter I accept the terms and conditions described above.

I hereby affirm that I have read, understand, and am in compliance with the JPMorgan Chase ("JPMC") Code of Conduct and all internal JPMC policies that apply to me. I agree, as a condition of my employment, to remain in compliance with the Code of Conduct and all applicable JPMC policies.

I understand that I must conduct myself in a way that is consistent with the Code of Conduct, demonstrating compliance with the principles and intent of the Code of Conduct, and applicable laws and regulations,

I also affirm that I have reported any potential or actual violations of the Code of Conduct, JPMC policies, or laws or regulations applicable to JPMC's business, as required by the Code of Conduct. I understand that failure to do so can result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

I understand that the Code of Conduct may be updated periodically, as necessary; and that the current version is posted on the JPMorgan Chase intranet as well as on its public website.

Independent Auditor Tax Services to Employees of JPMorgan Chase and its Affiliates:

To be in compliance with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (PCAOB) Rule 3523, it is JPMorgan Chase's (JPMC) policy that PricewaterhouseCoopers (PwC) cannot provide any tax services to employees of JPMC or any of its controlled entities (hereafter referred to as JPMC employee). This restriction is regardless of whether the individual is in a financial reporting oversight role or not, and whether PwC is engaged by the individual or by JPMC. PwC is also prohibited from providing any tax services to a spouse of a JPMC employee if the work is related to a joint tax return. Exceptions to this policy will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis and will require the approval of the JPMC Controller.

Deloitte

3.1 Remuneration payable under the Employment Contract (including, for the avoidance of doubt, its structure or components or any of the benefits) are subject to Organisation Policy applicable at the relevant time(s). Any of these may from time to time be revised, modified or replaced by the Organisation.

3.2 Certain payments or benefits require that you must be in the employment of the Organisation at the time of payment. These will be either set out in this Employment Contract or as applicable under the Organisation Policy for such payments or benefits at the relevant time.

4. Clarification as to Remuneration and/or Benefits

Under the current Organisation Policy, the clarifications with respect to Remuneration and/or Benefits are set out below:

4.1 Performance Appraisal and Performance Incentive

The performance year under the current Organisation Policy is June through May of the immediately succeeding calendar year (Performance Year). Following a review of your performance during the performance years, as a part of the Organisation's performance appraisal process your fixed pay may be revised and/or a one-off (for the relevant year) Performance Incentive may be agreed to be paid. Candidates joining the Organisation after 1 March but before 31 May in a Performance Year will not be eligible for fixed pay revision and Performance Incentive in appraisal cycle for the Performance Year of joining.

The revision of your fixed pay and Performance Incentive are non-committed portions of the Remuneration and are dependent on the Organisation Policy, your performance during that year as well as the Organisation's performance as assessed by the Organisation's management and will be prorated according to the tenure of your association with the Organisation during the performance year.

(a) Under the current Organisation Policy:

(i) Your fixed pay revision (where made) will:

(A) Be effective from June 1 based on your performance assessment if you join before March 1 of the preceding performance year.

Deloitte

(B) Be applied to the fixed pay, and will be prorated according to the period spent with the Organisation during the performance year.

(b) Performance Incentive will be subject to the Organisation's performance and discretion. The Performance Incentive will be applicable for the performance year of the Organisation ending May 31st. In order to receive Performance Incentive, staff and practitioner must be an active Deloitte employee and not serving notice period or not resigned from the employment until the close of the working hours on the September 30th or the date of disbursement / payment of the Performance Incentive, whichever is later. Where the staff or practitioner has worked only for part of the assessment period and eligible for review of Performance Incentive, Performance Incentive will be prorated.

4.2 Telephone Reimbursement

Manager and below – If your remuneration structure offers reimbursement of telephone expenses, you can obtain reimbursement of expenses incurred on telephone and mobile against valid original bills (i.e. original bills for the period you are in employment with the Organization issued in your name within the same financial year in which the claim is made). Any amount that is not supported by valid original bills will be paid along with salary for March, subject to deduction of tax at source.

For Senior Manager and above - one mobile connection, registered in your name, and used as the primary means of work related communication expenses are reimbursed at actuals subject to approvals

4.3 Lunch allowance

If your remuneration structure offers lunch allowance, you will be paid INR 2000/- per month as Lunch allowance. However, the employee has a choice to opt for 'Food Card', which will be subject to KYC norms and prevailing tax rules.

4.4 LTA (Leave Travel Allowance)

Leave Travel Allowance will be payable as per the Organisation Policy applicable at the relevant time.

4.5 Organisation's contribution towards Provident Fund (PF)

Deloitte

The Provident Fund membership begins on the Employment Start Date, subject to the Employee joining the Organisation. Unless otherwise permitted by law, the Employee shall continue to be a member of the PF during the tenure of the Employee with the Organisation.

4.6 Parents or In-laws Medical Insurance Extension

If the Employee wishes, she or he may opt to include the employee's parents or parents-in-law under the floating group medical insurance policy by notifying the Organisation's human resource team within 10 days of the Employment Start Date. The Employee will have to bear and pay for the whole of the premium for such additional coverage from the Employee's own funds.

4.7 Annual Leave Entitlement

Under the current Organisation Policy, the annual leave entitlement is 22 working days per financial year (April through March). Where the Employee has not worked for the full financial year, annual leave will be prorated.

4.8 Work From Home allowance:

Work From Home allowance will be payable as per the Organisation Policy as applicable. This allowance will be payable similar to other salary components. The eligibility amount of allowance will be pro-rated from your date of joining till the end of the financial year i.e. 31st March.

Schedule 2

Employing Entity: The Deloitte Entity specified in the Offer Letter (we, our, us or Organisation)
Employee Name: The person named in Schedule 1 as employee (you, your or Employee)

Terms and Conditions of Employment

1. Your Employment Contract

1.1 You voluntarily agree to provide services to the Organisation as its employee in accordance with the Employment Contract and the Organisation Policy. Your employment with the Organisation is "at will"; either you or the Organisation may terminate it in accordance with this Employment Contract or Law.

Deloitte

1.2 Your employment commences on the Employment Start Date set out in Schedule 1.

1.3 Your designation, position/career level, business and location at the Employment Start Date are stated in Schedule 1. The Organisation may change any of these from time to time by a written notice to you. If you do not report for work on the Employment Start Date, this Employment Contract will stand automatically withdrawn and cancelled, unless the Organisation expressly agrees otherwise in writing.

2. Employment Conditions

2.1 Medical Fitness

- (a) Your employment with the Organisation is at all times conditional upon your being medically fit to perform the services for the Organisation.
- (b) You agree to notify the Organisation in writing promptly if there is any change in your health condition that renders you medically not fit to perform your work for the Organisation.
- (c) The Organisation may at any time require you to undergo medical examination(s) by a medical practitioner of the Organisation's choice. You consent to the Organisation maintaining copies of the documents, reports and medical examination results and use them as necessary in relation to your employment with the Organisation. You acknowledge these records may continue to be maintained by the Organisation even after your employment ceases.

2.2 Background Verification

- (a) The Organisation has agreed to enter into this Employment Contract on the basis of the information provided by you. You affirm that each item of information provided by you: (i) for the purpose of seeking employment with the Organisation; or (ii) in the course of your employment with the Organisation; is substantially true, accurate and not misleading. The information referred to in this paragraph 2.2(a) is called Employee Information. You will without undue delay notify the Organisation in writing of any changes to the Employee Information.

(b) While the Organisation may rely on your affirmation as to the veracity of the Employee Information, the Organisation reserves the right to have your Employee Information (including background) verified. For this purpose, you give your consent to the Organisation conducting verification checks whether by itself or through service providers and for sharing the Employee information with the persons involved in conducting the verification checks.

2.3 Compliance with Professional Standards and Law

Where your services comprise or include any professional services to which any regulatory or professional standards apply, you shall in the performance of your services under this Employment Contract, comply with all such standards. You will perform your services at all times in compliance with Law. Further, where you have been employed on the basis of your professional qualification and/or membership, your employment with the Organisation continues to be subject to your maintaining the necessary professional qualification and/or membership.

3. Probation (where applicable)

Under the current Organisation Policy, where probation becomes applicable to you, those joining the Organisation at the level of "Manager" or below will be on probation for a period of: (i) 3 months for Manager or Deputy Manager, (ii) 6 months for Assistant Manager or below, from the Employment Start Date. During the probation period, either you or the Organization may terminate your employment at any time for no cause by giving the other a prior written notice of 2 months. Unless you receive a written notification from the Organisation that your services are confirmed or that your probation period is extended (which may be up to a further 2 month period), your services will be considered terminated with effect from the day immediately following the end of the probation period.

4. Location, Work Hours, Etc.

4.1 Your current base is at the location specified in Schedule 1. You will present yourself to perform your work at the designated place that the Organisation may notify you from time to time. You may be asked to undertake work related travel or stay outside the city of your current base. Unless otherwise notified, you will generally be governed by the working hours, weekly off and holiday schedules applicable to your current base. The Organisation may by a general or specific written notice revise the working hours, holiday schedules, weekly off and other terms relating to your employment.

Page 10 of 27

Deloitte

4.2 You may avail of leave in accordance with the Organisation's Policy as applicable at the relevant time, subject to your obtaining necessary approvals. You will act reasonably in seeking leave of absence and will endeavour to minimize the impact of your absence on the Organisation's operations. Where practicable, you will avoid an overlap of your leave plans with those of others in your department, function or project.

4.3 The Organisation may ask you to go on 'gardening leave'. If that is the case, you will ordinarily not remain present at your designated place of work, unless the Organisation specifically requests you.

5. Transfer, Deputation, Etc.

The Organisation may depute you, or transfer or second your services to other Deloitte Entities or other third parties including Clients (Recipient Organisation). In any such case: (a) you shall, without limiting your obligation to comply with Organisation Policy comply with all applicable policies, codes and requirements of the Recipient Organisation (Recipient Organisation Requirements); and (b) you may be required to follow the working hours, weekly off and holiday schedules as followed by the Recipient Organisation during the period of such deputation, transfer or secondment. For the avoidance of doubt, Recipient Organisation Requirements include, without limitation, confidentiality, information security, ethics, health and safety requirements.

6. Remuneration

6.1 Your remuneration and benefits at the Employment Start Date as are set out in Schedule 1 (Remuneration). Your Remuneration is all that the Organisation must pay you for your performance of the Employment Contract (including your grant of rights in favour of the Organisation under this Employment Contract). Remuneration shall be prorated if for part of an applicable period. You are eligible for the relevant benefits forming part of the Remuneration only during the tenure of your employment with the Organisation. Unless otherwise expressly agreed to in writing by the Organisation, you must be in the employment of the Organisation to receive the relevant items of Remuneration at the time of remittance.

6.2 Non-committed or discretionary payments are not due to you unless for the applicable performance year or period the Organisation expressly agrees in writing to pay you. You acknowledge you may need to fulfil certain eligibility conditions as are applicable under the Organisation Policy in order to be eligible to receive certain non-committed or discretionary payments.

6.3 Subsequently the Organisation may revise your Remuneration (including the Remuneration structure) by a written notification. Unless so revised, the latest Remuneration that the Organisation has agreed to pay you in writing will apply.

6.4 At the time of payment of Remuneration, the Organisation may make the following deductions:

- (a) any amount that the Law requires the Organisation to deduct (including any taxes, statutory levies and imposts);
- (b) any amounts that you may owe the Organisation;
- (c) amounts set out in clause 10.3.

You expressly consent to these deductions, authorize the Organisation to make such deductions from payments to you, and acknowledge that the Organisation's making of such deductions do not operate as limitation of your liability or the Organisation's rights to recover the amounts due from you.

6.5 Your Remuneration includes all amounts, items and benefits that the Law requires the Organisation to pay you (Mandatory Payments). If Law changes subsequently requiring the Organisation to make any specific Mandatory Payments to you during the term of your employment, the Organisation shall be entitled to re-adjust the components of your Remuneration such that the Organisation's total outgo on account of your Remuneration (including the specific Mandatory Payments) for the applicable period remains unchanged.

6.6 Information about the terms of your employment including, especially, your Remuneration is confidential. You may not at any time directly or indirectly disclose your Remuneration information to anyone, except: (a) your reporting manager or the relevant partner or human resource team; (b) those who have a legitimate need to know with regard to your employment; or (b) to the extent you need to disclose in order for you to comply with law, regulation, or order of a judicial, statutory or other authority having jurisdiction over you.

7. Retirement or Other Benefits:

7.1 Where required by Organisation Policy or Law, you will be required to contribute to the retirement and other benefit scheme(s) in force at the relevant time. You consent to the Organisation deducting from your Remuneration all such contributions.

7.2 Where the Organisation has set up trust or arranged for retirement contributions to be managed by a trust (including those by government), you acknowledge that those benefits

8. Reimbursement of Business Expenses

8.1 The Organisation will reimburse you for expenses incurred by you for the Organisation's work, provided (a) you have obtained the Organisation's consent before incurring such expenses; and (b) you have complied with Organisation Policy for the business expenses.

8.2 The Organisation may at its discretion make an advance payment to you against proposed business expenses. You must properly account for (including by way of production of valid bills or other supporting documentation in respect of) the utilization of the advance payment within the time specified in the Organisation Policy. You authorize the Organisation to deduct from your Remuneration all advances that have not been properly accounted for by you.

9. Taxes

You will be solely responsible to account for your Remuneration and comply with all applicable tax laws in respect of your Remuneration, except that where Law requires the Organisation to deduct income tax and/or statutory levies, the Organisation will make such deduction and pay you the balance Remuneration. With respect to any such deduction, compliance with Law will operate as a discharge of the Organisation's obligation to pay the part of the Remuneration comprised in the deduction.

10. Organisation's Assets and Facilities

10.1 For performing your duties under this Employment Contract, the Organisation may during the term of your employment:

- (a) Provide you with, make available or give access to, property (including, without limitation, equipment, devices, vehicles, ideny cards, access cards, access to software licences, information, subscriptions to services (including those of telephone and data)) whether or not owned by the Organisation or third parties it deals with (together, Organisation Assets); and
 - (b) Extend to you facilities including, without limitation, office space, desk space, memberships, subscriptions, guest houses, etc. whether or not owned by the Organisation or third parties it deals with (together, Facilities).

10.3 You shall make good any damage to the Organisation Assets or Facilities or loss to the Organisation caused by you or due to your failure to take reasonable care of any of them. In addition to any other rights the Organisation may have, you authorize the Organisation to deduct from your Remuneration the costs of repairing, restoring or replacing the Organisation Assets and/or Facilities or the loss incurred by the Organisation due to such damage or wrongful use.

10.4 The Organisation may at any time ask you to stop using the Organisation Assets and/or Facilities and/or hand over control of any of them to the Organisation. You shall promptly comply with such instructions of the Organisation.

11. Term and Termination, Retirement

11.1 Your employment will continue to be in force until the earlier of: (a) your reaching your age of retirement or, if applicable, superannuation – in each case in accordance with Organisation Policy; (b) termination of this Employment Contract in accordance with the provisions of this paragraph 11.

11.2 The Organisation may terminate your employment:

(a) Forthwith, if at any time the Organisation becomes aware that any of your Employee Information is materially false or inaccurate or is invalid. In such a case, the Organisation may at its sole discretion: (i) consider your employment void right from the beginning (in which case you shall return promptly on the Organisation's demand all Remuneration paid by the Organisation to you); (ii) terminate your employment; and/or (iii) take such other lawful action as it may consider necessary.

Even if the Organisation exercises its rights under this Agreement, the Organisation's rights as relevant under paragraphs 6.4, 6.5, 7.2, 9, 10.3, 11.2(a), 12.4, 13, 14, 16, 17, 18, and 20 shall continue to be in full force and operate in favour of the Organisation.

(b) for no cause by giving you a prior written notice of at least 3 months or paying you proportionate Remuneration for any shortfall in such notice period.

(c) forthwith if you: (i) breach Law and/or Organisation Policy; (ii) cause damage to the Organisation Assets or Facilities or loss to the Organisation; (iii) conduct yourself in a manner (or circumstance arise with regard to you) such that the Organisation, acting reasonably, considers it detrimental to its interest for you to continue in employment; (iv) cease to hold the necessary professional qualification and/or membership on the basis of which you were employed; (v) you are medically not fit to perform your work (where you have not remained present for work for a period exceeding an aggregate of 60 days in any calendar year for medical reasons, the Organisation may at its discretion deem that you are not medically fit to perform your work).

The Organisation is not obliged to pay you any Performance Incentive if the Organisation has terminated your employment in accordance with this paragraph 11.2(c) and you irrevocably agree to forfeit any such amounts.

11.3 You may resign from the Organisation's service by giving the Organisation a prior written notice of at least 3 months.

11.4 Where the Organisation considers necessary, the Organisation may suspend your employment by a written notice to you. You acknowledge this is in addition to any other right that the Organisation may have.

11.5 Promptly on the Organisation's request and in any case before ceasing to be the Organisation's employee, you shall: (a) return, handover or give effective control to the Organisation of: (i) all Organisation Assets and Facilities; and (ii) copies of Confidential Information; in each case, as have been entrusted to you or to which access has been provided to you or which are otherwise in your possession or control or which ought to have been in your possession or control; and (b) do a proper handover of the matters you were responsible for.

12. Conflict of Interest

12.1 You will devote your whole time and attention to your employment and work in a professional manner and at all times act in the Organisation's best interests. During the term of your employment, you shall not undertake or participate in any business, work, or or benefit that is rightfully due to the Organisation or which you have become aware of only through your employment with the Organisation.

12.3 You understand that your actions may impact the Organisation's reputation. You shall therefore at all times act in ethical manner and take all reasonable care not to bring disrepute to the Organisation through your conduct.

12.4 During the term of your employment and for at least 1 year thereafter: (a) you shall not induce or encourage any employee, contractor or service provider of the Organisation to terminate their engagement with the Organisation; (b) you shall not solicit or entice away any employee, contractor or service provider to provide services to you or anyone nominated by you.

13. Confidentiality

13.1 For the purpose of this paragraph 13, Information means information not excluded by paragraph 13.3 below and which is contained in or comprising any: (a) concepts, ideas, tools, trade secrets; (b) technical, financial, professional, commercial and business information and plans; (c) software (including source codes), software applications (including what is commonly called "apps"), documentation, writings, computer outputs, data, diagrams, specifications, models, samples; (d) know-how, processes, methodology, flow-charts, designs, products, services, utility models, prototypes, proofs of concept, proprietary information or other information, including Intellectual Property, and other documents, information and material whether written or oral of a business, of whatever nature in any way concerning, pertaining to or connected with the Organisation or other Deloitte Entities or any Client or third parties that the Organisation may from time to time deal with.

13.2 You acknowledge that as between you and the Organisation, the Information belongs to the Organisation. You agree: (a) to hold the Information in complete confidence and not disclose any part of it to any third party except with the prior written consent of the Organisation; (b) not to use the Information for any purpose other than as necessary for you to perform your work for the Organisation; (c) to use reasonable effort to prevent unauthorized access or use of the Information; (d) not to remove from the Organisation premises any without retaining any copies in your possession, custody or control, whether electronic or otherwise, and will on our request sign an undertaking confirming such return/deletion at the time of cessation of your employment; (g) unless precluded by the relevant authority, promptly notify the Organisation both verbally and in writing upon becoming legally compelled to disclose any of the Information so that the Organisation may seek a protective order or other appropriate remedy. If such order or remedy is not available in time the obligation of confidentiality shall be waived to the extent necessary for you to comply with the law.

13.3 The confidentiality obligations set out in this paragraph 13 above do not apply to information which: (a) is, at the time of the disclosure or subsequently becomes, generally known to the public through no default of yours; (b) you can prove has become rightfully known to you from a third party otherwise than in breach of law or confidentiality obligations; (c) you are able to prove was lawfully in your possession prior to its disclosure by the Organisation; or (d) you can prove is independently developed or created by you without reference to the Information.

13.4 You agree that financial remedies may be inadequate for your breach of this paragraph 13. Accordingly, the Organisation shall be entitled to injunctions, specific performance or other equitable relief for any threatened or actual breach of this paragraph 13 by you.

14. Intellectual Property Rights

14.1 For the purpose of this paragraph 14:

(a) Intellectual Property means all materials and intellectual property and assets pertaining or belonging to the Organisation or created, invented, developed, collated or compiled by you. Without limitation, Intellectual Property includes mask work rights, rights in databases, moral rights and any other intellectual property whether or not any of it is capable of being registered as such.

(b) Intellectual Property Rights means copyright and future copyright and neighbouring

- 14.2 If in the course of your employment you create, make or discover or participate in the creation, making or discovery of any Intellectual Property, you: (a) will promptly make complete written disclosure of such Intellectual Property to the Organisation; and (b) acknowledge that all such Intellectual Property comprise "works for hire" or "works created in the course of employment" and in any case belong exclusively to the Organisation or its nominee.

14.3 You shall do all things necessary to ensure that all Intellectual Property Rights in the Intellectual Property created by you vest exclusively in the Organisation. Accordingly, without limitation, you shall do the following at the Organisation's request and expense: (a) execute necessary documents, declarations, waivers, or written communications (including, powers of attorney or letters of authority in favour of the Organisation and/or its nominees to make applications for registration of such Intellectual Property in the Organisation's name and/or enforcement of the Organisation's Intellectual Property Rights in the Intellectual Property); (b) join the Organisation (at its expense) in any action that the Organisation may take to perfect or enforce the Organisation's rights in the Intellectual Property (and you acknowledge that the Organisation will be exclusively entitled to retain the benefits of any such enforcement action).

14.4 The Organisation's Intellectual Property Rights in the Intellectual Property covered by this paragraph 14, shall not be limited, impaired or extinguished by any non-use of any of them. The provisions of this paragraph 14 survive any expiry or termination of this Agreement or cessation of your employment.

14.5 Subject to paragraph 11.2(a) the Remuneration set out in this Agreement includes the full consideration (present and future) for the Intellectual Property Rights in favour of the Organisation set out in this paragraph 14. Without limitation, there are no royalties or any other payments that are payable by the Organisation to you in relation to the matters set out in this paragraph 14.

14.6 With respect to the Intellectual Property vested in the Organisation under this paragraph 14, you shall not do anything that is inconsistent with this paragraph 14 or otherwise take advantage of the legal possibility of staking a claim or asserting any rights in the Intellectual Property. To the extent you have moral rights in any Intellectual Property you waive all such rights to the fullest extent permitted by Law. To the extent Law does not permit such waiver, you undertake not to exercise your moral rights in a manner inconsistent with this paragraph 14.

15. Third Party Information and Property written authorization of such employer, person or entity and the prior written consent of the Organisation. If you use or disclose any such confidential information or intellectual property without prior consent, and any of the Deloitte Entities become the subject of any claim from a third party regarding such unauthorized use or disclosure, you agree to hold harmless and indemnify the Deloitte Entities for any legal defence costs and/or damages related to any such claim. You acknowledge that in the event of a breach of this paragraph, in addition to any other rights that the Organisation may have, you may be subject to disciplinary proceedings.

16. Authorization to Access Systems and Electronic Communications

16.1 You understand that while employed with the Organisation, you will use and have access to the Systems. You also acknowledge that a Deloitte Entity has the right at any time to access, retrieve, delete, monitor, examine, use and/or disclose your Electronic Communications and information from (or about) you and the content, without notice to you, and that such Electronic Communications are considered part of a Deloitte Entity's business and records and are not to be considered private or personal to you or any other Personnel. You further acknowledge that this right extends to Electronic Communications transmitted for either a business or personal purpose. You agree that you are authorized to access the Systems only for approved business purposes and occasional personal use if such use does not interfere with your work responsibilities and other required business activities, business operations, or Systems performance. However, you also acknowledge that such occasional personal use does not create an expectation of privacy as to any of your personal Electronic Communications and, as such, are Deloitte Property. You further acknowledge that you are not authorized to use the Systems for personal gain or any illegal or unethical use.

16.2 You agree that under no circumstances are you authorized to access any of the Systems for the purpose of: (a) obtaining Deloitte Property for any third party not authorized by the Organisation (including, without limitation, competitor of a Deloitte Entity); (b) transmitting Deloitte Property to you (e.g., emailing Confidential Information to your personal email address) or to a third party for purposes other than furthering the business objectives of a Deloitte Entity; (c) transferring, storing or otherwise transmitting any Confidential

Information to any cloud or other similar or technically or operationally equivalent storage which is not managed or administered by a Deloitte Entity. You are not authorized to access the Systems to download a Deloitte Entity's Confidential Information or other Deloitte Property to removable media such as a compact disk (CD), digital versatile disk (DVD), or thumb drive other than as authorized for furthering the business objectives of a Deloitte Entity. You agree, upon request from a Deloitte Entity that is based on its reasonable belief that (i) you may have Deloitte Property in electronic form in your possession, custody or control or (ii) you may not be in compliance with one or more professional requirements, rules, regulations, policies or practices applicable to the Organisation's employees, to allow a Deloitte Entity to inspect any of your personal or home computers, including smart phones, or tablet computers, or any device, media or location capable of storing electronic data, to determine whether any Deloitte Property resides on such computers, devices, media or locations and to permit a Deloitte Entity to remove such Deloitte Property.

17. Organisation Policies | Law, Etc.

17.1 In the course of your work you shall comply with: (a) Law; and (b) all of the Organisation's codes, policies, rules, regulations and terms as applicable or amended from time to time (together, Organisation Policy). The Organisation Policy includes, without limitation, those on code of conduct and ethics; dress code; prohibition of insider trading; gifts, entertainment and hospitality; anti-bribery and corruption; policies set out in the Deloitte Policy Manual (DPM); and independence and managing conflicts. The Organisation Policy may be suitably communicated to employees through available mediums (including those via the Organisation intranet) and may be revised by the Organisation from time to time. To the extent of any conflict between this Employment Contract and any Organisation Policy, the stricter requirement in favour of the Organisation as between the two shall apply. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, you especially acknowledge that since the Organisation provides professional services, independence and conflict checks are highly important and agree to comply with the Organisation Policy on independence (currently, DPM 1420) and prohibition on insider trading which currently require that:

- (a) You will use the Independence Monitoring System (whenever required as per the Organisation Policy on independence). You especially waive the right to privacy in relation to the use of the Independence Monitoring System, insofar as necessary to allow the system to operate effectively, and to allow inspection and monitoring of the information entered into it, limited to the extent not prohibited by Law.
 - (b) The Organization as a Deloitte Entity is required to comply with external regulatory and/or professional standards. In accordance with the same, as a condition to your joining the Organization and continued employment, you are required to complete a representation regarding your understanding of, and compliance with, independence and other matters, on a periodical basis, the details of which are provided in Section 1420 - Independence Policy of DPM. The representation should be made to the best of your knowledge and ability. It is your responsibility to consult on any matter should you be uncertain or have a question.

- (c) The representations made by you will be subject to an audit and may be reviewed by the Organization's representatives and shared with certain third parties. If you are selected for such an audit, you will need to submit certain personal financial records to the employer's internal audit team. Please be assured that the Organization fully intends to keep all information obtained through the audit process confidential and secure. You hereby give your consent to the Organization to use the information provided by you for such purposes as provided in the policies.

- (d) The requirements of certain independence matters will continue to apply after you ceasing to be an employee in accordance with Independence Policy. In terms of these requirements, you need to obtain approval from the Organisation's Director of Independence (DOI) before accepting any employment relationship (including directorships) if the prospective employment relationship (including directorships) is with an audit client (including related entities of such audit client), till completion of one audit subsequent to the period, when you have rendered professional services to such audit client (including related entities of such audit client) and the audit report has been filed with the relevant regulatory authorities. You acknowledge this is to ensure compliance with the applicable cooling-off period independence requirements.

- (e) In the event you (i) do not cooperate or comply with the independence requirements, or (ii) do not complete the necessary representations, or (iii) make inaccurate representation(s), you may be subject to disciplinary action, including and up to termination of employment with the Organization.

- (f) The following restriction shall continue to apply to you after termination of employment:

- (g) To be in compliance with Organisation's Code of Conduct for Prevention of Insider Trading and the applicable insider trading regulations, you need to refrain from trading in the securities on any listed or proposed to be listed entity in relation to which you had access to Unpublished Price Sensitive Information and in respect of which the trading restrictions continue after the date of you ceasing to be the employee. Capitalised terms to have the meaning given to them in the applicable Organization Policy.

Page 21 of 27

(h) After your employment ceases, for the period which you hold capital balances in the Organization or receive any type of retirement benefit and/or termination payment from the Organization, whichever period is longer, you must notify and obtain prior written approval from DOI prior to accepting any new appointments or employment.

(i) In the event you (i) do not cooperate or comply with the independence requirements, or (ii) do not complete the necessary representations, or (iii) make inaccurate representation(s), you may be subject to disciplinary action, including and up to termination of employment with the Organization.

(j) The following restriction shall continue to apply to you after termination of employment: You acknowledge and agree that without limiting your responsibility to comply with all applicable laws and regulations in general, it is your responsibility to comply with the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 ("Regulations") and the LLP's Code of Conduct for Prevention of Insider Trading, both as amended from time to time, and in furtherance thereof, shall, amongst other things: (a) refrain from trading in securities of any listed / to be listed entity for which you are a connected person or in possession of or having access to unpublished price sensitive information or (b) procure or communicate or cause the procurement or communication of such information except where such procurement or communication is in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations. You acknowledge that these restrictions are also applicable mutatis mutandis to your immediate relatives.

For your immediate reference, the definitions of "immediate relative" and "unpublished price sensitive information" (as currently defined in the Regulations) are provided below: (Note: In case these definitions are amended by the Regulations, the amended definitions shall apply)

"immediate relative" means a spouse of a person, and includes parent, sibling, and child of such person or of the spouse, any of whom is either dependent financially on such person, or consults such person in taking decisions relating to trading in securities".

"unpublished price sensitive information" means any information, relating to a company or its securities, directly or indirectly, that is not generally available which upon becoming generally available, is likely to materially affect the price of the securities and shall, ordinarily including but not restricted to, information relating to the following:

- (i) financial results;
- (ii) dividends;
- (iii) change in capital structure;
- (iv) mergers, demergers, acquisitions, delistings, disposals and expansion of business and such other transactions;
- (v) changes in key managerial personnel; and
- (vi) material events in accordance with the listing agreements.* The above list is only illustrative and not exhaustive.

17.2 You acknowledge it is your responsibility to: (a) understand the Law applying to your work and, where necessary, seek guidance from your manager or the Organisation management; and (b) update yourself of the Organisation Policy as applicable.

17.3 The Organisation may request you for your written acceptance of Organisation Policy or enter into specific agreements, undertakings, confirmation or declarations with respect to any of the Organisation Policy. You understand that these are only for record and regardless of your providing the Organisation with written acceptance, the Organisation Policy applies to you.

18. Personal Information and Sensitive Personal Information

18.1 In addition to paragraph 2.2, you authorise and permit the Organisation to share your personal information and, where required, sensitive personal information with other Deloitte Entities, Clients or any other third party as may be reasonably required for the purpose of or in connection with the conduct of the Organisation's professional business.

19. Changes, Declarations, Confirmation

You acknowledge that changes may be needed to this Employment Contract and/or the Organisation Policy depending on business and market needs from time to time. The Organisation may by a general or specific notice revise any of these.

At the time of commencement of your employment or thereafter the Organisation may from time to time request you to provide declarations, confirmations or representations as the Organisation amount includes your relocation budget as well as estimated service or tax fees that may apply. The relocation policy is structured to provide flexibility based on your personal needs. You will be able to allocate your available funds toward relocation services up the maximum budget amount and within the parameters of the Relocation Policy.

Oracle has partnered with SIRVA for relocation in Japan, APAC and India. Your manager will initiate your relocation with SIRVA after an Oracle purchase order has been created and approved. You will be contacted by SIRVA within 24 hours of your relocation authorization. If you are not contacted by SIRVA within a few days, please contact your Oracle manager to ensure s/he has completed the necessary steps to authorize your relocation.

Do not take any steps to initiate your own relocation prior to speaking to SIRVA. Doing so may result in a refusal to reimburse associated costs. SIRVA will review the Oracle JAPAC and India Relocation Policy and processes with you and help you manage the relocation budget. Before receiving any relocation assistance you will be required to sign and return a Relocation Agreement (provided and collected by SIRVA).

This offer is our formal contract and must be read and accepted in conjunction with the Employment Agreement & Employment Benefits, Proprietary Agreement and Disclosure of Interest. In addition to these terms and conditions stated in the above documents, there are other company policies and procedures which you agree to observe and follow during your employment with Oracle. These company policies and procedures may be varied from time to time.

This offer of employment is contingent upon no adverse information being obtained during reference checking with previous employers, approval of your employment / immigration pass application (if applicable) and upon satisfactory clearance of criminal check prior to commencement of employment. If you fail any of the above checks, validation or approval process, or do not cooperate or provide assistance in undergoing such checks, validation or approval process, this offer will immediately lapse without any claim against, or liability to Oracle.

This offer is made with the explicit understanding that you will pass the qualifying examination in the first attempt and that you will not have any arrears till the final examination. In the event that you do not satisfy any of the aforesaid conditions, the Company may withdraw its offer of employment and revoke the appointment at any time without compensation. Your on-board date will be at your Hiring Manager's discretion, and the Hiring Manager's decision will be final.

By accepting this offer you confirm that there are no contractual or other legal impediments which may prevent you commencing employment with the Company. Upon acceptance by you, this offer shall form the employment agreement between you and the Company.

On your day of commencement you will be required to sign in all pages including Employment Agreement for our records, a copy of the offer and the Proprietary Information Agreement.

The letter of offer is valid for two (2) weeks from the date hereof for conveying your acceptance and conditional on confirmation by you that you will commence employment on the date specified by your Manager Rahul Bhosle (unless agreed otherwise by your Manager).

This offer will automatically lapse if not accepted within two (2) weeks from the date hereof.

We look forward to having you with us in our team.

Yours Sincerely,
For and on behalf of Oracle Financial Services Software Limited

Dear Pushkar,

Your Internship by J.P. Morgan

Congratulations on joining the J.P. Morgan family. We are pleased to confirm your internship with J.P. Morgan Services India Private Limited (the "Company").

You will find your personal internship terms outlined in Appendix A with general internship terms and conditions in Appendix B. Please note these terms and conditions supersede any verbal discussions you may have previously had with any JPMorgan Chase employee with regards to your internship arrangements.

A number of important policies will apply to your internship with the Company, including the Personal Account Dealing Policy and the Code of Conduct. We provide more information about these policies in Appendix C and it is essential that you carefully read and understand their requirements. By signing this letter, you confirm that you have read, understood and agree to be bound by these policies. In addition, you will be required to abide by all other Company policies and regulations (including JPMorgan Chase group of companies (the "Group") policies) and with applicable law.

Should you have queries in relation to your employment terms, your benefits or Company policies, please contact our HR Answers hotline at 000 800 440 5210 (local toll free) or +1 212-552-5100 (international).

Please be reminded your internship terms should be treated with the strictest confidence. To accept this offer of internship, please click on the 'Accept' button at the bottom of this page on or before 28-Nov-2022.

We are excited to welcome you to our Company and take this opportunity to wish you every success in taking this next step of your career with us.

Appendix A – PERSONAL INTERNSHIP TERMS AND CONDITIONS

A1. Title/Category

You will join us as an intern in the CIB Research & Analytics Program at JPMorgan Chase & Co., and will carry out your role while physically present in the J.P. Morgan offices in Mumbai, India.

A2. Internship Commencement Date

Your internship shall begin on 16-Jan-2023 ("Start Date") and shall continue, subject to the remaining terms of this agreement, until it terminates on 30-Jun-2023 ("End Date") without the need for notice, unless previously terminated by either party pursuant to paragraph 4 of Appendix B.

In addition to the conditions set out in paragraph 1 of Appendix B, your offer is subject to you successfully meeting the educational criteria that has already been communicated to you in writing.

A3. Working Hours

Your manager will assign you specific working hours, often during the Company's normal office hours. Depending on the needs of your department, however, you may be required to work outside the official hours to fulfil your duties.

A4. Stipend

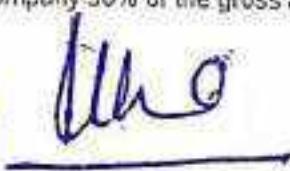

Your stipend will be INR 60,000/- per month.

Relocation Lump Sum

You will receive an additional, one-time lump sum of INR 85000 ("the Additional Sum") gross with your first stipend. This payment will be made to you in the first available payroll after you join the Company. You should be aware that this might be in the month of joining or the following month depending on your commencement date and when all necessary data is received. This is to assist with any relocation expenses you may incur prior to joining.

If you leave the Internship or your internship is terminated for any reason, you must repay to the Company the Additional Sum on a pro-rated basis as set out below:

If your internship period is longer than 3 months and you leave the internship or your internship is terminated for any reason within three months of your date of commencement you must repay to the Company 100% of the gross amount of the Additional Sum
If your Internship period is longer than 3 months and you leave the internship or your internship is terminated for any reason more than three months but within twelve months of your date of commencement you must repay to the Company 50% of the gross amount of

the Additional Sum

If your internship period is less than 3 months and you leave the internship or your internship is terminated for any reason before completion of your internship period you must repay the Company 100% of the gross amount of the Additional Sum.

A5. Probationary Period

Your internship will be subject to a probation period as outlined in paragraph 4.3 of Appendix B.

A6. Leave Entitlement

A6.1 Annual Leave:

You are entitled to 20 working days of annual leave with full pay in every calendar year, pro-rated according to the duration of your employment in accordance with the Company's Human Resources Policies and applicable law. If you work part-time hours, your annual leave entitlement will be pro-rated to reflect your part-time hours worked.

A6.2 Other Leave

You can find further details of other leave entitlements in paragraph 5 of Appendix B.

A7. Benefits

You will not be entitled to join the Company's benefits programs, given the short length of your fixed-term contract.

A8. Retirement Scheme

You are not eligible for retirement benefits.

A9. Notice Period

During your probationary period, starting the day you join the Company, either you or the Company may terminate your employment with at least 14 days' written notice or payment of wages in lieu of such notice period.

After the probationary period, either party can terminate the employment by giving the other party 30 Days written notice ("Notice Period") or by the Company making a payment in lieu of Notice Period.

APPENDIX B – GENERAL INTERNSHIP TERMS AND CONDITIONS

B1. Internship

B1.1 Your internship is subject to:

- a) you being able to carry out your role in India while being able to be physically present in an JPMC office in Mumbai, India and obtaining and maintaining throughout your entire period of internship a valid work permit and such other permission, license or registration as may from time to time be necessary to enable you to carry out your duties and continue your internship;
- b) the completion of all pre-employment screening processes to the satisfaction of the Company, including obtaining education verification, background references and checks as sought and the execution of any other forms necessary for internship, etc.; and
- c) you being legally able to work with the Company. You undertake to disclose any internship or contractual post-internship restraints to which you are subject and which may, and will continue to, affect your internship with us and represent and warrant that:
 - ix. by entering into internship with the Company and performing the duties set out in this letter, you will not be in breach of any express or implied term of any internship or other agreement or arrangement to which you are party;
 - i. you have not taken or otherwise misappropriated and you do not have in your possession or control any confidential and proprietary information belonging to any of your prior employers, or any third party providing services to your prior employer, or connected with or derived from your services to prior employers and you have returned to all prior employers any and all such confidential or proprietary information; and
 - ii. you are not subject to any other internship, including being subject to garden leave or any contractual post-internship restraints.

You shall indemnify and hold harmless the Company from any and all claims arising from any breach of the warranties in this paragraph B1.

- B1.2 Whilst you and/or the Company may have agreed a tentative date of commencement of Internship with the Company, you will not, unless the Company decides otherwise, be able to commence internship with the Company without our receipt of completed and satisfactory results from our pre-employment screening process.
- B1.3 You may be required to provide services for other members of the Group throughout your internship. When providing these services, you may from time to time be required to travel and work in different locations within and outside your hiring location.

B1.4 You will not undertake outside employment or activities with or without remuneration, unless you have the prior written approval of senior management of the Company or its delegate. Outside activities may include (but are not limited to) activities as a director, officer, partner, sole proprietor, consultant or controlling stockholder of any business. If your request to undertake outside activity is not approved by management and you decide to engage in the activity, your internship may be terminated without any notice or compensation.

B2. Remuneration

B2.1 We will deposit your stipend (paragraph 4 of Appendix A) on or around the 30th of each month.

B2.2 You will be responsible for all tax liabilities world-wide arising out of payments pursuant to your internship with the Company.

B2.3 Any payment of salary or bonus by, or other sum due to you from the Company shall be subject to any and all withholding or deduction (for, including but not limited to, any taxes, contributions, repayments or other sums which you have agreed that the Company may withhold/deduct or which the Company is obliged or entitled to withhold/deduct from time to time under any applicable law), and the Company shall in such case be entitled to withhold, deduct or retain the amount of such tax, withholding or deduction from any sum payable to you.

B3. Incentive Compensation

For this position, you won't be eligible for incentive awards under the JPMorgan Chase Performance-Based Incentive Compensation Plan or any other non-annual incentive compensation plan.

B4. Termination

B4.1 Your internship may be terminated as follows:

- a) By either party giving to the other prior written notice of at least the period specified, as applicable, in paragraph 9 in Appendix A (the "Notice Period"), or by the Company making a payment in lieu of notice for all or part of such Notice Period of an amount equal to basic salary you would have been entitled to receive during the Notice period or part of the Notice Period.
- b) By the Company at any time without notice or compensation if you:
 - i) are guilty of fraud, dishonesty or misconduct which is inconsistent with the due and faithful discharge of your duties;

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "M. S." followed by a stylized line.

- ii) seriously breach the Code of Conduct and any other Company policies;
- iii) disobey the Company's lawful and reasonable instructions/requirements;
- iv) habitually neglect your duties; or
- v) otherwise commit a material or repeated breach of your internship terms or any of the Company's or Group's policies.

B4.2 During any Notice Period, the Company may put you on "garden leave" and may, amongst other things, do any or a combination of the following:

- (a) suspend you from the performance of any duties or assign you alternative duties;
- (b) exclude you from any premises of the Company or any of the Group companies and/or require you to work from another location;
- (c) require that you have no or limited contact or communication, other than purely social contact, with any employees, officers, directors, agents or consultants of the Company or any other member of the Group;
- (d) require that you have no or limited contact or communication with any customer or client of the Company or any other member of the Group;
- (e) remove your access to the Company premises and computer systems;
- (f) require that you return any property belonging to the Company under paragraph 7 in this Appendix;
- (g) require you not to do any act or thing, or make or cause to be made, any statement reasonably likely to damage the business or reputation of the Company or the Group.

B4.3 If paragraph 5 of Appendix A states that your employment is subject to probation, your probation period will be the first 3 months of employment, which you agree is reasonable, and fair, in light of the responsibilities of the role.

B4.4 At its sole discretion, the Company may notify you of an extension to your probationary period.

B4.5 All your duties (whether express or implied) under your internship and this letter, including without limitation your duty of fidelity, good faith, exclusive service and duties in relation to the Group's confidential information shall continue throughout the Notice Period including any period that you are on garden-leave.

B4.6 During any Notice Period:

- (a) you will provide such assistance as the Company may require to effect an orderly handover of your duties and responsibilities to any individual appointed by the Company or any of the Group Companies to take over your role or responsibilities; and
- (b) you shall make yourself available to deal with requests for information, provide assistance, be available for meetings and to advise on matters relating to work.

B5. Leave

B5.1 Annual Leave

- (a) You will be entitled to annual leave with full pay in every calendar year – please see paragraph 6 of Appendix A, pro-rated according to the duration of your employment. The Company will be entitled to determine when annual leave is taken, although as far as possible, arrangements will be made to suit your convenience. Annual leave entitlement for each calendar year must be taken in that calendar year and only in exceptional circumstances can annual leave (other than unused statutory entitlement, if any) be carried forward into the following calendar year. All annual leave days taken will be deducted first from the statutory entitlement accumulation.
- (b) After a notice of termination has been given pursuant to paragraph B4.1 of this Appendix, you will not be entitled to take any annual leave without the express consent of the Company provided after notice of termination has been given.
- (c) You must comply with the Company's 'consecutive days leave' policies.

B5.2 Sick Leave

Any sick leave entitlement will be subject to relevant legislation and J.P. Morgan internal policies that are in force and amended from time to time. More details are set out in the me@jpmc website, which will be accessible to you upon commencement of your employment.

B5.3 Suspension Leave

The Company has the right to suspend you from your work duties with full pay when it considers it necessary to investigate any allegation of misconduct or impropriety on your part. The Company can exercise this right at its sole discretion, acting in good faith.

B6. Confidentiality

You acknowledge that a vast amount of privileged and confidential information will be disclosed to you in course of your internship with the Company and during your internship with the Company and thereafter, you shall keep secret and shall not at any time (whether during or after the period of your internship) use for your own or another's advantage, or reveal to any person, firm or company, any of the trade secrets, business methods and plans, financial matters, client lists, investments, marketing plans, personnel matters or other information which you knew or reasonably ought to have known to be confidential concerning the business or affairs of the Company or any other member of the Group or any of their related companies, clients or suppliers.

You agree to abide by the specific provisions on the use of confidential information in the Company's policies and Group code of conduct.

The restriction contained in this paragraph shall not apply to any disclosure or use authorised by the Company or required by law.

B7. Return of Company Property

You acknowledge that any privileged or confidential information disclosed to you in the course of your internship with the Company remains the exclusive property of the Company and whenever requested by the Company and/or Group and in any event upon the termination of your internship, you will promptly deliver to the Company and/or Group all documents and other materials (whether originals or copies or in hard copy or electronic form) concerning the Company and/or Group or their respective clients and suppliers, which may have been prepared by you or have come into your possession, custody or control in the course of your internship with the Company. This includes, without limitation, any confidential information, lists of clients or suppliers, correspondence, electronic equipment, computer software or hardware, staff identity cards card and other property used in connection with the operations of the Company and/or Group. You will not be entitled to, and will not retain, any copies, title and copyright in such correspondence and other documents, papers, records and property are vested in the Company and/or Group.

B8. Post internship Restrictions

- B8.1 For a period of three months commencing on the Relevant Date, you shall not directly or indirectly (whether on your own account, for or with any other person, firm or company) solicit or endeavor to entice away from the Company or any other Group Company any Critical Person.
- B8.2 For a period of three months commencing on the Relevant Date, you shall not directly or indirectly (whether on your own account, for or with any other person, firm or company) solicit or endeavor to entice away from the Company or any other Group Company the business or custom of any Restricted Client.
- B8.3 The duration of the restrictions will be reduced by any period of notice that you work out or

B8.4 In this paragraph B8:

- a) "Critical Person" means any person who was an employee or director of the Company or any other Group Company at any time within one year prior to the Relevant Date who had access to trade secrets or confidential information of the Company or any other Group Company. This includes knowledge of, involvement with or influence over suppliers or clients of the Company or any other Group Company with whom you worked at any time during that period.
- b) "Group Company" means the Company, its ultimate holding company, any subsidiary of the Company and any holding company from time to time. "Subsidiary" and "holding company" shall have the same meaning as in the relevant companies' legislation.
- c) "Restricted Client" means any person:
 - i. who in the one year before the Relevant Date was a client of, or has dealt with, the Company or any other Group Company; and
 - ii. with whose custom or business you, or persons reporting to you, were personally involved with during the period of one year prior to the Relevant Date
 - iii. but does not include publicly known institutional clients which you serve subsequent to your internship with the Company without the use of confidential or proprietary information of the Company and the Group.
- d) "Relevant Date" means the date your internship with the Company or the Group terminates for whatever reason.

B8.5 You acknowledge and agree:

- a) that each of the foregoing paragraphs constitutes an entirely separate and independent restriction on you;
- b) that the duration, extent and application of each restrictions, obligations and undertakings are reasonable and necessary to protect legitimate interests of the Company and the Group, considering, among other things, that the Company has commercial dealings with business partners throughout the world and that you will regularly be dealing with such partners as part of your duties and you understand that it does not by any means prevent you from earning a living in a satisfactory way;
- c) that, if any such restriction (or parts of a restriction) shall be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be void or unenforceable, the validity or enforceability of the remaining restrictions (or parts of a restriction) shall remain in full force and effect as if the unenforceable parts had been deleted. Damages may be an inadequate compensation for breach of any of the restrictions in this paragraph and, subject to a court's discretion, in the event of any actual or threatened breach of any provision of this paragraph, you agree that the Company shall be entitled to (on behalf of itself and on behalf of any other Group Company) restrain, by injunction, equitable relief or similar remedy, any conduct or threatened conduct by you. You expressly submit to the jurisdiction of any court of competent jurisdiction for this purpose, and in the event you receive from any person an offer of employment (whether oral or in writing and whether accepted or not), either during your internship or the continuation in force of all or any of the restrictions applicable to you, whether pursuant to this letter or the Code of Conduct, you shall provide to the person making such an offer of employment a full and accurate copy of the then current restrictions applicable to you.

- d) that any benefit given or deemed to be given by you to the Group under the terms of this paragraph is received and held on trust by the Company for the relevant Group Company. You will enter into appropriate restrictive covenants directly with other Group Companies if asked to do so by the Company.
- e) that your internship with the Company and the compensation paid and/or payable to you by the Company shall be sufficient consideration for the purposes of this clause. You further agree and acknowledge that the limitations as to time and the character or nature placed in this clause are reasonable and fair and will not preclude you from earning a livelihood, nor will they unreasonably impose limitations on your ability to earn a living.
- f) that this offer letter constitutes a valid, legally binding and enforceable obligation on you and this document is not in violation of any applicable law.
- g) that any breach or threat of breach on your part of any one of such obligations and/or undertakings would cause serious harm to the Company or the Group which may then institute any legal recourse against you that is deemed appropriate and/or recourse in damages, without further notice or delay.
- i) in addition, you agree and acknowledge that the potential harm to the Company of the non-enforcement of this clause outweighs any potential harm to you and that you have given careful consideration to the restraints imposed upon you by this clause and that you are in full agreement as to their necessity for the reasonable and proper protection of the Company's interests. You expressly acknowledge and agree that each and every restraint imposed by this clause is reasonable with respect to subject matter, time period and geographical area.

B9. Code of Conduct and Staff Regulations and Affirmation

B9.1 It is a condition of your continuing internship and it is your obligation that you comply with:

(a) the Code of Conduct (as amended from time to time or superseded). At the time of acceptance of the offer of internship and on a periodic basis, you will be required to sign an affirmation (or reaffirmation) confirming your understanding and compliance with the provisions of the Code of Conduct; and

(b) the Company's other internal policies and procedures and all relevant policies and procedures for the line of business in which you are to undertake work.

B9.2 The Company shall be entitled at any time to amend the Company's internal policies and procedures (including but not limited to the Code of Conduct), the benefits set out in the Appendices and other staff regulations, as well as to put in place new policies as the Company sees fit. Any such amendments shall be notified in writing to each employee and shall on provision of such notice, become legally binding.

B9.3 The Company's Human Resources work policies are set out in the me@jpmc website, as amended from time to time. Please take time to familiarise yourself with these policies when you begin your internship.

B9.4 To the extent that the contents of policies or procedures refer to obligations on the Company, you agree that they are guides only and are not contractual terms, conditions or representations on which you rely.

B10. Working Hours

B10.1 Your total working hours (including break(s)) is 40 hours per working week during the tenure of your internship and you should attend office 5 days every working week. Your working hours may be revised at the discretion of the Company.

B11. Retirement Benefits

You are not eligible for retirement benefits.

B12. Contract Execution

B12.1 You acknowledge and agree that:

(a) This letter may be delivered in a digital or physical format. Subject to any applicable law, where the letter is provided in a digital format, you acknowledge and agree that it is being executed electronically and that it is enforceable.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Mukesh", written over a blue horizontal line.

- (b) You have read and understood the terms of this letter and have been provided with an opportunity to review and discuss the terms of it with advisors, if you so desire.
- (c) Should any further assurances be required or sought by the Company, you shall in good faith perform such further actions (including executing a physical copy of this letter)

B13. Governing Law and Jurisdiction

This letter and any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with it or its subject matter or formation (including non-contractual disputes or claims) shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of India. You and the Company submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the Mumbai, Maharashtra courts in relation to any dispute arising in connection with your internship and this letter.

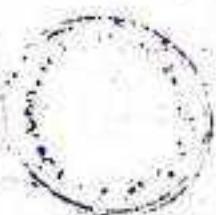

APPENDIX C - SYSTEMS MONITORING ACTIVITIES AND CROSS-BORDER TRANSFERS, PERSONAL ACCOUNT DEALING POLICY, AND CODE OF CONDUCT

Appendix: Systems Monitoring Activities and Cross-Border Transfers:

The following provides a summary of how JPMorgan Chase & Co., its affiliates and its subsidiaries and the entity that employs you, or for which you provide services (collectively, "JPMC"), conducts Systems monitoring. JPMC may conduct monitoring to the extent permitted by applicable law.

JPMC conducts monitoring of JPMC's physical facilities and its equipment and systems (collectively, the "Systems"). System monitoring applies to your JPMC equipment, your personal equipment when accessing the Systems, and the communications, information, and materials conveyed or accessed using the Systems. Monitoring activities may include the monitoring and logging of traffic and usage data of all electronic communications; monitoring of telephone calls to or from JPMC work telephones as permitted by applicable laws and subject to any required notices; monitoring of the contents of electronic communications, files, databases, applications, and internet usage; and logging hours worked and physical presence at JPMC's facilities if applicable. JPMC may at all times monitor, access, retrieve, record and review information obtained from the monitoring activities for various purposes, such as preventing and investigating activities that may violate JPMC's policies and ensuring compliance with legal or regulatory obligations. While conducting monitoring activities, JPMC may obtain and process personal information about you and others that may reside on the Systems.

The monitoring activities (including JPMC's collection and processing of personal or other information) are required for purposes of your employment or work assignment to promote adherence to applicable policies and regulations. Subject to applicable laws and regulations, if you object to this processing, JPMC may prohibit you from using the Systems; terminate offers of employment or work assignment; and, for employees, take disciplinary action against you, up to and including termination of your employment with JPMC.

In addition to the monitoring activities discussed above, JPMC may obtain and store other information related to your employment or other working relationship, such as your compensation information, performance information, benefits information and other workplace-related data. JPMC may transfer such information, and the information it obtains in connection with monitoring activities, to countries other than the country in which the information originally was collected, including to the United States.

Understanding Obligations under the Firm's Personal Account Dealing Policy (PAD):

The Personal Account Dealing Policy (Policy) of JPMorgan Chase & Co. (firm or JPMC) is designed to help prevent and detect violations of securities laws and industry conduct standards and to minimize actual or perceived conflicts of interest that could arise due to personal investing activities.

PAD Compliance will notify you if the position you are being offered is considered to be subject to the Policy. You will remain subject for the duration of your time working in a subject group, unless notified otherwise of a change in subject status. Unless otherwise notified, you will continue to be subject to the provisions of the Policy even during leaves of absence from the firm, including, but not limited to, garden leave or medical leave.

You as well as your Connected Persons are subject to the provisions of this Policy and will need to be familiar with the obligations set forth in this policy. Connected Persons includes your spouse, domestic partner or minor children (even if financially independent) as well as anyone to whom you provide significant financial support or for which you, or anyone listed above, has or shares the power, directly or indirectly, to make investment decisions.

Once subject to the Policy, you must disclose and certify your Covered Accounts (which include accounts of your Connected Persons). You will be required to maintain your self-directed Covered Accounts with one of the firm's Approved Brokers and pre-clear all purchases, sales, pledges and gifts (received and given) of publicly traded and privately held financial instruments, unless listed as specifically exempt. Pre-approval confirmations must be received prior to executing the trade or investment. The firm may impose periodic restrictions on personal trading in certain financial securities. These restrictions can apply to all firm subject Workforce Members and their Connected Persons or may be limited to certain groups. Subject Workforce Members and their Connected Persons are not permitted to recommend or transact in the financial instruments of an issuer while in the possession of material non-public information (MNPI) regarding that issuer.

If you are a seasonal or short term employee the following requirements will apply:

JPMorgan Chase requires that seasonal workers refrain from trading in Covered Accounts for the time period that you are employed in a short term training program. Please verify that you will

comply with the following personal trading requirements:

1. For the duration of the short term program I am joining I will not trade in any of my Covered Accounts.
2. I understand that the Firm has the right to request account information for any of my Covered Accounts.
3. If there is an extenuating circumstance that would compel me to place a trade in my Covered Accounts, I will obtain pre-approval of the trade by the Personal Account Dealing Group and I would be responsible for supplying all confirmations and statements to the Personal Account Dealing Group for that trade.

*The term Covered Accounts refers to any securities accounts no matter where they are located and includes, but is not limited to, those accounts that are established, maintained or controlled (either directly or indirectly) by you, your spouse, domestic partner or minor children (even if financially independent), anyone to whom you provide significant financial support, and in which the employee has a direct or indirect financial interest.

Global Personal Trading Policy:

The Personal Account Dealing of JPMorgan Chase & Co. is designed to help prevent and detect violations of securities laws and industry conduct standards and to minimize actual or perceived conflicts of interest that could arise due to personal investing activities. This Policy includes requirements for disclosing Covered Accounts, maintaining certain accounts at one of the firm's Approved Brokers, preclearing trades, and restrictions and prohibitions on certain types of trading activity. This Policy is subject to any applicable local laws and rules and should be read in conjunction with Supplements (regional/LOB) as well as the firm's Code of Conduct.

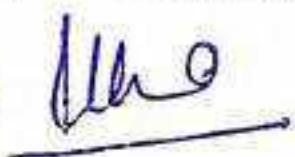

Conflict of Interests and Outside Interests:

Under JPMorgan Chase & Co.'s (JPMC) Code of Conduct, employees are responsible for avoiding activities or relationships that might affect their objectivity in making decisions as an employee. Employees are not permitted to allow their personal interest to conflict, or appear to conflict, with their JPMC role and responsibilities.

Outside Interests include second jobs, not for profit activities, government positions, and positions with external companies and organizations as a director, officer, advisor, sole proprietor, consultant or owner of any business. Outside Interests may result in an actual or perceived conflict of interest. Where actual or potential conflicts of interest cannot be mitigated, you may be required to discontinue the activity or dissolve your investment.

Employees are required to seek preclearance prior to engaging in Outside Interests or immediately upon joining JPMC. Where preclearance is not required, employee must adhere to all restrictions and conditions outlined in Section 5 and 6 of the Outside Interest Policy.

Conflicts of interests may also arise from: (1) personal and business relationships; (2) the exchange of gifts and business hospitality; (3) political engagement; and (4) personal finances. Employees should avoid activities or relationships that might affect their objectivity in making decisions on behalf of JPMC or undermine their credibility. Employees may never place personal interests ahead of our clients' interests. All potential and actual conflicts must be escalated to your manager for review and mitigation.

Acceptance and Code Affirmation:

Upon signing this letter I accept the terms and conditions described above.

I hereby affirm that I have read, understand, and am in compliance with the JPMorgan Chase ("JPMC") Code of Conduct and all internal JPMC policies that apply to me. I agree, as a condition of my employment, to remain in compliance with the Code of Conduct and all applicable JPMC policies.

I understand that I must conduct myself in a way that is consistent with the Code of Conduct, demonstrating compliance with the principles and intent of the Code of Conduct, and applicable laws and regulations.

I also affirm that I have reported any potential or actual violations of the Code of Conduct, JPMC policies, or laws or regulations applicable to JPMC's business, as required by the Code of Conduct. I understand that failure to do so can result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

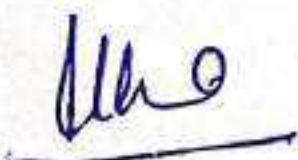

I understand that the Code of Conduct may be updated periodically, as necessary; and that the current version is posted on the JPMorgan Chase intranet as well as on its public website.

Independent Auditor Tax Services to Employees of JPMorgan Chase and its Affiliates:

To be in compliance with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (PCAOB) Rule 3523, it is JPMorgan Chase's (JPMC) policy that PricewaterhouseCoopers (PwC) cannot provide any tax services to employees of JPMC or any of its controlled entities (hereafter referred to as JPMC employee). This restriction is regardless of whether the individual is in a financial reporting oversight role or not, and whether PwC is engaged by the individual or by JPMC. PwC is also prohibited from providing any tax services to a spouse of a JPMC employee if the work is related to a joint tax return. Exceptions to this policy will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis and will require the approval of the JPMC Controller.

Virtuverse Program

As part of the onboarding process, you will be required to undergo an internship program. Details regarding the same are as follows:

1. Details:

- I. Our flagship internship programme 'Virtuverse' is designed to provide you access to vast domain knowledge on Machine Learning, Big Data etc.
- II. This program aims to be both challenging and rewarding while keeping the current guidelines issued by the Ministry of Health.

2. During the internship:

- I. The internship program is for a duration of (4) four months from the date of joining mentioned above.
- II. During this period, you are expected to use your own laptop. Quantiphi's IT team will have the right to implement all necessary changes as per the Company's security policy and requirements. Please ensure that your laptop is in proper working condition. In case you do not have a laptop, you will be expected to arrange (borrow / rent) one before the start of your internship.

3. Performance Evaluation:

- I. During this internship period, your performance will be subject to continuous evaluation.
- II. Post completion of your internship period, your absorption in the company as a full-time employee shall either be confirmed or if your performance is found unsatisfactory, the internship shall be terminated, both of which shall be done by written intimation to you and which will be at the sole discretion of the Company.

4. Compensation during the internship:

- I. The remuneration of your internship during your tenure in the company on a cost-to-company basis shall be Rs.23000 per month (Rupees Twenty Three Thousand Only per month)
- II. You will be eligible for internet reimbursement of Rs. 600/- per month for your internship period.

5. Notice Period during the internship:

This Contract is terminable by either party giving one month's notice period for no cause. During the period of the internship, the company can terminate the contract by giving one week's notice. At its sole discretion, the Company may consider accepting payment in lieu of a notice period not served by an employee. If an employee has any unutilized leaves, adjustment of the same against any shortfall in the notice period may also be considered at the Company's sole discretion.

6. Offer Confirmation:

This offer is made with the explicit understanding that you will pass the qualifying examination in the first attempt and that you will not have any future(s) till the final examination. In the event that you do not satisfy any of the aforesaid conditions, the Company may withdraw its offer of employment and revoke the appointment at the P.O. without compensation.

Dear Amogh,

Your Internship by J.P. Morgan

Congratulations on joining the J.P. Morgan family. We are pleased to confirm your internship with J.P. Morgan Services India Private Limited (the "Company").

You will find your personal internship terms outlined in Appendix A with general internship terms and conditions in Appendix B. Please note these terms and conditions supersede any verbal discussions you may have previously had with any JPMorgan Chase employee with regards to your internship arrangements.

A number of important policies will apply to your internship with the Company, including the Personal Account Dealing Policy and the Code of Conduct. We provide more information about these policies in Appendix C and it is essential that you carefully read and understand their requirements. By signing this letter, you confirm that you have read, understood and agree to be bound by these policies. In addition, you will be required to abide by all other Company policies and regulations (including JPMorgan Chase group of companies (the "Group") policies) and with applicable law.

Should you have queries in relation to your employment terms, your benefits or Company policies, please contact our HR Answers hotline at 000 800 440 5210 (local toll free) or +1 212-552-5100 (international).

Please be reminded your internship terms should be treated with the strictest confidence. To accept this offer of internship, please click on the 'Accept' button at the bottom of this page on or before 13-Dec-2022.

We are excited to welcome you to our Company and take this opportunity to wish you every success in taking this next step of your career with us.

Appendix A – PERSONAL INTERNSHIP TERMS AND CONDITIONS

A1. Title/Category

You will join us as an intern in the Software Engineer Program at JPMorgan Chase & Co., and will carry out your role while physically present in the J.P. Morgan offices in Mumbai, India.

A2. Internship Commencement Date

Your internship shall begin on 06-Feb-2023 ("Start Date") and shall continue, subject to the remaining terms of this agreement, until it terminates on 31-May-2023 ("End Date") without the need for notice, unless previously terminated by either party pursuant to paragraph 4 of Appendix B.

In addition to the conditions set out in paragraph 1 of Appendix B, your offer is subject to you successfully meeting the educational criteria that has already been communicated to you in writing.

A3. Working Hours

Your manager will assign you specific working hours, often during the Company's normal office hours. Depending on the needs of your department, however, you may be required to work outside the official hours to fulfill your duties.

A4. Stipend

Your stipend will be INR70,000/- per month.

Relocation Lump Sum

You will receive an additional, one-time lump sum of INR85000("the Additional Sum") gross with your first stipend. This payment will be made to you in the first available payroll after you join the Company. You should be aware that this might be in the month of joining or the following month depending on your commencement date and when all necessary data is received. This is to assist with any relocation expenses you may incur prior to joining.

If you leave the internship or your internship is terminated for any reason, you must repay to the Company the Additional Sum on a pro-rated basis as set out below:

If your internship period is longer than 3 months and you leave the internship or your internship is terminated for any reason within three months of your date of commencement you must repay to the Company 100% of the gross amount of the Additional Sum

If your internship period is longer than 3 months and you leave the internship or your internship is terminated for any reason more than three months but within twelve months of your date of commencement you must repay to the Company 50% of the gross amount of

the Additional Sum

If your internship period is less than 3 months and you leave the internship or your internship is terminated for any reason before completion of your internship period you must repay the Company 100% of the gross amount of the Additional Sum

A5. Probationary Period

Your internship will be subject to a probation period as outlined in paragraph 4.3 of Appendix B.

A6. Leave Entitlement

A6.1 Annual Leave

You are entitled to 20 working days of annual leave with full pay in every calendar year, pro-rated according to the duration of your employment in accordance with the Company's Human Resources Policies and applicable law. If you work part-time hours, your annual leave entitlement will be pro-rated to reflect your part-time hours worked.

A6.2 Other Leave

You can find further details of other leave entitlements in paragraph 5 of Appendix B.

A7. Benefits

You will not be entitled to join the Company's benefits programs, given the short length of your fixed-term contract.

A8. Retirement Scheme

You are not eligible for retirement benefits.

A9. Notice Period

During your probationary period, starting the day you join the Company, either you or the Company may terminate your employment with at least 14 days' written notice or payment of wages in lieu of such notice period.

After the probationary period, either party can terminate the employment by giving the other party 30 Days written notice ("Notice Period") or by the Company making a payment in lieu of Notice Period.

APPENDIX B – GENERAL INTERNSHIP TERMS AND CONDITIONS

- b) the completion of all pre-employment screening processes to the satisfaction of the Company, including obtaining education verification, background references and checks as sought and the execution of any other forms necessary for internship, etc.; and
- c) you being legally able to work with the Company. You undertake to disclose any internship or contractual post-internship restraints to which you are subject and which may, and will continue to, affect your internship with us and represent and warrant that:
 - ix. by entering into internship with the Company and performing the duties set out in this letter, you will not be in breach of any express or implied term of any internship or other agreement or arrangement to which you are party;
 - i. you have not taken or otherwise misappropriated and you do not have in your possession or control any confidential and proprietary information belonging to any of your prior employers, or any third party providing services to your prior employer, or connected with or derived from your services to prior employers and you have returned to all prior employers any and all such confidential or proprietary information; and
 - ii. you are not subject to any other internship, including being subject to garden leave or any contractual post-internship restraints.

You shall indemnify and hold harmless the Company from any and all claims arising from any breach of the warranties in this paragraph B1.

- B1.2 Whilst you and/or the Company may have agreed a tentative date of commencement of internship with the Company, you will not, unless the Company decides otherwise, be able to commence internship with the Company without our receipt of completed and satisfactory results from our pre-employment screening process.
- B1.3 You may be required to provide services for other members of the Group throughout your internship. When providing these services, you may from time to time be required to travel and work in different locations within and outside your hiring location.

Mao

B1.4 You will not undertake outside employment or activities with or without remuneration, unless you have the prior written approval of senior management of the Company or its delegate. Outside activities may include (but are not limited to) activities as a director, officer, partner, sole proprietor, consultant or controlling stockholder of any business. If your request to undertake outside activity is not approved by management and you decide to engage in the activity, your internship may be terminated without any notice or compensation.

B2. Remuneration

B2.1 We will deposit your stipend (paragraph 4 of Appendix A) on or around the 30th of each month.

B2.2 You will be responsible for all tax liabilities world-wide arising out of payments pursuant to your internship with the Company.

B2.3 Any payment of salary or bonus by, or other sum due to you from the Company shall be subject to any and all withholding or deduction (for, including but not limited to, any taxes, contributions, repayments or other sums which you have agreed that the Company may withhold/deduct or which the Company is obliged or entitled to withhold/deduct from time to time under any applicable law), and the Company shall in such case be entitled to withhold, deduct or retain the amount of such tax, withholding or deduction from any sum payable to you.

B3. Incentive Compensation

For this position, you won't be eligible for incentive awards under the JPMorgan Chase Performance-Based Incentive Compensation Plan or any other non-annual incentive compensation plan.

B4. Termination

B4.1 Your internship may be terminated as follows:

- a) By either party giving to the other prior written notice of at least the period specified, as applicable, in paragraph 9 in Appendix A (the "Notice Period"), or by the Company making a payment in lieu of notice for all or part of such Notice Period of an amount equal to basic salary you would have been entitled to receive during the Notice period or part of the Notice Period.
- b) By the Company at any time without notice or compensation if you:
 - i) are guilty of fraud, dishonesty or misconduct which is inconsistent with the due and faithful discharge of your duties;

1066

- ii) seriously breach the Code of Conduct and any other Company policies;
 - iii) disobey the Company's lawful and reasonable instructions/requirements;
 - iv) habitually neglect your duties; or
 - v) otherwise commit a material or repeated breach of your internship terms or any of the Company's or Group's policies.
- B4.2 During any Notice Period, the Company may put you on "garden leave" and may, amongst other things, do any or a combination of the following:
- (a) suspend you from the performance of any duties or assign you alternative duties;
 - (b) exclude you from any premises of the Company or any of the Group companies and/or require you to work from another location;
 - (c) require that you have no or limited contact or communication, other than purely social contact, with any employees, officers, directors, agents or consultants of the Company or any other member of the Group;
 - (d) require that you have no or limited contact or communication with any customer or client of the Company or any other member of the Group;
 - (e) remove your access to the Company premises and computer systems;
 - (f) require that you return any property belonging to the Company under paragraph 7 in this Appendix
 - (g) require you not to do any act or thing, or make or cause to be made, any statement reasonably likely to damage the business or reputation of the Company or the Group.
- B4.3 If paragraph 5 of Appendix A states that your employment is subject to probation, your probation period will be the first 3 months of employment, which you agree is reasonable, and fair, in light of the responsibilities of the role.
- B4.4 At its sole discretion, the Company may notify you of an extension to your probationary period.
- B4.5 All your duties (whether express or implied) under your internship and this letter, including without limitation your duty of fidelity, good faith, exclusive service and duties in relation to the Group's confidential information shall continue throughout the Notice Period including any period that you are on garden leave.

B4.6 During any Notice Period:

- (a) you will provide such assistance as the Company may require to effect an orderly handover of your duties and responsibilities to any individual appointed by the Company or any of the Group Companies to take over your role or responsibilities; and
- (b) you shall make yourself available to deal with requests for information, provide assistance, be available for meetings and to advise on matters relating to work.

B5. Leave

B5.1 Annual Leave

- (a) You will be entitled to annual leave with full pay in every calendar year – please see paragraph 6 of Appendix A, pro-rated according to the duration of your employment. The Company will be entitled to determine when annual leave is taken, although as far as possible, arrangements will be made to suit your convenience. Annual leave entitlement for each calendar year must be taken in that calendar year and only in exceptional circumstances can annual leave (other than unused statutory entitlement, if any) be carried forward into the following calendar year. All annual leave days taken will be deducted first from the statutory entitlement accumulation.
- (b) After a notice of termination has been given pursuant to paragraph B4.1 of this Appendix, you will not be entitled to take any annual leave without the express consent of the Company provided after notice of termination has been given.
- (c) You must comply with the Company's 'consecutive days leave' policies.

B5.2 Sick Leave

Any sick leave entitlement will be subject to relevant legislation and J.P. Morgan internal policies that are in force and amended from time to time. More details are set out in the me@jpmc website, which will be accessible to you upon commencement of your employment.

B5.3 Suspension Leave

The Company has the right to suspend you from your work duties with full pay when it considers it necessary to investigate any allegation of misconduct or impropriety on your part. The Company can exercise this right at its sole discretion, acting in good faith.

B6. Confidentiality

You acknowledge that a vast amount of privileged and confidential information will be disclosed to you in course of your internship with the Company and during your internship with the Company and thereafter, you shall keep secret and shall not at any time (whether during or after the period of your internship) use for your own or another's advantage, or reveal to any person, firm or company, any of the trade secrets, business methods and plans, financial matters, client lists, investments, marketing plans, personnel matters or other information which you knew or reasonably ought to have known to be confidential concerning the business or affairs of the Company or any other member of the Group or any of their related companies, clients or suppliers.

You agree to abide by the specific provisions on the use of confidential information in the Company's policies and Group code of conduct.

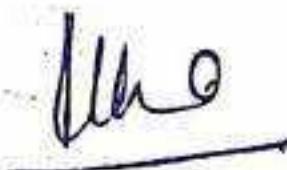

The restriction contained in this paragraph shall not apply to any disclosure or use authorised by the Company or required by law.

B7. Return of Company Property

You acknowledge that any privileged or confidential information disclosed to you in the course of your internship with the Company remains the exclusive property of the Company and whenever requested by the Company and/or Group and in any event upon the termination of your internship, you will promptly deliver to the Company and/or Group all documents and other materials (whether originals or copies or in hard copy or electronic form) concerning the Company and/or Group or their respective clients and suppliers, which may have been prepared by you or have come into your possession, custody or control in the course of your internship with the Company. This includes, without limitation, any confidential information, lists of clients or suppliers, correspondence, electronic equipment, computer software or hardware, staff identity cards card and other property used in connection with the operations of the Company and/or Group. You will not be entitled to, and will not retain, any copies, title and copyright in such correspondence and other documents, papers, records and property are vested in the Company and/or Group.

B8. Post Internship Restrictions

- B8.1 For a period of three months commencing on the Relevant Date, you shall not directly or indirectly (whether on your own account, for or with any other person, firm or company) solicit or endeavor to entice away from the Company or any other Group Company any Critical Person.
- B8.2 For a period of three months commencing on the Relevant Date, you shall not directly or indirectly (whether on your own account, for or with any other person, firm or company) solicit or endeavor to entice away from the Company or any other Group Company the business or custom of any Restricted Client.
- B8.3 The duration of the restrictions will be reduced by any period of notice that you work out or any period of garden leave as provided in this offer letter.

B8.4 In this paragraph B8:

- a) "Critical Person" means any person who was an employee or director of the Company or any other Group Company at any time within one year prior to the Relevant Date who had access to trade secrets or confidential information of the Company or any other Group Company. This includes knowledge of, involvement with or influence over suppliers or clients of the Company or any other Group Company with whom you worked at any time during that period.
- b) "Group Company" means the Company, its ultimate holding company, any subsidiary of the Company and any holding company from time to time. "Subsidiary" and "holding company" shall have the same meaning as in the relevant companies' legislation.
- c) "Restricted Client" means any person:
 - i. who in the one year before the Relevant Date was a client of, or has dealt with, the Company or any other Group Company; and
 - ii. with whose custom or business you, or persons reporting to you, were personally involved with during the period of one year prior to the Relevant Date
 - iii. but does not include publicly known institutional clients which you serve subsequent to your internship with the Company without the use of confidential or proprietary information of the Company and the Group.
- d) "Relevant Date" means the date your Internship with the Company or the Group terminates for whatever reason.

B8.5 You acknowledge and agree:

- a) that each of the foregoing paragraphs constitutes an entirely separate and independent restriction on you;
- b) that the duration, extent and application of each restrictions, obligations and undertakings are reasonable and necessary to protect legitimate interests of the Company and the Group, considering, among other things, that the Company has commercial dealings with business partners throughout the world and that you will regularly be dealing with such partners as part of your duties and you understand that it does not by any means prevent you from earning a living in a satisfactory way;
- c) that, if any such restriction (or parts of a restriction) shall be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be void or unenforceable, the validity or enforceability of the remaining restrictions (or parts of a restriction) shall remain in full force and effect as if the unenforceable parts had been deleted. Damages may be an inadequate compensation for breach of any of the restrictions in this paragraph and, subject to a court's discretion, in the event of any actual or threatened breach of any provision of this paragraph, you agree that the Company shall be entitled to (on behalf of itself and on behalf of any other Group Company) restrain, by injunction, equitable relief or similar remedy, any conduct or threatened conduct by you. You expressly submit to the jurisdiction of any court of competent jurisdiction for this purpose, and in the event you receive from any person an offer of employment (whether oral or in writing and whether accepted or not), either during your internship or the continuation in force of all or any of the restrictions applicable to you, whether pursuant to this letter or the Code of Conduct, you shall provide to the person making such an offer of employment a full and accurate copy of the then current restrictions applicable to you.

- d) that any benefit given or deemed to be given by you to the Group under the terms of this paragraph is received and held on trust by the Company for the relevant Group Company. You will enter into appropriate restrictive covenants directly with other Group Companies if asked to do so by the Company.
- e) that your internship with the Company and the compensation paid and/or payable to you by the Company shall be sufficient consideration for the purposes of this clause. You further agree and acknowledge that the limitations as to time and the character or nature placed in this clause are reasonable and fair and will not preclude you from earning a livelihood, nor will they unreasonably impose limitations on your ability to earn a living.
- f) that this offer letter constitutes a valid, legally binding and enforceable obligation on you and this document is not in violation of any applicable law.
- g) that any breach or threat of breach on your part of any one of such obligations and/or undertakings would cause serious harm to the Company or the Group which may then institute any legal recourse against you that is deemed appropriate and/or recourse in damages, without further notice or delay.
- i) in addition, you agree and acknowledge that the potential harm to the Company of the non-enforcement of this clause outweighs any potential harm to you and that you have given careful consideration to the restraints imposed upon you by this clause and that you are in full agreement as to their necessity for the reasonable and proper protection of the Company's interests. You expressly acknowledge and agree that each and every restraint imposed by this clause is reasonable with respect to subject matter, time period and geographical area.

- B9. Code of Conduct and Staff Regulations and Affirmation
- B9.1 It is a condition of your continuing internship and it is your obligation that you comply with:
- (a) the Code of Conduct (as amended from time to time or superseded). At the time of acceptance of the offer of internship and on a periodic basis, you will be required to sign an affirmation (or reaffirmation) confirming your understanding and compliance with the provisions of the Code of Conduct; and
 - (b) the Company's other internal policies and procedures and all relevant policies and procedures for the line of business in which you are to undertake work.
- B9.2 The Company shall be entitled at any time to amend the Company's internal policies and procedures (including but not limited to the Code of Conduct), the benefits set out in the Appendices and other staff regulations, as well as to put in place new policies as the Company sees fit. Any such amendments shall be notified in writing to each employee and shall on provision of such notice, become legally binding.
- B9.3 The Company's Human Resources work policies are set out in the me@jpmc website, as amended from time to time. Please take time to familiarise yourself with these policies when you begin your internship.
- B9.4 To the extent that the contents of policies or procedures refer to obligations on the Company, you agree that they are guides only and are not contractual terms, conditions or representations on which you rely.
- B10. Working Hours
- B10.1 Your total working hours (including break(s)) is 40 hours per working week during the tenure of your internship and you should attend office 5 days every working week. Your working hours may be revised at the discretion of the Company.
- B11. Retirement Benefits
- You are not eligible for retirement benefits.
- B12. Contract Execution
- B12.1 You acknowledge and agree that:

- (a) This letter may be delivered in a digital or physical format. Subject to any applicable law, where the letter is provided in a digital format, you acknowledge and agree that it is being executed electronically and that it is enforceable.

A handwritten signature in blue ink, with a blue arrow pointing to the right drawn underneath it.

- (b) You have read and understood the terms of this letter and have been provided with an opportunity to review and discuss the terms of it with advisors, if you so desire.
- (c) Should any further assurances be required or sought by the Company, you shall in good faith perform such further actions (including executing a physical copy of this letter)

B13. Governing Law and Jurisdiction

This letter and any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with it or its subject matter or formation (including non-contractual disputes or claims) shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of India. You and the Company submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the Mumbai, Maharashtra courts in relation to any dispute arising in connection with your internship and this letter.

APPENDIX C - SYSTEMS MONITORING ACTIVITIES AND CROSS-BORDER TRANSFERS, PERSONAL ACCOUNT DEALING POLICY, AND CODE OF CONDUCT

Appendix: Systems Monitoring Activities and Cross-Border Transfers:

The following provides a summary of how JPMorgan Chase & Co., its affiliates and its subsidiaries and the entity that employs you, or for which you provide services (collectively, "JPMC"), conducts Systems monitoring. JPMC may conduct monitoring to the extent permitted by applicable law.

JPMC conducts monitoring of JPMC's physical facilities and its equipment and systems (collectively, the "Systems"). System monitoring applies to your JPMC equipment, your personal equipment when accessing the Systems, and the communications, information, and materials conveyed or accessed using the Systems. Monitoring activities may include the monitoring and logging of traffic and usage data of all electronic communications; monitoring of telephone calls to or from JPMC work telephones as permitted by applicable laws and subject to any required notices; monitoring of the contents of electronic communications, files, databases, applications, and internet usage; and logging hours worked and physical presence at JPMC's facilities if applicable. JPMC may at all times monitor, access, retrieve, record and review information obtained from the monitoring activities for various purposes, such as preventing and investigating activities that may violate JPMC's policies and ensuring compliance with legal or regulatory obligations. While conducting monitoring activities, JPMC may obtain and process personal information about you and others that may reside on the Systems.

The monitoring activities (including JPMC's collection and processing of personal or other information) are required for purposes of your employment or work assignment to promote adherence to applicable policies and regulations. Subject to applicable laws and regulations, if you object to this processing, JPMC may prohibit you from using the Systems; terminate offers of employment or work assignment; and, for employees, take disciplinary action against you, up to and including termination of your employment with JPMC.

JPMC may disclose the information it obtains in connection with monitoring activities to JPMC affiliates and to third parties, service providers, regulators, supervisory bodies, law enforcement and other government agencies. Information obtained from the monitoring activities may be used as the basis to take disciplinary actions, up to and including termination or other legal action, for violations of JPMC's policies or applicable laws.

In addition to the monitoring activities discussed above, JPMC may obtain and store other information related to your employment or other working relationship, such as your compensation information, performance information, benefits information and other workplace-related data. JPMC may transfer such information, and the information it obtains in connection with monitoring activities, to countries other than the country in which the information originally was collected, including to the United States.

Understanding Obligations under the Firm's Personal Account Dealing Policy (PAD):

The Personal Account Dealing Policy (Policy) of JPMorgan Chase & Co. (firm or JPMC) is designed to help prevent and detect violations of securities laws and industry conduct standards and to minimize actual or perceived conflicts of interest that could arise due to personal investing activities.

PAD Compliance will notify you if the position you are being offered is considered to be subject to the Policy. You will remain subject for the duration of your time working in a subject group, unless notified otherwise of a change in subject status. Unless otherwise notified, you will continue to be subject to the provisions of the Policy even during leaves of absence from the firm, including, but not limited to, garden leave or medical leave.

You as well as your Connected Persons are subject to the provisions of this Policy and will need to be familiar with the obligations set forth in this policy. Connected Persons includes your spouse, domestic partner or minor children (even if financially independent) as well as anyone to whom you provide significant financial support or for which you, or anyone listed above, has or shares the power, directly or indirectly, to make investment decisions.

Once subject to the Policy, you must disclose and certify your Covered Accounts (which include accounts of your Connected Persons). You will be required to maintain your self-directed Covered Accounts with one of the firm's Approved Brokers and pre-clear all purchases, sales, pledges and gifts (received and given) of publicly traded and privately held financial instruments, unless listed as specifically exempt. Pre-approval confirmations must be received prior to executing the trade or investment. The firm may impose periodic restrictions on personal trading in certain financial securities. These restrictions can apply to all firm subject Workforce Members and their Connected Persons or may be limited to certain groups. Subject Workforce Members and their Connected Persons are not permitted to recommend or transact in the financial instruments of an issuer while in the possession of material non-public information (MNPI) regarding that issuer.

If you are a seasonal or short term employee the following requirements will apply:

JPMorgan Chase requires that seasonal workers refrain from trading in Covered Accounts for the time period that you are employed in a short term training program. Please verify that you will

U. 9

comply with the following personal trading requirements:

1. For the duration of the short term program I am joining I will not trade in any of my Covered Accounts
2. I understand that the Firm has the right to request account information for any of my Covered Accounts
3. If there is an extenuating circumstance that would compel me to place a trade in my Covered Accounts, I will obtain pre-approval of the trade by the Personal Account Dealing Group and I would be responsible for supplying all confirmations and statements to the Personal Account Dealing Group for that trade

*The term Covered Accounts refers to any securities accounts no matter where they are located and includes, but is not limited to, those accounts that are established, maintained or controlled (either directly or indirectly) by you, your spouse, domestic partner or minor children (even if financially independent), anyone to whom you provide significant financial support, and in which the employee has a direct or indirect financial interest.

Global Personal Trading Policy:

The Personal Account Dealing of JPMorgan Chase & Co. is designed to help prevent and detect violations of securities laws and industry conduct standards and to minimize actual or perceived conflicts of interest that could arise due to personal investing activities. This Policy includes requirements for disclosing Covered Accounts, maintaining certain accounts at one of the firm's Approved Brokers, preclearing trades, and restrictions and prohibitions on certain types of trading activity. This Policy is subject to any applicable local laws and rules and should be read in conjunction with Supplements (regional/LOB) as well as the firm's Code of Conduct.

Conflict of Interests and Outside Interests:

Under JPMorgan Chase & Co.'s (JPMC) Code of Conduct, employees are responsible for avoiding activities or relationships that might affect their objectivity in making decisions as an employee. Employees are not permitted to allow their personal interest to conflict, or appear to conflict, with their JPMC role and responsibilities.

Outside Interests include second jobs, not for profit activities, government positions, and positions with external companies and organizations as a director, officer, advisor, sole proprietor, consultant or owner of any business. Outside Interests may result in an actual or perceived conflict of interest. Where actual or potential conflicts of interest cannot be mitigated, you may be required to discontinue the activity or dissolve your investment.

Employees are required to seek preclearance prior to engaging in Outside Interests or immediately upon joining JPMC. Where preclearance is not required, employee must adhere to all restrictions and conditions outlined in Section 5 and 6 of the Outside Interest Policy.

Conflicts of interests may also arise from: (1) personal and business relationships; (2) the exchange of gifts and business hospitality; (3) political engagement; and (4) personal finances. Employees should avoid activities or relationships that might affect their objectivity in making decisions on behalf of JPMC or undermine their credibility. Employees may never place personal interests ahead of our clients' interests. All potential and actual conflicts must be escalated to your manager for review and mitigation.

1075

Acceptance and Code Affirmation:

Upon signing this letter I accept the terms and conditions described above.

I hereby affirm that I have read, understand, and am in compliance with the JPMorgan Chase ("JPMC") Code of Conduct and all internal JPMC policies that apply to me. I agree, as a condition of my employment, to remain in compliance with the Code of Conduct and all applicable JPMC policies.

I understand that I must conduct myself in a way that is consistent with the Code of Conduct, demonstrating compliance with the principles and intent of the Code of Conduct, and applicable laws and regulations.

I also affirm that I have reported any potential or actual violations of the Code of Conduct, JPMC policies, or laws or regulations applicable to JPMC's business, as required by the Code of Conduct. I understand that failure to do so can result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

I understand that the Code of Conduct may be updated periodically, as necessary; and that the current version is posted on the JPMorgan Chase intranet as well as on its public website.

Independent Auditor Tax Services to Employees of JPMorgan Chase and its Affiliates:

To be in compliance with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (PCAOB) Rule 3523, it is JPMorgan Chase's (JPMC) policy that PricewaterhouseCoopers (PwC) cannot provide any tax services to employees of JPMC or any of its controlled entities (hereafter referred to as JPMC employee). This restriction is regardless of whether the individual is in a financial reporting oversight role or not, and whether PwC is engaged by the individual or by JPMC. PwC is also prohibited from providing any tax services to a spouse of a JPMC employee if the work is related to a joint tax return. Exceptions to this policy will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis and will require the approval of the JPMC Controller.

Contract of Employment (Terms & Conditions)

Your employment will be governed by the following terms and conditions.

1. Date of Commencement of Employment:

Your employment with the Company shall commence on 01/08/2023.

2. Location:

Your current location of employment shall be Wohlig Transformations Pvt. Ltd., Mumbai. However, the Company reserves the right to transfer you to any of its offices, Associate Companies located in India or any other location globally, whether now in existence or to be set up hereafter. In case the current posting location changes, then your salary will be adjusted according to your country of posting as per policy, in case the Tenure at Client location gets Over, you will soon be transferred to Wohlig Transformations Pvt. Ltd (Head Office) and your Salary will be adjusted as per Company Policy.

3. Working Hours:

The working hours applicable to you will depend upon your place of posting and as amended from time to time. Further, you may be required to work on any shift, as may be warranted by the Company/Client's work requirements.

Further, depending on Company's requirement or project contingencies, your working hours may be modified / altered from time to time.

You may also be required to work in shifts or on holidays and weekends depending on the nature of the project.

4. Leave:

You are entitled to 16 days of paid leaves and national holidays during the calendar year. Please refer to Company's leave policy for details. (Will be explained by HR at the time of joining day).

5. Increments and Promotions:

Any increase in salary & promotion will depend solely on your performance and contribution to the Company's growth & shall be governed by the company's appraisal process.

6. Variable Payout:

The Variable pay, if applicable to you, will be paid-out as per existing policy in line with the periods or cycles of payments. However, the variable pay will not be payable if you are not on the Company rolls or, have resigned and/or, serving notice period on the date of disbursement.

7. Bond Clause:

There will be a bond for a period of 2 year and notice period of 8 weeks. If employee doesn't serve 2 year of bond is liable to pay Wohlig Transformations Pvt Ltd 2 months of gross salary (current gross salary at the time of leaving) with 18% GST as training fee, simultaneously if doesn't serve 8 weeks of notice period is liable to pay Wohlig Transformations Pvt Ltd 2 months of gross salary (current gross salary at the time of leaving) with 18% GST as training fee.

Notwithstanding the above condition, the contract of service may also be terminated because of under mentioned stipulations.

8. Notice Period:

Your services can be terminated with one month's notice or payment of one month's basic pay in lieu thereof on either side. Your confirmation is subject to your performance during the three month of probation period and the same may be extended if your performance is found to be not satisfactory. On confirmation as a regular employee, you will be required to give 8 weeks' notice in lieu thereof in case you decide to resign from the services of the Company. Acceptance of resignation during probation period or after confirmation will be at the sole discretion of the management.

The Company at its sole discretion may decide to terminate your services during probation period/employment due to poor performance without any notice or pay in lieu thereof.

Further, in case your services are terminated due to any act of "moral turpitude", no notice pay/compensation in lieu thereof will be paid. At its sole discretion, the Company may also decide to withhold salary & any other payment till the final outcome/disposal of the case.

9. Background Checks:

The Company and/or its agents may, at its discretion conduct background checks at any point in time to validate your identity, address, education details and details of your prior work experience, if any, and also conduct any criminal checks. By accepting this letter, you expressly consent to the Company conducting such background/criminal checks. In this connection, you are required to furnish the documents listed in "Offer Annexure-2". If the Company is not satisfied with the outcome of the background checks, it reserves the right to withdraw this Offer without notice and Compensation or to take any appropriate action against you, including, but not limited to termination of your employment.

However, when a background check raises any concerns regarding any of the details furnished by you and the Company feels the need to further validate such facts, the company may at its sole discretion, ask you for further information, to substantiate the details that you have earlier provided to the Company.

10. Covenant of Non-Disparagement:

You agree that, during the period of employment and at all times even after termination of employment with the Company, you will not directly or indirectly, in any capacity or manner, make, express, transmit speak, write, verbalize or otherwise communicate in any way (or cause, further, assist, solicit, encourage, support or participate in any of the foregoing), any remark, comment, message, information, declaration, communication or other statement of any kind, whether verbal, in writing, electronically transferred or otherwise, that might reasonably be construed to be derogatory or critical of, or negative toward, the Company or any of its directors, affiliates, subsidiaries, employees, agents or representatives (collectively, the "Company Representatives"), or that reveals, discloses, incorporates, discusses, includes or otherwise involves any confidential or proprietary information of the Company or its subsidiaries or affiliates, or to malign, harm, disparage, defame or damage the reputation or good name of the Company, its business or any of the Company Representatives.

11. Confidentiality & Intellectual Property

During your employment with the Company, you will, at all times, observe secrecy in respect of any technical, trade or business data, customers' names/business details or any other information that might come to your knowledge or possession, which according to the Company are necessarily confidential and form valuable property of the Company. You shall not disclose nor cause the disclosure of any such data in any manner whatsoever. You will also be responsible for the protection and furtherance of the Company's best interests at all times, including after you cease to be on the Company's rolls. You have to safeguard Wohlig Transformations Pvt. Ltd and its customers Intellectual Property Rights and confidential information even after termination of your employment or business relationship with Wohlig Transformations Pvt. Ltd.

Dear Jeet,

Your Internship by J.P. Morgan

Congratulations on joining the J.P. Morgan family. We are pleased to confirm your internship with J.P. Morgan Services India Private Limited (the "Company").

You will find your personal internship terms outlined in Appendix A with general internship terms and conditions in Appendix B. Please note these terms and conditions supersede any verbal discussions you may have previously had with any JPMorgan Chase employee with regards to your internship arrangements.

A number of important policies will apply to your internship with the Company, including the Personal Account Dealing Policy and the Code of Conduct. We provide more information about these policies in Appendix C and it is essential that you carefully read and understand their requirements. By signing this letter, you confirm that you have read, understood and agree to be bound by these policies. In addition, you will be required to abide by all other Company policies and regulations (including JPMorgan Chase group of companies (the "Group") policies) and with applicable law.

Should you have queries in relation to your employment terms, your benefits or Company policies, please contact our HR Answers hotline at 000 800 440 5210 (local toll free) or +1 212-552-5100 (international).

Please be reminded your internship terms should be treated with the strictest confidence. To accept this offer of internship, please click on the 'Accept' button at the bottom of this page on or before 13-Dec-2022.

We are excited to welcome you to our Company and take this opportunity to wish you every success in taking this next step of your career with us.

Appendix A – PERSONAL INTERNSHIP TERMS AND CONDITIONS

A1. Title/Category

You will join us as an intern in the Software Engineer Program at JPMorgan Chase & Co., and will carry out your role while physically present in the J.P. Morgan offices in Mumbai, India.

A2. Internship Commencement Date

Your internship shall begin on 06-Feb-2023 ("Start Date") and shall continue, subject to the remaining terms of this agreement, until it terminates on 31-May-2023 ("End Date") without the need for notice, unless previously terminated by either party pursuant to paragraph 4 of Appendix B.

In addition to the conditions set out in paragraph 1 of Appendix B, your offer is subject to you successfully meeting the educational criteria that has already been communicated to you in writing.

A3. Working Hours

Your manager will assign you specific working hours, often during the Company's normal office hours. Depending on the needs of your department, however, you may be required to work outside the official hours to fulfill your duties.

A4. Stipend

Your stipend will be INR70,000/- per month.

Relocation Lump Sum

You will receive an additional, one-time lump sum of INR85000("the Additional Sum") gross with your first stipend. This payment will be made to you in the first available payroll after you join the Company. You should be aware that this might be in the month of joining or the following month depending on your commencement date and when all necessary data is received. This is to assist with any relocation expenses you may incur prior to joining.

If you leave the internship or your internship is terminated for any reason, you must repay to the Company the Additional Sum on a pro-rated basis as set out below:

If your internship period is longer than 3 months and you leave the internship or your internship is terminated for any reason within three months of your date of commencement you must repay to the Company 100% of the gross amount of the Additional Sum

If your internship period is longer than 3 months and you leave the internship or your internship is terminated for any reason more than three months but within twelve months of your date of commencement you must repay to the Company 50% of the gross amount of

the Additional Sum
If your internship period is less than 3 months and you leave the internship or your internship is terminated for any reason before completion of your internship period you must repay the Company 100% of the gross amount of the Additional Sum

A5. Probationary Period

Your internship will be subject to a probation period as outlined in paragraph 4.3 of Appendix B.

A6. Leave Entitlement

A6.1 Annual Leave

You are entitled to 20 working days of annual leave with full pay in every calendar year, pro-rated according to the duration of your employment in accordance with the Company's Human Resources Policies and applicable law. If you work part-time hours, your annual leave entitlement will be pro-rated to reflect your part-time hours worked.

A6.2 Other Leave

You can find further details of other leave entitlements in paragraph 5 of Appendix B.

A7. Benefits

You will not be entitled to join the Company's benefits programs, given the short length of your fixed-term contract.

A8. Retirement Scheme

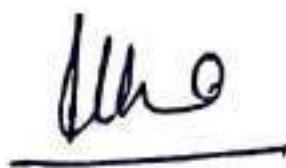

You are not eligible for retirement benefits.

A9. Notice Period

During your probationary period, starting the day you join the Company, either you or the Company may terminate your employment with at least 14 days' written notice or payment of wages in lieu of such notice period.

After the probationary period, either party can terminate the employment by giving the other party 30 Days written notice ("Notice Period") or by the Company making a payment in lieu of Notice Period.

APPENDIX B – GENERAL INTERNSHIP TERMS AND CONDITIONS

B1. Internship

B1.1 Your internship is subject to:

- a) you being able to carry out your role in India while being able to be physically present in an JPMC office in Mumbai, India and obtaining and maintaining throughout your entire period of internship a valid work permit and such other permission, license or registration as may from time to time be necessary to enable you to carry out your duties and continue your internship.
- b) the completion of all pre-employment screening processes to the satisfaction of the Company, including obtaining education verification, background references and checks as sought and the execution of any other forms necessary for internship, etc.; and
- c) you being legally able to work with the Company. You undertake to disclose any internship or contractual post-internship restraints to which you are subject and which may, and will continue to, affect your internship with us and represent and warrant that:
 - ix. by entering into internship with the Company and performing the duties set out in this letter, you will not be in breach of any express or implied term of any internship or other agreement or arrangement to which you are party;
 - i. you have not taken or otherwise misappropriated and you do not have in your possession or control any confidential and proprietary information belonging to any of your prior employers, or any third party providing services to your prior employer, or connected with or derived from your services to prior employers and you have returned to all prior employers any and all such confidential or proprietary information; and
 - ii. you are not subject to any other internship, including being subject to garden leave or any contractual post-internship restraints.

You shall indemnify and hold harmless the Company from any and all claims arising from any breach of the warranties in this paragraph B1.

- B1.2 Whilst you and/or the Company may have agreed a tentative date of commencement of internship with the Company, you will not, unless the Company decides otherwise, be able to commence internship with the Company without our receipt of completed and satisfactory results from our pre-employment screening process.
- B1.3 You may be required to provide services for other members of the Group throughout your internship. When providing these services, you may from time to time be required to travel and work in different locations within and outside your hiring location.

B2. Remuneration

B2.1 We will deposit your stipend (paragraph 4 of Appendix A) on or around the 30th of each month.

B2.2 You will be responsible for all tax liabilities world-wide arising out of payments pursuant to your internship with the Company.

B2.3 Any payment of salary or bonus by, or other sum due to you from the Company shall be subject to any and all withholding or deduction (for, including but not limited to, any taxes, contributions, repayments or other sums which you have agreed that the Company may withhold/deduct or which the Company is obliged or entitled to withhold/deduct from time to time under any applicable law), and the Company shall in such case be entitled to withhold, deduct or retain the amount of such tax, withholding or deduction from any sum payable to you.

B3. Incentive Compensation

For this position, you won't be eligible for incentive awards under the JPMorgan Chase Performance-Based Incentive Compensation Plan or any other non-annual incentive compensation plan.

B4. Termination

B4.1 Your internship may be terminated as follows

a) By either party giving to the other prior written notice of at least the period specified, as applicable, in paragraph 9 in Appendix A (the "Notice Period"), or by the Company making a payment in lieu of notice for all or part of such Notice Period of an amount equal to basic salary you would have been entitled to receive during the Notice period or part of the Notice Period.

b) By the Company at any time without notice or compensation if you:

i) are guilty of fraud, dishonesty or misconduct which is inconsistent with the due and faithful discharge of your duties;

1634

- ii) seriously breach the Code of Conduct and any other Company policies;
- iii) disobey the Company's lawful and reasonable instructions/requirements;
- iv) habitually neglect your duties; or
- v) otherwise commit a material or repeated breach of your internship terms or any of the Company's or Group's policies.

B4.2 During any Notice Period, the Company may put you on "garden leave" and may, amongst other things, do any or a combination of the following:

- (a) suspend you from the performance of any duties or assign you alternative duties;
 - (b) exclude you from any premises of the Company or any of the Group companies and/or require you to work from another location;
 - (c) require that you have no or limited contact or communication, other than purely social contact, with any employees, officers, directors, agents or consultants of the Company or any other member of the Group;
 - (d) require that you have no or limited contact or communication with any customer or client of the Company or any other member of the Group;
 - (e) remove your access to the Company premises and computer systems;
 - (f) require that you return any property belonging to the Company under paragraph 7 in this Appendix;
 - (g) require you not to do any act or thing, or make or cause to be made, any statement reasonably likely to damage the business or reputation of the Company or the Group.
- B4.3 If paragraph 5 of Appendix A states that your employment is subject to probation, your probation period will be the first 3 months of employment, which you agree is reasonable, and fair, in light of the responsibilities of the role,
- B4.4 At its sole discretion, the Company may notify you of an extension to your probationary period.
- B4.5 All your duties (whether express or implied) under your internship and this letter, including without limitation your duty of fidelity, good faith, exclusive service and duties in relation to the Group's confidential information shall continue throughout the Notice Period including any period that you are on garden leave.

B4.6 During any Notice Period:

- (a) you will provide such assistance as the Company may require to effect an orderly handover of your duties and responsibilities to any individual appointed by the Company or any of the Group Companies to take over your role or responsibilities; and
- (b) you shall make yourself available to deal with requests for information, provide assistance, be available for meetings and to advise on matters relating to work.

B5. Leave

B5.1 Annual Leave

- (a) You will be entitled to annual leave with full pay in every calendar year – please see paragraph 6 of Appendix A, pro-rated according to the duration of your employment. The Company will be entitled to determine when annual leave is taken, although as far as possible, arrangements will be made to suit your convenience. Annual leave entitlement for each calendar year must be taken in that calendar year and only in exceptional circumstances can annual leave (other than unused statutory entitlement, if any) be carried forward into the following calendar year. All annual leave days taken will be deducted first from the statutory entitlement accumulation.
- (b) After a notice of termination has been given pursuant to paragraph B4.1 of this Appendix, you will not be entitled to take any annual leave without the express consent of the Company provided after notice of termination has been given.
- (c) You must comply with the Company's 'consecutive days leave' policies.

B5.2 Sick Leave

Any sick leave entitlement will be subject to relevant legislation and J.P. Morgan internal policies that are in force and amended from time to time. More details are set out in the me@jpmc website, which will be accessible to you upon commencement of your employment.

B5.3 Suspension Leave

The Company has the right to suspend you from your work duties with full pay when it considers it necessary to investigate any allegation of misconduct or impropriety on your part. The Company can exercise this right at its sole discretion, acting in good faith.

B6. Confidentiality

You acknowledge that a vast amount of privileged and confidential information will be disclosed to you in course of your internship with the Company and during your internship with the Company and thereafter, you shall keep secret and shall not at any time (whether during or after the period of your internship) use for your own or another's advantage, or reveal to any person, firm or company, any of the trade secrets, business methods and plans, financial matters, client lists, investments, marketing plans, personnel matters or other information which you knew or reasonably ought to have known to be confidential concerning the business or affairs of the Company or any other member of the Group or any of their related companies, clients or suppliers.

You agree to abide by the specific provisions on the use of confidential information in the Company's policies and Group code of conduct.

The restriction contained in this paragraph shall not apply to any disclosure or use authorised by the Company or required by law.

B7. Return of Company Property

You acknowledge that any privileged or confidential information disclosed to you in the course of your internship with the Company remains the exclusive property of the Company and whenever requested by the Company and/or Group and in any event upon the termination of your internship, you will promptly deliver to the Company and/or Group all documents and other materials (whether originals or copies or in hard copy or electronic form) concerning the Company and/or Group or their respective clients and suppliers, which may have been prepared by you or have come into your possession, custody or control in the course of your internship with the Company. This includes, without limitation, any confidential information, lists of clients or suppliers, correspondence, electronic equipment, computer software or hardware, staff identity cards card and other property used in connection with the operations of the Company and/or Group. You will not be entitled to, and will not retain, any copies, title and copyright in such correspondence and other documents, papers, records and property are vested in the Company and/or Group.

B8. Post internship Restrictions

B8.1 For a period of three months commencing on the Relevant Date, you shall not directly or indirectly (whether on your own account, for or with any other person, firm or company) solicit or endeavor to entice away from the Company or any other Group Company any Critical Person.

B8.2 For a period of three months commencing on the Relevant Date, you shall not directly or indirectly (whether on your own account, for or with any other person, firm or company) solicit or endeavor to entice away from the Company or any other Group Company the business or custom of any Restricted Client.

B8.3 The duration of the restrictions will be reduced by any period of notice that you work out or any period of garden leave as provided in this offer letter.

B8.4 In this paragraph B8:

- a) "Critical Person" means any person who was an employee or director of the Company or any other Group Company at any time within one year prior to the Relevant Date who had access to trade secrets or confidential information of the Company or any other Group Company. This includes knowledge of, involvement with or influence over suppliers or clients of the Company or any other Group Company with whom you worked at any time during that period.
- b) "Group Company" means the Company, its ultimate holding company, any subsidiary of the Company and any holding company from time to time. "Subsidiary" and "holding company" shall have the same meaning as in the relevant companies' legislation.
- c) "Restricted Client" means any person:
 - i. who in the one year before the Relevant Date was a client of, or has dealt with, the Company or any other Group Company; and
 - ii. with whose custom or business you, or persons reporting to you, were personally involved with during the period of one year prior to the Relevant Date
 - iii. but does not include publicly known institutional clients which you serve subsequent to your internship with the Company without the use of confidential or proprietary information of the Company and the Group.
- d) "Relevant Date" means the date your internship with the Company or the Group terminates for whatever reason.

B8.5 You acknowledge and agree:

- a) that each of the foregoing paragraphs constitutes an entirely separate and independent restriction on you;
- b) that the duration, extent and application of each restrictions, obligations and undertakings are reasonable and necessary to protect legitimate interests of the Company and the Group, considering, among other things, that the Company has commercial dealings with business partners throughout the world and that you will regularly be dealing with such partners as part of your duties and you understand that it does not by any means prevent you from earning a living in a satisfactory way;
- c) that, if any such restriction (or parts of a restriction) shall be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be void or unenforceable, the validity or enforceability of the remaining restrictions (or parts of a restriction) shall remain in full force and effect as if the unenforceable parts had been deleted. Damages may be an inadequate compensation for breach of any of the restrictions in this paragraph and, subject to a court's discretion, in the event of any actual or threatened breach of any provision of this paragraph, you agree that the Company shall be entitled to (on behalf of itself and on behalf of any other Group Company) restrain, by injunction, equitable relief or similar remedy, any conduct or threatened conduct by you. You expressly submit to the jurisdiction of any court of competent jurisdiction for this purpose, and in the event you receive from any person an offer of employment (whether oral or in writing and whether accepted or not), either during your internship or the continuation in force of all or any of the restrictions applicable to you, whether pursuant to this letter or the Code of Conduct, you shall provide to the person making such an offer of employment a full and accurate copy of the then current restrictions applicable to you.

- d) that any benefit given or deemed to be given by you to the Group under the terms of this paragraph is received and held on trust by the Company for the relevant Group Company. You will enter into appropriate restrictive covenants directly with other Group Companies if asked to do so by the Company.
- e) that your internship with the Company and the compensation paid and/or payable to you by the Company shall be sufficient consideration for the purposes of this clause. You further agree and acknowledge that the limitations as to time and the character or nature placed in this clause are reasonable and fair and will not preclude you from earning a livelihood, nor will they unreasonably impose limitations on your ability to earn a living.
- f) that this offer letter constitutes a valid, legally binding and enforceable obligation on you and this document is not in violation of any applicable law.
- g) that any breach or threat of breach on your part of any one of such obligations and/or undertakings would cause serious harm to the Company or the Group which may then institute any legal recourse against you that is deemed appropriate and/or recourse in damages, without further notice or delay.
- h) that you shall not assign this offer letter or the rights and/or obligations hereunder. The Company may assign its rights and obligations herein in all circumstances without your consent, including in connection with any sale, transfer or disposition of all or substantially all of its business and operations and its assets, in which case the Company's rights and obligations shall vest to the successor.
- i) in addition, you agree and acknowledge that the potential harm to the Company of the non-enforcement of this clause outweighs any potential harm to you and that you have given careful consideration to the restraints imposed upon you by this clause and that you are in full agreement as to their necessity for the reasonable and proper protection of the Company's interests. You expressly acknowledge and agree that each and every restraint imposed by this clause is reasonable with respect to subject matter, time period and geographical area.

B9. Code of Conduct and Staff Regulations and Affirmation

B9.1 It is a condition of your continuing internship and it is your obligation that you comply with:

- (a) the Code of Conduct (as amended from time to time or superseded). At the time of acceptance of the offer of internship and on a periodic basis, you will be required to sign an affirmation (or reaffirmation) confirming your understanding and compliance with the provisions of the Code of Conduct; and
- (b) the Company's other internal policies and procedures and all relevant policies and procedures for the line of business in which you are to undertake work.

B9.2 The Company shall be entitled at any time to amend the Company's internal policies and procedures (including but not limited to the Code of Conduct), the benefits set out in the Appendices and other staff regulations, as well as to put in place new policies as the Company sees fit. Any such amendments shall be notified in writing to each employee and shall on provision of such notice, become legally binding.

B9.3 The Company's Human Resources work policies are set out in the me@jpmc website, as amended from time to time. Please take time to familiarise yourself with these policies when you begin your internship.

B9.4 To the extent that the contents of policies or procedures refer to obligations on the Company, you agree that they are guides only and are not contractual terms, conditions or representations on which you rely.

B10. Working Hours

B10.1 Your total working hours (including break(s)) is 40 hours per working week during the tenure of your internship and you should attend office 5 days every working week. Your working hours may be revised at the discretion of the Company.

B11. Retirement Benefits

You are not eligible for retirement benefits.

B12. Contract Execution

B12.1 You acknowledge and agree that:

- (a) This letter may be delivered in a digital or physical format. Subject to any applicable law, where the letter is provided in a digital format, you acknowledge and agree that it is being executed electronically and that it is enforceable.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "M. S. R.", is written over a blue horizontal line.

- (b) You have read and understood the terms of this letter and have been provided with an opportunity to review and discuss the terms of it with advisors, if you so desire.
- (c) Should any further assurances be required or sought by the Company, you shall in good faith perform such further actions (including executing a physical copy of this letter)

B13. Governing Law and Jurisdiction

This letter and any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with it or its subject matter or formation (including non-contractual disputes or claims) shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of India. You and the Company submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the Mumbai, Maharashtra courts in relation to any dispute arising in connection with your internship and this letter.

APPENDIX C - SYSTEMS MONITORING ACTIVITIES AND CROSS-BORDER TRANSFERS,
PERSONAL ACCOUNT DEALING POLICY, AND CODE OF CONDUCT

Appendix: Systems Monitoring Activities and Cross-Border Transfers:

The following provides a summary of how JPMorgan Chase & Co., its affiliates and its subsidiaries and the entity that employs you, or for which you provide services (collectively, "JPMC"), conducts Systems monitoring. JPMC may conduct monitoring to the extent permitted by applicable law.

JPMC conducts monitoring of JPMC's physical facilities and its equipment and systems (collectively, the "Systems"). System monitoring applies to your JPMC equipment, your personal equipment when accessing the Systems, and the communications, information, and materials conveyed or accessed using the Systems. Monitoring activities may include the monitoring and logging of traffic and usage data of all electronic communications; monitoring of telephone calls to or from JPMC work telephones as permitted by applicable laws and subject to any required notices; monitoring of the contents of electronic communications, files, databases, applications, and internet usage; and logging hours worked and physical presence at JPMC's facilities if applicable. JPMC may at all times monitor, access, retrieve, record and review information obtained from the monitoring activities for various purposes, such as preventing and investigating activities that may violate JPMC's policies and ensuring compliance with legal or regulatory obligations. While conducting monitoring activities, JPMC may obtain and process personal information about you and others that may reside on the Systems.

The monitoring activities (including JPMC's collection and processing of personal or other information) are required for purposes of your employment or work assignment to promote adherence to applicable policies and regulations. Subject to applicable laws and regulations, if you object to this processing, JPMC may prohibit you from using the Systems; terminate offers of employment or work assignment; and, for employees, take disciplinary action against you, up to and including termination of your employment with JPMC.

In addition to the monitoring activities discussed above, JPMC may obtain and store other information related to your employment or other working relationship, such as your compensation information, performance information, benefits information and other workplace-related data. JPMC may transfer such information, and the information it obtains in connection with monitoring activities, to countries other than the country in which the information originally was collected, including to the United States.

Understanding Obligations under the Firm's Personal Account Dealing Policy (PAD):

The Personal Account Dealing Policy (Policy) of JPMorgan Chase & Co. (firm or JPMC) is designed to help prevent and detect violations of securities laws and industry conduct standards and to minimize actual or perceived conflicts of interest that could arise due to personal investing activities.

PAD Compliance will notify you if the position you are being offered is considered to be subject to the Policy. You will remain subject for the duration of your time working in a subject group, unless notified otherwise of a change in subject status. Unless otherwise notified, you will continue to be subject to the provisions of the Policy even during leaves of absence from the firm, including, but not limited to, garden leave or medical leave.

You as well as your Connected Persons are subject to the provisions of this Policy and will need to be familiar with the obligations set forth in this policy. Connected Persons includes your spouse, domestic partner or minor children (even if financially independent) as well as anyone to whom you provide significant financial support or for which you, or anyone listed above, has or shares the power, directly or indirectly, to make investment decisions.

Once subject to the Policy, you must disclose and certify your Covered Accounts (which include accounts of your Connected Persons). You will be required to maintain your self-directed Covered Accounts with one of the firm's Approved Brokers and pre-clear all purchases, sales, pledges and gifts (received and given) of publicly traded and privately held financial instruments, unless listed as specifically exempt. Pre-approval confirmations must be received prior to executing the trade or investment. The firm may impose periodic restrictions on personal trading in certain financial securities. These restrictions can apply to all firm subject Workforce Members and their Connected Persons or may be limited to certain groups. Subject Workforce Members and their Connected Persons are not permitted to recommend or transact in the financial instruments of an issuer while in the possession of material non-public information (MNPI) regarding that issuer.

If you are a seasonal or short term employee the following requirements will apply:

JPMorgan Chase requires that seasonal workers refrain from trading in Covered Accounts for the time period that you are employed in a short term training program. Please verify that you will

comply with the following personal trading requirements:

1. For the duration of the short term program I am joining I will not trade in any of my Covered Accounts
2. I understand that the Firm has the right to request account information for any of my Covered Accounts
3. If there is an extenuating circumstance that would compel me to place a trade in my Covered Accounts, I will obtain pre-approval of the trade by the Personal Account Dealing Group and I would be responsible for supplying all confirmations and statements to the Personal Account Dealing Group for that trade.

*The term Covered Accounts refers to any securities accounts no matter where they are located and includes, but is not limited to, those accounts that are established, maintained or controlled (either directly or indirectly) by you, your spouse, domestic partner or minor children (even if financially independent), anyone to whom you provide significant financial support, and in which the employee has a direct or indirect financial interest.

Global Personal Trading Policy:

The Personal Account Dealing of JPMorgan Chase & Co. is designed to help prevent and detect violations of securities laws and industry conduct standards and to minimize actual or perceived conflicts of interest that could arise due to personal investing activities. This Policy includes requirements for disclosing Covered Accounts, maintaining certain accounts at one of the firm's Approved Brokers, preclearing trades, and restrictions and prohibitions on certain types of trading activity. This Policy is subject to any applicable local laws and rules and should be read in conjunction with Supplements (regional/LOB) as well as the firm's Code of Conduct.

Conflict of Interests and Outside Interests:

Under JPMorgan Chase & Co.'s (JPMC) Code of Conduct, employees are responsible for avoiding activities or relationships that might affect their objectivity in making decisions as an employee. Employees are not permitted to allow their personal interest to conflict, or appear to conflict, with their JPMC role and responsibilities.

Outside Interests include second jobs, not for profit activities, government positions, and positions with external companies and organizations as a director, officer, advisor, sole proprietor, consultant or owner of any business. Outside Interests may result in an actual or perceived conflict of interest. Where actual or potential conflicts of interest cannot be mitigated, you may be required to discontinue the activity or dissolve your investment.

Employees are required to seek preclearance prior to engaging in Outside Interests or immediately upon joining JPMC. Where preclearance is not required, employee must adhere to all restrictions and conditions outlined in Section 5 and 6 of the Outside Interest Policy.

Conflicts of interests may also arise from: (1) personal and business relationships; (2) the exchange of gifts and business hospitality; (3) political engagement; and (4) personal finances. Employees should avoid activities or relationships that might affect their objectivity in making decisions on behalf of JPMC or undermine their credibility. Employees may never place personal interests ahead of our clients' interests. All potential and actual conflicts must be escalated to your manager for review and mitigation.

Acceptance and Code Affirmation:

Upon signing this letter I accept the terms and conditions described above.

I hereby affirm that I have read, understand, and am in compliance with the JPMorgan Chase ("JPMC") Code of Conduct and all internal JPMC policies that apply to me. I agree, as a condition of my employment, to remain in compliance with the Code of Conduct and all applicable JPMC policies.

I understand that I must conduct myself in a way that is consistent with the Code of Conduct, demonstrating compliance with the principles and intent of the Code of Conduct, and applicable laws and regulations.

I also affirm that I have reported any potential or actual violations of the Code of Conduct, JPMC policies, or laws or regulations applicable to JPMC's business, as required by the Code of Conduct. I understand that failure to do so can result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

I understand that the Code of Conduct may be updated periodically, as necessary; and that the current version is posted on the JPMorgan Chase intranet as well as on its public website.

Independent Auditor Tax Services to Employees of JPMorgan Chase and its Affiliates:

To be in compliance with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (PCAOB) Rule 3523, it is JPMorgan Chase's (JPMC) policy that PricewaterhouseCoopers (PwC) cannot provide any tax services to employees of JPMC or any of its controlled entities (hereafter referred to as JPMC employee). This restriction is regardless of whether the individual is in a financial reporting oversight role or not, and whether PwC is engaged by the individual or by JPMC. PwC is also prohibited from providing any tax services to a spouse of a JPMC employee if the work is related to a joint tax return. Exceptions to this policy will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis and will require the approval of the JPMC Controller.

Subject: Internship Offer Letter

Dear Rishabh,

On behalf of Baldor Technologies Private Limited ("IDfy" or "the Company"), I am pleased to offer you an internship with the Technology department as an Intern at IDfy. This offer is provisional & subject to your acceptance of this position in writing considering employment starts with the company no later than 2nd January 2023. In addition, the offer is subject to the regular background checks being completed successfully.

The stipend will be INR 25000/- per month. Your stipend will be paid in accordance with our regular payroll practices.

Your period of internship will be 6 months. Either party shall have the right to terminate this Internship by serving upon the other a notice of 7 (Seven) days in writing. This offer is contingent upon the successful completion of your Internship.

Our technology, trade secrets and other intellectual property are very important to us. Therefore, we require that, as a condition of internship, all new interns sign a confidentiality agreement.

We also want to ensure that your internship with the company does not violate any non-competition or other similar agreements to which you may be bound. If you are bound by such an agreement, please give us a copy of the agreement so that we can ensure that your employment by the Company will not violate that agreement. By not providing us with such an agreement, you are representing that no such agreement exists.

Dear Kadambai

52

Welcome to MSCI. We are pleased to extend you an Offer, attached is the New Hire Package.

MSCI conducts a background check for all new hires. Confirmation of your services in the firm is dependent on successful completion of the background check. This check includes:

- Identity verification
- Educational and Professional Qualification verification
- Employment History and References – last three years
- Credit Check
- Criminal check

In order to carry out the background check you would need to submit all the documents mentioned in the HireRight Reference Guide. All completed forms must be submitted in the HireRight portal at least 5 days after the acceptance of the Offer Letter failing which your date of joining the firm will be delayed.

You are required to report to the HR department on the first day of joining.

Please contact Vernon Fernandes on Vernon.Fernandes@msci.com or Sabrina Khatri on Sabrina.Khatri@msci.com if you have any questions on any of the above.

Best Regards,

Vernon Fernandes

Kadambari Patangrao
By Email

Dear Kadambari,

Confirming our discussions, we are pleased to extend to you a formal offer of employment at MSCI Services Private Limited (the "Firm"). Those who have had the opportunity to meet with you look forward to your joining the Firm. Your position will be that of an Analyst in the Technology & Data Department.

TOTAL COMPENSATION

MSCI's compensation philosophy is based on the concept of Total Compensation.

Your Total Compensation will consist of a base salary, participation in the discretionary bonus plan as determined by the Firm in its sole discretion and subject to the terms and conditions of the discretionary bonus plan as in force from time to time.

Historically, discretionary year-end bonus awards have been made after the end of the fiscal year to which they relate. It is expressly agreed that a discretionary bonus at any point in time does not create an obligation of, or entitlement to, future year-end bonus payouts by the Firm.

Any discretionary bonus that may be awarded to you in your first year of employment will be prorated to reflect the date you commence employment. All payments are subject to applicable withholdings and deductions.

In your first year of employment, your actual Total Cash Compensation will be pro-rated based on your actual length of service as determined by your start date. Your Total Cash Compensation will be determined in INR.

Your CTC (cost to company) consists of your base salary (in the components shown below) plus employer's contribution to Provident Fund and Gratuity accrual (Defined Benefit).

Components	Amount
A. Basic Salary	880,044.00	INR p.a.
B. House Rent Allowance (includes optional Leave Travel Allowance)	413,556.00	INR p.a.
C. Meal Allowance	26,400.00	INR p.a.
D. Base Salary	1,320,000.00	INR p.a.
E. Firm's contribution to Provident Fund	105,605.00	INR p.a.
F. Gratuity accrual (Defined Benefit)	42,310.00	INR p.a.
Cost to Company	1,467,915.00	INR p.a.

Your Basic salary is calculated as 2/3 of your Base salary. House Rent Allowance is calculated as Base salary minus the sum of Basic salary and Meal allowances. All components of base salary will be paid in monthly installments.

Annual Incentive Plan: You will be eligible to participate in MSCI's Annual Incentive Plan (AIP) with a cash bonus ("Bonus") target of INR 66,000 / 5% of your base salary, prorated based on the date you commence employment provided you commence employment with MSCI on or before October 31st 2023. All new hires who commence employment after October 31st will not be eligible to receive an AIP bonus until the following calendar year. Any discretionary bonus payment that may be awarded to you will be prorated to reflect the date you commence employment and will be subject to any tax and social security deductions as the Company considers is required by law.

Payments, if any, under the Annual Incentive Plan are not guarantees or commitments to pay, unless otherwise stated, and are subject to the Firm's performance as well as your individual performance as determined by your manager. From time to time, we review the form and terms of our incentive plans and we reserve the right to amend, change or cancel our plans (or elements thereof) as the Company determines necessary. You will be notified of any such changes by the Company. Any incentive award, including any discretionary bonus award referred to above is also contingent upon satisfactory performance and conduct as assessed by the Company and on you remaining an active employee performing duties on behalf of MSCI at the time of any discretionary bonus payment.

From time to time, we review the form and terms of our incentive plans and we reserve the right to amend, change or cancel our plans (or elements thereof) as the Firm determines necessary. You will be notified of any such changes by the Firm.

BENEFITS

You will be entitled to the following benefits:

- Provident Fund contributions of 12% of your basic salary as shown in the CTC chart above.
- Gratuity and other benefits in accordance with legal requirements and the Firm's policies in effect, and as may be amended from time to time.
- Expenses incurred by you, your spouse and children (up to 21 years) for treatment of an illness, disease or injury while confined to a hospital or nursing home, for any illness, disease or injury which in the normal course would require care and treatment at a hospital or nursing home for a minimum of 24 hours, will be paid for in accordance with the Firm's Group Mediclaim program, subject to a total annual limit of Rs. 600,000 per family under family floater scheme or such other limit established from time to time.
- Personal Accident Insurance for a sum which equals three times (or such multiple determined by the Firm from time to time) your annual base salary.
- Life insurance which, in the event of your death due to any cause whilst an employee of MSCI, pays to your dependents a lump sum benefit amount of three times your annual base salary (subject to successful clearance of medical underwriting if applicable as per the insurance company's guidelines).

Other benefits include annual leave of 23 working days in any calendar year (January 1 to December 31). Please refer to Annexure I for details on other benefits.

Nothing in this letter should be construed as a guarantee of any particular level of benefits or of your participation in any benefit plan. The Firm and its affiliates reserve the right to amend, modify or terminate, in its sole discretion, all benefit and compensation plans in effect from time to time.

OBLIGATION TO OBSERVE RULES AND POLICIES

Regular office hours at the Firm are 9:00 am to 6:00 pm. However, the Firm reserves its right from time-to-time to assign you to work in such shifts or request for home-attendance. Additionally, you may be required to work from Firm's office or your home depending on your role and the business needs of the Firm, and in accordance with the Firm's Future of Work Policy, as amended from time to time. Your services are subject to transfer from one establishment to another, from one department to another, from one section to another, in existence as of today and that may come into existence any time in future anywhere in India or abroad.

Please note that as a condition of your employment with the Firm you will be bound by the India Employee Handbook, the MSCI Code of Conduct, and such other policies relating to your employment as may from time-to-time be issued, updated, varied and supplemented by the Firm. In the event of any conflict between those policies and this letter, this letter shall take precedence, unless the policy has been introduced or modified after this letter was issued. Any violation of the rules contained in the India Employee Handbook, the Code of Conduct or related policies and procedures may subject you to disciplinary action, up to and including dismissal. In addition you will be required to read the Employee Handbook electronically after you commence your employment and will be expected to return an acknowledgement form to Human Resources that you will find on the final page.

In accordance with the Firm's Code of Conduct, you acknowledge that in the course of your employment with the Firm or after termination of your employment, you are not permitted to make any unauthorized use of documents or other information, which are confidential or proprietary information of Firm or its clients or employees. Likewise, you may not bring onto Firm premises any confidential documents/information relating to your prior employers' business. You understand and agree that as a condition of employment, unless you are granted a waiver in writing by the Legal and Compliance Department you may be required, upon the commencement of employment, to transfer any brokerage/securities accounts that you may influence or control to a designated institution for surveillance and review by the MSCI Legal and Compliance Department.

DATA PRIVACY

The Firm may disclose personal data relating to you to (i) any of its affiliates, subsidiaries and to its parent company; or (ii) any potential purchasers of any of the Firm's business; or (iii) any party to whom the Firm proposes to transfer any of its rights and/or responsibilities under any agreement it may have with you; or (iv) to any other third party, for any of the purposes set out below.

This offer of employment is conditional upon the successful completion of a background investigation, as set out herein below. This background check may be carried out by a third party service provider and therefore, any information that the Firm may need from you would be shared with such third party third party service provider and you confirm that you do not have any objection to the same.

Such personal data may be collected and processed by the Firm and the abovementioned third parties for several purposes as may be determined by the Firm, including but not limited to, administration of engagement, wages and benefits, performance assessment, reference to third parties, general administration, any other purposes as may be required by applicable law or for any other legitimate business purpose. The particulars of the same will be communicated to you from time to time.

PROMOTION AND OTHER CONTINGENCIES

Your employment will be probationary for the first 3 months. Either the Firm or you may at any time during the period of probation or at its conclusion terminate your employment, upon fourteen days written notice or payment of fourteen days of base salary in lieu of notice. This probation may be extended for an additional 3 months at the discretion of the management. The relevant notice period in the event of any extension shall be 30 days. Your continued service with the Firm will be confirmed in writing on the successful completion of the probation period.

After the probationary period, either you or the Firm may terminate your employment for any reason with 60 days' notice or payment of 60 days base salary in lieu of notice. The Firm reserves the right to change the above mentioned notice period at any time during your employment and upon its communication you will be required to serve such notice period. The Firm reserves the right to require you, for part or all of the notice of termination period, not to perform any duties and remain away from the Firm's premises, although the Firm will continue to maintain your salary and other contractual benefits for this period. You may not commence or prepare to commence employment with or provide services to any company or other business during this period.

ADDITIONAL STEPS

This offer is contingent upon a number of additional steps in the employment process including, but not limited to:

- Any registration or licensing required by the relevant regulatory authority.
- Appropriate proof of successful completion of your present level of education.
- Successful completion of a background check of your employment history and references.
- Credit and criminal check
- Appropriate proof of citizenship and/or the appropriate right-to-work documentation. If you require a visa/work permit and do not currently have one, you are responsible to obtain one before you will be permitted to commence work. Please contact local Human Resources in case you require a visa/work permit.

EXECUTION AND CONTRACT FORMATION

This offer, as to its subject matter, contains a complete statement of all agreements between you and the Firm, constitutes the entire understanding between you and the Firm, and supersedes all prior or contemporaneous verbal or written agreements, understandings or communications (including, without limitation, any term sheet or other summary writing relating to your employment). You acknowledge that you have not relied on any assurance or representation not expressly stated in this offer letter. If there is any conflict with the benefit information included in this letter or any verbal representation and the Plan documents or insurance contracts, the Plan documents or insurance documents control.

Your employment is governed by the laws of India. The Parties agree to the exclusive jurisdiction and venue of the civil courts in Mumbai for the resolution of all disputes arising under this contract of employment.

Dear Vishal,

Congratulations on receiving our offer of internship with Nomura Services India Private Limited ("the firm") in Client Service Technology division. We seek individuals with a distinguished record of achievement, superior leadership skills and commitment to excellence. Throughout our meetings, you have demonstrated these qualities, and we are confident that you will be a strong contributor to our firm.

For the avoidance of doubt, this is a volunteer work placement and you shall not have any employment relationship with the firm. Please understand that the terms and conditions of your internship are governed by the standard firm policies. Among other stipulations, this offer of internship is contingent upon the successful completion of reference checks and you satisfactorily meeting all pre-internship requirements and producing identification to verify your identity.

The firm will provide you with a stipend of INR 50,000 per month, less applicable tax withholdings, as soon as practicable following your internship start date. You will not be entitled to this payment if you fail to commence internship with the firm on the anticipated start date.

This offer of internship is based on your commitment to work exclusively for Nomura for a minimum 25 weeks period beginning on 09 January 2023. It is important that you work the entire period so that we may involve you in a variety of assignments and properly evaluate your potential contribution to the firm. If for any reason you are unable to commit to the 25 weeks period, please notify us before signing this letter.

You shall be eligible to take 1.5 days of leave in a calendar month applicable cumulatively for the term of your internship, together with relevant public holidays, subject to prior written approvals from your reporting manager.

You will be eligible for additional study leave subject to prior written approvals from the firm. You will be required to resume your internship after the completion of your study leave. If at any point in time you exceed the specified days of leaves during your internship then you will be required to put in additional days of work to complete the above mentioned months of internship.

All developments, productions, written work, inventions and improvements of inventions, whether patentable or not, made by you or to which you would have contributed in the course of your internship, and all industrial and intellectual property rights and copyrights made by you or to which you would have contributed in the course of your internship will be and remain the exclusive property of the firm and to the extent necessary you assign any potential rights relating thereto to the firm. This includes but is not limited to all research and research products, firm templates, training materials and presentations, "know-how" developed in spreadsheets and systems developments.

For the purpose of your internship, you may be required to process Personal Information. "Personal Information" means information concerning a living person and includes the full name, date of birth and any other description that can be used to identify a particular person. You agree not to disclose any Personal Information to any third party or agent who does not need to have access to the same in order for you to perform your work as an intern or use Personal Information for any other purpose other than your internship without the firm's prior consent. You will take all necessary measures to protect any Personal Data processed by you against unauthorized or unlawful processing, accidental loss, leakage or destruction and notify the firm immediately if a leak, loss or abuse of Personal Information or any such breach is discovered by you. You shall hold harmless and indemnify the firm against any loss suffered by it as a result of any breach by you of the provisions of this clause.

You will be eligible for medical insurance coverage for self upto INR 300,000/- per year.

The firm may procure commercial general liability insurance or such other insurance cover as it may require in connection with the internship. You hereby agree that if for any reason you receive any payments by way of compensation or costs or in any other manner under the relevant insurance policy, you shall promptly repay/refund such amounts to the firm in such manner as may be prescribed by the firm. You shall not without the prior consent in writing from the firm make any admission, offer, promise or payment in connection with any claim against you by any third party in connection with the insurance procured by the firm and the firm if it so desires, shall be entitled to take over and conduct in the name of the firm the defense or settlement of any claim.

You agree to indemnify the firm, its officers and its affiliates from and against any claim, action or damages arising out of your work and/or a breach of the terms of this letter.

The firm may terminate this internship at any time (without cause, reason and penalty), upon 7 days prior notice ("Notice Period"). Notwithstanding the said Notice Period, the firm may terminate your internship immediately upon occurrence of any of the following events; (a) If the firm deems your performance to be unsatisfactory or not in accordance with these terms and conditions; (b) If you fail to clear background check as carried out by the Firm; (c) If you fail to satisfy any of the terms and conditions of this letter; and (d) If you breach any of the firm's policies, any obligations relating to confidentiality, intellectual property. In an event you're unable to intern during the Notice Period while the firm requires you to do so, then you shall be liable to pay to the firm an amount equivalent to your stipend for the said period.

The terms and conditions of this letter of internship shall be governed and interpreted according to the laws of India. Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or in connection with this letter of internship shall be resolved by binding, final arbitration in Mumbai, pursuant to the Rules of Arbitration of the International Chamber of Commerce. The language of the arbitration shall be English.

Dear Shweta,

Your Internship by J.P. Morgan:

Congratulations on joining the J.P. Morgan family. We are pleased to confirm your internship with J.P. Morgan Services India Private Limited (the "Company").

You will find your personal internship terms outlined in Appendix A with general internship terms and conditions in Appendix B. Please note these terms and conditions supersede any verbal discussions you may have previously had with any JPMorgan Chase employee with regards to your internship arrangements.

A number of important policies will apply to your internship with the Company, including the Personal Account Dealing Policy and the Code of Conduct. We provide more information about these policies in Appendix C and it is essential that you carefully read and understand their requirements. By signing this letter, you confirm that you have read, understood and agree to be bound by these policies. In addition, you will be required to abide by all other Company policies and regulations (including JPMorgan Chase group of companies (the "Group") policies) and with applicable law.

Should you have queries in relation to your employment terms, your benefits or Company policies, please contact our HR Answers hotline at 000 800 440 5210 (local toll free) or +1 212-552-5100 (international).

Please be reminded your internship terms should be treated with the strictest confidence. To accept this offer of internship, please click on the 'Accept' button at the bottom of this page on or before 13-Dec-2022.

We are excited to welcome you to our Company and take this opportunity to wish you every success in taking this next step of your career with us.

Appendix A – PERSONAL INTERNSHIP TERMS AND CONDITIONS

A1. Title/Category

You will join us as an intern in the Software Engineer Program at JPMorgan Chase & Co., and will carry out your role while physically present in the J.P. Morgan offices in Mumbai, India.

A2. Internship Commencement Date

Your internship shall begin on 06-Feb-2023 ("Start Date") and shall continue, subject to the remaining terms of this agreement, until it terminates on 31-May-2023 ("End Date") without the need for notice, unless previously terminated by either party pursuant to paragraph 4 of Appendix B.

In addition to the conditions set out in paragraph 1 of Appendix B, your offer is subject to you successfully meeting the educational criteria that has already been communicated to you in writing.

A3. Working Hours

Your manager will assign you specific working hours, often during the Company's normal office hours. Depending on the needs of your department, however, you may be required to work outside the official hours to fulfill your duties.

A4. Stipend

Your stipend will be INR70,000/- per month.

Relocation Lump Sum

You will receive an additional, one-time lump sum of INR85000("the Additional Sum") gross with your first stipend. This payment will be made to you in the first available payroll after you join the Company. You should be aware that this might be in the month of joining or the following month depending on your commencement date and when all necessary data is received. This is to assist with any relocation expenses you may incur prior to joining.

If you leave the internship or your internship is terminated for any reason, you must repay to the Company the Additional Sum on a pro-rated basis as set out below:

If your internship period is longer than 3 months and you leave the internship or your internship is terminated for any reason within three months of your date of commencement you must repay to the Company 100% of the gross amount of the Additional Sum

If your internship period is longer than 3 months and you leave the internship or your internship is terminated for any reason more than three months but within twelve months of your date of commencement you must repay to the Company 50% of the gross amount of

the Additional Sum

If your internship period is less than 3 months and you leave the internship or your internship is terminated for any reason before completion of your internship period you must repay the Company 100% of the gross amount of the Additional Sum

A5. Probationary Period

Your internship will be subject to a probation period as outlined in paragraph 4.3 of Appendix B.

A6. Leave Entitlement

A6.1 Annual Leave

You are entitled to 20 working days of annual leave with full pay in every calendar year, pro-rated according to the duration of your employment in accordance with the Company's Human Resources Policies and applicable law. If you work part-time hours, your annual leave entitlement will be pro-rated to reflect your part-time hours worked.

A6.2 Other Leave

You can find further details of other leave entitlements in paragraph 5 of Appendix B.

A7. Benefits

You will not be entitled to join the Company's benefits programs, given the short length of your fixed-term contract.

A8. Retirement Scheme

You are not eligible for retirement benefits.

A9. Notice Period

During your probationary period, starting the day you join the Company, either you or the Company may terminate your employment with at least 14 days' written notice or payment of wages in lieu of such notice period.

After the probationary period, either party can terminate the employment by giving the other party 30 Days written notice ("Notice Period") or by the Company making a payment in lieu of Notice Period.

APPENDIX B – GENERAL INTERNSHIP TERMS AND CONDITIONS

B1. Internship

B1.1 Your internship is subject to:

- a) you being able to carry out your role in India while being able to be physically present in an JPMC office in Mumbai, India and obtaining and maintaining throughout your entire period of internship a valid work permit and such other permission, license or registration as may from time to time be necessary to enable you to carry out your duties and continue your internship.
- b) the completion of all pre-employment screening processes to the satisfaction of the Company, including obtaining education verification, background references and checks as sought and the execution of any other forms necessary for internship, etc.; and
- c) you being legally able to work with the Company. You undertake to disclose any internship or contractual post-internship restraints to which you are subject and which may, and will continue to, affect your internship with us and represent and warrant that:
 - ix. by entering into internship with the Company and performing the duties set out in this letter, you will not be in breach of any express or implied term of any internship or other agreement or arrangement to which you are party;
 - i. you have not taken or otherwise misappropriated and you do not have in your possession or control any confidential and proprietary information belonging to any of your prior employers, or any third party providing services to your prior employer, or connected with or derived from your services to prior employers and you have returned to all prior employers any and all such confidential or proprietary information; and
 - ii. you are not subject to any other internship, including being subject to garden leave or any contractual post-internship restraints.

You shall indemnify and hold harmless the Company from any and all claims arising from any breach of the warranties in this paragraph B1.

- B1.2 Whilst you and/or the Company may have agreed a tentative date of commencement of internship with the Company, you will not, unless the Company decides otherwise, be able to commence internship with the Company without our receipt of completed and satisfactory results from our pre-employment screening process.
- B1.3 You may be required to provide services for other members of the Group throughout your internship. When providing these services, you may from time to time be required to travel and work in different locations within and outside your hiring location.

B2 Remuneration

B2.1 We will deposit your stipend (paragraph 4 of Appendix A) on or around the 30th of each month.

B2.2 You will be responsible for all tax liabilities world-wide arising out of payments pursuant to your internship with the Company.

B2.3 Any payment of salary or bonus by, or other sum due to you from the Company shall be subject to any and all withholding or deduction (or, including but not limited to, any taxes, contributions, repayments or other sums which you have agreed that the Company may withhold/deduct or which the Company is obliged or entitled to withhold/deduct from time to time under any applicable law), and the Company shall in such case be entitled to withhold, deduct or retain the amount of such tax, withholding or deduction from any sum payable to you.

B3 Incentive Compensation

For this position, you won't be eligible for incentive awards under the JPMorgan Chase Performance-Based Incentive Compensation Plan or any other non-annual incentive compensation plan.

B4 Termination

B4.1 Your internship may be terminated as follows:

- By either party giving to the other prior written notice of at least the period specified, as applicable, in paragraph 9 in Appendix A (the 'Notice Period'), or by the Company making a payment in lieu of notice for all or part of such Notice Period of an amount equal to basic salary you would have been entitled to receive during the Notice period or part of the Notice Period.
- By the Company at any time without notice or compensation if you:

- are guilty of fraud, dishonesty or misconduct which is inconsistent with the due and faithful discharge of your duties;

- ii) seriously breach the Code of Conduct and any other Company policies;
 - iii) disobey the Company's lawful and reasonable instructions/requirements;
 - iv) habitually neglect your duties; or
 - v) otherwise commit a material or repeated breach of your internship terms or any of the Company's or Group's policies.
- B4.2 During any Notice Period, the Company may put you on "garden leave" and may, amongst other things, do any or a combination of the following:
 - (a) suspend you from the performance of any duties or assign you alternative duties;
 - (b) exclude you from any premises of the Company or any of the Group companies and/or require you to work from another location;
 - (c) require that you have no or limited contact or communication, other than purely social contact, with any employees, officers, directors, agents or consultants of the Company or any other member of the Group;
 - (d) require that you have no or limited contact or communication with any customer or client of the Company or any other member of the Group;
 - (e) remove your access to the Company premises and computer systems;
 - (f) require that you return any property belonging to the Company under paragraph 7 in this Appendix;
 - (g) require you not to do any act or thing, or make or cause to be made, any statement reasonably likely to damage the business or reputation of the Company or the Group.
- B4.3 If paragraph 5 of Appendix A states that your employment is subject to probation, your probation period will be the first 3 months of employment, which you agree is reasonable, and fair, in light of the responsibilities of the role.
- B4.4 At its sole discretion, the Company may notify you of an extension to your probationary period.
- B4.5 All your duties (whether express or implied) under your internship and this letter, including without limitation your duty of fidelity, good faith, exclusive service and duties in relation to the Group's confidential information shall continue throughout the Notice Period including any period that you are on garden leave.

B4.6 During any Notice Period:

- (a) you will provide such assistance as the Company may require to effect an orderly handover of your duties and responsibilities to any individual appointed by the Company or any of the Group Companies to take over your role or responsibilities; and
- (b) you shall make yourself available to deal with requests for information, provide assistance, be available for meetings and to advise on matters relating to work.

B5. Leave

B5.1 Annual Leave

- (a) You will be entitled to annual leave with full pay in every calendar year – please see paragraph 6 of Appendix A, pro-rated according to the duration of your employment. The Company will be entitled to determine when annual leave is taken, although as far as possible, arrangements will be made to suit your convenience. Annual leave entitlement for each calendar year must be taken in that calendar year and only in exceptional circumstances can annual leave (other than unused statutory entitlement, if any) be carried forward into the following calendar year. All annual leave days taken will be deducted first from the statutory entitlement accumulation.
- (b) After a notice of termination has been given pursuant to paragraph B4.1 of this Appendix, you will not be entitled to take any annual leave without the express consent of the Company provided after notice of termination has been given.
- (c) You must comply with the Company's 'consecutive days leave' policies.

B5.2 Sick Leave

Any sick leave entitlement will be subject to relevant legislation and J.P. Morgan internal policies that are in force and amended from time to time. More details are set out in the me@jpmc website, which will be accessible to you upon commencement of your employment.

B5.3 Suspension Leave

The Company has the right to suspend you from your work duties with full pay when it considers it necessary to investigate any allegation of misconduct or impropriety on your part. The Company can exercise this right at its sole discretion, acting in good faith.

B6. Confidentiality

You acknowledge that a vast amount of privileged and confidential information will be disclosed to you in course of your internship with the Company and during your internship with the Company and thereafter, you shall keep secret and shall not at any time (whether during or after the period of your internship) use for your own or another's advantage, or reveal to any person, firm or company, any of the trade secrets, business methods and plans, financial matters, client lists, investments, marketing plans, personnel matters or other information which you knew or reasonably ought to have known to be confidential concerning the business or affairs of the Company or any other member of the Group or any of their related companies, clients or suppliers.

You agree to abide by the specific provisions on the use of confidential information in the Company's policies and Group code of conduct.

The restriction contained in this paragraph shall not apply to any disclosure or use authorised by the Company or required by law.

B7. Return of Company Property

You acknowledge that any privileged or confidential information disclosed to you in the course of your internship with the Company remains the exclusive property of the Company and whenever requested by the Company and/or Group and in any event upon the termination of your internship, you will promptly deliver to the Company and/or Group all documents and other materials (whether originals or copies or in hard copy or electronic form) concerning the Company and/or Group or their respective clients and suppliers, which may have been prepared by you or have come into your possession, custody or control in the course of your internship with the Company. This includes, without limitation, any confidential information, lists of clients or suppliers, correspondence, electronic equipment, computer software or hardware, staff identity cards card and other property used in connection with the operations of the Company and/or Group. You will not be entitled to, and will not retain, any copies, title and copyright in such correspondence and other documents, papers, records and property are vested in the Company and/or Group.

B8. Post internship Restrictions

- B8.1 For a period of three months commencing on the Relevant Date, you shall not directly or indirectly (whether on your own account, for or with any other person, firm or company) solicit or endeavor to entice away from the Company or any other Group Company any Critical Person.

B8.2 For a period of three months commencing on the Relevant Date, you shall not directly or indirectly (whether on your own account, for or with any other person, firm or company) solicit or endeavor to entice away from the Company or any other Group Company the business or custom of any Restricted Client.

B8.3 The duration of the restrictions will be reduced by any period of notice that you work out or

any period of garden leave as provided in this offer letter.

B8.4 In this paragraph B8:

- "Critical Person" means any person who was an employee or director of the Company or any other Group Company at any time within one year prior to the Relevant Date who had access to trade secrets or confidential information of the Company or any other Group Company. This includes knowledge of, involvement with or influence over suppliers or clients of the Company or any other Group Company with whom you worked at any time during that period.
- "Group Company" means the Company, its ultimate holding company, any subsidiary of the Company and any holding company from time to time. "Subsidiary" and "holding company" shall have the same meaning as in the relevant companies' legislation.
- "Restricted Client" means any person:
 - who in the one year before the Relevant Date was a client of, or has dealt with, the Company or any other Group Company; and
 - with whose custom or business you, or persons reporting to you, were personally involved with during the period of one year prior to the Relevant Date
 - but does not include publicly known institutional clients which you serve subsequent to your internship with the Company without the use of confidential or proprietary information of the Company and the Group.
- "Relevant Date" means the date your internship with the Company or the Group terminates for whatever reason.

B8.5 You acknowledge and agree:

- that each of the foregoing paragraphs constitutes an entirely separate and independent restriction on you;
- that the duration, extent and application of each restrictions, obligations and undertakings are reasonable and necessary to protect legitimate interests of the Company and the Group, considering, among other things, that the Company has commercial dealings with business partners throughout the world and that you will regularly be dealing with such partners as part of your duties and you understand that it does not by any means prevent you from earning a living in a satisfactory way;
- that, if any such restriction (or parts of a restriction) shall be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be void or unenforceable, the validity or enforceability of the remaining restrictions (or parts of a restriction) shall remain in full force and effect as if the unenforceable parts had been deleted. Damages may be an inadequate compensation for breach of any of the restrictions in this paragraph and, subject to a court's discretion, in the event of any actual or threatened breach of any provision of this paragraph, you agree that the Company shall be entitled to (on behalf of itself and on behalf of any other Group Company) restrain, by injunction, equitable relief or similar remedy, any conduct or threatened conduct by you. You expressly submit to the jurisdiction of any court of competent jurisdiction for this purpose, and in the event you receive from any person an offer of employment (whether oral or in writing and whether accepted or not), either during your Internship or the continuation in force of all or any of the restrictions applicable to you, whether pursuant to this letter or the Code of Conduct, you shall provide to the person making such an offer of employment a full and accurate copy of the then current restrictions applicable to you.

- d) that any benefit given or deemed to be given by you to the Group under the terms of this paragraph is received and held on trust by the Company for the relevant Group Company. You will enter into appropriate restrictive covenants directly with other Group Companies if asked to do so by the Company.
- e) that your Internship with the Company and the compensation paid and/or payable to you by the Company shall be sufficient consideration for the purposes of this clause. You further agree and acknowledge that the limitations as to time and the character or nature placed in this clause are reasonable and fair and will not preclude you from earning a livelihood, nor will they unreasonably impose limitations on your ability to earn a living.
- f) that this offer letter constitutes a valid, legally binding and enforceable obligation on you and this document is not in violation of any applicable law.
- g) that any breach or threat of breach on your part of any one of such obligations and/or undertakings would cause serious harm to the Company or the Group which may then institute any legal recourse against you that is deemed appropriate and/or recourse in damages, without further notice or delay.
- i) in addition, you agree and acknowledge that the potential harm to the Company of the non-enforcement of this clause outweighs any potential harm to you and that you have given careful consideration to the restraints imposed upon you by this clause and that you are in full agreement as to their necessity for the reasonable and proper protection of the Company's interests. You expressly acknowledge and agree that each and every restraint imposed by this clause is reasonable with respect to subject matter, time period and geographical area.

- B9. Code of Conduct and Staff Regulations and Affirmation
- B9.1 It is a condition of your continuing internship and it is your obligation that you comply with:
- the Code of Conduct (as amended from time to time or superseded). At the time of acceptance of the offer of internship and on a periodic basis, you will be required to sign an affirmation (or re-affirmation) confirming your understanding and compliance with the provisions of the Code of Conduct; and
 - the Company's other internal policies and procedures and all relevant policies and procedures for the line of business in which you are to undertake work.
- B9.2 The Company shall be entitled at any time to amend the Company's internal policies and procedures (including but not limited to the Code of Conduct), the benefits set out in the Appendices and other staff regulations, as well as to put in place new policies as the Company sees fit. Any such amendments shall be notified in writing to each employee and shall on provision of such notice, become legally binding.
- B9.3 The Company's Human Resources work policies are set out in the me@jpmc website, as amended from time to time. Please take time to familiarise yourself with these policies when you begin your internship.
- B9.4 To the extent that the contents of policies or procedures refer to obligations on the Company, you agree that they are guides only and are not contractual terms, conditions or representations on which you rely.

B10. Working Hours

- B10.1 Your total working hours (including break(s)) is 40 hours per working week during the tenure of your internship and you should attend office 5 days every working week. Your working hours may be revised at the discretion of the Company.

B11. Retirement Benefits

You are not eligible for retirement benefits.

B12. Contract Execution

- B12.1 You acknowledge and agree that:

- This letter may be delivered in a digital or physical format. Subject to any applicable law, where the letter is provided in a digital format, you acknowledge and agree that it is being executed electronically and that it is enforceable.

- (b) You have read and understood the terms of this letter and have been provided with an opportunity to review and discuss the terms of it with advisors, if you so desire.
- (c) Should any further assurances be required or sought by the Company, you shall in good faith perform such further actions (including executing a physical copy of this letter)

B13. Governing Law and Jurisdiction

This letter and any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with it or its subject matter or formation (including non-contractual disputes or claims) shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of India. You and the Company submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the Mumbai, Maharashtra courts in relation to any dispute arising in connection with your internship and this letter.

APPENDIX C - SYSTEMS MONITORING ACTIVITIES AND CROSS-BORDER TRANSFERS, PERSONAL ACCOUNT DEALING POLICY, AND CODE OF CONDUCT

Appendix: Systems Monitoring Activities and Cross-Border Transfers:

The following provides a summary of how JPMorgan Chase & Co., its affiliates and its subsidiaries and the entity that employs you, or for which you provide services (collectively, "JPMC"), conducts Systems monitoring. JPMC may conduct monitoring to the extent permitted by applicable law.

JPMC conducts monitoring of JPMC's physical facilities and its equipment and systems (collectively, the "Systems"). System monitoring applies to your JPMC equipment, your personal equipment when accessing the Systems, and the communications, information, and materials conveyed or accessed using the Systems. Monitoring activities may include the monitoring and logging of traffic and usage data of all electronic communications; monitoring of telephone calls to or from JPMC work telephones as permitted by applicable laws and subject to any required notices; monitoring of the contents of electronic communications, files, databases, applications, and internet usage; and logging hours worked and physical presence at JPMC's facilities if applicable. JPMC may at all times monitor, access, retrieve, record and review information obtained from the monitoring activities for various purposes, such as preventing and investigating activities that may violate JPMC's policies and ensuring compliance with legal or regulatory obligations. While conducting monitoring activities, JPMC may obtain and process personal information about you and others that may reside on the Systems.

The monitoring activities (including JPMC's collection and processing of personal or other information) are required for purposes of your employment or work assignment to promote adherence to applicable policies and regulations. Subject to applicable laws and regulations, if you object to this processing, JPMC may prohibit you from using the Systems; terminate offers of employment or work assignment; and, for employees, take disciplinary action against you, up to and including termination of your employment with JPMC.

In addition to the monitoring activities discussed above, JPMC may obtain and store other information related to your employment or other working relationship, such as your compensation information, performance information, benefits information and other workplace-related data. JPMC may transfer such information, and the information it obtains in connection with monitoring activities, to countries other than the country in which the information originally was collected, including to the United States.

Understanding Obligations under the Firm's Personal Account Dealing Policy (PAD):

The Personal Account Dealing Policy (Policy) of JPMorgan Chase & Co. (firm or JPMC) is designed to help prevent and detect violations of securities laws and industry conduct standards and to minimize actual or perceived conflicts of interest that could arise due to personal investing activities.

PAD Compliance will notify you if the position you are being offered is considered to be subject to the Policy. You will remain subject for the duration of your time working in a subject group, unless notified otherwise of a change in subject status. Unless otherwise notified, you will continue to be subject to the provisions of the Policy even during leaves of absence from the firm, including, but not limited to, garden leave or medical leave.

You as well as your Connected Persons are subject to the provisions of this Policy and will need to be familiar with the obligations set forth in this policy. Connected Persons includes your spouse, domestic partner or minor children (even if financially independent) as well as anyone to whom you provide significant financial support or for which you, or anyone listed above, has or shares the power, directly or indirectly, to make investment decisions.

Once subject to the Policy, you must disclose and certify your Covered Accounts (which include accounts of your Connected Persons). You will be required to maintain your self-directed Covered Accounts with one of the firm's Approved Brokers and pre-clear all purchases, sales, pledges and gifts (received and given) of publicly traded and privately held financial instruments, unless listed as specifically exempt. Pre-approval confirmation is must be received prior to executing the trade or investment. The firm may impose periodic restrictions on personal trading in certain financial securities. These restrictions can apply to all firm subject Workforce Members and their Connected Persons or may be limited to certain groups. Subject Workforce Members and their Connected Persons are not permitted to recommend or transact in the financial instruments of an issuer while in the possession of material non-public information (MNPI) regarding that issuer.

If you are a seasonal or short term employee the following requirements will apply:

JPMorgan Chase requires that seasonal workers refrain from trading in Covered Accounts for the time period that you are employed in a short term training program. Please verify that you will

comply with the following personal trading requirements:

1. For the duration of the short term program I am joining I will not trade in any of my Covered Accounts
2. I understand that the Firm has the right to request account information for any of my Covered Accounts
3. If there is an extenuating circumstance that would compel me to place a trade in my Covered Accounts, I will obtain pre-approval of the trade by the Personal Account Dealing Group and I would be responsible for supplying all confirmations and statements to the Personal Account Dealing Group for that trade

*The term Covered Accounts refers to any securities accounts no matter where they are located and includes, but is not limited to, those accounts that are established, maintained or controlled (either directly or indirectly) by you, your spouse, domestic partner or minor children (even if financially independent), anyone to whom you provide significant financial support, and in which the employee has a direct or indirect financial interest.

Global Personal Trading Policy:

The Personal Account Dealing of JPMorgan Chase & Co. is designed to help prevent and detect violations of securities laws and industry conduct standards and to minimize actual or perceived conflicts of interest that could arise due to personal investing activities. This Policy includes requirements for disclosing Covered Accounts, maintaining certain accounts at one of the firm's Approved Brokers, preclearing trades, and restrictions and prohibitions on certain types of trading activity. This Policy is subject to any applicable local laws and rules and should be read in conjunction with Supplements (regional/LOB) as well as the firm's Code of Conduct.

Conflict of Interests and Outside Interests:

Under JPMorgan Chase & Co.'s (JPMC) Code of Conduct, employees are responsible for avoiding activities or relationships that might affect their objectivity in making decisions as an employee. Employees are not permitted to allow their personal interest to conflict, or appear to conflict, with their JPMC role and responsibilities.

Outside Interests include second jobs, not for profit activities, government positions, and positions with external companies and organizations as a director, officer, advisor, sole proprietor, consultant or owner of any business. Outside Interests may result in an actual or perceived conflict of interest. Where actual or potential conflicts of interest cannot be mitigated, you may be required to discontinue the activity or dissolve your investment.

Employees are required to seek preclearance prior to engaging in Outside Interests or immediately upon joining JPMC. Where preclearance is not required, employee must adhere to all restrictions and conditions outlined in Section 5 and 6 of the Outside Interest Policy.

Conflicts of interests may also arise from: (1) personal and business relationships; (2) the exchange of gifts and business hospitality; (3) political engagement; and (4) personal finances. Employees should avoid activities or relationships that might affect their objectivity in making decisions on behalf of JPMC or undermine their credibility. Employees may never place personal interests ahead of our clients' interests. All potential and actual conflicts must be escalated to your manager for review and mitigation.

Acceptance and Code Affirmation:

Upon signing this letter I accept the terms and conditions described above.

I hereby affirm that I have read, understand, and am in compliance with the JPMorgan Chase ("JPMC") Code of Conduct and all internal JPMC policies that apply to me. I agree, as a condition of my employment, to remain in compliance with the Code of Conduct and all applicable JPMC policies.

I understand that I must conduct myself in a way that is consistent with the Code of Conduct, demonstrating compliance with the principles and intent of the Code of Conduct, and applicable laws and regulations.

I also affirm that I have reported any potential or actual violations of the Code of Conduct, JPMC policies, or laws or regulations applicable to JPMC's business, as required by the Code of Conduct. I understand that failure to do so can result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

I understand that the Code of Conduct may be updated periodically, as necessary; and that the current version is posted on the JPMorgan Chase intranet as well as on its public website.

Independent Auditor Tax Services to Employees of JPMorgan Chase and its Affiliates:

To be in compliance with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (PCAOB) Rule 3523, it is JPMorgan Chase's (JPMC) policy that PricewaterhouseCoopers (PwC) cannot provide any tax services to employees of JPMC or any of its controlled entities (hereafter referred to as JPMC employee). This restriction is regardless of whether the individual is in a financial reporting oversight role or not, and whether PwC is engaged by the individual or by JPMC. PwC is also prohibited from providing any tax services to a spouse of a JPMC employee if the work is related to a joint tax return. Exceptions to this policy will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis and will require the approval of the JPMC Controller.

Dear Aditi,

On behalf of Amazon Development Centre (India) Private Limited, a company incorporated under the laws of India, having its registered office at # 26/1, Brigade Gateway, World Trade Centre, 10th Floor, Dr. Rajkumar Road, Malleshwaram (W) Bangalore - 560 055, Karnataka India (hereinafter the "Company" or "Amazon India"), we are very pleased to issue this Internship Letter for the position of an Intern at Pune, India.

Your internship with the Company will be subject to your acceptance of this Internship Letter and the terms and conditions set forth hereinbelow on or before 10 business days in the manner provided for by the Company.

Upon your acceptance of this Internship Letter, the same shall form a valid and binding agreement between Amazon India and you, and you shall be bound by the terms and conditions stipulated herein below.

1. Date of Commencement

Your internship with Amazon India will commence on 09-Jan-2023 and shall end as per the provisions contained in Section 12 herein below. The said duration of internship shall hereinafter be referred to as the "Term".

2. Duties

- 2.1 You will be engaged in the position of Software Dev Engineer Intern. Your manager will advise you about your duties and responsibilities after your joining with us. You will be expected to perform your duties to the best of your ability at all times as per the responsibilities advised by your manager at the time of joining or as amended from time to time, as well as such other tasks as may be required by Amazon India.

- 2.2 You will be required to comply with Amazon India's rules, regulations and policies from time to time in force, including, without limitation, those policies set out in Amazon India's Policies and Procedures (as may be applicable to you), as communicated to you. Amazon India reserves the right to change Amazon India's Policies and Procedures from time to time at its sole discretion and you shall be bound by the same, so far as may be applicable to you.
- 2.3 You acknowledge that during the Term, as the business of Amazon India changes, it may be necessary to rotate you in other departments / units. Amazon India therefore reserves the right to change your role and responsibilities from time to time at its sole discretion and without assigning any reason, it being understood that you will not be assigned responsibilities which you cannot reasonably perform.
- 2.4 Unless specified in writing, you shall not be authorised to enter into any contractual obligations on behalf of Amazon India or its affiliates including creating a lien (statutory or other), security interest, mortgage, pledge, assignment, encumbrance, chattel or conditional sale or other title retention agreement or any other financial obligations or otherwise on behalf of Amazon India or its affiliates.

3. Hours of Work

The normal business hours of the office, at which you work, will apply to you and these will be advised on commencement of internship and when there is a change. You may be required to work in shifts for different workhours or workdays during the week depending on the business or team that you may be working for. You will be advised by your manager or department about such requirements at the time of joining and from time to time during the course of your internship, as appropriate. Certain business teams also operate on 24x7 basis and hence, may have rotational shifts or related requirements for their respective team members. Please refer to Amazon India's Policies and Procedures for further details.

4. Place of Work

Your initial place of work will be at Amazon India's facility in Pune. However, you should be aware that the Company and/or its affiliates have offices throughout the world and because of the nature of your duties, the Company has the right to transfer you from one place to another or from one section to another or from one unit to any other unit of the Company, its parent company or to any of its sister concerns, which are either existing or may be set up in future. The decision of the Company in this regard shall be final and binding on you. As you are joining

7.2 Confidentiality Obligations:

- (i) You acknowledge that you have acquired and/or will acquire Confidential Information during the course of, or incident to, your internship with the Company, and that the ability of the Company to continue in business could be seriously jeopardized if such Confidential Information were to be used by you or by other persons or firms to compete with the Company. Accordingly, you agree that you shall not, directly or indirectly, at any time, during the term of your internship with the Company or at any time thereafter, and without regard to when or for what reason, if any, such internship shall terminate, use or cause to be used any Confidential Information in connection with any activity or business except the business of the Company, and shall not disclose or cause to be disclosed any Confidential Information to any individual, partnership, corporation, or other entity unless such disclosure has been specifically authorized in writing by the Company, or except as may be required by any applicable law or by order of a court of competent jurisdiction, or any regulatory or governmental body. Further, you agree that you will give the Company prompt notice of any such order/direction of a court/ regulatory or governmental body so that the Company may seek relief by way of a protective order or other appropriate remedy, and further will provide any assistance which the Company may reasonably require in order to secure such order or such remedy (with your expenses reasonably incurred in providing such assistance to be reimbursed by the Company). In the event such protective order or other remedy is not obtained, you shall furnish only that portion of the Confidential Information which is legally required by the governmental entity or regulatory authority; and will use reasonable efforts to obtain confidential treatment for any Confidential Information so disclosed.
- (ii) During the course of your internship with the Company and at the date of termination thereof (hereinafter the "Date of Termination"), you shall promptly disclose and deliver over to the Company, without additional compensation, in writing, or in such form and manner as the Company may reasonably require, the Disclosure Information defined in Section 7.1(9) hereinabove, to the extent that such disclosure could reasonably be expected to be of interest to the Company.
- (iii) Nothing in this Internship Letter shall be deemed to dilute or waive any rights related to the protection of trade secrets that the Company may have under common law or any applicable statutes.

management throughout the Amazon group worldwide will be authorised to access this database.

10. Exclusivity

During your internship, you will be required to devote your full time, attention and abilities to your assignment, and to act in the best interests of Amazon India at all times. You shall not, without the written consent of Amazon India, be in any way directly or indirectly engaged or concerned in any other business or undertaking or undertake any internship therein.

11. Relationship of parties

This internship opportunity neither creates the relationship of employer and employee between the Company and you, nor does it assure or guarantee future employment with the Company.

12. Termination of Internship

- 12.1 Your internship will automatically end on 23-Jun-2023, unless terminated earlier as per the provisions of this Section.
- 12.2 This Internship Letter may be terminated either by the Company or by you at any point of time during the Term, without providing any reasons for such termination. Such termination shall be valid and effective only if communicated to the other party in writing at least one day prior to the date of termination.
- 12.3 On the expiry or sooner termination of your internship for any reason whatsoever, you will return to Amazon India, without delay, all assets belonging to Amazon India, correspondence, records, specifications, models, notes, formulations, lists, papers, reports and other documents and all copies thereof and other property belonging to Amazon India or relating to its business affairs or dealing which are in your possession or under your control. At Amazon India's option, you agree to provide a written certification of your compliance with this Section. Further, you agree to sign a termination certificate in accordance with Amazon India's Policies and Procedures, which will reaffirm your compliance of your post-termination obligations, including return of Amazon India's property/properties and releasing Amazon India from all claims, liabilities and obligations. Where Amazon has made any excess payment to you as part of your relieving formalities, whether or not such excess payment is termed "Full and Final Settlement", you shall be obligated and liable to repay such excess amount forthwith upon being notified by Amazon.

- 13.1 It is Amazon India's policy to investigate all its new interns. Your internship is conditional upon the information contained in your application form and/or curriculum vitae being true and accurate, including (but not limited to) your educational and professional qualifications, the documents furnished by you being genuine, and upon reference checks to be conducted by Amazon India being successfully completed.
- 13.2 You authorise Amazon India to conduct such searches with government or enforcement authorities as are necessary to enable it to verify that you do not hold any criminal convictions.

14. Foreign Nationals

- 14.1 In case you are not an Indian national and, under any law, are required to obtain applicable visa / work permit / authorisation or permission from appropriate government authorities to work in India, you are required to ensure all such permissions are obtained before commencement of internship with Amazon India.
- 14.2 You are also required to ensure all future correspondence and permissions for continued stay and internship in the country as per the governing law are complied with at all times. If required, Amazon shall be at liberty to demand copies / originals of such permission.
- 14.3 It is made clear that possessing valid work permit / authorisation at all times of your internship is an inherent requirement of your internship with Amazon India. Any time after the execution of this Internship Letter, if it is found that you do not have required work permit / visa, Amazon India shall terminate your internship, without notice, with immediate effect, without any liability towards you.

15. Representations and Warranties

You hereby represent and warrant to the Company that:

- 15.1 you shall not, during the course of your internship with the Company, use or disclose any document/s that in any way constitutes confidential, proprietary or trade secret information of a third party, except pursuant to written authorization by such third party to do so;
- 15.2 you are not in unauthorized possession or control of any document/s that in any way constitutes confidential, proprietary or trade secret information of a third party;

16. Notices

All notices issued by you to the Company or by the Company to you shall be sent either by registered post, courier through a recognised courier service provider or email transmission which shall be deemed to have been received the next working day provided the notice is also sent by registered post the next working day after email transmission.

17. Waiver

Failure of the Company to insist upon strict adherence of any term of this Internship Letter on any occasion/s shall not be considered a waiver thereof or deprive the Company of the right thereafter to insist upon strict adherence to that term or any other term of this Internship Letter.

18. Severability

The holding of any provision of this Internship Letter to be illegal, invalid, or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction shall not affect any other provision hereof, which shall remain in full force and effect.

19. Liability for Breach

You acknowledge and accept that your breach of any of the terms contained in this Internship Letter and/or Amazon India's Policies and Procedures (as may be applicable to you) may cause the Company irreparable harm for which there is no adequate remedy at law, and therefore, the Company shall be entitled to the issuance by a court of competent jurisdiction of an order of injunction, restraining order, or other equitable relief in favor of itself, without the necessity of posting a bond, restraining you from committing or continuing to commit any such violation. Exercise or waiver by the Company of its rights to obtain an injunction, restraining order, or other equitable relief hereunder shall not be deemed a waiver of any right to assert any other remedy the Company may have at law or in equity. 20. Governing Law and Jurisdiction

Your internship, and any disputes which may arise under, out of, or in connection with your internship, shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of India; and the Courts having territorial jurisdiction over the registered office of the Company shall alone have exclusive jurisdiction to try and entertain such disputes to the exclusion of any other Courts situated elsewhere.

21. Agreement/Modifications

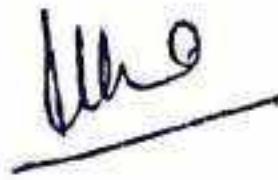

The terms described in this Internship Letter and in Amazon's Policies and Procedures (as may be applicable to you), will cumulatively constitute the terms of your internship, and shall supersede any previous discussions, offers, or agreements relating to your internship, or the subject matter hereof. Any additions to, deletions of, or modifications of these terms are valid and effective only if the same are carried out in writing and signed by you and an officer of Amazon India.

22. Headings

The Section headings appearing in this Internship Letter are used for convenience of reference only and shall not be considered a part of this Internship Letter or in any way modify, amend or affect the meaning of any of its provisions.

23. Survival

Your obligations under Sections 7, 12, 17, 18, 19, 20 and this Section 23 hereof shall survive the termination of this Internship Letter and of your internship with the Company.

Dear Anushka,

Your Internship by J.P. Morgan

Congratulations on joining the J.P. Morgan family. We are pleased to confirm your internship with J.P. Morgan Services India Private Limited (the "Company").

You will find your personal internship terms outlined in Appendix A with general internship terms and conditions in Appendix B. Please note these terms and conditions supersede any verbal discussions you may have previously had with any JPMorgan Chase employee with regards to your internship arrangements.

A number of important policies will apply to your internship with the Company, including the Personal Account Dealing Policy and the Code of Conduct. We provide more information about these policies in Appendix C and it is essential that you carefully read and understand their requirements. By signing this letter, you confirm that you have read, understood and agree to be bound by these policies. In addition, you will be required to abide by all other Company policies and regulations (including JPMorgan Chase group of companies (the "Group") policies) and with applicable law.

Should you have queries in relation to your employment terms, your benefits or Company policies, please contact our HR Answers hotline at 000 800 440 5210 (local toll free) or +1 212-552-5100 (international).

Please be reminded your internship terms should be treated with the strictest confidence. To accept this offer of internship, please click on the 'Accept' button at the bottom of this page on or before 13-Dec-2022.

We are excited to welcome you to our Company and take this opportunity to wish you every success in taking this next step of your career with us.

Appendix A – PERSONAL INTERNSHIP TERMS AND CONDITIONS

A1. Title/Category

You will join us as an intern in the Software Engineer Program at JPMorgan Chase & Co., and will carry out your role while physically present in the J.P. Morgan offices in Mumbai, India.

A2. Internship Commencement Date

Your internship shall begin on 06-Feb-2023 ("Start Date") and shall continue, subject to the remaining terms of this agreement, until it terminates on 31-May-2023 ("End Date") without the need for notice, unless previously terminated by either party pursuant to paragraph 4 of Appendix B.

In addition to the conditions set out in paragraph 1 of Appendix B, your offer is subject to you successfully meeting the educational criteria that has already been communicated to you in writing.

A3. Working Hours

Your manager will assign you specific working hours, often during the Company's normal office hours. Depending on the needs of your department, however, you may be required to work outside the official hours to fulfill your duties.

A4. Stipend

Your stipend will be INR70,000/- per month.

Relocation Lump Sum

You will receive an additional, one-time lump sum of INR85000("the Additional Sum") gross with your first stipend. This payment will be made to you in the first available payroll after you join the Company. You should be aware that this might be in the month of joining or the following month depending on your commencement date and when all necessary data is received. This is to assist with any relocation expenses you may incur prior to joining.

If you leave the internship or your internship is terminated for any reason, you must repay to the Company the Additional Sum on a pro-rated basis as set out below:

If your internship period is longer than 3 months and you leave the internship or your internship is terminated for any reason within three months of your date of commencement you must repay to the Company 100% of the gross amount of the Additional Sum

If your internship period is longer than 3 months and you leave the internship or your internship is terminated for any reason more than three months but within twelve months of your date of commencement you must repay to the Company 50% of the gross amount of

the Additional Sum

If your internship period is less than 3 months and you leave the internship or your internship is terminated for any reason before completion of your internship period you must repay the Company 100% of the gross amount of the Additional Sum

A5. Probationary Period

Your internship will be subject to a probation period as outlined in paragraph 4.3 of Appendix B.

A6. Leave Entitlement

A6.1 Annual Leave

You are entitled to 20 working days of annual leave with full pay in every calendar year, pro-rated according to the duration of your employment in accordance with the Company's Human Resources Policies and applicable law. If you work part-time hours, your annual leave entitlement will be pro-rated to reflect your part-time hours worked.

A6.2 Other Leave

You can find further details of other leave entitlements in paragraph 5 of Appendix B.

A7. Benefits

You will not be entitled to join the Company's benefits programs, given the short length of your fixed-term contract.

A8. Retirement Scheme

You are not eligible for retirement benefits.

A9. Notice Period

During your probationary period, starting the day you join the Company, either you or the Company may terminate your employment with at least 14 days' written notice or payment of wages in lieu of such notice period.

After the probationary period, either party can terminate the employment by giving the other party 30 Days written notice ("Notice Period") or by the Company making a payment in lieu of Notice Period.

APPENDIX B – GENERAL INTERNSHIP TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1164

B1. Internship

B1.1 Your internship is subject to:

- a) you being able to carry out your role in India while being able to be physically present in an JPMC office in Mumbai, India and obtaining and maintaining throughout your entire period of internship a valid work permit and such other permission, license or registration as may from time to time be necessary to enable you to carry out your duties and continue your internship.
- b) the completion of all pre-employment screening processes to the satisfaction of the Company, including obtaining education verification, background references and checks as sought and the execution of any other forms necessary for internship, etc.; and
- c) you being legally able to work with the Company. You undertake to disclose any internship or contractual post-internship restraints to which you are subject and which may, and will continue to, affect your internship with us and represent and warrant that:
 - ix. by entering into internship with the Company and performing the duties set out in this letter, you will not be in breach of any express or implied term of any internship or other agreement or arrangement to which you are party;
 - i. you have not taken or otherwise misappropriated and you do not have in your possession or control any confidential and proprietary information belonging to any of your prior employers, or any third party providing services to your prior employer, or connected with or derived from your services to prior employers and you have returned to all prior employers any and all such confidential or proprietary information; and
 - ii. you are not subject to any other internship, including being subject to garden leave or any contractual post-internship restraints.

You shall indemnify and hold harmless the Company from any and all claims arising from any breach of the warranties in this paragraph B1.

B1.2 Whilst you and/or the Company may have agreed a tentative date of commencement of internship with the Company, you will not, unless the Company decides otherwise, be able to commence internship with the Company without our receipt of completed and satisfactory results from our pre-employment screening process.

B1.3 You may be required to provide services for other members of the Group throughout your internship. When providing these services, you may from time to time be required to travel and work in different locations within and outside your hiring location.

B1.4 You will not undertake outside employment or activities with or without remuneration, unless you have the prior written approval of senior management of the Company or its delegate. Outside activities may include (but are not limited to) activities as a director, officer, partner, sole proprietor, consultant or controlling stockholder of any business. If your request to undertake outside activity is not approved by management and you decide to engage in the activity, your internship may be terminated without any notice or compensation.

B2. Remuneration

B2.1 We will deposit your stipend (paragraph 4 of Appendix A) on or around the 30th of each month.

B2.2 You will be responsible for all tax liabilities world-wide arising out of payments pursuant to your internship with the Company.

B2.3 Any payment of salary or bonus by, or other sum due to you from the Company shall be subject to any and all withholding or deduction (for, including but not limited to, any taxes, contributions, repayments or other sums which you have agreed that the Company may withhold/deduct or which the Company is obliged or entitled to withhold/deduct from time to time under any applicable law), and the Company shall in such case be entitled to withhold, deduct or retain the amount of such tax, withholding or deduction from any sum payable to you.

B3. Incentive Compensation

For this position, you won't be eligible for incentive awards under the JPMorgan Chase Performance-Based Incentive Compensation Plan or any other non-annual incentive compensation plan.

B4. Termination

B4.1 Your internship may be terminated as follows:

- a) By either party giving to the other prior written notice of at least the period specified, as applicable, in paragraph 9 in Appendix A (the "Notice Period"), or by the Company making a payment in lieu of notice for all or part of such Notice Period of an amount equal to basic salary you would have been entitled to receive during the Notice period or part of the Notice Period.
- b) By the Company at any time without notice or compensation if you:
 - i) are guilty of fraud, dishonesty or misconduct which is inconsistent with the due and faithful discharge of your duties;

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Uma", is placed over a redacted section of the document.

- ii) seriously breach the Code of Conduct and any other Company policies;
 - iii) disobey the Company's lawful and reasonable instructions/requirements;
 - iv) habitually neglect your duties; or
 - v) otherwise commit a material or repeated breach of your internship terms or any of the Company's or Group's policies.
- B4.2 During any Notice Period, the Company may put you on "garden leave" and may, amongst other things, do any or a combination of the following:
- (a) suspend you from the performance of any duties or assign you alternative duties;
 - (b) exclude you from any premises of the Company or any of the Group companies and/or require you to work from another location;
 - (c) require that you have no or limited contact or communication, other than purely social contact, with any employees, officers, directors, agents or consultants of the Company or any other member of the Group;
 - (d) require that you have no or limited contact or communication with any customer or client of the Company or any other member of the Group;
 - (e) remove your access to the Company premises and computer systems;
 - (f) require that you return any property belonging to the Company under paragraph 7 in this Appendix;
 - (g) require you not to do any act or thing, or make or cause to be made, any statement reasonably likely to damage the business or reputation of the Company or the Group.
- B4.3 If paragraph 5 of Appendix A states that your employment is subject to probation, your probation period will be the first 3 months of employment, which you agree is reasonable, and fair, in light of the responsibilities of the role.
- B4.4 At its sole discretion, the Company may notify you of an extension to your probationary period.
- B4.5 All your duties (whether express or implied) under your internship and this letter, including without limitation your duty of fidelity, good faith, exclusive service and duties in relation to the Group's confidential information shall continue throughout the Notice Period including any period that you are on garden leave.

B4.6 During any Notice Period:

- (a) you will provide such assistance as the Company may require to effect an orderly handover of your duties and responsibilities to any individual appointed by the Company or any of the Group Companies to take over your role or responsibilities; and
- (b) you shall make yourself available to deal with requests for information, provide assistance, be available for meetings and to advise on matters relating to work.

B5. Leave

B5.1 Annual Leave

- (a) You will be entitled to annual leave with full pay in every calendar year – please see paragraph 6 of Appendix A, pro-rated according to the duration of your employment. The Company will be entitled to determine when annual leave is taken, although as far as possible, arrangements will be made to suit your convenience. Annual leave entitlement for each calendar year must be taken in that calendar year and only in exceptional circumstances can annual leave (other than unused statutory entitlement, if any) be carried forward into the following calendar year. All annual leave days taken will be deducted first from the statutory entitlement accumulation.
- (b) After a notice of termination has been given pursuant to paragraph B4.1 of this Appendix, you will not be entitled to take any annual leave without the express consent of the Company provided after notice of termination has been given.
- (c) You must comply with the Company's 'consecutive days leave' policies.

B5.2 Sick Leave

Any sick leave entitlement will be subject to relevant legislation and J.P. Morgan internal policies that are in force and amended from time to time. More details are set out in the me@jpmc website, which will be accessible to you upon commencement of your employment.

B5.3 Suspension Leave

The Company has the right to suspend you from your work duties with full pay when it considers it necessary to investigate any allegation of misconduct or impropriety on your part. The Company can exercise this right at its sole discretion, acting in good faith.

B6. Confidentiality

You acknowledge that a vast amount of privileged and confidential information will be disclosed to you in course of your internship with the Company and during your internship with the Company and thereafter, you shall keep secret and shall not at any time (whether during or after the period of your internship) use for your own or another's advantage, or reveal to any person, firm or company, any of the trade secrets, business methods and plans, financial matters, client lists, investments, marketing plans, personnel matters or other information which you knew or reasonably ought to have known to be confidential concerning the business or affairs of the Company or any other member of the Group or any of their related companies, clients or suppliers.

You agree to abide by the specific provisions on the use of confidential information in the Company's policies and Group code of conduct.

The restriction contained in this paragraph shall not apply to any disclosure or use authorised by the Company or required by law.

B7. Return of Company Property

You acknowledge that any privileged or confidential information disclosed to you in the course of your internship with the Company remains the exclusive property of the Company and whenever requested by the Company and/or Group and in any event upon the termination of your internship, you will promptly deliver to the Company and/or Group all documents and other materials (whether originals or copies or in hard copy or electronic form) concerning the Company and/or Group or their respective clients and suppliers, which may have been prepared by you or have come into your possession, custody or control in the course of your internship with the Company. This includes, without limitation, any confidential information, lists of clients or suppliers, correspondence, electronic equipment, computer software or hardware, staff identity cards card and other property used in connection with the operations of the Company and/or Group. You will not be entitled to, and will not retain, any copies, title and copyright in such correspondence and other documents, papers, records and property are vested in the Company and/or Group.

B8. Post internship Restrictions

- B8.1 For a period of three months commencing on the Relevant Date, you shall not directly or indirectly (whether on your own account, for or with any other person, firm or company) solicit or endeavor to entice away from the Company or any other Group Company any Critical Person.
- B8.2 For a period of three months commencing on the Relevant Date, you shall not directly or indirectly (whether on your own account, for or with any other person, firm or company) solicit or endeavor to entice away from the Company or any other Group Company the business or custom of any Restricted Client.
- B8.3 The duration of the restrictions will be reduced by any period of notice that you work out or any period of garden leave as provided in this offer letter.

B8.4 In this paragraph B8:

- a) "Critical Person" means any person who was an employee or director of the Company or any other Group Company at any time within one year prior to the Relevant Date who had access to trade secrets or confidential information of the Company or any other Group Company. This includes knowledge of, involvement with or influence over suppliers or clients of the Company or any other Group Company with whom you worked at any time during that period.
- b) "Group Company" means the Company, its ultimate holding company, any subsidiary of the Company and any holding company from time to time. "Subsidiary" and "holding company" shall have the same meaning as in the relevant companies' legislation.
- c) "Restricted Client" means any person:
 - i. who in the one year before the Relevant Date was a client of, or has dealt with, the Company or any other Group Company; and
 - ii. with whose custom or business you, or persons reporting to you, were personally involved with during the period of one year prior to the Relevant Date
 - iii. but does not include publicly known institutional clients which you serve subsequent to your internship with the Company without the use of confidential or proprietary information of the Company and the Group.
- d) "Relevant Date" means the date your internship with the Company or the Group terminates for whatever reason.

B8.5 You acknowledge and agree:

- a) that each of the foregoing paragraphs constitutes an entirely separate and independent restriction on you;
- b) that the duration, extent and application of each restrictions, obligations and undertakings are reasonable and necessary to protect legitimate interests of the Company and the Group, considering, among other things, that the Company has commercial dealings with business partners throughout the world and that you will regularly be dealing with such partners as part of your duties and you understand that it does not by any means prevent you from earning a living in a satisfactory way;
- c) that, if any such restriction (or parts of a restriction) shall be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be void or unenforceable, the validity or enforceability of the remaining restrictions (or parts of a restriction) shall remain in full force and effect as if the unenforceable parts had been deleted. Damages may be an inadequate compensation for breach of any of the restrictions in this paragraph and, subject to a court's discretion, in the event of any actual or threatened breach of any provision of this paragraph, you agree that the Company shall be entitled to (on behalf of itself and on behalf of any other Group Company) restrain, by injunction, equitable relief or similar remedy, any conduct or threatened conduct by you. You expressly submit to the jurisdiction of any court of competent jurisdiction for this purpose, and in the event you receive from any person an offer of employment (whether oral or in writing and whether accepted or not), either during your internship or the continuation in force of all or any of the restrictions applicable to you, whether pursuant to this letter or the Code of Conduct, you shall provide to the person making such an offer of employment a full and accurate copy of the then current restrictions applicable to you.

- d) that any benefit given or deemed to be given by you to the Group under the terms of this paragraph is received and held on trust by the Company for the relevant Group Company. You will enter into appropriate restrictive covenants directly with other Group Companies if asked to do so by the Company.
- e) that your internship with the Company and the compensation paid and/or payable to you by the Company shall be sufficient consideration for the purposes of this clause. You further agree and acknowledge that the limitations as to time and the character or nature placed in this clause are reasonable and fair and will not preclude you from earning a livelihood, nor will they unreasonably impose limitations on your ability to earn a living.
- f) that this offer letter constitutes a valid, legally binding and enforceable obligation on you and this document is not in violation of any applicable law.
- g) that any breach or threat of breach on your part of any one of such obligations and/or undertakings would cause serious harm to the Company or the Group which may then institute any legal recourse against you that is deemed appropriate and/or recourse in damages, without further notice or delay.
- h) that you shall not assign this offer letter or the rights and/or obligations hereunder. The Company may assign its rights and obligations herein in all circumstances without your consent, including in connection with any sale, transfer or disposition of all or substantially all of its business and operations and its assets, in which case the Company's rights and obligations shall vest to the successor.
- i) in addition, you agree and acknowledge that the potential harm to the Company of the non-enforcement of this clause outweighs any potential harm to you and that you have given careful consideration to the restraints imposed upon you by this clause and that you are in full agreement as to their necessity for the reasonable and proper protection of the Company's interests. You expressly acknowledge and agree that each and every restraint imposed by this clause is reasonable with respect to subject matter, time period and geographical area.

- B9. Code of Conduct and Staff Regulations and Affirmation
- B9.1 It is a condition of your continuing internship and it is your obligation that you comply with:
- (a) the Code of Conduct (as amended from time to time or superseded). At the time of acceptance of the offer of internship and on a periodic basis, you will be required to sign an affirmation (or reaffirmation) confirming your understanding and compliance with the provisions of the Code of Conduct; and
 - (b) the Company's other internal policies and procedures and all relevant policies and procedures for the line of business in which you are to undertake work.
- B9.2 The Company shall be entitled at any time to amend the Company's internal policies and procedures (including but not limited to the Code of Conduct), the benefits set out in the Appendices and other staff regulations, as well as to put in place new policies as the Company sees fit. Any such amendments shall be notified in writing to each employee and shall on provision of such notice, become legally binding.
- B9.3 The Company's Human Resources work policies are set out in the me@jpmc website, as amended from time to time. Please take time to familiarise yourself with these policies when you begin your internship.
- B9.4 To the extent that the contents of policies or procedures refer to obligations on the Company, you agree that they are guides only and are not contractual terms, conditions or representations on which you rely.
- B10. Working Hours
- B10.1 Your total working hours (including break(s)) is 40 hours per working week during the tenure of your internship and you should attend office 5 days every working week. Your working hours may be revised at the discretion of the Company.
- B11. Retirement Benefits
- You are not eligible for retirement benefits.
- B12. Contract Execution
- B12.1 You acknowledge and agree that:
- (a) This letter may be delivered in a digital or physical format. Subject to any applicable law, where the letter is provided in a digital format, you acknowledge and agree that it is being executed electronically and that it is enforceable.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Mu", followed by a horizontal line.

- (b) You have read and understood the terms of this letter and have been provided with an opportunity to review and discuss the terms of it with advisors, if you so desire.
- (c) Should any further assurances be required or sought by the Company, you shall in good faith perform such further actions (including executing a physical copy of this letter)

B13. Governing Law and Jurisdiction

This letter and any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with it or its subject matter or formation (including non-contractual disputes or claims) shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of India. You and the Company submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the Mumbai, Maharashtra courts in relation to any dispute arising in connection with your internship and this letter.

APPENDIX C - SYSTEMS MONITORING ACTIVITIES AND CROSS-BORDER TRANSFERS,
PERSONAL ACCOUNT DEALING POLICY, AND CODE OF CONDUCT

Appendix: Systems Monitoring Activities and Cross-Border Transfers:

The following provides a summary of how JPMorgan Chase & Co., its affiliates and its subsidiaries and the entity that employs you, or for which you provide services (collectively, "JPMC"), conducts Systems monitoring. JPMC may conduct monitoring to the extent permitted by applicable law.

JPMC conducts monitoring of JPMC's physical facilities and its equipment and systems (collectively, the "Systems"). System monitoring applies to your JPMC equipment, your personal equipment when accessing the Systems, and the communications, information, and materials conveyed or accessed using the Systems. Monitoring activities may include the monitoring and logging of traffic and usage data of all electronic communications; monitoring of telephone calls to or from JPMC work telephones as permitted by applicable laws and subject to any required notices; monitoring of the contents of electronic communications, files, databases, applications, and internet usage; and logging hours worked and physical presence at JPMC's facilities if applicable. JPMC may at all times monitor, access, retrieve, record and review information obtained from the monitoring activities for various purposes, such as preventing and investigating activities that may violate JPMC's policies and ensuring compliance with legal or regulatory obligations. While conducting monitoring activities, JPMC may obtain and process personal information about you and others that may reside on the Systems.

The monitoring activities (including JPMC's collection and processing of personal or other information) are required for purposes of your employment or work assignment to promote adherence to applicable policies and regulations. Subject to applicable laws and regulations, if you object to this processing, JPMC may prohibit you from using the Systems; terminate offers of employment or work assignment; and, for employees, take disciplinary action against you, up to and including termination of your employment with JPMC.

In addition to the monitoring activities discussed above, JPMC may obtain and store other information related to your employment or other working relationship, such as your compensation information, performance information, benefits information and other workplace-related data. JPMC may transfer such information, and the information it obtains in connection with monitoring activities, to countries other than the country in which the information originally was collected, including to the United States.

Understanding Obligations under the Firm's Personal Account Dealing Policy (PAD):

The Personal Account Dealing Policy (Policy) of JPMorgan Chase & Co. (firm or JPMC) is designed to help prevent and detect violations of securities laws and industry conduct standards and to minimize actual or perceived conflicts of interest that could arise due to personal investing activities.

PAD Compliance will notify you if the position you are being offered is considered to be subject to the Policy. You will remain subject for the duration of your time working in a subject group, unless notified otherwise of a change in subject status. Unless otherwise notified, you will continue to be subject to the provisions of the Policy even during leaves of absence from the firm, including, but not limited to, garden leave or medical leave.

You as well as your Connected Persons are subject to the provisions of this Policy and will need to be familiar with the obligations set forth in this policy. Connected Persons includes your spouse, domestic partner or minor children (even if financially independent) as well as anyone to whom you provide significant financial support or for which you, or anyone listed above, has or shares the power, directly or indirectly, to make investment decisions.

Once subject to the Policy, you must disclose and certify your Covered Accounts (which include accounts of your Connected Persons). You will be required to maintain your self-directed Covered Accounts with one of the firm's Approved Brokers and pre-clear all purchases, sales, pledges and gifts (received and given) of publicly traded and privately held financial instruments, unless listed as specifically exempt. Pre-approval confirmations must be received prior to executing the trade or investment. The firm may impose periodic restrictions on personal trading in certain financial securities. These restrictions can apply to all firm subject Workforce Members and their Connected Persons or may be limited to certain groups. Subject Workforce Members and their Connected Persons are not permitted to recommend or transact in the financial instruments of an issuer while in the possession of material non-public information (MNPI) regarding that issuer.

If you are a seasonal or short term employee the following requirements will apply:

JPMorgan Chase requires that seasonal workers refrain from trading in Covered Accounts for the time period that you are employed in a short term training program. Please verify that you will

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "John", is written over a horizontal red line.

comply with the following personal trading requirements:

1. For the duration of the short term program I am joining I will not trade in any of my Covered Accounts
2. I understand that the Firm has the right to request account information for any of my Covered Accounts
3. If there is an extenuating circumstance that would compel me to place a trade in my Covered Accounts, I will obtain pre-approval of the trade by the Personal Account Dealing Group and I would be responsible for supplying all confirmations and statements to the Personal Account Dealing Group for that trade

*The term Covered Accounts refers to any securities accounts no matter where they are located and includes, but is not limited to, those accounts that are established, maintained or controlled (either directly or indirectly) by you, your spouse, domestic partner or minor children (even if financially independent), anyone to whom you provide significant financial support, and in which the employee has a direct or indirect financial interest.

Global Personal Trading Policy:

The Personal Account Dealing of JPMorgan Chase & Co. is designed to help prevent and detect violations of securities laws and industry conduct standards and to minimize actual or perceived conflicts of interest that could arise due to personal investing activities. This Policy includes requirements for disclosing Covered Accounts, maintaining certain accounts at one of the firm's Approved Brokers, preclearing trades, and restrictions and prohibitions on certain types of trading activity. This Policy is subject to any applicable local laws and rules and should be read in conjunction with Supplements (regional/LOB) as well as the firm's Code of Conduct.

Conflict of Interests and Outside Interests:

Under JPMorgan Chase & Co.'s (JPMC) Code of Conduct, employees are responsible for avoiding activities or relationships that might affect their objectivity in making decisions as an employee. Employees are not permitted to allow their personal interest to conflict, or appear to conflict, with their JPMC role and responsibilities.

Outside Interests include second jobs, not for profit activities, government positions, and positions with external companies and organizations as a director, officer, advisor, sole proprietor, consultant or owner of any business. Outside Interests may result in an actual or perceived conflict of interest. Where actual or potential conflicts of interest cannot be mitigated, you may be required to discontinue the activity or dissolve your investment.

Employees are required to seek preclearance prior to engaging in Outside Interests or immediately upon joining JPMC. Where preclearance is not required, employee must adhere to all restrictions and conditions outlined in Section 5 and 6 of the Outside Interest Policy.

Conflicts of interests may also arise from: (1) personal and business relationships; (2) the exchange of gifts and business hospitality; (3) political engagement; and (4) personal finances. Employees should avoid activities or relationships that might affect their objectivity in making decisions on behalf of JPMC or undermine their credibility. Employees may never place personal interests ahead of our clients' interests. All potential and actual conflicts must be escalated to your manager for review and mitigation.

Acceptance and Code Affirmation:

Upon signing this letter I accept the terms and conditions described above.

I hereby affirm that I have read, understand, and am in compliance with the JPMorgan Chase ("JPMC") Code of Conduct and all internal JPMC policies that apply to me. I agree, as a condition of my employment, to remain in compliance with the Code of Conduct and all applicable JPMC policies.

I understand that I must conduct myself in a way that is consistent with the Code of Conduct, demonstrating compliance with the principles and intent of the Code of Conduct, and applicable laws and regulations.

I also affirm that I have reported any potential or actual violations of the Code of Conduct, JPMC policies, or laws or regulations applicable to JPMC's business, as required by the Code of Conduct. I understand that failure to do so can result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

I understand that the Code of Conduct may be updated periodically, as necessary; and that the current version is posted on the JPMorgan Chase Intranet as well as on its public website.

Independent Auditor Tax Services to Employees of JPMorgan Chase and its Affiliates:

To be in compliance with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (PCAOB) Rule 3523, it is JPMorgan Chase's (JPMC) policy that PricewaterhouseCoopers (PwC) cannot provide any tax services to employees of JPMC or any of its controlled entities (hereafter referred to as JPMC employee). This restriction is regardless of whether the individual is in a financial reporting oversight role or not, and whether PwC is engaged by the individual or by JPMC. PwC is also prohibited from providing any tax services to a spouse of a JPMC employee if the work is related to a joint tax return. Exceptions to this policy will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis and will require the approval of the JPMC Controller.

Dear Kushal

62

Welcome to MSCI. We are pleased to extend you an Offer, attached is the New Hire Package.

MSCI conducts a background check for all new hires. Confirmation of your services in the firm is dependent on successful completion of the background check. This check includes:

- Identity verification
- Educational and Professional Qualification verification
- Employment History and References – last three years
- Credit Check
- Criminal check

In order to carry out the background check you would need to submit all the documents mentioned in the HireRight Reference Guide. All completed forms must be submitted in the HireRight portal at least 5 days after the acceptance of the Offer Letter failing which your date of joining the firm will be delayed.

You are required to report to the HR department on the first day of joining.

Please contact Vernon Fernandes on Vernon.Fernandes@msci.com or Sabrina Khatri on Sabrina.Khatri@msci.com if you have any questions on any of the above..

Best Regards,

Vernon Fernandes

PRIVATE AND CONFIDENTIAL

December 16, 2022

Kushal Shah
By Email

Dear Kushal,

Confirming our discussions, we are pleased to extend to you a formal offer of employment at MSCI Services Private Limited (the "Firm"). Those who have had the opportunity to meet with you look forward to your joining the Firm. Your position will be that of an Analyst in the Technology & Data Department.

TOTAL COMPENSATION

MSCI's compensation philosophy is based on the concept of Total Compensation.

Your Total Compensation will consist of a base salary, participation in the discretionary bonus plan as determined by the Firm in its sole discretion and subject to the terms and conditions of the discretionary bonus plan as in force from time to time.

Historically, discretionary year-end bonus awards have been made after the end of the fiscal year to which they relate. It is expressly agreed that a discretionary bonus at any point in time does not create an obligation of, or entitlement to, future year-end bonus payouts by the Firm.

Any discretionary bonus that may be awarded to you in your first year of employment will be prorated to reflect the date you commence employment. All payments are subject to applicable withholdings and deductions.

In your first year of employment, your actual Total Cash Compensation will be pro-rated based on your actual length of service as determined by your start date. Your Total Cash Compensation will be determined in INR.

Your CTC (cost to company) consists of your base salary (in the components shown below) plus employer's contribution to Provident Fund and Gratuity accrual (Defined Benefit):

Components	Amount
A. Basic Salary	880,044.00	INR p.a.
B. House Rent Allowance (includes optional Leave Travel Allowance)	413,556.00	INR p.a.
C. Meal Allowance	26,400.00	INR p.a.
D. Base Salary	1,320,000.00	INR p.a.
E. Firm's contribution to Provident Fund	105,605.00	INR p.a.
F. Gratuity accrual (Defined Benefit)	42,310.00	INR p.a.
Cost to Company	1,467,915.00	INR p.a.

Your Basic salary is calculated as 2/3 of your Base salary. House Rent Allowance is calculated as Base salary minus the sum of Basic salary and Meal allowances. All components of base salary will be paid in monthly installments.

Annual Incentive Plan: You will be eligible to participate in MSCI's Annual Incentive Plan (AIP) with a cash bonus ("Bonus") target of INR 66,000 / 5% of your base salary, prorated based on the date you commence employment provided you commence employment with MSCI on or before October 31st 2023. All new hires who commence employment after October 31st will not be eligible to receive an AIP bonus until the following calendar year. Any discretionary bonus payment that may be awarded to you will be prorated to reflect the date you commence employment and will be subject to any tax and social security deductions as the Company considers is required by law.

Payments, if any, under the Annual Incentive Plan are not guarantees or commitments to pay, unless otherwise stated, and are subject to the Firm's performance as well as your individual performance as determined by your manager. From time to time, we review the form and terms of our incentive plans and we reserve the right to amend, change or cancel our plans (or elements thereof) as the Company determines necessary. You will be notified of any such changes by the Company. Any incentive award, including any discretionary bonus award referred to above is also contingent upon satisfactory performance and conduct as assessed by the Company and on you remaining an active employee performing duties on behalf of MSCI at the time of any discretionary bonus payment.

From time to time, we review the form and terms of our incentive plans and we reserve the right to amend, change or cancel our plans (or elements thereof) as the Firm determines necessary. You will be notified of any such changes by the Firm.

BENEFITS

You will be entitled to the following benefits:

- Provident Fund contributions of 12% of your basic salary as shown in the CTC chart above.
- Gratuity and other benefits in accordance with legal requirements and the Firm's policies in effect, and as may be amended from time to time.
- Expenses incurred by you, your spouse and children (up to 21 years) for treatment of an illness, disease or injury while confined to a hospital or nursing home, for any illness, disease or injury which in the normal course would require care and treatment at a hospital or nursing home for a minimum of 24 hours, will be paid for in accordance with the Firm's Group Mediclaim program, subject to a total annual limit of Rs. 600,000 per family under family floater scheme or such other limit established from time to time.
- Personal Accident Insurance for a sum which equals three times (or such multiple determined by the Firm from time to time) your annual base salary.
- Life insurance which, in the event of your death due to any cause whilst an employee of MSCI, pays to your dependants a lump sum benefit amount of three times your annual base salary (subject to successful clearance of medical underwriting if applicable as per the insurance company's guidelines).

Other benefits include annual leave of 23 working days in any calendar year (January 1 to December 31). Please refer to Annexure I for details on other benefits.

Nothing in this letter should be construed as a guarantee of any particular level of benefits or of your participation in any benefit plan. The Firm and its affiliates reserve the right to amend, modify or terminate, in its sole discretion, all benefit and compensation plans in effect from time to time.

OBLIGATION TO OBSERVE RULES AND POLICIES

Regular office hours at the Firm are 9:00 am to 6:00 pm. However, the Firm reserves its right from time to time to assign you to work in such shifts as required for business reasons. Additionally, you may be required to work from Firm's office or your home depending on your role and the business needs of the Firm, and in accordance with the Firm's Future of Work Policy, as amended from time to time. Your services are subject to transfer from one establishment to another, from one department to another, from one section to another, in existence as of today and that may come into existence any time in future anywhere in India or abroad.

Please note that as a condition of your employment with the Firm you will be bound by the India Employee Handbook, the MSCI Code of Conduct, and such other policies relating to your employment as may exist, be issued, updated, varied and supplemented by the Firm. In the event of any conflict between those policies and this letter, this letter shall take precedence, unless the policy has been introduced or modified after this letter was issued. Any violation of the rules contained in the India Employee Handbook, the Code of Conduct or related policies and procedures may subject you to disciplinary action, up to and including dismissal. In addition you will be required to read the Employee Handbook electronically after you commence your employment and will be expected to return an acknowledgement form to Human Resources that you will find on the final page.

In accordance with the Firm's Code of Conduct, you acknowledge that in the course of your employment with the Firm or after termination of your employment, you are not permitted to make any unauthorized use of documents or other information, which are confidential or proprietary information of Firm or its clients or employees. Likewise, you may not bring onto Firm premises any confidential documents/information relating to your prior employers' business. You understand and agree that as a condition of employment, unless you are granted a waiver in writing by the Legal and Compliance Department you may be required, upon the commencement of employment, to transfer any brokerage/securities accounts that you may influence or control to a designated institution for surveillance and review by the MSCI Legal and Compliance Department.

DATA PRIVACY

The Firm may disclose personal data relating to you to (i) any of its affiliates, subsidiaries and to its parent company; or (ii) any potential purchasers of any of the Firm's business; or (iii) any party to whom the Firm proposes to transfer any of its rights and/or responsibilities under any agreement it may have with you; or (iv) to any other third party, for any of the purposes set out below.

This offer of employment is conditional upon the successful completion of a background investigation, as set out herein below. This background check may be carried out by a third party service provider and therefore, any information that the Firm may need from you would be shared with such third party third party service provider and you confirm that you do not have any objection to the same.

Such personal data may be collected and processed by the Firm and the abovementioned third parties for several purposes as may be determined by the Firm, including but not limited to, administration of employment, wages and benefits, performance assessment, reference to third parties, general administration, any other purposes as may be required by applicable law or for any other legitimate business purpose. The particulars of the same will be communicated to you from time to time,

PROBATION AND OTHER CONTINGENCIES

Your employment will be probationary for the first 3 months. Either the Firm or you may at any time during the period of probation or at its conclusion terminate your employment, upon fourteen days written notice or payment of fourteen days of base salary in lieu of notice. This probation may be extended for an additional 3 months at the discretion of the management. The relevant notice period in the event of any extension shall be 30 days. Your continued service with the Firm will be confirmed in writing on the successful completion of the probation period.

After the probationary period, either you or the Firm may terminate your employment for any reason with 60 days' notice or payment of 60 days base salary in lieu of notice. The Firm reserves the right to change the above mentioned notice period at any time during your employment and upon its communication you will be required to serve such notice period. The Firm reserves the right to require you, for part or all of the notice of termination period, not to perform any duties and remain away from the Firm's premises, although the Firm will continue to maintain your salary and other contractual benefits for this period. You may not commence or prepare to commence employment with or provide services to any company or other business during this period.

ADDITIONAL STEPS

This offer is contingent upon a number of additional steps in the employment process including, but not limited to:

- Any registration or licensing required by the relevant regulatory authority.
- Appropriate proof of successful completion of your present level of education.
- Successful completion of a background check of your employment history and references.
- Credit and criminal check
- Appropriate proof of citizenship and/or the appropriate right-to-work documentation. If you require a visa/work permit and do not currently have one, you are responsible to obtain one before you will be permitted to commence work. Please contact local Human Resources in case you require a visa/work permit.

EXECUTION AND CONTRACT FORMATION

This offer, as to its subject matter, contains a complete statement of all agreements between you and the Firm, constitutes the entire understanding between you and the Firm, and supersedes all prior or contemporaneous verbal or written agreements, understandings or communications (including, without limitation, any term sheet or other summary writing relating to your employment). You acknowledge that you have not relied on any assurance or representation not expressly stated in this offer letter. If there is any conflict with the benefit information included in this letter or any verbal representation and the Plan documents or insurance contracts, the Plan documents or insurance documents control.

Your employment is governed by the laws of India. The Parties agree to the exclusive jurisdiction and venue of the civil courts in Mumbai for the resolution of all disputes arising under this contract of employment.

I. Statement of purpose

This MSCI Employee Trading Policy (the "Policy") aims to prevent the appearance, and reality, of legal, business and ethical conflicts of interest, and to guard against the potential misuse of confidential information.

It is essential to you, as well as to the reputation and success of MSCI Inc. ("MSCI" or "the Firm"), that you understand this Policy and strictly adhere to it. This Policy supplements, but does not replace, the requirements set forth in the MSCI Code of Conduct, including any region-specific or other applicable supplements to the Code of Conduct. To the extent there is any conflict between this Policy and any other Firm policies or procedures that are applicable to you in each case you are subject to the most restrictive policies and procedures.

The Firm encourages long term investing by employees and strongly discourages short term and speculative trading. You may not engage in personal trading on a scale or of a kind that could distract you from your business responsibilities.

In order to engage in approved trading under this Policy, you must:

- trade only permitted products and securities;
- obtain any required approvals;
- make all required disclosures;
- refrain from trading any securities on a Restricted List;
- refrain from trading during any applicable Trading Blackout Period; and
- comply with applicable Holding Periods.

MSCI expects its employees to recognize and comply with the spirit of this Policy in addition to literal compliance with its terms. Therefore, you must also:

- avoid conduct that may give rise to an appearance of impropriety or of a conflict of interest, and
- never trade on the basis of material, non-public information.

If you have any questions about this Policy's meaning or application, please contact the MSCI Legal and Compliance Department.

II. Who is subject to the policy?

The Firm has implemented a Information Wall, or information barrier, around personnel who are involved in (or who have systems or information access relating to) the design, construction or maintenance of the MSCI Equity Indices. Such personnel are commonly referred to as being "Inside the Wall" or "ITW". All other personnel are commonly referred to as being "Outside the Wall" or "OTW". The Information Wall consists of physical separation as well as policies and procedures designed to regulate the flow of ITW information.

This Policy applies to all MSCI personnel (excluding ESG) who are Outside the Wall of the MSCI Equity Index business.

This Policy applies to all of your personal accounts, as well as all other accounts that you could reasonably be expected to be able to exercise influence or control (whether or not you actually have such influence or control). Examples of accounts you could reasonably be expected to influence or control and therefore are subject to this Policy include (but are not limited to) the following:

- all accounts of your spouse or domestic partner;
- all accounts of your, your spouse's or your domestic partner's dependent children;
- all trust accounts for which you act as trustee or which you otherwise guide or influence;
- all arrangements similar to trust accounts that benefit you directly or indirectly; and
- all corporate, partnership or custodian accounts controlled, directly or indirectly, by you.

If you are not sure whether you are Outside the Wall of the MSCI Equity Index business, consult the MSCI Compliance Department. Inside the Wall personnel are subject to a different Employee Trading Policy. ESG personnel are also subject to a different Employee Trading Policy.

III. Trading and account rules

A. THE COMPLIANCE PORTAL

MSCI maintains an online Compliance Portal. The Compliance Portal is used to make certifications and disclosures and to obtain approvals, as required by this Policy and the Code of Conduct. In some cases, brokerage account trading may also be monitored through the Compliance Portal.

B. PERMITTED PRODUCTS

You may trade in securities and financial instruments that are not prohibited by this Policy, the Code of Conduct or otherwise, subject to all the relevant restrictions set forth herein and therein.

All trades are subject to the following requirements:

- you must pre-clear securities against the Firm's Restricted List immediately prior to placing a trade;
- you must comply with the applicable Holding Period requirements;
- transactions in MSCI stock or options must take place in a disclosed, approved brokerage account;
- you must avoid any appearance of impropriety or of any conflict of interest; and
- you must not trade, or recommend that others trade, in a security or other instrument while in possession of material, non-public information about the security or instrument.

C. TRADING RESTRICTIONS

The following restrictions are in addition to any other prohibitions or restrictions set forth in the Code of Conduct or any other applicable policies:

1. Restricted List: You may not trade securities while they are on the Firm's Restricted List. You must pre-clear securities against the Firm's Restricted List, using the Compliance Portal (Comply Sci) page, immediately prior to placing a trade to confirm that the security is not restricted. Securities can be placed on the Restricted List for a variety of reasons, and in some cases can remain on the Restricted List for a long period of time. The Firm is not obligated to explain why a security is on the Restricted List, or to indicate when a security might come off the Restricted List. Exceptions to the Restricted List prohibition are rarely granted and only in exceptional circumstances. Price decline of a security is not a legitimate basis for requesting an exception to the Restricted List prohibition.
2. Stop or Limit Orders: You may not place stop or limit orders, except for same-day orders only.
3. OTC Derivatives: You may not trade in over-the-counter derivatives contracts, such as OTC options, futures, forwards, warrants or swaps.
4. Transactions in MSCI Inc. Securities: Trading in securities of MSCI Inc. is subject to the conditions and requirements set forth in the Supplement for Transactions in MSCI Inc. Securities, including trading blackout periods, holding periods and other requirements.

5. Private Securities Transactions: You may not engage in any private securities transactions without pre-approval from the MSCI Compliance Department. To seek approval, submit a request using the Compliance Portal. Private securities transactions include investments in privately held corporations, limited partnerships, tax shelter programs and other privately offered interests. Private Securities Transactions. Refer to the MSCI Directorships, Outside Activities and Private Securities Transactions Policy for further details.

6. Publicly Listed Real Estate Products:

Real Estate Employees

Real Estate Employees are defined for purposes of this Policy as those employees involved in MSCI's Private Real Estate product line who have knowledge of or access to either of the following before they are made publicly available ("Non-Public Real Estate Data"):

- information regarding the constituents of MSCI Private Real Estate Indexes (including "headline" or "standard indexes" as well as the "benchmark" indexes delivered as part of Enterprise Analytics)
- any client's or data provider's publicly listed real estate fund (including any Real Estate Investment Trust (REIT)) holdings information, including capital growth and rental income of portfolio properties, such as that contained in MSCI Private Real Estate products and services and /or data provider data.

Knowledge of or access to Non-Public Real Estate Data may allow an investor to trade on this information before such information is priced into a publicly listed real estate fund, a derivative of such fund, or a derivative or other investment vehicle linked to an MSCI Private Real Estate Index (including "headline" or "standard indexes" as well as the "benchmark" indexes delivered as part of Enterprise Analytics).

Restrictions

- Prohibitions

Real Estate Employees are prohibited from purchasing:

- any publicly listed real estate fund (including REITs);

- any fund, derivative or other investment vehicle linked to an MSCI Private Real Estate Index (including "headline" or "standard indexes" as well as the "benchmark" indexes delivered as part of Enterprise Analytics)

- Sale of Current Holdings

Sales or transfers by Real Estate Employees of previously acquired publicly listed real estate product or their shares must be pre-approved by the Compliance Department through the Firm's Compliance Portal.

7. Client Portfolios and Product Launches:

- You may not buy or sell securities or other instruments on the basis of knowledge of a client's portfolio, potential trading positions, model portfolio scenarios or any client or MSCI product launch or plans.
- You may not "piggyback" or "front run" any client trades or potential trades.

8. OTW Consultants, Interns and Temps Working On-site or with Systems Access:

- On request, you must disclose your brokerage and non-brokerage trading accounts to the MSCI Compliance Department and provide copies of your account statements and trade confirmations.
- On request, all trades must be pre-approved by the MSCI Compliance Department.
- On request, you must comply with the Restricted List and the Holding Period requirements.

D. ACCOUNTS

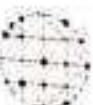

1. Brokerage Accounts.

Brokerage accounts do not need to be disclosed or maintained at a designated institution, except for accounts holding MSCI Inc. securities.

A brokerage account is any account that can hold or execute transactions in equity or debt securities, foreign exchange, commodities or derivatives.

For example, stock or bond trading accounts are brokerage accounts. Accounts that can hold or execute transactions in exchange traded funds or closed end funds are also brokerage accounts for purposes of this Policy. Money market and open-end mutual fund only accounts are not brokerage accounts for purposes of this Policy. If an account has a brokerage capability, even if you do not utilize it, it is considered a brokerage account for purposes of this Policy.

2. Accounts Holding MSCI Inc. Securities.

Any account holding MSCI securities is subject to the requirements of the Supplement for Transactions in MSCI Inc. Securities.

All employees receiving MSCI stock, RSUs or options as part of their MSCI compensation are provided an E*Trade account. MSCI stock and RSUs may only be held and traded through E*Trade or other designated brokers that report transactions to MSCI via the Compliance Portal for monitoring. Options in MSCI may only be transacted through the E*Trade account provided by the Firm. All transactions in MSCI Inc. securities must be pre-cleared and pre-approved via the Compliance Portal.

3. Non-Brokerage Accounts.

Examples of non-brokerage accounts include:

- Mutual Fund Only Accounts. Mutual fund only accounts do not have to be disclosed or maintained at a designated institution. Trading in a mutual fund only account, however, is subject to the Holding Period and Restricted List requirements of this Policy.
- Cash Accounts. Money market funds, insurance policies (including annuities), certificates of deposit (CDs), savings accounts and other cash management accounts are also not required to be disclosed or maintained at a designated institution. Additionally, the restrictions in this Policy such as Holding Periods do not apply to these types of instruments or accounts.
- Physical Share Certificates. If you hold securities in physical certificate form, you are not required to deposit them in a brokerage account. You may only sell those shares through a brokerage account, or by depositing the shares with the issuer of the security for sale if you have pre-cleared the security against the Restricted List.

4. Managed Accounts.

Generally, With prior authorization from the MSCI Compliance Department, you may open a managed account in which you grant full discretion to the manager or broker. Investments held in such fully discretionary managed accounts are not subject to the Holding Periods, Restricted List or other trading restrictions herein.

You may not hold MSCI Inc. stock in a managed account and you must so inform the manager or broker.

You must obtain pre-approval using the Compliance Portal prior to opening any managed account. You will need to provide the MSCI Compliance Department with a copy of the management agreement that establishes the manager or broker has full discretion over the account and that the account may not trade MSCI Inc. stock.

Full discretion means:

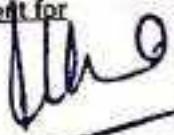

- you may not participate, directly or indirectly, in individual investment decisions;
- you may not be made aware of individual investment decisions before transactions are executed;
- you have no influence in the purchase or sale of specific securities; and
- you may establish general investment guidelines for the manager or broker (e.g., indicating industries in which you desire to invest, the type of securities you want to hold and your overall investment objectives), but the guidelines may not be changed so frequently so as to allow you to direct, or give the appearance that you are directing, the investments in the account (guidelines may not be changed more frequently than quarterly)

5. Automatic Investment Plans.

- You may participate in automatic investment plans (e.g., a scheduled, recurring $100 investment on the first day of every month in the same mutual fund) provided that you pre-clear the security against the Restricted List immediately prior to (i) the first time you purchase the security through the plan, (ii) your first election to reinvest and (iii) any decision to no longer invest/re-invest in the security.

Participation in the MSCI 401(k) or other Firm retirement or deferred compensation plan (or a spouse's or domestic partner's participation in his or her employer's plans), however, does not have to be disclosed as an automatic investment plan.

You may not invest in MSCI Inc. securities (MSCI) through an automatic investment plan unless pre-approved by the MSCI Compliance Department in accordance with the requirements set forth in the Supplement for Transactions in MSCI Inc. Securities.

6. ESPPs/ESOPs.

Investments held through an employee stock purchase plan or employee stock option plan from a previous employer, or by a spouse or domestic partner at his or her employer, are permitted; however, trades are subject to the Holding Periods and Restricted List (for sales).

7. Tax Deferral Accounts.

- You are not required to rollover tax deferral accounts such as a 401(k) account from a previous employer to an MSCI plan or account.
- Trading in any tax deferral account is subject to the restrictions described herein, including with respect to the Restricted List and Holding Periods.

8. No Pooled Investment Clubs.

You may not participate in investment clubs in which members pool their assets to make investments in securities.

9. Additional Disclosure and Cooperation.

If requested, you will promptly provide the MSCI Compliance Department with documentation and any other requested information relevant to this Policy, such as trading activity, account holdings, account statements, trade confirmations and other account or trading information.

The Firm reserves the right to monitor your trading and investment activity. The Firm may request on your behalf, or require you to ensure, that duplicate account and trade confirmations and/or statements are sent to MSCI in the manner requested by the Firm. The Firm may also obtain trading and position data for your accounts either directly from the institution or from a third-party data collection vendor.

Transactions in your accounts may be reviewed by the Firm for a variety of factors such as frequency of trading, potential misuse of confidential information and conflicts of interest. The Firm also may provide information concerning transactions in your accounts to regulatory and governmental authorities.

E. TRADING BLACKOUT PERIODS

1. Blackouts for trading in MSCI Inc. Securities. MSCI Inc. securities are subject to trading blackouts surrounding quarterly earnings announcements by MSCI. The scheduled trading blackouts, which are subject to change:

- Begin at the close of trading on the 5th day of the last month of each fiscal quarter (March 5, June 5, September 5 and December 5), and
- End at the beginning of the third full trading day following each quarterly earnings release by MSCI.

Please see the Supplement for Transactions in MSCI Inc. Securities for more details.

2. Additional Trading Blackout Periods. Additional trading blackout periods may be announced from time to time.

F. HOLDING PERIODS

1. All trades are subject to a minimum thirty (30) calendar day holding period or any longer holding period required by the relevant account or product.
2. Although you may trade listed derivatives such as listed equity options and listed index options, you may not trade any such instruments if by their terms they expire in less than 30 days. If the instrument has a term of greater than 30 days but is exercised (e.g., put or called) in less than 30 days by the counterparty, then you will not be in violation of the 30 day holding period requirement.
3. Transactions in MSCI Inc. securities have a 90 day holding period. For more details, see the Supplement for Transactions in MSCI Inc. Securities.

G. MISCELLANEOUS

1. Additional Requirements. The MSCI Compliance Department may modify this Policy and impose additional limitations or requirements on employee trading at any time, in its sole discretion.
2. Trading Privilege Removal. The Firm, in its sole discretion, reserves the right to cancel or instruct you to cancel any trade, without prior notice to you and at your expense. Additionally, the Firm may require you to freeze your positions due to potential conflicts of interest or the possible appearance of impropriety. The Firm may also, in its sole discretion, suspend or revoke your personal trading privileges at any time.

3. Definitions of "Buy," "Sell" and "Trade." As used in this Policy, the terms "buy," "sell" and "trade" and all derivations thereof include all transfers or exchanges, including gifts and charitable donations. For example, if you want to donate stock to a charity, unless otherwise approved by the General Counsel or his/her designee the donation must comply with all of the applicable terms of this Policy such as the Holding Periods and any notification and approval processes.
4. Inheritances and Gifts. If you inherit or are gifted any securities or other instruments or accounts covered by the terms of this Policy, you must make any necessary disclosures and transfers and take any other actions necessary to comply with the requirements of this Policy.

IV. Failure to comply

A. COMPANY DISCIPLINE

Violation of this Policy or insider trading or tipping laws may subject you to disciplinary action by the Firm up to and including termination for cause. A violation of this Policy is not necessarily a violation of law. The Firm's Policy is intended to be broader than the law. The Firm reserves the right to determine that specific conduct violates this Policy, whether or not the conduct also violates the law. It is not necessary for the Firm to await the filing or conclusion of a civil or criminal action against the alleged violator before taking disciplinary action.

Failure to comply with this Policy may (without limitation) result in one or more of the following as the Firm considers appropriate in the particular circumstances:

1. Cancellation or reversal of trades at your expense.¹
2. Accounting for and disgorgement of any profit from a transaction that violates the Policy.²
3. Revocation, suspension or restriction of trading privileges.

¹ Reversal of a trade means purchasing the same financial product in the same quantity that you sold or selling the same financial product in the same quantity that you bought.

² "Profit" may be measured in a number of ways, including by comparing the actual purchase or sale price of the transaction that violated this Policy with the purchase or sale price of the instrument at the beginning of the period when a transaction would not violate this Policy. For example, if a sale resulting in proceeds of $100 occurred before the expiration of the applicable holding period would have resulted in proceeds of $90, profit from the transaction could be measured at $10.

4. Termination, suspension from employment (with or without pay), reprimand or such other disciplinary action as the Firm considers appropriate in the circumstances.
5. Criminal, civil, or regulatory proceedings and penalties, including damages, fines and sanctions.

B. REPORTING VIOLATIONS

Any person who violates this Policy or any applicable laws governing insider trading or tipping, or knows of any such violation by any other person must report the violation immediately to the General Counsel. Upon learning of any such violation, the General Counsel will determine whether the Firm should release any material non-public information, or whether the Firm should report the violation to the SEC or other appropriate governmental authority.

V. Questions

Questions regarding this Policy may be directed to the MSCI Compliance Department.

Limark Dcunha
By Email

Dear Limark,

Confirming our discussions, we are pleased to extend to you a formal offer of employment at MSCI Services Private Limited (the "Firm"). Those who have had the opportunity to meet with you look forward to your joining the Firm. Your position will be that of an Analyst in the Technology & Data Department.

TOTAL COMPENSATION

MSCI's compensation philosophy is based on the concept of Total Compensation.

Your Total Compensation will consist of a base salary, participation in the discretionary bonus plan as determined by the Firm in its sole discretion and subject to the terms and conditions of the discretionary bonus plan as in force from time to time.

Historically, discretionary year-end bonus awards have been made after the end of the fiscal year to which they relate. It is expressly agreed that a discretionary bonus at any point in time does not create an obligation of, or entitlement to, future year-end bonus payouts by the Firm.

Any discretionary bonus that may be awarded to you in your first year of employment will be prorated to reflect the date you commence employment. All payments are subject to applicable withholdings and deductions.

In your first year of employment, your actual Total Cash Compensation will be pro-rated based on your actual length of service as determined by your start date. Your Total Cash Compensation will be determined in INR.

Your CTC (cost to company) consists of your base salary (in the components shown below) plus employer's contribution to Provident Fund and Gratuity accrual (Defined Benefit):

Components	Amount
A. Basic Salary	880,044.00	INR p.a.
B. House Rent Allowance (includes optional Leave Travel Allowance)	413,556.00	INR p.a.
C. Meal Allowance	26,400.00	INR p.a.
D. Base Salary	1,320,000.00	INR p.a.
E. Firm's contribution to Provident Fund	105,605.00	INR p.a.
F. Gratuity accrual (Defined Benefit)	42,310.00	INR p.a.
Cost to Company	1,467,915.00	INR p.a.

Your Basic salary is calculated as 2/3 of your Base salary. House Rent Allowance is calculated as Base salary minus the sum of Basic salary and Meal allowances. All components of base salary will be paid in monthly installments.

Annual Incentive Plan: You will be eligible to participate in MSCI's Annual Incentive Plan (AIP) with a cash bonus ("Bonus") target of INR 66,000 / 5% of your base salary, prorated based on the date you commence employment provided you commence employment with MSCI on or before October 31st 2023. All new hires who commence employment after October 31st will not be eligible to receive an AIP bonus until the following calendar year. Any discretionary bonus payment that may be awarded to you will be prorated to reflect the date you commence employment and will be subject to any tax and social security deductions as the Company considers is required by law.

Payments, if any, under the Annual Incentive Plan are not guarantees or commitments to pay, unless otherwise stated, and are subject to the Firm's performance as well as your individual performance as determined by your manager. From time to time, we review the form and terms of our incentive plans and we reserve the right to amend, change or cancel our plans (or elements thereof) as the Company determines necessary. You will be notified of any such changes by the Company. Any incentive award, including any discretionary bonus award referred to above is also contingent upon satisfactory performance and conduct as assessed by the Company and on you remaining an active employee performing duties on behalf of MSCI at the time of any discretionary bonus payment.

From time to time, we review the form and terms of our incentive plans and we reserve the right to amend, change or cancel our plans (or elements thereof) as the Firm determines necessary. You will be notified of any such changes by the Firm.

BENEFITS

You will be entitled to the following benefits:

- Provident Fund contributions of 12% of your basic salary as shown in the CTC chart above.
- Gratuity and other benefits in accordance with legal requirements and the Firm's policies in effect, and as may be amended from time to time.
- Expenses incurred by you, your spouse and children (up to 21 years) for treatment of an illness, disease or injury while confined to a hospital or nursing home, for any illness, disease or injury which in the normal course would require care and treatment at a hospital or nursing home for a minimum of 24 hours, will be paid for in accordance with the Firm's Group Mediclaim program, subject to a total annual limit of Rs. 600,000 per family under family floater scheme or such other limit established from time to time.
- Personal Accident Insurance for a sum which equals three times (or such multiple determined by the Firm from time to time) your annual base salary.
- Life insurance which, in the event of your death due to any cause whilst an employee of MSCI, pays to your dependants a lump sum benefit amount of three times your annual base salary (subject to successful clearance of medical underwriting if applicable as per the insurance company's guidelines).

Other benefits include annual leave of 23 working days in any calendar year (January 1 to December 31). Please refer to Annexure I for details on other benefits.

Nothing in this letter should be construed as a guarantee of any particular level of benefits or of your participation in any benefit plan. The Firm and its affiliates reserve the right to amend, modify or terminate, in its sole discretion, all benefit and compensation plans in effect from time to time.

OBLIGATION TO OBSERVE RULES AND POLICIES

Regular office hours at the Firm are 9:00 am to 6:00 pm. However, the Firm reserves its right from time to time to assign you to work in such shifts as required for business reasons. Additionally, you may be required to work from Firm's office or your home depending on your role and the business needs of the Firm, and in accordance with the Firm's Future of Work Policy, as amended from time to time. Your services are subject to transfer from one establishment to another, from one department to another, from one section to another, in existence as of today and that may come into existence any time in future anywhere in India or abroad.

Please note that as a condition of your employment with the Firm you will be bound by the India Employee Handbook, the MSCI Code of Conduct, and such other policies relating to your employment as may exist, be issued, updated, varied and supplemented by the Firm. In the event of any conflict between those policies and this letter, this letter shall take precedence, unless the policy has been introduced or modified after this letter was issued. Any violation of the rules contained in the India Employee Handbook, the Code of Conduct or related policies and procedures may subject you to disciplinary action, up to and including dismissal. In addition you will be required to read the Employee Handbook electronically after you commence your employment and will be expected to return an acknowledgement form to Human Resources that you will find on the final page.

In accordance with the Firm's Code of Conduct, you acknowledge that in the course of your employment with the Firm or after termination of your employment, you are not permitted to make any unauthorized use of documents or other information, which are confidential or proprietary information of Firm or its clients or employees. Likewise, you may not bring onto Firm premises any confidential documents/information relating to your prior employers' business. You understand and agree that as a condition of employment, unless you are granted a waiver in writing by the Legal and Compliance Department you may be required, upon the commencement of employment, to transfer any brokerage/securities accounts that you may influence or control to a designated institution for surveillance and review by the MSCI Legal and Compliance Department.

DATA PRIVACY

The Firm may disclose personal data relating to you to (i) any of its affiliates, subsidiaries and to its parent company; or (ii) any potential purchasers of any of the Firm's business; or (iii) any party to whom the Firm proposes to transfer any of its rights and/or responsibilities under any agreement it may have with you; or (iv) to any other third party, for any of the purposes set out below.

This offer of employment is conditional upon the successful completion of a background investigation, as set out herein below. This background check may be carried out by a third party service provider and therefore, any information that the Firm may need from you would be shared with such third party third party service provider and you confirm that you do not have any objection to the same.

Such personal data may be collected and processed by the Firm and the abovementioned third parties for several purposes as may be determined by the Firm, including but not limited to, administration of employment, wages and benefits, performance assessment, reference to third parties, general administration, any other purposes as may be required by applicable law or for any other legitimate business purpose. The particulars of the same will be communicated to you from time to time.

PROBATION AND OTHER CONTINGENCIES

Your employment will be probationary for the first 3 months. Either the Firm or you may at any time during the period of probation or at its conclusion terminate your employment, upon fourteen days written notice or payment of fourteen days of base salary in lieu of notice. This probation may be extended for an additional 3 months at the discretion of the management. The relevant notice period in the event of any extension shall be 30 days. Your continued service with the Firm will be confirmed in writing on the successful completion of the probation period.

After the probationary period, either you or the Firm may terminate your employment for any reason with 60 days' notice or payment of 60 days base salary in lieu of notice. The Firm reserves the right to change the above mentioned notice period at any time during your employment and upon its communication you will be required to serve such notice period. The Firm reserves the right to require you, for part or all of the notice of termination period, not to perform any duties and remain away from the Firm's premises, although the Firm will continue to maintain your salary and other contractual benefits for this period. You may not commence or prepare to commence employment with or provide services to any company or other business during this period.

ADDITIONAL STEPS

This offer is contingent upon a number of additional steps in the employment process including, but not limited to:

- Any registration or licensing required by the relevant regulatory authority.
- Appropriate proof of successful completion of your present level of education.
- Successful completion of a background check of your employment history and references.
- Credit and criminal check
- Appropriate proof of citizenship and/or the appropriate right-to-work documentation. If you require a visa/work permit and do not currently have one, you are responsible to obtain one before you will be permitted to commence work. Please contact local Human Resources in case you require a visa/work permit.

EXECUTION AND CONTRACT FORMATION

This offer, as to its subject matter, contains a complete statement of all agreements between you and the Firm, constitutes the entire understanding between you and the Firm, and supersedes all prior or contemporaneous verbal or written agreements, understandings or communications (including, without limitation, any term sheet or other summary writing relating to your employment). You acknowledge that you have not relied on any assurance or representation not expressly stated in this offer letter. If there is any conflict with the benefit information included in this letter or any verbal representation and the Plan documents or insurance contracts, the Plan documents or insurance documents control.

Your employment is governed by the laws of India. The Parties agree to the exclusive jurisdiction and venue of the civil courts in Mumbai for the resolution of all disputes arising under this contract of employment.

Dear Shraddha,

Your Internship by J.P. Morgan

Congratulations on joining the J.P. Morgan family. We are pleased to confirm your internship with J.P. Morgan Services India Private Limited (the "Company").

You will find your personal internship terms outlined in Appendix A with general internship terms and conditions in Appendix B. Please note these terms and conditions supersede any verbal discussions you may have previously had with any JPMorgan Chase employee with regards to your internship arrangements.

A number of important policies will apply to your internship with the Company, including the Personal Account Dealing Policy and the Code of Conduct. We provide more information about these policies in Appendix C and it is essential that you carefully read and understand their requirements. By signing this letter, you confirm that you have read, understood and agree to be bound by these policies. In addition, you will be required to abide by all other Company policies and regulations (including JPMorgan Chase group of companies (the "Group") policies) and with applicable law.

Should you have queries in relation to your employment terms, your benefits or Company policies, please contact our HR Answers hotline at 000 800 440 5210 (local toll free) or +1 212-552-5100 (international).

Please be reminded your internship terms should be treated with the strictest confidence. To accept this offer of internship, please click on the 'Accept' button at the bottom of this page on or before 13-Dec-2022.

We are excited to welcome you to our Company and take this opportunity to wish you every success in taking this next step of your career with us.

Appendix A – PERSONAL INTERNSHIP TERMS AND CONDITIONS

A1. Title/Category

You will join us as an intern in the Software Engineer Program at JPMorgan Chase & Co., and will carry out your role while physically present in the J.P. Morgan offices in Mumbai, India.

A2. Internship Commencement Date

Your internship shall begin on 06-Feb-2023 ("Start Date") and shall continue, subject to the remaining terms of this agreement, until it terminates on 31-May-2023 ("End Date") without the need for notice, unless previously terminated by either party pursuant to paragraph 4 of Appendix B.

In addition to the conditions set out in paragraph 1 of Appendix B, your offer is subject to you successfully meeting the educational criteria that has already been communicated to you in writing.

A3. Working Hours

Your manager will assign you specific working hours, often during the Company's normal office hours. Depending on the needs of your department, however, you may be required to work outside the official hours to fulfill your duties.

A4. Stipend

Your stipend will be INR70,000/- per month.

Relocation Lump Sum

You will receive an additional, one-time lump sum of INR85000("the Additional Sum") gross with your first stipend. This payment will be made to you in the first available payroll after you join the Company. You should be aware that this might be in the month of joining or the following month depending on your commencement date and when all necessary data is received. This is to assist with any relocation expenses you may incur prior to joining.

If you leave the internship or your internship is terminated for any reason, you must repay to the Company the Additional Sum on a pro-rated basis as set out below:

If your internship period is longer than 3 months and you leave the internship or your internship is terminated for any reason within three months of your date of commencement you must repay to the Company 100% of the gross amount of the Additional Sum
If your internship period is longer than 3 months and you leave the internship or your internship is terminated for any reason more than three months but within twelve months of your date of commencement you must repay to the Company 50% of the gross amount of

the Additional Sum

If your internship period is less than 3 months and you leave the internship or your internship is terminated for any reason before completion of your internship period you must repay the Company 100% of the gross amount of the Additional Sum

A5. Probationary Period

Your internship will be subject to a probation period as outlined in paragraph 4.3 of Appendix B.

A6. Leave Entitlement

A6.1 Annual Leave

You are entitled to 20 working days of annual leave with full pay in every calendar year, pro-rated according to the duration of your employment in accordance with the Company's Human Resources Policies and applicable law. If you work part-time hours, your annual leave entitlement will be pro-rated to reflect your part-time hours worked.

A6.2 Other Leave

You can find further details of other leave entitlements in paragraph 5 of Appendix B.

A7. Benefits

You will not be entitled to join the Company's benefits programs, given the short length of your fixed-term contract.

A8. Retirement Scheme

You are not eligible for retirement benefits.

A9. Notice Period

During your probationary period, starting the day you join the Company, either you or the Company may terminate your employment with at least 14 days' written notice or payment of wages in lieu of such notice period.

After the probationary period, either party can terminate the employment by giving the other party 30 Days written notice ("Notice Period") or by the Company making a payment in lieu of Notice Period.

APPENDIX B – GENERAL INTERNSHIP TERMS AND CONDITIONS

B1. Internship

B1.1 Your internship is subject to:

- a) you being able to carry out your role in India while being able to be physically present in an JPMC office in Mumbai, India and obtaining and maintaining throughout your entire period of internship a valid work permit and such other permission, license or registration as may from time to time be necessary to enable you to carry out your duties and continue your internship.
- b) the completion of all pre-employment screening processes to the satisfaction of the Company, including obtaining education verification, background references and checks as sought and the execution of any other forms necessary for internship, etc.; and
- c) you being legally able to work with the Company. You undertake to disclose any internship or contractual post-internship restraints to which you are subject and which may, and will continue to, affect your internship with us and represent and warrant that:
 - ix. by entering into internship with the Company and performing the duties set out in this letter, you will not be in breach of any express or implied term of any internship or other agreement or arrangement to which you are party;
 - i. you have not taken or otherwise misappropriated and you do not have in your possession or control any confidential and proprietary information belonging to any of your prior employers, or any third party providing services to your prior employer, or connected with or derived from your services to prior employers and you have returned to all prior employers any and all such confidential or proprietary information; and
 - ii. you are not subject to any other internship, including being subject to garden leave or any contractual post-internship restraints.

You shall indemnify and hold harmless the Company from any and all claims arising from any breach of the warranties in this paragraph B1.

- B1.2 Whilst you and/or the Company may have agreed a tentative date of commencement of internship with the Company, you will not, unless the Company decides otherwise, be able to commence internship with the Company without our receipt of completed and satisfactory results from our pre-employment screening process.
- B1.3 You may be required to provide services for other members of the Group throughout your internship. When providing these services, you may from time to time be required to travel and work in different locations within and outside your hiring location.

B1.4 You will not undertake outside employment or activities with or without remuneration, unless you have the prior written approval of senior management of the Company or its delegate. Outside activities may include (but are not limited to) activities as a director, officer, partner, sole proprietor, consultant or controlling stockholder of any business. If your request to undertake outside activity is not approved by management and you decide to engage in the activity, your internship may be terminated without any notice or compensation.

B2. Remuneration

B2.1 We will deposit your stipend (paragraph 4 of Appendix A) on or around the 30th of each month.

B2.2 You will be responsible for all tax liabilities world-wide arising out of payments pursuant to your internship with the Company.

B2.3 Any payment of salary or bonus by, or other sum due to you from the Company shall be subject to any and all withholding or deduction (for, including but not limited to, any taxes, contributions, repayments or other sums which you have agreed that the Company may withhold/deduct or which the Company is obliged or entitled to withhold/deduct from time to time under any applicable law), and the Company shall in such case be entitled to withhold, deduct or retain the amount of such tax, withholding or deduction from any sum payable to you.

B3. Incentive Compensation

For this position, you won't be eligible for incentive awards under the JPMorgan Chase Performance-Based Incentive Compensation Plan or any other non-annual incentive compensation plan.

B4. Termination

B4.1 Your internship may be terminated as follows:

- a) By either party giving to the other prior written notice of at least the period specified, as applicable, in paragraph 9 in Appendix A (the "Notice Period"), or by the Company making a payment in lieu of notice for all or part of such Notice Period of an amount equal to basic salary you would have been entitled to receive during the Notice period or part of the Notice Period.
- b) By the Company at any time without notice or compensation if you:
 - i) are guilty of fraud, dishonesty or misconduct which is inconsistent with the due and faithful discharge of your duties;

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Uma", followed by a horizontal line.

- ii) seriously breach the Code of Conduct and any other Company policies;
- iii) disobey the Company's lawful and reasonable instructions/requirements;
- iv) habitually neglect your duties; or
- v) otherwise commit a material or repeated breach of your internship terms or any of the Company's or Group's policies.

B4.2 During any Notice Period, the Company may put you on "garden leave" and may, amongst other things, do any or a combination of the following:

- (a) suspend you from the performance of any duties or assign you alternative duties;
- (b) exclude you from any premises of the Company or any of the Group companies and/or require you to work from another location;
- (c) require that you have no or limited contact or communication, other than purely social contact, with any employees, officers, directors, agents or consultants of the Company or any other member of the Group;
- (d) require that you have no or limited contact or communication with any customer or client of the Company or any other member of the Group;
- (e) remove your access to the Company premises and computer systems;
- (f) require that you return any property belonging to the Company under paragraph 7 in this Appendix;
- (g) require you not to do any act or thing, or make or cause to be made, any statement reasonably likely to damage the business or reputation of the Company or the Group.

B4.3 If paragraph 5 of Appendix A states that your employment is subject to probation, your probation period will be the first 3 months of employment, which you agree is reasonable, and fair, in light of the responsibilities of the role.

B4.4 At its sole discretion, the Company may notify you of an extension to your probationary period.

B4.5 All your duties (whether express or implied) under your internship and this letter, including without limitation your duty of fidelity, good faith, exclusive service and duties in relation to the Group's confidential information shall continue throughout the Notice Period including any period that you are on garden leave.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "W.M.", is written over a thick black diagonal line.

B4.6 During any Notice Period:

- (a) you will provide such assistance as the Company may require to effect an orderly handover of your duties and responsibilities to any individual appointed by the Company or any of the Group Companies to take over your role or responsibilities; and
- (b) you shall make yourself available to deal with requests for information, provide assistance, be available for meetings and to advise on matters relating to work.

B5. Leave

B5.1 Annual Leave

- (a) You will be entitled to annual leave with full pay in every calendar year – please see paragraph 6 of Appendix A, pro-rated according to the duration of your employment. The Company will be entitled to determine when annual leave is taken, although as far as possible, arrangements will be made to suit your convenience. Annual leave entitlement for each calendar year must be taken in that calendar year and only in exceptional circumstances can annual leave (other than unused statutory entitlement, if any) be carried forward into the following calendar year. All annual leave days taken will be deducted first from the statutory entitlement accumulation.
- (b) After a notice of termination has been given pursuant to paragraph B4.1 of this Appendix, you will not be entitled to take any annual leave without the express consent of the Company provided after notice of termination has been given.
- (c) You must comply with the Company's 'consecutive days leave' policies.

B5.2 Sick Leave

Any sick leave entitlement will be subject to relevant legislation and J.P Morgan internal policies that are in force and amended from time to time. More details are set out in the me@jpmc website, which will be accessible to you upon commencement of your employment.

B5.3 Suspension Leave

The Company has the right to suspend you from your work duties with full pay when it considers it necessary to investigate any allegation of misconduct or impropriety on your part. The Company can exercise this right at its sole discretion, acting in good faith.

B6. Confidentiality

You acknowledge that a vast amount of privileged and confidential information will be disclosed to you in course of your internship with the Company and during your internship with the Company and thereafter, you shall keep secret and shall not at any time (whether during or after the period of your internship) use for your own or another's advantage, or reveal to any person, firm or company, any of the trade secrets, business methods and plans, financial matters, client lists, investments, marketing plans, personnel matters or other information which you knew or reasonably ought to have known to be confidential concerning the business or affairs of the Company or any other member of the Group or any of their related companies, clients or suppliers.

You agree to abide by the specific provisions on the use of confidential information in the Company's policies and Group code of conduct.

The restriction contained in this paragraph shall not apply to any disclosure or use authorised by the Company or required by law.

B7. Return of Company Property

You acknowledge that any privileged or confidential information disclosed to you in the course of your internship with the Company remains the exclusive property of the Company and whenever requested by the Company and/or Group and in any event upon the termination of your internship, you will promptly deliver to the Company and/or Group all documents and other materials (whether originals or copies or in hard copy or electronic form) concerning the Company and/or Group or their respective clients and suppliers, which may have been prepared by you or have come into your possession, custody or control in the course of your internship with the Company. This includes, without limitation, any confidential information, lists of clients or suppliers, correspondence, electronic equipment, computer software or hardware, staff identity cards card and other property used in connection with the operations of the Company and/or Group. You will not be entitled to, and will not retain, any copies, title and copyright in such correspondence and other documents, papers, records and property are vested in the Company and/or Group.

B8. Post internship Restrictions

- B8.1 For a period of three months commencing on the Relevant Date, you shall not directly or indirectly (whether on your own account, for or with any other person, firm or company) solicit or endeavor to entice away from the Company or any other Group Company any Critical Person.
- B8.2 For a period of three months commencing on the Relevant Date, you shall not directly or indirectly (whether on your own account, for or with any other person, firm or company) solicit or endeavor to entice away from the Company or any other Group Company the business or custom of any Restricted Client.
- B8.3 The duration of the restrictions will be reduced by any period of notice that you work out or any period of garden leave as provided in this offer letter.

B8.4 In this paragraph B8:

- a) "Critical Person" means any person who was an employee or director of the Company or any other Group Company at any time within one year prior to the Relevant Date who had access to trade secrets or confidential information of the Company or any other Group Company. This includes knowledge of, involvement with or influence over suppliers or clients of the Company or any other Group Company with whom you worked at any time during that period.
- b) "Group Company" means the Company, its ultimate holding company, any subsidiary of the Company and any holding company from time to time. "Subsidiary" and "holding company" shall have the same meaning as in the relevant companies' legislation.
- c) "Restricted Client" means any person:
 - i. who in the one year before the Relevant Date was a client of, or has dealt with, the Company or any other Group Company; and
 - ii. with whose custom or business you, or persons reporting to you, were personally involved with during the period of one year prior to the Relevant Date

iii. but does not include publicly known institutional clients which you serve subsequent to your internship with the Company without the use of confidential or proprietary information of the Company and the Group.
- d) "Relevant Date" means the date your internship with the Company or the Group terminates for whatever reason.

B8.5 You acknowledge and agree:

- a) that each of the foregoing paragraphs constitutes an entirely separate and independent restriction on you;
- b) that the duration, extent and application of each restrictions, obligations and undertakings are reasonable and necessary to protect legitimate interests of the Company and the Group, considering, among other things, that the Company has commercial dealings with business partners throughout the world and that you will regularly be dealing with such partners as part of your duties and you understand that it does not by any means prevent you from earning a living in a satisfactory way;
- c) that, if any such restriction (or parts of a restriction) shall be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be void or unenforceable, the validity or enforceability of the remaining restrictions (or parts of a restriction) shall remain in full force and effect as if the unenforceable parts had been deleted. Damages may be an inadequate compensation for breach of any of the restrictions in this paragraph and, subject to a court's discretion, in the event of any actual or threatened breach of any provision of this paragraph, you agree that the Company shall be entitled to (on behalf of itself and on behalf of any other Group Company) restrain, by injunction, equitable relief or similar remedy, any conduct or threatened conduct by you. You expressly submit to the jurisdiction of any court of competent jurisdiction for this purpose, and in the event you receive from any person an offer of employment (whether oral or in writing and whether accepted or not), either during your internship or the continuation in force of all or any of the restrictions applicable to you, whether pursuant to this letter or the Code of Conduct, you shall provide to the person making such an offer of employment a full and accurate copy of the then current restrictions applicable to you.

- d) that any benefit given or deemed to be given by you to the Group under the terms of this paragraph is received and held on trust by the Company for the relevant Group Company. You will enter into appropriate restrictive covenants directly with other Group Companies if asked to do so by the Company.
- e) that your internship with the Company and the compensation paid and/or payable to you by the Company shall be sufficient consideration for the purposes of this clause. You further agree and acknowledge that the limitations as to time and the character or nature placed in this clause are reasonable and fair and will not preclude you from earning a livelihood, nor will they unreasonably impose limitations on your ability to earn a living.
- f) that this offer letter constitutes a valid, legally binding and enforceable obligation on you and this document is not in violation of any applicable law.
- g) that any breach or threat of breach on your part of any one of such obligations and/or undertakings would cause serious harm to the Company or the Group which may then institute any legal recourse against you that is deemed appropriate and/or recourse in damages, without further notice or delay.
- h) that you shall not assign this offer letter or the rights and/or obligations hereunder. The Company may assign its rights and obligations herein in all circumstances without your consent, including in connection with any sale, transfer or disposition of all or substantially all of its business and operations and its assets, in which case the Company's rights and obligations shall vest to the successor.
- i) in addition, you agree and acknowledge that the potential harm to the Company of the non-enforcement of this clause outweighs any potential harm to you and that you have given careful consideration to the restraints imposed upon you by this clause and that you are in full agreement as to their necessity for the reasonable and proper protection of the Company's interests. You expressly acknowledge and agree that each and every restraint imposed by this clause is reasonable with respect to subject matter, time period and geographical area.

B9. Code of Conduct and Staff Regulations and Affirmation

B9.1 It is a condition of your continuing internship and it is your obligation that you comply with:

- (a) the Code of Conduct (as amended from time to time or superseded). At the time of acceptance of the offer of internship and on a periodic basis, you will be required to sign an affirmation (or reaffirmation) confirming your understanding and compliance with the provisions of the Code of Conduct; and
- (b) the Company's other internal policies and procedures and all relevant policies and procedures for the line of business in which you are to undertake work.

B9.2 The Company shall be entitled at any time to amend the Company's internal policies and procedures (including but not limited to the Code of Conduct), the benefits set out in the Appendices and other staff regulations, as well as to put in place new policies as the Company sees fit. Any such amendments shall be notified in writing to each employee and shall on provision of such notice, become legally binding.

B9.3 The Company's Human Resources work policies are set out in the me@jpmc website, as amended from time to time. Please take time to familiarise yourself with these policies when you begin your internship.

B9.4 To the extent that the contents of policies or procedures refer to obligations on the Company, you agree that they are guides only and are not contractual terms, conditions or representations on which you rely.

B10. Working Hours

B10.1 Your total working hours (including break(s)) is 40 hours per working week during the tenure of your internship and you should attend office 5 days every working week. Your working hours may be revised at the discretion of the Company.

B11. Retirement Benefits

You are not eligible for retirement benefits.

B12. Contract Execution

B12.1 You acknowledge and agree that:

- (a) This letter may be delivered in a digital or physical format. Subject to any applicable law, where the letter is provided in a digital format, you acknowledge and agree that it is being executed electronically and that it is enforceable.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "M. S.", is written over a blue horizontal line.

- (b) You have read and understood the terms of this letter and have been provided with an opportunity to review and discuss the terms of it with advisors, if you so desire.
- (c) Should any further assurances be required or sought by the Company, you shall in good faith perform such further actions (including executing a physical copy of this letter)

B13. Governing Law and Jurisdiction

APPENDIX C - SYSTEMS MONITORING ACTIVITIES AND CROSS-BORDER TRANSFERS,
PERSONAL ACCOUNT DEALING POLICY, AND CODE OF CONDUCT

Appendix: Systems Monitoring Activities and Cross-Border Transfers:

The following provides a summary of how JPMorgan Chase & Co., its affiliates and its subsidiaries and the entity that employs you, or for which you provide services (collectively, "JPMC"), conducts Systems monitoring. JPMC may conduct monitoring to the extent permitted by applicable law.

JPMC conducts monitoring of JPMC's physical facilities and its equipment and systems (collectively, the "Systems"). System monitoring applies to your JPMC equipment, your personal equipment when accessing the Systems, and the communications, information, and materials conveyed or accessed using the Systems. Monitoring activities may include the monitoring and logging of traffic and usage data of all electronic communications; monitoring of telephone calls to or from JPMC work telephones as permitted by applicable laws and subject to any required notices; monitoring of the contents of electronic communications, files, databases, applications, and internet usage; and logging hours worked and physical presence at JPMC's facilities if applicable. JPMC may at all times monitor, access, retrieve, record and review information obtained from the monitoring activities for various purposes, such as preventing and investigating activities that may violate JPMC's policies and ensuring compliance with legal or regulatory obligations. While conducting monitoring activities, JPMC may obtain and process personal information about you and others that may reside on the Systems.

The monitoring activities (including JPMC's collection and processing of personal or other information) are required for purposes of your employment or work assignment to promote adherence to applicable policies and regulations. Subject to applicable laws and regulations, if you object to this processing, JPMC may prohibit you from using the Systems, terminate offers of employment or work assignment; and, for employees, take disciplinary action against you, up to and including termination of your employment with JPMC.

JPMC may disclose the information it obtains in connection with monitoring activities to JPMC affiliates and to third parties, service providers, regulators, supervisory bodies, law enforcement and other government agencies. Information obtained from the monitoring activities may be used as the basis to take disciplinary actions, up to and including termination or other legal action, for violations of JPMC's policies or applicable laws.

In addition to the monitoring activities discussed above, JPMC may obtain and store other information related to your employment or other working relationship, such as your compensation information, performance information, benefits information and other workplace-related data. JPMC may transfer such information, and the information it obtains in connection with monitoring activities, to countries other than the country in which the information originally was collected, including to the United States.

Understanding Obligations under the Firm's Personal Account Dealing Policy (PAD):

The Personal Account Dealing Policy (Policy) of JPMorgan Chase & Co. (firm or JPMC) is designed to help prevent and detect violations of securities laws and industry conduct standards and to minimize actual or perceived conflicts of interest that could arise due to personal investing activities.

PAD Compliance will notify you if the position you are being offered is considered to be subject to the Policy. You will remain subject for the duration of your time working in a subject group, unless notified otherwise of a change in subject status. Unless otherwise notified, you will continue to be subject to the provisions of the Policy even during leaves of absence from the firm, including, but not limited to, garden leave or medical leave.

You as well as your Connected Persons are subject to the provisions of this Policy and will need to be familiar with the obligations set forth in this policy. Connected Persons includes your spouse, domestic partner or minor children (even if financially independent) as well as anyone to whom you provide significant financial support or for which you, or anyone listed above, has or shares the power, directly or indirectly, to make investment decisions.

Once subject to the Policy, you must disclose and certify your Covered Accounts (which include accounts of your Connected Persons). You will be required to maintain your self-directed Covered Accounts with one of the firm's Approved Brokers and pre-clear all purchases, sales, pledges and gifts (received and given) of publicly traded and privately held financial instruments, unless listed as specifically exempt. Pre-approval confirmations must be received prior to executing the trade or investment. The firm may impose periodic restrictions on personal trading in certain financial securities. These restrictions can apply to all firm subject Workforce Members and their Connected Persons or may be limited to certain groups. Subject Workforce Members and their Connected Persons are not permitted to recommend or transact in the financial instruments of an issuer while in the possession of material non-public information (MNPI) regarding that issuer.

If you are a seasonal or short term employee the following requirements will apply:

JPMorgan Chase requires that seasonal workers refrain from trading in Covered Accounts for the time period that you are employed in a short term training program. Please verify that you will

- comply with the following personal trading requirements:
1. For the duration of the short term program I am joining I will not trade in any of my Covered Accounts.
 2. I understand that the Firm has the right to request account information for any of my Covered Accounts.
 3. If there is an extenuating circumstance that would compel me to place a trade in my Covered Accounts, I will obtain pre-approval of the trade by the Personal Account Dealing Group and I would be responsible for supplying all confirmations and statements to the Personal Account Dealing Group for that trade.

*The term Covered Accounts refers to any securities accounts no matter where they are located and includes, but is not limited to, those accounts that are established, maintained or controlled (either directly or indirectly) by you, your spouse, domestic partner or minor children (even if financially independent), anyone to whom you provide significant financial support, and in which the employee has a direct or indirect financial interest.

Global Personal Trading Policy:

The Personal Account Dealing of JPMorgan Chase & Co. is designed to help prevent and detect violations of securities laws and industry conduct standards, and to minimize actual or perceived conflicts of interest that could arise due to personal investing activities. This Policy includes requirements for disclosing Covered Accounts, maintaining certain accounts at one of the firm's Approved Brokers, precleaning trades, and restrictions and prohibitions on certain types of trading activity. This Policy is subject to any applicable local laws and rules and should be read in conjunction with Supplements (regional LOB) as well as the firm's Code of Conduct.

Conflict of Interests and Outside Interests:

Under JPMorgan Chase & Co.'s (JPMC) Code of Conduct, employees are responsible for avoiding activities or relationships that might affect their objectivity in making decisions as an employee. Employees are not permitted to allow their personal interest to conflict, or appear to conflict, with their JPMC role and responsibilities.

Outside Interests include second jobs, not for profit activities, government positions, and positions with external companies and organizations as a director, officer, advisor, sole proprietor, consultant or owner of any business. Outside Interests may result in an actual or perceived conflict of interest. Where actual or potential conflicts of interest cannot be mitigated, you may be required to discontinue the activity or dissolve your investment.

Employees are required to seek preclearance prior to engaging in Outside Interests or immediately upon joining JPMC. Where preclearance is not required, employee must adhere to all restrictions and conditions outlined in Section 5 and 6 of the Outside Interest Policy.

Conflicts of interests may also arise from: (1) personal and business relationships; (2) the exchange of gifts and business hospitality; (3) political engagement; and (4) personal finances. Employees should avoid activities or relationships that might affect their objectivity in making decisions on behalf of JPMC or undermine their credibility. Employees may never place personal interests ahead of our clients' interests. All potential and actual conflicts must be escalated to your manager for review and mitigation.

Acceptance and Code Affirmation

Upon signing this letter I accept the terms and conditions described above.

I hereby affirm that I have read, understand, and am in compliance with the JPMorgan Chase ("JPMC") Code of Conduct and all internal JPMC policies that apply to me. I agree, as a condition of my employment, to remain in compliance with the Code of Conduct and all applicable JPMC policies.

I understand that I must conduct myself in a way that is consistent with the Code of Conduct, demonstrating compliance with the principles and intent of the Code of Conduct, and applicable laws and regulations.

I also affirm that I have reported any potential or actual violations of the Code of Conduct, JPMC policies, or laws or regulations applicable to JPMC's business, as required by the Code of Conduct. I understand that failure to do so can result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

I understand that the Code of Conduct may be updated periodically, as necessary; and that the current version is posted on the JPMorgan Chase intranet as well as on its public website.

Independent Auditor Tax Services to Employees of JPMorgan Chase and its Affiliates:

To be in compliance with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (PCAOB) Rule 3523, it is JPMorgan Chase's (JPMC) policy that PricewaterhouseCoopers (PwC) cannot provide any tax services to employees of JPMC or any of its controlled entities (hereafter referred to as JPMC employee). This restriction is regardless of whether the individual is in a financial reporting oversight role or not, and whether PwC is engaged by the individual or by JPMC. PwC is also prohibited from providing any tax services to a spouse of a JPMC employee if the work is related to a joint tax return. Exceptions to this policy will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis and will require the approval of the JPMC Controller.

the Additional Sum

If your internship period is less than 3 months and you leave the internship or your internship is terminated for any reason before completion of your internship period you must repay the Company 100% of the gross amount of the Additional Sum

A5. Probationary Period

Your internship will be subject to a probation period as outlined in paragraph 4.3 of Appendix B.

A6. Leave Entitlement

A6.1 Annual Leave

You are entitled to 20 working days of annual leave with full pay in every calendar year, pro-rated according to the duration of your employment in accordance with the Company's Human Resources Policies and applicable law. If you work part-time hours, your annual leave entitlement will be pro-rated to reflect your part-time hours worked.

A6.2 Other Leave

You can find further details of other leave entitlements in paragraph 5 of Appendix B.

A7. Benefits

You will not be entitled to join the Company's benefits programs, given the short length of your fixed-term contract.

A8. Retirement Scheme

You are not eligible for retirement benefits.

A9. Notice Period

During your probationary period, starting the day you join the Company, either you or the Company may terminate your employment with at least 14 days' written notice or payment of wages in lieu of such notice period.

After the probationary period, either party can terminate the employment by giving the other party 30 Days written notice ("Notice Period") or by the Company making a payment in lieu of Notice Period,

APPENDIX B – GENERAL INTERNSHIP TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1242

B1. Internship

B1.1 Your internship is subject to:

- a) you being able to carry out your role in India while being able to be physically present in an JPMC office in Mumbai, India and obtaining and maintaining throughout your entire period of internship a valid work permit and such other permission, license or registration as may from time to time be necessary to enable you to carry out your duties and continue your internship.
- b) the completion of all pre-employment screening processes to the satisfaction of the Company, including obtaining education verification, background references and checks as sought and the execution of any other forms necessary for internship, etc.; and
- c) you being legally able to work with the Company. You undertake to disclose any internship or contractual post-internship restraints to which you are subject and which may, and will continue to, affect your internship with us and represent and warrant that:
 - ix. by entering into internship with the Company and performing the duties set out in this letter, you will not be in breach of any express or implied term of any internship or other agreement or arrangement to which you are party;
 - i. you have not taken or otherwise misappropriated and you do not have in your possession or control any confidential and proprietary information belonging to any of your prior employers, or any third party providing services to your prior employer, or connected with or derived from your services to prior employers and you have returned to all prior employers any and all such confidential or proprietary information; and
 - ii. you are not subject to any other internship, including being subject to garden leave or any contractual post-internship restraints.

You shall indemnify and hold harmless the Company from any and all claims arising from any breach of the warranties in this paragraph B1.

B1.2 Whilst you and/or the Company may have agreed a tentative date of commencement of internship with the Company, you will not, unless the Company decides otherwise, be able to commence internship with the Company without our receipt of completed and satisfactory results from our pre-employment screening process.

B1.3 You may be required to provide services for other members of the Group throughout your internship. When providing these services, you may from time to time be required to travel and work in different locations within and outside your hiring location.

B1.4 You will not undertake outside employment or activities with or without remuneration, unless you have the prior written approval of senior management of the Company or its delegate. Outside activities may include (but are not limited to) activities as a director, officer, partner, sole proprietor, consultant or controlling stockholder of any business. If your request to undertake outside activity is not approved by management and you decide to engage in the activity, your internship may be terminated without any notice or compensation.

B2. Remuneration

B2.1 We will deposit your stipend (paragraph 4 of Appendix A) on or around the 30th of each month.

B2.2 You will be responsible for all tax liabilities world-wide arising out of payments pursuant to your internship with the Company.

B2.3 Any payment of salary or bonus by, or other sum due to you from the Company shall be subject to any and all withholding or deduction (for, including but not limited to, any taxes, contributions, repayments or other sums which you have agreed that the Company may withhold/deduct or which the Company is obliged or entitled to withhold/deduct from time to time under any applicable law), and the Company shall in such case be entitled to withhold, deduct or retain the amount of such tax, withholding or deduction from any sum payable to you.

B3. Incentive Compensation

For this position, you won't be eligible for incentive awards under the JPMorgan Chase Performance-Based Incentive Compensation Plan or any other non-annual incentive compensation plan.

B4. Termination

B4.1 Your internship may be terminated as follows:

a) By either party giving to the other prior written notice of at least the period specified, as applicable, in paragraph 9 in Appendix A (the "Notice Period"), or by the Company making a payment in lieu of notice for all or part of such Notice Period of an amount equal to basic salary you would have been entitled to receive during the Notice period or part of the Notice Period.

b) By the Company at any time without notice or compensation if you:

i) are guilty of fraud, dishonesty or misconduct which is inconsistent with the due and faithful discharge of your duties;

1294

- ii) seriously breach the Code of Conduct and any other Company policies;
 - iii) disobey the Company's lawful and reasonable instructions/requirements;
 - iv) habitually neglect your duties; or
 - v) otherwise commit a material or repeated breach of your internship terms or any of the Company's or Group's policies.
- B4.2 During any Notice Period, the Company may put you on "garden leave" and may, amongst other things, do any or a combination of the following:
- (a) suspend you from the performance of any duties or assign you alternative duties;
 - (b) exclude you from any premises of the Company or any of the Group companies and/or require you to work from another location;
 - (c) require that you have no or limited contact or communication, other than purely social contact, with any employees, officers, directors, agents or consultants of the Company or any other member of the Group;
 - (d) require that you have no or limited contact or communication with any customer or client of the Company or any other member of the Group;
 - (e) remove your access to the Company premises and computer systems;
 - (f) require that you return any property belonging to the Company under paragraph 7 in this Appendix;
 - (g) require you not to do any act or thing, or make or cause to be made, any statement reasonably likely to damage the business or reputation of the Company or the Group.
- B4.3 If paragraph 5 of Appendix A states that your employment is subject to probation, your probation period will be the first 3 months of employment, which you agree is reasonable, and fair, in light of the responsibilities of the role.
- B4.4 At its sole discretion, the Company may notify you of an extension to your probationary period.
- B4.5 All your duties (whether express or implied) under your internship and this letter, including without limitation your duty of fidelity, good faith, exclusive service and duties in relation to the Group's confidential information shall continue throughout the Notice Period including any period that you are on garden leave.

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to be "W.M." followed by a stylized surname.

B4.6 During any Notice Period:

- (a) you will provide such assistance as the Company may require to effect an orderly handover of your duties and responsibilities to any individual appointed by the Company or any of the Group Companies to take over your role or responsibilities; and
- (b) you shall make yourself available to deal with requests for information, provide assistance, be available for meetings and to advise on matters relating to work.

B5. Leave

B5.1 Annual Leave

- (a) You will be entitled to annual leave with full pay in every calendar year – please see paragraph 6 of Appendix A, pro-rated according to the duration of your employment. The Company will be entitled to determine when annual leave is taken, although as far as possible, arrangements will be made to suit your convenience. Annual leave entitlement for each calendar year must be taken in that calendar year and only in exceptional circumstances can annual leave (other than unused statutory entitlement, if any) be carried forward into the following calendar year. All annual leave days taken will be deducted first from the statutory entitlement accumulation.
- (b) After a notice of termination has been given pursuant to paragraph B4.1 of this Appendix, you will not be entitled to take any annual leave without the express consent of the Company provided after notice of termination has been given.
- (c) You must comply with the Company's 'consecutive days leave' policies.

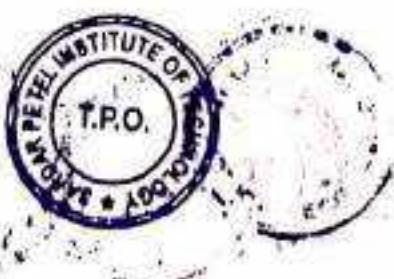

B5.2 Sick Leave

Any sick leave entitlement will be subject to relevant legislation and J.P Morgan internal policies that are in force and amended from time to time. More details are set out in the me@jpmc website, which will be accessible to you upon commencement of your employment.

B5.3 Suspension Leave

The Company has the right to suspend you from your work duties with full pay when it considers it necessary to investigate any allegation of misconduct or impropriety on your part. The Company can exercise this right at its sole discretion, acting in good faith.

B6. Confidentiality

John

You acknowledge that a vast amount of privileged and confidential information will be disclosed to you in course of your internship with the Company and during your internship with the Company and thereafter, you shall keep secret and shall not at any time (whether during or after the period of your internship) use for your own or another's advantage, or reveal to any person, firm or company, any of the trade secrets, business methods and plans, financial matters, client lists, investments, marketing plans, personnel matters or other information which you knew or reasonably ought to have known to be confidential concerning the business or affairs of the Company or any other member of the Group or any of their related companies, clients or suppliers.

You agree to abide by the specific provisions on the use of confidential information in the Company's policies and Group code of conduct.

The restriction contained in this paragraph shall not apply to any disclosure or use authorised by the Company or required by law.

B7. Return of Company Property

You acknowledge that any privileged or confidential information disclosed to you in the course of your internship with the Company remains the exclusive property of the Company and whenever requested by the Company and/or Group and in any event upon the termination of your internship, you will promptly deliver to the Company and/or Group all documents and other materials (whether originals or copies or in hard copy or electronic form) concerning the Company and/or Group or their respective clients and suppliers, which may have been prepared by you or have come into your possession, custody or control in the course of your internship with the Company. This includes, without limitation, any confidential information, lists of clients or suppliers, correspondence, electronic equipment, computer software or hardware, staff identity cards card and other property used in connection with the operations of the Company and/or Group. You will not be entitled to, and will not retain, any copies, title and copyright in such correspondence and other documents, papers, records and property are vested in the Company and/or Group.

B8. Post internship Restrictions

B8.1 For a period of three months commencing on the Relevant Date, you shall not directly or indirectly (whether on your own account, for or with any other person, firm or company) solicit or endeavor to entice away from the Company or any other Group Company any Critical Person.

B8.2 For a period of three months commencing on the Relevant Date, you shall not directly or indirectly (whether on your own account, for or with any other person, firm or company) solicit or endeavor to entice away from the Company or any other Group Company the business or custom of any Restricted Client.

B8.3 The duration of the restrictions will be reduced by any period of notice that you work out or any period of garden leave as provided in this offer letter.

B8.4 In this paragraph B8:

- a) "Critical Person" means any person who was an employee or director of the Company or any other Group Company at any time within one year prior to the Relevant Date who had access to trade secrets or confidential information of the Company or any other Group Company. This includes knowledge of, involvement with or influence over suppliers or clients of the Company or any other Group Company with whom you worked at any time during that period.
- b) "Group Company" means the Company, its ultimate holding company, any subsidiary of the Company and any holding company from time to time. "Subsidiary" and "holding company" shall have the same meaning as in the relevant companies' legislation.
- c) "Restricted Client" means any person:
 - i. who in the one year before the Relevant Date was a client of, or has dealt with, the Company or any other Group Company; and
 - ii. with whose custom or business you, or persons reporting to you, were personally involved with during the period of one year prior to the Relevant Date
 - iii. but does not include publicly known institutional clients which you serve subsequent to your internship with the Company without the use of confidential or proprietary information of the Company and the Group.
- d) "Relevant Date" means the date your internship with the Company or the Group terminates for whatever reason.

B8.5 You acknowledge and agree:

- a) that each of the foregoing paragraphs constitutes an entirely separate and independent restriction on you;
- b) that the duration, extent and application of each restrictions, obligations and undertakings are reasonable and necessary to protect legitimate interests of the Company and the Group, considering, among other things, that the Company has commercial dealings with business partners throughout the world and that you will regularly be dealing with such partners as part of your duties and you understand that it does not by any means prevent you from earning a living in a satisfactory way;
- c) that, if any such restriction (or parts of a restriction) shall be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be void or unenforceable, the validity or enforceability of the remaining restrictions (or parts of a restriction) shall remain in full force and effect as if the unenforceable parts had been deleted. Damages may be an inadequate compensation for breach of any of the restrictions in this paragraph and, subject to a court's discretion, in the event of any actual or threatened breach of any provision of this paragraph, you agree that the Company shall be entitled to (on behalf of itself and on behalf of any other Group Company) restrain, by injunction, equitable relief or similar remedy, any conduct or threatened conduct by you. You expressly submit to the jurisdiction of any court of competent jurisdiction for this purpose, and in the event you receive from any person an offer of employment (whether oral or in writing and whether accepted or not), either during your internship or the continuation in force of all or any of the restrictions applicable to you, whether pursuant to this letter or the Code of Conduct, you shall provide to the person making such an offer of employment a full and accurate copy of the then current restrictions applicable to you.

- d) that any benefit given or deemed to be given by you to the Group under the terms of this paragraph is received and held on trust by the Company for the relevant Group Company. You will enter into appropriate restrictive covenants directly with other Group Companies if asked to do so by the Company.
- e) that your internship with the Company and the compensation paid and/or payable to you by the Company shall be sufficient consideration for the purposes of this clause. You further agree and acknowledge that the limitations as to time and the character or nature placed in this clause are reasonable and fair and will not preclude you from earning a livelihood, nor will they unreasonably impose limitations on your ability to earn a living.
- f) that this offer letter constitutes a valid, legally binding and enforceable obligation on you and this document is not in violation of any applicable law.
- g) that any breach or threat of breach on your part of any one of such obligations and/or undertakings would cause serious harm to the Company or the Group which may then institute any legal recourse against you that is deemed appropriate and/or recourse in damages, without further notice or delay.
- h) that you shall not assign this offer letter or the rights and/or obligations hereunder. The Company may assign its rights and obligations herein in all circumstances without your consent, including in connection with any sale, transfer or disposition of all or substantially all of its business and operations and its assets, in which case the Company's rights and obligations shall vest to the successor.
- i) in addition, you agree and acknowledge that the potential harm to the Company of the non-enforcement of this clause outweighs any potential harm to you and that you have given careful consideration to the restraints imposed upon you by this clause and that you are in full agreement as to their necessity for the reasonable and proper protection of the Company's interests. You expressly acknowledge and agree that each and every restraint imposed by this clause is reasonable with respect to subject matter, time period and geographical area.

B9. Code of Conduct and Staff Regulations and Affirmation

- B9.1 It is a condition of your continuing internship and it is your obligation that you comply with:
- (a) the Code of Conduct (as amended from time to time or superseded). At the time of acceptance of the offer of internship and on a periodic basis, you will be required to sign an affirmation (or reaffirmation) confirming your understanding and compliance with the provisions of the Code of Conduct; and
 - (b) the Company's other internal policies and procedures and all relevant policies and procedures for the line of business in which you are to undertake work.
- B9.2 The Company shall be entitled at any time to amend the Company's internal policies and procedures (including but not limited to the Code of Conduct), the benefits set out in the Appendices and other staff regulations, as well as to put in place new policies as the Company sees fit. Any such amendments shall be notified in writing to each employee and shall on provision of such notice, become legally binding.
- B9.3 The Company's Human Resources work policies are set out in the me@jpmc website, as amended from time to time. Please take time to familiarise yourself with these policies when you begin your internship.
- B9.4 To the extent that the contents of policies or procedures refer to obligations on the Company, you agree that they are guides only and are not contractual terms, conditions or representations on which you rely.

B10. Working Hours

- B10.1 Your total working hours (including break(s)) is 40 hours per working week during the tenure of your internship and you should attend office 5 days every working week. Your working hours may be revised at the discretion of the Company.

B11. Retirement Benefits

You are not eligible for retirement benefits.

B12. Contract Execution

B12.1 You acknowledge and agree that:

- (a) This letter may be delivered in a digital or physical format. Subject to any applicable law, where the letter is provided in a digital format, you acknowledge and agree that it is being executed electronically and that it is enforceable.

A handwritten signature in black ink, consisting of a stylized 'M' and 'O', written over a horizontal line.

- (b) You have read and understood the terms of this letter and have been provided with an opportunity to review and discuss the terms of it with advisors, if you so desire.
- (c) Should any further assurances be required or sought by the Company, you shall in good faith perform such further actions (including executing a physical copy of this letter)

B13. Governing Law and Jurisdiction

This letter and any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with it or its subject matter or formation (including non-contractual disputes or claims) shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of India. You and the Company submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the Mumbai, Maharashtra courts in relation to any dispute arising in connection with your internship and this letter.

APPENDIX C - SYSTEMS MONITORING ACTIVITIES AND CROSS-BORDER TRANSFERS,
PERSONAL ACCOUNT DEALING POLICY, AND CODE OF CONDUCT

Appendix: Systems Monitoring Activities and Cross-Border Transfers:

The following provides a summary of how JPMorgan Chase & Co., its affiliates and its subsidiaries and the entity that employs you, or for which you provide services (collectively, "JPMC"), conducts Systems monitoring. JPMC may conduct monitoring to the extent permitted by applicable law.

JPMC conducts monitoring of JPMC's physical facilities and its equipment and systems (collectively, the "Systems"). System monitoring applies to your JPMC equipment, your personal equipment when accessing the Systems, and the communications, information, and materials conveyed or accessed using the Systems. Monitoring activities may include the monitoring and logging of traffic and usage data of all electronic communications; monitoring of telephone calls to or from JPMC work telephones as permitted by applicable laws and subject to any required notices; monitoring of the contents of electronic communications, files, databases, applications, and internet usage; and logging hours worked and physical presence at JPMC's facilities if applicable. JPMC may at all times monitor, access, retrieve, record and review information obtained from the monitoring activities for various purposes, such as preventing and investigating activities that may violate JPMC's policies and ensuring compliance with legal or regulatory obligations. While conducting monitoring activities, JPMC may obtain and process personal information about you and others that may reside on the Systems.

The monitoring activities (including JPMC's collection and processing of personal or other information) are required for purposes of your employment or work assignment to promote adherence to applicable policies and regulations. Subject to applicable laws and regulations, if you object to this processing, JPMC may prohibit you from using the Systems; terminate offers of employment or work assignment; and, for employees, take disciplinary action against you, up to and including termination of your employment with JPMC.

JPMC may disclose the information it obtains in connection with monitoring activities to JPMC affiliates and to third parties, service providers, regulators, supervisory bodies, law enforcement and other government agencies. Information obtained from the monitoring activities may be used as the basis to take disciplinary actions, up to and including termination or other legal action, for violations of JPMC's policies or applicable laws.

In addition to the monitoring activities discussed above, JPMC may obtain and store other information related to your employment or other working relationship, such as your compensation information, performance information, benefits information and other workplace-related data. JPMC may transfer such information, and the information it obtains in connection with monitoring activities, to countries other than the country in which the information originally was collected, including to the United States.

Understanding Obligations under the Firm's Personal Account Dealing Policy (PAD):

The Personal Account Dealing Policy (Policy) of JPMorgan Chase & Co. (firm or JPMC) is designed to help prevent and detect violations of securities laws and industry conduct standards and to minimize actual or perceived conflicts of interest that could arise due to personal investing activities.

PAD Compliance will notify you if the position you are being offered is considered to be subject to the Policy. You will remain subject for the duration of your time working in a subject group, unless notified otherwise of a change in subject status. Unless otherwise notified, you will continue to be subject to the provisions of the Policy even during leaves of absence from the firm, including, but not limited to, garden leave or medical leave.

You as well as your Connected Persons are subject to the provisions of this Policy and will need to be familiar with the obligations set forth in this policy. Connected Persons includes your spouse, domestic partner or minor children (even if financially independent) as well as anyone to whom you provide significant financial support or for which you, or anyone listed above, has or shares the power, directly or indirectly, to make investment decisions.

Once subject to the Policy, you must disclose and certify your Covered Accounts (which include accounts of your Connected Persons). You will be required to maintain your self-directed Covered Accounts with one of the firm's Approved Brokers and preclear all purchases, sales, pledges and gifts (received and given) of publicly traded and privately held financial instruments, unless listed as specifically exempt. Pre-approval confirmations must be received prior to executing the trade or investment. The firm may impose periodic restrictions on personal trading in certain financial securities. These restrictions can apply to all firm subject Workforce Members and their Connected Persons or may be limited to certain groups. Subject Workforce Members and their Connected Persons are not permitted to recommend or transact in the financial instruments of an issuer while in the possession of material non-public information (MNPI) regarding that issuer.

If you are a seasonal or short term employee the following requirements will apply:

JPMorgan Chase requires that seasonal workers refrain from trading in Covered Accounts for the time period that you are employed in a short term training program. Please verify that you will

John

1252

Comply with the following personal trading requirements:

1. For the duration of the short term program I am joining I will not trade in any of my Covered Accounts
2. I understand that the Firm has the right to request account information for any of my Covered Accounts
3. If there is an extenuating circumstance that would compel me to place a trade in my Covered Accounts, I will obtain pre-approval of the trade by the Personal Account Dealing Group and I would be responsible for supplying all confirmations and statements to the Personal Account Dealing Group for that trade

*The term Covered Accounts refers to any securities accounts no matter where they are located and includes, but is not limited to, those accounts that are established, maintained or controlled (either directly or indirectly) by you, your spouse, domestic partner or minor children (even if financially independent), anyone to whom you provide significant financial support, and in which the employee has a direct or indirect financial interest.

Global Personal Trading Policy:

The Personal Account Dealing of JPMorgan Chase & Co. is designed to help prevent and detect violations of securities laws and industry conduct standards and to minimize actual or perceived conflicts of interest that could arise due to personal investing activities. This Policy includes requirements for disclosing Covered Accounts, maintaining certain accounts at one of the firm's Approved Brokers, preclearing trades, and restrictions and prohibitions on certain types of trading activity. This Policy is subject to any applicable local laws and rules and should be read in conjunction with Supplements (regional/LOB) as well as the firm's Code of Conduct.

Conflict of Interests and Outside Interests:

Under JPMorgan Chase & Co.'s (JPMC) Code of Conduct, employees are responsible for avoiding activities or relationships that might affect their objectivity in making decisions as an employee. Employees are not permitted to allow their personal interest to conflict, or appear to conflict, with their JPMC role and responsibilities.

Outside Interests include second jobs, not for profit activities, government positions, and positions with external companies and organizations as a director, officer, advisor, sole proprietor, consultant or owner of any business. Outside Interests may result in an actual or perceived conflict of interest. Where actual or potential conflicts of interest cannot be mitigated, you may be required to discontinue the activity or dissolve your investment.

Employees are required to seek preclearance prior to engaging in Outside Interests or immediately upon joining JPMC. Where preclearance is not required, employee must adhere to all restrictions and conditions outlined in Section 5 and 6 of the Outside Interest Policy.

Conflicts of interests may also arise from: (1) personal and business relationships; (2) the exchange of gifts and business hospitality; (3) political engagement; and (4) personal finances. Employees should avoid activities or relationships that might affect their objectivity in making decisions on behalf of JPMC or undermine their credibility. Employees may never place personal interests ahead of our clients' interests. All potential and actual conflicts must be escalated to your manager for review and mitigation.

Acceptance and Code Affirmation:

Upon signing this letter I accept the terms and conditions described above.

I hereby affirm that I have read, understand, and am in compliance with the JPMorgan Chase ("JPMC") Code of Conduct and all internal JPMC policies that apply to me. I agree, as a condition of my employment, to remain in compliance with the Code of Conduct and all applicable JPMC policies.

I understand that I must conduct myself in a way that is consistent with the Code of Conduct, demonstrating compliance with the principles and intent of the Code of Conduct, and applicable laws and regulations.

I also affirm that I have reported any potential or actual violations of the Code of Conduct, JPMC policies, or laws or regulations applicable to JPMC's business, as required by the Code of Conduct. I understand that failure to do so can result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

I understand that the Code of Conduct may be updated periodically, as necessary; and that the current version is posted on the JPMorgan Chase intranet as well as on its public website.

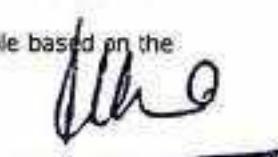

Independent Auditor Tax Services to Employees of JPMorgan Chase and its Affiliates:

To be in compliance with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (PCAOB) Rule 3523, it is JPMorgan Chase's (JPMC) policy that PricewaterhouseCoopers (PwC) cannot provide any tax services to employees of JPMC or any of its controlled entities (hereafter referred to as JPMC employee). This restriction is regardless of whether the individual is in a financial reporting oversight role or not, and whether PwC is engaged by the individual or by JPMC. PwC is also prohibited from providing any tax services to a spouse of a JPMC employee if the work is related to a joint tax return. Exceptions to this policy will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis and will require the approval of the JPMC Controller.

Dear Joy Silvester,

Following our recent discussions, we are delighted to extend an offer of employment to you.

Enclosed are a Summary of Key Terms, any applicable Schedules and Detailed Terms and Conditions which set out important conditions relating to your employment and which, together, form your employment terms with Barclays ("Employment Letter").

The Employment Letter refers to the Barclays Values (Respect, Integrity, Service, Excellence and Stewardship) as these are a central part of everything we do. The Values as well as our purpose and behaviours, will have formed a key part of your selection process when being offered a role at Barclays. You will be expected to act in accordance with the Values as a Barclays employee, and in particular, to follow our Code of Conduct (known as the Barclays Way). More information on this, and how we 'live' the Values will be available prior to and on joining Barclays.

This offer is conditional upon you satisfying Barclays recruitment and screening conditions and procedures and where applicable, the appropriate regulatory approvals. To start the process you will need to complete an application form. If you have not already received it, you will receive a link to the site shortly.

On or before your first day of employment, you will need to provide written documentation which proves your eligibility to work in India. You will also need to sign one copy of your Employment Letter (enclosed) confirming that you have read, understood and accept the terms. You must return this on your first day of employment.

We look forward to welcoming you to Barclays.

Yours sincerely

Sarada Srinivas

Summary of Key Terms

Introduction to this Section

This section is intended as an 'at a glance' summary of the key terms of the offer to you. You must, therefore, read these terms in conjunction with any applicable Schedules and the enclosed Detailed Terms and Conditions which together comprise your Employment Letter.

Name	Joy Silvester Almeida
Employing Company	Barclays Global Service Centre Private Limited ("the Company")
Position	Your role will be Graduate Analyst, BA3 (or equivalent), or such other role as the Company reasonably decides from time to time.
Start Date	10 July 2023, or such other date agreed between us in writing, subject to the pre-employment conditions being met to the Company's satisfaction. Your start date for the purposes of continuous employment is as set out above.
	In addition to the terms set out elsewhere in the Agreement, this offer of employment is contingent upon successful completion of your current degree prior to your anticipated start date. Successful completion of your degree means that it is completed within the specified timelines highlighted in your application and that your final degree classification matches or exceeds the predicted results stated in your application to Barclays. It is your responsibility to inform our recruitment team immediately, if you suspect that your grades will be lower than those predicted. Your start date for the purposes of continuous employment is as set out above.
Working Hours	Your hours of work will be an average of 40 per week. Rest intervals and breaks are separate from the 40 hours of work. The Company is operational 24 hours a day, 365 days a year, so depending on your business function, your working days and hours may involve day and night shifts, and working on weekends/weekly offs and holidays, as permitted under applicable laws. Your manager will inform you if you are required to work in a different shift. You will devote sufficient time to your duties. Subject to applicable laws, you may be required to work such additional hours as are required for the proper performance of your duties as per any applicable Company policy, which may require that you attend the office, or be available to fulfil your function, outside normal hours and days. Your working hours can be varied by the Company at its discretion, with reasonable notice and in accordance with applicable laws.
Initial Place of Work	You will initially be based in LTS – Barclays Global Service Centre, Gera Commerzone SE2, Survey No.65, Village Kharadi Pune - 411014. However, your place of work will be determined in line with the requirements of the scheme at Barclays' sole discretion. It is a condition of your employment that you agree that you may be required to work or travel to any branch or office (in India or overseas). Where you are required to work outside of India, additional terms and conditions may apply to your employment, which will be provided at the relevant time.
Probationary Period	Your employment is subject to a probationary period of 6 months, or such additional period as the company may in its discretion consider necessary.

Salary

Components	In INR Per Annum
Basic salary	462,000.00
House Rent Allowance	231,000.00
Flexible Benefit Plan (see further "Statutory and other Benefits" below)	462,000.00
Annual Salary	1,155,000.00
Provident Fund (Employer's Contribution)	55,440.00
Gratuity (per Company policy)	22,212.00
Total Fixed Pay	1,232,652.00

Salary will be payable on a monthly basis, subject to applicable taxes, dues, cesses, and other statutory deductions, and is currently paid on or around the 24th (or the prior working day if the 24th is not a working day) of each month. The estimated CTC above does not create any contractual right to any such payment.

You may be eligible to receive discretionary allowances as mentioned above or otherwise, subject to and in accordance with the Company's policy on such allowances / flexible benefit pay component of the salary, subject to amendment from time to time by the Company, to reflect changes in law, tax, or other reasons. These allowances may be reduced or withdrawn.

Your allowances will be paid along with your salary as mentioned above, subject to applicable taxes, dues, cesses and other statutory deductions.

Other Payments

The Company agrees to pay you a one-off non-pensionable scholarship and bursary payment of Rs.100,000.00 (the "Scholarship and Bursary Payment") in recognition of your studying costs. The Scholarship and Bursary Payment will be paid within 90 days from your date of joining Barclays. The payment will be made subject to applicable tax and / or other withholdings or deductions as required by law or regulation.

As agreed by you, this Scholarship and Bursary Payment will be subject to your compliance with the following requirements:

You will be required to repay the Scholarship and Bursary Payment net of any taxes or other deductions or withholdings as required by law or regulation within 30 days of any of the following occurring:

- you have terminated your employment voluntarily (or have given the Company notice to terminate your employment) within 12 months of your start date; or
- you are dismissed for gross misconduct or fundamental breach of contract or for a serious breach of the Risk and / or Compliance requirements of the Barclays Group (or you have been given notice to terminate your employment for these reasons) within 12 months of your start date; or
- you fail to satisfy the pre-employment conditions of as set out in this Agreement or as otherwise determined by the Company.

The Company may adjust this repayment amount from any amount payable to you by any Barclays Group company. The Scholarship and Bursary Payment should not be interpreted as giving rise to any right to or legitimate expectation of any other award, nor is it any assurance as to the level of any award which may be made to you in future, which will be at the Company's discretion.

You were also given an opportunity to join your employment without the Scholarship and Bursary Payment and therefore your liability to repay the amount, as has been mentioned above, in no case to be considered as a deterrent to restrict your employment for a specific term.

Qualifications/ Examinations

It is a condition of your employment and continued employment with the Company that you successfully complete any professional qualification and/or examination as may be required and notified to you by the Company from time to time, including without limitation any qualifications or examinations required by the Regulator. You will be expected to pass all exams within a predetermined period and/or within one or more sittings, which shall be set out in the Company policy.

Subject to the terms set out below and the Company policy, the Company will be responsible for the cost of any first attempts at any such qualification with our preferred provider, including study books and associated examination fees. You should refer to the Company policy for details.

If you do not pass any exam or obtain a qualification within the period specified or within the relevant number of attempts (which may in some cases only be one) the Company reserves the right to terminate your employment.

In the event that your employment is terminated for gross misconduct, or if you resign from the Company or otherwise terminate your employment or if you fail to join the Company for any reason and / or you fail to satisfy the pre-conditions of employment as set out in this Agreement or as otherwise determined by the Company, you will be required (except where a qualification or examination is required by the Regulator) to repay to the Company the following sums in full within 30 days:

- 100% of all fees and costs paid for by the Company in respect of any course of study if your employment is terminated for gross misconduct or you resign or otherwise terminate your employment at any time during your course of study, or within six months of completing your course of study, or if you fail to join the Company for any reason and / or you fail to satisfy the pre-conditions of employment as set out in this Agreement or as otherwise determined by the Company; or
- 50% of all fees and costs paid for by the Company in respect of any course of study if your employment is terminated for gross misconduct or you resign or otherwise terminate your employment within six twelve months of completing your course of study

Any such sums owed by you to the Company will be deducted from any sums due to you from the Company or, if such a deduction is not made, will be deemed to be due as a debt from you to the Company.

Discretionary Incentive Award

You may be eligible to be considered for a discretionary incentive award on an annual basis, at the absolute discretion of the Company and subject to you being eligible at the relevant time. Normally, awards are made in the first quarter, in respect of the previous financial year.

Statutory and Other Benefits

You will be eligible for various statutory benefits in accordance with the relevant laws. You will also be eligible to participate in the Company's benefits scheme, details of which are set out in the attached flyer which does not form part of your contract or have any contractual effect.

Any benefits are subject to the relevant policies/plans from time to time in force. The Company reserves the right to change the benefits or policies/plans from time to time.

If the Company pays or reimburses any expense on your joining the Company towards your relocation from your current place of stay to your place of posting as agreed between the Company and you, if your employment ends less than one year after the Start Date you confirm that you will pay to the Company (or alternatively Company may set-off against/ write off) any amount paid or reimbursed in respect of such relocation from the amount payable to you.

Annual Leave

You are entitled to avail annual leave which includes privilege leave, casual leave and sick leave entitlement in accordance with the applicable laws in the state of your Place of Work. Further details are included in the Detailed Terms and Conditions and on your intranet.

Notice Period

Either you or the Company may terminate your employment by giving two months written notice; however, the Company may terminate your employment with immediate effect in accordance with applicable Company policies.

Any reduction/ waiver to notice period shall be at the sole discretion of the Company. Company may adjust balance of annual leaves, while granting such reduction/ waiver.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "M. S.", is written over a solid blue horizontal line.

Further information on Notice is included in the Detailed Terms and Conditions.

Overtime

Employees who are eligible under applicable laws to be paid Overtime for work beyond normal working hours, will be paid for the same in accordance to the applicable State laws at your Place of Work.

Further details in regard to Overtime are included within the Additional Time Guidelines available on the company's Intranet.

Data Privacy

The Company processes employee information for legal, regulatory, administrative and other purposes related to your employment and the conduct of the business of the Barclays Group (the "Agreed Purposes"). Processing includes obtaining, holding, editing, destroying and disclosing employee information to any Barclays Group company and its employees and/or any third parties (for example, insurers, pension scheme trustees, banks, auditors, consultants, lawyer/ law firm, business partners, suppliers and vendors engaged to provide products or services to the Company, business partners, suppliers and vendors engaged to provide products or services to the Company, and other employers following a business transfer or merger) for the Agreed Purposes ("Processing" or "Process").

For the Agreed Purposes, the Company may transfer employee information to any Barclays Group company and/or any third parties (for example, insurers, pension scheme trustees, banks, business partners, suppliers and vendors engaged to provide products or services to the Company, and other employers following a business transfer or merger) in order to Process employee information for the Agreed Purposes.

You confirm that you will provide your employee information to the Company and consent to the Processing of employee information for the Agreed Purposes. This may include transfers to recipients based in another country to your place of employment (either within or outside the European Economic Area) with different levels of protection of your personal data to India.

You confirm that the Company and/or any Barclays Group company may monitor and/or record your use of office equipment, for example, e-mail, internet (including chats and blogs), telephones and mobile telephones for the purposes of compliance with Company procedures and policies, maintenance, security and regulatory requirements or as permitted by law.

Aforesaid clause/ conditions shall apply to information relating to your family members/ relatives with respect to insurance policy, emergency contact details, etc., in accordance with prevailing Barclays/ Company policy. It is your responsibility to inform such individuals that their data will be processed in this manner and to obtain their consent.

Confidentiality

It is important that you recognise that during your employment with the Company you will have access to, and be entrusted with, confidential information and trade secrets relating to the Company, the Barclays Group and any of our clients and customers. Both during and after your employment you must comply with all policies and procedures relating to confidentiality, confidential information and trade secrets and any stricter policy which applies to your role.

Post-Termination Restrictions

In protecting the interests of the Company, you must not, for a period of 3 months from the termination date of your employment:

- approach, solicit or deal with any person, firm, company or other entity who is or was a customer/supplier of Barclays Group and with whom you had material dealings within the 12 months period immediately prior to your termination.
- solicit or entice, or attempt to solicit or entice away or engage or employ any director, officer or employee in the Barclays Group.

Full details of the restrictions you will be bound by are included in the Detailed Terms and Conditions.

Detailed Terms and Conditions

Introduction

About the Detailed Terms and Conditions

The purpose of the Detailed Terms and Conditions is to provide you with the relevant information on what the Company and the Barclays Group expects from its employees.

The Detailed Terms and Conditions also set out a list of key practices, guidelines and processes that the Barclays Group has developed to reflect our values, purpose and behaviour and as part of our high performance culture and, in accordance with your contractual obligations, must be adhered to at all times. Further information and policies can be found on your own business unit intranet site.

It is important that we review our policies, practices, guidelines and processes to ensure that we stay at the leading edge, enabling us to be one of the most admired financial services companies in the world. From time to time, our policies and procedures do change and you must familiarise yourself with them on joining and periodically throughout your employment. References in the Detailed Terms and Conditions to a policy, practice, guideline and / or process generally are references to the relevant policy, practice, guideline and / or process in force at the relevant time.

These detailed terms and conditions also refer to the Barclays Values which must be adhered to at all times. The Barclays Values (Respect, Integrity, Service, Excellence and Stewardship) are set out on your own business unit intranet site.

You should also refer to Appendix 1 which sets out definitions of the terms used in the Detailed Terms and Conditions.

1265

Your Detailed Terms and Conditions of Employment

1. Introduction to this Section

This section sets out your detailed terms and conditions of employment and should be read alongside your enclosed Summary of Key Terms and any applicable Schedules. These documents form your employment terms with the Company and are referred to in this document as "Employment Letter". By signing the Employment Letter you confirm that you have read, understood and accept the terms set out in the Detailed Terms and Conditions.

2. Pre-employment and ongoing conditions

- 2.1 Your confirmation in the employment will be subject to successful completion of the Probationary Period as mentioned in the summary of terms or such additional period as the Company considers necessary in its absolute discretion. Your employment shall be deemed to be confirmed automatically unless communicated otherwise in writing.
- 2.2 You understand that the Company's offer of employment is made to you subject to and conditional on the completion of certain pre-employment procedures and processes. You certify that the information that you have provided in connection with completion of the procedures and otherwise in connection with this offer of employment (including at interview stage) is true and accurate both at the time it is given and on the Start Date. The Company reserves the right to carry out screening checks on all employees, and such procedures may include but are not limited to:
 - (a) receipt of references and documentary proof that are satisfactory to the Company that you are legally entitled to reside and work in your country;
 - (b) completion of credit checks to the satisfaction of the Company;
 - (c) where criminal record checks are applicable to your role, completion of those checks to the satisfaction of the Company;
 - (d) if requested by the Company, a medical examination by the Company's medical advisers;
 - (e) where Regulator approval for your appointment is required and such approval is sought before your employment commences, such approval either (i) being obtained or (ii) not being withdrawn by the Company or a Barclays Group company following consultation with the Regulator; (iii) receipt of documentary proof that you hold the appropriate and relevant qualifications; and
 - (f) the Company receiving a signed copy of the Terms from you.
- 2.3 Whilst every effort will be made to complete all the checks and processes in the pre-employment procedures before your Start Date, this may not always be possible. In case you are employed prior to completion of the pre-employment procedure, the Company may terminate your employment at any time on minimum statutory notice if the check reports are not up to our satisfaction or the procedures are not completed within a reasonable period of time.
- 2.4 This offer of employment and your continued employment is also subject to your obtaining, holding and continuing to hold all applicable qualifications, licences and registrations as required by your role. Where Regulator approval for your role is required and such approval is sought after your employment commences, then your continued employment is conditional on such approval either: (i) being obtained; or (ii) not being withdrawn by the Company or a Barclays Group company following consultation with the Regulator (or other relevant regulatory body).
- 2.5 You shall be liable and responsible to inform and update your latest contact and address details, in the records of the Company, from time to time. Failure to comply may constitute gross negligence on your part.
- 2.6 You should not engage in any matter which would or could be anticipated to result in a conflict of interest between you and the Company.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "John" or "Johann", is written over a solid black horizontal line.

2.7 This offer of employment and your continued employment is also subject to your successful completion of certain trainings (such as Communication & Culture and/or other process and policy trainings accreditations) that may be assigned to you by the Company from time to time. In case you remain absent for more than 2 days during these training programs or you become unable to qualify the trainings to the satisfaction of the Company, the Company shall have the sole discretion to take appropriate action including termination of your employment forthwith in accordance with provisions of Clause 18.1 (e) viii of the detailed terms and conditions of this Employment Letter. In case of your absence due to any personal emergency, your Line Manager shall on his/her sole discretion and upon evaluation of the reason of your absence, may recommend the Company to realign you for the next available training within a period of 30 days of your returning from absence. In case you are realigned for the next training as mentioned above, there may be possible change in process and/or compensation on account of such realignment. If for any reason you do not agree to the realignment terms or no such realignment is possible within a period of 30 days of your returning from absence, the Company shall have the sole discretion to terminate your employment forthwith in accordance with provisions of Clause 18.1 (e) viii.

3. Place of Work and Mobility

Your place of work is as set out in your Summary of Key Terms. However you may need to travel to other locations and offices as reasonably required in the performance of your duties. You confirm that you will travel to such places (both inside and outside India) as the Company may reasonably require from time to time. Should the Company need to permanently change your place of work, you will be given reasonable notice of any such change (acceptable in e-mail/ letter format).

4. Duties

4.1 During your employment with the Company you confirm that you will:

- (a) act in a manner consistent with and which supports our values, purpose and behaviours and in particular the Barclays Values;
- (b) devote the whole of your working time and attention to the business of the Company and the Barclays Group;
- (c) diligently and faithfully perform such duties and exercise such powers and functions as may reasonably be assigned to you by the Company in relation to its business and that of the Barclays Group to the best of your ability and with integrity, due skill, care and diligence;
- (d) use your best efforts to promote and protect the interests of the Company and the Barclays Group and not do anything to harm those interests;
- (e) comply with all reasonable requests, instructions and regulations given by the Company and the Barclays Group and promptly provide such explanations, information and assistance as to your activities in the business of the Company and the Barclays Group as they may reasonably need;
- (f) neither engage in any activities which would detract from the proper performance of your duties under the terms of this Employment Letter, nor (without the prior written consent of the Company) in any capacity including as director, shareholder, principal, consultant, agent, partner or employee engage or be concerned or interested directly or indirectly in any other trade, business or occupation whatsoever provided always that such activities are in compliance with Barclays policies on outside or external business interests. This paragraph will not prevent you holding for investment purposes only, shares or securities which do not exceed three per cent (3%) in nominal value of the share capital or stock of any class of any company quoted on a recognised stock exchange;
- (g) not engage or be interested in any activities which place you in a position where your interests conflict improperly with those of the Barclays Group, its clients, customers or shareholders. Barclays recognises that, on occasion, a conflict of interest may arise which is unavoidable. In such circumstances you must make your line manager and local compliance control room or compliance contact aware of the issue immediately. You must not act in relation to the matter, without their written direction or approval; and
- (h) report any actual or proposed unlawful activity or behaviour affecting the Barclays Group by you or any other employee, officer, contractor of the Barclays Group or any other person to your manager (or, if they are potentially involved in such unlawful activity or behaviour, to your HR Business Partner or a member of your Compliance team) immediately on becoming aware of it.

5. Salary and allowances:

Your salary will be paid on a monthly basis on or around the last working day of each month and is subject to applicable taxes, duties, cesses and other applicable withholdings. All tax liabilities arising out of your entire remuneration package, present or future, shall be borne by you. Your salary and any allowances will accrue on a daily basis and will be paid pro rata if you are employed for part of a month.

Your salary will be reviewed annually without commitment to increase. The Company may deduct from any payments to you any money owed by you to any Barclays Group company in accordance with the applicable laws.

Your acceptance to these terms shall confirm your consent to the Company making payment of your salary, compensation, award, incentive bonus etc. by way of credit to bank account with the bank of Company's choice or via such other mode as the Company may deem appropriate.

6. Discretionary incentive award:

- 6.1 You may be eligible to be considered for a discretionary incentive award on an annual basis. The value, form, conditions of delivery and timing of any such awards are at the Company's discretion. This discretion includes the right to make the award or a proportion of the award in a form other than cash, including an award of Shares and to defer an element of an award under the terms of a Barclays Group incentive plan.
- 6.2 Any discretionary incentive award will only be made if, at that time, you are in employment and are not under notice (whether given or received) nor under suspension or investigation for a regulatory or disciplinary matter.
- 6.3 If you are subject to any investigation or disciplinary process at the time when communication, payment or making of any payment and/or award would otherwise occur, then the delivery of that payment and/or award will be suspended. If on conclusion of any investigation and/or disciplinary process, you are dismissed for gross misconduct or cause and / or have committed any serious breach of the Risk and / or Compliance requirements of the Barclays Group, then no payment and / or award will be made to you. If no disciplinary action (or disciplinary action short of dismissal) is taken against you, then a payment and / or award may be made to you after the conclusion of that process. However, the amount of any award and / or payment to which you are entitled may be reduced by the Company in its sole discretion. For the avoidance of doubt, any award and / or payment may be reduced to nil in such circumstances.
- 6.4 Notwithstanding paragraph 6.3, any unpaid or unvested award (or portion of an unpaid or unvested award) may be reduced (to nil if appropriate) at the Company's discretion and to the extent permitted by applicable laws. For the avoidance of doubt, the Company may exercise its discretion including as a result of:
 - (a) Barclays PLC or any subsidiary's financial statements having been materially restated for the period for which the award was made other than restatement due to a change in accounting policy or to rectify a minor error; or
 - (b) Your actions having, in the reasonable opinion of the Remuneration Committee, following consultation with the Company:
 - i. deliberately misled the management of the Company, the market and/or Barclays PLC shareholders regarding the financial performance of Barclays PLC or of any subsidiary;
 - ii. caused harm to the reputation of the Barclays Group;
 - iii. amounted to misconduct, negligence, incompetence or poor performance ("misconduct", "negligence", "incompetence", and "poor performance" as determined by the Remuneration Committee acting in good faith, following consultation with the Company); or
 - (c) The Barclays Group or any of its subsidiaries, in the reasonable opinion of the Remuneration Committee, following consultation with the Risk Committee, has suffered a material failure of risk management.

- 6.5 Should the Company become aware that the amount of any award that has been paid or released to you was calculated on the basis of any false, incorrect or misstated information, then, the Company may, within one year of any such payment or release being made, request that you will repay as a debt to the Company the amount (or any part of the amount) as may be determined in the Company's sole discretion and to the extent permitted by applicable laws. You confirm that in the event a repayment obligation arises the Company is authorised to deduct the appropriate amount from your salary or any other amounts due to you (including in instalments) as it determines in its discretion and to the extent permitted by applicable laws.

- 6.6 A payment of cash and / or a release of Shares or other instruments under an award will be subject to tax and other applicable withholdings, taxes, duties, cesses, deductions and will be subject to the rules of any applicable incentive plan.
- 6.7 Whether you are eligible to receive a discretionary incentive award, and if so, the amount shall be determined at the absolute discretion of the Company. You have no contractual right, whether express or implied, to receive an award at all, or an award of any particular amount, and the making of an award in any year does not give rise to any obligation on the Company to make an award in any future year. For the avoidance of doubt, your employment may be terminated by the Company at any time, for any reason, in accordance with clauses 18 or 19 of this Employment Letter and the exercise of that right to terminate is not limited or fettered by any term (express or implied).
- 6.8 Within Barclays, certain (usually senior) roles are designated as 'Material Risk Taker' ('MRT') roles. Where you are a MRT for any particular year you will be notified of this during or following the end of the relevant year. At any time during the seven year period from the date on which any variable remuneration is awarded to you in respect of a period for which you are a MRT (the "Relevant Variable Remuneration"), if Barclays determines that:

- (a) your actions or omissions have, in the reasonable opinion of Barclays amounted to misbehaviour or material error; and / or
- (b) Barclays or the relevant business unit has suffered a material failure of risk management, then, without prejudice to Barclays other remedies, Barclays may require that you repay an amount, not exceeding the value of the Relevant Variable Remuneration. The repayment shall be of such value as may be determined in Barclays discretion acting in good faith, to such Barclays Group Company and on such terms as Barclays may direct.

In respect of paragraph 6.8 (b) above, Barclays shall take into account your proximity to the applicable failure and your level of responsibility before any request for repayment is made. In respect of paragraphs (a) and (b) above, before any request for repayment is made, Barclays shall take into consideration whether you (i) have participated in, or were responsible for, conduct which resulted in significant losses to the Barclays Group or (ii) failed to meet appropriate standards of fitness and propriety.

For the avoidance of doubt, the whole or any part of the Relevant Variable Remuneration can be clawed back if Barclays makes its determination within seven years from the date that the Relevant Variable Remuneration was awarded to you even if an event falling within (a) or (b) above occurred prior to the date of award.

The determination of what constitutes "misbehaviour", "material error", "material failure of risk management", "significant losses" and "appropriate standards of fitness and propriety" shall be determined by Barclays acting in good faith.

You confirm that in the event Barclays makes a repayment determination, you shall repay the amount subject to that determination within the time period specified in the determination. You further confirm and provide authorisation for Barclays to deduct the appropriate repayment amount from your salary or any other amounts due to you, to the full extent permitted under local law, whether from Barclays or any other Barclays Group company.

You acknowledge that (in addition to its rights at clause 16 (Amendments to terms and conditions of employment) the terms of this clause 6.8 may be amended by Barclays to the extent deemed reasonably necessary in order to comply with law, regulations or guidance published by any regulatory authority or other relevant authority from time to time.

This clause shall apply in addition to the general right of repayment set out in clause 6.9 of the Employment Letter.

7. Statutory and Other Benefits

- 7.1 You will be eligible for various statutory benefits as mentioned in the Summary of Key terms and in accordance with the relevant laws.
- 7.2 The Company operates or may operate a benefits programme for its employees and your benefits are/will set out in full in the attached benefits brochure (except the statutory benefits mentioned above, these benefits do not form part of your contract of employment or have any contractual or other legal effect).
- 7.3 The Company has the right at its absolute discretion to amend or withdraw the benefits at any time and without any compensation or notice to you and / or replace any benefit with an alternative at its discretion.
- 7.4 Participation in any benefits scheme is subject to the rules of the relevant schemes, which may vary from time to time, and is subject to you satisfying any applicable requirements of the insurers or third party providers (where relevant). Your participation may be excluded where, in Barclays opinion, cover can only be obtained on the basis that exceptional conditions or unusually high premiums are imposed or levied by the insurer or provider.

8. Annual Leave

- 8.1 Your annual leave entitlement is set out in the Summary of Key Terms. The Company's annual leave year currently runs from 1 January to the 31 December. The dates of the annual leave year may be changed. You are obliged to take all your annual leave entitlement in the relevant year, unless a policy/handbook applicable to you states otherwise, in which case leave may only be carried over subject to and in accordance with those terms and applicable law. Your annual leave dates must be agreed in advance with your line manager. You will be allowed to carry your unutilised privileged leaves over to the next annual leave year, subject to the limit and restrictions as may be defined in the company policy and subject to the applicable laws. There is no provision of encashment of unutilised leave (including in case of termination of employment), except where such encashment is mandated by law applicable at the place of your employment at the relevant time.
- 8.2 If your employment begins during an annual leave year, your annual leave entitlement (plus any Bank or Public Holidays which fall during this period), will be calculated pro rata. During the probationary period you may only take such annual leave as has accrued in your favour up until the time of taking such leave. Any unutilised leave at the time of cessation of employment shall lapse and any payment to be made in lieu of the unutilised leave shall be at the sole discretion of Barclays unless mandated by the applicable law. If you have taken more leave than your accrued entitlement, you shall be required to repay to the Company an amount equivalent to any holiday taken in excess of your pro rata holiday entitlement, and the Company is authorised to deduct the appropriate amount from your final salary instalment or any other sum owed by the Company to you at the Termination Date.
- 8.3 In accordance with regulatory guidelines and the Company's policies, the Company may require you to go on a mandatory block leave.

9. Intellectual Property

- 9.1 For the purposes of this paragraph:

"Intellectual Property Rights" means (i) copyright and related rights, patents, know-how, confidential information, database rights, inventions and rights in trademarks and designs (whether registered or unregistered), (ii) applications for registration, and the right to apply for registration, for any of the same, and (iii) all other intellectual property rights and equivalent or similar forms of protection existing anywhere in the world.

"Invention" means any invention, idea, discovery, development, improvement or innovation made, whether or not patentable or capable of registration, and whether or not recorded in any medium; and

"Works" means all documents, materials, software, photographic or graphic works of any type, and other materials in any medium or format which are created or developed, or are in the process of being created or developed, or used (whether in final form or otherwise) by you or on your behalf or by the Company in the course of your employment with the Company or for the benefit of the Company and which are protected by, contain or relate to any Intellectual Property Rights.

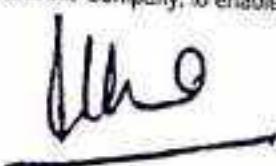

- 9.2 You will promptly disclose and deliver up to the Company all and any Works conceived, or made by you during and in the course of your employment (whether conceived, or made during normal working hours, in your normal place of work, or in conjunction with others, or otherwise). You confirm that you will provide the Company with all originals and copies of all correspondence, documents and other materials in whatever medium or form relating to or concerning the Works and the Intellectual Property Rights they contain.

- 9.3 You confirm that you will only use the Works to perform your obligations under Employment Letter and that you will not make personal copies of any Works other than for the purposes of your employment with the Company.

- 9.4 It is understood that all Intellectual Property Rights created by you in the course of your employment shall be "work for hire". You acknowledge that you have, and will have at all times while you are employed by the Company, a special obligation to further the interests of the undertakings of the Company, and that all Works and Intellectual Property Rights in the Works will automatically, on creation, belong to and vest in the Company absolutely to the fullest extent provided by law.

- 9.5 To the extent that the Works and Intellectual Property Rights do not vest in the Company or the Barclays Group automatically, you will hold such Works and Intellectual Property Rights on trust for the benefit of the Company until the Works and Intellectual Property Rights vest absolutely in the Company.

- 9.6 You confirm that you will immediately, upon request and at the Company's expense, provide all such documents and assistance as may be necessary to vest the Works and Intellectual Property Rights in the Works in the Company, to enable the Company to enjoy the full benefit of the Intellectual Property Rights, and to enable the Company to enforce its Intellectual Property Rights against third parties or defend claims brought against the Company in relation to any Intellectual Property Rights.

- 9.7 By signing Employment Letter you accept and confirm to assign to the Company or a member of the Barclays Group (as specified by the Company) all current and future Intellectual Property Rights in the Works and any other proprietary rights capable of assignment by way of present assignment of future rights for the full term of such rights. You confirm that such assignment shall be perpetual, worldwide and royalty free. You also confirm that notwithstanding the provisions of Section 19(4) of the Copyright Act, 1957, such assignment in so far as it relates to copyrightable material shall not lapse nor the rights transferred therein revert to the Employee, even if the Company does not exercise the rights under the assignment within a period of one year from the date of assignment. You acknowledge and confirm that you shall waive any right to and shall not raise any objection or claims to the Copyright Board with respect to the assignment, pursuant to Section 19A of the Copyright Act, 1957.
- 9.8 You unconditionally and irrevocably waive your moral rights in relation to existing and future Works, including your right to be identified as the author of the Works and not to have the Works subject to derogatory treatment. You acknowledge that, except as may be expressly provided by law, no further remuneration or compensation other than that provided for under Employment Letter is or may become due to you.
- 9.9 When this Employment Letter expires or terminates, for whatever reason, you will immediately deliver up to the Company all Works in your possession or under your control, and under no circumstances may any Works be retained by you except with the prior written consent of the Company.
- 9.10 Without prejudice to any specific legal rights which you may otherwise have, you acknowledge that no further remuneration or compensation other than that expressly provided for in this Employment Letter will become due to you in respect of your compliance with this Section 9.

10. Confidentiality

- 10.1 During your employment with the Company or at any time afterwards, you must not disclose to any person or make use of any Confidential Information or trade secrets that you have obtained in the course of your employment. This includes information that you have acquired in the course of your employment concerning the business or affairs of the Company and/or any other Barclays Group company or our customers or clients. You are required to use your best efforts to prevent the unauthorised publication or disclosure of any such Confidential information. Exceptions to this are the use of information for the proper performance of your duties under this Employment Letter, where the Company has given written consent or disclosure is required by law, where the information is already in or comes into the public domain (other than by your unauthorised disclosure).
- 10.2 During your employment or at any time afterwards, you must not make any copy or record (whether recorded in writing, on computer disc, electronically or otherwise) of any Confidential Information, unless this is required for the proper performance of your duties under this Employment Letter. Any such information belongs to the Barclays Group and must be returned by you either at any time during the course of your employment on the request of the Company and immediately on termination of your employment.
- 10.3 For the purposes of this Employment Letter, "Confidential Information" means information concerning the business, affairs, finance, clients or trade connections of the Company, any member of the Barclays Group, or any of its customers, clients, suppliers or agents. This includes but is not limited to:
- (a) commercially sensitive information or trade secrets;
 - (b) corporate and marketing strategy, business development plans, sales reports and research results;
 - (c) business methods and processes, technical information and know-how relating to the Barclays Group's business and which is not available to the public generally, including inventions, designs, programmes, techniques, database systems, formulae and ideas;
 - (d) business contacts, lists or details of clients and suppliers and details of contacts with them, their business or affairs, including client names and client contact details, financial and personal affairs, and trading history and methodology;
 - (e) information on employees and the terms and conditions of their employment, details of employee benefits, incentive schemes/plans, salary scales and/or current or anticipated trade union/employee disputes;

(f) information or details of any actual, potential or threatened litigation, legal action, claim, dispute or arbitration against or with any member of the Barclays Group or any current or former director, officer or employee of the Barclays Group in such capacity and any information in respect of provisions for any such action;

(g) budgets, management accounts, trading statements and other financial reports;

(h) unpublished price sensitive information relating to shares or securities listed or dealt in on any recognised stock exchange; and

(i) any other information which any member of the Barclays Group or any of its employees or consultants has identified (orally, in writing, or by its or their actions) as being secret or confidential in nature or which would reasonably be considered as confidential.

10.4 You shall not solicit business for the Company from any clients belonging to your previous employer/s in breach of your terms of employment with your previous employer. You shall not use any confidential information that came to your knowledge in the course of your previous employment while working with the Company. You undertake to indemnify the Company against any action that the Company may face on account of your actions in breach of your obligations to your previous employer/s.

11. Regulatory compliance and dealing codes

11.1 The nature of the Barclays Group's business is such that it is authorised and regulated by the appropriate Regulator.

11.2 It is your responsibility to know, understand and comply with all legal, regulatory and governance obligations, including the provisions of the Regulatory and Compliance policies that are relevant to you. If you are in any doubt as to your responsibilities in this regard or the rules which apply to you, you must contact the Compliance team within your business area.

11.3 If you are a Regulator approved person (or any equivalent status with any other regulator) you must comply with the Regulator's Statement of Principles and Code of Practice for Approved Persons (or meet the applicable standards). Failure to meet these Principles / Standards and / or to comply with this Code of Practice (or other applicable standards) may result in investigation by the regulator, applicable regulator and/or the Company, and / or disciplinary action being taken against you by the Company which may result in the termination of your employment.

11.4 You confirm that you will be bound by and will comply with the Barclays Group Share Dealing Code and with any more stringent dealing rules applicable to you or the area of the business in which you work. In particular, you agree not to make any investment, directly or indirectly, in any company or business which is a customer or client of the Barclays Group and which may in the reasonable opinion of the Company be expected to cause your personal or family interests to conflict with your duty to the Company in any respect.

11.5 Any incentives or compensation payable to you by any member of the Company or Group Company (under this Employment Letter or otherwise, including any guaranteed amounts and including, where applicable, the payment and settlement schedule and split of cash and Shares as set out in this Employment Letter) are subject to limitation or modification to the extent reasonably deemed necessary by the Company including in order to remain consistent with Barclays remuneration policy (as amended from time to time) or to comply with laws and regulations, including any regulations or guidance published by the Regulator from time to time.

12. Expenses

There may be occasions when you incur business expenses for instance, travelling to a training course or visiting another business location for a meeting. Any expenses must be pre-approved and claimed promptly and will be reimbursed to you in line with our procedures, a copy of which can be found on your intranet.

The Company at its sole discretion may bear certain expenses on your training, learning and developmental needs, subject to your acceptance of the terms and obligations as would be mentioned in the agreement ("Training Agreement") that may be executed with you.

As a consideration to the training expenses to be incurred by the Company, you may be asked to work with the Company for a certain period of time, post completion of the said trainings/ programs/courses, as the case may be and/or to compensate the Company by paying an agreed sum as liquidated damages. Your specific obligations will form part of the Training Agreement to be executed with you. For the execution of the Training Agreement, you may be asked to get a surety to undertake your obligations under the terms of the Training Agreement.

Unless otherwise agreed in the Training Agreement, any breach of the terms of the said Training Agreement, will be considered as the breach of the terms of this Letter.

13. Attendance at work

- 13.1 Your Summary of Key Terms will provide you with details of the particular working pattern that applies to you, and any specific arrangements that may apply regarding changes to this pattern. If you work full time, or for 8 hours or more on a given day, your normal working hours would additionally include up to a daily one hour break.
- 13.2 From time to time, the Company may need to vary your hours, days and times of work if this is necessary to accommodate the needs of the business or the absence of your colleagues. Should the Company need to vary your working hours, you will be given reasonable notice of any such changes.

14. Sickness Leave

- 14.1 If you are unable to work through ill health or injury you will be entitled to sick leave in accordance with the policy on Leave and Holidays, which can be found in the Company's Intranet. The Company reserves the right to only approve sick leave of more than two consecutive workdays if certified by a medical practitioner of the Company's choice, and you hereby confirm that you co-operate with such an examination and to authorise the full disclosure of any resulting report to Barclays.
- 14.2 The payment of salary and any allowances during periods of sickness will be subject to as prescribed under the applicable laws and you following the requirements regarding notification and certification of absence as set out in this Employment Letter, on your Intranet and the Company being satisfied that you are unable to work due to illness or injury.

15. Other absences from work

Approval should be obtained in advance from your line manager for absence during working hours. If unexpected circumstances mean that this is not possible, you should inform your line manager as soon as possible. Absence without approval and / or explanation will be dealt with under the disciplinary procedure which could result in disciplinary action being taken against you by the Company and which may result in the termination of your employment.

16. Amendments to terms and conditions of employment

- 16.1 The Company reserves the right to review, revise, amend, replace or withdraw the contents of these Terms and introduce new policies, practices, guidelines and procedures from time to time to reflect the changing needs of the business or any changes in legislation or regulation from time to time.
- 16.2 For the avoidance of doubt, where the Company retains a discretion under these Terms (including but not limited to the discretion to make incentive award(s) to you, any matters considered in the decision whether to make such an award and the value, form, conditions and timing of delivery of any such award(s)) such discretion cannot be limited or fettered in any way other than by consent between you and the Company which is documented formally in writing on the Company's headed paper by an authorised member of the Human Resources Department.

17. Allocation of duties and transfer within the Barclays Group

You confirm that the Company will be entitled at any time and with [prior notice (where required by applicable law) to: (i) assign you to carry out such projects and/or duties commensurate with your abilities as it will in its absolute discretion determine; and/or (ii) assign you on a temporary or permanent basis to undertake additional duties and/or different duties commensurate with your abilities within any part or parts of the Barclays Group as it will in its absolute discretion determine; and/or (iii) second you on a temporary or permanent basis to work for any company in the Barclays Group or to a third party and/or (iv) transfer your employment and its rights and obligations to another company in the Barclays Group.

18. Leaving Barclays

- 18.1 Subject to paragraph 2 of these Detailed Terms and Conditions the Company and you may each terminate this Employment Letter in accordance with the "Notice" paragraph set out in your Summary of Key Terms. In addition:

- (a) either you or the Company may terminate your employment by giving one month's written notice (or, if greater, the minimum notice according to local applicable law) during any probationary period that may apply to you as set out in your Summary of Key Terms;
- (b) your employment shall be conditional on your ability to start work on the agreed Start Date. If you are unable to do so, you will have no entitlement to receive any payment or other benefit whatsoever from the Company or the Barclays Group;

(c) your employment may also be terminated by the Company without notice or pay in lieu of notice if you commit an act of gross misconduct (as may be defined under applicable Company policy from time to time which may include failure to comply with any policies and/or procedures including those referred to in the Detailed Terms and Conditions, lack of competence, serious breach of the Terms including improper or unethical behaviour;

(d) Your contractual and normal retirement age is 60 years. On the day you attain that age, your employment shall end automatically without any need for either party to serve written notice; and

(e) the Company may (without notice, pay in lieu of notice or incurring any obligation to pay compensation) immediately terminate your employment if you:

- i. are convicted of any criminal offence (other than a minor offence which, in the opinion of the Company, does not affect your position as an employee of the Company); or
- ii. are guilty of any act of dishonesty or gross or serious misconduct or any conduct which brings or is intended to bring any member of the Barclays Group or yourself into disrepute or may damage the business or affairs of the Barclays Group; or
- iii. have been found by the Company to have materially or repeatedly breached or have not complied with the terms of this Employment Letter (or otherwise fail or refuse to carry out the duties assigned to you); or
- iv. have breached or otherwise failed the Barclays Group sanctions screening policy or process; or
- v. cease to hold or fail to obtain any regulatory approvals or consents which are required for the effective discharge by you of any duties assigned to you under this Employment Letter; or
- vi. materially breach the rules of the Regulator; or
- vii. breach any Barclays Group rules on anti-bribery or anti-corruption;
- viii. don't obtain or maintain the accreditation(s) or qualifications that you are required to have (in the Company's opinion, or according to relevant regulators or professional bodies) to be able to work in your job profile
- ix. be repeatedly absent without leave or absent without leave for a period exceeding 14 days.

This sub paragraph is not exhaustive and does not restrict any other right which the Company may have (whether at common law or otherwise) to terminate your employment summarily.

18.2 You shall be liable to pay the Damages to the Company, in case you fail to serve the requisite notice as mentioned in the Summary of Key Terms. These Damages shall be in addition to the payment of salary in lieu of notice period. In respect of the Damages, the Company reserves the right to set-off against/ write off as amount payable/ withhold from the salary and/or any allowances. Further, you shall not be relieved from your contractual notice period, unless expressly relieved in writing.

18.3 The termination of your employment will not affect any terms of this Employment Letter which are intended to operate after the termination date, including the paragraphs relating to Intellectual Property, Confidentiality and Post Termination Restrictions.

18.4 On termination of your employment, irrespective of the reason, or at any other time when asked by the Company, you will:

- (a) immediately return to the Company all vehicles, equipment and documents, whether electronic or otherwise, and any other property (of any kind) (security pass, business cards, etc) relating to the business of or belonging to the Barclays Group, together with all copies of any such documents that you have in your possession or under your control;
- (b) irretrievably delete any information relating to the business of the Company or the Barclays Group stored on any computer or storage device and all information derived from the same in your possession or control and held outside of any Barclays Group premises;
- (c) resign with immediate effect from any offices or appointments you hold within or connected to the Barclays Group; and
- (d) confirm in writing that you have complied fully with the terms of this paragraph and provide evidence of compliance as the Company may request.

19. Payment in lieu of notice

19.1 The Company reserves the right in its sole and absolute discretion to terminate your employment and your terms with immediate effect (whether or not notice has been given by either party) by giving notice in writing to you of its intention to make a payment in lieu of notice and, if it does so, the Company shall make you a payment in lieu of notice, equal to the salary which you would have been entitled to receive if you had worked during your Notice Period or, if your Notice Period has started, the unexpired portion (the "Payment in Lieu"). Where the Company elects to make a Payment in Lieu of some or all of your Notice Period, your employment shall terminate on the date specified by the Company, regardless of when the Payment in Lieu is paid.

19.2 Any Payment in Lieu will be paid less tax and any applicable withholdings. You will not be entitled to receive any payment in respect of holiday entitlement that would have accrued during the period for which the Payment in Lieu is made.

19.3 Any Payment in Lieu may be paid by the Company in accordance with the Company policies and subject to the applicable laws. Any Payment in Lieu may at the Company's discretion be paid as a lump sum within one month of the Termination Date or in equal monthly instalments from the date on which notice is served until what would have been the end of the Notice Period provided always that if after exercising its discretion to make a Payment in Lieu the Company becomes aware of any grounds that would permit it to summarily terminate your employment any payments due under this clause 19.3 will cease to be payable and the net value of any Payment in Lieu that has been received by you shall be repaid as a debt to the Company within 30 days of the Company notifying you of this repayment obligation.

20. Garden leave and suspension

20.1 The Company may suspend you at any time from the performance of all or any of your duties:

- (a) for the whole or any part of any applicable Notice Period; or
- (b) for such periods and on such terms as is necessary to allow any investigation to take place (including, but not limited to an investigation by a regulatory authority or an investigation under the Company's disciplinary procedure).

20.2 During any period of suspension, the Company will be under no obligation to provide work for or assign any duties to you and may require you not to attend any premises of any member of the Barclays Group (other than as a customer) and may require you to:

- (a) not speak to, contact or otherwise communicate with or engage with any director, consultant, agent, contractor or employee of any member of the Barclays Group other than to carry out your personal banking, or any person, firm or company who, at the date of such suspension or exclusion is a client or customer of any member of the Barclays Group unless they are members of your immediate family;
- (b) at any time to carry out such special projects or duties commensurate with your abilities as the Company shall in its absolute discretion determine;
- (c) meet with representatives from the Company in order to facilitate a handover of work and provide assistance with ongoing business activity; and
- (d) take any holiday which you have accrued.

20.3 During any period of suspension:

- (a) your employment with the Company and this Employment Letter will continue and you will continue to be bound by your obligations under it (except as expressly set out in this paragraph) including, but not limited to, your obligations of confidentiality, good faith and fidelity to the Company; and
- (b) you shall continue to receive your basic salary and all contractual benefits in the usual way.

21. Post-termination restrictions

21.1 You confirm to the Company (for itself and as trustee and agent for each member of the Barclays Group) that you will not, whether directly or indirectly, on your own behalf or on behalf of or in conjunction with any other person, firm, company or other entity:

(a) for a period of 6 months (if you are an MD, Director, or VP or equivalent grade) or 3 months (if you are an AVP or below or equivalent grade) from the Termination Date approach, solicit or deal with any person, firm, company or other entity who is or was a customer, client or supplier of the Company or the Barclays Group and with whom you had material dealings in the course of your employment with the Company or in respect of whom you were aware of material and confidential information, in both cases within the 12 month period immediately prior to the Termination Date. Nothing in this paragraph will prohibit you from seeking or doing business which is not in direct or indirect competition with the business of the Barclays Group; and

(b) for a period of 6 months (if you are an MD, Director, or VP or equivalent grade) or 3 months (if you are an AVP or below or equivalent grade) from the Termination Date solicit or entice away or attempt to solicit or entice away or employ or engage any director, officer or employee of executive status in the Barclays Group with whom you had material dealings within the 12 months period immediately prior to the Termination Date. For the purposes of this paragraph "employee of executive status" will include without limitation any employee of the Barclays Group with a corporate grading Managing Director, Director, Vice President (or equivalent grades, or anything which replaces these grades) and any employees of the Barclays Group with a lower corporate grading where in the 12 months prior to the Termination Date, you have had line manager responsibilities in relation to that employee or they have had line manager responsibilities or have been engaged in work or projects which in the Company's reasonable opinion are key to its business and / or mean that they are in possession of material and confidential information relating to the Barclays Group.

21.2 Each of the restrictions contained in this paragraph are considered by the parties to be reasonable in all the circumstances as at the date of this Employment Letter. However, the parties acknowledge that if any one or more of such restrictions will be judged to be void as going beyond what is reasonable in all the circumstances for the protection of the interests of the Barclays Group, but would be enforceable if words were deleted or one or more of the duration, range of activities and area covered were reduced in scope, the restrictions will be deemed to apply with such modifications as may be necessary to make them valid and effective. Any such modification will not affect the validity of any other restriction contained in this Employment Letter and it is confirmed that each restriction in this paragraph will be construed as separate and individual restrictions.

21.3 You confirm that if, during either your employment with the Company or the period of the restrictions set out in this paragraph you receive an offer of employment or engagement, you will provide a copy of these restrictions to the offeror as soon as reasonably practicable after receiving the offer.

22. Further terms:

22.1 No omission to exercise or delay in exercising any right, power or remedy of the Company under this Employment Letter will constitute a waiver of that right, power or remedy.

22.2 During your employment:

(a) the Company may at its discretion require that you undergo screening, including for criminal record, sanctions list and/or credit reference checks from time to time. It is anticipated that any such screening would only be undertaken if required for regulatory purposes or in order to comply with the minimum standards for the role you are undertaking; and

(b) you should advise the Company should any of the circumstances as set out in paragraph 19.1(e) of this Employment Letter arise or be brought against you.

22.3 You acknowledge that in entering into these Terms you have not relied on any representation or undertaking by the Company whether oral or in writing, except as expressly incorporated into this Employment Letter.

22.4 You consent to the Company monitoring your use of all Company resources and its communication and electronic equipment (including without limitation the telephone, internet, blackberry, software applications and email systems) and information stored on the Company's computer equipment, as described in your local acceptable use policy in accordance with the Barclays Group procedure and / or guidance on electronic communications. A copy of the policy that applies to you can be found on your intranet.

22.5 You understand that you may, during your employment, be granted awards under the terms of one or more of the Company's long term incentive plans or any incentive or bonus plan operated by the Barclays Group. If, on termination of your employment, you lose any of the rights or benefits under any such plans you will not be entitled, by way of compensation for loss of office or otherwise, to any compensation for the loss of any rights under any such plans.

22.6 If your employment is terminated at any time by reason of any reconstruction or amalgamation of the Company or any Barclays Group company, whether by winding up or otherwise, and you are offered employment with any concern or undertaking involved in or resulting from the reconstruction or amalgamation on terms which (considered in their entirety) are no less favourable to any material extent than the terms of this Employment Letter, you shall have no claim against the Company or any such undertaking arising out of or connected with the termination.

23. Certifications

23.1 You confirm and certify that:

- (a) you are not precluded or restricted by any term of any agreement, undertaking or court order or any obligation to any third party from entering into this Employment Letter or undertaking or properly performing any of the duties of your employment with the Company;
- (b) you will notify the Company of any change in circumstances around the termination of your employment with your previous employer between the date of this Employment Letter and the Start Date;
- (c) you are not currently, and have never been, the subject of an investigation by any company or body into suspected bribery or corruption activity where either: (i) the investigation was concluded and your conduct found to amount to misconduct; or (ii) where the investigation was on-going and did not reach a conclusion because your employment (or engagement) with that company or body was terminated during the investigation (whether by mutual consent or by voluntary termination or otherwise);
- (d) you are not currently, and have never been, the subject of an investigation into suspected criminal activity involving elements of dishonesty (including theft or fraud) or anti-competitive behaviour; and
- (e) you will not during your employment at the Company breach any third party's rights in respect of confidential information and/or intellectual property.

23.2 Any breach of these certifications will entitle Barclays to immediately terminate your employment.

24. Governing law

Your Terms are governed in accordance with the laws of the state of your normal place of work, or Mumbai if you work in Corporate Banking, Investment Banking or Wealth and Investment Management. The parties irrevocably submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the competent courts of the state of your normal place of work, or Mumbai if you work in Corporate Banking, Investment Banking or Wealth and Investment Management in relation to any legal action or proceedings that arise out of or in connection with this Employment Letter.

25. Key policies, procedures and practices

25.1 During your employment with the Company (and where applicable after your employment has terminated) you must comply with all of the Company's policies and procedures and any legal and/or statutory and/or regulatory obligations, including (but not limited to) Barclays Group policies and procedures on, and any other obligations relating to, anti-bribery and corruption. Failure to do so may result in disciplinary action being taken against you.

25.2 You should familiarise yourself with all policies and procedures that apply to your grade and business area as set out on your intranet. The Code of Conduct and the policies, guidelines and procedures on the following issues are particularly important (although this is not intended as a comprehensive list):

- Any applicable Employee Handbook
- Anti Bribery and Corruption
- Regulator's Business Principles
- Disclosure obligations
- Data protection, confidential information and Chinese walls
- Equality and Diversity

3 PROTECTION OF CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION.

- (a) Company Information. Employee agrees that at all times during or subsequent to his/her employment, he/she will hold in trust, keep confidential and not disclose to any third party or make any use of the Confidential Information except for the benefit of the Company. Employee further agrees not to cause the transmission, removal or transport of Confidential Information from the Company's places of business or such other place of business specified by the Company, without prior written approval of the Company.
- (b) Usage of Confidential Information: Any receipt of the Confidential Information shall be solely for the purpose for which the Employee is employed in the Company. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Employee further agrees:
 - i. to protect and safeguard the Confidential Information against unauthorized use, publication, copying or disclosure, whether by the Employee or others;
 - ii. not to, directly or indirectly, in any way, reveal, report, publish, copy, disclose, transfer, divulge to anyone including future employers, or otherwise use any of the Confidential Information except as specifically authorized by the Company in writing;
 - iii. not to use any Confidential Information to unfairly compete or obtain unfair advantage vis a vis the Company in any commercial activity which may be comparable to the commercial activity carried on by the Company from time to time;
 - iv. that upon learning of any wrongful use or treatment of Confidential Information, the Employee will promptly inform the Company and will cooperate in full with the Company to protect such Confidential Information.
- (c) Former Employer Information. Employee agrees that Employee will not, during the time that Employee is employed by the Company, improperly use or disclose any proprietary information or trade secrets of any former employer or other person or entity and that Employee will not bring onto the premises of the Company any unpublished document or proprietary information belonging to any such employer, Person unless consented to in writing by such employer, Person.
- (d) Third Party Information. Employee recognizes that the Company has received and, in the future, will receive from third parties their confidential or proprietary information subject to a duty on the Company's part to maintain the confidentiality of such information, and to use it only for certain limited purposes. Employee agrees to hold all such confidential or proprietary information in the strictest confidence and not to disclose it to any Person or to use it except as necessary in carrying out Employee's work for the Company consistent with the Company's agreement with such third party.

4 INVENTIONS.

- (a) Assignment of Inventions. Employee agrees that Employee will promptly make full written disclosure to the Company, will hold in trust for the sole right and benefit of the Company, and hereby perpetually assigns to the Company, or its designee, all Employees' right, title, and interest, including moral rights, and on a worldwide basis, in and to any and all inventions, original works of authorship, technological developments, developments, concepts, improvements or trade secrets, whether or not patentable or registerable under copyright or similar laws, which Employee may solely or jointly conceive or develop or reduce to practice, or cause to be conceived or developed or reduced to practice, during the period of time Employee is retained by the Company (collectively referred to as "Inventions"). Employee further acknowledges that the ownership of all original works of authorship which are made by Employee (solely or jointly with others) within the scope of and during the period of Employees' services for the Company and which are protectible by copyright are shall at all times remain with the Company in terms of Section 17 (c) of the Copyright Act, 1957 of India.
- (b) Maintenance of Records. Employee agrees to keep and maintain adequate and current written records of all inventions made by Employee (solely or jointly with others) during the period of time Employee is retained by the Company. The records will be in the form of notes, sketches, drawings, and any other format that may be specified by the Company. The records will be available to and remain the sole property of the Company at all times.
- (c) Patent and Copyright Registrations. Employee agrees to assist the Company, or its designee, at the Company's expense, in every proper way to secure the Company's rights in the Inventions and any copyrights, patents, mask work rights or other intellectual property rights relating thereto in any and all countries, including the disclosure to the Company of all pertinent information and data with respect thereto, the execution of all applications, specifications, oaths, assignments and all other instruments which the Company shall deem necessary in order to apply for and obtain such rights and in order to assign and convey to the Company, its successors, assigns and nominees the sole and exclusive rights, title and interest in and to such Inventions, and any copyrights, patents, mask work rights or other intellectual property rights relating thereto. Employee further agrees that Employee's obligation to execute or cause to be executed, when it is in the Employee's power to do so, any such instrument or papers shall continue after the termination of this Agreement. If the Company is unable because of Employee's mental or physical incapacity or for any other reason to secure Employee's signature to apply for or to pursue any application for any Indian or foreign patents or copyright registrations covering Inventions or original works of authorship assigned to the Company as above, then Employee hereby irrevocably designates and appoints the Company and its duly authorized officers and agents as Employee's agent and attorney in fact, to act for and in Employee's behalf and stead to execute and file any such applications and to do all other lawfully permitted acts to further the prosecution and issuance of letters patent or copyright registrations thereon with the same legal force and effect as if executed by Employee.

5 NO RIGHT TO CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION AND INVENTIONS.

The Employee agrees and acknowledges that nothing herein shall be construed as a grant by the Company of any license, directly or by implication, estoppel or otherwise, in any Confidential Information. The Company claims and reserves all rights and benefits afforded under Indian and International Copyright laws in all software programs included in the Confidential Information as copyrighted works. The binary or object code version of such software programs may under no circumstances be reverse-engineered or reverse-compiled by the Employee.

6 TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT

(a) Delivery of Documents and Data Upon Termination of Employment. In the event of termination (voluntary or otherwise) of Employee's employment with the Company, Employee agrees, promptly and without request, to deliver to and inform the Company of all documents and data pertaining to his/her employment and the Company's Confidential Information, whether prepared by Employee or otherwise coming into his/her possession. Employee will not retain any written or other tangible material containing any information concerning or disclosing any other Company's Confidential Information except that financial information that he/she is entitled to possess in the capacity of an Employee.

(b) Obligations of Employee Subsequent to Employment. In the event of termination of Employee's employment with the Company, Employee agrees that he/she will protect the value of the Confidential Information and prevent the misappropriation or disclosure thereof. Employee will not disclose or use to his/her benefit (or the benefit of any third party) or to the detriment of the Company any Confidential Information.

Dear Sarika Shete,

Your Employment by J.P. Morgan

Congratulations on joining the J.P. Morgan family. We are pleased to confirm your employment with J.P. Morgan Services India Private Limited (the 'Company').

You will find your personal employment terms outlined in Appendix A with general employment terms and conditions in Appendix B. Please note these terms and conditions supersede any verbal discussions you may have previously had with any J.P. Morgan employee with regards to your employment arrangements.

A number of important policies will apply to your employment with the Company, including the Personal Account Dealing Policy and the Code of Conduct. We provide more information about these policies in Appendix C and it is essential that you carefully read and understand their requirements. By signing this letter, you confirm that you have read, understood and agree to be bound by these policies. In addition, you will be required to abide by all other Company policies and regulations (including JPMorgan Chase group of companies ("Group") policies) and with applicable law.

Should you have queries in relation to your employment terms, your benefits or Company policies, please contact our HR Answers hotline at 000 800 440 5210 (local toll free) or +1 212-552-5100 (international).

Please be reminded your employment terms should be treated with the strictest confidence. To accept this offer of employment, please click on the 'Accept' button at the bottom of this page on or before 08-Apr-2023.

We are excited to welcome you to our Company and take this opportunity to wish you every success in taking this next step of your career with us.

APPENDIX A - Personal Employment Terms and Conditions

A1. Title/Category

You will join us as a/an Full-time Analyst in the Software Engineer Program, Class of 2023, at JPMorgan Chase & Co. and will carry out your role while physically present in the J.P. Morgan offices in Mumbai, India.

Your position and title may change as a result of successful completion of the Program, promotion, or other operational requirements of the Company's business.

A2. Employment Commencement Date

Your employment is expected to commence on 07-Aug-2023. We will confirm any change to this date to you in writing in advance.

In addition to the conditions set out in paragraph 1 of Appendix B, your offer is subject to you successfully meeting the educational criteria that has already been communicated to you in writing.

A3. Working Hours / Place of Work

Your manager will assign you specific working hours, often during J.P. Morgan's normal office hours. Depending on the needs of your department, however, you may be required to work outside the official hours to fulfill your duties.

You will normally work at the Company's offices in Mumbai, but you may be required to work at any other location of the Company or its affiliates, as required by the Company.

A4. Remuneration

Your total fixed pay will be INR 13,00,000 per annum and comprises the following components:

Rupees p.a.

1. Basic Salary	3,90,000
2. Leave Travel Assistance	40,000
3. House Rent Allowance	1,95,000
4. Provident Fund	46,800
5. Special Allowance	6,28,200
A. Total Fixed Pay	13,00,000

Special Cash Award

As soon as administratively practical and typically within 60 days from your start date, we will pay you a one-time sign-on award of INR 1,50,000, less applicable taxes and deductions.

If your employment with J.P. Morgan terminates for any reason other than job elimination within twelve months after your start date, you must repay to J.P. Morgan the full amount of this cash payment, within 30 days of your termination date. You agree that J.P. Morgan may satisfy all or part of this repayment obligation by withholding, to the fullest extent permitted by law, any amounts not yet paid to you at the time you leave J.P. Morgan.

Relocation Lump Sum

You will be paid a one-time Relocation lump sum of INR 1,25,000/-, which is taxable and will be paid within a reasonable period after your start date. The relocation lump sum coverage includes the cost of air and tickets, other transportation and hotel stay of your choice.

If you resign or are terminated for any reason other than job elimination (as determined within the company's discretion) within 12 months of your commencement date, you agree to reimburse the Company in full for the amount of any relocation lump sum you have received in connection with this employment offer. This reimbursement shall become due and payable within 30 days of your last day of employment with the Company. Further, the Company may seek reimbursement by withholding any other payments not yet paid to you at the time you leave the firm.

A5. Probationary Period

Your employment will be subject to a probationary period as outlined in paragraph 4.3 of Appendix B.

A6. Leave Entitlement

A6.1 Annual Leave

You are entitled to 20 working days of annual leave with full pay in every calendar year in accordance with the Company's Human Resources Policies and applicable law. If you work part-time hours, your annual leave entitlement will be pro-rated to reflect your part-time hours worked.

A6.2 Other Leave

You can find further details of other leave entitlements in paragraph 5 of Appendix B.

A7. Benefits

You are eligible to join the Company's benefits programs as amended from time to time. Further details will be provided to you separately.

A8. Retirement Scheme

You are eligible for retirement benefits, and can find details in paragraph 11 of Appendix B.

A9. Notice Period

During your probationary period, starting the day you join the Company, either you or the Company may terminate your employment with at least 14 days' written notice or payment of wages in lieu of such notice period.

After the probationary period, either party can terminate the employment by giving the other party 60 Days written notice ("Notice Period") or by the Company making a payment in lieu of Notice Period.

As outlined in the Company's Code of Conduct, we expect all employees to hold themselves to the highest standards of ethical conduct. In order to avoid conflicts of interest or the appearance of conflicts of interest, in the event that during your participation in J.P. Morgan's Analyst/Associate program you accept an offer of employment from another employer (regardless of the nature of its business or whether it is a client or competitor of J.P. Morgan), you must notify your manager no later than 3 business days of your acceptance of the offer.

APPENDIX B – GENERAL EMPLOYMENT TERMS AND CONDITIONS

B1. Employment

B1.1 Your employment is subject to:

- a) your being able to carry out your role in India while being able to be physically present in a JPMC office in Mumbai, India and obtaining and maintaining a valid work permit and such other permission, license or registration as may from time to time may be necessary to enable you to carry out your duties and continue your employment;
- b) the satisfactory completion of all pre-employment screening processing, including obtaining background references and checks as required, and the execution of any other forms necessary for employment; and
- c) your being legally able to work with the Company. You agree to disclose any employment or contractual post-employment restraints you are subjected to which may, and will continue to, affect your employment with the Company and affirm that:
 - i) you are not in breach of any prior employment contract;
 - ii) you have not taken or otherwise misappropriated – and you do not have in your possession or control – any confidential and proprietary information belonging to any of your prior employers or connected with or derived from your services to prior employers, and you have returned to all prior employers any and all such confidential or proprietary information; and
 - iii) you are not subject to any other employment or any contractual post-employment restraints.
 - iv) you shall indemnify and hold harmless the Company from any and all claims arising from any breach of the warranties in this paragraph.

B1.2 Whilst you and/or the Company may have agreed a tentative date of commencement of employment with the Company, you will not, unless the Company decides otherwise, be able to commence employment with the Company without our receipt of completed and satisfactory results from our pre-employment screening process.

B1.3 You may be required to provide services for other members of the Group throughout your employment. When providing these services, you may from time to time be required to travel and work in different locations within and outside your hiring location.

B1.4 Your retirement age will be as per Company's policy and subject to satisfactory completion of your probation period and provided that your employment is not terminated.

B2. Remuneration

B2.1 We will pay your total monetary remuneration in 12 equal monthly installments on or around the 30th of each month. We will review this remuneration annually, and we reserve the right to amend its terms, level and structure from time to time at our sole discretion.

B2.2 You will be liable for all tax payments and any other imposts that may be levied or payable on any sums paid and/or other benefits we provide to you. We are entitled to deduct or retain from the sum payable to you any withholding and other taxes levied or payable.

B2.3 Any payment of salary or bonus by, or other sum due to you from the Company shall be subject to any and all withholding or deduction (for, including but not limited to, any taxes, contributions, repayments or other sums which you have agreed that the Company may withhold/deduct or which the Company is obliged or entitled to withhold/deduct from time to time under any applicable law), and the Company shall in such case be entitled to withhold, deduct or retain the amount of such tax, withholding or deduction from any sum payable to you.

B3. Incentive Compensation

- B3.1 In its absolute discretion, the Company may pay you an annual incentive award ("Award") in accordance with the terms of its performance based incentive compensation plan in place and as amended or varied from time to time ("Incentive Plan"). The Award may be in the form of cash, restricted shares or units of JPMorgan Chase & Co. common stock ("Restricted Stock") and/or stock options or stock appreciation awards. In granting an Award, the Company may consider any factors it considers appropriate including but not limited to the motivation of future performance, individual achievement, business unit and Group corporate results. The Award will be planned and communicated in United States dollars or in your local currency in accordance with the published Incentive Plan then in effect and applicable to your role and business area within the Company.
- B3.2 Awards are subject to applicable taxes, the JPMorgan Chase Bonus Recoupment Policy and to the terms and conditions of Award Agreements, which will include recovery provisions, non-solicitation and similar covenants. Awards and payment thereof is conditional upon you being in employment with the Company and not under notice of termination (whether given by you or the Company) at the date of payment of any cash component of the Award. The Award is not pro-rated for the period worked if your employment terminates prior to the payment date.
- B3.3 Vesting of Restricted Stock is conditional upon your continued employment as of each vesting date, and the terms and conditions set forth in the associated Award agreement. Stock options or stock appreciation awards will become exercisable on the exercisable dates set forth in the Award agreement(s) conditional on your continued employment as of each exercisable date, and the terms and conditions set forth in the associated Award agreement.
- B3.4 The Company has absolute discretion over the payment and amount of any Award to you for any year. If paid, it shall not give rise to any expectation of the Award or the amount in future years of employment. No employee or officer of the Company is authorized to make any oral promises to you about an Award. During your employment any commitment as to an amount or timing of an Award must be in writing signed by a Senior Vice President or Managing Director of the Company and a human resources officer at the level of Vice-President or above. Awards do not form part of your salary for the purposes of pension or termination benefits.

B4. Termination

- B4.1 Your employment may be terminated as follows:

- By either party giving to the other prior written notice of at least the period specified, as applicable, in paragraph 9 in Appendix A (the "Notice Period"), or by the Company making a payment in lieu of notice for all or part of such Notice Period of an amount equal to basic salary you would have been entitled to receive during the Notice period or part of the Notice Period.
- By the Company at any time without notice or compensation if you:
 - are guilty of fraud, dishonesty or misconduct which is inconsistent with the due and faithful discharge of your duties;
 - seriously breach the Code of Conduct and any other Company policies;

- iii) disobey the Company's lawful and reasonable instructions/requirements;
- iv) habitually neglect your duties; or
- v) otherwise commit a material or repeated breach of your employment terms or any of the Company's or Group's policies.

B4.2 During any Notice Period, the Company may put you on "garden leave" and may, amongst other things, do any or a combination of the following:

- (a) suspend you from the performance of any duties or assign you alternative duties;
- (b) exclude you from any premises of the Company or any of the Group companies and/or require you to work from another location;
- (c) require that you have no or limited contact or communication, other than purely social contact, with any employees, officers, directors, agents or consultants of the Company or any other member of the Group;
- (d) require that you have no or limited contact or communication with any customer or client of the Company or any other member of the Group;
- (e) remove your access to the Company premises and computer systems;
- (f) require that you return any property belonging to the Company under paragraph 7 in this Appendix; or
- (g) require you not to do any act or thing, or make or cause to be made, any statement reasonably likely to damage the business or reputation of the Company or the Group.

B4.3 If paragraph 5 of Appendix A states that your employment is subject to probation, your probation period will be the first 3 months of employment, which you agree is reasonable, and fair, in light of the responsibilities of the role.

B4.4 At its sole discretion, the Company may notify you of an extension to your probationary period.

B4.5 All your duties (whether express or implied) under your employment and this letter, including without limitation your duty of fidelity, good faith, exclusive service and duties in relation to the Group's confidential information shall continue throughout the Notice Period including any period that you are on garden leave.

B4.6 During any Notice Period:

- a) you will provide such assistance as the Company may require to effect an orderly handover of your duties and responsibilities to any individual appointed by the Company or any of the Group Companies to take over your role or responsibilities; and
- b) you shall make yourself available to deal with requests for information, provide assistance, be available for meetings and to advise on matters relating to work;
- c) you shall not, directly or indirectly, in any capacity whatsoever, interfere in any way whatsoever with the business or operations of the J.P. Morgan.

B5. Leave

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "M. S.", is written over a horizontal line.

1296

B5.1 Annual Leave

- a) Your annual leave entitlement will be subject to relevant legislation and JPMorgan Chase internal policies that are in force and amended from time to time. You will be entitled to annual leave with full pay in every calendar year, to be applied and taken in accordance with applicable law and JPMorgan Chase internal policies that are in force and amended from time to time. The Company will be entitled to determine when this is taken although, as far as possible, arrangements will be made to suit your convenience. J.P. Morgan encourages you to use your annual leave entitlement for each calendar year in that calendar year.
- b) After a notice of termination has been given, you will not be entitled to take annual leave notwithstanding any approval given before the date of the notice of termination unless the Company in its discretion otherwise determines.
- c) You must comply with the Company's 'consecutive days leave' policies.
- d) For the calendar year during which your employment with the Company commences or terminates, you will be entitled to such proportion of your annual leave entitlement as the period of your employment in each such year bears to one calendar year. Upon termination of your employment for whatever reason you shall, if appropriate and permitted under the law, either be entitled to a payment in lieu of any outstanding annual leave entitlement or be required to pay to the Company any salary received in respect of annual leave taken in excess of your proportionate annual leave entitlement.

B5.2 Sick Leave

Your sick leave entitlement will be subject to relevant legislation and JPMorgan Chase internal policies that are in force and amended from time to time.

B5.3 Suspension Leave

J.P. Morgan has the right to suspend you from your work duties with full pay where the Company considers it necessary to investigate any allegation of misconduct or impropriety on your part. Such right shall be exercised at the Company's sole discretion.

B6 Confidentiality

You acknowledge that a vast amount of privileged and confidential information will be disclosed to you in course of your employment with the Company and during your employment with the Company and thereafter, you shall keep secret and shall not at any time (whether during or after the period of your employment) use for your own or another's advantage, or reveal to any person, firm or company, any of the trade secrets, business methods and plans, financial matters, client lists, investments, marketing plans, personnel matters or other information which you knew or reasonably ought to have known to be confidential concerning the business or affairs of the Company or any other member of the Group or any of their related companies, clients or suppliers.

You agree to abide by the specific provisions on the use of confidential information in the Company's policies and Group code of conduct.

The restriction contained in this paragraph shall not apply to any disclosure or use authorised by the Company or required by law.

B7. Return of Company Property

1297

You acknowledge that any privileged or confidential information disclosed to you in the course of your employment with the Company remains the exclusive property of the Company and whenever requested by the Company and/or J.P. Morgan and in any event upon the termination of your employment, you will promptly deliver to the Company and/or J.P. Morgan all documents and other materials (whether originals or copies or in hard copy or electronic form) concerning the Company and/or J.P. Morgan or their respective clients and suppliers, which may have been prepared by you or have come into your possession, custody or control in the course of your employment with the Company. This includes, without limitation, any confidential information, lists of clients or suppliers, correspondence, electronic equipment, computer software or hardware, staff identity cards card and other property used in connection with the operations of the Company and/or J.P. Morgan. You will not be entitled to, and will not retain, any copies, title and copyright in such correspondence and other documents, papers, records and property are vested in the Company and/or J.P. Morgan.

B8. Post Employment Restrictions

- B8.1 For a period of three months commencing on the Relevant Date, you shall not directly or indirectly (whether on your own account, for or with any other person, firm or company) solicit or endeavor to entice away from the Company or any other Group Company any Critical Person.
- B8.2 For a period of three months commencing on the Relevant Date, you shall not directly or indirectly (whether on your own account, for or with any other person, firm or company) solicit or endeavor to entice away from the Company or any other Group Company the business or custom of any Restricted Client.
- B8.3 The duration of the restrictions will be reduced by any period of notice that you work out or any period of garden leave as provided in this offer letter.
- B8.4 In this paragraph B8:
- "Critical Person" means any person who was an employee or director of the Company or any other Group Company at any time within one year prior to the Relevant Date who had access to trade secrets or confidential information of the Company or any other Group Company. This includes knowledge of, involvement with or influence over suppliers or clients of the Company or any other Group Company with whom you worked at any time during that period.
 - "Group Company" means the Company, its ultimate holding company, any subsidiary of the Company and any holding company from time to time. "Subsidiary" and "holding company" shall have the same meaning as in the relevant companies' legislation.
 - "Restricted Client" means any person:
 - who in the one year before the Relevant Date was a client of, or has dealt with, the Company or any other Group Company; and
 - with whose custom or business you, or persons reporting to you, were personally involved with during the period of one year prior to the Relevant Date;
 - but does not include publicly known institutional clients which you serve subsequent to your employment with the Company without the use of confidential or proprietary information of the Company and J.P. Morgan.
 - "Relevant Date" means the date your employment with the Company or the Group terminates for whatever reason.

B8.5 You acknowledge and agree:

- i. that each of the foregoing paragraphs constitutes an entirely separate and independent restriction on you;
- ii. that the duration, extent and application of each restrictions, obligations and undertakings are reasonable and necessary to protect legitimate interests of the Company and J.P. Morgan, considering, among other things, that the Company has commercial dealings with business partners throughout the world and that you will regularly be dealing with such partners as part of your duties and you understand that it does not by any means prevent you from earning a living in a satisfactory way;
- iii. that, if any such restriction (or parts of a restriction) shall be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be void or unenforceable, the validity or enforceability of the remaining restrictions (or parts of a restriction) shall remain in full force and effect as if the unenforceable parts had been deleted. Damages may be an inadequate compensation for breach of any of the restrictions in this paragraph and, subject to a court's discretion, in the event of any actual or threatened breach of any provision of this paragraph, you agree that the Company shall be entitled to (on behalf of itself and on behalf of any other Group Company) restrain, by injunction, equitable relief or similar remedy, any conduct or threatened conduct by you. You expressly submit to the jurisdiction of any court of competent jurisdiction for this purpose, and in the event you receive from any person an offer of employment (whether oral or in writing and whether accepted or not), either during your employment or the continuation in force of all or any of the restrictions applicable to you, whether pursuant to this letter or the Code of Conduct, you shall provide to the person making such an offer of employment, a full and accurate copy of the then current restrictions applicable to you.
- iv. that any benefit given or deemed to be given by you to J.P. Morgan under the terms of this paragraph is received and held on trust by the Company for the relevant J.P. Morgan group company. You will enter into appropriate restrictive covenants directly with other J.P. Morgan group companies if asked to do so by the Company.
- v. that your employment with the Company and the compensation paid and/or payable to you by the Company shall be sufficient consideration for the purposes of this clause. You further agree and acknowledge that the limitations as to time and the character or nature placed in this clause are reasonable and fair and will not preclude you from earning a livelihood, nor will they unreasonably impose limitations on your ability to earn a living.
- vi. that this offer letter constitutes a valid, legally binding and enforceable obligation on you and this document is not in violation of any applicable law.
- vii. that any breach or threat of breach on your part of any one of such obligations and/or undertakings would cause serious harm to the Company or J.P. Morgan which may then institute any legal recourse against you that is deemed appropriate and/or recourse in damages, without further notice or delay.
- viii. that you shall not assign this offer letter or the rights and/or obligations hereunder. The Company may assign its rights and obligations herein in all circumstances without your consent, including in connection with any sale, transfer or disposition of all or substantially all of its business and operations and its assets, in which case the Company's rights and obligations shall vest to the successor.
- ix. in addition, you agree and acknowledge that the potential harm to the Company of the non-enforcement of this clause outweighs any potential harm to you and that you have given careful consideration to the restraints imposed upon you by this clause and that you are in full agreement as to their necessity for the reasonable and proper protection of the Company's interests. You expressly acknowledge and agree that each and every restraint imposed by this clause is reasonable with respect to subject matter, time period and geographical area.

B9. Code of Conduct and Staff Regulations and Affirmation

- B9.1 It is a condition of your continuing employment and it is your obligation that you comply with:
- (a) the Code of Conduct (as amended from time to time or superseded). At the time of acceptance of the offer of employment and on a periodic basis, you will be required to sign an affirmation (or reaffirmation) confirming your understanding and compliance with the provisions of the Code of Conduct; and
 - (b) the Company's other internal policies and procedures and all relevant policies and procedures for the line of business in which you are to undertake work.
- B9.2 The Company shall be entitled at any time to amend the Company's internal policies and procedures (including but not limited to the Code of Conduct), the benefits set out in the Appendices and other staff regulations, as well as to put in place new policies as the Company sees fit. Any such amendments shall be notified in writing to each employee and shall on provision of such notice, become legally binding.
- B9.3 The Company's Human Resources work policies are set out in the mc@jpmc website, as amended from time to time. Please take time to familiarise yourself with these policies when you begin your employment.
- B9.4 To the extent that the contents of policies or procedures refer to obligations on the Company, you agree that they are guides only and are not contractual terms, conditions or representations on which you rely.

B10. Working Hours

- B10.1 The total of your official working hours (excluding one hour lunch daily) is 40 hours per week. Your local business management will schedule your work hours, which depend on the needs of the business and may be outside of these core hours.

B11. Retirement Benefits

- B11.1 Your entitlement to Provident Fund and Gratuity will be subject to relevant legislation and the Company's Human Resources policies that are in force and amended from time to time.

B12. Miscellaneous

- B12.1 This letter represents the entire agreement between the parties with respect to your employment by the Company and supersedes any previous written or oral agreement between the parties in relation to the matters dealt with in it. You acknowledge that you have not been induced to enter into this letter by any representation, warranty or undertaking not expressly incorporated into it.
- B12.2 If any paragraph (or part of any paragraph) of this letter is invalid or unenforceable, the validity or enforceability of the remaining paragraphs (or parts of a paragraph) shall not be affected and the other paragraph (or parts of a paragraph) shall remain in full force and effect as if the invalid or unenforceable parts had been deleted. This letter shall remain in full force and effect and survive the termination of your employment for any reason whatsoever.
- B12.3 If, during your employment with the Company, you become indebted to the Company or are overpaid any amount for any reason, the Company will be entitled to recover that amount from you. The Company may, if it so elects, set off any sum due to the Company from you against the compensation payable to you, including any final salary payments due to you on the termination of your employment, and collect any remaining balance from you.

- B12.4 The Company may, in connection with your employment, receive personal data relating to you or your family. Such data may be received from you, or from other sources including third party sources. The Company may process your personal data for the purposes of your employment and the operation of the Group's business and as set out in the Code of Conduct and relevant Privacy Policies and Privacy Handbook. You hereby consent to the processing, storage and transfer of your personal data (including transfer worldwide amongst members of the Group).

B13. Contract Execution

B13.1 You acknowledge and agree that:

- This letter may be delivered in a digital or physical format. Subject to any applicable law, where the letter is provided in a digital format, you acknowledge and agree that it is being executed electronically and that it is enforceable.
- You have read and understood the terms of this letter and have been provided with an opportunity to review and discuss the terms of it with advisors, if you so desire.
- Should any further assurances be required or sought by the Company, you shall in good faith perform such further actions (including executing a physical copy of this letter)

B14. Governing Law and Jurisdiction

This letter and any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with it or its subject matter or formation (including non-contractual disputes or claims) shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of India. You and the Company submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the Mumbai courts in relation to any dispute arising in connection with your employment and this letter.

APPENDIX C - SYSTEMS MONITORING ACTIVITIES AND CROSS-BORDER TRANSFERS, PERSONAL ACCOUNT DEALING POLICY, AND CODE OF CONDUCT

Appendix: Systems Monitoring Activities and Cross-Border Transfers:

The following provides a summary of how JPMorgan Chase & Co., its affiliates and its subsidiaries and the entity that employs you, or for which you provide services (collectively, "JPMC"), conducts Systems monitoring. JPMC may conduct monitoring to the extent permitted by applicable law.

JPMC conducts monitoring of JPMC's physical facilities and its equipment and systems (collectively, the "Systems"). System monitoring applies to your JPMC equipment, your personal equipment when accessing the Systems, and the communications, information, and materials conveyed or accessed using the Systems. Monitoring activities may include the monitoring and logging of traffic and usage data of all electronic communications; monitoring of telephone calls to or from JPMC work telephones as permitted by applicable laws and subject to any required notices; monitoring of the contents of electronic communications, files, databases, applications, and internet usage; and logging hours worked and physical presence at JPMC's facilities if applicable. JPMC may at all times monitor, access, retrieve, record and review information obtained from the monitoring activities for various purposes, such as preventing and investigating activities that may violate JPMC's policies and ensuring compliance with legal or regulatory obligations. While conducting monitoring activities, JPMC may obtain and process personal information about you and others that may reside on the Systems.

The monitoring activities (including JPMC's collection and processing of personal or other information) are required for purposes of your employment or work assignment to promote adherence to applicable policies and regulations. Subject to applicable laws and regulations, if you object to this processing, JPMC may prohibit you from using the Systems; terminate offers of employment or work assignment; and, for employees, take disciplinary action against you, up to and including termination of your employment with JPMC.

JPMC may disclose the information it obtains in connection with monitoring activities to JPMC affiliates and to third parties, service providers, regulators, supervisory bodies, law enforcement and other government agencies. Information obtained from the monitoring activities may be used as the basis to take disciplinary actions, up to and including termination or other legal action, for violations of JPMC's policies or applicable laws.

In addition to the monitoring activities discussed above, JPMC may obtain and store other information related to your employment or other working relationship, such as your compensation information, performance information, benefits information and other workplace-related data. JPMC may transfer such information, and the information it obtains in connection with monitoring activities, to countries other than the country in which the information originally was collected, including to the United States.

Understanding Obligations under the Firm's Personal Account Dealing Policy (PAD):

The Personal Account Dealing Policy (Policy) of JPMorgan Chase & Co. (firm or JPMC) is designed to help prevent and detect violations of securities laws and industry conduct standards and to minimize actual or perceived conflicts of interest that could arise due to personal investing activities.

PAD Compliance will notify you if the position you are being offered is considered to be subject to the Policy. You will remain subject for the duration of your time working in a subject group, unless notified otherwise of a change in subject status. Unless otherwise notified, you will continue to be subject to the provisions of the Policy even during leaves of absence from the firm, including, but not limited to, garden leave or medical leave.

You as well as your Connected Persons are subject to the provisions of this Policy and will need to be familiar with the obligations set forth in this policy. Connected Persons includes your spouse, domestic partner or minor children (even if financially independent) as well as anyone to whom you provide significant financial support or for which you, or anyone listed above, has or shares the power, directly or indirectly, to make investment decisions.

Once subject to the Policy, you must disclose and certify your Covered Accounts (which include accounts of your Connected Persons). You will be required to maintain your self-directed Covered Accounts with one of the firm's Approved Brokers and pre-clear all purchases, sales, pledges and gifts (received and given) of publicly traded and privately held financial instruments, unless listed as specifically exempt. Pre-approval confirmations must be received prior to executing the trade or investment. The firm may impose periodic restrictions on personal trading in certain financial securities. These restrictions can apply to all firm subject Workforce Members and their Connected Persons or may be limited to certain groups. Subject Workforce Members and their Connected Persons are not permitted to recommend or transact in the financial instruments of an issuer while in the possession of material non-public information (MNPI) regarding that issuer.

If you are a seasonal or short term employee the following requirements will apply:

JPMorgan Chase requires that seasonal workers refrain from trading in Covered Accounts for the time period that you are employed in a short term training program. Please verify that you will comply with the following personal trading requirements:

1. For the duration of the short term program I am joining I will not trade in any of my Covered Accounts

1302

2. I understand that the Firm has the right to request account information for any of my Covered Accounts
3. If there is an extenuating circumstance that would compel me to place a trade in my Covered Accounts, I will obtain pre-approval of the trade by the Personal Account Dealing Group and I would be responsible for supplying all confirmations and statements to the Personal Account Dealing Group for that trade

*The term Covered Accounts refers to any securities accounts no matter where they are located and includes, but is not limited to, those accounts that are established, maintained or controlled (either directly or indirectly) by you, your spouse, domestic partner or minor children (even if financially independent), anyone to whom you provide significant financial support, and in which the employee has a direct or indirect financial interest.

Global Personal Trading Policy:

The Personal Account Dealing of JPMorgan Chase & Co. is designed to help prevent and detect violations of securities laws and industry conduct standards and to minimize actual or perceived conflicts of interest that could arise due to personal investing activities. This Policy includes requirements for disclosing Covered Accounts, maintaining certain accounts at one of the firm's Approved Brokers, preclearing trades, and restrictions and prohibitions on certain types of trading activity. This Policy is subject to any applicable local laws and rules and should be read in conjunction with Supplements (regional/LOB) as well as the firm's Code of Conduct.

Conflict of Interests and Outside Interests:

Under JPMorgan Chase & Co.'s (JPMC) Code of Conduct, employees are responsible for avoiding activities or relationships that might affect their objectivity in making decisions as an employee. Employees are not permitted to allow their personal interest to conflict, or appear to conflict, with their JPMC role and responsibilities.

Outside Interests include second jobs, not for profit activities, government positions, and positions with external companies and organizations as a director, officer, advisor, sole proprietor, consultant or owner of any business. Outside Interests may result in an actual or perceived conflict of interest. Where actual or potential conflicts of interest cannot be mitigated, you may be required to discontinue the activity or dissolve your investment.

Employees are required to seek preclearance prior to engaging in Outside Interests or immediately upon joining JPMC. Where preclearance is not required, employee must adhere to all restrictions and conditions outlined in Section 5 and 6 of the Outside Interest Policy.

Conflicts of interests may also arise from: (1) personal and business relationships; (2) the exchange of gifts and business hospitality; (3) political engagement; and (4) personal finances. Employees should avoid activities or relationships that might affect their objectivity in making decisions on behalf of JPMC or undermine their credibility. Employees may never place personal interests ahead of our clients' interests. All potential and actual conflicts must be escalated to your manager for review and mitigation.

Acceptance and Code Affirmation:

Upon signing this letter I accept the terms and conditions described above.

I hereby affirm that I have read, understand, and am in compliance with the JPMorgan Chase ("JPMC") Code of Conduct and all internal JPMC policies that apply to me. I agree, as a condition of my employment, to remain in compliance with the Code of Conduct and all applicable JPMC policies.

I understand that I must conduct myself in a way that is consistent with the Code of Conduct, demonstrating compliance with the principles and intent of the Code of Conduct, and applicable laws and regulations.

I also affirm that I have reported any potential or actual violations of the Code of Conduct, JPMC policies, or laws or regulations applicable to JPMC's business, as required by the Code of Conduct. I understand that failure to do so can result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

I understand that the Code of Conduct may be updated periodically, as necessary; and that the current version is posted on the JPMorgan Chase intranet as well as on its public website.

Independent Auditor Tax Services to Employees of JPMorgan Chase and its Affiliates:

To be in compliance with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (PCAOB) Rule 3523, it is JPMorgan Chase's (JPMC) policy that PricewaterhouseCoopers (PwC) cannot provide any tax services to employees of JPMC or any of its controlled entities (hereafter referred to as JPMC employee). This restriction is regardless of whether the individual is in a financial reporting oversight role or not, and whether PwC is engaged by the individual or by JPMC. PwC is also prohibited from providing any tax services to a spouse of a JPMC employee if the work is related to a joint tax return. Exceptions to this policy will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis and will require the approval of the JPMC Controller.

APPENDIX D – SPECIFIC CONSENTS

You are required to provide specific consents in accordance with the applicable laws, details of which are provided in Annexure 1 and 2 respectively. It is essential that you carefully read/understand and specifically agree to the same.

Annexure – 1

Please read the following statements carefully. The term "J.P. Morgan" as used in these statements, refers to and is defined as including, either jointly or individually, J.P. Morgan Chase & Co., and/or any of its subsidiaries and affiliates and related body corporates (as defined in the Corporations Act, 2001 (Cwlth)), and/or their respective officers, agents, or employees.

Verification: The information I have provided in this Statement of Information is accurate to the best of my knowledge and subject to verification. I understand that any untrue statement or misrepresentation of fact in any of these statements to any extent, at J.P. Morgan sole discretion, may be grounds for terminating my employment with J.P. Morgan with immediate effect in accordance with the terms and conditions set out in J.P. Morgan Offer Letter.

Security Procedures: At all times during the performance of services for J.P. Morgan, I shall abide by all applicable J.P. Morgan security standards, guidelines and procedures, including, where applicable, those set forth in J.P. Morgan Data Security Policies and Standards Manual and Technical Users' Security Policies and Standards Manual.

Ownership of Intellectual Property: I hereby agree that J.P. Morgan shall have ownership of the entire rights, title and interest in all inventions, original works of authorship, developments, improvements, technical or other contributions, including computer software and trade secrets, and other works which I make, conceive, create or write, alone or jointly with others, during the course of and within the scope of my employment with J.P. Morgan or within six months after termination of such employment if the same is related to the course of my employment ("Developments"). In connection therewith, I hereby assign to J.P. Morgan, all rights, title and interest in and to the Developments to which I am or may at any time after the date of my employment be entitled to by virtue of or pursuant to any of the laws in force in any part of the world, whether or not patentable or registrable under copyright or similar laws, which assignment shall include, without limitation, the right to file and prosecute patent applications and copyright registrations in any and all countries and all rights of priority under international conventions. I further acknowledge that all original works of authorship which are made by me (solely or jointly with others) within the scope of and during the period of my employment with J.P. Morgan are protectable by Section 195awa of the Copyright Act, 1968 (Cwth). I agree to keep and maintain complete, adequate and current written records of all Developments and to disclose the same to J.P. Morgan. The records will be in the form of notes, sketches, drawings, and any other format as J.P. Morgan shall reasonably request and/or specify during the term of my employment. I agree to, during and after such period, assist and co-operate fully with J.P. Morgan Chase (entirely at its expense) to do any and all acts to obtain and protect J.P. Morgan rights in the Developments and any copyrights, trademarks, patents, designs, layout-designs, proprietary information, mask work rights or other intellectual property rights relating thereto in any and all countries ("Intellectual Property Rights"), including, the execution of any and all applications, assignments and all other instruments in such manner and at such location which J.P. Morgan shall deem necessary in order to apply for and obtain or assign to J.P. Morgan the Intellectual Property Rights. I understand and agree that all such Developments shall be and remain the property of J.P. Morgan regardless of whether or not patented or registered for copyright and that my obligation to execute or cause to be executed, any instrument or papers shall continue after the termination of my employment with J.P. Morgan.

Moral Rights: I consent to do all such acts and deeds and fully assign to J.P. Morgan any and all moral rights in respect of all Developments and works made or to be made by me in the course of my employment with J.P. Morgan. I agree and acknowledge that I may be required to submit my name, likeness, statements, voice, photographic image, videos and any other information or material ("Material") to J.P. Morgan from time to time in relation to my employment with J.P. Morgan. I hereby understand, fully agree and freely consent to and I represent and warrant the following to and for the benefit of J.P. Morgan:

I have full legal authority, including all necessary intellectual property rights, to submit this Material to J.P. Morgan on behalf of myself or anyone depicted in the Material. If this Material contains any name or likeness of an individual under the age of 18 years or an incapacitated adult, I represent and warrant that I have the full legal authority to submit this Material on their behalf.

If I have voluntarily agreed with/been engaged by J.P. Morgan to create any Material, I hereby expressly undertake to hand over all the Material to the designated representative of J.P. Morgan and irrevocably consent to the use, publication, retention and /or destruction of the same by J.P. Morgan. I hereby grant to J.P. Morgan all right, title and interest in and to the Material without royalties or other compensation and agree that J.P. Morgan alone has the exclusive right to create copies of the Material, prepare derivative works based on the Material, distribute copies of the Material and / or publicly display.

In the event I have created the Material, I confirm and agree that the Material is my own original work, is not copied, and does not contain any third-party materials and/or content that I do not have permission to use. I further warrant and represent that the Material is not obscene, defamatory or in breach of any applicable legislation or regulations.

I consent and grant permission to J.P. Morgan and any applicable media agencies acting on behalf of J.P. Morgan, a perpetual, worldwide, non-exclusive, irrevocable, royalty-free license to use, reproduce, distribute and publish the Material or for any other information I provide in any media now or hereinafter developed for any purpose in which J.P. Morgan engages, including any promotion, advertisement or other conduct of trade, without royalties, payment or any other consideration. I irrevocably authorize J.P. Morgan to edit, alter, copy, exhibit, publish or distribute the Material for purposes of publicizing programs on the J.P. Morgan intranet or for any other lawful purpose in India and in any other country. I agree that the Material will not be returned to me. I waive the right to inspect or approve any finished product of the Material, including written or electronic copy, wherein my or that of any person's likeness appears.

I will not hold J.P. Morgan liable or responsible for the Material that are lost, delayed, misdirected or incomplete or cannot be delivered for any technical or other reason. J.P. Morgan shall not be liable for any loss or damage resulting from submission or publication of the Material.

I, for myself and anyone entitled to act on my behalf, waive and release, to the maximum extent permitted by law, J.P. Morgan from any claims or liabilities of any kind arising in connection with the Material or the use thereof even though that liability may arise out of negligence or carelessness of any such party. This Agreement and Release Form may be asserted as a full and complete defense to, and may be used as the basis for an injunction against any claims, action or lawsuit alleged or brought by me against J.P. Morgan. The rights granted herein shall be binding upon my estate, heirs and assigns.

This Agreement and Release is deemed to be made under and shall be construed according to the laws of India and subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of Mumbai Courts. J.P. Morgan – Pre Employment Screening

Confidentiality of Information: I agree that I shall hold on trust for J.P. Morgan Chase & Co, including its subsidiaries and affiliates (respectively or jointly) (JP Morgan) and shall not use, except for the purposes of the performance of my duties during my employment with J.P. Morgan, or disclose to any other party any Confidential Information (as such term is hereinafter defined) which may be disclosed to or created by me in connection with the course of my employment with J.P. Morgan. As used herein, the term "Confidential Information" means any information which relates to confidential, proprietary and/or trade secret information in oral, demonstrative, written, electronic, graphic or machine readable form contained in any documents, manuals, diskettes and other storage medium including but not limited to internal controls, computer or data processing programs, algorithms, electronic data processing applications, routines, subroutines, techniques or systems, or information concerning the business or financial affairs and methods of operation or proposed methods of operation, accounts, transactions, proposed transactions or security procedures, know-how, inventions, training methods or other information relating to the business and other operations of either J.P. Morgan, any affiliate of J.P. Morgan, or any client, customer or vendor of J.P. Morgan and all copies and reproductions thereof, whether or not owned or developed by J.P. Morgan, except such information which is in the public domain at the time of its disclosure to me or which subsequently enters the public domain other than as a result of a breach of duty on my part. I agree that, upon J.P. Morgan written demand for whatever reason, I shall immediately deliver to J.P. Morgan any and all notes, drawings, documents, manuals, diskettes and other m copies or excerpts thereof and confirm to J.P. Morgan, in writing, the return or destruction of the same. I acknowledge that my right to retain and/or use the Confidential Information shall terminate forthwith upon J.P. Morgan written demand and I shall immediately cease to use the Confidential Information. The obligations imposed by this clause shall survive the term of my employment with J.P. Morgan with respect to the performance of services, or of my employment or assignment to render services in connection therewith. I understand and agree that any breach of these confidentiality obligations will cause J.P. Morgan irreparable damage and J.P. Morgan shall have the right to enforce the provisions of this paragraph by means of injunctive relief including specific performance.

At-Will Agreement: Your internship with the Company is "At-Will." Accordingly, this letter is not to be construed or interpreted as containing any guarantee of any particular level or nature of compensation, continuation of internship or future employment. As such, the recitation of certain time periods in this letter is solely for the purpose of defining this internship. At any time, you or the Company can end this agreement by giving written notice (including by email) to the other party. Whenever this agreement ends, the Confidentiality & Copyrights Assignments section below will continue to apply indefinitely.

Representations: You represent that: (1) you are not a party to any agreement that would prohibit you from entering into internship or employment with the Company; (2) no trade secret or proprietary information belonging to your previous employers will be disclosed by you at the Company and that no such information, whether in the form of documents, memoranda, software, drawings, etc., will be retained by you or brought with you to the Company; and (3) you have brought to the Company's attention and provided it with a copy of any agreement, order of any court or administrative body or any other similar item that may impact your internship at the Company, including but not limited to any non-disclosure, non-competition, non-solicitation, privately owned patent or proprietary rights, either domestic or foreign or invention assignment agreements containing future work restrictions.

Confidentiality & Copyrights Assignments: During your internship and (if your internship is discontinued for any reason whatsoever) thereafter, you agree to hold in strictest confidence, and not to use, except for the benefit of the Company to the extent necessary to perform obligations to the Company, and not to disclose to any person, firm, corporation or other entity, without written authorization from the Company in each instance, any Confidential Information (as defined below) that you obtain, access or create during the term of the internship, whether or not during working hours, until such Confidential Information becomes publicly and widely known and made generally available through no wrongful act of yours or of others who were under confidentiality obligations as to the item or items involved. You further agree not to make copies of such Confidential Information except as authorized by the Company and that you will not reverse engineer or attempt to derive the composition or underlying information, structure or ideas of any Confidential Information. The foregoing does not grant you a license in or to any of the Confidential Information.

"Confidential Information" means information and physical material not generally known or available outside the Company and information and physical material entrusted to the Company in confidence by third parties. Confidential Information includes, without limitation: (i) Company Inventions (as defined below); (ii) technical data, trade secrets, know-how, research, product or service ideas or plans, software codes and designs, developments, inventions, laboratory notebooks, processes, formulas, techniques, biological materials, mask works, engineering designs and drawings, hardware configuration information, lists of, or information relating to, employees, interns and consultants of the Company (including, but not limited to, the names, contact information, jobs, compensation, and expertise of such interns, employees and consultants), lists of, or information relating to, suppliers and customers (including, but not limited to, customers of the Company on whom you called or with whom you became acquainted during the internship), price lists, pricing methodologies, cost data, market share data, marketing plans, licenses, contract information, business plans, financial forecasts, historical financial data, budgets or other business information disclosed to you by the Company either directly or indirectly, whether in writing, electronically, orally, or by observation.

"Inventions" means discoveries, developments, concepts, designs, ideas, know how, improvements, inventions, trade secrets and/or original works of authorship, whether or not patentable, copyrightable or otherwise legally protectable. You understand this includes, but is not limited to, any new product, machine, article of manufacture, biological material, method, procedure, process, technique, use, equipment, device, apparatus, system, compound, formulation, composition of matter, design or configuration of any kind, or any improvement thereon. You understand that "Company Inventions" means any and all Inventions that you may solely or jointly author, discover, develop, conceive, or reduce to practice during the period of the internship.

You further agree to assign to the Company, or its designee, all right, title, and interest in and to any and all inventions, original works of authorship, developments, concepts, improvements, designs, drawings, discoveries, algorithms, formulas, computer code, ideas, trademarks, or trade secrets, whether or not patentable or can be registered under patent, copyright or similar laws, related to the Company's business, which you solely or jointly conceive or develop or reduce to practice, or cause to be conceived or developed or reduced to practice, with the use of Company's equipment, supplies, facilities, assets, or Company Confidential Information, or which may arise out of any research or other activity created in the scope of this internship.

In consideration for your internship at the Company, and disclosure of the information, you also agree that: (1) on the end of your association with the Company, you will promptly return all Proprietary Information and all copies, extracts, and other objects or items in which it may be contained or embodied; (2) you will promptly notify the Company of any unauthorized release of Proprietary Information within your control; (3) you agree to follow the Company's strict policy that employees and interns must not disclose, either directly or indirectly, any information, including any of the terms of this letter, regarding compensation to any person, including other employees and interns of the Company; provided, however, that you may discuss the terms of this letter with members of your immediate family and any legal, tax or accounting specialists who provide you with individual legal, tax or accounting advice; and (4) you understand and agree that any breach by you of the provisions in this section could cause the Company to suffer irreparable harm and no adequate remedy at law would be available in respect thereof. Accordingly, you agree that upon any such breach, the Company shall be entitled to seek equitable relief, as well as such further relief as may be granted by a court of competent jurisdiction. Since you might work with data belonging to customers located in different part of the globe you agree to abide by the data protection and privacy law and shall not share any customer data to anyone outside the organization by any electronic or non-electronic means.

Choice of Law: You hereby agree that this Agreement shall be construed in accordance with the Indian Judicial Law.

Miscellaneous: (1) If any term or provision of this Agreement shall be held illegal, unenforceable, or in conflict with any law governing this Agreement the validity of the remaining portions shall not be affected thereby; (2) the failure of either party to enforce its rights under this Agreement at any time for any period shall not be construed as a waiver of such rights; (3) neither party shall assign or transfer all or any part of its rights under this Agreement without the consent of the other party; (4) this letter reflects the entire agreement regarding the terms and conditions of your internship. Accordingly, it supersedes and completely replaces any prior oral or written communication on this subject; and (5) this letter may not be modified or amended except by a written agreement, signed by the Company and by you.

To confirm your acceptance of this offer, please sign this document by 26 Dec. 2022. If this document is not signed and received by end of said date, the offer will be considered retracted.

Hello,

We would like to thank you for your correspondence at 2023 And now Internship Program of JPMorgan Chase & Co. We were delighted to have heard your students and provide an exciting and meaningful internship experience.

We were fortunate to evaluate a talented pool of interns this year and the below interns truly stood out as exceptional. We were very impressed by their talent, performance and qualifications. Based on their performance during their internship evaluations, I am delighted to let you know that they will receive an written offer to join the Firm for the Software Engineer Program class of 2023.

In this position, they will have the opportunity to work with a talented, collaborative team who is committed to doing the best for their clients. They will be joining a firm that is committed to the continual growth of its employees through robust development programs. We look forward to their continued development and strive if they successfully complete the pre-employment screening and decide to join the Firm.

Dear Ayush,

Congratulations on receiving our offer of internship with Nomura Services India Private Limited ('the firm') in Wholesale Data Services division. We seek individuals with a distinguished record of achievement, superior leadership skills and commitment to excellence. Throughout our meetings, you have demonstrated these qualities, and we are confident that you will be a strong contributor to our firm.

For the avoidance of doubt, this is a volunteer work placement and you shall not have any employment relationship with the firm. Please understand that the terms and conditions of your internship are governed by the standard firm policies. Among other stipulations, this offer of internship is contingent upon the successful completion of reference checks and you satisfactorily meeting all pre-internship requirements and producing identification to verify your identity.

The firm will provide you with a stipend of INR 50,000 per month, less applicable tax withholdings, as soon as practicable following your internship start date. You will not be entitled to this payment if you fail to commence internship with the firm on the anticipated start date.

This offer of internship is based on your commitment to work exclusively for Nomura for a minimum 25 weeks period beginning on 09 January 2023. It is important that you work the entire period so that we may involve you in a variety of assignments and properly evaluate your potential contribution to the firm. If for any reason you are unable to commit to the 25 weeks period, please notify us before signing this letter.

You shall be eligible to take 1.5 days of leave in a calendar month applicable cumulatively for the term of your internship, together with relevant public holidays, subject to prior written approvals from your reporting manager.

You will be eligible for additional study leave subject to prior written approvals from the firm. You will be required to resume your internship after the completion of your study leave. If at any point in time you exceed the specified days of leaves during your internship then you will be required to put in additional days of work to complete the above mentioned months of internship.

All developments, productions, written work, inventions and improvements of inventions, whether patentable or not, made by you or to which you would have contributed in the course of your internship, and all industrial and intellectual property rights and copyright is made by you or to which you would have contributed in the course of your internship will be and remain the exclusive property of the firm and to the extent necessary you assign any potential rights relating thereto to the firm. This includes but is not limited to all research and research products, firm templates, training materials and presentations, "know-how" developed in spreadsheets and systems developments.

JPMORGAN CHASE & CO.

Message from Jamie Dimon, Chairman and CEO

Welcome to JPMorgan Chase. We are pleased that you will be starting your career at an exceptional company – one of the world's oldest, largest and best-known financial institutions.

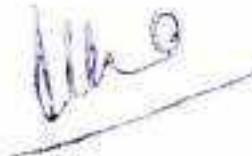

Across our businesses, we continue to deliver record results, innovative products and services for our customers, and great experiences for our employees. Named #1 in Fortune's Change the World list, we are focused on helping communities large and small grow around the world. It's an exciting time to join JPMorgan Chase, and now – with your skills, experience and creative ideas – you'll help us continue to drive change.

During your time here, you will have opportunities to learn and grow in a supportive, respectful and inclusive environment. Do your best to contribute and excel in everything you do. By building strong relationships and doing the right thing – at all times – we have made this a company of which we can all be proud. It's how we do business. And, it is what has made us a top employer and a great business partner.

As you begin your career with JPMorgan Chase, I offer you an essential piece of advice: do your job well, and earn the trust and respect of the people around you. Throughout your employment, you will hear advice like this from our senior leaders – and we encourage you to put it into practice every day.

I hope you enjoy working here as much as I do, and I look forward to meeting many of you.

Best of luck in what I am sure will be a rewarding experience,

Dear Richa,

Your Internship by J.P. Morgan

Congratulations on joining the J.P. Morgan family. We are pleased to confirm your internship with J.P. Morgan Services India Private Limited (the "Company").

You will find your personal internship terms outlined in Appendix A with general internship terms and conditions in Appendix B. Please note these terms and conditions supersede any verbal discussions you may have previously had with any JPMorgan Chase employee with regards to your internship arrangements.

A number of important policies will apply to your internship with the Company, including the Personal Account Dealing Policy and the Code of Conduct. We provide more information about these policies in Appendix C and it is essential that you carefully read and understand their requirements. By signing this letter, you confirm that you have read, understood and agree to be bound by these policies. In addition, you will be required to abide by all other Company policies and regulations (including JPMorgan Chase group of companies (the "Group") policies) and with applicable law.

Should you have queries in relation to your employment terms, your benefits or Company policies, please contact our HR Answers hotline at 000 800 440 5210 (local toll free) or +1 212-552-5100 (international).

Please be reminded your internship terms should be treated with the strictest confidence. To accept this offer of internship, please click on the 'Accept' button at the bottom of this page on or before 28-Nov-2022.

We are excited to welcome you to our Company and take this opportunity to wish you every success in taking this next step of your career with us.

Appendix A – PERSONAL INTERNSHIP TERMS AND CONDITIONS

A1. Title/Category

You will join us as an intern in the Global Risk & Compliance Program at JPMorgan Chase & Co., and will carry out your role while physically present in the J.P. Morgan offices in Mumbai, India.

A2. Internship Commencement Date

Your internship shall begin on 16-Jan-2023 ("Start Date") and shall continue, subject to the remaining terms of this agreement, until it terminates on 30-Jun-2023 ("End Date") without the need for notice, unless previously terminated by either party pursuant to paragraph 4 of Appendix B.

In addition to the conditions set out in paragraph 1 of Appendix B, your offer is subject to you successfully meeting the educational criteria that has already been communicated to you in writing.

A3. Working Hours

Your manager will assign you specific working hours, often during the Company's normal office hours. Depending on the needs of your department, however, you may be required to work outside the official hours to fulfill your duties.

A4. Stipend

Your stipend will be INR60,000/- per month.

Relocation Lump Sum

You will receive an additional, one-time lump sum of INR85000("the Additional Sum") gross with your first stipend. This payment will be made to you in the first available payroll after you join the Company. You should be aware that this might be in the month of joining or the following month depending on your commencement date and when all necessary data is received. This is to assist with any relocation expenses you may incur prior to joining.

If you leave the internship or your internship is terminated for any reason, you must repay to the Company the Additional Sum on a pro-rated basis as set out below:

If your internship period is longer than 3 months and you leave the internship or your internship is terminated for any reason within three months of your date of commencement you must repay to the Company 100% of the gross amount of the Additional Sum

If your internship period is longer than 3 months and you leave the internship or your internship is terminated for any reason more than three months but within twelve months of your date of commencement you must repay to the Company 50% of the gross amount of

the Additional Sum
If your internship period is less than 3 months and you leave the internship or your internship is terminated for any reason before completion of your internship period you must repay the Company 100% of the gross amount of the Additional Sum

A5. Probationary Period

Your internship will be subject to a probation period as outlined in paragraph 4.3 of Appendix B.

A6. Leave Entitlement

A6.1 Annual Leave

You are entitled to 20 working days of annual leave with full pay in every calendar year, pro-rated according to the duration of your employment in accordance with the Company's Human Resources Policies and applicable law. If you work part-time hours, your annual leave entitlement will be pro-rated to reflect your part-time hours worked.

A6.2 Other Leave

You can find further details of other leave entitlements in paragraph 5 of Appendix B.

A7. Benefits

You will not be entitled to join the Company's benefits programs, given the short length of your fixed-term contract.

A8. Retirement Scheme

You are not eligible for retirement benefits.

A9. Notice Period

During your probationary period, starting the day you join the Company, either you or the Company may terminate your employment with at least 14 days' written notice or payment of wages in lieu of such notice period.

After the probationary period, either party can terminate the employment by giving the other party 30 Days written notice ("Notice Period") or by the Company making a payment in lieu of Notice Period.

APPENDIX B – GENERAL INTERNSHIP TERMS AND CONDITIONS

B1. Internship

B1.1 Your internship is subject to:

- a) you being able to carry out your role in India while being able to be physically present in an JPMC office in Mumbai, India and obtaining and maintaining throughout your entire period of internship a valid work permit and such other permission, license or registration as may from time to time be necessary to enable you to carry out your duties and continue your internship.
- b) the completion of all pre-employment screening processes to the satisfaction of the Company, including obtaining education verification, background references and checks as sought and the execution of any other forms necessary for internship, etc., and
- c) you being legally able to work with the Company. You undertake to disclose any internship or contractual post-internship restraints to which you are subject and which may, and will continue to, affect your internship with us and represent and warrant that:
 - ix. by entering into internship with the Company and performing the duties set out in this letter, you will not be in breach of any express or implied term of any internship or other agreement or arrangement to which you are party.
 - i. you have not taken or otherwise misappropriated and you do not have in your possession or control any confidential and proprietary information belonging to any of your prior employers, or any third party providing services to your prior employer, or connected with or derived from your services to prior employers and you have returned to all prior employers any and all such confidential or proprietary information; and
 - ii. you are not subject to any other internship, including being subject to garden leave or any contractual post-internship restraints.

You shall indemnify and hold harmless the Company from any and all claims arising from any breach of the warranties in this paragraph B1.

- B1.2 Whilst you and/or the Company may have agreed a tentative date of commencement of internship with the Company, you will not, unless the Company decides otherwise, be able to commence internship with the Company without our receipt of completed and satisfactory results from our pre-employment screening process.
- B1.3 You may be required to provide services for other members of the Group throughout your internship. When providing these services, you may from time to time be required to travel and work in different locations within and outside your hiring location.

B1.4 You will not undertake outside employment or activities with or without remuneration, unless you have the prior written approval of senior management of the Company or its delegate. Outside activities may include (but are not limited to) activities as a director, officer, partner, sole proprietor, consultant or controlling stockholder of any business. If your request to undertake outside activity is not approved by management and you decide to engage in the activity, your internship may be terminated without any notice or compensation.

B2. Remuneration

B2.1 We will deposit your stipend (paragraph 4 of Appendix A) on or around the 30th of each month.

B2.2 You will be responsible for all tax liabilities world-wide arising out of payments pursuant to your internship with the Company.

B2.3 Any payment of salary or bonus by, or other sum due to you from the Company shall be subject to any and all withholding or deduction (or, including but not limited to, any taxes, contributions, repayments or other sums which you have agreed that the Company may withhold/deduct or which the Company is obliged or entitled to withhold/deduct from time to time under any applicable law), and the Company shall in such case be entitled to withhold, deduct or retain the amount of such tax, withholding or deduction from any sum payable to you.

B3. Incentive Compensation

For this position, you won't be eligible for incentive awards under the JPMorgan Chase Performance-Based Incentive Compensation Plan or any other non-annual incentive compensation plan.

B4. Termination

B4.1 Your internship may be terminated as follows:

- a) By either party giving to the other prior written notice of at least the period specified, as applicable, in paragraph 9 in Appendix A (the "Notice Period"), or by the Company making a payment in lieu of notice for all or part of such Notice Period of an amount equal to basic salary you would have been entitled to receive during the Notice period or part of the Notice Period.
- b) By the Company at any time without notice or compensation if you:
 - i) are guilty of fraud, dishonesty or misconduct which is inconsistent with the due and faithful discharge of your duties;

A handwritten signature in blue ink, consisting of stylized letters, is written over a solid blue horizontal line.

- ii) seriously breach the Code of Conduct and any other Company policies;
- iii) disobey the Company's lawful and reasonable instructions/requirements;
- iv) habitually neglect your duties; or
- v) otherwise commit a material or repeated breach of your internship terms or any of the Company's or Group's policies.

B4.2 During any Notice Period, the Company may put you on "garden leave" and may, amongst other things, do any or a combination of the following:

- (a) suspend you from the performance of any duties or assign you alternative duties;
- (b) exclude you from any premises of the Company or any of the Group companies and/or require you to work from another location;
- (c) require that you have no or limited contact or communication, other than purely social contact, with any employees, officers, directors, agents or consultants of the Company or any other member of the Group;
- (d) require that you have no or limited contact or communication with any customer or client of the Company or any other member of the Group;
- (e) remove your access to the Company premises and computer systems;
- (f) require that you return any property belonging to the Company under paragraph 7 in this Appendix;
- (g) require you not to do any act or thing, or make or cause to be made, any statement reasonably likely to damage the business or reputation of the Company or the Group.

B4.3 If paragraph 5 of Appendix A states that your employment is subject to probation, your probation period will be the first 3 months of employment, which you agree is reasonable, and fair, in light of the responsibilities of the role.

B4.4 At its sole discretion, the Company may notify you of an extension to your probationary period.

B4.5 All your duties (whether express or implied) under your internship and this letter, including without limitation your duty of fidelity, good faith, exclusive service and duties in relation to the Group's confidential information shall continue throughout the Notice Period including any period that you are on garden leave.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "R. K. G.", is written over the bottom right portion of the stamp.

B4.6 During any Notice Period:

- (a) you will provide such assistance as the Company may require to effect an orderly handover of your duties and responsibilities to any individual appointed by the Company or any of the Group Companies to take over your role or responsibilities; and
- (b) you shall make yourself available to deal with requests for information, provide assistance, be available for meetings and to advise on matters relating to work.

B5. Leave

B5.1 Annual Leave

- (a) You will be entitled to annual leave with full pay in every calendar year – please see paragraph 6 of Appendix A, pro-rated according to the duration of your employment. The Company will be entitled to determine when annual leave is taken, although as far as possible, arrangements will be made to suit your convenience. Annual leave entitlement for each calendar year must be taken in that calendar year and only in exceptional circumstances can annual leave (other than unused statutory entitlement, if any) be carried forward into the following calendar year. All annual leave days taken will be deducted first from the statutory entitlement accumulation.
- (b) After a notice of termination has been given pursuant to paragraph B4.1 of this Appendix, you will not be entitled to take any annual leave without the express consent of the Company provided after notice of termination has been given.
- (c) You must comply with the Company's 'consecutive days leave' policies.

B5.2 Sick Leave

Any sick leave entitlement will be subject to relevant legislation and J.P.Morgan internal policies that are in force and amended from time to time. More details are set out in the me@jpmc website, which will be accessible to you upon commencement of your employment.

B5.3 Suspension Leave

The Company has the right to suspend you from your work duties with full pay when it considers it necessary to investigate any allegation of misconduct or impropriety on your part. The Company can exercise this right at its sole discretion, acting in good faith.

B6. Confidentiality

You acknowledge that a vast amount of privileged and confidential information will be disclosed to you in course of your internship with the Company and during your internship with the Company and thereafter, you shall keep secret and shall not at any time (whether during or after the period of your internship) use for your own or another's advantage, or reveal to any person, firm or company, any of the trade secrets, business methods and plans, financial matters, client lists, investments, marketing plans, personnel matters or other information which you knew or reasonably ought to have known to be confidential concerning the business or affairs of the Company or any other member of the Group or any of their related companies, clients or suppliers.

You agree to abide by the specific provisions on the use of confidential information in the Company's policies and Group code of conduct.

The restriction contained in this paragraph shall not apply to any disclosure or use authorised by the Company or required by law.

B7. Return of Company Property

You acknowledge that any privileged or confidential information disclosed to you in the course of your internship with the Company remains the exclusive property of the Company and whenever requested by the Company and/or Group and in any event upon the termination of your internship, you will promptly deliver to the Company and/or Group all documents and other materials (whether originals or copies or in hard copy or electronic form) concerning the Company and/or Group or their respective clients and suppliers, which may have been prepared by you or have come into your possession, custody or control in the course of your internship with the Company. This includes, without limitation, any confidential information, lists of clients or suppliers, correspondence, electronic equipment, computer software or hardware, staff identity cards and other property used in connection with the operations of the Company and/or Group. You will not be entitled to, and will not retain, any copies, title and copyright in such correspondence and other documents, papers, records and property are vested in the Company and/or Group.

B8. Post Internship Restrictions

B8.1 For a period of three months commencing on the Relevant Date, you shall not directly or indirectly (whether on your own account, for or with any other person, firm or company) solicit or endeavor to entice away from the Company or any other Group Company any Critical Person.

B8.2 For a period of three months commencing on the Relevant Date, you shall not directly or indirectly (whether on your own account, for or with any other person, firm or company) solicit or endeavor to entice away from the Company or any other Group Company the business or custom of any Restricted Client.

B8.3 The duration of the restrictions will be reduced by any period of notice that you work out or any period of garden leave as provided in this offer letter.

B8.4 In this paragraph B8:

- a) "Critical Person" means any person who was an employee or director of the Company or any other Group Company at any time within one year prior to the Relevant Date who had access to trade secrets or confidential information of the Company or any other Group Company. This includes knowledge of, involvement with or influence over suppliers or clients of the Company or any other Group Company with whom you worked at any time during that period.
- b) "Group Company" means the Company, its ultimate holding company, any subsidiary of the Company and any holding company from time to time. "Subsidiary" and "holding company" shall have the same meaning as in the relevant companies' legislation.
- c) "Restricted Client" means any person:
 - i. who in the one year before the Relevant Date was a client of, or has dealt with, the Company or any other Group Company; and
 - ii. with whose custom or business you, or persons reporting to you, were personally involved with during the period of one year prior to the Relevant Date;
 - iii. but does not include publicly known institutional clients which you serve subsequent to your internship with the Company without the use of confidential or proprietary information of the Company and the Group.
- d) "Relevant Date" means the date your internship with the Company or the Group terminates for whatever reason.

B8.5 You acknowledge and agree:

- a) that each of the foregoing paragraphs constitutes an entirely separate and independent restriction on you;
- b) that the duration, extent and application of each restrictions, obligations and undertakings are reasonable and necessary to protect legitimate interests of the Company and the Group, considering, among other things, that the Company has commercial dealings with business partners throughout the world and that you will regularly be dealing with such partners as part of your duties and you understand that it does not by any means prevent you from earning a living in a satisfactory way;
- c) that, if any such restriction (or parts of a restriction) shall be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be void or unenforceable, the validity or enforceability of the remaining restrictions (or parts of a restriction) shall remain in full force and effect as if the unenforceable parts had been deleted. Damages may be an inadequate compensation for breach of any of the restrictions in this paragraph and, subject to a court's discretion, in the event of any actual or threatened breach of any provision of this paragraph, you agree that the Company shall be entitled to (on behalf of itself and on behalf of any other Group Company) restrain, by injunction, equitable relief or similar remedy, any conduct or threatened conduct by you. You expressly submit to the jurisdiction of any court of competent jurisdiction for this purpose, and in the event you receive from any person an offer of employment (whether oral or in writing and whether accepted or not), either during your internship or the continuation in force of all or any of the restrictions applicable to you, whether pursuant to this letter or the Code of Conduct, you shall provide to the person making such an offer of employment a full and accurate copy of the then current restrictions applicable to you.

- d) that any benefit given or deemed to be given by you to the Group under the terms of this paragraph is received and held on trust by the Company for the relevant Group Company. You will enter into appropriate restrictive covenants directly with other Group Companies if asked to do so by the Company.
- e) that your internship with the Company and the compensation paid and/or payable to you by the Company shall be sufficient consideration for the purposes of this clause. You further agree and acknowledge that the limitations as to time and the character or nature placed in this clause are reasonable and fair and will not preclude you from earning a livelihood, nor will they unreasonably impose limitations on your ability to earn a living.
- f) that this offer letter constitutes a valid, legally binding and enforceable obligation on you and this document is not in violation of any applicable law.
- g) that any breach or threat of breach on your part of any one of such obligations and/or undertakings would cause serious harm to the Company or the Group which may then institute any legal recourse against you that is deemed appropriate and/or recourse in damages, without further notice or delay.
- h) that you shall not assign this offer letter or the rights and/or obligations hereunder. The Company may assign its rights and obligations herein in all circumstances without your consent, including in connection with any sale, transfer or disposition of all or substantially all of its business and operations and its assets, in which case the Company's rights and obligations shall vest to the successor.
- i) in addition, you agree and acknowledge that the potential harm to the Company of the non-enforcement of this clause outweighs any potential harm to you and that you have given careful consideration to the restraints imposed upon you by this clause and that you are in full agreement as to their necessity for the reasonable and proper protection of the Company's interests. You expressly acknowledge and agree that each and every restraint imposed by this clause is reasonable with respect to subject matter, time period and geographical area.

- B9. Code of Conduct and Staff Regulations and Affirmation
- B9.1 It is a condition of your continuing internship and it is your obligation that you comply with:
- (a) the Code of Conduct (as amended from time to time or superseded). At the time of acceptance of the offer of internship and on a periodic basis, you will be required to sign an affirmation (or reaffirmation) confirming your understanding and compliance with the provisions of the Code of Conduct; and
 - (b) the Company's other internal policies and procedures and all relevant policies and procedures for the line of business in which you are to undertake work.
- B9.2 The Company shall be entitled at any time to amend the Company's internal policies and procedures (including but not limited to the Code of Conduct), the benefits set out in the Appendices and other staff regulations, as well as to put in place new policies as the Company sees fit. Any such amendments shall be notified in writing to each employee and shall on provision of such notice, become legally binding.
- B9.3 The Company's Human Resources work policies are set out in the me@jpmc website, as amended from time to time. Please take time to familiarise yourself with these policies when you begin your internship.
- B9.4 To the extent that the contents of policies or procedures refer to obligations on the Company, you agree that they are guides only and are not contractual terms, conditions or representations on which you rely.
- B10. Working Hours
- B10.1 Your total working hours (including break(s)) is 40 hours per working week during the tenure of your internship and you should attend office 5 days every working week. Your working hours may be revised at the discretion of the Company.
- B11. Retirement Benefits
- You are not eligible for retirement benefits.
- B12. Contract Execution
- B12.1 You acknowledge and agree that:
- (a) This letter may be delivered in a digital or physical format. Subject to any applicable law, where the letter is provided in a digital format, you acknowledge and agree that it is being executed electronically and that it is enforceable.

- (b) You have read and understood the terms of this letter and have been provided with an opportunity to review and discuss the terms of it with advisors, if you so desire.
- (c) Should any further assurances be required or sought by the Company, you shall in good faith perform such further actions (including executing a physical copy of this letter)

B13. Governing Law and Jurisdiction

This letter and any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with it or its subject matter or formation (including non-contractual disputes or claims) shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of India. You and the Company submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the Mumbai, Maharashtra courts in relation to any dispute arising in connection with your internship and this letter.

APPENDIX C - SYSTEMS MONITORING ACTIVITIES AND CROSS-BORDER TRANSFERS,
PERSONAL ACCOUNT DEALING POLICY, AND CODE OF CONDUCT

Appendix: Systems Monitoring Activities and Cross-Border Transfers:

The following provides a summary of how JPMorgan Chase & Co., its affiliates and its subsidiaries and the entity that employs you, or for which you provide services (collectively, "JPMC"), conducts Systems monitoring. JPMC may conduct monitoring to the extent permitted by applicable law.

JPMC conducts monitoring of JPMC's physical facilities and its equipment and systems (collectively, the "Systems"). System monitoring applies to your JPMC equipment, your personal equipment when accessing the Systems, and the communications, information, and materials conveyed or accessed using the Systems. Monitoring activities may include the monitoring and logging of traffic and usage data of all electronic communications; monitoring of telephone calls to or from JPMC work telephones as permitted by applicable laws and subject to any required notices; monitoring of the contents of electronic communications, files, databases, applications, and internet usage; and logging hours worked and physical presence at JPMC's facilities if applicable. JPMC may at all times monitor, access, retrieve, record and review information obtained from the monitoring activities for various purposes, such as preventing and investigating activities that may violate JPMC's policies and ensuring compliance with legal or regulatory obligations. While conducting monitoring activities, JPMC may obtain and process personal information about you and others that may reside on the Systems.

The monitoring activities (including JPMC's collection and processing of personal or other information) are required for purposes of your employment or work assignment to promote adherence to applicable policies and regulations. Subject to applicable laws and regulations, if you object to this processing, JPMC may prohibit you from using the Systems; terminate offers of employment or work assignment; and, for employees, take disciplinary action against you, up to and including termination of your employment with JPMC.

JPMC may disclose the information it obtains in connection with monitoring activities to JPMC affiliates and to third parties, service providers, regulators, supervisory bodies, law enforcement and other government agencies. Information obtained from the monitoring activities may be used as the basis to take disciplinary actions, up to and including termination or other legal action, for violations of JPMC's policies or applicable laws.

In addition to the monitoring activities discussed above, JPMC may obtain and store other information related to your employment or other working relationship, such as your compensation information, performance information, benefits information and other workplace-related data. JPMC may transfer such information, and the information it obtains in connection with monitoring activities, to countries other than the country in which the information originally was collected, including to the United States.

Understanding Obligations under the Firm's Personal Account Dealing Policy (PAD):

The Personal Account Dealing Policy (Policy) of JPMorgan Chase & Co. (firm or JPMC) is designed to help prevent and detect violations of securities laws and industry conduct standards and to minimize actual or perceived conflicts of interest that could arise due to personal investing activities.

PAD Compliance will notify you if the position you are being offered is considered to be subject to the Policy. You will remain subject for the duration of your time working in a subject group, unless notified otherwise of a change in subject status. Unless otherwise notified, you will continue to be subject to the provisions of the Policy even during leaves of absence from the firm, including, but not limited to, garden leave or medical leave.

You as well as your Connected Persons are subject to the provisions of this Policy and will need to be familiar with the obligations set forth in this policy. Connected Persons includes your spouse, domestic partner or minor children (even if financially independent) as well as anyone to whom you provide significant financial support or for which you, or anyone listed above, has or shares the power, directly or indirectly, to make investment decisions.

Once subject to the Policy, you must disclose and certify your Covered Accounts (which include accounts of your Connected Persons). You will be required to maintain your self-directed Covered Accounts with one of the firm's Approved Brokers and pre-clear all purchases, sales, pledges and gifts (received and given) of publicly traded and privately held financial instruments, unless listed as specifically exempt. Pre-approval confirmations must be received prior to executing the trade or investment. The firm may impose periodic restrictions on personal trading in certain financial securities. These restrictions can apply to all firm subject Workforce Members and their Connected Persons or may be limited to certain groups. Subject Workforce Members and their Connected Persons are not permitted to recommend or transact in the financial instruments of an issuer while in the possession of material non-public information (MNPI) regarding that issuer.

If you are a seasonal or short term employee the following requirements will apply:

JPMorgan Chase requires that seasonal workers refrain from trading in Covered Accounts for the time period that you are employed in a short term training program. Please verify that you will

comply with the following personal trading requirements:

1. For the duration of the short term program I am joining I will not trade in any of my Covered Accounts
2. I understand that the Firm has the right to request account information for any of my Covered Accounts
3. If there is an extenuating circumstance that would compel me to place a trade in my Covered Accounts, I will obtain pre-approval of the trade by the Personal Account Dealing Group and I would be responsible for supplying all confirmations and statements to the Personal Account Dealing Group for that trade

*The term Covered Accounts refers to any securities accounts no matter where they are located and includes, but is not limited to, those accounts that are established, maintained or controlled (either directly or indirectly) by you, your spouse, domestic partner or minor children (even if financially independent), anyone to whom you provide significant financial support, and in which the employee has a direct or indirect financial interest.

Global Personal Trading Policy:

The Personal Account Dealing of JPMorgan Chase & Co. is designed to help prevent and detect violations of securities laws and industry conduct standards and to minimize actual or perceived conflicts of interest that could arise due to personal investing activities. This Policy includes requirements for disclosing Covered Accounts, maintaining certain accounts at one of the firm's Approved Brokers, preclearing trades, and restrictions and prohibitions on certain types of trading activity. This Policy is subject to any applicable local laws and rules and should be read in conjunction with Supplements (regional/LOB) as well as the firm's Code of Conduct.

Conflict of Interests and Outside Interests:

Under JPMorgan Chase & Co.'s (JPMC) Code of Conduct, employees are responsible for avoiding activities or relationships that might affect their objectivity in making decisions as an employee. Employees are not permitted to allow their personal interest to conflict, or appear to conflict, with their JPMC role and responsibilities.

Outside Interests include second jobs, not for profit activities, government positions, and positions with external companies and organizations as a director, officer, advisor, sole proprietor, consultant or owner of any business. Outside Interests may result in an actual or perceived conflict of interest. Where actual or potential conflicts of interest cannot be mitigated, you may be required to discontinue the activity or dissolve your investment.

Employees are required to seek preclearance prior to engaging in Outside Interests or immediately upon joining JPMC. Where preclearance is not required, employee must adhere to all restrictions and conditions outlined in Section 5 and 6 of the Outside Interest Policy.

Conflicts of interests may also arise from: (1) personal and business relationships; (2) the exchange of gifts and business hospitality; (3) political engagement; and (4) personal finances. Employees should avoid activities or relationships that might affect their objectivity in making decisions on behalf of JPMC or undermine their credibility. Employees may never place personal interests ahead of our clients' interests. All potential and actual conflicts must be escalated to your manager for review and mitigation.

Acceptance and Code Affirmation:

Upon signing this letter I accept the terms and conditions described above.

I hereby affirm that I have read, understand, and am in compliance with the JPMorgan Chase ('JPMC') Code of Conduct and all internal JPMC policies that apply to me. I agree, as a condition of my employment, to remain in compliance with the Code of Conduct and all applicable JPMC policies.

I understand that I must conduct myself in a way that is consistent with the Code of Conduct, demonstrating compliance with the principles and intent of the Code of Conduct, and applicable laws and regulations.

I also affirm that I have reported any potential or actual violations of the Code of Conduct, JPMC policies, or laws or regulations applicable to JPMC's business, as required by the Code of Conduct. I understand that failure to do so can result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

I understand that the Code of Conduct may be updated periodically, as necessary, and that the current version is posted on the JPMorgan Chase intranet as well as on its public website.

Independent Auditor Tax Services to Employees of JPMorgan Chase and its Affiliates:

To be in compliance with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (PCAOB) Rule 3523, it is JPMorgan Chase's (JPMC) policy that PricewaterhouseCoopers (PwC) cannot provide any tax services to employees of JPMC or any of its controlled entities (hereafter referred to as JPMC employee). This restriction is regardless of whether the individual is in a financial reporting oversight role or not, and whether PwC is engaged by the individual or by JPMC. PwC is also prohibited from providing any tax services to a spouse of a JPMC employee if the work is related to a joint tax return. Dear Deepika,

Confirming our discussions, we are pleased to extend to you a formal offer of employment at MSCI Services Private Limited (the "Firm"). Those who have had the opportunity to meet with you look forward to your joining the Firm. Your position will be that of an Analyst in the Technology & Data Department.

TOTAL COMPENSATION

MSCI's compensation philosophy is based on the concept of Total Compensation.

Your Total Compensation will consist of a base salary, participation in the discretionary bonus plan as determined by the Firm in its sole discretion and subject to the terms and conditions of the discretionary bonus plan as in force from time to time.

Historically, discretionary year-end bonus awards have been made after the end of the fiscal year to which they relate. It is expressly agreed that a discretionary bonus at any point in time does not create an obligation of, or entitlement to, future year-end bonus payouts by the Firm.

Any discretionary bonus that may be awarded to you in your first year of employment will be pro-rated to reflect the date you commence employment. All payments are subject to applicable withholdings and deductions.

In your first year of employment, your actual Total Cash Compensation will be pro-rated based on your actual length of service as determined by your start date. Your Total Cash Compensation will be determined in INR.

Your CTC (cost to company) consists of your base salary (in the components shown below) plus employer's contribution to Provident Fund and Gratuity accrual (Defined Benefit).

Components	Amount
A. Basic Salary	880,044.00	INR p.a.
B. House Rent Allowance (includes optional Leave Travel Allowance)	413,556.00	INR p.a.
C. Meal Allowance	26,400.00	INR p.a.
D. Base Salary	1,320,000.00	INR p.a.
E. Firm's contribution to Provident Fund	105,805.00	INR p.a.
F. Gratuity accrual (Defined Benefit)	42,110.00	INR p.a.
Cost to Company	1,467,915.00	INR p.a.

Your Basic salary is calculated as 2/3 of your Base salary. House Rent Allowance is calculated as Base salary minus the sum of Basic salary and Meal allowances. All components of base salary will be paid in monthly installments.

Annual Incentive Plan: You will be eligible to participate in MSCI's Annual Incentive Plan (AIP) with a cash bonus ("Bonus") target of INR 66,000 / 5% of your base salary, prorated based on the date you commence employment provided you commence employment with MSCI on or before October 31st 2023. All new hires who commence employment after October 31st will not be eligible to receive an AIP bonus until the following calendar year. Any discretionary bonus payment that may be awarded to you will be prorated to reflect the date you commence employment and will be subject to any tax and social security deductions as the Company considers is required by law.

Payments, if any, under the Annual Incentive Plan are not guarantees or commitments to pay, unless otherwise stated, and are subject to the Firm's performance as well as your individual performance as determined by your manager. From time to time, we review the form and terms of our incentive plans and we reserve the right to amend, change or cancel our plans (or elements thereof) as the Company determines necessary. You will be notified of any such changes by the Company. Any incentive award, including any discretionary bonus award referred to above is also contingent upon satisfactory performance and conduct as assessed by the Company and on you remaining an active employee performing duties on behalf of MSCI at the time of any discretionary bonus payment.

From time to time, we review the form and terms of our incentive plans and we reserve the right to amend, change or cancel our plans (or elements thereof) as the Firm determines necessary. You will be notified of any such changes by the Firm.

BENEFITS

You will be entitled to the following benefits:

- Provident Fund contributions of 12% of your basic salary as shown in the CTC chart above.
- Gratuity and other benefits in accordance with legal requirements and the Firm's policies in effect, and as may be amended from time to time.
- Expenses incurred by you, your spouse and children (up to 21 years) for treatment of an illness, disease or injury while confined to a hospital or nursing home, for any illness, disease or injury which in the normal course would require care and treatment at a hospital or nursing home for a minimum of 24 hours, will be paid for in accordance with the Firm's Group Medclaim program, subject to a total annual limit of Rs. 600,000 per family under family floater scheme or such other limit established from time to time.
- Personal Accident Insurance for a sum which equals three times (or such multiple determined by the Firm from time to time) your annual base salary.
- Life Insurance which, in the event of your death due to any cause whilst an employee of MSCI, pays to your dependents a lump sum benefit amount of three times your annual base salary (subject to successful clearance of medical underwriting if applicable as per the insurance company's guidelines).

Other benefits include annual leave of 23 working days in any calendar year (January 1 to December 31). Please refer to Annexure I for details on other benefits.

Nothing in this letter should be construed as a guarantee of any particular level of benefits or of your participation in any benefit plan. The Firm and its affiliates reserve the right to amend, modify or terminate, in its sole discretion, all benefit and compensation plans in effect from time to time.

MSCI

OBLIGATION TO OBSERVE RULES AND POLICIES

Regular office hours at the Firm are 9:00 am to 6:00 pm. However, the Firm reserves the right from time to time to assign you to work in such shifts as required for business reasons. Additionally, you may be required to work from Firm's office or your home depending on your role and the business needs of the Firm, and in accordance with the Firm's Location of Work Policy, as amended from time to time. Your services are subject to transfer from one establishment to another, from one department to another, from one section to another, in existence as of today and that may come into existence any time in future anywhere in India or abroad.

Please note that as a condition of your employment with the Firm you will be bound by the India Employee Handbook, the MSCI Code of Conduct, and such other policies relating to your employment as may exist, be issued, updated, varied and supplemented by the Firm. In the event of any conflict between these policies and this letter, this letter shall take precedence, unless, the policy has been introduced or modified after this letter was issued. Any violation of the rules contained in the India Employee Handbook, the Code of Conduct or related policies and procedures may subject you to disciplinary action, up to and including dismissal. In addition you will be required to read the Employee Handbook electronically after you commence your employment and will be expected to return an acknowledgement form to Human Resources that you will find on the final page.

In accordance with the Firm's Code of Conduct, you acknowledge that in the course of your employment with the Firm or after termination of your employment, you are not permitted to make any unauthorized use of documents or other information, which are confidential or proprietary information of Firm or its clients or employees. Likewise, you may not bring onto Firm premises any confidential documents/information relating to your prior employer's business. You understand and agree that as a condition of employment, unless you are granted a waiver in writing by the Legal and Compliance Department you may be required, upon the commencement of engagement, to transfer any brokerage/stock accounts that you may have to or control to a designated institution for surveillance and review by the MSCI Legal and Compliance Department.

DATA PRIVACY

The Firm may disclose personal data relating to you to (i) any of its affiliates, subsidiaries and to its parent company; or (ii) any potential purchasers of any of the Firm's business; or (iii) any party to whom the Firm proposes to transfer any of its rights and/or responsibilities under any agreement it may have with you; or (iv) to any other third party, for any of the purposes set out below.

This offer of employment is conditional upon the successful completion of a background investigation, as set out herein below. This background check may be carried out by a third party service provider and therefore, any information that the Firm may need from you would be shared with such third party third party service provider and you confirm that you do not have any objection to the same.

Such personal data may be collected and processed by the Firm and the abovementioned third parties for several purposes as may be determined by the Firm, including but not limited to, administration of employment, wages and benefits, performance assessment, reference to third parties, general administration, any other purpose as may be required by applicable law or for any other legitimate business purpose. The particulars of the same will be communicated to you from time to time.

Phone: +91 22 6784 9129 | +91 22 2793121

PROBATION AND OTHER CONTINGENCIES

Your employment will be probationary for the first 3 months. Either the Firm or you may at any time during the period of probation or at its conclusion terminate your employment, upon fourteen days written notice or payment of fourteen days of base salary in lieu of notice. This probation may be extended for an additional 3 months at the discretion of the management. The relevant notice period in the event of any extension shall be 30 days. Your continued service with the Firm will be confirmed in writing on the successful completion of the probation period.

After the probationary period, either you or the Firm may terminate your employment for any reason with 60 days' notice or payment of 60 days base salary in lieu of notice. The Firm reserves the right to change the above mentioned notice period at any time during your employment and upon its communication you will be required to serve such notice period. The Firm reserves the right to require you, for part or all of the notice of termination period, not to perform any duties and remain away from the Firm's premises, although the Firm will continue to maintain your salary and other contractual benefits for this period. You may not commence or prepare to commence employment with or provide services to any company or other business during this period.

ADDITIONAL STEPS

This offer is contingent upon a number of additional steps in the employment process including, but not limited to:

- Any registration or licensing required by the relevant regulatory authority.
- Appropriate proof of successful completion of your present level of education.
- Successful completion of a background check of your employment history and references.
- Credit and criminal check.
- Appropriate proof of citizenship and/or the appropriate right-to-work documentation. If you require a visa/work permit and do not currently have one, you are responsible to obtain one before you will be permitted to commence work. Please contact local Human Resources in case you require a visa/work permit.

EXECUTION AND CONTRACT FORMATION

This offer, as to its subject matter, contains a complete statement of all agreements between you and the Firm, constitutes the entire understanding between you and the Firm, and supersedes all prior or contemporaneous verbal or written agreements, understandings or communications (including, without limitation, any term sheet or other summary writing relating to your employment). You acknowledge that you have not relied on any assurance or representation not expressly stated in this offer letter. If there is any conflict with the benefit information included in this letter or any verbal representation and the Plan documents or insurance contracts, the Plan documents or insurance documents control.

Your employment is governed by the laws of India. The Parties agree to the exclusive jurisdiction and venue of the civil courts in Mumbai for the resolution of all disputes arising under this contract of employment.

We are looking forward to your joining the firm. We ask that you confirm your acceptance by signing and dating this offer letter in the places designated below and returning this letter to the HR Department, retaining the additional copy for your reference. In the event that we do not receive your acceptance within 5 business days of the date of this letter we will assume that you have declined the position. Accordingly, after that date this offer will lapse and will no longer be capable of acceptance by you. Your signature below confirms that you are not subject to any contractual or other restriction or obligation (including a non-competition agreement) that is inconsistent with you accepting this offer of employment and performing your duties other than what you have already disclosed.

If you have questions regarding the above, please feel free to call Vernon Fernandes in the Human Resources Department at Vernon.Fernandes@msci.com or Sabrina Khan at Sabrina.Khan@msci.com if you have any questions on any of the above.

Sincerely,

For and behalf of MSCI Services Private Limited

QR Systems LLP

- The Employee shall be entitled paid vacation in addition to statutory holidays and additional sick leave in accordance with the Employer's policy in effect from time to time. Vacation in the first and last years will be prorated in relation to the number of days employed in that calendar year.
9. The Employer has the right to amend and supplement human resources policies, other policy manuals, and benefit plans.
 10. Payroll Deductions - The Employer shall withhold from the Employee's remuneration any taxes or any other deductions required under applicable law.
 11. Supplemental Agreements - The Employee shall concurrently enter into the Employer's current "Confidentiality, Non-solicitation and Non-compete agreement" as detailed in APPENDIX I attached hereto, and "Personal Trading, Regulatory Compliance and investment in restricted securities", as detailed in APPENDIX II attached hereto, and shall also enter into any additional agreements with respect to regulatory matters required by any governmental or self regulatory organization having jurisdiction over the operations of the Employer.
 12. Secondment Agreements - During the term of the Agreement, the Employee may be seconded to another entity (the "Secondee Entity"), whether or not affiliated with the Employer. The Employee shall enter into a Secondment Agreement in relation to that secondee and shall execute such undertakings to the Secondee Entity as the Employer may reasonably require, and the Employee will be expected to abide by the rules, regulations and policies of such entity.
 13. Termination of the Agreement (applicable for full time employment)
 - (a) The Employer may terminate the Agreement at any time for the Employee's misconduct, unsatisfactory performance;
 - (b) The Agreement shall terminate immediately upon (i) the Employee's disability that results in the inability to render in material part the duties and responsibilities for an aggregate consecutive period of 3 months or (ii) the Employee's death or (iii) Employees conviction for any serious crime or felony or other crime involving moral turpitude, fraud or willful misrepresentation or (iv) any willful or intentional act of the Employee having effect of injuring the reputation, business or business relationships of the Employer or (v) indulgence in gross negligence or (vi) if the Employee misuses or discloses the Confidentiality Information as defined in Appendix I to any person who is not authorized to receive such information;
 - (c) Termination by Employee - the Employee may terminate the Agreement, by giving written notice to the Employer of 3 months ("Notice Period"). During the Notice Period, the Employee shall be obligated to carry out all obligations and duties as required by the Employer. If the Employee terminates the Employment Agreement within 12 months from the date of joining, the Employee agrees to pay the Employer 1 month of the 'Fixed Pay' salary mentioned in Clause 7 above as reimbursement for employee training and acquisition cost.

The Employer shall have the right to cause such termination to be effective upon receipt of such notice and will be under no obligation to pay to Employee any base salary and other benefits that would be due to Employee during the remaining Notice Period beyond the last day of the Employee with the Employer.

- (d) Termination by Employer – In addition to the foregoing termination provisions, the Employer may terminate the Agreement at will, by giving written notice to the Employee of 2 months, provided that the Employer shall have the right, in lieu of the notice period, to cause such termination to be effective upon issue of such notice and to pay to Employee the fixed base salary and other benefits that would be due to Employee during such notice period.
- 14. The Employee agrees to maintain total confidentiality regarding the terms of this Agreement and not disclose or discuss the same with any other third party including other employees of the Employer. In case of any violation, the Employer may take any action deemed appropriate including termination of this Agreement.
- 15. The Employer shall have the right to set off against any remaining Employer obligation to the Employee, any amounts otherwise due to the Employer from the Employee.
- 16. In the event that any applicable local law requires certain severance payments to be made to the Employee upon termination, the Employee agrees, subject to such applicable law, to waive the Employee's rights to any such severance payments.

18. General Provisions

QR Systems LLP

- (a) The Agreement becomes effective on completion of background checks and medical reports concerning the Employee which the Employer, in its discretion, considers satisfactory.
- (b) The Agreement, in its entirety, including supporting schedules and Appendices, constitute the entire agreement between the Employer and the Employee.
- (c) The invalidity or unenforceability of any provision of the Agreement shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision of the Agreement, which shall remain in full force and effect, nor shall the invalidity or unenforceability of a portion of any provision of the Agreement affect the validity or enforceability of the balance of such provision.
- (d) The Agreement and the Schedules attached hereto and any supplemental agreements and any Secondment Agreements shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of India and the Courts in Mumbai shall have exclusive jurisdiction.
- (e) The Employee shall indemnify the Employer and its representatives and affiliates against all liabilities, actions, costs, losses, claims, damages and/or expenses of whatsoever kind or nature arising from any breach or non-performance by the Employee of any of the representations, undertakings and/or obligations set out in the Agreement.
- (f) No forbearance, indulgence or relaxation or inaction by any Party at any time to require performance of any of the provisions of the Agreement shall in any way affect, diminish or prejudices the right of such Party to require performance of that provision. Any waiver or acquiescence by any Party of any breach of any of the provisions of the Agreement shall not be construed as a waiver or acquiescence of any right under or arising out of the Agreement or of the subsequent breach, or acquiescence to or recognition of rights other than as expressly stipulated in the Agreement.
- (g) No waiver, including partial or conditional waiver, of the provisions of the Agreement will be valid unless the waiver is in writing and signed by both the Parties.
- (h) The Agreement shall not be assigned, directly or indirectly, for any reason whatsoever by the Employee to any third party without the prior written consent of Employer. The Employer shall have a right to assign this Agreement to any person and the Employee agrees to do all such things and acts which would be required to make such assignment legal and valid.

APPENDIX I

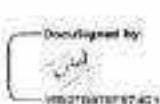

THIS CONFIDENTIALITY, NON-SOLICITATION AND NON-COMPETE AGREEMENT (the "Agreement"), made this 06 August 2022, is entered into by and between QR Systems LLP, having its principal place of business at Awfis, 10th Floor, R City Mall, Ghatkopar (W), Mumbai 400086 (the "Employer") and Rohit Mansingrao Desai having PAN card bearing number FUVPD4826B and address at A-402, Swati Building, Cagan Vihar Complex, Achole Road, near Achole Talav, Nalasopara (East), Taluka-Vasai, District-Palghar, 401209 (the "Employee"). The term "Employer", as used herein, shall include the Employer, its subsidiaries, and its affiliates, as appropriate.

In consideration of the mutual covenants and promises contained herein, and in consideration of the Employee's employment by the Employer, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged by the parties hereto, the parties agree as follows:

Acknowledgments.

The Employee acknowledges that:

- (i) as a result of the Employee's employment by the Employer, the Employee has obtained and will obtain secret, proprietary and confidential information and/or documents and/or data (in whatever form or medium and whether written or oral or visual provided by the Employer or the Employer's customers) directly and/or indirectly concerning the business of the Employer and any other information and/or documents that the Employer designates or identifies as being confidential ("Confidential Information"). Confidential Information includes, but is not limited to business and marketing plans, strategies, models, algorithms, computer programs, enhancements and related documentation, client or potential client information (including client identity and contacts, client lists, client financial or personal information and information about investment managers or advisers serving more than one investor), business relationships (including persons, corporations or other entities performing services on behalf of or otherwise engaged in business transactions with the Employer or its clients (e.g., brokers, attorneys, accountants, etc.)), accounts, financial data, know-how, investment managers, consultants or advisers, processes (quantitative or otherwise), methods of portfolio allocation, systematic risk control and monitoring methods, information with respect to any investments made or to be made by the Employer and any transactions in which the Employer has been, is, or will be engaged, which information has not been made publicly available, financial or other business information with respect to the Employer which has not been made publicly available, financial or other business information of clients or investments of potential clients, or other investments which have not been made publicly available, any information disclosed to the Employer by any third party which the Employer has agreed, or is otherwise obligated, to treat as confidential or proprietary, all databases, customer lists, and any work product, including research on particular companies or industries, created by any employee of the Employer and other forms of information and information relating to the entities the Employer evaluates for investment or makes investments in, including without limitation, business operating plans, financial and operating projections, strategies, and analysis of such entities, and non-public information about Employer's employees and their compensation and assignments. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, one of the Employer's competitive advantages in the marketplace is its ability to combine and integrate publicly available information into specific means of identifying market opportunities, inefficiencies or anomalies as well as into investing or trading strategies. This combination of information is a subset of Confidential Information regardless of whether part or all of the information used by the Employer to create this subset of Confidential Information is itself publicly available.

Mr.

QR Systems LLP

- (ii) the Confidential Information has been developed and created by the Employer at substantial expense and the Confidential Information constitutes valuable proprietary assets and the Employer will suffer substantial damage and irreparable harm which will be difficult to compute if, during the term of employment and thereafter, the Employee should improperly divulge, use, publish or in any other manner reveal or use, directly or indirectly, such Confidential Information in violation of the provisions of this Agreement;
- (iii) the Employer will suffer substantial damage and irreparable harm which will be difficult to compute if, during the term of employment and for twelve (12) months thereafter, the Employee should enter into a Competitive Business (as defined herein) in violation of the provisions of this Agreement.

"Competitive Business" means any business or enterprise, utilizing quantitative, mathematical or forecasting investment models which is engaged either in (a) the sale or trading of securities, bonds or other debt obligations, commodities or currencies (and/or any derivatives relating to any of the foregoing or based on any baskets or indices) on behalf of customers or clients, including both individuals and institutions or (b) the management on a discretionary or systematic basis of the portfolio trading activities of one or more collective investment vehicles.

- (iv) the nature of the Employer's business is such that it could be conducted anywhere in the world and that it is not limited to a geographic scope or region;
- (v) the Employer will suffer substantial damage which will be difficult to compute if, during the term of employment or thereafter, the Employee should solicit except on behalf of Employer or interfere with the Employer's employees, clients or customers;
- (vi) the provisions of this Agreement are reasonable and necessary for the protection of the business of the Employer;
- (vii) that Employee's execution and delivery of this Agreement is a condition of employment with the Employer, and the Employer would not have hired or continued to employ the Employee unless he agreed to be bound by the terms hereof; and
- (viii) the provisions of this Agreement will not preclude the Employee from other gainful employment post the termination of this Agreement.

2. Privacy. The Employee acknowledges that the Employer has a critical business interest in maintaining complete control and access to its various computer systems. In view of this interest, the Employee understands that the Employee will have no right to privacy as to any personal information which the Employee inputs or otherwise causes to become part of such systems. Further, the Employer shall be entitled (in the exercise of its sole discretion) to examine, delete, erase and/or destroy any and all such personal information which the Employee may so input or cause to become a part of the Employer's various computer systems.

3. Confidentiality. The Employee acknowledges and agrees that the unauthorized disclosure or misuse of Confidential Information will cause substantial damage and irreparable harm to the Employer. Therefore, the Employee agrees not to, at any time, either during the term of employment or thereafter, divulge, use, publish or in any other manner reveal, directly or indirectly, to any person, firm or corporation any Confidential Information obtained or learned by the Employee during the course of the Employee's employment with the Employer, whether before or after the date of this Agreement, with regard to the operational, investment, financial, business or other affairs and activities of the Employer and its officers, directors or employees and the entities that make investments in or otherwise have business relationships with the Employer, except: (i) as may be necessary to the performance of the Employee's duties hereunder and (ii) with the Employer's express written consent or (iii) to the extent that any such information is generally known other than as a result of the Employee's breach of any of obligations hereunder, or (iv) where required to be disclosed by court order, subpoena or other government process and in such event, the Employee shall cooperate with the Employer in attempting to keep such information confidential and shall make disclosure only to the extent required by applicable law. In addition, the Employer may be required to sign non-disclosure or confidentiality agreements with third parties in which it contracts that the Employer's employees will not disclose the confidential information of such parties. By executing this Agreement, the Employee acknowledges and agrees that the Employer may rely and will rely on this Agreement for purposes of entering into such other agreements and that Employee shall not use or disclose the confidential information of third parties without written authorization of the third parties or of the Employer. The Employee further acknowledges and agrees that these duties of confidentiality continue for so long as the information remains Confidential Information, and that honouring these confidentiality obligations may require the Employee to refrain from engaging in certain specific activities for competitors that would necessarily place Confidential Information at risk.

4. Non-Solicitation of Investors, Clients and Customers. By executing this Agreement, the Employee acknowledges that he understands that the Employer's ability to operate its business depends upon its ability to attract and retain investors or clients, including third parties who provide investment advice or provide investment services to multiple investors (collectively, "Investors"). The Employee further acknowledges that the proprietary and confidential investment strategies and models developed and used by the Employer can be and are applied to all of the asset classes under management by the Employer and therefore once an Employee is introduced to, becomes familiar with or learns information about a particular model or strategy used by the Employer, that Employee will also know how that model or strategy is applied across the Employer's entire range of asset classes and that such knowledge provides the Employer with a competitive advantage. During the Employee's employment with the Employer and for twelve (12) months thereafter, the Employee shall not, directly or indirectly, solicit, contact, interfere with, or endeavor to entice away from the Employer any of its current or active potential Investors, or any such persons or entities that were investors, customers or clients of the Employer within the twelve (12) month period immediately prior to the Employee's termination of employment.
5. Non-Solicitation of Employees. By executing this Agreement, the Employee acknowledges that he understands that the Employer's ability to operate its businesses depends upon its ability to attract and retain skilled people and that the Employer has and will continue to invest substantial resources in training such employees. Therefore, during the Employee's employment with the Employer and for twelve (12) months thereafter, the Employee shall not, without the prior written permission of the Employer, directly or indirectly solicit, employ or retain, or have cause, or assist any other person or entity to solicit, employ or retain any person who is employed by or is providing services to the Employer.
6. Property Ownership. In the scope of the Employee's employment with the Employer, he may be requested, alone or with others, to create, invent, enhance, and modify intellectual assets and intellectual property rights which relate to the actual or reasonably contemplated business of the Employer or which were created using the property or resources of the Employer. The Employee acknowledges and agrees that all of such intellectual assets and intellectual property rights are intended to be, and shall remain, the sole and exclusive property of the Employer and the Employee shall have and shall make no claims in respect thereto. In addition, the Employee agrees that any and all intellectual assets or intellectual property rights that the Employee invents, discovers, originates, makes, conceives, creates or authors either solely or jointly with others and that is the result of or is substantially derived from Confidential Information shall be the sole and exclusive property of the Employer unless such intellectual assets or intellectual property rights are in the public domain as of the date of such Employee's termination of employment with the Employer. To the extent such intellectual assets are not the property of Employer by operation of law, Employee hereby, without any charge, specifically sells, assigns, transfers and conveys all of his worldwide intellectual property rights in and to all such assets to the Employer together with the right to apply for and hold any intellectual property rights in respect of such intellectual assets, which assignment shall take effect upon the creation of each of the intellectual property rights. If the Employee's employment with the Employer terminates for any reason, he shall promptly and fully disclose all such intellectual assets and intellectual property rights to the Employer, shall provide the Employer with any information that it may reasonably request about such intellectual assets and intellectual property rights and shall execute such agreements, assignments or other instruments as may be reasonably requested by the Employer to reflect such ownership by the Employer and shall fully cooperate with the Employer to protect the business relationships of the Employer and to insure that there will be no unreasonable interference or disruption of such business relationships. Upon termination of the Employee's employment by the Employer for any reason whatsoever (which may be with or without cause), and at any earlier time the Employer so requests, the Employee will deliver to the custody of the person designated by the Employer all originals and copies of such documents and other property of the Employer in the Employee's possession, under the Employee's control or to which the Employee may have access and no copies or other record of any intellectual assets may be retained by the Employee except with the prior written consent of the Employer. The Employee shall only use the intellectual property rights and the intellectual assets to perform his obligations during the employment and shall not disclose any intellectual property rights or intellectual assets to any third party without the express prior written consent of the Employer.

For the purpose of the Agreement "intellectual property rights" shall mean copyright, know-how, confidential information, database rights and rights in trademarks and designs (whether registered or unregistered), applications for registration and the right to apply for registration, for any of the same, and all other intellectual property rights and equivalent or similar forms of protection existing anywhere in the world and "intellectual assets" shall mean all documents, software, photographic or graphic works of any type, and other materials in any medium or format which are created by or on behalf of the Employee in the course of the employment of the Employer and which are protected by or relates to intellectual property rights.

7. Representation. The Employee represents and warrants to the Employer, and the Employee acknowledges that the Employer has relied on such representations and warranties in employing the Employee, that neither the Employee's duties as an employee of the Employer nor his performance of this Agreement will breach any other agreement to which the Employee is a party, including without limitation, any agreement limiting the use or disclosure of any information acquired by the Employee prior to his employment by the Employer. In addition, the Employee represents and warrants and acknowledges that the Employer has relied on such representations and warranties in employing the Employee, and that he has not entered into, and will not enter into, any agreement, either oral or written, in conflict herewith. In the course of performing the Employee's work for the Employer, he will not disclose or make use of any information, documents or materials which he is under any obligation to any other party to maintain in confidence. Employee has listed on Schedule A hereto any intellectual assets which he claims to have developed an ownership interest in prior to the time that he joined the Employer. The Employee further agrees that during the period of employment with the Employer he will not, without the Employer's express written consent, engage in any employment or business activity other than for the Employer.

8. Non-Disparagement. The Employee acknowledges and agrees that he will not defame or publicly criticize the services, business, integrity, veracity or personal or professional reputation of the Employer or any of its officers, directors, partners, employees, affiliates, or agents thereof in either a professional or personal manner either during his employment with the Employer or thereafter. He shall not represent himself as being directly or indirectly employed by or in any way connected with or interested in the business of the Employer on the termination of his employment with the Employer.
9. Enforcement. If the Employee commits a breach, or threatens to commit a breach, of any of the provisions of this Agreement, the Employer shall have the right and remedy to have the provisions specifically enforced by any court having jurisdiction, it being acknowledged and agreed by the Employee that the services being rendered hereunder to the Employer are of a special, unique and extraordinary character and that any such breach or threatened breach will cause irreparable injury to the Employer and that money damages will not provide an adequate remedy to the Employer. Such right and remedy shall be in addition to, and not in lieu of, any other rights and remedies available to the Employer at law or in equity. Accordingly, each of the Employee and the Employer consents to the issuance of an injunction, whether preliminary or permanent, consistent with the terms of this Agreement.
10. If, at any time, the provisions of this Agreement shall be determined to be invalid or unenforceable under any applicable law, by reason of being vague or unreasonable as to area, duration or scope of activity, this Agreement shall be considered divisible and shall become and be immediately amended to only such area, duration and scope of activity as shall be determined to be reasonable and enforceable by the court or other body having jurisdiction over the matter and the Employee and the Employer agree that this Agreement as so amended shall be valid and binding as though any invalid or unenforceable provision had not been included herein.
11. Jurisdiction. Any action brought by any party to this Agreement to enforce this agreement shall be brought and maintained in the Courts in Mumbai which shall have exclusive jurisdiction.
12. Miscellaneous.
 - (a) Upon its execution, this Agreement shall have binding and contractual effect upon the Employee and his successors and assigns, and shall inure to the benefit of, and be enforceable by, the Employer and its successors and assigns. This Agreement shall survive the termination of the Employee's employment with the Employer and shall continue to be fully binding on the Employee and enforceable by the Employer after such termination.
 - (b) Nothing in this Agreement shall confer any right with respect to continuation of the Employee's employment with the Employer, nor shall this Agreement be construed to create any contract of employment, express or implied, and the Employer shall have the right to terminate the Employee's employment at any time and for any reason or no reason, with or without cause.
 - (c) This Agreement sets forth the entire agreement of the parties hereto in respect of the subject matter contained herein and supersedes all prior agreements, promises, covenants, arrangements, communications, representations or warranties, whether oral or written, by any officer, employee or representative of any party hereto in respect of such subject matter.

provided, however, that any prior confidentiality agreement or assignment of intellectual assets remain in full force. No provisions of this Agreement may be amended, modified, or waived unless such amendment or modification is agreed to in writing signed by the Employee and by a duly authorized officer of the Employer, and such waiver is set forth in writing and signed by the party to be charged. No waiver by either party hereto at any time of any breach by the other party hereto of any condition or provision of this Agreement to be performed by such other party shall be deemed a waiver of similar or dissimilar provisions or conditions at the same or at any prior or subsequent time.

- (d) This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original but all of which together will constitute one and the same instrument.
- (e) The invalidity or unenforceability of any provision or provisions of this Agreement shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision of this Agreement, which shall remain in full force and effect.
- (f) For the purposes of this Agreement, notices, demands and all other communications provided for in this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly given when delivered either personally or by registered mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid, addressed as set forth above or to such other address as any party may have furnished to the others in writing in accordance herewith, except that notices of change of address shall be effective only upon receipt.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Employer and the Employee have executed this Agreement as of the day and year first above written and this Agreement shall become effective as of such date.

APPENDIX II

PERSONAL TRADING, REGULATORY COMPLIANCE AND INVESTMENT IN RESTRICTED SECURITIES

This 'Personal Trading, Regulatory Compliance and Investment in Restricted Securities' (referred to as Personal Trading Policies and Procedures) have been agreed and signed by the Employee pursuant to Clause 13 of the employment agreement dated 06 August 2022 ("Agreement") entered into between the Employer and the Employee. All capitalized terms used in this Personal Trading Policies and Procedures and not defined shall have the meaning set out in the Agreement.

The Employee agrees to adhere to Personal Trading Policies and Procedures that will be established by the Employer and modified from time to time. The policy may include, but not be limited to, obtaining prior approvals for personal trading, submission of trading account statements to the Employer for compliance and any other policies and procedures that may be required to comply with any laws, rules, regulations and orders of any governmental agency or body or other self-regulatory organization having authority to regulate or oversee the Employer.

The Employee agrees to take any action reasonably requested by the Employer to comply with any laws, rules, regulations and orders of any governmental agency or body or other self-regulatory organization having authority to regulate or oversee the Employer, and without limiting the foregoing, the Employee agrees to comply with any such laws, rules, regulations and orders directly applicable to the Employee and to be eligible to obtain and retain such licenses and permits as may be necessary or appropriate to enable the Employee to perform the services contemplated by the Employer as per this agreement.

The Employer will periodically release to its Employees a list of restricted securities. The Employee acknowledges that the purchase or sale of such restricted securities may subject the Employee and the Employer to criminal and civil liability, and even if it does not, it may create an impression of impropriety that could damage the reputation of the Employer. The Employee further acknowledges that during the employment and for a period of one year thereafter, the Employee or any members of his household, will not, either directly or indirectly through any third-party nominee, corporation, partnership or other entity, purchase or sell securities on the restricted securities list.

THE EMPLOYEE ACKNOWLEDGES THAT HE HAS CAREFULLY READ THIS AGREEMENT AND HAS HAD THE OPPORTUNITY TO REVIEW ITS PROVISIONS WITH ANY ADVISORS AS HE CONSIDERED NECESSARY, THAT THE EMPLOYEE UNDERSTANDS THIS AGREEMENT'S CONTENTS AND THAT THE EMPLOYEE HAS ENTERED INTO THE AGREEMENT VOLUNTARILY AND NOT IN RELIANCE ON ANY PROMISES OR REPRESENTATIONS BY THE COMPANY OTHER THAN THOSE CONTAINED IN THIS AGREEMENT ITSELF AND SIGNIFIES SUCH UNDERSTANDING AND AGREEMENT BY SIGNING ON THE FOLLOWING PAGE.

I FURTHER ACKNOWLEDGE THAT I HAVE BEEN GIVEN THE OPPORTUNITY TO DISCUSS THIS AGREEMENT WITH MY PRIVATE LEGAL COUNSEL AND HAVE AVAILED MYSELF OF THAT OPPORTUNITY TO THE EXTENT I WISH TO DO SO.

Yugandhar & Wadhwa

January 4, 2021

Dear Yugandhar,

Internship Letter ("Agreement")

We are pleased to offer you a position as a Student Intern with the Department of BNP Paribas India Solutions Pvt. Ltd ("BNPPI") in India on the terms and conditions set out in this Agreement.

For the purposes of this Agreement, an "affiliate" shall include any subsidiary or holding company of BNP Paribas.

1 Period of Internship

The term of your internship will be for a period of 5 Months, commencing on January 06, 2021 and ending on June 05, 2021. For the avoidance of doubt, the terms and conditions of internship set out herein will be effective from the date you commence your internship with BNPPI.

2 Internship Allowance

2.1 You will receive an internship allowance of INR 50,000 (less applicable deductions) per calendar month (pro-rated for any incomplete month of internship). You acknowledge and agree that you will not receive any other benefit (including in kind) from BNPPI.

2.2 You may be permitted at the discretion of BNPPI to be absent from your internship for urgent personal reasons for a period not exceeding 10 working days, and our deduction from your internship allowance will be made provided you have obtained prior written permission from BNPPI for such absence. For the avoidance of doubt, deduction from your internship allowance will be made in respect of any unauthorized absence.

3 Place of Internship

Your place of internship will be at our office in Mumbai or such other location(s) within India as BNPPI may require from time to time. During the course of your internship with BNPPI, you may be assigned to any current or future division or department of BNPPI or its affiliate. You may also be required to travel within India or overseas at BNPPI's sole request from time to time.

4 Hours of Internship

4.1 Your core internship hours are from 9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m., Monday to Friday (including half an hour lunch break). Your normal rest day will be Sunday (or such other day scheduled as a rest day). Saturday will normally be a contractual day off (unless an alternative contractual day off is scheduled). BNPPI reserves the right to adjust the internship hours at its discretion.

4.2 From time to time you may be required to perform your internship duties outside the aforementioned core hours in order to meet our business needs and your individual objectives. You acknowledge and agree that you will not receive additional payment for any internship duties you perform outside of the aforementioned core hours.

5. Confidentiality Obligations

5.1 At any time during your internship with BNPP, and after termination of your internship with BNPP, you must not, without the prior written consent of BNPP, disclose or make use of any confidential information (as defined below) relating to or belonging to BNPP or any of its affiliates, or their customers or clients.

"Confidential Information" means details of customers and their requirements, details of suppliers and their terms of business, the prices charged to and terms of business with customers, marketing plans and sales forecasts, financial information, results and forecasts (to the extent that these are included in published audited accounts), any proposals relating to the acquisition or disposal of a company or business or any part thereof or to any proposed expansion or contraction of activities, details of employees and officers and of the remuneration and other benefits paid to them, information relating to research activities, formulae and product lines, know how, any information which you are told is confidential and any information which has been given to BNPP or any of its affiliates in confidence by customers, suppliers or other persons.

5.2 All notes, memoranda, records, lists of customers and suppliers and employees, correspondence, documents, computer and other discs and tapes, data listings, codes, designs and drawings, and other documents and material whatsoever (whether made or created by you or otherwise) relating to the business of BNPP or any of its affiliates, and any copies of the same:

- Shall be and remain the property of BNPP or the relevant affiliate, and
- Shall be returned to BNPP or the relevant affiliate on demand and in any event upon termination of your internship.

5.3 All developments, productions, written work, inventions and improvements of inventions, whether patentable or not, made by you or to which you would have contributed in the course of your internship, and all industrial and intellectual property rights and copyrights made by you or to which you would have contributed in the course of your internship shall be and remain the exclusive property of BNPP or the relevant affiliate, and to the extent necessary you assign any potential rights relating thereto to BNPP. This includes without limitation all research and research products, "know how" developed in whatever form and systems developments.

6. Restrictions on Intern

6.1 During your internship with BNPP and for a period of 6 months after the termination of your internship with BNPP, you must not, without the prior written consent of BNPP, directly or indirectly and whether on your own behalf or in conjunction with or on behalf of any other person:

- solicit, engage, or otherwise endeavour to entice away any employees or agents of BNPP or any of its affiliates, or induce or persuade any such persons to cease working for, or representing, or doing business with BNPP or any of its affiliates,
- canvass, solicit, contact or approach any BNPP's or any of its affiliates' clients, customers, suppliers or agents with whom or which you had dealings in the course of your internship with BNPP during the period of 12 months immediately preceding the date of termination of your internship, or have any business dealings with any such clients, customers, suppliers or agents.

6.2 You agree that the restrictions contained in clause 6.1 above are reasonable and necessary for the protection of the legitimate interests of BNPP and its affiliates, however, in the event that any such restrictions are held to be void but would be valid if part of their wording were deleted or the period of application reduced or the geographical scope narrowed, such restriction shall apply with such modification as may be necessary to make it valid or effective.

6.3 The restrictions set out in clause 6 shall remain in full force and effect and survive the termination of this Agreement for any reason whatsoever.

7. Termination

- 7.1 BNPP may terminate this Agreement by giving 15 days' prior written notice or payment in lieu of 15 days' notice to you.
- 7.2 You may terminate this Agreement by giving 15 days' prior written notice to BNPP. In the event of your resignation, BNPP may terminate your internship immediately by making a payment in lieu of the remaining notice period.
- 7.3 Nothing in this Agreement shall otherwise limit either party's right to terminate this Agreement with or without notice in accordance with applicable law.

8. Other Conditions

- 8.1 You acknowledge and agree that during your internship with BNPP:

- (a) You must not (save with the prior written consent of BNPP) directly or indirectly, and whether on your own behalf or in conjunction with or on behalf of any other person, be employed, engaged, concerned or interested in any other business or occupation, whether within India or elsewhere; and
- (b) You must not act in conflict with BNPP's best interests or your obligations to BNPP. If you become aware of any actual or potential conflict of interest, you must immediately disclose such conflict of interest to BNPP.

- 8.2 You acknowledge and agree that you shall be wholly and solely responsible for fulfilling all your tax obligations, including without limitation declaration and payment of all taxes arising from your professional and personal income, wherever and whenever they arise.

- 8.3 BNPP reserves the right to vary any terms and conditions of your internship from time to time, to the extent permitted under applicable laws. You are required to comply with the Code of Conduct, compliance policies, and any other applicable policies, procedures and guidelines as issued and/or amended by BNPP from time to time. Application of such policies, procedures and guidelines is at BNPP's discretion, and BNPP reserves the right to change, amend, supplement, withdraw or discontinue its policies, procedures and guidelines at its discretion in accordance with applicable laws. You are responsible for keeping yourself up-to-date with the latest version of these policies, procedures and guidelines.

9. Data Privacy

You consent to BNPP and any of its affiliates holding and processing the data it collects in relation to you in the course of your internship, for the purpose of BNPP's administration and management of its staff and its business and for compliance with applicable laws, regulations and procedures, and to the transfer, storage and processing of such data in and outside India.

Please refer to BNPP's Privacy Policy Statement & Personal Information Collection Statement for further details relating to data privacy.

10. Third Party Rights

No one other than a party to this Agreement shall have any right to enforce any of its terms.

Husain Chellawala

By Mail

12

Dear Husain,

We are pleased to extend to you a formal offer to join ISS Services Pvt Ltd (the Firm) as an Intern in Development team in Mumbai. We are pleased to meet you and are excited about the prospect of working with you.

You will receive a monthly stipend of INR 30,000 payable at the end of each month. All amounts received by you will be subject to tax deduction at source, if applicable under the provisions of the Income-tax Act, 1961 and the Rules made thereunder.

Your internship will commence on January 4, 2023, and shall continue for a period of six months till July 4, 2023, or earlier, as per the discretion of the Firm. Your start date with the Firm will be January 4, 2023.

The Firm's normal hours of work are from 9:00 am to 6:00 pm from Monday to Friday. During your internship, you are expected to adhere to such timings. Further, you are entitled to 7 days of leave (paid & all-inclusive for any reason - vacation, sick etc.), apart from the public holidays (as per Firm's holiday list) and weekly holidays, as per Firm's policy and applicable laws, during your six months internship period.

Please note that as a condition of your participation in the program you will be bound by the Firm's Code of Conduct and other relevant policies as may be issued, updated, varied and supplemented by the Firm from time to time. Any violation of the Code of Conduct and/or any related policies and procedures may subject you to disciplinary action.

In accordance with the Firm's Code of Conduct, you acknowledge that in the course of the internship and following its termination, you are not permitted to make any unauthorized disclosure or use of documents or other information, which are confidential or proprietary information of another individual or the Firm and which came into your possession during the course of your internship period. Likewise you may not bring onto the Firm's premises any confidential documents relating to any prior employers' business. Upon termination of your engagement, you will immediately surrender to the Firm, all files, books, magazines, reports, documents, manuals, and any other knowledge databases (including copies thereof) entrusted to you in the course of your internship.

Your acceptance of this position implies a commitment on your part to stay with the Firm for a six months period. However, while an intern will normally complete this program, please remember that this is not a guaranteed term of employment and either you or the Firm may terminate this relationship at any time for any reason. The notice period for the termination of service is 7 days.

This offer is governed by the laws of India and is contingent upon a number of additional steps in the engagement process including but not limited to showing a proof of citizenship or obtaining appropriate right to work documentation.

Nothing contained in this letter or any correspondence between the Firm and you shall deem to imply that you are entitled to employment with the Firm or any affiliate thereof. The Firm, at its sole discretion, may offer you employment subject to your satisfactory performance showcased during the internship period of six months and Firm's commercial requirement.

We know you will find the business to be both challenging and exciting and look forward to seeing you on board. If you have any questions regarding our offer or the Firm more generally, please feel free to contact us.

We ask you to confirm your acceptance by signing and dating this offer letter. A copy of the letter is provided for your records.

Snehal Ashok Gadge
 Sardar Patel Institute of Technology
 Mumbai - 400 058

Dear Snehal,

Congratulations on receiving our offer of internship with Nomura Services India Private Limited ("the firm") in Corporate Technology Services division. We seek individuals with a distinguished record of achievement, superior leadership skills and commitment to excellence. Throughout our meetings, you have demonstrated these qualities, and we are confident that you will be a strong contributor to our firm.

For the avoidance of doubt, this is a volunteer work placement and you shall not have any employment relationship with the firm. Please understand that the terms and conditions of your internship are governed by the standard firm policies. Among other stipulations, this offer of internship is contingent upon the successful completion of reference checks and you satisfactorily meeting all pre-internship requirements and producing identification to verify your identity.

The firm will provide you with a stipend of INR 50,000 per month, less applicable tax withholdings, as soon as practicable following your internship start date. You will not be entitled to this payment if you fail to commence internship with the firm on the anticipated start date.

This offer of internship is based on your commitment to work exclusively for Nomura for a minimum 25 weeks period beginning on 09 January 2023. It is important that you work the entire period so that we may involve you in a variety of assignments and properly evaluate your potential contribution to the firm. If for any reason you are unable to commit to the 25 weeks period, please notify us before signing this letter.

You shall be eligible to take 1.5 days of leave in a calendar month applicable cumulatively for the term of your internship, together with relevant public holidays, subject to prior written approvals from your reporting manager.

You will be eligible for additional study leave subject to prior written approvals from the firm. You will be required to resume your internship after the completion of your study leave. If at any point in time you exceed the specified days of leaves during your internship then you will be required to put in additional days of work to complete the above mentioned months of internship.

All developments, productions, written work, inventions and improvements of inventions, whether patentable or not, made by you or to which you would have contributed in the course of your internship, and all industrial and intellectual property rights and copyrights made by you or to which you would have contributed in the course of your internship will be and remain the exclusive property of the firm and to the extent necessary you assign any potential rights relating thereto to the firm. This includes but is not limited to all research and research products, firm templates, training materials and presentations, "know-how" developed in spreadsheets and systems developments.

For the purpose of your internship, you may be required to process Personal Information. "Personal Information" means information concerning a living person and includes the full name, date of birth and any other description that can be used to identify a particular person. You agree not to disclose any Personal Information to any third party or agent who does not need to have access to the same in order for you to perform your work as an intern or use Personal Information for any other purpose other than your internship without the firm's prior consent. You will take all necessary measures to protect any Personal Data processed by you against unauthorized or unlawful processing, accidental loss, leakage or destruction and notify the firm immediately if a leak, loss or abuse of Personal Information or any such breach is discovered by you. You shall hold harmless and indemnify the firm against any loss suffered by it as a result of any breach by you of the provisions of this clause.

You will be eligible for medical insurance coverage for self upto INR 300,000/- per year.

The firm may procure commercial general liability insurance or such other insurance cover as it may require in connection with the internship. You hereby agree that if for any reason you receive any payments by way of compensation or costs, or in any other manner under the relevant insurance policy, you shall promptly repay/refund such amounts to the firm in such manner as may be prescribed by the firm. You shall not without the prior consent in writing from the firm make any admission, offer, promise or payment in connection with any claim against you by any third party in connection with the insurance procured by the firm and the firm if it so desires, shall be entitled to take over and conduct in the name of the firm the defense or settlement of any claim.

You agree to indemnify the firm, its officers and its affiliates from and against any claim, action or damages arising out of your work and/or a breach of the terms of this letter.

The firm may terminate this internship at any time (without cause, reason and penalty), upon 7 days prior notice ("Notice Period"). Notwithstanding the said Notice Period, the firm may terminate your internship immediately upon occurrence of any of the following events: (a) If the firm deems your performance to be unsatisfactory or not in accordance with these terms and conditions; (b) If you fail to clear background check as carried out by the Firm; (c) If you fail to satisfy any of the terms and conditions of this letter; and (d) If you breach any of the firm's policies, any obligations relating to confidentiality, intellectual property. In an event you're unable to intern during the Notice Period while the firm requires you to do so, then you shall be liable to pay to the firm an amount equivalent to your stipend for the said period.

The terms and conditions of this letter of internship shall be governed and interpreted according to the laws of India. Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or in connection with this letter of internship shall be resolved by binding, final arbitration in Mumbai, pursuant to the Rules of Arbitration of the International Chamber of Commerce. Dear Gaurav,

Confirming our discussions, we are pleased to extend to you a formal offer of employment at MSCI Services Private Limited (the "Firm") on a Fixed Term Contract for 6 months effective 9th January 2023. Those who have had the opportunity to meet with you look forward to your joining the Firm. Your position will be that of an Analyst in the Tech implementation.

TOTAL COMPENSATION

MSCI's compensation philosophy is based on the concept of Total Compensation.

Your Total Compensation will consist of a base salary, participation in the discretionary bonus plan as determined by the Firm in its sole discretion and subject to the terms and conditions of the discretionary bonus plan as in force from time to time.

Historically, discretionary year-end bonus awards have been made after the end of the fiscal year to which they relate. It is expressly agreed that a discretionary bonus at any point in time does not create an obligation of, or entitlement to, future year-end bonus pay-outs by the Firm.

Any discretionary bonus that may be awarded to you in your first year of employment will be prorated to reflect the date you commence employment. All payments are subject to applicable withholdings and deductions.

In your first year of employment, your actual Total Cash Compensation will be pro-rated based on your actual length of service as determined by your start date. Your Total Cash Compensation will be determined in INR.

Your CTC (cost to company) consists of your base salary (in the components shown below) plus employer's contribution to Provident Fund and Gratuity accrual (Defined Benefit).

Components	Amount
A. Basic Salary	293,348.00	INR p.a.
B. House Rent Allowance (includes optional Leave Travel Allowance)	120,252.00	INR p.a.
C. Meal Allowance	26,400.00	INR p.a.
D. Base Salary	440,000.00	INR p.a.
E. Firm's contribution to Provident Fund	35,202.00	INR p.a.
F. Gratuity accrual (Defined Benefit)	14,103.00	INR p.a.
Cost to Company	489,305.00	INR p.a.

Your Basic salary is calculated as 2/3 of your Base salary. House Rent Allowance is calculated as Base salary minus the sum of Basic salary, Conveyance, Medical and Meal allowances. All components of base salary will be paid in monthly installments.

Annual Incentive Plan: You will be eligible to participate in MSCI's Annual Incentive Plan (AIP) with a cash bonus ("Bonus") target of INR 22,000 / \times Bonus_Percentage $\%$ of your base salary, prorated based on the date you commence employment provided you commence employment with MSCI on or before October 31st \times Year_of_Joining $\%$. All new hires who commence employment after October 31st will not be eligible to receive an AIP bonus until the following calendar year. Any discretionary bonus payment that may be awarded to you will be prorated to reflect the date you commence employment and will be subject to any tax and social security deductions as the Company considers is required by law.

Payments, if any, under the Annual Incentive Plan are not guarantees or commitments to pay, unless otherwise stated, and are subject to the Firm's performance as well as your individual performance as determined by your manager. From time to time, we review the form and terms of our incentive plans and we reserve the right to amend, change or cancel our plans (or elements thereof) as the Company determines necessary. You will be notified of any such changes by the Company. Any incentive award, including any discretionary bonus award referred to above is also contingent upon satisfactory performance and conduct as assessed by the Company and on you remaining an active employee performing duties on behalf of MSCI at the time of any discretionary bonus payment.

From time to time, we review the form and terms of our incentive plans and we reserve the right to amend, change or cancel our plans (or elements thereof) as the Firm determines necessary. You will be notified of any such changes by the Firm.

BENEFITS

You will be entitled to the following benefits:

- Provident Fund contributions of 12% of your basic salary, as shown in the CTC chart above.
- Gratuity and other benefits in accordance with legal requirements and the Firm's policies in effect, and as may be amended from time to time.
- Expenses incurred by you, your spouse and children (up to 21 years) for treatment of an illness, disease or injury while confined to a hospital or nursing home, for any illness, disease or injury which in the normal course would require care and treatment at a hospital or nursing home for a minimum of 24 hours, will be paid for in accordance with the Firm's Group Mediclaim program, subject to a total annual limit of Rs. 600,000 per family under family floater scheme or such other limit established from time to time.
- Personal Accident Insurance for a sum which equals three times (or such multiple determined by the Firm from time to time) your annual base salary.
- Life insurance which, in the event of your death due to any cause whilst an employee of MSCI, pays to your dependents a lump sum benefit amount of three times your annual base salary (subject to successful clearance of medical underwriting if applicable as per the insurance company's guidelines).

Other benefits include annual leave of 23 working days in any calendar year (January 1 to December 31). Please refer to Annexure II for details on other benefits.

Nothing in this letter should be construed as a guarantee of any particular level of benefits or of your participation in any benefit plan. The Firm and its affiliates reserve the right to amend, modify or terminate, in its sole discretion, all benefit and compensation plans in effect from time to time.

OBLIGATION TO OBSERVE RULES AND POLICIES

Regulated office hours at the Firm are 9:00 am to 6:00 pm. However, the Firm reserves its right from time to time to require you to work in such shifts as required for business reasons. Additionally, you may be required to work from the office or your home depending on your role and the business needs of the firm; and in accordance with the Firm's Code of Work Policy, as amended from time to time. Your services are subject to transfer from one establishment to another, from one department to another, from one section to another, in existence as of today and that may come into existence any time in future anywhere in India or abroad.

Please note that as a condition of your employment with the Firm you will be bound by the India Employee Handbook, the KSA Code of Conduct, and such other policies relating to your employment as may exist, be issued, updated, varied and supplemented by the firm. In the event of any conflict between those policies and this letter, this letter shall take precedence unless the policy has been introduced or modified after this letter was issued. Any violation of the rules contained in the India Employee Handbook, the Code of Conduct or related policies and procedures may subject you to disciplinary action, up to and including dismissal. In addition, you will be required to read the Employee Handbook electronically after you commence your employment and will be expected to return an acknowledgement form to Human Resources that you will find on that final page.

In accordance with the Firm's Code of Conduct, you acknowledge that in the course of your employment with the Firm or after termination of your employment, you are not permitted to make any unauthorized use of documents or other information, which are confidential or proprietary information of Firm or its clients or employees. Likewise, you may not bring onto Firm premises any confidential documents/information relating to your prior employers' business. You understand and agree that as a condition of employment, unless you are granted a waiver in writing by the Legal and Compliance Department, you may be required upon the commencement of employment, to transfer any brokerage/units/other accounts that you may have influence or control to a designated institution for surveillance and review by the M&I Legal and Compliance Department.

DATA PRIVACY

The Firm may disclose personal data relating to you to (i) any of its affiliates, subsidiaries and to its parent company, or (ii) any potential purchasers of any of the Firm's business; or (iii) any party to whom the Firm proposes to transfer any of its rights and/or responsibilities under any agreement it may have with you, or (iv) to any other third party, for any of the purposes set out below:

This offer of employment is conditional upon the successful completion of a background investigation, as set out herein below. This background check may be carried out by a third party service provider and therefore, any information that the Firm may need from you would be shared with such third party third party service provider and you confirm that you do not have any objection to the same.

Such personal data may be collected and processed by the Firm and the above-mentioned third parties for several purposes as may be determined by the Firm, including but not limited to, administration of employment, wages and benefits, performance assessment, reference to third parties, general administration, any other purpose as may be required by applicable law or for any other legitimate business purpose. The particulars of the same will be communicated to you from time to time.

ADDITIONAL STEPS

This offer is contingent upon a number of additional steps in the employment process including, but not limited to:

- Any registration or licensing required by the relevant regulatory authority.
- Appropriate proof of successful completion of your present level of education.
- Successful completion of a background check of your employment history and references.
- Credit and criminal check.
- Appropriate proof of citizenship and/or the appropriate right-to-work documentation. If you require a visa/work permit and do not currently have one, you are responsible to obtain one before you will be permitted to commence work. Please contact local Human Resources in case you require a visa/work permit.

EXECUTION AND CONTRACT FORMATION

This offer, as to its subject matter, contains a complete statement of all agreements between you and the Firm, constitutes the entire understanding between you and the Firm, and supersedes all prior or contemporaneous verbal or written agreements, understandings or communications (including, without limitation, any term sheet or other summary writing relating to your employment). You acknowledge that you have not relied on any assurance or representation not expressly stated in this offer letter. If there is any conflict with the benefit information included in this letter or any verbal representation and the Plan documents or insurance contracts, the Plan documents or insurance documents control.

Your employment is governed by the laws of India. The Parties agree to the exclusive jurisdiction and venue of the civil courts in Mumbai for the resolution of all disputes arising under this contract of employment.

We are looking forward to your joining the Firm. We ask that you confirm your acceptance by signing and dating this offer letter in the places designated below and returning this letter to the HR Department, retaining the additional copy for your reference. In the event that we do not receive your acceptance within 5 business days of the date of this letter we will assume that you have declined the position. Accordingly, on that date this offer will lapse and will no longer be capable of acceptance by you. Your signature below confirms that you are not subject to any contractual or other restriction or obligation (including a non-competition agreement) that is inconsistent with you accepting this offer of employment and performing your duties other than what you have already disclosed.

I. Statement of purpose

This MSCI Employee Trading Policy (the "Policy") aims to prevent the appearance, and reality, of legal, business and ethical conflicts of interest, and to guard against the potential misuse of confidential information.

It is essential to you, as well as to the reputation and success of MSCI Inc. ("MSCI" or "the Firm"), that you understand this Policy and strictly adhere to it. This Policy supplements, but does not replace, the requirements set forth in the MSCI Code of Conduct, including any region-specific or other applicable supplements to the Code of Conduct. To the extent there is any conflict between this Policy and any other Firm policies or procedures that are applicable to you in each case you are subject to the most restrictive policies and procedures.

The Firm encourages long term investing by employees and strongly discourages short term and speculative trading. You may not engage in personal trading on a scale or of a kind that could distract you from your business responsibilities.

In order to engage in approved trading under this Policy, you must:

- trade only permitted products and securities;
- obtain any required approvals;
- make all required disclosures;
- refrain from trading any securities on a Restricted List;
- refrain from trading during any applicable Trading Blackout Period; and
- comply with applicable Holding Periods.

MSCI expects its employees to recognize and comply with the spirit of this Policy in addition to literal compliance with its terms. Therefore, you must also:

- avoid conduct that may give rise to an appearance of impropriety or of a conflict of interest; and
- never trade on the basis of material, non-public information.

If you have any questions about this Policy's meaning or application, please contact the MSCI Legal and Compliance Department.

II. Who is subject to the policy?

The Firm has implemented a Information Wall, or information barrier, around personnel who are involved in (or who have systems or information access relating to) the design, construction or maintenance of the MSCI Equity Indices. Such personnel are commonly referred to as being "Inside the Wall" or "ITW". All other personnel are commonly referred to as being "Outside the Wall" or "OTW". The Information Wall consists of physical separation as well as policies and procedures designed to regulate the flow of ITW information.

This Policy applies to all MSCI personnel (excluding ESG) who are Outside the Wall of the MSCI Equity Index business.

This Policy applies to all of your personal accounts as well as all other accounts over which you could be expected to be able to exercise influence or control (whether or not you actually have such influence or control). For example, such accounts include but are not limited to:

- all accounts of your spouse or domestic partner;
- all accounts of your, your spouse's or your domestic partner's children or relatives who reside in the same household with you or to whom you or your spouse or domestic partner contribute substantial support;
- all trust accounts for which you act as trustee or which you otherwise guide or influence;
- all arrangements similar to trust accounts that benefit you directly or indirectly; and
- all corporate, partnership or custodian accounts controlled, directly or indirectly, by you.

If you are not sure whether you are Outside the Wall of the MSCI Equity Index business, consult the MSCI Compliance Department. Inside the Wall personnel are subject to a different Employee Trading Policy. ESG personnel are also subject to a different Employee Trading Policy.

III. Trading and account rules

A. THE COMPLIANCE PORTAL

MSCI maintains an online Compliance Portal. The Compliance Portal is used to make certifications and disclosures and to obtain approvals, as required by this Policy and the Code of Conduct. In some cases, brokerage account trading may also be monitored through the Compliance Portal.

B. PERMITTED PRODUCTS

You may trade in securities and financial instruments that are not prohibited by this Policy, the Code of Conduct or otherwise, subject to all the relevant restrictions set forth herein and therein.

All trades are subject to the following requirements:

- you must pre-clear securities against the Firm's Restricted List immediately prior to placing a trade;
- you must comply with the applicable Holding Period requirements;
- transactions in MSCI stock or options must take place in a disclosed, approved brokerage account;
- you must avoid any appearance of impropriety or of any conflict of interest; and
- you must not trade, or recommend that others trade, in a security or other instrument while in possession of material, non-public information about the security or instrument.

C. TRADING RESTRICTIONS

The following restrictions are in addition to any other prohibitions or restrictions set forth in the Code of Conduct or any other applicable policies:

1. Restricted List: You may not trade securities while they are on the Firm's Restricted List. You must pre-clear securities against the Firm's Restricted List, using the Compliance Portal (Comply Sci) page, immediately prior to placing a trade to confirm that the security is not restricted. Securities can be placed on the Restricted List for a variety of reasons, and in some cases can remain on the Restricted List for a long period of time. The Firm is not obligated to explain why a security is on the Restricted List, or to indicate when a security might come off the Restricted List. Exceptions to the Restricted List prohibition are rarely granted and only in exceptional circumstances. Price decline of a security is not a legitimate basis for requesting an exception to the Restricted List prohibition.
2. Stop or Limit Orders: You may not place stop or limit orders, except for same-day orders only.
3. OTC Derivatives: You may not trade in over-the-counter derivatives contracts, such as OTC options, futures, forwards, warrants or swaps.
4. Transactions in MSCI Inc. Securities: Trading in securities of MSCI Inc. is subject to the conditions and requirements set forth in the Supplement for Transactions in MSCI Inc. Securities, including trading blackout periods, holding periods and other requirements.

5. Private Securities Transactions: You may not engage in any private securities transactions without pre-approval from the MSCI Compliance Department. To seek approval, submit a request using the Compliance Portal. Private securities transactions include investments in privately held corporations, limited partnerships, tax shelter programs and other privately offered interests. Private Securities Transactions. Refer to the MSCI Directorships, Outside Activities and Private Securities Transactions Policy for further details.

6. Publicly Listed Real Estate Products:

Real Estate Employees

Real Estate Employees are defined for purposes of this Policy as those employees involved in MSCI's Private Real Estate product line who have knowledge of or access to either of the following before they are made publicly available ("Non-Public Real Estate Data"):

- information regarding the constituents of MSCI Private Real Estate Indexes (including "headline" or "standard indexes" as well as the "benchmark" indexes delivered as part of Enterprise Analytics)
- any client's or data provider's publicly listed real estate fund (including any Real Estate Investment Trust (REIT)) holdings information, including capital growth and rental income of portfolio properties, such as that contained in MSCI Private Real Estate products and services and /or data provider data.

Knowledge of or access to Non-Public Real Estate Data may allow an investor to trade on this information before such information is priced into a publicly listed real estate fund, a derivative of such fund, or a derivative or other investment vehicle linked to an MSCI Private Real Estate Index (including "headline" or "standard indexes" as well as the "benchmark" indexes delivered as part of Enterprise Analytics).

Restrictions

• Prohibitions

Real Estate Employees are prohibited from purchasing:

- any publicly listed real estate fund (including REITs).

- any fund, derivative or other investment vehicle linked to an MSCI Private Real Estate Index (including "headline" or "standard indexes" as well as the "benchmark" indexes delivered as part of Enterprise Analytics)

- Sale of Current Holdings

Sales or transfers by Real Estate Employees of previously acquired publicly listed real estate product or their shares must be pre-approved by the Compliance Department through the Firm's Compliance Portal.

7. Client Portfolios and Product Launches:

- You may not buy or sell securities or other instruments on the basis of knowledge of a client's portfolio, potential trading positions, model portfolio scenarios or any client or MSCI product launch or plans.
- You may not "piggyback" or "front run" any client trades or potential trades.

8. OTW Consultants, Interns and Temps Working On-site or with Systems Access:

- On request, you must disclose your brokerage and non-brokerage trading accounts to the MSCI Compliance Department and provide copies of your account statements and trade confirmations.
- On request, all trades must be pre-approved by the MSCI Compliance Department.
- On request, you must comply with the Restricted List and the Holding Period requirements.

D. ACCOUNTS

1. Brokerage Accounts.

Brokerage accounts do not need to be disclosed or maintained at a designated institution, except for accounts holding MSCI Inc. securities.

A brokerage account is any account that can hold or execute transactions in equity or debt securities, foreign exchange, commodities or derivatives.

For example, stock or bond trading accounts are brokerage accounts. Accounts that can hold or execute transactions in exchange traded funds or closed end funds are also brokerage accounts for purposes of this Policy. Money market and open-end mutual fund only accounts are not brokerage accounts for purposes of this Policy. If an account has a brokerage capability, even if you do not utilize it, it is considered a brokerage account for purposes of this Policy.

2. Accounts Holding MSCI Inc. Securities.

Any account holding MSCI securities is subject to the requirements of the Supplement for Transactions in MSCI Inc. Securities.

All employees receiving MSCI stock, RSUs or options as part of their MSCI compensation are provided an E*Trade account. MSCI stock and RSUs may only be held and traded through E*Trade or other designated brokers that report transactions to MSCI via the Compliance Portal for monitoring. Options in MSCI may only be transacted through the E*Trade account provided by the Firm. All transactions in MSCI Inc. securities must be pre-cleared and pre-approved via the Compliance Portal.

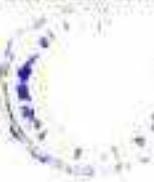

3. Non-Brokerage Accounts.

Examples of non-brokerage accounts include:

- Mutual Fund Only Accounts. Mutual fund only accounts do not have to be disclosed or maintained at a designated institution. Trading in a mutual fund only account, however, is subject to the Holding Period and Restricted List requirements of this Policy.
- Cash Accounts. Money market funds, insurance policies (including annuities), certificates of deposit (CDs), savings accounts and other cash management accounts are also not required to be disclosed or maintained at a designated institution. Additionally, the restrictions in this Policy such as Holding Periods do not apply to these types of instruments or accounts.
- Physical Share Certificates. If you hold securities in physical certificate form, you are not required to deposit them in a brokerage account. You may only sell those shares through a brokerage account, or by depositing the shares with the issuer of the security for sale if you have pre-cleared the security against the Restricted List.

4. Managed Accounts.

Generally, With prior authorization from the MSCI Compliance Department, you may open a managed account in which you grant full discretion to the manager or broker. Investments held in such fully discretionary managed accounts are not subject to the Holding Periods, Restricted List or other trading restrictions herein.

You may not hold MSCI Inc. stock in a managed account and you must so inform the manager or broker.

You must obtain pre-approval using the Compliance Portal prior to opening any managed account. You will need to provide the MSCI Compliance Department with a copy of the management agreement that establishes the manager or broker has full discretion over the account and that the account may not trade MSCI Inc. stock.

Full discretion means:

- you may not participate, directly or indirectly, in individual investment decisions;
- you may not be made aware of individual investment decisions before transactions are executed;
- you have no influence in the purchase or sale of specific securities; and
- you may establish general investment guidelines for the manager or broker (e.g., indicating industries in which you desire to invest, the type of securities you want to hold and your overall investment objectives), but the guidelines may not be changed so frequently so as to allow you to direct, or give the appearance that you are directing, the investments in the account (guidelines may not be changed more frequently than quarterly).

5. Automatic Investment Plans.

- You may participate in automatic investment plans (e.g., a scheduled, recurring $100 investment on the first day of every month in the same mutual fund) provided that you pre-clear the security against the Restricted List immediately prior to (i) the first time you purchase the security through the plan, (ii) your first election to reinvest and (iii) any decision to no longer invest/re-invest in the security.

Participation in the MSCI 401(k) or other Firm retirement or deferred compensation plan (or a spouse's or domestic partner's participation in his or her employer's plans), however, does not have to be disclosed as an automatic investment plan.

You may not invest in MSCI Inc. securities (MSCI) through an automatic investment plan unless pre-approved by the MSCI Compliance Department in accordance with the requirements set forth in the Supplement for Transactions in MSCI Inc. Securities.

6. ESPPs/ESOPs.

Investments held through an employee stock purchase plan or employee stock option plan from a previous employer, or by a spouse or domestic partner at his or her employer, are permitted; however, trades are subject to the Holding Periods and Restricted List (for sales).

7. Tax Deferral Accounts.

- You are not required to rollover tax deferral accounts such as a 401(k) account from a previous employer to an MSCI plan or account.
- Trading in any tax deferral account is subject to the restrictions described herein, including with respect to the Restricted List and Holding Periods.

8. No Pooled Investment Clubs.

You may not participate in investment clubs in which members pool their assets to make investments in securities.

9. Additional Disclosure and Cooperation.

If requested, you will promptly provide the MSCI Compliance Department with documentation and any other requested information relevant to this Policy, such as trading activity, account holdings, account statements, trade confirmations and other account or trading information.

The Firm reserves the right to monitor your trading and investment activity. The Firm may request on your behalf, or require you to ensure, that duplicate account and trade confirmations and/or statements are sent to MSCI in the manner requested by the Firm. The Firm may also obtain trading and position data for your accounts either directly from the institution or from a third-party data collection vendor.

Transactions in your accounts may be reviewed by the Firm for a variety of factors such as frequency of trading, potential misuse of confidential information and conflicts of interest. The Firm also may provide information concerning transactions in your accounts to regulatory and governmental authorities.

E. TRADING BLACKOUT PERIODS

1. Blackouts for trading in MSCI Inc. Securities. MSCI Inc. securities are subject to trading blackouts surrounding quarterly earnings announcements by MSCI. The scheduled trading blackouts, which are subject to change:
 - Begin at the close of trading on the 5th day of the last month of each fiscal quarter (March 5, June 5, September 5 and December 5), and
 - End at the beginning of the third full trading day following each quarterly earnings release by MSCI.

Please see the Supplement for Transactions in MSCI Inc. Securities for more details.

2. Additional Trading Blackout Periods. Additional trading blackout periods may be announced from time to time.

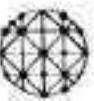

F. HOLDING PERIODS

1. All trades are subject to a minimum thirty (30) calendar day holding period or any longer holding period required by the relevant account or product.
2. Although you may trade listed derivatives such as listed equity options and listed index options, you may not trade any such instruments if by their terms they expire in less than 30 days. If the instrument has a term of greater than 30 days but is exercised (e.g., put or called) in less than 30 days by the counterparty, then you will not be in violation of the 30 day holding period requirement.
3. Transactions in MSCI Inc. securities have a 90 day holding period. For more details, see the Supplement for Transactions in MSCI Inc. Securities.

G. MISCELLANEOUS

1. Additional Requirements. The MSCI Compliance Department may modify this Policy and impose additional limitations or requirements on employee trading at any time, in its sole discretion.
2. Trading Privilege Removal. The Firm, in its sole discretion, reserves the right to cancel or instruct you to cancel any trade, without prior notice to you and at your expense. Additionally, the Firm may require you to freeze your positions due to potential conflicts of interest or the possible appearance of impropriety. The Firm may also, in its sole discretion, suspend or revoke your personal trading privileges at any time.

3. Definitions of "Buy," "Sell" and "Trade." As used in this Policy, the terms "buy," "sell" and "trade" and all derivations thereof include all transfers or exchanges, including gifts and charitable donations. For example, if you want to donate stock to a charity, the donation must comply with all of the terms of this Policy such as the Holding Periods and any notification and approval processes.
4. Inheritances and Gifts. If you inherit or are gifted any securities or other instruments or accounts covered by the terms of this Policy, you must make any necessary disclosures and transfers and take any other actions necessary to comply with the requirements of this Policy.

IV. Failure to comply

A. COMPANY DISCIPLINE

Violation of this Policy or insider trading or tipping laws may subject you to disciplinary action by the Firm up to and including termination for cause. A violation of this Policy is not necessarily a violation of law. The Firm's Policy is intended to be broader than the law. The Firm reserves the right to determine that specific conduct violates this Policy, whether or not the conduct also violates the law. It is not necessary for the Firm to await the filing or conclusion of a civil or criminal action against the alleged violator before taking disciplinary action.

Failure to comply with this Policy may (without limitation) result in one or more of the following as the Firm considers appropriate in the particular circumstances:

1. Cancellation or reversal of trades at your expense.¹
2. Accounting for and disgorgement of any profit from a transaction that violates the Policy.²
3. Revocation, suspension or restriction of trading privileges.

¹ Reversal of a trade means purchasing the same financial product in the same quantity that you sold or selling the same financial product in the same quantity that you bought.

² "Profit" may be measured in a number of ways, including by comparing the actual purchase or sale price of the transaction that violated this Policy with the purchase or sale price of the instrument at the beginning of the period when a transaction would not violate this Policy. For example, if a sale resulting in proceeds of $100 occurred before the expiration of the applicable holding period would have resulted in proceeds of $90, profit from the transaction could be measured at $10.

4. Termination, suspension from employment (with or without pay), reprimand or such other disciplinary action as the Firm considers appropriate in the circumstances.
5. Criminal, civil, or regulatory proceedings and penalties, including damages, fines and sanctions.

B. REPORTING VIOLATIONS

Any person who violates this Policy or any applicable laws governing insider trading or tipping, or knows of any such violation by any other person must report the violation immediately to the General Counsel. Upon learning of any such violation, the General Counsel will determine whether the Firm should release any material non-public information, or whether the Firm should report the violation to the SEC or other appropriate governmental authority.

V. Questions

Questions regarding this Policy may be directed to the MSCI Compliance Department.

Mumbai, India

Dear Yuvraj:

Taking into consideration Baker Hughes' interest and commitment to the growth and development of students as future professionals, we are pleased to inform you that you have been selected to undertake an Internship with Baker Hughes for the role of Digital Technology Intern.

1. Department OR Product Line: You will undertake your internship in the HQ - Digital Technology function.
2. Period: The internship will start on Monday 16th January 2023 and would end on Friday 14th July 2023, internship period stated above. In case your internship is reduced or extended you will receive an amendment letter outlining the change. (the original internship period and the extended internship period together are referred to as "the Internship Period").
3. Reward: You will be entitled to a Monthly of INR 30,000.00 for each internship month, less applicable taxes. If your internship is extended, you will continue receiving the same monthly allowance.
4. Guidelines: Below are the general guidelines pertaining to your internship.

Please go through the guidelines and send us a signed copy of your acceptance to the Internship agreement.

We wish you success during your internship. Please do not hesitate to contact us back in case you require any further clarifications.

General Internship Guidelines

- Purpose of the Internship Baker Hughes Internship provides an educational strategy whereby students complement their academic preparation with direct practical experience. Baker Hughes participation exhibits the company interest and commitment to the growth and developments of students as future professionals.

Eligibility:

To qualify for an Internship with Baker Hughes, students must be:

- Enrolled in a full-time degree program (students should be enrolled a minimum of 9 hours in each of the Fall and Spring semesters to be considered a full-time student; summer enrollment not required).
- Working towards a Bachelor's or Master's degree from an accredited University
- In "excellent standing" with the University

Competencies:

In order to qualify for the Internship, students should be having strong communication (English is a must), technical writing and presentation skills, as well as solid problem-solving abilities and the desire to learn new skills and gain new experience. Prospective Internship students should also be self-starting, goal-oriented team players who demonstrate leadership capabilities and understand practical business principles.

General Responsibilities of the Intern

1. Achieve the short-term and day-to-day goals, tasks and learning objectives assigned by the University and Baker Hughes Supervisor.
2. Follow all HSE operational practices and procedures successfully and effectively as per company policies, both during the remote working phase and physically in the office.
3. Manage time and resources effectively.
4. Solve problems, overcome obstacles and make good decisions.
5. Work effectively on diverse teams.
6. Communicate effectively with all levels within the team and external business partners.
7. Demonstrate work-related knowledge effectively.
8. Utilize multiple sources of information effectively.
9. Exhibit a high level of initiative.
10. Maintain the confidentiality of any information designated by Baker Hughes as Confidential.

General Responsibilities of Baker Hughes

1. Encourage and support the learning aspect of the student's Internship assignment.
2. Designate an employee to serve as student advisor with responsibilities to help orient the student to the site and its culture, to assist in the development of the learning objectives, to confer regularly with the student and his/her faculty representative and to monitor the student's progress.
3. Provide adequate supervision for the student and to assign duties that are career-related, progressive and challenging.
4. Make available equipment, supplies and space necessary for the student to perform his/her duties.
5. Provide guidance on a safe working standard both for remote work and in the office.
6. Will not displace regular workers with students secured through Internship referral.
7. Notify University/College personnel of any changes in the student's work status, schedule or performance.
8. Allow a faculty representative to visit the worksite to confer with the student or the intern's manager, with prior arrangement.

9. Communicate Baker Hughes policies and standards to University/College personnel.

Hours of Work:

The Intern shall abide by the working hours followed in his/her area of work. Further details would be provided by the Direct Supervisor and HR Department upon joining the Internship.

Medical & Sickness:

Should the Intern be absent from work due to sickness, he/she must inform the Supervisor immediately. A registered medical practitioner must certify periods of sick leave in excess of two days. Sick leave will be paid in accordance with Company policy.

Termination of the Internship:

Should Baker Hughes become dissatisfied with the performance of a student, Baker Hughes may request the termination of the Internship arrangement.

- In case the Intern was referred by a University, the termination should occur only after University/College personnel have been notified in advance and a satisfactory resolution cannot be obtained.
- In case the Intern is a walk-in candidate who directly applied to Baker Hughes, the Company may request the termination of the Internship arrangement by giving the candidate 2-day's notice.

Governing Law:

The provisions contained herein shall be construed and governed in accordance with the laws of India. The Courts at Pune shall have exclusive jurisdiction over matters contained herein.

Miscellaneous:

These terms and conditions constitute the entire agreement and understanding between the parties with respect to the Internship. Headings are for reference only. A party's failure to insist upon or enforce strict performance of any provision of the terms and conditions shall not be construed as a waiver of any provision or right. If any particular provision of the terms and conditions is held to be invalid or unenforceable, such determination shall not affect any other provision of the terms and conditions which shall remain in full force and effect. In case of any conflict between applicable laws and terms and conditions contained herein, the applicable law shall prevail.

Yours sincerely,

Eya Qatani

Human Capital & Technology HR Leader – MLNATT

Dear Hiten,

Congratulations on receiving our offer of internship with Nomura Services India Private Limited ("the firm") in Global Markets IT division. We seek individuals with a distinguished record of achievement, superior leadership skills and commitment to excellence. Throughout our meetings, you have demonstrated these qualities, and we are confident that you will be a strong contributor to our firm.

For the avoidance of doubt, this is a volunteer work placement and you shall not have any employment relationship with the firm. Please understand that the terms and conditions of your internship are governed by the standard firm policies. Among other stipulations, this offer of internship is contingent upon the successful completion of reference checks and you satisfactorily meeting all pre-internship requirements and producing identification to verify your identity.

The firm will provide you with a stipend of INR 50,000 per month, less applicable tax withholdings, as soon as practicable following your internship start date. You will not be entitled to this payment if you fail to commence internship with the firm on the anticipated start date.

This offer of internship is based on your commitment to work exclusively for Nomura for a minimum 25 weeks period beginning on 09 January 2023. It is important that you work the entire period so that we may involve you in a variety of assignments and properly evaluate your potential contribution to the firm. If for any reason you are unable to commit to the 25 weeks period, please notify us before signing this letter.

You shall be eligible to take 1.5 days of leave in a calendar month applicable cumulatively for the term of your internship, together with relevant public holidays, subject to prior written approvals from your reporting manager.

You will be eligible for additional study leave subject to prior written approvals from the firm. You will be required to resume your internship after the completion of your study leave. If at any point in time you exceed the specified days of leaves during your internship then you will be required to put in additional days of work to complete the above mentioned months of internship.

All developments, productions, written work, inventions and improvements of inventions, whether patentable or not, made by you or to which you would have contributed in the course of your internship, and all industrial and intellectual property rights and copyrights made by you or to which you would have contributed in the course of your internship will be and remain the exclusive property of the firm and to the extent necessary you assign any potential rights relating thereto to the firm. This includes but is not limited to all research and research products, firm templates, training materials and presentations, "know-how" developed in spreadsheets and systems developments.

For the purpose of your internship, you may be required to process Personal Information. "Personal Information" means information concerning a living person and includes the full name, date of birth and any other description that can be used to identify a particular person. You agree not to disclose any Personal Information to any third party or agent who does not need to have access to the same in order for you to perform your work as an intern or use Personal Information for any other purpose other than your internship without the firm's prior consent. You will take all necessary measures to protect any Personal Data processed by you against unauthorized or unlawful processing, accidental loss, leakage or destruction and notify the firm immediately if a leak, loss or abuse of Personal Information or any such breach is discovered by you. You shall hold harmless and indemnify the firm against any loss suffered by it as a result of any breach by you of the provisions of this clause.

You will be eligible for medical insurance coverage for self upto INR 300,000/- per year.

The firm may procure commercial general liability insurance or such other insurance cover as it may require in connection with the internship. You hereby agree that if for any reason you receive any payments by way of compensation or costs or in any other manner under the relevant insurance policy, you shall promptly repay/refund such amounts to the firm in such manner as may be prescribed by the firm. You shall not without the prior consent in writing from the firm make any admission, offer, promise or payment in connection with any claim against you by any third party in connection with the insurance procured by the firm and the firm if it so desires, shall be entitled to take over and conduct in the name of the firm the defense or settlement of any claim.

You agree to indemnify the firm, its officers and its affiliates from and against any claim, action or damages arising out of your work and/or a breach of the terms of this letter.

The firm may terminate this internship at any time (without cause, reason and penalty), upon 7 days prior notice ("Notice Period"). Notwithstanding the said Notice Period, the firm may terminate your internship immediately upon occurrence of any of the following events; (a) If the firm deems your performance to be unsatisfactory or not in accordance with these terms and conditions; (b) If you fail to clear background check as carried out by the Firm; (c) If you fail to satisfy any of the terms and conditions of this letter; and (d) If you breach any of the firm's policies, any obligations relating to confidentiality, intellectual property. In an event you're unable to intern during the Notice Period while the firm requires you to do so, then you shall be liable to pay to the firm an amount equivalent to your stipend for the said period.

The terms and conditions of this letter of internship shall be governed and interpreted according to the laws of India. Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or in connection with this letter of internship shall be resolved by binding, final arbitration in Mumbai, pursuant to the Rules of Arbitration of the International Chamber of Commerce. The language of the arbitration shall be English.

Dear Nimrat,

Your Internship by J.P. Morgan

Congratulations on joining the J.P. Morgan family. We are pleased to confirm your internship with J.P. Morgan Services India Private Limited (the "Company").

You will find your personal internship terms outlined in Appendix A with general internship terms and conditions in Appendix B. Please note these terms and conditions supersede any verbal discussions you may have previously had with any JPMorgan Chase employee with regards to your internship arrangements.

A number of important policies will apply to your internship with the Company, including the Personal Account Dealing Policy and the Code of Conduct. We provide more information about these policies in Appendix C and it is essential that you carefully read and understand their requirements. By signing this letter, you confirm that you have read, understood and agree to be bound by these policies. In addition, you will be required to abide by all other Company policies and regulations (including JPMorgan Chase group of companies (the "Group") policies) and with applicable law.

Should you have queries in relation to your employment terms, your benefits or Company policies, please contact our HR Answers hotline at 000 800 440 5210 (local toll free) or +1 212-552-5100 (international).

Please be reminded your internship terms should be treated with the strictest confidence. To accept this offer of internship, please click on the 'Accept' button at the bottom of this page on or before 13-Dec-2022.

We are excited to welcome you to our Company and take this opportunity to wish you every success in taking this next step of your career with us.

Appendix A – PERSONAL INTERNSHIP TERMS AND CONDITIONS

A1. Title/Category

You will join us as an intern in the Software Engineer Program at JPMorgan Chase & Co., and will carry out your role while physically present in the J.P. Morgan offices in Mumbai, India.

A2. Internship Commencement Date

Your internship shall begin on 06-Feb-2023 ("Start Date") and shall continue, subject to the remaining terms of this agreement, until it terminates on 31-May-2023 ("End Date") without the need for notice, unless previously terminated by either party pursuant to paragraph 4 of Appendix B.

In addition to the conditions set out in paragraph 1 of Appendix B, your offer is subject to you successfully meeting the educational criteria that has already been communicated to you in writing.

A3. Working Hours

Your manager will assign you specific working hours, often during the Company's normal office hours. Depending on the needs of your department, however, you may be required to work outside the official hours to fulfill your duties.

A4. Stipend

Your stipend will be INR 70,000/- per month.

Relocation Lump Sum

You will receive an additional, one-time lump sum of INR 85000 ("the Additional Sum") gross with your first stipend. This payment will be made to you in the first available payroll after you join the Company. You should be aware that this might be in the month of joining or the following month depending on your commencement date and when all necessary data is received. This is to assist with any relocation expenses you may incur prior to joining.

If you leave the internship or your internship is terminated for any reason, you must repay to the Company the Additional Sum on a pro-rated basis as set out below.

If your internship period is longer than 3 months and you leave the internship or your internship is terminated for any reason within three months of your date of commencement you must repay to the Company 100% of the gross amount of the Additional Sum. If your internship period is longer than 3 months and you leave the internship or your internship is terminated for any reason more than three months but within twelve months of your date of commencement you must repay to the Company 50% of the gross amount of

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "Uma", is written over a blue horizontal line.

the Additional Sum

If your internship period is less than 3 months and you leave the internship or your internship is terminated for any reason before completion of your internship period you must repay the Company 100% of the gross amount of the Additional Sum.

A5. Probationary Period

Your internship will be subject to a probation period as outlined in paragraph 4.3 of Appendix B.

A6. Leave Entitlement

A6.1 Annual Leave

You are entitled to 20 working days of annual leave with full pay in every calendar year, pro-rated according to the duration of your employment in accordance with the Company's Human Resources Policies and applicable law. If you work part-time hours, your annual leave entitlement will be pro-rated to reflect your part-time hours worked.

A6.2 Other Leave

You can find further details of other leave entitlements in paragraph 5 of Appendix B.

A7. Benefits

You will not be entitled to join the Company's benefits programs, given the short length of your fixed-term contract.

A8. Retirement Scheme

You are not eligible for retirement benefits.

A9. Notice Period

During your probationary period, starting the day you join the Company, either you or the Company may terminate your employment with at least 14 days' written notice or payment of wages in lieu of such notice period.

After the probationary period, either party can terminate the employment by giving the other party 30 Days written notice ("Notice Period") or by the Company making a payment in lieu of Notice Period.

APPENDIX B – GENERAL INTERNSHIP TERMS AND CONDITIONS

B1. Internship

B1.1 Your internship is subject to:

- a) you being able to carry out your role in India while being able to be physically present at a JPMC office in Mumbai, India and obtaining and maintaining throughout your period of internship a valid work permit and such other permission, license or registration as may from time to time be necessary to enable you to carry out your duties and continue your internship;
- b) the completion of all pre-employment screening processes to the satisfaction of the Company, including obtaining education verification, background references and checks as sought and the execution of any other forms necessary for internship, etc.; and
- c) you being legally able to work with the Company. You undertake to disclose any internship or contractual post-internship restraints to which you are subject and which may, and will continue to, affect your internship with us and represent and warrant that:
 - ix. by entering into internship with the Company and performing the duties set out in this letter, you will not be in breach of any express or implied term of any internship or other agreement or arrangement to which you are party;
 - i. you have not taken or otherwise misappropriated and you do not have in your possession or control any confidential and proprietary information belonging to any of your prior employers, or any third party providing services to your prior employer, or connected with or derived from your services to prior employers and you have returned to all prior employers any and all such confidential or proprietary information; and
 - ii. you are not subject to any other internship, including being subject to garden leave or any contractual post-internship restraints.

You shall indemnify and hold harmless the Company from any and all claims arising from any breach of the warranties in this paragraph B1.

- B1.2 Whilst you and/or the Company may have agreed a tentative date of commencement of internship with the Company, you will not, unless the Company decides otherwise, be able to commence internship with the Company without our receipt of completed and satisfactory results from our pre-employment screening process.
- B1.3 You may be required to provide services for other members of the Group throughout your internship. When providing these services, you may from time to time be required to travel and work in different locations within and outside your hiring location.

B1.4 You will not undertake outside employment or activities with or without remuneration, unless you have the prior written approval of senior management of the Company or its delegate. Outside activities may include (but are not limited to) activities as a director, officer, partner, sole proprietor, consultant or controlling stockholder of any business. If your request to undertake outside activity is not approved by management and you decide to engage in the activity, your internship may be terminated without any notice or compensation.

B2. Remuneration

B2.1 We will deposit your stipend (paragraph 4 of Appendix A) on or around the 30th of each month.

B2.2 You will be responsible for all tax liabilities world-wide arising out of payments pursuant to your internship with the Company.

B2.3 Any payment of salary or bonus by, or other sum due to you from the Company shall be subject to any and all withholding or deduction (for, including but not limited to, any taxes, contributions, repayments or other sums which you have agreed that the Company may withhold/deduct or which the Company is obliged or entitled to withhold/deduct from time to time under any applicable law), and the Company shall in such case be entitled to withhold, deduct or retain the amount of such tax, withholding or deduction from any sum payable to you.

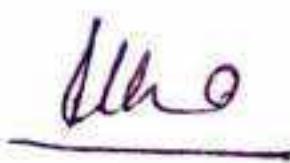

B3. Incentive Compensation

For this position, you won't be eligible for incentive awards under the JPMorgan Chase Performance-Based Incentive Compensation Plan or any other non-annual incentive compensation plan.

B4. Termination

B4.1 Your internship may be terminated as follows:

- a) By either party giving to the other prior written notice of at least the period specified, as applicable, in paragraph 9 in Appendix A (the "Notice Period"), or by the Company making a payment in lieu of notice for all or part of such Notice Period of an amount equal to basic salary you would have been entitled to receive during the Notice period or part of the Notice Period.
- b) By the Company at any time without notice or compensation if you:
 - i) are guilty of fraud, dishonesty or misconduct which is inconsistent with the due and faithful discharge of your duties;

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "Uma", is written over a horizontal line.

- ii) seriously breach the Code of Conduct and any other Company policies;
 - iii) disobey the Company's lawful and reasonable instructions requirements;
 - iv) habitually neglect your duties; or
 - v) otherwise commit a material or repeated breach of your internship terms or any of the Company's or Group's policies.
- B4.2 During any Notice Period, the Company may put you on "garden leave" and may, amongst other things, do any or a combination of the following:
- (a) suspend you from the performance of any duties or assign you alternative duties;
 - (b) exclude you from any premises of the Company or any of the Group companies and/or require you to work from another location;
 - (c) require that you have no or limited contact or communication, other than purely social contact, with any employees, officers, directors, agents or consultants of the Company or any other member of the Group;
 - (d) require that you have no or limited contact or communication with any customer or client of the Company or any other member of the Group;
 - (e) remove your access to the Company premises and computer systems;
 - (f) require that you return any property belonging to the Company under paragraph 7 in this Appendix;
 - (g) require you not to do any act or thing, or make or cause to be made, any statement reasonably likely to damage the business or reputation of the Company or the Group.
- B4.3 If paragraph 5 of Appendix A states that your employment is subject to probation, your probation period will be the first 3 months of employment, which you agree is reasonable and fair, in light of the responsibilities of the role.
- B4.4 At its sole discretion, the Company may notify you of an extension to your probationary period.
- B4.5 All your duties (whether express or implied) under your Internship and this letter, including without limitation your duty of fidelity, good faith, exclusive service and duties in relation to the Group's confidential information shall continue throughout the Notice Period including any period that you are on garden leave.

B4.6 During any Notice Period

- (a) you will provide such assistance as the Company may require to effect an orderly handover of your duties and responsibilities to any individual appointed by the Company or any of the Group Companies to take over your role or responsibilities; and
 - (b) you shall make yourself available to deal with requests for information, provide assistance, be available for meetings and to advise on matters relating to work

B5. Leave

85.1 Annual Leave

- (a) You will be entitled to annual leave with full pay in every calendar year – please see paragraph 6 of Appendix A, pro-rated according to the duration of your employment. The Company will be entitled to determine when annual leave is taken, although as far as possible, arrangements will be made to suit your convenience. Annual leave entitlement for each calendar year must be taken in that calendar year and only in exceptional circumstances can annual leave (other than unused statutory entitlement, if any) be carried forward into the following calendar year. All annual leave days taken will be deducted first from the statutory entitlement accumulation.
 - (b) After a notice of termination has been given pursuant to paragraph B4.1 of this Appendix, you will not be entitled to take any annual leave without the express consent of the Company provided after notice of termination has been given.
 - (c) You must comply with the Company's 'consecutive days leave' policies.

B5.2 Sick Leave

Any sick leave entitlement will be subject to relevant legislation and J.P. Morgan internal policies that are in force and amended from time to time. More details are set out in the me@jpmc.com website, which will be accessible to you upon commencement of your employment.

BS.3 Suspension Leave

The Company has the right to suspend you from your work duties with full pay when it considers it necessary to investigate any allegation of misconduct or impropriety on your part. The Company can exercise this right at its sole discretion, acting in good faith.

B6 Confidentiality

You acknowledge that a vast amount of privileged and confidential information will be disclosed to you in course of your internship with the Company and during your internship with the Company and thereafter, you shall keep secret and shall not at any time (whether during or after the period of your internship) use for your own or another's advantage, or reveal to any person, firm or company, any of the trade secrets, business methods and plans, financial matters, client lists, investments, marketing plans, personnel matters or other information which you knew or reasonably ought to have known to be confidential concerning the business or affairs of the Company or any other member of the Group or any of their related companies, clients or suppliers.

You agree to abide by the specific provisions on the use of confidential information in the Company's policies and Group code of conduct.

The restriction contained in this paragraph shall not apply to any disclosure or use authorised by the Company or required by law.

B7. Return of Company Property

You acknowledge that any privileged or confidential information disclosed to you in the course of your internship with the Company remains the exclusive property of the Company and whenever requested by the Company and/or Group and in any event upon the termination of your internship, you will promptly deliver to the Company and/or Group all documents and other materials (whether originals or copies or in hard copy or electronic form) concerning the Company and/or Group or their respective clients and suppliers, which may have been prepared by you or have come into your possession, custody or control in the course of your internship with the Company. This includes, without limitation, any confidential information, lists of clients or suppliers, correspondence, electronic equipment, computer software or hardware, staff identity cards card and other property used in connection with the operations of the Company and/or Group. You will not be entitled to, and will not retain, any copies, title and copyright in such correspondence and other documents, papers, records and property are vested in the Company and/or Group.

B8. Post Internship Restrictions

B8.1 For a period of three months commencing on the Relevant Date, you shall not directly or indirectly (whether on your own account, for or with any other person, firm or company) solicit or endeavor to entice away from the Company or any other Group Company any Critical Person.

B8.2 For a period of three months commencing on the Relevant Date, you shall not directly or indirectly (whether on your own account, for or with any other person, firm or company) solicit or endeavor to entice away from the Company or any other Group Company the business or custom of any Restricted Client.

B8.3 The duration of the restrictions will be reduced by any period of notice that you work out or any period of garden leave as provided in this offer letter.

B8.4 In this paragraph B8:

- a) "Critical Person" means any person who was an employee or director of the Company or any other Group Company at any time within one year prior to the Relevant Date who had access to trade secrets or confidential information of the Company or any other Group Company. This includes knowledge of, involvement with or influence over suppliers or clients of the Company or any other Group Company with whom you worked at any time during that period.
- b) "Group Company" means the Company, its ultimate holding company, any subsidiary of the Company and any holding company from time to time. "Subsidiary" and "holding company" shall have the same meaning as in the relevant companies' legislation.
- c) "Restricted Client" means any person:
 - i. who in the one year before the Relevant Date was a client of, or has dealt with, the Company or any other Group Company; and
 - ii. with whose custom or business you, or persons reporting to you, were personally involved with during the period of one year prior to the Relevant Date
 - iii. but does not include publicly known institutional clients which you serve subsequent to your internship with the Company without the use of confidential or proprietary information of the Company and the Group,
- d) "Relevant Date" means the date your internship with the Company or the Group terminates for whatever reason.

B8.5 You acknowledge and agree:

- a) that each of the foregoing paragraphs constitutes an entirely separate and independent restriction on you;
- b) that the duration, extent and application of each restrictions, obligations and undertakings are reasonable and necessary to protect legitimate interests of the Company and the Group, considering, among other things, that the Company has commercial dealings with business partners throughout the world and that you will regularly be dealing with such partners as part of your duties and you understand that it does not by any means prevent you from earning a living in a satisfactory way;
- c) that, if any such restriction (or parts of a restriction) shall be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be void or unenforceable, the validity or enforceability of the remaining restrictions (or parts of a restriction) shall remain in full force and effect as if the unenforceable parts had been deleted. Damages may be an inadequate compensation for breach of any of the restrictions in this paragraph and, subject to a court's discretion, in the event of any actual or threatened breach of any provision of this paragraph, you agree that the Company shall be entitled to (on behalf of itself and on behalf of any other Group Company) restrain, by injunction, equitable relief or similar remedy, any conduct or threatened conduct by you. You expressly submit to the jurisdiction of any court of competent jurisdiction for this purpose, and in the event you receive from any person an offer of employment (whether oral or in writing and whether accepted or not), either during your internship or the continuation in force of all or any of the restrictions applicable to you, whether pursuant to this letter or the Code of Conduct, you shall provide to the person making such an offer of employment a full and accurate copy of the then current restrictions applicable to you.

- d) that any benefit given or deemed to be given by you to the Group under the terms of this paragraph is received and held on trust by the Company for the relevant Group Company. You will enter into appropriate restrictive covenants directly with other Group Companies if asked to do so by the Company.
- e) that your internship with the Company and the compensation paid and/or payable to you by the Company shall be sufficient consideration for the purposes of this clause. You further agree and acknowledge that the limitations as to time and the character or nature placed in this clause are reasonable and fair and will not preclude you from earning a livelihood, nor will they unreasonably impose limitations on your ability to earn a living.
- f) that this offer letter constitutes a valid, legally binding and enforceable obligation on you and this document is not in violation of any applicable law.
- g) that any breach or threat of breach on your part of any one of such obligations and/or undertakings would cause serious harm to the Company or the Group which may then institute any legal recourse against you that is deemed appropriate and/or recourse in damages, without further notice or delay.
- h) that you shall not assign this offer letter or the rights and/or obligations hereunder. The Company may assign its rights and obligations herein in all circumstances without your consent, including in connection with any sale, transfer or disposition of all or substantially all of its business and operations and its assets, in which case the Company's rights and obligations shall vest to the successor.
- i) in addition, you agree and acknowledge that the potential harm to the Company of the non-enforcement of this clause outweighs any potential harm to you and that you have given careful consideration to the restraints imposed upon you by this clause and that you are in full agreement as to their necessity for the reasonable and proper protection of the Company's interests. You expressly acknowledge and agree that each and every restraint imposed by this clause is reasonable with respect to subject matter, time period and geographical area.

B9. Code of Conduct and Staff Regulations and Affirmation

- B9.1 It is a condition of your continuing internship and it is your obligation that you comply with:
- (a) the Code of Conduct (as amended from time to time or superseded). At the time of acceptance of the offer of internship and on a periodic basis, you will be required to sign an affirmation (or reaffirmation) confirming your understanding and compliance with the provisions of the Code of Conduct; and
 - (b) the Company's other internal policies and procedures and all relevant policies and procedures for the line of business in which you are to undertake work.
- B9.2 The Company shall be entitled at any time to amend the Company's internal policies and procedures (including but not limited to the Code of Conduct), the benefits set out in the Appendices and other staff regulations, as well as to put in place new policies as the Company sees fit. Any such amendments shall be notified in writing to each employee and shall on provision of such notice, become legally binding.
- B9.3 The Company's Human Resources work policies are set out in the me@jpmc website, as amended from time to time. Please take time to familiarise yourself with these policies when you begin your internship.
- B9.4 To the extent that the contents of policies or procedures refer to obligations on the Company, you agree that they are guides only and are not contractual terms, conditions or representations on which you rely.

B10. Working Hours

- B10.1 Your total working hours (including break(s)) is 40 hours per working week during the tenure of your internship and you should attend office 5 days every working week. Your working hours may be revised at the discretion of the Company.

B11. Retirement Benefits

You are not eligible for retirement benefits.

B12. Contract Execution

- B12.1 You acknowledge and agree that:

- (a) This letter may be delivered in a digital or physical format. Subject to any applicable law, where the letter is provided in a digital format, you acknowledge and agree that it is being executed electronically and that it is enforceable.

Ute

- (b) You have read and understood the terms of this letter and have been provided with an opportunity to review and discuss the terms of it with advisors, if you so desire.
- (c) Should any further assurances be required or sought by the Company, you shall in good faith perform such further actions (including executing a physical copy of this letter).

B13. Governing Law and Jurisdiction

This letter and any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with it or its subject matter or formation (including non-contractual disputes or claims) shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of India. You and the Company submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the Mumbai, Maharashtra courts in relation to any dispute arising in connection with your internship and this letter.

APPENDIX C - SYSTEMS MONITORING ACTIVITIES AND CROSS-BORDER TRANSFERS, PERSONAL ACCOUNT DEALING POLICY, AND CODE OF CONDUCT

Appendix: Systems Monitoring Activities and Cross-Border Transfers:

The following provides a summary of how JPMorgan Chase & Co., its affiliates and its subsidiaries and the entity that employs you, or for which you provide services (collectively, "JPMC"), conducts Systems monitoring. JPMC may conduct monitoring to the extent permitted by applicable law.

JPMC conducts monitoring of JPMC's physical facilities and its equipment and systems (collectively, the "Systems"). System monitoring applies to your JPMC equipment, your personal equipment when accessing the Systems, and the communications, information, and materials conveyed or accessed using the Systems. Monitoring activities may include the monitoring and logging of traffic and usage data of all electronic communications; monitoring of telephone calls to or from JPMC work telephones as permitted by applicable laws and subject to any required notices; monitoring of the contents of electronic communications, files, databases, applications, and internet usage; and logging hours worked and physical presence at JPMC's facilities if applicable. JPMC may at all times monitor, access, retrieve, record and review information obtained from the monitoring activities for various purposes, such as preventing and investigating activities that may violate JPMC's policies and ensuring compliance with legal or regulatory obligations. While conducting monitoring activities, JPMC may obtain and process personal information about you and others that may reside on the Systems.

The monitoring activities (including JPMC's collection and processing of personal or other information) are required for purposes of your employment or work assignment to promote adherence to applicable policies and regulations. Subject to applicable laws and regulations, if you object to this processing, JPMC may prohibit you from using the Systems, terminate offers of employment or work assignment, and, for employees, take disciplinary action against you, up to and including termination of your employment with JPMC.

JPMC may disclose the information it obtains in connection with monitoring activities to JPMC affiliates and to third parties, service providers, regulators, supervisory bodies, law enforcement and other government agencies. Information obtained from the monitoring activities may be used as the basis to take disciplinary actions, up to and including termination or other legal action, for violations of JPMC's policies or applicable laws.

In addition to the monitoring activities discussed above, JPMC may obtain and store other information related to your employment or other working relationship, such as your compensation information, performance information, benefits information and other workplace-related data. JPMC may transfer such information, and the information it obtains in connection with monitoring activities, to countries other than the country in which the information originally was collected, including to the United States.

Understanding Obligations under the Firm's Personal Account Dealing Policy (PAD):

The Personal Account Dealing Policy (Policy) of JPMorgan Chase & Co. (firm or JPMC) is designed to help prevent and detect violations of securities laws and industry conduct standards and to minimize actual or perceived conflicts of interest that could arise due to personal investing activities.

PAD Compliance will notify you if the position you are being offered is considered to be subject to the Policy. You will remain subject for the duration of your time working in a subject group, unless notified otherwise of a change in subject status. Unless otherwise notified, you will continue to be subject to the provisions of the Policy even during leaves of absence from the firm, including, but not limited to, garden leave or medical leave.

You as well as your Connected Persons are subject to the provisions of this Policy and will need to be familiar with the obligations set forth in this policy. Connected Persons includes your spouse, domestic partner or minor children (even if financially independent) as well as anyone to whom you provide significant financial support or for which you, or anyone listed above, has or shares the power, directly or indirectly, to make investment decisions.

Once subject to the Policy, you must disclose and certify your Covered Accounts (which include accounts of your Connected Persons). You will be required to maintain your self-directed Covered Accounts with one of the firm's Approved Brokers and pre-clear all purchases, sales, pledges and gifts (received and given) of publicly traded and privately held financial instruments, unless listed as specifically exempt. Pre-approval confirmations must be received prior to executing the trade or investment. The firm may impose periodic restrictions on personal trading in certain financial securities. These restrictions can apply to all firm subject Workforce Members and their Connected Persons or may be limited to certain groups. Subject Workforce Members and their Connected Persons are not permitted to recommend or transact in the financial instruments of an issuer while in the possession of material non-public information (MNPI) regarding that issuer.

If you are a seasonal or short term employee the following requirements will apply.

JPMorgan Chase requires that seasonal workers refrain from trading in Covered Accounts for the time period that you are employed in a short term training program. Please verify that you will comply with the following personal trading requirements:

1. For the duration of the short term program I am joining I will not trade in any of my Covered Accounts
2. I understand that the Firm has the right to request account information for any of my Covered Accounts
3. If there is an extenuating circumstance that would compel me to place a trade in my Covered Accounts, I will obtain pre-approval of the trade by the Personal Account Dealing Group and I would be responsible for supplying all confirmations and statements to the Personal Account Dealing Group for that trade

*The term Covered Accounts refers to any securities accounts no matter where they are located and includes, but is not limited to, those accounts that are established, maintained or controlled (either directly or indirectly) by you, your spouse, domestic partner or minor children (even if financially independent), anyone to whom you provide significant financial support, and in which the employee has a direct or indirect financial interest.

Global Personal Trading Policy:

The Personal Account Dealing of JPMorgan Chase & Co. is designed to help prevent and detect violations of securities laws and industry conduct standards and to minimize actual or perceived conflicts of interest that could arise due to personal investing activities. This Policy includes requirements for disclosing Covered Accounts, maintaining certain accounts at one of the firm's Approved Brokers, preclearing trades, and restrictions and prohibitions on certain types of trading activity. This Policy is subject to any applicable local laws and rules and should be read in conjunction with Supplements (regional/LOB) as well as the firm's Code of Conduct.

Conflict of Interests and Outside Interests:

Under JPMorgan Chase & Co.'s (JPMC) Code of Conduct, employees are responsible for avoiding activities or relationships that might affect their objectivity in making decisions as an employee. Employees are not permitted to allow their personal interest to conflict, or appear to conflict, with their JPMC role and responsibilities.

Outside Interests include second jobs, not for profit activities, government positions, and positions with external companies and organizations as a director, officer, advisor, sole proprietor, consultant or owner of any business. Outside Interests may result in an actual or perceived conflict of interest. Where actual or potential conflicts of interest cannot be mitigated, you may be required to discontinue the activity or dissolve your investment.

Employers are required to seek preclearance prior to engaging in Outside Interests or immediately upon joining JPMC. Where preclearance is not required, employee must adhere to all restrictions and conditions outlined in Section 5 and 6 of the Outside Interest Policy.

Conflicts of interests may also arise from: (1) personal and business relationships; (2) the exchange of gifts and business hospitality; (3) political engagement; and (4) personal finances. Employees should avoid activities or relationships that might affect their objectivity in making decisions on behalf of JPMC or undermine their credibility. Employees may never place personal interests ahead of our clients' interests. All potential and actual conflicts must be escalated to your manager for review and mitigation.

Acceptance and Code Affirmation:

Upon signing this letter I accept the terms and conditions described above.

I hereby affirm that I have read, understand, and am in compliance with the JPMorgan Chase ("JPMC") Code of Conduct and all internal JPMC policies that apply to me. I agree, as a condition of my employment, to remain in compliance with the Code of Conduct and all applicable JPMC policies.

I understand that I must conduct myself in a way that is consistent with the Code of Conduct, demonstrating compliance with the principles and intent of the Code of Conduct, and applicable laws and regulations.

I also affirm that I have reported any potential or actual violations of the Code of Conduct, JPMC policies, or laws or regulations applicable to JPMC's business, as required by the Code of Conduct. I understand that failure to do so can result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

I understand that the Code of Conduct may be updated periodically, as necessary; and that the current version is posted on the JPMorgan Chase intranet as well as on its public website.

Independent Auditor Tax Services to Employees of JPMorgan Chase and its Affiliates:

To be in compliance with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (PCAOB) Rule 3523, it is JPMorgan Chase's (JPMC) policy that PricewaterhouseCoopers (PwC) cannot provide any tax services to employees of JPMC or any of its controlled entities (hereafter referred to as JPMC employee). This restriction is regardless of whether the individual is in a financial reporting oversight role or not, and whether PwC is engaged by the individual or by JPMC. PwC is also prohibited from providing any tax services to a spouse of a JPMC employee if the work is related to a joint tax return. Exceptions to this policy will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis and will require the approval of the JPMC Controller.

Dear Oindrella,

Your Internship by J.P. Morgan

Congratulations on joining the J.P. Morgan family. We are pleased to confirm your internship with J.P. Morgan Services India Private Limited (the "Company").

You will find your personal internship terms outlined in Appendix A with general internship terms and conditions in Appendix B. Please note these terms and conditions supersede any verbal discussions you may have previously had with any JPMorgan Chase employee with regards to your internship arrangements.

A number of important policies will apply to your internship with the Company, including the Personal Account Dealing Policy and the Code of Conduct. We provide more information about these policies in Appendix C and it is essential that you carefully read and understand their requirements. By signing this letter, you confirm that you have read, understood and agree to be bound by these policies. In addition, you will be required to abide by all other Company policies and regulations (including JPMorgan Chase group of companies (the "Group") policies) and with applicable law.

Should you have queries in relation to your employment terms, your benefits or Company policies, please contact our HR Answers hotline at 000 800 440 5210 (local toll free) or +1 212-552-5100 (international).

Please be reminded your internship terms should be treated with the strictest confidence. To accept this offer of internship, please click on the 'Accept' button at the bottom of this page on or before 28-Nov-2022.

We are excited to welcome you to our Company and take this opportunity to wish you every success in taking this next step of your career with us.

Appendix A – PERSONAL INTERNSHIP TERMS AND CONDITIONS

A1. Title/Category

You will join us as an intern in the CIB Research & Analytics Program at JPMorgan Chase & Co., and will carry out your role while physically present in the J.P. Morgan offices in Mumbai, India.

A2. Internship Commencement Date

Your internship shall begin on 16-Jan-2023 ("Start Date") and shall continue, subject to the remaining terms of this agreement, until it terminates on 30-Jun-2023 ("End Date") without the need for notice, unless previously terminated by either party pursuant to paragraph 4 of Appendix B.

In addition to the conditions set out in paragraph 1 of Appendix B, your offer is subject to you successfully meeting the educational criteria that has already been communicated to you in writing.

A3. Working Hours

Your manager will assign you specific working hours, often during the Company's normal office hours. Depending on the needs of your department, however, you may be required to work outside the official hours to fulfill your duties.

A4. Stipend

Your stipend will be INR60,000/- per month.

Relocation Lump Sum

You will receive an additional, one-time lump sum of INR85000("the Additional Sum") gross with your first stipend. This payment will be made to you in the first available payroll after you join the Company. You should be aware that this might be in the month of joining or the following month depending on your commencement date and when all necessary data is received. This is to assist with any relocation expenses you may incur prior to joining.

If you leave the internship or your internship is terminated for any reason, you must repay to the Company the Additional Sum on a pro-rated basis as set out below:

If your Internship period is longer than 3 months and you leave the internship or your internship is terminated for any reason within three months of your date of commencement you must repay to the Company 100% of the gross amount of the Additional Sum
If your Internship period is longer than 3 months and you leave the internship or your internship is terminated for any reason more than three months but within twelve months of your date of commencement you must repay to the Company 50% of the gross amount of

14/6/19

the Additional Sum

If your internship period is less than 3 months and you leave the internship or your internship is terminated for any reason before completion of your internship period you must repay the Company 100% of the gross amount of the Additional Sum.

A5. Probationary Period

Your internship will be subject to a probation period as outlined in paragraph 4.3 of Appendix B.

A6. Leave Entitlement

A6.1 Annual Leave

You are entitled to 20 working days of annual leave with full pay in every calendar year, pro-rated according to the duration of your employment in accordance with the Company's Human Resources Policies and applicable law. If you work part-time hours, your annual leave entitlement will be pro-rated to reflect your part-time hours worked.

A6.2 Other Leave

You can find further details of other leave entitlements in paragraph 5 of Appendix B.

A7. Benefits

You will not be entitled to join the Company's benefits programs, given the short length of your fixed-term contract.

A8. Retirement Scheme

You are not eligible for retirement benefits.

A9. Notice Period

During your probationary period, starting the day you join the Company, either you or the Company may terminate your employment with at least 14 days' written notice or payment in lieu of such notice period.

After the probationary period, either party can terminate the employment by giving the other party 30 Days written notice ("Notice Period") or by the Company making a payment in lieu of Notice Period.

APPENDIX B – GENERAL INTERNSHIP TERMS AND CONDITIONS

W.M.
14-6-05

B1. Internship

B1.1 Your internship is subject to:

- a) you being able to carry out your role in India while being able to be physically present in an JPMC office in Mumbai, India and obtaining and maintaining throughout your entire period of internship a valid work permit and such other permission, license or registration as may from time to time be necessary to enable you to carry out your duties and continue your internship.
- b) the completion of all pre-employment screening processes to the satisfaction of the Company, including obtaining education verification, background references and checks as sought and the execution of any other forms necessary for internship, etc.; and
- c) you being legally able to work with the Company. You undertake to disclose any internship or contractual post-internship restraints to which you are subject and which may, and will continue to, affect your internship with us and represent and warrant that:
 - ix. by entering into internship with the Company and performing the duties set out in this letter, you will not be in breach of any express or implied term of any internship or other agreement or arrangement to which you are party;
 - i. you have not taken or otherwise misappropriated and you do not have in your possession or control any confidential and proprietary information belonging to any of your prior employers, or any third party providing services to your prior employer, or connected with or derived from your services to prior employers and you have returned to all prior employers any and all such confidential or proprietary information; and
 - ii. you are not subject to any other internship, including being subject to garden leave or any contractual post-internship restraints.

You shall indemnify and hold harmless the Company from any and all claims arising from any breach of the warranties in this paragraph B1.

- B1.2 Whilst you and/or the Company may have agreed a tentative date of commencement of internship with the Company, you will not, unless the Company decides otherwise, be able to commence internship with the Company without our receipt of completed and satisfactory results from our pre-employment screening process.
- B1.3 You may be required to provide services for other members of the Group throughout your internship. When providing these services, you may from time to time be required to travel and work in different locations within and outside your hiring location.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Nilesh", written over a horizontal blue line.

B1.4 You will not undertake outside employment or activities with or without remuneration, unless you have the prior written approval of senior management of the Company or its delegate. Outside activities may include (but are not limited to) activities as a director, officer, partner, sole proprietor, consultant or controlling stockholder of any business. If your request to undertake outside activity is not approved by management and you decide to engage in the activity, your internship may be terminated without any notice or compensation.

B2. Remuneration

B2.1 We will deposit your stipend (paragraph 4 of Appendix A) on or around the 30th of each month.

B2.2 You will be responsible for all tax liabilities world-wide arising out of payments pursuant to your internship with the Company.

B2.3 Any payment of salary or bonus by, or other sum due to you from the Company shall be subject to any and all withholding or deduction (for, including but not limited to, any taxes, contributions, repayments or other sums which you have agreed that the Company may withhold/deduct or which the Company is obliged or entitled to withhold/deduct from time to time under any applicable law), and the Company shall in such case be entitled to withhold, deduct or retain the amount of such tax, withholding or deduction from any sum payable to you.

B3. Incentive Compensation

For this position, you won't be eligible for incentive awards under the JPMorgan Chase Performance-Based Incentive Compensation Plan or any other non-annual incentive compensation plan.

B4. Termination

B4.1 Your internship may be terminated as follows:

- a) By either party giving to the other prior written notice of at least the period specified, as applicable, in paragraph 9 in Appendix A (the "Notice Period"), or by the Company making a payment in lieu of notice for all or part of such Notice Period of an amount equal to basic salary you would have been entitled to receive during the Notice period or part of the Notice Period;
- b) By the Company at any time without notice or compensation if you:
 - i) are guilty of fraud, dishonesty or misconduct which is inconsistent with the due and faithful discharge of your duties;

14.6.8

- (i) seriously breach the Code of Conduct and any other Company policies;
 - (ii) disobey the Company's lawful and reasonable instructions;
 - (iii) habitually neglect your duties; or
 - (iv) otherwise commit a material or repeated breach of your internship terms or any of the Company's or Group's policies.
- B4.2 During any Notice Period, the Company may put you on "garden leave" and may, amongst other things, do any or a combination of the following:
 - (a) suspend you from the performance of any duties or assign you alternative duties;
 - (b) exclude you from any premises of the Company or any of the Group companies and/or require you to work from another location;
 - (c) require that you have no or limited contact or communication, other than purely social contact, with any employees, officers, directors, agents or consultants of the Company or any other member of the Group;
 - (d) require that you have no or limited contact or communication with any customer or client of the Company or any other member of the Group;
 - (e) remove your access to the Company premises and computer systems;
 - (f) require that you return any property belonging to the Company under paragraph 7 in this Appendix;
 - (g) require you not to do any act or thing, or make or cause to be made, any statement reasonably likely to damage the business or reputation of the Company or the Group.
- B4.3 If paragraph 5 of Appendix A states that your employment is subject to probation, your probation period will be the first 3 months of employment, which you agree is reasonable, and fair, in light of the responsibilities of the role.
- B4.4 At its sole discretion, the Company may notify you of an extension to your probationary period.
- B4.5 All your duties (whether express or implied) under your internship and this letter, including without limitation your duty of fidelity, good faith, exclusive service and duties in relation to the Group's confidential information shall continue throughout the Notice Period including any period that you are on garden leave.

B4.6 During any Notice Period:

- (a) you will provide such assistance as the Company may require to effect an orderly handover of your duties and responsibilities to any individual appointed by the Company or any of the Group Companies to take over your role or responsibilities; and
- (b) you shall make yourself available to deal with requests for information, provide assistance, be available for meetings and to advise on matters relating to work.

B5 Leave

B5.1 Annual Leave

- (a) You will be entitled to annual leave with full pay in every calendar year – please see paragraph 6 of Appendix A, pro-rated according to the duration of your employment. The Company will be entitled to determine when annual leave is taken, although as far as possible, arrangements will be made to suit your convenience. Annual leave entitlement for each calendar year must be taken in that calendar year and only in exceptional circumstances can annual leave (other than unused statutory entitlement, if any) be carried forward into the following calendar year. All annual leave days taken will be deducted first from the statutory entitlement accumulation.
- (b) After a notice of termination has been given pursuant to paragraph B4.1 of this Appendix, you will not be entitled to take any annual leave without the express consent of the Company provided after notice of termination has been given.
- (c) You must comply with the Company's 'consecutive days leave' policies.

B5.2 Sick Leave

Any sick leave entitlement will be subject to relevant legislation and J.P. Morgan internal policies that are in force and amended from time to time. More details are set out in the me@jpmc website, which will be accessible to you upon commencement of your employment.

B5.3 Suspension Leave

The Company has the right to suspend you from your work duties with full pay when it considers it necessary to investigate any allegation of misconduct or impropriety on your part. The Company can exercise this right at its sole discretion, acting in good faith.

B6 Confidentiality

You acknowledge that a vast amount of privileged and confidential information will be disclosed to you in course of your internship with the Company and during your internship with the Company and thereafter, you shall keep secret and shall not at any time (whether during or after the period of your internship) use for your own or another's advantage, or reveal to any person, firm or company, any of the trade secrets, business methods and plans, financial matters, client lists, investments, marketing plans, personnel matters or other information which you knew or reasonably ought to have known to be confidential concerning the business or affairs of the Company or any other member of the Group or any of their related companies, clients or suppliers.

You agree to abide by the specific provisions on the use of confidential information in the Company's policies and Group code of conduct.

The restriction contained in this paragraph shall not apply to any disclosure or use authorised by the Company or required by law.

B7. Return of Company Property

You acknowledge that any privileged or confidential information disclosed to you in the course of your internship with the Company remains the exclusive property of the Company and whenever requested by the Company and/or Group and in any event upon the termination of your internship, you will promptly deliver to the Company and/or Group all documents and other materials (whether originals or copies or in hard copy or electronic form) concerning the Company and/or Group or their respective clients and suppliers, which may have been prepared by you or have come into your possession, custody or control in the course of your internship with the Company. This includes, without limitation, any confidential information, lists of clients or suppliers, correspondence, electronic equipment, computer software or hardware, staff identity cards, card and other property used in connection with the operations of the Company and/or Group. You will not be entitled to, and will not retain, any copies, title and copyright in such correspondence and other documents, papers, records and property are vested in the Company and/or Group.

B8. Post Internship Restrictions

- B8.1 For a period of three months commencing on the Relevant Date, you shall not directly or indirectly (whether on your own account, for or with any other person, firm or company) solicit or endeavor to entice away from the Company or any other Group Company any Critical Person.
- B8.2 For a period of three months commencing on the Relevant Date, you shall not directly or indirectly (whether on your own account, for or with any other person, firm or company) solicit or endeavor to entice away from the Company or any other Group Company the business or custom of any Restricted Client.
- B8.3 The duration of the restrictions will be reduced by any period of notice that you work out or any period of garden leave as provided in this offer letter.

B8.4 In this paragraph B8:

- a) "Critical Person" means any person who was an employee or director of the Company or any other Group Company at any time within one year prior to the Relevant Date who had access to trade secrets or confidential information of the Company or any other Group Company. This includes knowledge of, involvement with or influence over suppliers or clients of the Company or any other Group Company with whom you worked at any time during that period.
- b) "Group Company" means the Company, its ultimate holding company, any subsidiary of the Company and any holding company from time to time. "Subsidiary" and "holding company" shall have the same meaning as in the relevant companies' legislation.
- c) "Restricted Client" means any person:
 - i. who in the one year before the Relevant Date was a client of, or has dealt with, the Company or any other Group Company; and
 - ii. with whose custom or business you, or persons reporting to you, were personally involved with during the period of one year prior to the Relevant Date
 - iii but does not include publicly known institutional clients which you serve subsequent to your internship with the Company without the use of confidential or proprietary information of the Company and the Group.
- d) "Relevant Date" means the date your internship with the Company or the Group terminates for whatever reason.

B8.5 You acknowledge and agree:

- a) that each of the foregoing paragraphs constitutes an entirely separate and independent restriction on you;
- b) that the duration, extent and application of each restrictions, obligations and undertakings are reasonable and necessary to protect legitimate interests of the Company and the Group, considering, among other things, that the Company has commercial dealings with business partners throughout the world and that you will regularly be dealing with such partners as part of your duties and you understand that it does not by any means prevent you from earning a living in a satisfactory way;
- c) that, if any such restriction (or parts of a restriction) shall be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be void or unenforceable, the validity or enforceability of the remaining restrictions (or parts of a restriction) shall remain in full force and effect as if the unenforceable parts had been deleted. Damages may be an inadequate compensation for breach of any of the restrictions in this paragraph and, subject to a court's discretion, in the event of any actual or threatened breach of any provision of this paragraph, you agree that the Company shall be entitled to (on behalf of itself and on behalf of any other Group Company) restrain, by injunction, equitable relief or similar remedy, any conduct or threatened conduct by you. You expressly submit to the jurisdiction of any court of competent jurisdiction for this purpose, and in the event you receive from any person an offer of employment (whether oral or in writing and whether accepted or not), either during your internship or the continuation in force of all or any of the restrictions applicable to you, whether pursuant to this letter or the Code of Conduct, you shall provide to the person making such an offer of employment a full and accurate copy of the then current restrictions applicable to you.

- d) that any benefit given or deemed to be given by you to the Group under the terms of this paragraph is received and held on trust by the Company for the relevant Group Company. You will enter into appropriate restrictive covenants directly with other Group Companies if asked to do so by the Company.
- e) that your internship with the Company and the compensation paid and/or payable to you by the Company shall be sufficient consideration for the purposes of this clause. You further agree and acknowledge that the limitations as to time and the character or nature placed in this clause are reasonable and fair and will not preclude you from earning a livelihood, nor will they unreasonably impose limitations on your ability to earn a living.
- f) that this offer letter constitutes a valid, legally binding and enforceable obligation on you and this document is not in violation of any applicable law.
- g) that any breach or threat of breach on your part of any one of such obligations and/or undertakings would cause serious harm to the Company or the Group which may then institute any legal recourse against you that is deemed appropriate and/or recourse in damages, without further notice or delay.
- h) that you shall not assign this offer letter or the rights and/or obligations hereunder. The Company may assign its rights and obligations herein in all circumstances without your consent, including in connection with any sale, transfer or disposition of all or substantially all of its business and operations and its assets, in which case the Company's rights and obligations shall vest to the successor.
- i) in addition, you agree and acknowledge that the potential harm to the Company of the non-enforcement of this clause outweighs any potential harm to you and that you have given careful consideration to the restraints imposed upon you by this clause and that you are in full agreement as to their necessity for the reasonable and proper protection of the Company's interests. You expressly acknowledge and agree that each and every restraint imposed by this clause is reasonable with respect to subject matter, time period and geographical area.

B9. Code of Conduct and Staff Regulations and Affirmation

- B9.1 It is a condition of your continuing internship and it is your obligation that you comply with:
- (a) the Code of Conduct (as amended from time to time or superseded). At the time of acceptance of the offer of internship and on a periodic basis, you will be required to sign an affirmation (or reaffirmation) confirming your understanding and compliance with the provisions of the Code of Conduct; and
 - (b) the Company's other internal policies and procedures and all relevant policies and procedures for the line of business in which you are to undertake work.
- B9.2 The Company shall be entitled at any time to amend the Company's internal policies and procedures (including but not limited to the Code of Conduct), the benefits set out in the Appendices and other staff regulations, as well as to put in place new policies as the Company sees fit. Any such amendments shall be notified in writing to each employee and shall on provision of such notice, become legally binding.
- B9.3 The Company's Human Resources work policies are set out in the me@jpmc website, as amended from time to time. Please take time to familiarise yourself with these policies when you begin your internship.
- B9.4 To the extent that the contents of policies or procedures refer to obligations on the Company, you agree that they are guides only and are not contractual terms, conditions or representations on which you rely.

B10. Working Hours

- B10.1 Your total working hours (including break(s)) is 40 hours per working week during the tenure of your internship and you should attend office 5 days every working week. Your working hours may be revised at the discretion of the Company.

B11. Retirement Benefits

You are not eligible for retirement benefits.

B12. Contract Execution

- B12.1 You acknowledge and agree that:

- (a) This letter may be delivered in a digital or physical format. Subject to any applicable law, where the letter is provided in a digital format, you acknowledge and agree that it is being executed electronically and that it is enforceable.

- (b) You have read and understood the terms of this letter and have been provided with an opportunity to review and discuss the terms of it with advisors, if you so desire.
- (c) Should any further assurances be required or sought by the Company, you shall in good faith perform such further actions (including executing a physical copy of this letter)

B13 Governing Law and Jurisdiction

This letter and any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with it or its subject matter or formation (including non-contractual disputes or claims) shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of India. You and the Company submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the Mumbai, Maharashtra courts in relation to any dispute arising in connection with your internship and this letter.

APPENDIX C - SYSTEMS MONITORING ACTIVITIES AND CROSS-BORDER TRANSFERS, PERSONAL ACCOUNT DEALING POLICY, AND CODE OF CONDUCT

Appendix: Systems Monitoring Activities and Cross-Border Transfers;

The following provides a summary of how JPMorgan Chase & Co., its affiliates and its subsidiaries and the entity that employs you, or for which you provide services (collectively, "JPMC"), conducts Systems monitoring. JPMC may conduct monitoring to the extent permitted by applicable law.

JPMC conducts monitoring of JPMC's physical facilities and its equipment and systems (collectively, the "Systems"). System monitoring applies to your JPMC equipment, your personal equipment when accessing the Systems, and the communications, information, and materials conveyed or accessed using the Systems. Monitoring activities may include the monitoring and logging of traffic and usage data of all electronic communications; monitoring of telephone calls to or from JPMC work telephones as permitted by applicable laws and subject to any required notices; monitoring of the contents of electronic communications, files, databases, applications, and internet usage; and logging hours worked and physical presence at JPMC's facilities if applicable. JPMC may at all times monitor, access, retrieve, record and review information obtained from the monitoring activities for various purposes, such as preventing and investigating activities that may violate JPMC's policies and ensuring compliance with legal or regulatory obligations. While conducting monitoring activities, JPMC may obtain and process personal information about you and others that may reside on the Systems.

The monitoring activities (including JPMC's collection and processing of personal or other information) are required for purposes of your employment or work assignment to promote adherence to applicable policies and regulations. Subject to applicable laws and regulations, if you object to this processing, JPMC may prohibit you from using the Systems; terminate offers of employment or work assignment; and, for employees, take disciplinary action against you, up to and including termination of your employment with JPMC.

JPMC may disclose the information it obtains in connection with monitoring activities to JPM affiliates and to third parties, service providers, regulators, supervisory bodies, law enforcement and other government agencies. Information obtained from the monitoring activities may be used as the basis to take disciplinary actions, up to and including termination or other legal action, for violations of JPMC's policies or applicable laws.

In addition to the monitoring activities discussed above, JPMC may obtain and store other information related to your employment or other working relationship, such as your compensation information, performance information, benefits information and other workplace related data. JPMC may transfer such information, and the information it obtains in connection with monitoring activities, to countries other than the country in which the information originally was collected, including to the United States.

Understanding Obligations under the Firm's Personal Account Dealing Policy (PAD)

The Personal Account Dealing Policy (Policy) of JPMorgan Chase & Co. (firm or "JPMC") is designed to help prevent and detect violations of securities laws and industry conduct standards and to minimize actual or perceived conflicts of interest that could arise due to personal investing or holdings.

PAD Compliance will notify you if the position you are being offered is considered to be subject to the Policy. You will remain subject for the duration of your time working in a subject group, unless notified otherwise of a change in subject status. Unless otherwise notified, you will continue to be subject to the provisions of the Policy even during leaves of absence from the firm, including, but not limited to, garden leave or medical leave.

You as well as your Connected Persons are subject to the provisions of this Policy and will need to be familiar with the obligations set forth in this policy. Connected Persons includes your spouse, domestic partner or minor children (even if financially independent) as well as anyone to whom you provide significant financial support or for which you, or anyone listed above, has or shares the power, directly or indirectly, to make investment decisions.

Once subject to the Policy, you must disclose and certify your Covered Accounts (which include accounts of your Connected Persons). You will be required to maintain your self-directed Covered Accounts with one of the firm's Approved Brokers and preclear all purchases, sales, pledges and gifts (received and given) of publicly traded and privately held financial instruments, unless listed as specifically exempt. Pre-approval confirmations must be received prior to executing the trade or investment. The firm may impose periodic restrictions on personal trading in certain financial securities. These restrictions can apply to all firm subject Workforce Members and their Connected Persons or may be limited to certain groups. Subject Workforce Members and their Connected Persons are not permitted to recommend or transact in the financial instruments of an issuer while in the possession of material non-public information (MNPI) regarding that issuer.

If you are a seasonal or short term employee the following requirements will apply:

JPMorgan Chase requires that seasonal workers refrain from trading in Covered Accounts for the time period that you are employed in a short term training program. Please verify that you will

comply with the following personal trading requirements:

1. For the duration of the short term program I am joining I will not trade in any of my Covered Accounts
2. I understand that the Firm has the right to request account information for any of my Covered Accounts
3. If there is an extenuating circumstance that would compel me to place a trade in my Covered Accounts, I will obtain pre-approval of the trade by the Personal Account Dealing Group and I would be responsible for supplying all confirmations and statements to the Personal Account Dealing Group for that trade.

*The term Covered Accounts refers to any securities accounts no matter where they are located and includes, but is not limited to, those accounts that are established, maintained or controlled (either directly or indirectly) by you, your spouse, domestic partner or minor children (even if financially independent), anyone to whom you provide significant financial support, and in which the employee has a direct or indirect financial interest.

Global Personal Trading Policy:

The Personal Account Dealing of JPMorgan Chase & Co. is designed to help prevent and detect violations of securities laws and industry conduct standards and to minimize actual or perceived conflicts of interest that could arise due to personal investing activities. This Policy includes requirements for disclosing Covered Accounts, maintaining certain accounts at one of the firm's Approved Brokers, preclearing trades, and restrictions and prohibitions on certain types of trading activity. This Policy is subject to any applicable local laws and rules and should be read in conjunction with Supplements (regional/LOB) as well as the firm's Code of Conduct.

Conflict of Interests and Outside Interests:

Under JPMorgan Chase & Co.'s (JPMC) Code of Conduct, employees are responsible for avoiding activities or relationships that might affect their objectivity in making decisions as an employee. Employees are not permitted to allow their personal interest to conflict, or appear to conflict, with their JPMC role and responsibilities.

Outside Interests include second jobs, not for profit activities, government positions, and positions with external companies and organizations as a director, officer, advisor, sole proprietor, consultant or owner of any business. Outside Interests may result in an actual or perceived conflict of interest. Where actual or potential conflicts of interest cannot be mitigated, you may be required to discontinue the activity or dissolve your investment.

Employees are required to seek preclearance prior to engaging in Outside Interests or immediately upon joining JPMC. Where preclearance is not required, employee must adhere to all restrictions and conditions outlined in Section 5 and 6 of the Outside Interest Policy.

Conflicts of interests may also arise from: (1) personal and business relationships; (2) the exchange of gifts and business hospitality; (3) political engagement; and (4) personal finances. Employees should avoid activities or relationships that might affect their objectivity in making decisions on behalf of JPMC or undermine their credibility. Employees may never place personal interests ahead of our clients' interests. All potential and actual conflicts must be escalated to your manager for review and mitigation.

Acceptance and Code Affirmation:

Upon signing this letter I accept the terms and conditions described above.

I hereby affirm that I have read, understand, and am in compliance with the JPMorgan Chase ("JPMC") Code of Conduct and all internal JPMC policies that apply to me. I agree, as a condition of my employment, to remain in compliance with the Code of Conduct and all applicable JPMC policies.

I understand that I must conduct myself in a way that is consistent with the Code of Conduct, demonstrating compliance with the principles and intent of the Code of Conduct, and applicable laws and regulations.

I also affirm that I have reported any potential or actual violations of the Code of Conduct, JPMC policies, or laws or regulations applicable to JPMC's business, as required by the Code of Conduct. I understand that failure to do so can result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

I understand that the Code of Conduct may be updated periodically, as necessary, and that the current version is posted on the JPMorgan Chase intranet as well as on its public website.

Independent Auditor Tax Services to Employees of JPMorgan Chase and its Affiliates:

To be in compliance with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (PCAOB) Rule 3523, it is JPMorgan Chase's (JPMC) policy that PricewaterhouseCoopers (PwC) cannot provide any tax services to employees of JPMC or any of its controlled entities (hereafter referred to as JPMC employee). This restriction is regardless of whether the individual is in a financial reporting oversight role or not, and whether PwC is engaged by the individual or by JPMC. PwC is also prohibited from providing any tax services to a spouse of a JPMC employee if the work is related to a joint tax return. Exceptions to this policy will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis and will require the approval of the JPMC Controller.

Dear Gauri,

We are pleased to extend to you a formal offer to join ISS Services Pvt Ltd ("the Firm") as an Intern in Development in Mumbai. We are pleased to meet you and are excited about the prospect of working with you.

You will receive a monthly stipend of INR 30,000 payable at the end of each month. You will begin working in January 4, 2023 and are expected to remain for six months. Your start date with the firm will be January 4, 2023.

During your internship, you are entitled to 7 days of leave (paid & all-inclusive for any reason – vacation/sick etc.) apart from the public holidays (as per company's holiday list) and weekly holidays during your six-months internship period.

Please note that as a condition of your participation in the program you will be bound by the ISS Code of Conduct and other relevant policies as may be issued, updated, varied and supplemented by the firm. Any violation of the Code of Conduct or related policies and procedures may subject you to disciplinary action.

In accordance with the Firm's Code of Conduct, you acknowledge that in the course of the internship and following its termination, you are not permitted to make any unauthorized use of documents or other information, which are confidential or proprietary information of another individual, or company. Likewise you may not bring onto firm's premises any confidential documents, relating to any prior employers' business.

Your acceptance of this position implies a commitment on your part to stay with ISS Services Pvt Ltd for a six-months period. However, while an intern will normally complete this program, please remember that this is not a guaranteed term of employment and either you or the firm may terminate this relationship at any time for any reason. The notice period for the termination of service is 7 days.

This offer is governed by the laws of India and is contingent upon a number of additional steps in the employment process including but not limited to showing a proof of citizenship or obtaining appropriate right to work documentation.

We know you will find the business to be both challenging and exciting and look forward to seeing you on board. If you have any questions regarding our offer or the firm more generally, please feel free to contact us.

We ask you to confirm your acceptance by signing and dating this offer letter. A copy of the letter is provided for your review.

Yours sincerely,

By and on behalf of

Dear Pranay,

Your Internship by J.P. Morgan

Congratulations on joining the J.P. Morgan family. We are pleased to confirm your internship with J.P. Morgan Services India Private Limited (the "Company").

You will find your personal internship terms outlined in Appendix A with general internship terms and conditions in Appendix B. Please note these terms and conditions supersede any verbal discussions you may have previously had with any JPMorgan Chase employee with regards to your internship arrangements.

A number of important policies will apply to your internship with the Company, including the Personal Account Dealing Policy and the Code of Conduct. We provide more information about these policies in Appendix C and it is essential that you carefully read and understand their requirements. By signing this letter, you confirm that you have read, understood and agree to be bound by these policies. In addition, you will be required to abide by all other Company policies and regulations (including JPMorgan Chase group of companies (the "Group") policies) and with applicable law.

Should you have queries in relation to your employment terms, your benefits or Company policies, please contact our HR Answers hotline at 000 800 440 5210 (local toll free) or +1 212-552-5100 (international).

Please be reminded your internship terms should be treated with the strictest confidence. To accept this offer of internship, please click on the 'Accept' button at the bottom of this page on or before 28-Nov-2022.

We are excited to welcome you to our Company and take this opportunity to wish you every success in taking this next step of your career with us.

Appendix A – PERSONAL INTERNSHIP TERMS AND CONDITIONS

A1. Title/Category

You will join us as an intern in the Global Risk & Compliance Program at JPMorgan Chase & Co., and will carry out your role while physically present in the J.P. Morgan offices in Mumbai, India.

A2. Internship Commencement Date

Your internship shall begin on 16-Jan-2023 ("Start Date") and shall continue, subject to the remaining terms of this agreement, until it terminates on 30-Jun-2023 ("End Date") without the need for notice, unless previously terminated by either party pursuant to paragraph 4 of Appendix B.

In addition to the conditions set out in paragraph 1 of Appendix B, your offer is subject to you successfully meeting the educational criteria that has already been communicated to you in writing.

A3. Working Hours

Your manager will assign you specific working hours, often during the Company's normal office hours. Depending on the needs of your department, however, you may be required to work outside the official hours to fulfill your duties.

A4. Stipend

Your stipend will be INR60,000/- per month.

Relocation Lump Sum

You will receive an additional, one-time lump sum of INR85000("the Additional Sum") gross with your first stipend. This payment will be made to you in the first available payroll after you join the Company. You should be aware that this might be in the month of joining or the following month depending on your commencement date and when all necessary data is received. This is to assist with any relocation expenses you may incur prior to joining.

If you leave the internship or your internship is terminated for any reason, you must repay to the Company the Additional Sum on a pro-rated basis, as set out below:

If your internship period is longer than 3 months and you leave the internship or your internship is terminated for any reason within three months of your date of commencement you must repay to the Company 100% of the gross amount of the Additional Sum
If your internship period is longer than 3 months and you leave the internship or your internship is terminated for any reason more than three months but within twelve months of your date of commencement you must repay to the Company 50% of the gross amount of

the Additional Sum

If your internship period is less than 3 months and you leave the internship or your internship is terminated for any reason before completion of your internship period you must repay the Company 100% of the gross amount of the Additional Sum

A5. Probationary Period

Your internship will be subject to a probation period as outlined in paragraph 4.3 of Appendix B.

A6. Leave Entitlement

A6.1 Annual Leave

You are entitled to 20 working days of annual leave with full pay in every calendar year, pro-rated according to the duration of your employment in accordance with the Company's Human Resources Policies and applicable law. If you work part-time hours, your annual leave entitlement will be pro-rated to reflect your part-time hours worked.

A6.2 Other Leave

You can find further details of other leave entitlements in paragraph 5 of Appendix B.

A7. Benefits

You will not be entitled to join the Company's benefits programs, given the short length of your fixed-term contract.

A8. Retirement Scheme

You are not eligible for retirement benefits.

A9. Notice Period

During your probationary period, starting the day you join the Company, either you or the Company may terminate your employment with at least 14 days' written notice or payment of wages in lieu of such notice period.

After the probationary period, either party can terminate the employment by giving the other party 30 Days written notice ("Notice Period") or by the Company making a payment in lieu of Notice Period.

APPENDIX B – GENERAL INTERNSHIP TERMS AND CONDITIONS

B1. Internship

B1.1 Your internship is subject to:

- a) you being able to carry out your role in India while being able to be physically present in an JPMC office in Mumbai, India and obtaining and maintaining throughout your entire period of internship a valid work permit and such other permission, license or registration as may from time to time be necessary to enable you to carry out your duties and continue your internship.
- b) the completion of all pre-employment screening processes to the satisfaction of the Company, including obtaining education verification, background references and checks as sought and the execution of any other forms necessary for internship, etc.; and
- c) you being legally able to work with the Company. You undertake to disclose any internship or contractual post-internship restraints to which you are subject and which may, and will continue to, affect your internship with us and represent and warrant that:
 - i. by entering into internship with the Company and performing the duties set out in this letter, you will not be in breach of any express or implied term of any internship or other agreement or arrangement to which you are party;
 - ii. you have not taken or otherwise misappropriated and you do not have in your possession or control any confidential and proprietary information belonging to any of your prior employers, or any third party providing services to your prior employer, or connected with or derived from your services to prior employers and you have returned to all prior employers any and all such confidential or proprietary information; and
 - iii. you are not subject to any other internship, including being subject to garden leave or any contractual post-internship restraints.

You shall indemnify and hold harmless the Company from any and all claims arising from any breach of the warranties in this paragraph B1.

- B1.2 Whilst you and/or the Company may have agreed a tentative date of commencement of internship with the Company, you will not, unless the Company decides otherwise, be able to commence internship with the Company without our receipt of completed and satisfactory results from our pre-employment screening process.
- B1.3 You may be required to provide services for other members of the Group throughout your internship. When providing these services, you may from time to time be required to travel and work in different locations within and outside your hiring location.

B1.4 You will not undertake outside employment or activities with or without remuneration, unless you have the prior written approval of senior management of the Company or its delegate. Outside activities may include (but are not limited to) activities as a director, officer, partner, sole proprietor, consultant or controlling stockholder of any business. If your request to undertake outside activity is not approved by management and you decide to engage in the activity, your internship may be terminated without any notice or compensation.

B2. Remuneration

B2.1 We will deposit your stipend (paragraph 4 of Appendix A) on or around the 30th of each month.

B2.2 You will be responsible for all tax liabilities world-wide arising out of payments pursuant to your internship with the Company.

B2.3 Any payment of salary or bonus by, or other sum due to you from the Company shall be subject to any and all withholding or deduction (or, including but not limited to, any taxes, contributions, repayments or other sums which you have agreed that the Company may withhold/deduct or which the Company is obliged or entitled to withhold/deduct from time to time under any applicable law), and the Company shall in such case be entitled to withhold, deduct or retain the amount of such tax, withholding or deduction from any sum payable to you.

B3. Incentive Compensation

For this position, you won't be eligible for incentive awards under the JPMorgan Chase Performance-Based Incentive Compensation Plan or any other non-annual incentive compensation plan.

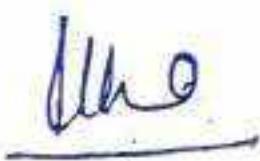

B4. Termination

B4.1 Your internship may be terminated as follows:

- a) By either party giving to the other prior written notice of at least the period specified, as applicable, in paragraph 9 in Appendix A (the "Notice Period"), or by the Company making a payment in lieu of notice for all or part of such Notice Period of an amount equal to basic salary you would have been entitled to receive during the Notice period or part of the Notice Period.
- b) By the Company at any time without notice or compensation if you:
 - i) are guilty of fraud, dishonesty or misconduct which is inconsistent with the due and faithful discharge of your duties;

- ii) seriously breach the Code of Conduct and any other Company policies;
 - iii) disobey the Company's lawful and reasonable instructions/requirements;
 - iv) habitually neglect your duties; or
 - v) otherwise commit a material or repeated breach of your internship terms or any of the Company's or Group's policies.
- B4.2 During any Notice Period, the Company may put you on "garden leave" and may, amongst other things, do any or a combination of the following:
- (a) suspend you from the performance of any duties or assign you alternative duties;
 - (b) exclude you from any premises of the Company or any of the Group companies and/or require you to work from another location;
 - (c) require that you have no or limited contact or communication, other than purely social contact, with any employees, officers, directors, agents or consultants of the Company or any other member of the Group;
 - (d) require that you have no or limited contact or communication with any customer or client of the Company or any other member of the Group;
 - (e) remove your access to the Company premises and computer systems;
 - (f) require that you return any property belonging to the Company under paragraph 7 in this Appendix;
 - (g) require you not to do any act or thing, or make or cause to be made, any statement reasonably likely to damage the business or reputation of the Company or the Group.
- B4.3 If paragraph 5 of Appendix A states that your employment is subject to probation, your probation period will be the first 3 months of employment, which you agree is reasonable, and fair, in light of the responsibilities of the role.
- B4.4 At its sole discretion, the Company may notify you of an extension to your probationary period.
- B4.5 All your duties (whether express or implied) under your internship and this letter, including without limitation your duty of fidelity, good faith, exclusive service and duties in relation to the Group's confidential information shall continue throughout the Notice Period including any period that you are on garden leave.

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "Mike", written over a horizontal line.

B4.6 During any Notice Period:

- (a) you will provide such assistance as the Company may require to effect an orderly handover of your duties and responsibilities to any individual appointed by the Company or any of the Group Companies to take over your role or responsibilities; and
- (b) you shall make yourself available to deal with requests for information, provide assistance, be available for meetings and to advise on matters relating to work.

B5. Leave

B5.1 Annual Leave

- (a) You will be entitled to annual leave with full pay in every calendar year – please see paragraph 6 of Appendix A, pro-rated according to the duration of your employment. The Company will be entitled to determine when annual leave is taken, although as far as possible, arrangements will be made to suit your convenience. Annual leave entitlement for each calendar year must be taken in that calendar year and only in exceptional circumstances can annual leave (other than unused statutory entitlement, if any) be carried forward into the following calendar year. All annual leave days taken will be deducted first from the statutory entitlement accumulation.
- (b) After a notice of termination has been given pursuant to paragraph B4.1 of this Appendix, you will not be entitled to take any annual leave without the express consent of the Company provided after notice of termination has been given.
- (c) You must comply with the Company's 'consecutive days leave' policies.

B5.2 Sick Leave

Any sick leave entitlement will be subject to relevant legislation and J.P. Morgan internal policies that are in force and amended from time to time. More details are set out in the me@jpmc website, which will be accessible to you upon commencement of your employment.

B5.3 Suspension Leave

The Company has the right to suspend you from your work duties with full pay when it considers it necessary to investigate any allegation of misconduct or impropriety on your part. The Company can exercise this right at its sole discretion, acting in good faith.

B6 Confidentiality

You acknowledge that a vast amount of privileged and confidential information will be disclosed to you in course of your internship with the Company, and during your internship with the Company and thereafter, you shall keep secret and shall not at any time (whether during or after the period of your internship) use for your own or another's advantage, or reveal to any person, firm or company, any of the trade secrets, business methods and plans, financial matters, client lists, investments, marketing plans, personnel matters or other information which you knew or reasonably ought to have known to be confidential concerning the business or affairs of the Company or any other member of the Group or any of their related companies, clients or suppliers.

You agree to abide by the specific provisions on the use of confidential information in the Company's policies and Group code of conduct.

The restriction contained in this paragraph shall not apply to any disclosure or use authorised by the Company or required by law.

B7. Return of Company Property

You acknowledge that any privileged or confidential information disclosed to you in the course of your internship with the Company remains the exclusive property of the Company and whenever requested by the Company and/or Group and in any event upon the termination of your internship, you will promptly deliver to the Company and/or Group all documents and other materials (whether originals or copies or in hard copy or electronic form) concerning the Company and/or Group or their respective clients and suppliers, which may have been prepared by you or have come into your possession, custody or control in the course of your internship with the Company. This includes, without limitation, any confidential information, lists of clients or suppliers, correspondence, electronic equipment, computer software or hardware, staff identity cards card and other property used in connection with the operations of the Company and/or Group. You will not be entitled to, and will not retain, any copies, title and copyright in such correspondence and other documents, papers, records and property are vested in the Company and/or Group.

B8. Post Internship Restrictions

- B8.1 For a period of three months commencing on the Relevant Date, you shall not directly or indirectly (whether on your own account, for or with any other person, firm or company) solicit or endeavor to entice away from the Company or any other Group Company any Critical Person.
- B8.2 For a period of three months commencing on the Relevant Date, you shall not directly or indirectly (whether on your own account, for or with any other person, firm or company) solicit or endeavor to entice away from the Company or any other Group Company the business or custom of any Restricted Client.
- B8.3 The duration of the restrictions will be reduced by any period of notice that you work out or

any period of garden leave as provided in this offer letter.

B8.4 In this paragraph B8:

- a) "Critical Person" means any person who was an employee or director of the Company or any other Group Company at any time within one year prior to the Relevant Date who had access to trade secrets or confidential information of the Company or any other Group Company. This includes knowledge of, involvement with or influence over suppliers or clients of the Company or any other Group Company with whom you worked at any time during that period.
- b) "Group Company" means the Company, its ultimate holding company, any subsidiary of the Company and any holding company from time to time. "Subsidiary" and "holding company" shall have the same meaning as in the relevant companies' legislation.
- c) "Restricted Client" means any person:
 - i. who in the one year before the Relevant Date was a client of, or has dealt with, the Company or any other Group Company; and
 - ii. with whose custom or business you, or persons reporting to you, were personally involved with during the period of one year prior to the Relevant Date
 - iii. but does not include publicly known institutional clients which you serve subsequent to your internship with the Company without the use of confidential or proprietary information of the Company and the Group.
- d) "Relevant Date" means the date your internship with the Company or the Group terminates for whatever reason.

B8.5 You acknowledge and agree:

- a) that each of the foregoing paragraphs constitutes an entirely separate and independent restriction on you;
- b) that the duration, extent and application of each restrictions, obligations and undertakings are reasonable and necessary to protect legitimate interests of the Company and the Group, considering, among other things, that the Company has commercial dealings with business partners throughout the world and that you will regularly be dealing with such partners as part of your duties and you understand that it does not by any means prevent you from earning a living in a satisfactory way;
- c) that, if any such restriction (or parts of a restriction) shall be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be void or unenforceable, the validity or enforceability of the remaining restrictions (or parts of a restriction) shall remain in full force and effect as if the unenforceable parts had been deleted. Damages may be an inadequate compensation for breach of any of the restrictions in this paragraph and, subject to a court's discretion, in the event of any actual or threatened breach of any provision of this paragraph, you agree that the Company shall be entitled to (on behalf of itself and on behalf of any other Group Company) restrain, by injunction, equitable relief or similar remedy, any conduct or threatened conduct by you. You expressly submit to the jurisdiction of any court of competent jurisdiction for this purpose, and in the event you receive from any person an offer of employment (whether oral or in writing and whether accepted or not), either during your internship or the continuation in force of all or any of the restrictions applicable to you, whether pursuant to this letter or the Code of Conduct, you shall provide to the person making such an offer of employment a full and accurate copy of the then current restrictions applicable to you.

- d) that any benefit given or deemed to be given by you to the Group under the terms of this paragraph is received and held on trust by the Company for the relevant Group Company. You will enter into appropriate restrictive covenants directly with other Group Companies if asked to do so by the Company;
- e) that your internship with the Company and the compensation paid and/or payable to you by the Company shall be sufficient consideration for the purposes of this clause. You further agree and acknowledge that the limitations as to time and the character or nature placed in this clause are reasonable and fair and will not preclude you from earning a livelihood, nor will they unreasonably impose limitations on your ability to earn a living;
- f) that this offer letter constitutes a valid, legally binding and enforceable obligation on you and this document is not in violation of any applicable law;
- g) that any breach or threat of breach on your part of any one of such obligations and/or undertakings would cause serious harm to the Company or the Group which may then institute any legal recourse against you that is deemed appropriate and/or recourse in damages, without further notice or delay;
- h) that you shall not assign this offer letter or the rights and/or obligations hereunder. The Company may assign its rights and obligations herein in all circumstances without your consent, including in connection with any sale, transfer or disposition of all or substantially all of its business and operations and its assets, in which case the Company's rights and obligations shall vest to the successor;
- i) in addition, you agree and acknowledge that the potential harm to the Company of the non-enforcement of this clause outweighs any potential harm to you and that you have given careful consideration to the restraints imposed upon you by this clause and that you are in full agreement as to their necessity for the reasonable and proper protection of the Company's interests. You expressly acknowledge and agree that each and every restraint imposed by this clause is reasonable with respect to subject matter, time period and geographical area.

- (a) the Code of Conduct (as amended from time to time or superseded). At the time of acceptance of the offer of internship and on a periodic basis, you will be required to sign an affirmation (or reaffirmation) confirming your understanding and compliance with the provisions of the Code of Conduct; and
 - (b) the Company's other internal policies and procedures and all relevant policies and procedures for the line of business in which you are to undertake work.
- B9.2 The Company shall be entitled at any time to amend the Company's internal policies and procedures (including but not limited to the Code of Conduct), the benefits set out in the Appendices and other staff regulations, as well as to put in place new policies as the Company sees fit. Any such amendments shall be notified in writing to each employee and shall on provision of such notice, become legally binding.
- B9.3 The Company's Human Resources work policies are set out in the mec@pmc website, as amended from time to time. Please take time to familiarise yourself with these policies when you begin your internship.
- B9.4 To the extent that the contents of policies or procedures refer to obligations on the Company, you agree that they are guides only and are not contractual terms, conditions or representations on which you rely.
- B10. Working Hours
- B10.1 Your total working hours (including break(s)) is 40 hours per working week during the tenure of your internship and you should attend office 5 days every working week. Your working hours may be revised at the discretion of the Company.
- B11. Retirement Benefits
- You are not eligible for retirement benefits.
- B12. Contract Execution
- B12.1 You acknowledge and agree that:
- (a) This letter may be delivered in a digital or physical format. Subject to any applicable law, where the letter is provided in a digital format, you acknowledge and agree that it is being executed electronically and that it is enforceable.

A handwritten signature in blue ink, consisting of stylized letters, is written over a thick black diagonal line.

- (b) You have read and understood the terms of this letter and have been provided with an opportunity to review and discuss the terms of it with advisors, if you so desire.
- (c) Should any further assurances be required or sought by the Company, you shall in good faith perform such further actions (including executing a physical copy of this letter).

B13. Governing Law and Jurisdiction

This letter and any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with it or its subject matter or formation (including non-contractual disputes or claims) shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of India. You and the Company submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the Mumbai, Maharashtra courts in relation to any dispute arising in connection with your internship and this letter.

APPENDIX C - SYSTEMS MONITORING ACTIVITIES AND CROSS-BORDER TRANSFERS,
PERSONAL ACCOUNT DEALING POLICY, AND CODE OF CONDUCT

Appendix: Systems Monitoring Activities and Cross-Border Transfers

The following provides a summary of how JPMorgan Chase & Co., its affiliates and its subsidiaries and the entity that employs you, or for which you provide services (collectively, "JPMC"), conducts Systems monitoring. JPMC may conduct monitoring to the extent permitted by applicable law.

JPMC conducts monitoring of JPMC's physical facilities and its equipment and systems (collectively, the "Systems"). System monitoring applies to your JPMC equipment, your personal equipment when accessing the Systems, and the communications, information, and materials conveyed or accessed using the Systems. Monitoring activities may include the monitoring and logging of traffic and usage data of all electronic communications; monitoring of telephone calls to or from JPMC work telephones as permitted by applicable laws and subject to any required notices; monitoring of the contents of electronic communications, files, databases, applications, and internet usage; and logging hours worked and physical presence at JPMC's facilities if applicable. JPMC may at all times monitor, access, retrieve, record and review information obtained from the monitoring activities for various purposes, such as preventing and investigating activities that may violate JPMC's policies and ensuring compliance with legal or regulatory obligations. While conducting monitoring activities, JPMC may obtain and process personal information about you and others that may reside on the Systems.

The monitoring activities (including JPMC's collection and processing of personal or other information) are required for purposes of your employment or work assignment to promote adherence to applicable policies and regulations. Subject to applicable laws and regulations, if you object to this processing, JPMC may prohibit you from using the Systems; terminate offers of employment or work assignment; and, for employees, take disciplinary action against you, up to and including termination of your employment with JPMC.

JPMC may disclose the information it obtains in connection with monitoring activities to JPMC affiliates and to third parties, service providers, regulators, supervisory bodies, law enforcement and other government agencies. Information obtained from the monitoring activities may be used as the basis to take disciplinary actions, up to and including termination or other legal action, for violations of JPMC's policies or applicable laws.

In addition to the monitoring activities discussed above, JPMC may obtain and store other information related to your employment or other working relationship, such as your compensation information, performance information, benefits information and other workplace-related data. JPMC may transfer such information, and the information it obtains in connection with monitoring activities, to countries other than the country in which the information originally was collected, including to the United States.

Understanding Obligations under the Firm's Personal Account Dealing Policy (PAD):

The Personal Account Dealing Policy (Policy) of JPMorgan Chase & Co. (firm or JPMC) is designed to help prevent and detect violations of securities laws and industry conduct standards and to minimize actual or perceived conflicts of interest that could arise due to personal investing activities.

PAD Compliance will notify you if the position you are being offered is considered to be subject to the Policy. You will remain subject for the duration of your time working in a subject group, unless notified otherwise of a change in subject status. Unless otherwise notified, you will continue to be subject to the provisions of the Policy even during leaves of absence from the firm, including, but not limited to, garden leave or medical leave.

You as well as your Connected Persons are subject to the provisions of this Policy and will need to be familiar with the obligations set forth in this policy. Connected Persons includes your spouse, domestic partner or minor children (even if financially independent) as well as anyone to whom you provide significant financial support or for which you, or anyone listed above, has or shares the power, directly or indirectly, to make investment decisions.

Once subject to the Policy, you must disclose and certify your Covered Accounts (which include accounts of your Connected Persons). You will be required to maintain your self-directed Covered Accounts with one of the firm's Approved Brokers and pre-clear all purchases, sales, pledges and gifts (received and given) of publicly traded and privately held financial instruments, unless listed as specifically exempt. Pre-approval confirmations must be received prior to executing the trade or investment. The firm may impose periodic restrictions on personal trading in certain financial securities. These restrictions can apply to all firm subject Workforce Members and their Connected Persons or may be limited to certain groups. Subject Workforce Members and their Connected Persons are not permitted to recommend or transact in the financial instruments of an issuer while in the possession of material non-public information (MNPI) regarding that issuer.

If you are a seasonal or short term employee the following requirements will apply

JPMorgan Chase requires that seasonal workers refrain from trading in Covered Accounts for the time period that you are employed in a short term training program. Please verify that you will

50G

comply with the following personal trading requirements:

1. For the duration of the short term program I am joining I will not trade in any of my Covered Accounts
2. I understand that the Firm has the right to request account information for any of my Covered Accounts
3. If there is an extenuating circumstance that would compel me to place a trade in my Covered Accounts, I will obtain pre-approval of the trade by the Personal Account Dealing Group and I would be responsible for supplying all confirmations and statements to the Personal Account Dealing Group for that trade

*The term Covered Accounts refers to any securities accounts no matter where they are located and includes, but is not limited to, those accounts that are established, maintained or controlled (either directly or indirectly) by you, your spouse, domestic partner or minor children (even if financially independent), anyone to whom you provide significant financial support, and in which the employee has a direct or indirect financial interest.

Global Personal Trading Policy:

The Personal Account Dealing of JPMorgan Chase & Co. is designed to help prevent and detect violations of securities laws and industry conduct standards and to minimize actual or perceived conflicts of interest that could arise due to personal investing activities. This Policy includes requirements for disclosing Covered Accounts, maintaining certain accounts at one of the firm's Approved Brokers, preclearing trades, and restrictions and prohibitions on certain types of trading activity. This Policy is subject to any applicable local laws and rules and should be read in conjunction with Supplements (regional/LOB) as well as the firm's Code of Conduct.

Conflict of Interests and Outside Interests:

Under JPMorgan Chase & Co.'s (JPMC) Code of Conduct, employees are responsible for avoiding activities or relationships that might affect their objectivity in making decisions as an employee. Employees are not permitted to allow their personal interest to conflict, or appear to conflict, with their JPMC role and responsibilities.

Outside Interests include second jobs, not for profit activities, government positions, and positions with external companies and organizations as a director, officer, advisor, sole proprietor, consultant or owner of any business. Outside Interests may result in an actual or perceived conflict of interest. Where actual or potential conflicts of interest cannot be mitigated, you may be required to discontinue the activity or dissolve your investment.

Employees are required to seek preclearance prior to engaging in Outside Interests or immediately upon joining JPMC. Where preclearance is not required, employee must adhere to all restrictions and conditions outlined in Section 5 and 6 of the Outside Interest Policy.

Conflicts of interests may also arise from: (1) personal and business relationships; (2) the exchange of gifts and business hospitality; (3) political engagement; and (4) personal finances. Employees should avoid activities or relationships that might affect their objectivity in making decisions on behalf of JPMC or undermine their credibility. Employees may never place personal interests ahead of our clients' interests. All potential and actual conflicts must be escalated to your manager for review and mitigation.

Acceptance and Code Affirmation:

Upon signing this letter I accept the terms and conditions described above.

I hereby affirm that I have read, understand, and am in compliance with the JPMorgan Chase ("JPMC") Code of Conduct and all internal JPMC policies that apply to me. I agree, as a condition of my employment, to remain in compliance with the Code of Conduct and all applicable JPMC policies.

I understand that I must conduct myself in a way that is consistent with the Code of Conduct, demonstrating compliance with the principles and intent of the Code of Conduct, and applicable laws and regulations.

I also affirm that I have reported any potential or actual violations of the Code of Conduct, JPMC policies, or laws or regulations applicable to JPMC's business, as required by the Code of Conduct. I understand that failure to do so can result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

I understand that the Code of Conduct may be updated periodically, as necessary; and that the current version is posted on the JPMorgan Chase intranet as well as on its public website.

Independent Auditor Tax Services to Employees of JPMorgan Chase and its Affiliates:

To be in compliance with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (PCAOB) Rule 3523, it is JPMorgan Chase's (JPMC) policy that PricewaterhouseCoopers (PwC) cannot provide any tax services to employees of JPMC or any of its controlled entities (hereafter referred to as JPMC employee). This restriction is regardless of whether the individual is in a financial reporting oversight role or not, and whether PwC is engaged by the individual or by JPMC. PwC is also prohibited from providing any tax services to a spouse of a JPMC employee if the work is related to a joint tax return. Exceptions to this policy will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis and will require the approval of the JPMC Controller.

clients and duly return the same to the Company.

- 5.5. If the employment of the Employee is terminated for cause, the Company shall not be obligated to make any further payment to the Employee (other than accrued and unpaid base salary and commissions and expenses to the date of termination) or continue to provide any benefit (other than benefits which have accrued pursuant to any plan or by law) to the Employee under this Agreement.

6. THE COMPANY'S POLICY MANUAL

You shall agree and undertake that you shall be bound by all the policies of the Company including the policies documented in the policy manual, adopted or to be adopted by the Company, and as may be amended from time to time.

7. NON - SOLICITATION AND NON-COMPETE

- 7.1 Employee shall devote all of Employee's time, attention, knowledge, and skills solely to the business and interest of the Company, and the Company shall be entitled to all the benefits, profits, or other issues arising from or incident to all work, services, and advice of Employee.
- 7.2 The Employee shall not, during the term of this Agreement, be interested directly or indirectly, in any manner, as partner, officer, director, shareholder, advisor, employee, or in any other capacity in any other business similar to that of the Company or any allied trade; provided, however, that nothing contained in this section shall be deemed to prevent or to limit the right of Employee to invest any of Employee's money in the capital stock or other securities of any corporation whose stock or securities are publicly owned or are regularly traded on any public exchange, nor shall anything contained in this section be deemed to prevent Employee from investing or limit Employee's right to invest Employee's money in real estate.
- 7.3 The Employee shall not at any time or in any manner, either directly or indirectly, divulge, disclose, or communicate to any person, firm, corporation, or other entity in any manner whatsoever any information concerning any matters affecting or relating to the business of the Company, including but not limited to any of its customers, the prices it obtains or has obtained from the sale of, or at which it sells or has sold, its products, or any other information concerning the business of the Company, its manner of operation, its plans, processes, or other data without regard to whether all of the above-stated matters will be deemed confidential, material, or important, the Company and the Employee stipulating that as between them, such matters are important, material, and confidential and gravely affect the effective and successful conduct of the business of the Company, and the Company's goodwill, and that any breach of the terms of this section shall be a material breach of this agreement.
- 7.4 The Employee shall inform the Employer immediately of any invention made by Employee during Employee's employment, or to which the Employer has contributed, directly or indirectly, in any way whatsoever and even to a very small extent. The Employee accepts that all and any rights attached to such invention will be assigned to the Employer and also waives any claim for compensation of such assignment. Employee shall put himself/herself completely at the disposal of Employer to assist the latter in applying for or registering a patent or any other intellectual right to such invention.
- 7.5 The Employee shall inform the Employer immediately of any invention made by Employee during Employee's employment, or to which the Employer has contributed, directly or indirectly, in any way whatsoever and even to a very small extent. The Employee accepts that all and any rights attached to such invention will be assigned to the Employer and also waives any claim for compensation of such assignment. Employee shall put himself/herself completely at the disposal of Employer to assist the latter in applying for or registering a patent or any other intellectual right to such invention.
- 7.6 Employee agrees that this non-competition section is necessary to protect Employer's business, and that Employee's violation of this section would result in irreparable harm to Employer. In the event Employee breaches this non-competition provision, Employer shall be entitled to injunctive relief in addition to any other remedies legally available. This non-competition provision shall survive termination of this Agreement and shall be legally enforceable pursuant to law.

the Additional Sum

If your internship period is less than 3 months and you leave the internship or your internship is terminated for any reason before completion of your internship period you must repay the Company 100% of the gross amount of the Additional Sum

A5. Probationary Period:

Your internship will be subject to a probation period as outlined in paragraph 4.3 of Appendix B.

A6. Leave Entitlement

A6.1 Annual Leave

You are entitled to 20 working days of annual leave with full pay in every calendar year, pro-rated according to the duration of your employment in accordance with the Company's Human Resources Policies and applicable law. If you work part-time hours, your annual leave entitlement will be pro-rated to reflect your part-time hours worked.

A6.2 Other Leave

You can find further details of other leave entitlements in paragraph 5 of Appendix B.

A7. Benefits

You will not be entitled to join the Company's benefits programs, given the short length of your fixed-term contract.

A8. Retirement Scheme

You are not eligible for retirement benefits.

A9. Notice Period

During your probationary period, starting the day you join the Company, either you or the Company may terminate your employment with at least 14 days' written notice or payment of wages in lieu of such notice period.

After the probationary period, either party can terminate the employment by giving the other party 30 Days' written notice ("Notice Period") or by the Company making a payment in lieu of Notice Period.

APPENDIX B – GENERAL INTERNSHIP TERMS AND CONDITIONS

B1. Internship

B1.1 Your internship is subject to:

- a) you being able to carry out your role in India while being able to be physically present in an JPMC office in Mumbai, India and obtaining and maintaining throughout your entire period of internship a valid work permit and such other permission, license or registration as may from time to time be necessary to enable you to carry out your duties and continue your internship.
- b) the completion of all pre-employment screening processes to the satisfaction of the Company, including obtaining education verification, background references and checks as sought and the execution of any other forms necessary for internship, etc.; and
- c) you being legally able to work with the Company. You undertake to disclose any internship or contractual post-internship restraints to which you are subject and which may, and will continue to, affect your internship with us and represent and warrant that:
 - i. by entering into internship with the Company and performing the duties set out in this letter, you will not be in breach of any express or implied term of any internship or other agreement or arrangement to which you are party;
 - ii. you have not taken or otherwise misappropriated and you do not have in your possession or control any confidential and proprietary information belonging to any of your prior employers, or any third party providing services to your prior employer, or connected with or derived from your services to prior employers and you have returned to all prior employers any and all such confidential or proprietary information; and
 - iii. you are not subject to any other internship, including being subject to garden leave or any contractual post-internship restraints.

You shall indemnify and hold harmless the Company from any and all claims arising from any breach of the warranties in this paragraph B1.

B1.2 Whilst you and/or the Company may have agreed a tentative date of commencement of internship with the Company, you will not, unless the Company decides otherwise, be able to commence internship with the Company without our receipt of completed and satisfactory results from our pre-employment screening process.

B1.3 You may be required to provide services for other members of the Group throughout your internship. When providing these services, you may from time to time be required to travel and work in different locations within and outside your hiring location.

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "Uma", written over a horizontal blue line.

B1.4 You will not undertake outside employment or activities with or without remuneration, unless you have the prior written approval of senior management of the Company or its delegate. Outside activities may include (but are not limited to) activities as a director, officer, partner, sole proprietor, consultant or controlling stockholder of any business. If your request to undertake outside activity is not approved by management and you decide to engage in the activity, your internship may be terminated without any notice or compensation.

B2. Remuneration

B2.1 We will deposit your stipend (paragraph 4 of Appendix A) on or around the 30th of each month.

B2.2 You will be responsible for all tax liabilities world-wide arising out of payments pursuant to your internship with the Company.

B2.3 Any payment of salary or bonus by, or other sum due to you from the Company shall be subject to any and all withholding or deduction (for, including but not limited to, any taxes, contributions, repayments or other sums which you have agreed that the Company may withhold/deduct or which the Company is obliged or entitled to withhold/deduct from time to time under any applicable law), and the Company shall in such case be entitled to withhold, deduct or retain the amount of such tax, withholding or deduction from any sum payable to you.

B3. Incentive Compensation

For this position, you won't be eligible for incentive awards under the JPMorgan Chase Performance-Based Incentive Compensation Plan or any other non-annual incentive compensation plan.

B4. Termination

B4.1 Your internship may be terminated as follows:

- a) By either party giving to the other prior written notice of at least the period specified, as applicable, in paragraph 9 in Appendix A (the 'Notice Period'), or by the Company making a payment in lieu of notice for all or part of such Notice Period of an amount equal to basic salary you would have been entitled to receive during the Notice period or part of the Notice Period.
- b) By the Company at any time without notice or compensation if you:
 - i) are guilty of fraud, dishonesty or misconduct which is inconsistent with the due and faithful discharge of your duties;

Uma

- ii) seriously breach the Code of Conduct and any other Company policies;
 - iii) disobey the Company's lawful and reasonable instructions/requirements;
 - iv) habitually neglect your duties; or
 - v) otherwise commit a material or repeated breach of your internship terms or any of the Company's or Group's policies.
- B4.2 During any Notice Period, the Company may put you on "garden leave" and may, amongst other things, do any or a combination of the following:
 - (a) suspend you from the performance of any duties or assign you alternative duties;
 - (b) exclude you from any premises of the Company or any of the Group companies and/or require you to work from another location;
 - (c) require that you have no or limited contact or communication, other than purely social contact, with any employees, officers, directors, agents or consultants of the Company or any other member of the Group;
 - (d) require that you have no or limited contact or communication with any customer or client of the Company or any other member of the Group;
 - (e) remove your access to the Company premises and computer systems;
 - (f) require that you return any property belonging to the Company under paragraph 7 in this Appendix;
 - (g) require you not to do any act or thing, or make or cause to be made, any statement reasonably likely to damage the business or reputation of the Company or the Group.
- B4.3 If paragraph 5 of Appendix A states that your employment is subject to probation, your probation period will be the first 3 months of employment, which you agree is reasonable, and fair, in light of the responsibilities of the role.
- B4.4 At its sole discretion, the Company may notify you of an extension to your probationary period.
- B4.5 All your duties (whether express or implied) under your internship and this letter, including without limitation your duty of fidelity, good faith, exclusive service and duties in relation to the Group's confidential information shall continue throughout the Notice Period including any period that you are on garden leave.

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "Wong".

B4.6 During any Notice Period:

- (a) you will provide such assistance as the Company may require to effect an orderly handover of your duties and responsibilities to any individual appointed by the Company or any of the Group Companies to take over your role or responsibilities; and
- (b) you shall make yourself available to deal with requests for information, provide assistance, be available for meetings and to advise on matters relating to work.

B5. Leave

B5.1 Annual Leave

- (a) You will be entitled to annual leave with full pay in every calendar year – please see paragraph 6 of Appendix A, pro-rated according to the duration of your employment. The Company will be entitled to determine when annual leave is taken, although as far as possible, arrangements will be made to suit your convenience. Annual leave entitlement for each calendar year must be taken in that calendar year and only in exceptional circumstances can annual leave (other than unused statutory entitlement, if any) be carried forward into the following calendar year. All annual leave days taken will be deducted first from the statutory entitlement accumulation.
- (b) After a notice of termination has been given pursuant to paragraph B4.1 of this Appendix, you will not be entitled to take any annual leave without the express consent of the Company provided after notice of termination has been given.
- (c) You must comply with the Company's 'consecutive days leave' policies.

B5.2 Sick Leave

Any sick leave entitlement will be subject to relevant legislation and J.P. Morgan internal policies that are in force and amended from time to time. More details are set out in the me@jpmc website, which will be accessible to you upon commencement of your employment.

B5.3 Suspension Leave

The Company has the right to suspend you from your work duties with full pay when it considers it necessary to investigate any allegation of misconduct or impropriety on your part. The Company can exercise this right at its sole discretion, acting in good faith.

B6 Confidentiality

111, 0

You acknowledge that a vast amount of privileged and confidential information will be disclosed to you in course of your internship with the Company and during your internship with the Company and thereafter, you shall keep secret and shall not at any time (whether during or after the period of your internship) use for your own or another's advantage, or reveal to any person, firm or company, any of the trade secrets, business methods and plans, financial matters, client lists, investments, marketing plans, personnel matters or other information which you knew or reasonably ought to have known to be confidential concerning the business or affairs of the Company or any other member of the Group or any of their related companies, clients or suppliers.

You agree to abide by the specific provisions on the use of confidential information in the Company's policies and Group code of conduct.

The restriction contained in this paragraph shall not apply to any disclosure or use authorised by the Company or required by law.

B7. Return of Company Property

You acknowledge that any privileged or confidential information disclosed to you in the course of your internship with the Company remains the exclusive property of the Company and whenever requested by the Company and/or Group and in any event upon the termination of your internship, you will promptly deliver to the Company and/or Group all documents and other materials (whether originals or copies or in hard copy or electronic form) concerning the Company and/or Group or their respective clients and suppliers, which may have been prepared by you or have come into your possession, custody or control in the course of your internship with the Company. This includes, without limitation, any confidential information, lists of clients or suppliers, correspondence, electronic equipment, computer software or hardware, staff identity cards card and other property used in connection with the operations of the Company and/or Group. You will not be entitled to, and will not retain, any copies, title and copyright in such correspondence and other documents, papers, records and property are vested in the Company and/or Group.

B8. Post internship Restrictions

- B8.1 For a period of three months commencing on the Relevant Date, you shall not directly or indirectly (whether on your own account, for or with any other person, firm or company) solicit or endeavor to entice away from the Company or any other Group Company any Critical Person.
- B8.2 For a period of three months commencing on the Relevant Date, you shall not directly or indirectly (whether on your own account, for or with any other person, firm or company) solicit or endeavor to entice away from the Company or any other Group Company the business or custom of any Restricted Client.
- B8.3 The duration of the restrictions will be reduced by any period of notice that you work out or any period of garden leave as provided in this offer letter.

B8.4 In this paragraph B8:

- a) "Critical Person" means any person who was an employee or director of the Company or any other Group Company at any time within one year prior to the Relevant Date who had access to trade secrets or confidential information of the Company or any other Group Company. This includes knowledge of, involvement with or influence over suppliers or clients of the Company or any other Group Company with whom you worked at any time during that period.
- b) "Group Company" means the Company, its ultimate holding company, any subsidiary of the Company and any holding company from time to time. "Subsidiary" and "holding company" shall have the same meaning as in the relevant companies' legislation.
- c) "Restricted Client" means any person:
 - i. who in the one year before the Relevant Date was a client of, or has dealt with, the Company or any other Group Company; and
 - ii. with whose custom or business you, or persons reporting to you, were personally involved with during the period of one year prior to the Relevant Date
 - iii. but does not include publicly known institutional clients which you serve subsequent to your internship with the Company without the use of confidential or proprietary information of the Company and the Group.
- d) "Relevant Date" means the date your internship with the Company or the Group terminates for whatever reason.

B8.5 You acknowledge and agree:

- a) that each of the foregoing paragraphs constitutes an entirely separate and independent restriction on you;
- b) that the duration, extent and application of each restrictions, obligations and undertakings are reasonable and necessary to protect legitimate interests of the Company and the Group, considering, among other things, that the Company has commercial dealings with business partners throughout the world and that you will regularly be dealing with such partners as part of your duties and you understand that it does not by any means prevent you from earning a living in a satisfactory way;
- c) that, if any such restriction (or parts of a restriction) shall be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be void or unenforceable, the validity or enforceability of the remaining restrictions (or parts of a restriction) shall remain in full force and effect as if the unenforceable parts had been deleted. Damages may be an inadequate compensation for breach of any of the restrictions in this paragraph and, subject to a court's discretion, in the event of any actual or threatened breach of any provision of this paragraph, you agree that the Company shall be entitled to (on behalf of itself and on behalf of any other Group Company) restrain, by injunction, equitable relief or similar remedy, any conduct or threatened conduct by you. You expressly submit to the jurisdiction of any court of competent jurisdiction for this purpose, and in the event you receive from any person an offer of employment (whether oral or in writing and whether accepted or not), either during your internship or the continuation in force of all or any of the restrictions applicable to you, whether pursuant to this letter or the Code of Conduct, you shall provide to the person making such an offer of employment a full and accurate copy of the then current restrictions applicable to you.

- d) that any benefit given or deemed to be given by you to the Group under the terms of this paragraph is received and held on trust by the Company for the relevant Group Company. You will enter into appropriate restrictive covenants directly with other Group Companies if asked to do so by the Company.
- e) that your internship with the Company and the compensation paid and/or payable to you by the Company shall be sufficient consideration for the purposes of this clause. You further agree and acknowledge that the limitations as to time and the character or nature placed in this clause are reasonable and fair and will not preclude you from earning a livelihood, nor will they unreasonably impose limitations on your ability to earn a living.
- f) that this offer letter constitutes a valid, legally binding and enforceable obligation on you and this document is not in violation of any applicable law.
- g) that any breach or threat of breach on your part of any one of such obligations and/or undertakings would cause serious harm to the Company or the Group which may then institute any legal recourse against you that is deemed appropriate and/or recourse in damages, without further notice or delay.
- h) that you shall not assign this offer letter or the rights and/or obligations hereunder. The Company may assign its rights and obligations herein in all circumstances without your consent, including in connection with any sale, transfer or disposition of all or substantially all of its business and operations and its assets, in which case the Company's rights and obligations shall vest to the successor.
- i) in addition, you agree and acknowledge that the potential harm to the Company of the non-enforcement of this clause outweighs any potential harm to you and that you have given careful consideration to the restraints imposed upon you by this clause and that you are in full agreement as to their necessity for the reasonable and proper protection of the Company's interests. You expressly acknowledge and agree that each and every restraint imposed by this clause is reasonable with respect to subject matter, time period and geographical area.

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "Uma", is written over a solid horizontal line.

- B9. Code of Conduct and Staff Regulations and Affirmation
- B9.1 It is a condition of your continuing internship and it is your obligation that you comply with:
- (a) the Code of Conduct (as amended from time to time or superseded). At the time of acceptance of the offer of internship and on a periodic basis, you will be required to sign an affirmation (or reaffirmation) confirming your understanding and compliance with the provisions of the Code of Conduct; and
 - (b) the Company's other internal policies and procedures and all relevant policies and procedures for the line of business in which you are to undertake work.
- B9.2 The Company shall be entitled at any time to amend the Company's internal policies and procedures (including but not limited to the Code of Conduct), the benefits set out in the Appendices and other staff regulations, as well as to put in place new policies as the Company sees fit. Any such amendments shall be notified in writing to each employee and shall on provision of such notice, become legally binding.
- B9.3 The Company's Human Resources work policies are set out in the me@jpmc website, as amended from time to time. Please take time to familiarise yourself with these policies when you begin your internship.
- B9.4 To the extent that the contents of policies or procedures refer to obligations on the Company, you agree that they are guides only and are not contractual terms, conditions or representations on which you rely.
- B10. Working Hours
- B10.1 Your total working hours (including break(s)) is 40 hours per working week during the tenure of your internship and you should attend office 5 days every working week. Your working hours may be revised at the discretion of the Company.
- B11. Retirement Benefits
- You are not eligible for retirement benefits.
- B12. Contract Execution
- B12.1 You acknowledge and agree that:
- (a) This letter may be delivered in a digital or physical format. Subject to any applicable law, where the letter is provided in a digital format, you acknowledge and agree that it is being executed electronically and that it is enforceable.

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "Uma", is written over a solid blue horizontal line.

- (b) You have read and understood the terms of this letter and have been provided with an opportunity to review and discuss the terms of it with advisors, if you so desire.
- (c) Should any further assurances be required or sought by the Company, you shall in good faith perform such further actions (including executing a physical copy of this letter)

B13 Governing Law and Jurisdiction

This letter and any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with it or its subject matter or formation (including non-contractual disputes or claims) shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of India. You and the Company submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the Mumbai, Maharashtra courts in relation to any dispute arising in connection with your internship and this letter.

APPENDIX C - SYSTEMS MONITORING ACTIVITIES AND CROSS-BORDER TRANSFERS,
PERSONAL ACCOUNT DEALING POLICY, AND CODE OF CONDUCT

Appendix: Systems Monitoring Activities and Cross-Border Transfers:

The following provides a summary of how JPMorgan Chase & Co., its affiliates and its subsidiaries and the entity that employs you, or for which you provide services (collectively, "JPMC"), conducts Systems monitoring. JPMC may conduct monitoring to the extent permitted by applicable law.

JPMC conducts monitoring of JPMC's physical facilities and its equipment and systems (collectively, the "Systems"). System monitoring applies to your JPMC equipment, your personal equipment when accessing the Systems, and the communications, information, and materials conveyed or accessed using the Systems. Monitoring activities may include the monitoring and logging of traffic and usage data of all electronic communications; monitoring of telephone calls to or from JPMC work telephones as permitted by applicable laws and subject to any required notices; monitoring of the contents of electronic communications, files, databases, applications, and internet usage; and logging hours worked and physical presence at JPMC's facilities if applicable. JPMC may at all times monitor, access, retrieve, record and review information obtained from the monitoring activities for various purposes, such as preventing and investigating activities that may violate JPMC's policies and ensuring compliance with legal or regulatory obligations. While conducting monitoring activities, JPMC may obtain and process personal information about you and others that may reside on the Systems.

The monitoring activities (including JPMC's collection and processing of personal or other information) are required for purposes of your employment or work assignment to promote adherence to applicable policies and regulations. Subject to applicable laws and regulations, if you object to this processing, JPMC may prohibit you from using the Systems, terminate offers of employment or work assignment, and, for employees, take disciplinary action against you, up to and including termination of your employment with JPMC.

JPMC may disclose the information it obtains in connection with monitoring activities to JPMC affiliates and to third parties, service providers, regulators, supervisory bodies, law enforcement and other government agencies. Information obtained from the monitoring activities may be used as the basis to take disciplinary actions, up to and including termination or other legal action, for violations of JPMC's policies or applicable laws.

In addition to the monitoring activities discussed above, JPMC may obtain and store other information related to your employment or other working relationship, such as your compensation information, performance information, benefits information and other workplace-related data. JPMC may transfer such information, and the information it obtains in connection with monitoring activities, to countries other than the country in which the information originally was collected, including to the United States.

Understanding Obligations under the Firm's Personal Account Dealing Policy (PAD):

The Personal Account Dealing Policy (Policy) of JPMorgan Chase & Co. (firm or JPMC) is designed to help prevent and detect violations of securities laws and industry conduct standards and to minimize actual or perceived conflicts of interest that could arise due to personal investing activities.

PAD Compliance will notify you if the position you are being offered is considered to be subject to the Policy. You will remain subject for the duration of your time working in a subject group, unless notified otherwise of a change in subject status. Unless otherwise notified, you will continue to be subject to the provisions of the Policy even during leaves of absence from the firm, including, but not limited to, garden leave or medical leave.

You as well as your Connected Persons are subject to the provisions of this Policy and will need to be familiar with the obligations set forth in this policy. Connected Persons includes your spouse, domestic partner or minor children (even if financially independent) as well as anyone to whom you provide significant financial support or for which you, or anyone listed above, has or shares the power, directly or indirectly, to make investment decisions.

Once subject to the Policy, you must disclose and certify your Covered Accounts (which include accounts of your Connected Persons). You will be required to maintain your self-directed Covered Accounts with one of the firm's Approved Brokers and pre-clear all purchases, sales, pledges and gifts (received and given) of publicly traded and privately held financial instruments, unless listed as specifically exempt. Pre-approval confirmations must be received prior to executing the trade or investment. The firm may impose periodic restrictions on personal trading in certain financial securities. These restrictions can apply to all firm subject Workforce Members and their Connected Persons or may be limited to certain groups. Subject Workforce Members and their Connected Persons are not permitted to recommend or transact in the financial instruments of an issuer while in the possession of material non-public information (MNPI) regarding that issuer.

If you are a seasonal or short term employee the following requirements will apply:

JPMorgan Chase requires that seasonal workers refrain from trading in Covered Accounts for the time period that you are employed in a short term training program. Please verify that you will

comply with the following personal trading requirements:

1. For the duration of the short term program I am joining I will not trade in any of my Covered Accounts
2. I understand that the Firm has the right to request account information for any of my Covered Accounts
3. If there is an extenuating circumstance that would compel me to place a trade in my Covered Accounts, I will obtain pre-approval of the trade by the Personal Account Dealing Group and I would be responsible for supplying all confirmations and statements to the Personal Account Dealing Group for that trade.

*The term "Covered Accounts" refers to any securities accounts no matter where they are located and includes, but is not limited to, those accounts that are established, maintained or controlled (either directly or indirectly) by you, your spouse, domestic partner or minor children (even if financially independent), anyone to whom you provide significant financial support, and in which the employee has a direct or indirect financial interest.

Global Personal Trading Policy:

The Personal Account Dealing of JPMorgan Chase & Co. is designed to help prevent and detect violations of securities laws and industry conduct standards and to minimize actual or perceived conflicts of interest that could arise due to personal investing activities. This Policy includes requirements for disclosing Covered Accounts, maintaining certain accounts at one of the firm's Approved Brokers, preclearing trades, and restrictions and prohibitions on certain types of trading activity. This Policy is subject to any applicable local laws and rules and should be read in conjunction with Supplements (regional/LGB) as well as the firm's Code of Conduct.

Conflict of Interests and Outside Interests:

Under JPMorgan Chase & Co.'s (JPMC) Code of Conduct, employees are responsible for avoiding activities or relationships that might affect their objectivity in making decisions as an employee. Employees are not permitted to allow their personal interest to conflict, or appear to conflict, with their JPMC role and responsibilities.

Outside Interests include second jobs, not for profit activities, government positions, and positions with external companies and organizations as a director, officer, advisor, sole proprietor, consultant or owner of any business. Outside Interests may result in an actual or perceived conflict of interest. Where actual or potential conflicts of interest cannot be mitigated, you may be required to discontinue the activity or dissolve your investment.

Employees are required to seek preclearance prior to engaging in Outside Interests or immediately upon joining JPMC. Where preclearance is not required, employee must adhere to all restrictions and conditions outlined in Section 5 and 6 of the Outside Interest Policy.

Conflicts of interests may also arise from (1) personal and business relationships, (2) the exchange of gifts and business hospitality, (3) political management, and (4) personal finances. Employees should avoid activities or relationships that might affect their objectivity in making decisions on behalf of JPMC or undermine their credibility. Employees may never place personal interests ahead of our clients' interests. All potential and actual conflicts must be escalated to your manager for review and mitigation.

Acceptance and Code Affirmation:

Upon signing this letter I accept the terms and conditions described above.

I hereby affirm that I have read, understand, and am in compliance with the JPMorgan Chase ("JPMC") Code of Conduct and all internal JPMC policies that apply to me. I agree, as a condition of my employment, to remain in compliance with the Code of Conduct and all applicable JPMC policies.

I understand that I must conduct myself in a way that is consistent with the Code of Conduct, demonstrating compliance with the principles and intent of the Code of Conduct, and applicable laws and regulations.

I also affirm that I have reported any potential or actual violations of the Code of Conduct, JPMC policies, or laws or regulations applicable to JPMC's business, as required by the Code of Conduct. I understand that failure to do so can result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

I understand that the Code of Conduct may be updated periodically, as necessary; and that the current version is posted on the JPMorgan Chase intranet as well as on its public website.

Independent Auditor Tax Services to Employees of JPMorgan Chase and its Affiliates:

To be in compliance with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (PCAOB) Rule 3523, it is JPMorgan Chase's (JPMC) policy that PricewaterhouseCoopers (PwC) cannot provide any tax services to employees of JPMC or any of its controlled entities (hereafter referred to as JPMC employee). This restriction is regardless of whether the individual is in a financial reporting oversight role or not, and whether PwC is engaged by the individual or by JPMC. PwC is also prohibited from providing any tax services to a spouse of a JPMC employee if the work is related to a joint tax return. Exceptions to this policy will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis and will require the approval of the JPMC Controller.

Dear Anupriya,

Your Internship by J.P. Morgan

Congratulations on joining the J.P. Morgan family. We are pleased to confirm your internship with J.P. Morgan Services India Private Limited (the "Company").

You will find your personal internship terms outlined in Appendix A with general internship terms and conditions in Appendix B. Please note these terms and conditions supersede any verbal discussions you may have previously had with any JPMorgan Chase employee with regards to your internship arrangements.

A number of important policies will apply to your internship with the Company, including the Personal Account Dealing Policy and the Code of Conduct. We provide more information about these policies in Appendix C and it is essential that you carefully read and understand their requirements. By signing this letter, you confirm that you have read, understood and agree to be bound by these policies. In addition, you will be required to abide by all other Company policies and regulations (including JPMorgan Chase group of companies (the "Group") policies) and with applicable law.

Should you have queries in relation to your employment terms, your benefits or Company policies, please contact our HR Answers hotline at 000 800 440 5210 (local toll free) or +1 212-552-5100 (international).

Please be reminded your internship terms should be treated with the strictest confidence. To accept this offer of internship, please click on the 'Accept' button at the bottom of this page on or before 28-Nov-2022.

We are excited to welcome you to our Company and take this opportunity to wish you every success in taking this next step of your career with us.

Appendix A – PERSONAL INTERNSHIP TERMS AND CONDITIONS

A1. Title/Category

You will join us as an intern in the CIB Research & Analytics Program at JPMorgan Chase & Co., and will carry out your role while physically present in the J.P. Morgan offices in Mumbai, India.

A2. Internship Commencement Date

Your internship shall begin on 16-Jan-2023 ("Start Date") and shall continue, subject to the remaining terms of this agreement, until it terminates on 30-Jun-2023 ("End Date") without the need for notice, unless previously terminated by either party pursuant to paragraph 4 of Appendix B.

In addition to the conditions set out in paragraph 1 of Appendix B, your offer is subject to you successfully meeting the educational criteria that has already been communicated to you in writing.

A3. Working Hours

Your manager will assign you specific working hours, often during the Company's normal office hours. Depending on the needs of your department, however, you may be required to work outside the official hours to fulfill your duties.

A4. Stipend

Your stipend will be INR60,000/- per month.

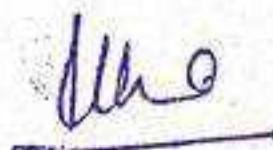

Relocation Lump Sum

You will receive an additional, one-time lump sum of INR85000("the Additional Sum") gross with your first stipend. This payment will be made to you in the first available payroll after you join the Company. You should be aware that this might be in the month of joining or the following month depending on your commencement date and when all necessary data is received. This is to assist with any relocation expenses you may incur prior to joining.

If you leave the internship or your internship is terminated for any reason, you must repay to the Company the Additional Sum on a pro-rated basis as set out below:

If your internship period is longer than 3 months and you leave the internship or your internship is terminated for any reason within three months of your date of commencement you must repay to the Company 100% of the gross amount of the Additional Sum.

If your internship period is longer than 3 months and you leave the internship or your internship is terminated for any reason more than three months but within twelve months of your date of commencement you must repay to the Company 50% of the gross amount of

the Additional Sum

If your internship period is less than 3 months and you leave the internship or your internship is terminated for any reason before completion of your internship period you must repay the Company 100% of the gross amount of the Additional Sum.

A5. Probationary Period

Your internship will be subject to a probation period as outlined in paragraph 4.3 of Appendix B.

A6. Leave Entitlement

A6.1 Annual Leave

You are entitled to 20 working days of annual leave with full pay in every calendar year, pro-rated according to the duration of your employment in accordance with the Company's Human Resources Policies and applicable law. If you work part-time hours, your annual leave entitlement will be pro-rated to reflect your part-time hours worked.

A6.2 Other Leave

You can find further details of other leave entitlements in paragraph 5 of Appendix B.

A7. Benefits

You will not be entitled to join the Company's benefits programs, given the short length of your fixed-term contract.

A8. Retirement Scheme

You are not eligible for retirement benefits.

A9. Notice Period

During your probationary period, starting the day you join the Company, either you or the Company may terminate your employment with at least 14 days' written notice or payment of wages in lieu of such notice period.

After the probationary period, either party can terminate the employment by giving the other party 30 Days written notice ("Notice Period") or by the Company making a payment in lieu of Notice Period.

APPENDIX B – GENERAL INTERNSHIP TERMS AND CONDITIONS

B1. Internship

B1.1 Your internship is subject to:

- a) you being able to carry out your role in India while being able to be physically present in an JPMC office in Mumbai, India and obtaining and maintaining throughout your entire period of internship a valid work permit and such other permission, license or registration as may from time to time be necessary to enable you to carry out your duties and continue your internship.
- b) the completion of all pre-employment screening processes to the satisfaction of the Company, including obtaining education verification, background references and checks as sought and the execution of any other forms necessary for internship, etc.; and
- c) you being legally able to work with the Company. You undertake to disclose any internship or contractual post-internship restraints to which you are subject and which may, and will continue to, affect your internship with us and represent and warrant that:
 - ix. by entering into internship with the Company and performing the duties set out in this letter, you will not be in breach of any express or implied term of any internship or other agreement or arrangement to which you are party;
 - i. you have not taken or otherwise misappropriated and you do not have in your possession or control any confidential and proprietary information belonging to any of your prior employers, or any third party providing services to your prior employer, or connected with or derived from your services to prior employers and you have returned to all prior employers any and all such confidential or proprietary information; and
 - ii. you are not subject to any other internship, including being subject to garden leave or any contractual post-internship restraints.

You shall indemnify and hold harmless the Company from any and all claims arising from any breach of the warranties in this paragraph B1.

- B1.2 Whilst you and/or the Company may have agreed a tentative date of commencement of internship with the Company, you will not, unless the Company decides otherwise, be able to commence internship with the Company without our receipt of completed and satisfactory results from our pre-employment screening process.
- B1.3 You may be required to provide services for other members of the Group throughout your internship. When providing these services, you may from time to time be required to travel and work in different locations within and outside your hiring location.

M.M.G.

B1.4 You will not undertake outside employment or activities with or without remuneration, unless you have the prior written approval of senior management of the Company or its delegate. Outside activities may include (but are not limited to) activities as a director, officer, partner, sole proprietor, consultant or controlling stockholder of any business. If your request to undertake outside activity is not approved by management and you decide to engage in the activity, your internship may be terminated without any notice or compensation.

B2. Remuneration

B2.1 We will deposit your stipend (paragraph 4 of Appendix A) on or around the 30th of each month.

B2.2 You will be responsible for all tax liabilities world-wide arising out of payments pursuant to your internship with the Company.

B2.3 Any payment of salary or bonus by, or other sum due to you from the Company shall be subject to any and all withholding or deduction (for, including but not limited to, any taxes, contributions, repayments or other sums which you have agreed that the Company may withhold/deduct or which the Company is obliged or entitled to withhold/deduct from time to time under any applicable law), and the Company shall in such case be entitled to withhold, deduct or retain the amount of such tax, withholding or deduction from any sum payable to you.

B3. Incentive Compensation

For this position, you won't be eligible for incentive awards under the JPMorgan Chase Performance-Based Incentive Compensation Plan or any other non-annual incentive compensation plan.

B4. Termination

B4.1 Your internship may be terminated as follows:

- a) By either party giving to the other prior written notice of at least the period specified, as applicable, in paragraph 9 in Appendix A (the "Notice Period"), or by the Company making a payment in lieu of notice for all or part of such Notice Period of an amount equal to basic salary you would have been entitled to receive during the Notice period or part of the Notice Period.
- b) By the Company at any time without notice or compensation if you:
 - i) are guilty of fraud, dishonesty or misconduct which is inconsistent with the due and faithful discharge of your duties;

- ii) seriously breach the Code of Conduct and any other Company policies;
 - iii) disobey the Company's lawful and reasonable instructions/requirements;
 - iv) habitually neglect your duties; or
 - v) otherwise commit a material or repeated breach of your internship terms or any of the Company's or Group's policies.
- B4.2 During any Notice Period, the Company may put you on "garden leave" and may, amongst other things, do any or a combination of the following:
- (a) suspend you from the performance of any duties or assign you alternative duties;
 - (b) exclude you from any premises of the Company or any of the Group companies and/or require you to work from another location;
 - (c) require that you have no or limited contact or communication, other than purely social contact, with any employees, officers, directors, agents or consultants of the Company or any other member of the Group;
 - (d) require that you have no or limited contact or communication with any customer or client of the Company or any other member of the Group;
 - (e) remove your access to the Company premises and computer systems;
 - (f) require that you return any property belonging to the Company under paragraph 7 in this Appendix;
 - (g) require you not to do any act or thing, or make or cause to be made, any statement reasonably likely to damage the business or reputation of the Company or the Group.
- B4.3 If paragraph 5 of Appendix A states that your employment is subject to probation, your probation period will be the first 3 months of employment, which you agree is reasonable, and fair, in light of the responsibilities of the role.
- B4.4 At its sole discretion, the Company may notify you of an extension to your probationary period.
- B4.5 All your duties (whether express or implied) under your internship and this letter, including without limitation your duty of fidelity, good faith, exclusive service and duties in relation to the Group's confidential information shall continue throughout the Notice Period including any period that you are on garden leave.

B4.6 During any Notice Period:

- (a) you will provide such assistance as the Company may require to effect an orderly handover of your duties and responsibilities to any individual appointed by the Company or any of the Group Companies to take over your role or responsibilities; and
- (b) you shall make yourself available to deal with requests for information, provide assistance, be available for meetings and to advise on matters relating to work.

B5. Leave

B5.1 Annual Leave

- (a) You will be entitled to annual leave with full pay in every calendar year – please see paragraph 6 of Appendix A, pro-rated according to the duration of your employment. The Company will be entitled to determine when annual leave is taken, although as far as possible, arrangements will be made to suit your convenience. Annual leave entitlement for each calendar year must be taken in that calendar year and only in exceptional circumstances can annual leave (other than unused statutory entitlement, if any) be carried forward into the following calendar year. All annual leave days taken will be deducted first from the statutory entitlement accumulation.
- (b) After a notice of termination has been given pursuant to paragraph B4.1 of this Appendix, you will not be entitled to take any annual leave without the express consent of the Company provided after notice of termination has been given.
- (c) You must comply with the Company's 'consecutive days leave' policies.

B5.2 Sick Leave

Any sick leave entitlement will be subject to relevant legislation and J.P. Morgan internal policies that are in force and amended from time to time. More details are set out in the me@jpmc website, which will be accessible to you upon commencement of your employment.

B5.3 Suspension Leave

The Company has the right to suspend you from your work duties with full pay when it considers it necessary to investigate any allegation of misconduct or impropriety on your part. The Company can exercise this right at its sole discretion, acting in good faith.

B6. Confidentiality

You acknowledge that a vast amount of privileged and confidential information will be disclosed to you in course of your internship with the Company and during your internship with the Company and thereafter, you shall keep secret and shall not at any time (whether during or after the period of your internship) use for your own or another's advantage, or reveal to any person, firm or company, any of the trade secrets, business methods and plans, financial matters, client lists, investments, marketing plans, personnel matters or other information which you knew or reasonably ought to have known to be confidential concerning the business or affairs of the Company or any other member of the Group or any of their related companies, clients or suppliers.

You agree to abide by the specific provisions on the use of confidential information in the Company's policies and Group code of conduct.

The restriction contained in this paragraph shall not apply to any disclosure or use authorised by the Company or required by law.

B7. Return of Company Property

You acknowledge that any privileged or confidential information disclosed to you in the course of your internship with the Company remains the exclusive property of the Company and whenever requested by the Company and/or Group and in any event upon the termination of your internship, you will promptly deliver to the Company and/or Group all documents and other materials (whether originals or copies or in hard copy or electronic form) concerning the Company and/or Group or their respective clients and suppliers, which may have been prepared by you or have come into your possession, custody or control in the course of your internship with the Company. This includes, without limitation, any confidential information, lists of clients or suppliers, correspondence, electronic equipment, computer software or hardware, staff identity cards card and other property used in connection with the operations of the Company and/or Group. You will not be entitled to, and will not retain, any copies, title and copyright in such correspondence and other documents, papers, records and property are vested in the Company and/or Group.

B8. Post internship Restrictions

- B8.1 For a period of three months commencing on the Relevant Date, you shall not directly or indirectly (whether on your own account, for or with any other person, firm or company) solicit or endeavor to entice away from the Company or any other Group Company any Critical Person.
- B8.2 For a period of three months commencing on the Relevant Date, you shall not directly or indirectly (whether on your own account, for or with any other person, firm or company) solicit or endeavor to entice away from the Company or any other Group Company the business or custom of any Restricted Client.
- B8.3 The duration of the restrictions will be reduced by any period of notice that you work out or

1551

any period of garden leave as provided in this offer letter.

B8.4 In this paragraph B8:

- a) "Critical Person" means any person who was an employee or director of the Company or any other Group Company at any time within one year prior to the Relevant Date who had access to trade secrets or confidential information of the Company or any other Group Company. This includes knowledge of, involvement with or influence over suppliers or clients of the Company or any other Group Company with whom you worked at any time during that period.
- b) "Group Company" means the Company, its ultimate holding company, any subsidiary of the Company and any holding company from time to time. "Subsidiary" and "holding company" shall have the same meaning as in the relevant companies' legislation.
- c) "Restricted Client" means any person:
 - i. who in the one year before the Relevant Date was a client of, or has dealt with, the Company or any other Group Company; and
 - ii. with whose custom or business you, or persons reporting to you, were personally involved with during the period of one year prior to the Relevant Date
 - iii. but does not include publicly known institutional clients which you serve subsequent to your internship with the Company without the use of confidential or proprietary information of the Company and the Group.
- d) "Relevant Date" means the date your internship with the Company or the Group terminates for whatever reason.

B8.5 You acknowledge and agree:

- a) that each of the foregoing paragraphs constitutes an entirely separate and independent restriction on you;
- b) that the duration, extent and application of each restrictions, obligations and undertakings are reasonable and necessary to protect legitimate interests of the Company and the Group, considering, among other things, that the Company has commercial dealings with business partners throughout the world and that you will regularly be dealing with such partners as part of your duties and you understand that it does not by any means prevent you from earning a living in a satisfactory way;
- c) that, if any such restriction (or parts of a restriction) shall be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be void or unenforceable, the validity or enforceability of the remaining restrictions (or parts of a restriction) shall remain in full force and effect as if the unenforceable parts had been deleted. Damages may be an inadequate compensation for breach of any of the restrictions in this paragraph and, subject to a court's discretion, in the event of any actual or threatened breach of any provision of this paragraph, you agree that the Company shall be entitled to (on behalf of itself and on behalf of any other Group Company) restrain, by injunction, equitable relief or similar remedy, any conduct or threatened conduct by you. You expressly submit to the jurisdiction of any court of competent jurisdiction for this purpose, and in the event you receive from any person an offer of employment (whether oral or in writing and whether accepted or not), either during your internship or the continuation in force of all or any of the restrictions applicable to you, whether pursuant to this letter or the Code of Conduct, you shall provide to the person making such an offer of employment a full and accurate copy of the then current restrictions applicable to you.

- d) that any benefit given or deemed to be given by you to the Group under the terms of this paragraph is received and held on trust by the Company for the relevant Group Company. You will enter into appropriate restrictive covenants directly with other Group Companies if asked to do so by the Company.
- e) that your internship with the Company and the compensation paid and/or payable to you by the Company shall be sufficient consideration for the purposes of this clause. You further agree and acknowledge that the limitations as to time and the character or nature placed in this clause are reasonable and fair and will not preclude you from earning a livelihood, nor will they unreasonably impose limitations on your ability to earn a living.
- f) that this offer letter constitutes a valid, legally binding and enforceable obligation on you and this document is not in violation of any applicable law.
- g) that any breach or threat of breach on your part of any one of such obligations and/or undertakings would cause serious harm to the Company or the Group which may then institute any legal recourse against you that is deemed appropriate and/or recourse in damages, without further notice or delay.
- h) that you shall not assign this offer letter or the rights and/or obligations hereunder. The Company may assign its rights and obligations herein in all circumstances without your consent, including in connection with any sale, transfer or disposition of all or substantially all of its business and operations and its assets, in which case the Company's rights and obligations shall vest to the successor.
- i) in addition, you agree and acknowledge that the potential harm to the Company of the non-enforcement of this clause outweighs any potential harm to you and that you have given careful consideration to the restraints imposed upon you by this clause and that you are in full agreement as to their necessity for the reasonable and proper protection of the Company's interests. You expressly acknowledge and agree that each and every restraint imposed by this clause is reasonable with respect to subject matter, time period and geographical area.

- B9. Code of Conduct and Staff Regulations and Affirmation
- B9.1 It is a condition of your continuing internship and it is your obligation that you comply with:
- (a) the Code of Conduct (as amended from time to time or superseded). At the time of acceptance of the offer of internship and on a periodic basis, you will be required to sign an affirmation (or reaffirmation) confirming your understanding and compliance with the provisions of the Code of Conduct; and
 - (b) the Company's other internal policies and procedures and all relevant policies and procedures for the line of business in which you are to undertake work.
- B9.2 The Company shall be entitled at any time to amend the Company's internal policies and procedures (including but not limited to the Code of Conduct), the benefits set out in the Appendices and other staff regulations, as well as to put in place new policies as the Company sees fit. Any such amendments shall be notified in writing to each employee and shall on provision of such notice, become legally binding.
- B9.3 The Company's Human Resources work policies are set out in the me@jpmc website, as amended from time to time. Please take time to familiarise yourself with these policies when you begin your internship.
- B9.4 To the extent that the contents of policies or procedures refer to obligations on the Company, you agree that they are guides only and are not contractual terms, conditions or representations on which you rely.

B10. Working Hours

- B10.1 Your total working hours (including break(s)) is 40 hours per working week during the tenure of your internship and you should attend office 5 days every working week. Your working hours may be revised at the discretion of the Company.

B11. Retirement Benefits

You are not eligible for retirement benefits.

B12. Contract Execution

- B12.1 You acknowledge and agree that:

- (a) This letter may be delivered in a digital or physical format. Subject to any applicable law, where the letter is provided in a digital format, you acknowledge and agree that it is being executed electronically and that it is enforceable.

- (b) You have read and understood the terms of this letter and have been provided with an opportunity to review and discuss the terms of it with advisors, if you so desire.
- (c) Should any further assurances be required or sought by the Company, you shall in good faith perform such further actions (including executing a physical copy of this letter)

B13. Governing Law and Jurisdiction

This letter and any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with it or its subject matter or formation (including non-contractual disputes or claims) shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of India. You and the Company submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the Mumbai, Maharashtra courts in relation to any dispute arising in connection with your internship and this letter.

APPENDIX C - SYSTEMS MONITORING ACTIVITIES AND CROSS-BORDER TRANSFERS, PERSONAL ACCOUNT DEALING POLICY, AND CODE OF CONDUCT

Appendix: Systems Monitoring Activities and Cross-Border Transfers:

The following provides a summary of how JPMorgan Chase & Co., its affiliates and its subsidiaries and the entity that employs you, or for which you provide services (collectively, "JPMC"), conducts Systems monitoring. JPMC may conduct monitoring to the extent permitted by applicable law.

JPMC conducts monitoring of JPMC's physical facilities and its equipment and systems (collectively, the "Systems"). System monitoring applies to your JPMC equipment, your personal equipment when accessing the Systems, and the communications, information, and materials conveyed or accessed using the Systems. Monitoring activities may include the monitoring and logging of traffic and usage data of all electronic communications; monitoring of telephone calls to or from JPMC work telephones as permitted by applicable laws and subject to any required notices; monitoring of the contents of electronic communications, files, databases, applications, and internet usage; and logging hours worked and physical presence at JPMC's facilities if applicable. JPMC may at all times monitor, access, retrieve, record and review information obtained from the monitoring activities for various purposes, such as preventing and investigating activities that may violate JPMC's policies and ensuring compliance with legal or regulatory obligations. While conducting monitoring activities, JPMC may obtain and process personal information about you and others that may reside on the Systems.

The monitoring activities (including JPMC's collection and processing of personal or other information) are required for purposes of your employment or work assignment to promote adherence to applicable policies and regulations. Subject to applicable laws and regulations, if you object to this processing, JPMC may prohibit you from using the Systems; terminate offers of employment or work assignment; and, for employees, take disciplinary action against you, up to and including termination of your employment with JPMC.

JPMC may disclose the information it obtains in connection with monitoring activities to JPMC affiliates and to third parties, service providers, regulators, supervisory bodies, law enforcement and other government agencies. Information obtained from the monitoring activities may be used as the basis to take disciplinary actions, up to and including termination or other legal action, for violations of JPMC's policies or applicable laws.

In addition to the monitoring activities discussed above, JPMC may obtain and store other information related to your employment or other working relationship, such as your compensation information, performance information, benefits information and other workplace-related data. JPMC may transfer such information, and the information it obtains in connection with monitoring activities, to countries other than the country in which the information originally was collected, including to the United States.

Understanding Obligations under the Firm's Personal Account Dealing Policy (PAD):

The Personal Account Dealing Policy (Policy) of JPMorgan Chase & Co. (firm or JPMC) is designed to help prevent and detect violations of securities laws and industry conduct standards and to minimize actual or perceived conflicts of interest that could arise due to personal investing activities.

PAD Compliance will notify you if the position you are being offered is considered to be subject to the Policy. You will remain subject for the duration of your time working in a subject group, unless notified otherwise of a change in subject status. Unless otherwise notified, you will continue to be subject to the provisions of the Policy even during leaves of absence from the firm, including, but not limited to, garden leave or medical leave.

You as well as your Connected Persons are subject to the provisions of this Policy and will need to be familiar with the obligations set forth in this policy. Connected Persons includes your spouse, domestic partner or minor children (even if financially independent) as well as anyone to whom you provide significant financial support or for which you, or anyone listed above, has or shares the power, directly or indirectly, to make investment decisions.

Once subject to the Policy, you must disclose and certify your Covered Accounts (which include accounts of your Connected Persons). You will be required to maintain your self-directed Covered Accounts with one of the firm's Approved Brokers and pre-clear all purchases, sales, pledges and gifts (received and given) of publicly traded and privately held financial instruments, unless listed as specifically exempt. Pre-approval confirmations must be received prior to executing the trade or investment. The firm may impose periodic restrictions on personal trading in certain financial securities. These restrictions can apply to all firm subject Workforce Members and their Connected Persons or may be limited to certain groups. Subject Workforce Members and their Connected Persons are not permitted to recommend or transact in the financial instruments of an issuer while in the possession of material non-public information (MNPI) regarding that issuer.

If you are a seasonal or short term employee the following requirements will apply:

JPMorgan Chase requires that seasonal workers refrain from trading in Covered Accounts for the time period that you are employed in a short term training program. Please verify that you will

comply with the following personal trading requirements:

1. For the duration of the short term program I am joining I will not trade in any of my Covered Accounts
2. I understand that the Firm has the right to request account information for any of my Covered Accounts
3. If there is an extenuating circumstance that would compel me to place a trade in my Covered Accounts, I will obtain pre-approval of the trade by the Personal Account Dealing Group and I would be responsible for supplying all confirmations and statements to the Personal Account Dealing Group for that trade

*The term Covered Accounts refers to any securities accounts no matter where they are located and includes, but is not limited to, those accounts that are established, maintained or controlled (either directly or indirectly) by you, your spouse, domestic partner or minor children (even if financially independent), anyone to whom you provide significant financial support, and in which the employee has a direct or indirect financial interest.

Global Personal Trading Policy:

The Personal Account Dealing of JPMorgan Chase & Co. is designed to help prevent and detect violations of securities laws and industry conduct standards and to minimize actual or perceived conflicts of interest that could arise due to personal investing activities. This Policy includes requirements for disclosing Covered Accounts, maintaining certain accounts at one of the firm's Approved Brokers, preclearing trades, and restrictions and prohibitions on certain types of trading activity. This Policy is subject to any applicable local laws and rules and should be read in conjunction with Supplements (regional/LOB) as well as the firm's Code of Conduct.

Conflict of Interests and Outside Interests:

Under JPMorgan Chase & Co.'s (JPMC) Code of Conduct, employees are responsible for avoiding activities or relationships that might affect their objectivity in making decisions as an employee. Employees are not permitted to allow their personal interest to conflict, or appear to conflict, with their JPMC role and responsibilities.

Outside Interests include second jobs, not for profit activities, government positions, and positions with external companies and organizations as a director, officer, advisor, sole proprietor, consultant or owner of any business. Outside Interests may result in an actual or perceived conflict of interest. Where actual or potential conflicts of interest cannot be mitigated, you may be required to discontinue the activity or dissolve your investment.

Employees are required to seek preclearance prior to engaging in Outside Interests or immediately upon joining JPMC. Where preclearance is not required, employee must adhere to all restrictions and conditions outlined in Section 5 and 6 of the Outside Interest Policy.

Conflicts of interests may also arise from: (1) personal and business relationships; (2) the exchange of gifts and business hospitality; (3) political engagement; and (4) personal finances. Employees should avoid activities or relationships that might affect their objectivity in making decisions on behalf of JPMC or undermine their credibility. Employees may never place personal interests ahead of our clients' interests. All potential and actual conflicts must be escalated to your manager for review and mitigation.

Acceptance and Code Affirmation:

Upon signing this letter I accept the terms and conditions described above.

I hereby affirm that I have read, understand, and am in compliance with the JPMorgan Chase ("JPMC") Code of Conduct and all internal JPMC policies that apply to me. I agree, as a condition of my employment, to remain in compliance with the Code of Conduct and all applicable JPMC policies.

I understand that I must conduct myself in a way that is consistent with the Code of Conduct, demonstrating compliance with the principles and intent of the Code of Conduct, and applicable laws and regulations.

I also affirm that I have reported any potential or actual violations of the Code of Conduct, JPMC policies, or laws or regulations applicable to JPMC's business, as required by the Code of Conduct. I understand that failure to do so can result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

I understand that the Code of Conduct may be updated periodically, as necessary; and that the current version is posted on the JPMorgan Chase intranet as well as on its public website.

Independent Auditor Tax Services to Employees of JPMorgan Chase and its Affiliates:

To be in compliance with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (PCAOB) Rule 3523, it is JPMorgan Chase's (JPMC) policy that PricewaterhouseCoopers (PwC) cannot provide any tax services to employees of JPMC or any of its controlled entities (hereafter referred to as JPMC employee). This restriction is regardless of whether the individual is in a financial reporting oversight role or not, and whether PwC is engaged by the individual or by JPMC. PwC is also prohibited from providing any tax services to a spouse of a JPMC employee if the work is related to a joint tax return. Exceptions to this policy will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis and will require the approval of the JPMC Controller.

Jury, Appendix B2 consists of 12 randomly selected jurors.
In Illinois, each Plaintiff, Attorney, Defendant, Jury, and witness may have 10 challenges.
If you have any questions, please raise your hand.

We must like to assure you, the jury continues to represent the Village of Glen Ellyn.

As you may know, the selection process is randomly generated. We must therefore to eliminate a limited pool of candidates that you and the jury would truly stand and be energized. We will try, as much as possible, to have jurors from diverse backgrounds, based on their previous living here.

In this process, they will have the opportunity to meet with a diverse, collaborative team that is committed to doing the best for these four states. There will be 12 jurors, a foreperson, a committee to oversee growth of its capacity through recruitment and development processes. All four elements to the committee work together if they successfully complete the prequalification screening and decide to join the jury.

Jury, Appendix B2 consists of 12 randomly selected jurors.
In Illinois, each Plaintiff, Attorney, Defendant, Jury, and witness may have one attorney present.

We must limit the number of jurors to accommodate space in the courtroom. (See Exhibit A.)

As you may know, the selection process is randomly generated. We must therefore limit the number of candidates that you and the jury pool have to view and to interrogate. We will try, as much as possible, to have jurors from diverse backgrounds, based on their performance during their service. That is, if you know that the below numbered candidate will exert a significant influence on the jury, you may request a sidebar to have the Court excuse that juror.

On this particular day, we will have the opportunity to speak with a limited number of jurors that is pre-determined to ensure fair treatment for both the four states. There will be enough time thereafter to conduct the remainder of the voir dire (through written questions and challenges) without the need for further sidebar discussions. All voir dire will be limited to the maximum length specified above. If the jury pool fails to complete the pre-voir dire questioning and decide to continue, the trial date will be rescheduled.

We must like to assure you, the jury continues to support its original decision.

As you may know, the selection process is extremely competitive. We must therefore to eliminate a limited pool of candidates that you and the injury victims truly stood out as exceptional. We have now, expressed by their final jury decisions and classifications, based on their performance during their service. They identified for you that the below mentioned candidate will receive a written offer to join the FBI in CJSBA, Modeling & Research role in our Analytics Section (2024).

In this position, they will have the opportunity to work with a diverse, collaborative team that is committed to making the best for both the local states. There will be focus on data that is connected to the continued growth of its capacity through refined training and development programs. Dear Devarat,

Internship Letter ("Agreement")

We are pleased to offer you a position as a Student Intern with IT Department of BNP Paribas India Solutions Pvt. Ltd ("BNPP") in India on the terms and conditions set out in this Agreement.

For the purposes of this Agreement, an "affiliate" shall include any subsidiary or holding company of BNP Paribas.

1. Period of Internship

The term of your internship will be for a period of 5 Months, commencing on January 06, 2023 and ending on June 05, 2023. For the avoidance of doubt, the terms and conditions of internship set out herein will be effective from the date you commence your internship with BNPP.

2. Internship Allowance

2.1 You will receive an internship allowance of INR 50,000 (less applicable deductions) per calendar month (pro-rated for any incomplete month of internship). You acknowledge and agree that you will not receive any other benefit (in cash or in kind) from BNPP.

2.2 You may be permitted, at the discretion of BNPP, to be absent from your internship for urgent personal reasons for a period not exceeding 10 working days, and no deduction from your internship allowance will be made provided you have obtained prior written permission from BNPP for such absence. For the avoidance of doubt, deduction from your internship allowance will be made in respect of any unauthorized absence.

3. Place of Internship

Your place of internship will be at our offices in Mumbai or such other location(s) within India as BNPP may require from time to time. During the course of your internship with BNPP, you may be assigned to any current or future divisions or departments of BNPP or its affiliates. You may also be required to travel within India or overseas as BNPP may request from time to time.

4. Hours of Internship

4.1 Your core internship hours are from 9:30 a.m. to 6:00 p.m., Monday to Friday (including half an hour lunch break). Your normal rest day will be Sunday (or such other day scheduled as a rest day). Saturday will normally be a contractual day off (unless an alternative contractual day off is scheduled). BNPP reserves the right to adjust the internship hours at its discretion.

4.2 From time to time you may be required to perform your internship duties outside the abovementioned core hours in order to meet our business needs and your individual objectives. You acknowledge and agree that you will not receive additional payment for any internship duties you perform outside of the abovementioned core hours.

BNP PARIBAS

5. Confidentiality Obligations

5.1 At any time during your internship with BNPP and after termination of your internship with BNPP, you must not, without the prior written consent of BNPP, disclose or make use of any confidential information (as defined below) relating or belonging to BNPP or any of its affiliates, or their customers or clients.

"Confidential Information" means details of customers and their requirements, details of suppliers and their terms of business, the prices charged to and terms of business with customers, marketing plans and sales forecasts, financial information, results and forecasts (save to the extent that these are included in published audited accounts), any proposals relating to the acquisition or disposal of a company or business or any part thereof or to any proposed expansion or contraction of activities, details of employees and officers and of the remuneration and other benefits paid to them, information relating to research activities, formulae and product lines, know-how, any information which you are told is confidential and any information which has been given to BNPP or any of its affiliates in confidence by customers, suppliers or other persons.

5.2 All notes, memoranda, records, lists of customers and suppliers and employees, correspondence, documents, computer and other discs and tapes, data listings, codes, designs and drawings and other documents and material whatsoever (whether made or created by you or otherwise) relating to the business of BNPP or any of its affiliates, and any copies of the same:

- (a) Shall be and remain the property of BNPP or the relevant affiliate; and
- (b) Shall be returned to BNPP or the relevant affiliate on demand and in any event upon termination of your internship.

5.3 All developments, productions, written work, inventions and improvements of inventions, whether patentable or not, made by you or to which you would have contributed in the course of your internship, and all industrial and intellectual property rights and copyrights made by you or to which you would have contributed in the course of your internship shall be and remain the exclusive property of BNPP or the relevant affiliate, and to the extent necessary you assign any potential rights relating thereto to BNPP. This includes without limitation all research and research products, "know-how" developed in whatever form and systems developments.

6. Restrictions on Intern

6.1 During your internship with BNPP and for a period of 6 months after the termination of your internship with BNPP, you must not, without the prior written consent of BNPP, directly or indirectly and whether on your own behalf or in conjunction with or on behalf of any other person:

- (a) solicit, engage, or otherwise endeavour to entice away any employees or agents of BNPP or any of its affiliates, or induce or persuade any such persons to cease working for, or representing, or doing business with BNPP or any of its affiliates;
- (b) canvass, solicit, contact or approach any BNPP's or any of its affiliates' clients, customers, suppliers or agents with whom or which you had dealings in the course of your internship with BNPP during the period of 12 months immediately preceding the date of termination of your internship, or have any business dealings with any such clients, customers, suppliers or agents.

6.2 You agree that the restrictions contained in clause 6.1 above are reasonable and necessary for the protection of the legitimate interests of BNPP and its affiliates, however, in the event that any such restrictions are held to be void but would be valid if part of their wording were deleted or the period of application reduced or the geographical scope narrowed, such restriction shall apply with such modification as may be necessary to make it valid or effective.

6.3 The restrictions set out in clause 6 shall remain in full force and effect and survive the termination of this Agreement for any reason whatsoever.

7. Termination

- 7.1 BNPP may terminate this Agreement by giving 15 days prior written notice or payment notice of 15 days notice to you.
- 7.2 You may terminate this Agreement by giving 15 days prior written notice to BNPP. In the event of your resignation, BNPP may terminate your internship immediately by making a payment in lieu of the remaining notice period.
- 7.3 Nothing in this Agreement shall otherwise limit either party's right to terminate this Agreement with or without notice in accordance with applicable laws.

8. Other Conditions

- 8.1 You acknowledge and agree that during your internship with BNPP:

- (a) You must not (save with the prior written consent of BNPP) directly or indirectly, and whether on your own behalf or in conjunction with or on behalf of any other person, be employed, engaged, concerned or interested in any other business or occupation, whether within India or elsewhere; and
- (b) You must not act in conflict with BNPP's best interests or your obligations to BNPP. If you become aware of any actual or potential conflict of interest, you must immediately disclose such conflict of interest to BNPP.

- 8.2 You acknowledge and agree that you shall be wholly and solely responsible for fulfilling all your tax obligations, including without limitation declaration and payment of all taxes arising from your professional and personal income, wherever and whenever they arise.

- 8.3 BNPP reserves the right to vary any terms and conditions of your internship from time to time, to the extent permitted under applicable laws. You are required to comply with the Code of Conduct, compliance policies, and any other applicable policies, procedures and guidelines as issued and/or amended by BNPP from time to time. Application of such policies, procedures and guidelines is at BNPP's discretion, and BNPP reserves the right to change, amend, supplement, withdraw or discontinue its policies, procedures and guidelines at its discretion in accordance with applicable laws. You are responsible for keeping yourself up-to-date with the latest version of these policies, procedures and guidelines.

9. Data Privacy

You consent to BNPP and any of its affiliates holding and processing the data it collects in relation to you in the course of your internship, for the purpose of BNPP's administration and management of its staff and its business and for compliance with applicable laws, regulations and procedures, and to the transfer, storage and processing of such data in and outside India.

Please refer to BNPP's Privacy Policy Statement & Personal Information Collection Statement for further details relating to data privacy.

10. Third Party Rights

No one other than a party to this Agreement shall have any right to enforce any of its terms.

11. Entire Agreement

This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between you and BNPP, and shall supersede any prior written or oral agreement or understanding between you and BNPP in relation to the matters dealt with herein. You acknowledge and agree that you are not entering into this Agreement in reliance on any representation, warranty or undertaking not expressly set out in this Agreement. No variations to the terms of this Agreement will be valid unless they are authorized in writing by BNPP.

12. Governing Law and Jurisdiction

This Agreement and all aspects of your Internship shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of India. In the event of any dispute, the matter shall be resolved in India and you shall submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of location as mentioned in clause 3.

This offer is conditional upon the following terms and may be withdrawn or rescinded without liability on the part of BNPP should any or all of them not be satisfied.

- BNPP receives satisfactory references about you from your college;
- You successfully complete background checks to the satisfaction of BNPP. In the event any matter is identified pursuant to such background checks which requires the consent of any regulatory authority, the offer is also subject to such consent;
- You will not be in breach of any contractual obligation from any other persons and are available to commence Internship with BNPP on or before the commencement date mentioned in clause 1; and
- Your agreement to abide by the prescribed policies, procedures and guidelines of BNPP, as notified to you from time to time.

Please signify your agreement to the above by signing and returning the enclosed copy of this letter. This offer will be valid for 7 days from the date of this letter and will lapse if you have not returned an original signed copy of this letter to us on or before such expiry date.

Yours sincerely,
For and on behalf of

No variation to the terms of this Agreement will be valid unless they are authorized in writing by BNPP.

12. Governing Law and Jurisdiction

This Agreement and all aspects of your internship shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of India. In the event of any dispute, the matter shall be resolved in India and you shall submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of location as mentioned in clause 3.

This offer is conditional upon the following terms and may be withdrawn or rescinded without notice on the part of BNPP should any or all of them not be satisfied.

- BNPP receives satisfactory references about you from your college;
- You successfully complete background checks to the satisfaction of BNPP. In the event any individual is identified pursuant to such background checks which requires the consent of any regulatory authority, the offer is also subject to such consent;
- You will not be in breach of any contractual obligation from any other persons and are available to commence internship with BNPP on or before the commencement date mentioned in clause 1; and
- Your agreement to abide by the prescribed policies, procedures and guidelines of BNPP, as notified to you from time to time.

Please signify your agreement to the above by signing and returning the enclosed copy of this letter. This offer will be valid for 7 days from the date of this letter and will lapse if you have not returned an original signed copy of this letter to us on or before such expiry date.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Jalay,

Internship Letter ("Agreement")

We are pleased to offer you a position as a Student Intern with IT Department of BNP Paribas India Solutions Pvt. Ltd ('BNPP') in India on the terms and conditions set out in this Agreement.

For the purposes of this Agreement, an "affiliate" shall include any subsidiary or holding company of BNP Paribas.

1. Period of Internship

The term of your internship will be for a period of 5 Months, commencing on January 06, 2023 and ending on June 05, 2023. For the avoidance of doubt, the terms and conditions of internship set out herein will be effective from the date you commence your internship with BNPP.

2. Internship Allowance

2.1 You will receive an internship allowance of INR 50,000 (less applicable deductions) per calendar month (pro-rated for any incomplete month of internship). You acknowledge and agree that you will not receive any other benefit (in cash or in kind) from BNPP.

2.2 You may be permitted, at the discretion of BNPP, to be absent from your internship for urgent personal reasons for a period not exceeding 10 working days, and no deduction from your internship allowance will be made provided you have obtained prior written permission from BNPP for such absence. For the avoidance of doubt, deduction from your internship allowance will be made in respect of any unauthorized absence.

3. Place of Internship

Your place of internship will be at our offices in Mumbai or such other location(s) within India as BNPP may require from time to time. During the course of your internship with BNPP, you may be assigned to any current or future divisions or departments of BNPP or its affiliates. You may also be required to travel within India or overseas as BNPP may request from time to time.

4. Hours of Internship

4.1 Your core internship hours are from 9:30 a.m. to 6:00 p.m., Monday to Friday (including half an hour lunch break). Your normal rest day will be Sunday (or such other day scheduled as a rest day). Saturday will normally be a contractual day off (unless an alternative contractual day off is scheduled). BNPP reserves the right to adjust the internship hours at its discretion.

4.2 From time to time you may be required to perform your internship duties outside the abovementioned core hours in order to meet our business needs and your individual objectives. You acknowledge and agree that you will not receive additional payment for any internship duties you perform outside of the abovementioned core hours.

You acknowledge and agree that you will not receive additional payment for any internship duties you perform outside of the abovementioned core hours.

Confidentiality Obligations

- 1 At any time during your internship with BNPP and after termination of your internship with BNPP, you must not, without the prior written consent of BNPP, disclose or make use of any confidential information (as defined below) relating or belonging to BNPP or any of its affiliates, or their customers or clients.

"Confidential information" means details of customers and their requirements, details of suppliers and their terms of business, the prices charged to and terms of business with customers, marketing plans and sales forecasts, financial information, results and forecasts (save to the extent that these are included in published audited accounts), any proposals relating to the acquisition or disposal of a company or business or any part thereof or to any proposed expansion or contraction of activities, details of employees and officers and of the remuneration and other benefits paid to them, information relating to research activities, formulae and product lines, know-how, any information which you are told is confidential and any information which has been given to BNPP or any of its affiliates in confidence by customers, suppliers or other persons.

- 5.2 All notes, memoranda, records, lists of customers and suppliers and employees, correspondence, documents, computer and other discs and tapes, data listings, codes, designs and drawings and other documents and material whatsoever (whether made or created by you or otherwise) relating to the business of BNPP or any of its affiliates, and any copies of the same:
- (a) Shall be and remain the property of BNPP or the relevant affiliate; and
 - (b) Shall be returned to BNPP or the relevant affiliate on demand and in any event upon termination of your internship.

- 5.3 All developments, productions, written work, inventions and improvements of inventions, whether patentable or not, made by you or to which you would have contributed in the course of your internship, and all industrial and intellectual property rights and copyrights made by you or to which you would have contributed in the course of your internship shall be and remain the exclusive property of BNPP or the relevant affiliate, and to the extent necessary you assign any potential rights relating thereto to BNPP. This includes without limitation all research and research products, "know-how" developed in whatever form and systems developments.

6. Restrictions on Intern

- 6.1 During your internship with BNPP and for a period of 6 months after the termination of your internship with BNPP, you must not, without the prior written consent of BNPP, directly or indirectly and whether on your own behalf or in conjunction with or on behalf of any other person:

- (a) solicit, engage, or otherwise endeavour to entice away any employees or agents of BNPP or any of its affiliates, or induce or persuade any such persons to cease working for, or representing, or doing business with BNPP or any of its affiliates;
- (b) canvass, solicit, contact or approach any BNPP's or any of its affiliates' clients, customers, suppliers or agents with whom or which you had dealings in the course of your internship with BNPP during the period of 12 months immediately preceding the date of termination of your internship, or have any business dealings with any such clients, customers, suppliers or agents.

- 6.2 You agree that the restrictions contained in clause 6.1 above are reasonable and necessary for the protection of the legitimate interests of BNPP and its affiliates; however, in the event that any such restrictions are held to be void but would be valid if part of their wording were deleted or the period of application reduced or the geographical scope narrowed, such restriction shall apply with such modification as may be necessary to make it valid or effective.

- 6.3 The restrictions set out in clause 6 shall remain in full force and effect and survive the termination of this Agreement for any reason whatsoever.

Uma

Termination

- 7.1 BNPP may terminate this Agreement by giving 15 days' prior written notice or payment in lieu of 15 days' notice to you.
- 7.2 You may terminate this Agreement by giving 15 days' prior written notice to BNPP. In the event of your resignation, BNPP may terminate your internship immediately by making a payment in lieu of the remaining notice period.
- 7.3 Nothing in this Agreement shall otherwise limit either party's right to terminate this Agreement with or without notice in accordance with applicable laws.

8. Other Conditions8.1 You acknowledge and agree that during your internship with BNPP:

- (a) You must not (save with the prior written consent of BNPP) directly or indirectly, and whether on your own behalf or in conjunction with or on behalf of any other person, be employed, engaged, concerned or interested in any other business or occupation, whether within India or elsewhere; and
- (b) You must not act in conflict with BNPP's best interests or your obligations to BNPP. If you become aware of any actual or potential conflict of interest, you must immediately disclose such conflict of interest to BNPP.

8.2 You acknowledge and agree that you shall be wholly and solely responsible for fulfilling all your tax obligations, including without limitation declaration and payment of all taxes arising from your professional and personal income, wherever and whenever they arise.8.3 BNPP reserves the right to vary any terms and conditions of your internship from time to time, to the extent permitted under applicable laws. You are required to comply with the Code of Conduct, compliance policies, and any other applicable policies, procedures and guidelines as issued and/or amended by BNPP from time to time. Application of such policies, procedures and guidelines is at BNPP's discretion, and BNPP reserves the right to change, amend, supplement, withdraw or discontinue its policies, procedures and guidelines at its discretion in accordance with applicable laws. You are responsible for keeping yourself up-to-date with the latest version of these policies, procedures and guidelines.9. Data Privacy

You consent to BNPP and any of its affiliates holding and processing the data it collects in relation to you in the course of your internship, for the purpose of BNPP's administration and management of its staff and its business and for compliance with applicable laws, regulations and procedures, and to the transfer, storage and processing of such data in and outside India.

Please refer to BNPP's Privacy Policy Statement & Personal Information Collection Statement for further details relating to data privacy.

10. Third Party Rights

No one other than a party to this Agreement shall have any right to enforce any of its terms.

1. Entire Agreement

This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between you and BNPP, and shall supersede any prior written or oral agreement or understanding between you and BNPP in relation to the matters dealt with herein. You acknowledge and agree that you are not entering into this Agreement in reliance on any representation, warranty or undertaking not expressly set out in this Agreement. No variations to the terms of this Agreement will be valid unless they are authorized in writing by BNPP.

12. Governing Law and Jurisdiction

This Agreement and all aspects of your internship shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of India. In the event of any dispute, the matter shall be resolved in India and you shall submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of location as mentioned in clause 3.

This offer is conditional upon the following terms and may be withdrawn or rescinded without liability on the part of BNPP should any or all of them not be satisfied.

- BNPP receives satisfactory references about you from your college.
- You successfully complete background checks to the satisfaction of BNPP. In the event any matter is identified pursuant to such background checks which requires the consent of any regulatory authority, the offer is also subject to such consent.
- You will not be in breach of any contractual obligation from any other persons and are available to commence internship with BNPP on or before the commencement date mentioned in clause 1; and
- Your agreement to abide by the prescribed policies, procedures and guidelines of BNPP, as notified to you from time to time.

Please signify your agreement to the above by signing and returning the enclosed copy of this letter. This offer will be valid for 7 days from the date of this letter and will lapse if you have not returned an original signed copy of this letter to us on or before such expiry date.

11 Entire Agreement

This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between you and BNPP, and shall supersede any prior written or oral agreement or understanding between you and BNPP in relation to the subject matter herein. You acknowledge and agree that you are not entering into this Agreement in reliance upon any representation, warranty, or undertaking not expressly set out in this Agreement. No variation to the terms of this Agreement will be valid unless they are authorized in writing by BNPP.

12 Governing Law and Jurisdiction

This Agreement and all aspects of your internship shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of India. In the event of any dispute, the matter shall be resolved in India and the parties submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of India at the place mentioned in clause 3.

This offer is conditional upon the following terms and may be withdrawn or rescinded without notice if any of the part of BNPP should fail or all of them not be satisfied.

- BNPP receives satisfactory references about you from your college.
- You successfully complete background checks to the satisfaction of BNPP. In the event any matter is identified pursuant to such background checks which requires the consent of any regulatory authority, the offer is also subject to such consent.
- You will not be in breach of any contractual obligation from any other persons and are available to commence internship with BNPP on or before the commencement date mentioned in clause 1, and
- Your agreement to abide by the prescribed policies, procedures and guidelines of BNPP, as notified to you from time to time.

Please signify your agreement to the above by signing and returning the enclosed copy of this letter. This offer will be valid for 7 days from the date of this letter and will lapse if you have not returned an original signed copy of this letter to us on or before such expiry date.

Yours sincerely

Annexure II

In these T&C, certain terms have special meaning. They are indicated by boldfaced and italicized font where defined and capitalized where used. Unless opposed to the context, such terms will have the meaning given to them in these T&C. Some such terms are:

Affiliate means a company that controls, is controlled by or is under a common control with, the Company. "Control" means the ability of an entity to direct the affairs of another entity, whether by ownership of stock or otherwise.

Agreement means, collectively: (a) these T&C, (b) the annexes and schedules expressly stated to be forming part of your Internship Terms and Conditions, (c) the Codes and Policies, (d) any amendment issued to you in writing by the Company which expressly amends the terms and conditions or other particulars of your interaction with the Company.

Codes and Policies are defined in document 10 below.

the Company's obligations under the terms of the Indenture, the Company will make available to the holders of the Notes all such documents, information or evidence as may be requested by the holders of the Notes.

— Under bond virus, electronic contract including these T&C is issued.

More such letters are defined below 3-4 in the Annexure. Where the cardinal requires (A) a reference to one gender includes a reference to the other genders; (B) a reference to one includes a reference to its plural and vice versa; (C) reference to a law, regulation, or order includes the H (repeal), replacement or re-enactment). Annexure or schedules to the cardinal TSC refer to those attached to them TSC.

11.1 - Your Brain's Body

- i. You will undergo internship with the Company for the period stated in Annexure I. You understand this is not an employment. You do not have rights or benefits that are available only to employees of the Company. This internship does not oblige the Company to offer you employment with the Company on the completion of your internship.
 - ii. You will apply yourself diligently to the internship and devote your whole time and attention to it. You will not undertake any other business, work or activity, whether or not for consideration which, as determined by the Company in its sole discretion, may: (a) interfere with the Company's business or your responsibilities towards the Company; or (b) damage the Company's interests.

© 2009 Pearson Education, Inc.

1. You will follow the approved business hours applicable at the relevant time to the establishment or office to which you are attached.
The Company may from time to time by a written notice to you transfer, assign or otherwise, your interests to any Affiliate, successor or licensee, its clients or counterparties, or to any person or entity to whom the Company may transfer any part of its business.
During the period of attachment you will be liable for travel as specified in Article 16. You may travel at such times with necessary expenses.

Medical Fitness

If you are not frequently fit to undergo membership, the Company may not continue your membership. You will know the Company in writing its reason as you become aware that the condition of your health may impair your ability to effectively undergo membership. If the Company asks you to undergo medical examination(s) will be tested by a medical practitioner of the Company's choice. You authorize the Company to keep copies of the medical reports and test results provided by any such medical practitioner and use them as the Company, acting reasonably, deems necessary.

4. Verification Checks

- i. The Company has agreed to engage you as an intern on the basis of your particulars and credentials. You, (a) give your consent to the Company conducting verification checks on your particulars and credentials (whether by itself or through its service providers); and (b) authorise the Company to use your personal information (including any sensitive personal information) as necessary with respect to your internship and share it with the Company's service providers or the parties the Company deals with. You will promptly notify the Company of any changes or updates to your particulars and credentials.
- ii. If it turns out that any of your particulars or credentials is not valid, the Company may: (a) consider your Internship void since its beginning; (b) forthwith terminate your Internship; unless (c) take such other lawful action as it may consider necessary. Despite the foregoing, the Company shall continue to have rights analogous to those set out in paragraphs 6 and 7.5 and the provisions of paragraphs 8 and 9 shall operate in your undertaking in the Company's favour.

5. Stipend

- i. The Company agrees to pay you the stipend stated in Annexure I (Stipend). The Company may by a written notice to you revise your Stipend.
- ii. Your Stipend includes any amounts or components that Relevant Law requires the Company to pay you (Statutory Payments). From time to time, the Company may change any individual components of your Stipend or its structure to include any required Statutory Payments, such that after the change the total cost incurred by the Company on account of your Stipend remains unaltered.
- iii. When paying Stipend to you and where relevant at the time of settling your dues upon your ceasing to be an intern, the Company may, in addition to deductions specified elsewhere in the Agreement, deduct the following items (as applicable) and pay you the balance amounts (and you expressly and irrevocably authorise such deductions): (i) deductions required under Relevant Law; and (ii) amounts that you owe the Company. If the Stipend payable to you is not sufficient to cover the aggregate of all such deductions, you are liable to pay the Company the whole of the shortfall.
- iv. If Relevant Law requires the Company to deduct income tax or statutory taxes or contributions from the Stipend payable to you, the Company will comply with such requirement and pay you the balance Stipend. Other than for such deduction of tax, you are solely responsible to account for your Stipend and comply with all applicable tax laws in respect of your Stipend.

6. Company's Property and Facilities

- i. In the course of your Internship, the Company may at its discretion:
 - a. provide you with or give access to, property (including, without limitation, equipment, vehicles, identity cards, access cards, access to software licences, information, subscriptions to services (including those of telephone and data)) whether or not owned by the Company or third parties it deals with (together Property); and
 - b. extend to you facilities including, without limitation, office space, desk space, memberships, subscriptions, guest houses, etc. whether or not owned by the Company or third parties it deals with (together Facilities).
- ii. You will use such Property or Facility only during the term of your Internship and for no purpose other than as necessary for your Internship or as the Company expressly permits you in writing (in each case as an exception). The Company may at any time withdraw or terminate your access to or use of any Property or Facility.
- iii. If you damage any Property or Facility, you shall make good such damage. Otherwise, the Company may deduct from your Stipend the costs of repairing or replacing such Property or Facility (and you authorise such deduction).

7. Term and Termination

- i. Your Internship with the Company will be for the fixed period stated in Annexure I unless:
 - (a) extended by the Company by a written notification to you; or
 - (b) terminated in accordance with this Agreement.
- ii. You may terminate your Internship for no cause by giving the Company a prior written notice of at least 15 days. The Company may terminate your Internship for no cause by giving you a prior written notice of at least 7 days to the other (or payment of proportionate Stipend in lieu of any shortfall in the notice).
- iii. In addition to any other rights or remedy available to the Company, the Company may suspend your Internship if the Company thinks there are reasonable grounds to do so. These may include, without limitation, the Company having reason to believe you have breached Relevant Law, any Code or Policy, or where the Company considers it necessary to properly conduct any inquiry or investigation against you.
- iv. The Company may take an appropriate disciplinary action against you if you have breached Relevant Law, Company Code or Policy, or where the Company considers it necessary to properly conduct any inquiry or investigation against you. The disciplinary action may include penalty, reduction/forfeiture of bonus, impact on promotion, depending on the severity of the violation and seniority of individual involved and/or recovery, in a legal manner, of any loss suffered by the Company due to violation of any Relevant Law, Company Code or Policy. The imposition of penalty or other disciplinary actions does not preclude competent authorities from taking direct action against you. The Company may summarily terminate your Internship forthwith without notice or payment in lieu of notice or incurring liability, if you: (a) breach any of the Company's Codes or Policies (including, without limitation, those relating to harassment, confidentiality, and information security); (b) breach Relevant Law in the course of your Internship. You understand this is in addition to any other remedy the Company may have.
- v. Promptly on the Company's request and in any case before the end of your Internship, you shall return, handover or give effective control to the Company of:
 - (i) all Property and Facilities; and
 - (ii) copies of Confidential Information, in each case, we have been entrusted to you or to which access has been provided to you or are otherwise in your possession or control or which ought to have been in your possession or control.

8. Confidentiality

- i. You acknowledge that in the course of your Internship you will have access to Confidential Information. As between you and the Company, the Confidential

1119

Information belongs to the Company. You got no rights in any part of the Confidential Information and may only use it to the limited extent permitted by this Agreement. With respect to such Confidential Information, you agree:

- a. to keep it confidential and, not without the express prior written consent of the Company, use it for any purpose other than the performance of your Agreement or as permitted by this paragraph 8;
- b. to take all reasonable steps to protect its confidentiality and, to the extent within your authority or control, prevent unauthorized access or sharing of any such Confidential Information;
- c. not to directly or indirectly disclose any Confidential Information to any third party or any other person (including another intern of the Company) whose knowledge of such Confidential Information is not necessary for the performance of your internship under this Agreement;
- d. not to remove from the Company premises or directly or indirectly copy or allow others to copy to any media the contents of any document, storage media containing any Confidential Information or otherwise take any such copy outside the Company premises, except to the extent of legitimate needs in the course of your duties as permitted by this paragraph 8.

ii. If law or regulation requires you to disclose any Confidential Information, you will notify the Company promptly upon your becoming aware of such requirement. You will then cooperate with the Company in obtaining any waiver from disclosure of such Confidential Information. Your obligations of confidentiality shall be waived to the extent the Company is unable to obtain waiver from the requirement before the due date for your complying with the requirement.

iii. Confidential Information means information in any form belonging, pertaining or relating to the Company, its Affiliates, suppliers, clients or partners that any of these deal with, which is disclosed to you or which you have access to in the course of your internship, except for information which is or has come into the public domain otherwise than as a result of your breach of your confidentiality obligations. Information includes, without limitation, information of any kind (whether financial, business, technical or otherwise), processes, images, databases, methods, Company records, customer lists, pricing policies, business practices, trade secrets, know-how, compositions, passwords, personal information, access details and ideas belonging or pertaining to the Company and/or its Affiliates and any of their clients, suppliers, interns or other parties they deal with.

iv. The provisions of this paragraph 8 continue to be in force even if you cease to be associated with the Company.

9. Intellectual Property Rights

- i. In the course of your internship you create, make or discover or participate in the creation, making or discovery of any Intellectual Property, you: (a) will promptly make complete written disclosure of such Intellectual Property to the Company; and (b) acknowledge that all such Intellectual Property shall be deemed "commissioned work" and in any case belong exclusively to the Company or its nominees;
- ii. At the Company's request (and expense) from time to time (whether during or after the term of your internship with the Company), you will do all things necessary to ensure that all rights in the Intellectual Property rest exclusively in the Company. These include, without limitation: (a) execution of necessary documents, declarations, waivers, or written communications that the Company may request of you (including, for the sake of clarity, powers of attorney or letters of authority in favour of the Company and/or its nominees to make applications for registration of such Intellectual Property in the Company's name and/or enforcement of the Company's rights in the Intellectual Property); (b) joining in any action to protect or enforce the Company's rights in the Intellectual Property (and you acknowledge that the Company will be exclusively entitled to retain the benefit of any such enforcement action);
- iii. The Company's rights in the Intellectual Property shall not be limited, impaired or extinguished by any non-use of any of them. The provisions of this paragraph 9 survive any expiry or termination of this Agreement or cessation of your internship;
- iv. The Stipend set out in this Agreement includes the fair consideration for the rights in favour of the Company set out in this paragraph 9. Without limitation, there are no royalties or any other payments that are payable by the Company to you in relation to the rights set out in this paragraph 9;
- v. You shall not do anything with respect to the Intellectual Property that is inconsistent with this paragraph 9 or otherwise take advantage of the legal possibility of striking a claim or asserting any rights in the Intellectual Property. To the extent you have moral rights in any Intellectual Property, you waive all such rights to the fullest extent permitted by law. Where law does not permit such waiver, you undertake not to exercise your moral rights in a manner that is inconsistent with the vesting of the rights in Intellectual Property in the Company;
- vi. In this paragraph 9, Intellectual Property means all intellectual property created, made or discovered in the course of your internship by you whether individually or otherwise and includes, without limitation, all inventions, copyrightable works, improvements, developments, discoveries, proprietary material, information, goodwill, brands, trademarks, logos, know-how, processes, customer relations and franchise designs, utility models, mask work rights, rights in databases, moral rights (except to the extent the law does not permit you to waive moral rights) whether or not possible to be registered or patented and whether or not such rights in such intellectual property are recognized under law at the time of their creation, making or discovery.

10. Codes and Policies

- i. You understand that the Company is committed to complying with Relevant Law and conducting its business with the highest levels of ethics and probity. In the course of your internship, you shall not do anything that violates any Relevant Law. It is your duty to ensure that you understand the Relevant Law applicable to the tasks you perform during your internship and seek the assistance of, as relevant, your manager, your human resource team contact or the Company's legal counsel in this regard;
- ii. You shall comply with all codes of conduct and business ethics, rules and regulations of the Company (together, Codes) and the policies of the Company, including those relating to the terms and conditions of your employment with the Company including but not limited to the personal trading policy (together, Policies), in each case as applicable from time to time. The Codes and Policies are available on the Company's internal information system or will otherwise be suitably communicated to you. It is your duty to access these Codes and Policies, familiarise yourself with them and understand them. While the Company may for the purpose of record seek written confirmations from you as to your acceptance of any Codes and Policies via the Company's online system or otherwise, you will be bound by them whether or not you have communicated such acceptance;
- iii. The Company may from time to time change any part of the Agreement, including any Codes and Policies. You will be suitably notified of any such changes. You expressly consent to the Company making any such change and agree to be bound by it;
- iv. You acknowledge that your conduct outside the Company may have an impact on the Company's reputation or its independence in the conduct of its business. You shall therefore ensure that your conduct whether or not in the course of internship does not in any way cause harm to the Company's reputation or impair its independence in the conduct of its business.

11. Declarations

The Company may from time to time ask you for declarations, confirmations or undertakings as relevant including those relating to confidentiality, secrecy, etc.

Investments, etc. (such a Declaration). Each Declaration shall be deemed to be an integral part of the Agreement. To the extent of any conflict between a Declaration and the rest of this Agreement, the more stringent of the two (in favour of the Company) shall prevail.

12. Privacy and Personal Information

You consent to the Company obtaining, collecting, retaining, storing, accessing and using your personal information as well as any sensitive personal information, including those set out in Annexure I, for all purposes relevant for your membership with the Company. Such use may include but is not limited to recruitment purposes, evaluation of your performance, administration (for example, leaves of absence, pay and benefits), monitoring your use of Facilities or Property, publication on online resources whether internal or external to support the Company's legitimate operational activities, references, compliance with statutory, legal or contractual obligations, and exercise of the Company's legitimate rights as your employer. You also consent to the Company sharing it with third parties where the Company considers necessary or expedient. You understand that any such information will be stored, processed and used according to the Company's Policy on privacy as applicable from time to time.

I hereby agree, confirm and accept the T & C contained therein and agree to be bound fully by such T&C.

Annexure II

Internship Terms and Conditions (T&C)

General

In these T&C, certain terms have special meaning. They are indicated by boldfaced and italicized font where defined and capitalized where used. Unless opposed to the context, these defined terms will have the meaning given to them in these T&C. Some such terms are:

Affiliate means a company that controls, is controlled by or is under a common control with, the Company ("control" means the ability of an entity to direct the management and policies of another entity, whether by ownership of shares or otherwise).

Agreement means, collectively: (a) these T&C; (b) the annexure and schedules expressly stated to be forming part of your internship terms and conditions; (c) the Codes and Policies; (d) any amendment issued to you in writing by the Company which expressly amends the terms and conditions or other particulars of your Internship with the Company;

Codes and Policies are defined in paragraph 10 below.

Relevant Law means, as relevant, statutes, regulations, orders of a judicial, statutory or other authority that the Company is bound to comply with.

Us, our, we, or Company refer to the legal entity employing you – which is the legal entity on whose letterhead your internship contract including these T&C is issued.

You and your refer to the person to whom this letter is addressed.

More such terms are defined below and in the Annexure. Where the context requires, (a) a reference to one gender includes a reference to the other genders; (b) a reference to "we" includes a reference to its plural and vice versa; (c) reference to a law, regulation or order includes their revision, replacement or re-enactment. Annexure or schedules referred in these T&C refer to those attached to these T&C.

1 Your Internship

- You will undergo internship with the Company for the period stated in Annexure I. You understand this is not an employment. You do not have rights or benefits that are available only to employees of the Company. This internship does not oblige the Company to offer you employment with the Company on the completion of your internship.
- You will apply yourself diligently to the internship and devote your whole time and attention to it. You will not undertake any other business, work or activity, whether or not for consideration which, as determined by the Company in its sole discretion, may: (a) interfere with the Company's business or your internship; or (b) harm the Company's legitimate interests.

2 Timing, Office Location, Leave

- You will follow the timings and business hours applicable at the relevant time to the establishment or office to which you are attached.
- The Company may from time to time by a written notice to you transfer, assign or second your internship to any Affiliate, successors in business, to clients or counterparties, or to any person or entity to whom the Company may transfer any part of its business.
- During the period of internship you will be eligible for leave as specified in Annexure I. You may avail of such leave with necessary approvals.

3 Medical Fitness

If you are not medically fit to undergo internship, the Company may not continue your internship. You will notify the Company in writing as soon as you become aware that the condition of your health may impair your ability to effectively undergo internship. If the Company asks you to, you shall undergo medical examination(s) and tests by a medical practitioner of the Company's choice. You authorize the Company to keep copies of your results and reports and test results provided by any such medical practitioner and use them as the Company, acting reasonably, deems necessary.

4. Verification Checks

- The Company has agreed to engage you as an intern on the basis of your particulars and credentials. You: (a) give your consent to the Company conducting verification checks on your particulars and credentials (whether by itself or through its service providers); and (b) authorise the Company to use your personal information (including any sensitive personal information) as necessary with respect to your internship and share it with the Company's service providers or the parties the Company deals with. You will promptly notify the Company of any changes or updates to your particulars and credentials.
- If it turns out that any of your particulars or credentials is not valid, the Company may: (a) consider your internship void since its beginning; (b) forthwith terminate promptly on the Company's demand in full all payments the Company has made to you under the Agreement; (c) forthwith terminate your internship; and/or (d) take such other lawful action as it may consider necessary. Despite the foregoing, the Company shall continue to have rights analogous to those set out in paragraphs 6 and 7.5 and the provisions of paragraphs 8 and 9 shall operate as your undertaking in the Company's favour.

5. Stipend

- The Company agrees to pay you the stipend stated in Annexure I (Stipend). The Company may by a written notice to you revise your Stipend.
- Your Stipend includes any amounts or components that Relevant Law requires the Company to pay you (Statutory Payments). From time to time, the Company may change any individual components of your Stipend or its structure to include any required Statutory Payments, such that after the change the total remuneration by the Company on account of your Stipend remains unaltered.
- When paying Stipend to you and where relevant at the time of settling your dues upon your ceasing to be an intern, the Company may, in addition to deductions specified elsewhere in the Agreement, deduct the following items (as applicable) and pay you the balance amounts (and you expressly and irrevocably authorise such deductions): (i) deductions required under Relevant Law; and (ii) amounts that you owe the Company. If the Stipend payable to you is not sufficient to cover the aggregate of all such deductions, you are liable to pay the Company the whole of the shortfall.
- If Relevant Law requires the Company to deduct income tax or statutory levies or contributions from the Stipend payable to you, the Company will comply with such requirement and pay you the balance Stipend. Other than for such deduction of tax, you are solely responsible to account for your Stipend and comply with all applicable tax laws in respect of your Stipend.

6. Company's Property and Facilities

- In the course of your internship, the Company may at its discretion:
 - provide you with or give access to, property (including, without limitation, equipment, vehicles, identity cards, access cards, access to software licenses, information, subscriptions to services (including those of telephone and data)) whether or not owned by the Company or third parties it deals with (together, Property); and
 - extend to you facilities including, without limitation, office space, desk space, memberships, subscriptions, guest houses, etc. whether or not owned by the Company or third parties it deals with (together, Facilities).
- You will use each such Property or Facility only during the term of your internship and for no purpose other than as necessary for your internship or as the Company expressly permits you in writing (in each case as an exception). The Company may at any time withdraw or terminate your access to or use of any Property or Facility.
 - If you damage any Property or Facility, you shall make good such damage. Otherwise, the Company may deduct from your Stipend the costs of repairing or replacing such Property or Facility (and you authorise such deduction).

7. Term and Termination

- Your internship with the Company will be for the fixed period stated in Annexure I unless: (a) extended by the Company by a written notification to you; or (b) terminated in accordance with this Agreement.
- You may terminate your internship for no cause by giving the Company a prior written notice of at least 15 days. The Company may terminate your internship for no cause by giving you a prior written notice of at least 7 days to the other (or payment of proportionate Stipend in lieu of any shortfall in the notice).
- In addition to any other rights or remedy available to the Company, the Company may suspend your internship if the Company thinks there are reasonable grounds to do so. These may include, without limitation, the Company having reasons to believe you have breached Relevant Law, any Code or Policy, or where the Company considers it necessary to properly conduct any inquiry or investigation against you.
- The Company may take an appropriate disciplinary action against you if you have breached Relevant Law, Company Code or Policy, or where the Company considers it necessary to properly conduct any inquiry or investigation against you. The disciplinary action may include penalty, reduction/forfeiture of bonus, impact on promotion, depending on the severity of the violation and seniority of individual involved and/or recovery, in a legal manner, of any loss suffered by the Company due to violation of any Relevant Law, Company Code or Policy. The imposition of penalty or other disciplinary actions does not preclude competent authorities from taking direct action against you. The Company may summarily terminate your internship forthwith without notice or payment in lieu of notice or incurring liability if you: (a) breach any of the Company's Codes or Policies (including, without limitation, those relating to harassment, confidentiality and information security); (b) breaches Relevant Law in the course of your internship. You understand this is in addition to any other remedy the Company may have.
- Promptly on the Company's request and in any case before the end of your internship, you shall return, handover or give effective control to the Company of:
 - all Property and Facilities; and
 - copies of Confidential Information; in each case, as have been entrusted to you or to which access has been provided to you or are otherwise in your possession or control or which ought to have been in your possession or control.

8. Confidentiality

- You acknowledge that in the course of your internship you will have access to Confidential Information. As between you and the Company, the Confidential

Corporate Identity Number: L67120MH1987PLD042363

Information belongs to the Company. You get no rights in any sort of this Confidential Information and may only use it to the limited extent permitted by this Agreement. With respect to such Confidential Information, you agree:

- to keep it confidential and, without the express prior written consent of the Company, use it for any purpose other than the performance of your Agreement or as permitted by this paragraph 8;
- to take all reasonable steps to protect its confidentiality and, to the extent within your authority or control, prevent unauthorized access or sharing of any such Confidential Information;
- not to directly or indirectly disclose any Confidential Information to any third party or any other person (including another intern of the Company) whose knowledge of such Confidential Information is not necessary for the performance of your internship under the Agreement;
- not to remove from the Company premises or directly or indirectly copy or allow others to copy to any media the contents of any document, storage media containing any Confidential Information or otherwise take any such copy outside the Company premises, except to the extent of legitimate need in the course of your duties or as permitted by this paragraph 8.

ii. If law or regulation requires you to disclose any Confidential Information you will notify the Company promptly upon your becoming aware of such requirement. You will then cooperate with the Company in obtaining any waiver from disclosure of such Confidential Information. Your obligations of confidentiality shall be waived to the extent the Company is unable to obtain waiver from the requirement before the due date for your complying with the requirement.

iii. Confidential Information means information in any form belonging, pertaining or relating to the Company, its Affiliates, suppliers, clients or parties that any of these deal with, which is disclosed to you or which you have access to in the course of your internship, except for information which is or has come into the public domain otherwise than as a result of your breach of your confidentiality obligations. Information includes, without limitation, information of any kind (whether financial, business, technical or otherwise), processes, images, databases, methods, Company records, customer lists, pricing policies, business practices, trade secrets, know-how, compositions, passwords, personal information, access details and ideas belonging or pertaining to the Company, and/or its Affiliates and any of their clients, suppliers, interns or other parties they deal with.

iv. The provisions of this paragraph 8 continue to be in force even if you cease to be associated with the Company.

9. Intellectual Property Rights

- If in the course of your internship you create, make or discover or participate in the creation, making or discovery of any Intellectual Property, you: (a) will promptly make complete written disclosure of such Intellectual Property to the Company; and (b) acknowledge that all such Intellectual Property shall be deemed "commissioned work" and in any case belong exclusively to the Company or its nominee.
- At the Company's request (and expense) from time to time (whether during or after the term of your internship with the Company), you will do all things necessary to ensure that all rights in the Intellectual Property vest exclusively in the Company. These include, without limitation: (a) execution of necessary documents, declarations, waivers, or written communications that the Company may request of you (including, for the sake of clarity, powers of attorney or letters of authority in favour of the Company and/or its nominees to make applications for registration of such Intellectual Property in the Company's name and/or enforcement of the Company's rights in the Intellectual Property); (b) joining in any action to perfect or enforce the Company's rights in the Intellectual Property (and you acknowledge that the Company will be exclusively entitled to retain the benefits of any such enforcement action).
- The Company's rights in the Intellectual Property shall not be limited, impaired or extinguished by any non-use of any of them. The provisions of this paragraph 9 survive any expiry or termination of this Agreement or cessation of your internship.
- The stipend set out in this Agreement includes the full consideration for the rights in favour of the Company set out in this paragraph 9. Without limitation, there are no royalties or any other payments that are payable by the Company to you in relation to the matters set out in this paragraph 9.
- You shall not do anything with respect to the intellectual Property that is inconsistent with this paragraph 9 or otherwise take advantage of the legal possibility of staking a claim or asserting any rights in the Intellectual Property. To the extent you have moral rights in any Intellectual Property you waive all such rights to the fullest extent permitted by law. Where law does not permit such waiver, you undertake not to exercise your moral rights in a manner that is inconsistent with the vesting of the rights in Intellectual Property in the Company.
- In this paragraph 9, Intellectual Property means all intellectual property created, made or discovered in the course of your internship by you whether individually or otherwise and includes, without limitation, all inventions, copyrightable works, improvements, developments, discoveries, proprietary material, information, goodwill, brands, trademarks, logos, know-how, processes, customer relations and franchises, designs, utility models, mask work rights, rights in databases, moral rights (except to the extent the law does not permit you to waive moral rights) whether or not possible to be registered or patented and whether or not such rights in such intellectual property are recognised under law at the time of their creation, making or discovery.

10. Codes and Policies

- You understand that the Company is committed to complying with Relevant Law and conducting its business with the highest levels of ethics and probity. In the course of your internship, you shall not do anything that violates any Relevant Law. It is your duty to ensure that you understand the Relevant Law applicable to the tasks you perform during your internship and seek the assistance of, as relevant, your manager, your human resource team contact or the Company's legal counsel in this regard.
- You shall comply with all codes of conduct and business ethics, rules and regulations of the Company (together, Codes) and the policies of the Company including those relating to the terms and conditions of your employment with the Company including but not limited to the personal trading policy (together, Policies), in each case as applicable from time to time. The Codes and Policies are available on the Company's internal information system or will otherwise be suitably communicated to you. It is your duty to access these Codes and Policies, familiarise yourself with them and understand them. While the Company may for the purpose of record seek written confirmations from you as to your acceptance of any Codes and Policies (via the Company's online system or otherwise), you will be bound by them whether or not you have communicated such acceptance.
- The Company may from time to time change any part of the Agreement, including any Codes and Policies. You will be suitably notified of any such changes. You expressly consent to the Company making any such change and agree to be bound by it.
- You acknowledge that your conduct outside the Company may have an impact on the Company's reputation or its independence in the conduct of its business. You shall therefore ensure that your conduct whether or not in the course of internship does not in any way cause harm to the Company's reputation or impair its independence in the conduct of its business.

11. Declarations

The Company may from time to time ask you for declarations, confirmations or undertakings concerning anything those relating to confidentiality, secrecy, investments, etc. (each a Declaration). Each Declaration shall be deemed to be an integral part of the Agreement. To the extent of any conflict between a Declaration and the rest of this Agreement, the most stringent of the two (in favour of the Company) shall prevail.

CRISIL Limited

12. Privacy and Personal Information

You consent to the Company storing, collecting, cataloging, storing, accessing and using your personal information as well as any sensitive personal information, including those set out in Annexure I for all purposes relevant for your internship with the Company. Such use may include but is not limited to recruitment purposes, evaluation of your performance, administration (for example, leave of absence, pay and benefits), monitoring your use of Facilities or Property, publication on online resources whether internal or external to support the Company's legitimate operational activities, references, compliance with statutory, legal or contractual obligations, and exercise of the Company's legitimate rights as your employer. You also consent to the Company sharing it with third parties where the Company considers necessary or expedient. You understand that any such information will be stored, processed and used according to the Company's Policy on Privacy as applicable from time to time.

I hereby agree, confirm and accept the T & C contained therein and agree to be bound fully by such T&C.

Internship Terms and Conditions (T&C)

General

In these T&C, certain terms have special meaning. They are indicated by boldfaced and italicized font where defined and captioned when used. Unless opposed in the contract, these defined terms will have the meaning given to them in these T&C. Some such terms are:

Affiliate means a company that controls, is controlled by or is under common control with, the Company ("control" means the ability of an entity to direct the management and policies of another entity, whether by ownership of shares or otherwise).

Agreement means, collectively, (a) these T&C, (b) the annexes and schedules expressly stated to be forming part of your internship terms and conditions, (c) the Codes and Policies, (d) any amendment issued to you in writing by the Company which expressly amends the terms and conditions or other particulars of your Internship with the Company.

Codes and Policies are defined in paragraph 10 below.

Relevant Law means, as relevant, all laws, regulations, orders of a judicial, statutory or other authority that the Company is bound to comply with.

Us, our, we, or Company refer to the legal entity employing you – which is the legal entity on whose letterhead your internships contact including these T&C is issued.

You and your refer to the person to whom this letter is addressed.

Most such terms are defined below and in the Annexure. Where this contract requires: (a) a reference to one gender includes a reference to the other genders; (b) a reference to a particular includes a reference to its plural and vice versa; (c) reference to a law, regulation or order includes their renewals, replacement or re-enactment. Annexure or schedules referred in these T&C, will be those attached to these T&C.

1. Your Internship:

- i. You will undergo Internship with the Company for the period stated in Annexure I. You understand this is not an employment. You do not have rights or benefits that are available only to employees of the Company. This Internship does not oblige the Company to offer you employment with the Company after the completion of your Internship.
- ii. You will apply yourself diligently to the Internship and devote your whole time and attention to it. You will not undertake any other business, work or activity whether or not for consideration which, as determined by the Company in its sole discretion, may: (a) interfere with the Company's functioning of your Internship, or (b) harm the Company's legitimate interests.

2. Timing, Office Location, Salary:

- i. You will follow the timings and business hours applicable at the relevant time to the establishment or office to which you are attached.
- ii. The Company may from time to time by a written notice to you transfer, assign or second your Internship to any Affiliate, successor or successor, its clients or counterparties, or to any person or entity to whom the Company may transfer any part of its business.
- iii. During the period of Internship you will be eligible for leave as specified in Annexure I. You may avail of such leave with necessary approvals.

3. Medical Fitness:

If you are not medically fit to undergo Internship, the Company may not continue your Internship. You will notify the Company in writing at such time as you become aware that the condition of your health may impair your ability to effectively undergo Internship. If the Company asks you to, you shall undergo medical examination and tests by a medical practitioner of the Company's choice. You authorise the Company to keep copies of your medical reports and test results submitted by the

CRISIL Limited

such medical practitioner and use them as the Company, acting reasonably, deems necessary.

4. Verification Checks

- i. The Company has agreed to engage you as an intern on the basis of your particulars and credentials. You: (a) give your consent to the Company conducting verification checks on your particulars and credentials (whether by itself or through its service providers); and (b) authorise the Company to use your personal information (including any sensitive personal information) as necessary with respect to your internship and share it with the Company's service providers or the parties the Company deals with. You will promptly notify the Company of any changes or updates to your particulars and credentials.
- ii. It turns out that any of your particulars or credentials is not valid, the Company may: (a) consider your internship void since its beginning (in which case you shall return promptly on the Company's demand, in full all payments the Company has made to you under the Agreement); (b) forthwith terminate your internship; and/or (c) take such other lawful action as it may consider necessary. Despite the foregoing, the Company shall continue to have rights analogous to those set out in paragraphs 6 and 7.6 and the provisions of paragraphs 8 and 9 shall operate as your undertaking in the Company's favour.

5. Stipend

- i. The Company agrees to pay you the stipend stated in Annexure 1 (Stipend). The Company may by a written notice to you revise your Stipend.
- ii. Your Stipend includes any amounts, or components that Relevant Law requires the Company to pay you (Statutory Payments). From time to time, the Company may change any individual components of your Stipend or its structure to include any required Statutory Payments, such that after the change the total cost incurred by the Company on account of your Stipend remains unaltered.
- iii. When paying Stipend to you and where relevant at the time of setting your dues upon your choosing to be an intern, the Company may, in addition to deductions specified elsewhere in the Agreement, deduct the following items (as applicable) and pay you the balance amounts (and you expressly and irrevocably authorise such deductions): (i) deductions required under Relevant Law; and (ii) amounts that you owe the Company. If the Stipend payable to you is not sufficient to cover the aggregate of all such deductions, you are liable to pay the Company the whole of the shortfall.
- iv. If Relevant Law requires the Company to deduct income tax or statutory levies or contributions from the Stipend payable to you, the Company will comply with such requirement and pay you the balance Stipend. Other than for such deduction of tax, you are solely responsible to account for your Stipend and comply with all applicable tax laws in respect of your Stipend.

6. Company's Property and Facilities

- i. In the course of your internship, the Company may at its discretion:
 - a. provide you with or give access to: property (including, without limitation, equipment, vehicles, identity cards, access cards, access to software licences, information, subscriptions to services (including those of telephone and data)) whether or not owned by the Company or third parties it deals with (together, Property); and
 - b. extend to you facilities including, without limitation, office space, desk space, memberships, subscriptions, guest houses, etc. whether or not owned by the Company or third parties it deals with (together, Facilities).
- ii. You will use each such Property or Facility only during the term of your internship and for no purpose other than as necessary for your internship, or as the Company expressly permits you in writing (in each case as an exception). The Company may at any time withdraw or terminate your access to or use of any Property or Facility.
- iii. If you damage any Property or Facility, you shall make good such damage. Otherwise, the Company may deduct from your Stipend the costs of restoring or replacing such Property or Facility (and you authorise such deduction).

7. Term and Termination

- i. Your internship with the Company will be for the fixed period stated in Annexure 1 unless: (a) extended by the Company by a written notification to you; or (b) terminated in accordance with this Agreement.
- ii. You may terminate your internship for no cause by giving the Company a prior written notice of at least 15 days. The Company may terminate your internship for no cause by giving you a prior written notice of at least 7 days to the other for payment of proportionate Stipend in lieu of any shortfall in the Notice.
- iii. In addition to any other rights or remedy available to the Company, the Company may suspend your internship if the Company thinks there are reasonable grounds to do so. These may include, without limitation, the Company having reasons to believe you have breached Relevant Law, any Code or Policy, or where the Company considers it necessary to properly conduct any inquiry or investigation against you.
- iv. The Company may take an appropriate disciplinary action against you if you have breached Relevant Law, Company Code or Policy, or where the Company considers it necessary to properly conduct any inquiry or investigation against you. The disciplinary action may include penalty, reduction/forfeiture of bonus, impact on promotion, depending on the severity of the violation and sensitivity of individual involved and/or recovery, in a legal manner, of any loss suffered by the Company due to violation of any Relevant Law, Company Code or Policy. The imposition of penalty or other disciplinary actions does not preclude competent authorities from taking direct action against you. The Company may summarily terminate your internship forthwith without notice or payment in lieu of notice or incurring liability, if you: (a) breach any of the Company's Codes or Policies (including, without limitation, those relating to harassment, confidentiality and information security); (c) breach Relevant Law in the course of your internship. You understand this is in addition to any other remedy the Company may have.
- v. Promptly on the Company's request and in any case before the end of your internship, you shall return, handover or give effective control to the Company of: (i) all Property and Facilities; and (ii) copies of Confidential Information; in each case, as have been entrusted to you or to which access has been provided to you or are otherwise in your possession or control or which ought to have been in your possession or control.

8. Confidentiality

- i. You acknowledge that in the course of your internship, you will have access to Confidential Information. As between you and the Company, the Confidential

Information belongs to the Company. You and no rights in any part of the Confidential Information and will only use it to the limited extent permitted by this Agreement. With respect to such Confidential Information, you agree:

- To keep it confidential and, not without the express prior written consent of the Company, used for any purpose other than the performance of your Agreement or as permitted by this paragraph II.
- To take all reasonable steps to protect its confidentiality and, to the extent action may be taken, prevent unauthorized access or sharing of any such Confidential Information;
- not to directly or indirectly disclose any Confidential Information to any third party or any other person (including another intern of the Company) whose knowledge of such Confidential Information is not necessary for the performance of your internship under the Agreement;
- not to remove from the Company premises or directly or indirectly copy or allow others to copy to any media the contents of any document, storage media containing any Confidential Information or otherwise take any such copy outside the Company premises, except to the extent of legitimate need in the course of your duties or as permitted by this paragraph II;
- If law or regulation requires you to disclose any Confidential Information you will notify the Company promptly upon your becoming aware of such requirement. You will then cooperate with the Company in obtaining any waiver from disclosure of such Confidential Information. Your obligations of confidentiality shall be waived to the extent the Company is unable to obtain waiver from the requirement before the due date for your complying with this requirement;
- Confidential Information means information in any form belonging, pertaining or relating to the Company, its affiliates, suppliers, clients or partners that any of these deal with, which is disclosed to you or which you have access to in the course of your internship, except for information which is or has come into the public domain otherwise than as a result of your breach of your confidentiality obligation. Information includes, without limitation, information of any kind (whether financial, business, technical or otherwise), processes, images, databases, methods, Company records, customer lists, pricing policies, business practices, trade secrets, know-how, compositions, passwords, personal information, access details and ideas belonging or pertaining to the Company, and/or its Affiliates and any of their clients, suppliers, interns or other parties they deal with;
- The provisions of this paragraph II continue to be in force even if you cease to be associated with the Company.

9. Intellectual Property Rights

- If in the course of your internship you create, make or discover or participate in the creation, making or discovery of any Intellectual Property, you: (a) will promptly make complete written disclosure of such Intellectual Property to the Company, and (b) acknowledge that all such Intellectual Property shall be deemed "commissioned work" and in any case belong exclusively to the Company or its nominee;
- At the Company's request (and expense) from time to time (whether during or after the term of your internship with the Company), you will do all things necessary to ensure that all rights in the Intellectual Property vest exclusively in the Company. These include, without limitation, (a) execution of necessary documents, declarations, waivers, or written communications that the Company may request of you (including, for the sake of clarity, powers of attorney or letters of authority in favour of the Company and/or its nominees to make applications for registration of such Intellectual Property in the Company's name and/or enforcement of the Company's rights in the Intellectual Property); (b) joining in any action to perfect or enforce the Company's rights in the Intellectual Property (and you acknowledge that the Company will be exclusively entitled to retain the benefits of any such enforcement action);
- The Company's rights in the Intellectual Property shall not be limited, impaired or extinguished by any non-use of any of them. The provisions of this Paragraph 9 survive any expiry or termination of this Agreement or cessation of your internship;
- The Suspend set out in this Agreement includes the full consideration for the rights in favour of the Company set out in this paragraph 9. Without limitation, there are no royalties or any other payments that are payable by the Company to you in relation to the matters set out in this paragraph 9;
- You shall not do anything with respect to the Intellectual Property that is inconsistent with this paragraph 9 or otherwise take advantage of the legal possibility of staking a claim or asserting any rights in the Intellectual Property. To the extent you have moral rights in any Intellectual Property you waive all such rights to the fullest extent permitted by law. Where law does not permit such waiver, you undertake not to exercise your moral rights in a manner that is inconsistent with the vesting of the rights in Intellectual Property in the Company;
- In this paragraph 9, Intellectual Property means all intellectual property created, made or discovered in the course of your internship by you whether individually or otherwise and includes, without limitation, all inventions, copyrightable works, improvements, developments, discoveries, proprietary material, information, goodwill, brands, trademarks, logos, know-how, processes, customer relations and franchise, designs, utility models, mask work rights, rights in databases, moral rights (except to the extent the law does not permit you to waive moral rights) whether or not possible to be registered or patented and whether or not such rights in such intellectual property are recognised under law at the time of their creation, making or discovery.

10. Codes and Policies

- You understand that the Company is committed to complying with Relevant Law and conducting its business with the highest levels of ethics and probity. In the course of your internship, you shall not do anything that violates any Relevant Law. It is your duty to ensure that you understand the Relevant Law applicable to the tasks you perform during your internship and seek the assistance of, as relevant, your manager, your human resource team contact or the Company's legal counsel in this regard;
- You shall comply with all codes of conduct and business ethics, rules and regulations of the Company (together, Codes) and the policies of the Company including those relating to the terms and conditions of your employment with the Company including but not limited to the personal trading policy (together, Policies), in each case as applicable from time to time. The Codes and Policies are available on the Company's internal information system or will otherwise be suitably communicated to you. It is your duty to access these Codes and Policies, familiarise yourself with them and understand them. While the Company may for the purpose of record seek written confirmations from you as to your acceptance of any Codes and Policies (via the Company's online system or otherwise), you will be bound by them whether or not you have communicated such acceptance;
- The Company may from time to time change any part of the Agreement, including any Codes and Policies. You will be suitably notified of any such changes. You expressly consent to the Company making any such change and agree to be bound by it;
- You acknowledge that your conduct outside the Company may have an impact on the Company's reputation or its independence in the conduct of its business. You shall therefore ensure that your conduct whether or not in the course of internship does not in any way cause harm to the Company's reputation or impair its independence in the conduct of its business.

11. Declarations

The Company may from time to time ask you for declarations, confirmations or undertakings as relevant (including those relating to confidentiality, secrecy,

[Signature]

Investments, etc. (each a Declaration). Each Declaration shall be deemed to be an integral part of the Agreement. To the extent of any conflict between a Declaration and the rest of this Agreement, the more stringent of the two (in favour of the Company) shall prevail.

12. Privacy and Personal Information

You consent to the Company obtaining, collecting, storing, accessing and using your personal information as well as any sensitive personal information (including those set out in Annexure I) for all purposes relevant for your internship with the Company. Such use may include but is not limited to recruitment purposes, evaluation of your performance, administration (for example, leave of absence, pay and benefits), monitoring your use of Facilities or Property, publication on online resources whether internal or external to support the Company's legitimate operational activities, references, compliance with statutory, legal or contractual obligations, and exercise of the Company's legitimate rights as your employer. You also consent to the Company sharing it with third parties where the Company considers necessary or expedient. You understand that any such information will be stored, processed and used according to the Company's Policy on privacy as applicable from time to time.

I hereby sign, confirm and accept the T & C contained herein and agree to be bound fully by such T&C.

Annexure B
Internship Terms and Conditions (T&C)

General

In these T&C, certain terms have special meaning. They are indicated by boldfaced and italicized term where defined and capitalized where used. Unless opposed to the context, the defined terms will have the meaning given to them in these T&C. Some such terms are:

Affiliate means a company that controls, is controlled by or is under a common control with, the Company ("control" means the ability of an entity to direct the management and policies of another entity, whether by ownership of shares or otherwise).

Agreement means, collectively: (a) these T&C; (b) the annexure and schedules expressly stated to be forming part of your internship terms and conditions; (c) the Codes and Policies; (d) any amendment issued to you in writing by the Company which expressly amends the terms and conditions or other particulars of your internship with the Company.

Codes and Policies are defined in paragraph 10 below.

Relevant Law means, as relevant, all laws, regulations, orders of a judicial, statutory or other authority that the Company is bound to comply with.

We, our, we, or Company refer to the legal entity employing you - which is the legal entity on whose letterhead your internship contract including these T&C is issued.

You and your refer to the person to whom this letter is addressed.

More such terms are defined below and in the Annexure. Where the context requires: (a) a reference to one gender includes a reference to the other genders; (b) a reference to "or" includes a reference to its plural and vice versa; (c) reference to a law, regulation or order includes their revision, replacement or re-enactment. Annexure or schedules referred in these T&C refer to those attached to these T&C.

1. Your Internship

- You will undergo Internship with the Company for the period stated in Annexure I. You understand this is not an employment. You do not have rights or benefits that are available only to employees of the Company. This Internship does not oblige the Company to offer you employment with the Company on the completion of your Internship.
- You will apply yourself diligently to the Internship and devote your whole time and attention to it. You will not undertake any other business, work, or activity, whether or not for consideration which, as determined by the Company in its sole discretion, may: (a) interfere with the Company's business or your Internship; or (b) harm the Company's legitimate interests.

2. Timing, Office Location, Leave

- You will follow the timings and business hours applicable at the relevant time to the establishment or office to which you are attached.
- The Company may from time to time by a written notice to you transfer, assign or second your Internship to any Affiliate, successors in business, its clients or counterparties, or to any person or entity to whom the Company may transfer any part of its business.
- During the period of Internship you will be eligible for leave as specified in Annexure I. You may avail of such leave with necessary approvals.

3. Medical Fitness

If you are not medically fit to undergo Internship, the Company may not continue your Internship. You will notify the Company in writing as soon as you become aware that the condition of your health may impair your ability to effectively undergo Internship. If the Company asks you to, you shall undergo a medical examination(s) and tests by a medical practitioner of the Company's choice. You authorize the Company to keep copies of documents and reports and test results provided by any such medical practitioner may use them as the Company, acting reasonably, directs necessary.

5. Verification Checks:

- i. The Company has agreed to engage you as an intern on the basis of your particulars and credentials. You: (a) give your consent to the Company conducting verifications on your particulars and credentials (whether by itself or through its service providers); and (b) authorise the Company to use your personal information (including any sensitive personal information) as necessary with respect to your internship and share it with the Company's service providers or the parties the Company deals with. You will promptly notify the Company of any changes or updates to your particulars and credentials.
- ii. If it turns out that any of your particulars or credentials is not valid, the Company may: (i) consider your internship void since its beginning (in which case you shall return promptly on the Company's demand in full all payments the Company has made to you under the Agreement); (ii) forthwith terminate your internship; and/or (iii) take such other lawful action as it may consider necessary. Despite the foregoing, the Company shall continue to have rights analogous to those set out in paragraphs 8 and 15 and the provisions of paragraphs 8 and 9 shall operate as your undertaking in the Company's favour.

6. Spend:

- i. The Company agrees to pay you the Spend stated in Annexure I (Spend). The Company may by a written notice to you revise your Spend.
- ii. Your Spend includes any amounts or compensation that Relevant Law requires the Company to pay you (Statutory Payments). From time to time, the Company may change any individual components of your Spend or its structure to include any required Statutory Payments, such that after the change the total cost incurred by the Company on account of your Spend remains unchanged.
- iii. When paying Spend to you and where relevant at the time of settling your dues upon your ceasing to be an intern, the Company may, in addition to deductions specified elsewhere in the Agreement, deduct the following items (as applicable) and pay you the balance amounts (and you expressly and irrevocably authorise such deductions): (i) deductions required under Relevant Law; and (ii) amounts that you owe the Company. If the Spend payable to you is not sufficient to cover the aggregate of all such deductions, you are liable to pay the Company the whole of the shortfall.
- iv. If Relevant Law requires the Company to deduct income tax or statutory levies or contributions from the Spend payable to you, the Company will comply with such requirement and pay you the balance Spend. Other than for such deduction of tax, you are solely responsible to account for your Spend and comply with all applicable tax laws in respect of your Spend.

7. Company's Property and Facilities:

- i. In the course of your internship, the Company may at its discretion:
 - a. provide you with or give access to property (including, without limitation, equipment, vehicles, identity cards, access cards, access to software licences, information, subscriptions to services (including those of telephone and data) whether or not owned by the Company or third parties it deals with together "Property"); and
 - b. expense to you facilities (including, without limitation, office space, desk space, memberships, subscriptions, guest houses, etc., whether or not owned by the Company or third parties it deals with together "Facilities").
- ii. You will use each such Property or Facility only during the term of your internship and for no purpose other than as necessary for your internship or as the Company expressly permits you in writing (in which case as an exception). The Company may at any time withdraw or terminate your access to or use of any Property or Facility.
- iii. If you damage any Property or Facility, you shall make good such damage. Otherwise, the Company may deduct from your Spend the costs of restoring or replacing such Property or Facility (and you authorise such deduction).

8. Term and Termination:

- i. Your internship with the Company will be for the fixed period stated in Annexure I unless: (a) extended by the Company by a written notification to you; or (b) terminated in accordance with the Agreement.
- ii. You may terminate your internship for no cause by giving the Company a prior written notice of at least 15 days. The Company may terminate your internship for no cause by giving you a prior written notice of at least 7 days to the other (or payment) of proportionate Spend in lieu of any shortfall in the notice.
- iii. In addition to any other rights or remedy available to the Company, the Company may suspend your internship if the Company thinks there are reasonable grounds to do so. These may include, without limitation, the Company having reasons to believe you have breached Relevant Law, any Code or Policy, or where the Company considers it necessary to properly conduct any inquiry or investigation against you.
- iv. The Company may take an appropriate disciplinary action against you if you have breached Relevant Law, Company Code or Policy or where the Company considers it necessary to properly conduct any inquiry or investigation against you. The disciplinary action may include penalty, reduction/inference of bonus, impact on promotion, depending on the severity of the violation and seniority of individual involved and/or recovery, in a legal manner, of any loss suffered by the Company due to violation of any Relevant Law, Company Code or Policy. The imposition of penalty or other disciplinary actions does not preclude competent authorities from taking direct action against you. The Company may summarily terminate your internship forthwith without notice or payment in lieu of notice or incurring liability if you: (a) breach any of the Company's Codes or Policies (including, without limitation, those relating to harassment, confidentiality, and information security); (b) breach Relevant Law in the course of your internship. You understand this is in addition to any other remedy the Company may have.
- v. Promptly on the Company's request and in any case before the end of your internship, you shall return, handover or give effective control to the Company of (i) all Property and Facilities; and (ii) copies of Confidential Information, in each case, as have been entrusted to you or to which access has been provided to you or are otherwise in your possession or control or which ought to have been in your possession or control.

9. Confidentiality:

- i. You acknowledge that in the course of your internship, you will have access to Confidential Information. As between you and the Company, the Confidential

CRISIL Limited

Reference Number: L67120MH1987PLC042965

Information belongs to the Company. You get no rights in any sort of the confidential information and this is limited to the strict extent permitted by this Agreement. With respect to the information you receive from the Company, you shall:

2. To keep it confidential and, not without the express prior written consent of the Commission, used for any purpose other than the performance of your functions.

- b. take all reasonable steps to protect its confidentiality and, in the event that such confidentiality could prevent you from making available to third parties any such Confidential Information;

c. not to directly or indirectly disclose any Confidential Information to any third party or any other person (including another area of the Company) whose knowledge of such Confidential Information is not necessary for the performance of your attendance under the Agreement;

d. not to remove from the Company premises or directly or indirectly copy or allow others to copy in any media the contents of any document, storage media containing any Confidential Information or otherwise take any such copy outside the Company premises, except to the extent of necessary copies in the course of your duties as described by the Company;

- ii. If law or regulation requires you to disclose any Confidential Information, you will notify the Company promptly upon your becoming aware of such requirement. You will then cooperate with the Company in obtaining any waiver from disclosure of such Confidential Information. Your obligation of confidentiality shall be waived to the extent the Company is unable to obtain waiver from the requirement before the deadline for your complying with the requirement.

- Confidential Information: means information in any form belonging, pertaining or relating to the Company, its Affiliates, suppliers, clients or partners that any of these deal with, which is disclosed to you or which you have access to in the course of your internship, except for information which is or has come into the public domain otherwise than as a result of your breach of your confidentiality obligations. Information includes, without limitation, information of any kind (whether financial, business, technical or otherwise), processes, programs, databases, methods, Company records, customer lists, operating policies, business practices, trade secrets, know-how, compositions, passwords, personal information, access details and ideas belonging or pertaining to the Company and/or its Affiliates and any of their clients, suppliers, interns or other parties they deal with.

- iv) The provisions of this paragraph 5 continue to be in force even if you cease to be associated with the Company.

9. Intellectual Property Rights

- (i) In the course of your Internship, you create, make or discover or participate in the creation, making or discovery of any, Intellectual Property; (ii) promptly make complete written disclosure of such Intellectual Property to the Company; and (iii) acknowledge that all such Intellectual Property shall be owned by the Company and not by you, and in any case become exclusive to the Company or its nominee.

- viii. At the Company's request [and expense] from time to time (whether during or after the term of your internship with the Company), you will do all that is necessary to ensure that no rights in the Intellectual Property vest exclusively in the Company. These include, without limitation: (a) execution of necessary documents, declarations, waivers, or written communications that the Company may request of you (including, for the sake of clarity, powers of attorney or letters of authority in favour of the Company and its nominees to make applications for registration of such intellectual Property in the Company's name and/or enforcement of the Company's rights in the Intellectual Property); (b) joining in any action to perfect or enforce the Company's rights in the Intellectual Property; and (c) agreeing to waive the benefits of any such replacement action.

- iii. The Company's rights in the Intellectual Property shall not be limited, impaired or extinguished by any non-use of any of them. The provisions of this paragraph B survive any expiry or termination of this Agreement or cessation of our membership.

- w. The Stipend set out in this Agreement includes the full consideration for the rights in favour of the Company set out in this paragraph. There are no royalties or any other payments that are payable to the Company by you in relation to the matters set out in this paragraph. It is agreed that there will be no transfer of the Intellectual Property right as associated with this paragraph from you to the Company or otherwise take advantage of the legal possibility.

- v) In this paragraph 9, "Intellectual Property" means all intellectual property created, made or developed individually or otherwise; and includes, without limitation, all inventions, copyrightable works, improvements, developments, know-how, processes, customer relations and franchises, designs, utility models, mask work rights, rights in databases, moral rights (except to the extent the law does not permit), rights to waive moral rights, whether or not possible to be registered or patented and other similar such rights; in each case intellectual property are recognised under law in the land of their creation, making or discovery.

100 Engels and Puccetti

- I, [Your Name], understand and accept the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement and the policies of the Company.

11. You shall comply with all codes, of conduct and business ethics, rules and regulations of the Company (together, "Codes") and the policies of the Company, including those relating to the terms and conditions of your employment with the Company including but not limited to the personal branding policy (together, "Policies"), in each case as applicable from time to time. The Codes and Policies are available on the Company's internal information system or will otherwise be suitably communicated to you. It is your duty to access these Codes and Policies, familiarise yourself with them and understand them. While the Company may for the purpose of record seek written confirmation from you as to your acceptance of any Codes and Policies (via the Company's online system or otherwise), you will be bound by Part II whether or not you have communicated such acceptance.

- iii) The Company may from time to time change any part of the Agreement, including any Codes and Policies. You will be suitably notified of any such changes. You accept the Company making any such change and agree to be bound by it.

- (ii) You acknowledge that your conduct outside the Company may have an impact on the Company's reputation or its independence in the conduct of its business. You shall therefore ensure that your conduct whether or not in the course of internship does not in any way cause harm to the Company's reputation or damage its independence in the conduct of its business.

1.1 Declarations

The Company may from time to time ask you for declarations, confirmations or undertakings, including those relating to compensation.

Annexure II
Internship Terms and Conditions (T&C)

General

In these T&C, certain terms have special meaning. They are indicated by boldfaced and italicized text where defined and capitalized where used. Unless opposite to the context, these defined terms will have the meaning given to them in these T&C. Some such terms are:

Affiliate means a company that controls, is controlled by or is under a common control with, the Company ("control" means the ability of an entity to direct the management and policies of another entity, whether by ownership of shares or otherwise).

Agreement means, collectively: (a) these T&C, (b) the annexures and schedules expressly stated to be forming part of your Internship terms and conditions, (c) the Codes and Policies; (d) any amendment issued to you in writing by the Company which expressly amends the terms and conditions or other particulars of your Internship with the Company.

Codes and Policies are defined in paragraph 10 below.

Relevant Law means, as relevant, all laws, regulations, orders of a judicial, statutory or other authority that the Company is bound to comply with.

Us, our, we, or Company refer to the legal entity employing you – which is the legal entity on whose behalf your Internship contract including these T&C is issued.

You and your refer to the person to whom this letter is addressed.

More such terms are defined below and in the Annexure. Where the context requires: (a) a reference to one gender includes a reference to the other genders; (b) a reference to "far" includes a reference to its plural and vice versa; (c) reference to a law, regulation or order includes their revisions, replacement or re-enactment. Annexures or schedules referred in these T&C refer to those attached to these T&C.

1. Your Internship

- You will undergo Internship with the Company for the period stated in Annexure I. You understand this is not an employment. You do not have rights or benefits that are available only to employees of the Company. This Internship does not oblige the Company to offer you employment with the Company on the completion of your Internship.
- You will apply yourself diligently to the Internship and devote your whole time and attention to it. You will not undertake any other business, work or activity, whether or not for consideration which, as determined by the Company in its sole discretion, may: (a) interfere with the Company's business or your Internship, or (b) harm the Company's legitimate interests.

2. Timing, Office Location, Leave:

- You will follow the timings and business hours applicable at the relevant time to the establishment or office to which you are attached.
- The Company may from time to time by a written notice to you transfer, assign or second your Internship to any Affiliate, successors in business, as clients or counterparties, or to any person or entity to whom the Company may transfer any part of its business.
- During the period of Internship you will be eligible for leave as specified in Annexure I. You may avail of such leave with necessary approvals.

3. Medical Fitness

If you are not medically fit to undergo Internship, the Company may not continue your Internship. You will notify the Company in writing as soon as you become aware that the condition of your health may impair your ability to effectively undergo Internship. If the Company asks you to, you shall undergo medical examination(s) and tests by a medical practitioner of the Company's choice. You authorize the Company to keep copies of the documents and reports and test results provided by any such medical practitioner and use them as the Company, acting reasonably, deems necessary.

4. Verification Checks

- i. The Company has agreed to engage you as an intern on the basis of your particulars and credentials. You (a) give and consent to the Company conducting verification checks on your particulars and credentials (whether by itself or through its service providers), and (b) authorise the Company to use your personal information (including any sensitive personal references) as necessary in respect of your internship and share it with the Company's service providers or the parties the Company deals with. You will promptly notify the Company of any changes or updates to your particulars and credentials;
- ii. If it turns out that any of your particulars or credentials is not valid, the Company may: (a) consider your internship void since its beginning (in which case you shall return promptly on the Company's demand in full all payments the Company has made to you under the Agreement); (b) forthwith terminate your internship, and/or (c) take such other lawful action as it may consider necessary. Despite the foregoing, the Company shall continue to have rights analogous to those set out in paragraphs 6 and 7.5 and the provisions of paragraphs 8 and 9 shall operate as you understand in the Company's favour.

5. Stipend

- i. The Company agrees to pay you the stipend stated in Annexure I (Stipend). The Company may by written notice to you revise your Stipend.
- ii. Your Stipend includes any amounts or components that Relevant Law requires the Company to pay you (Statutory Payments). From time to time, the Company may change any individual components of your Stipend or its structure to include any required Statutory Payments, such that after the change the total cost incurred by the Company on account of your Stipend remains unaltered.
- iii. When paying Stipend to you and where relevant at the time of settling your claim upon your ceasing to be an intern, the Company may, in addition to deductions specified elsewhere in the Agreement, deduct the following items (as applicable) and pay you the balance amounts (and you expressly and irrevocably authorise such deductions): (i) deductions required under Relevant Law; and (ii) amounts that you owe the Company. If the Stipend payable to you is not sufficient to cover the aggregate of all such deductions, you are liable to pay the Company the whole of the shortfall.
- iv. If Relevant Law requires the Company to deduct income tax or statutory levies or contributions from the Stipend payable to you, the Company will comply with such requirement and pay you the balance Stipend. Other than for such deduction of tax, you are solely responsible to account for your Stipend and comply with all applicable tax laws in respect of your Stipend.

6. Company's Property and Facilities

- i. In the course of your internship, the Company may at its discretion:
 - a. provide you with or give access to, property (including, without limitation, equipment, vehicles, identity cards, access cards, access to software, licences, information, subscriptions to services (including those of telephone and data)) whether or not owned by the Company or third parties if dealt with (together, Property); and
 - b. extend to you facilities including, without limitation, office space, desk space, memberships, subscriptions, guest houses, etc. whether or not owned by the Company or third parties if dealt with (together, Facilities).
- ii. You will use each such Property or Facility only during the term of your internship and for no purpose other than as necessary for your internship or as the Company expressly permits you in writing (in each case as an exception). The Company may at any time withdraw or terminate your access to or use of any Property or Facility.
- iii. If you damage any Property or Facility, you shall make good such damage. Otherwise, the Company may deduct from your Stipend the costs of repairing or replacing such Property or Facility (and you authorise such deduction).

7. Term and Termination

- i. Your internship with the Company will be for the fixed period stated in Annexure I unless (a) extended by the Company by a written notification to you, or (b) terminated in accordance with this Agreement.
- ii. You may terminate your internship for no cause by giving the Company a prior written notice of at least 7 days. The Company may terminate your internship for no cause by giving you a prior written notice of at least 7 days to the other (or payment of proportionate Stipend in lieu of any shortfall in the notice).
- iii. In addition to any other rights or remedy available to the Company, the Company may suspend your internship if the Company thinks there are reasonable grounds to do so. These may include, without limitation, the Company having reasons to believe you have breached Relevant Law, any Code or Policy, or where the Company considers it necessary to properly conduct any inquiry or investigation against you.
- iv. The Company may take an appropriate disciplinary action against you if you have breached Relevant Law, Company Code or Policy, or where the Company considers it necessary to properly conduct any inquiry or investigation against you. The disciplinary action may include penalty, reeducation/forfeiture of bonus, impact on promotion, depending on the severity of the violation and severity of individual involved and/or recovery, in a legal manner, of any loss suffered by the Company due to violation of any Relevant Law, Company Code or Policy. The imposition of penalty or other disciplinary actions does not preclude competent authorities from taking direct action against you. The Company may summarily terminate your internship forthwith without notice or payment in lieu of notice or incurring liability, if you: (a) breach any of the Company's Codes or Policies (including, without limitation, those relating to harassment, confidentiality, and information security); (b) breach Relevant Law in the course of your internship; You understand this is, in addition to any other remedy the Company may have.
- v. Promptly on the Company's request and in any case before the end of your internship, you shall return, handover or give effective control to the Company of:
 - (i) all Property and Facilities; and
 - (ii) copies of Confidential Information, in each case, as may have been entrusted to you or to which access has been provided to you or are otherwise in your possession or control or which ought to have been in your possession or control.

8. Confidentiality

- i. You acknowledge that in the course of your internship you will have access to Confidential Information. As between you and the Company, the Confidential

RISL Limited

Registration No. L57120MH1987PLC042363

Information belongs to the Company. You give no rights in any part of the Confidential Information and may only use it to the limited extent permitted by this Agreement. With respect to such Confidential Information, you agree:

- to keep it confidential and, not without the express prior written consent of the Company, use it for any purpose other than the performance of your Agreement or as permitted by this paragraph 8;
- to take all reasonable steps to protect its confidentiality and, to the extent within your authority or control, prevent unauthorised access or sharing of any such Confidential Information;
- not to directly or indirectly disclose any Confidential Information to any third party or any other person (including another intern) of the Company whose knowledge of such Confidential Information is not necessary for the performance of your internship under the Agreement;
- not to remove from the Company premises or directly or indirectly copy or allow others to copy to any media the contents of any document, storage media containing any Confidential Information or otherwise take any such copy outside the Company premises, except to the extent of legitimate need in the course of your duties or as permitted by this paragraph 8;
- If law or regulation requires, you to disclose any Confidential Information, you will notify the Company promptly upon your receiving notice of such requirement. You will then cooperate with the Company in obtaining any waiver from disclosure of such Confidential Information. Your obligation of confidentiality shall be waived to the extent the Company is unable to obtain waiver from the requirement before the due date for your complying with the requirement.

ii. Confidential Information means information in any form belonging, pertaining or relating to the Company, its Affiliates, suppliers, clients or persons that any of these deal with, which is disclosed to you or which you have access to in the course of your internship, except for information which is or has come into the public domain otherwise than as a result of your breach of your confidentiality obligations. Information includes, without limitation, information of any kind (whether financial, business, technical or otherwise) processes, images, catalogues, methods, Company records, customer lists, pricing policies, business practices, trade secrets, know-how, compositions, passwords, personal information, access details and ideas belonging or pertaining to the Company and/or its Affiliates and any of their clients, suppliers, interns or other parties they deal with.

iv. The provisions of this paragraph 8 continue to be in force even if you cease to be associated with the Company.

9. Intellectual Property Rights

- In the course of your Internship, you create, make or discover or participate in the creation, making or discovery of any Intellectual Property, you (a) will promptly make complete written disclosure of such Intellectual Property to the Company, and (b) acknowledge that all such Intellectual Property shall be deemed "commissioned work" and in any case being exclusively to the Company or its nominee.
- At the Company's request (and expense) from time to time (whether during or after the term of your Internship with the Company), you will do all things necessary to ensure that all rights in the Intellectual Property vest exclusively in the Company. These include, without limitation: (a) execution of necessary documents, declarations, waivers, or written communications that the Company may request of you (including, for the sake of clarity, powers of attorney or letters of authority in favour of the Company and/or its nominees to make applications for registration of such Intellectual Property in the Company's name and/or enforcement of the Company's rights in the Intellectual Property); (b) joining in any action to perfect or enforce the Company's rights in the Intellectual Property (and you acknowledge that the Company will be exclusively entitled to retain the benefits of any such enforcement action).
- The Company's rights in the Intellectual Property shall not be limited, impaired or extinguished by any non-use of any of them. The provisions of this paragraph 9 survive any expiry or termination of this Agreement or cessation of your Internship.
- The Schedule set out in this Agreement includes the full consideration for the rights in favour of the Company set out in this paragraph 9. Without limitation, there are no royalties or any other payments that are payable by the Company to you in relation to the rights set out in this paragraph 9.
- You shall not do anything with respect to the Intellectual Property that is inconsistent with this paragraph 9 or otherwise take advantage of the legal possibility of making a claim or asserting any rights in the Intellectual Property. To the extent you have moral rights in any Intellectual Property, you waive all such rights to the fullest extent permitted by law. Where law does not permit such waiver, you undertake not to exercise your moral rights in a manner that is inconsistent with the vesting of the rights in Intellectual Property in the Company.
- In this paragraph 9, Intellectual Property means all intellectual property created, made or discovered in the course of your Internship by you whether individually or otherwise and includes, without limitation, all inventions, copyrightable works, improvements, developments, discoveries, proprietary material, information, goodwill, brands, trademarks, logos, know-how, processes, customer relations and franchise, designs, utility models, mask work rights, rights in databases, moral rights (except to the extent the law does not permit you to waive moral rights) whether or not possible to be registered or patented and whether or not such rights in such intellectual property are recognised under law at the time of their creation, making or discovery.

10. Codes and Policies

- You understand that the Company is committed to complying with Relevant Law and conducting its business with the highest levels of ethics and probity. In the course of your Internship, you shall not do anything that violates any Relevant Law. It is your duty to ensure that you understand the Relevant Law applicable to the tasks you perform during your Internship and seek the assistance of, as relevant, your manager, your human resource team, contact or the Company's legal counsel in this regard.
- You shall comply with all codes of conduct and business ethics, rules and regulations of the Company (together, "Codes") and the policies of the Company, including those relating to the terms and conditions of your employment with the Company, including but not limited to the personal trading policy (together, "Policies"), in each case as applicable from time to time. The Codes and Policies are available on the Company's internal information system or will otherwise be suitably communicated to you. It is your duty to access these Codes and Policies, familiarise yourself with them and understand them. While the Company may for the purpose of record seek written confirmations from you as to your acceptance of any Codes and Policies (via the Company's online system or otherwise), you will be bound by them whether or not you have communicated such acceptance.
- The Company may from time to time change any part of this Agreement, including any Codes and Policies. You will be suitably notified of any such changes. You expressly consent to the Company making any such change and agree to be bound by it.
- You acknowledge that your conduct outside the Company may have an impact on the Company's reputation or its independence in the conduct of its business. You shall therefore ensure that your conduct whether or not, in the course of Internship does not in any way cause harm to the Company's reputation or impair its independence in the conduct of its business.

11. Declarations

The Company may from time to time ask you for declarations, confirmations or undertakings as relevant, including those relating to confidentiality, secrecy,

Investments, etc. (each a Declaration). Each Declaration shall be deemed to be an integral part of the Agreement. To the extent of any conflict between a Declaration and the rest of this Agreement, the more stringent of the two (in favour of the Company) shall prevail.

12. Privacy and Personal Information

You consent to the Company obtaining, collecting, collating, storing, accessing and using your personal information as well as any sensitive personal information (including those set out in Annexure I) for all purposes relevant for your internship with the Company. Such use may include but is not limited to recruitment purposes, evaluation of your performance, administration (for example, leave of absence, pay and benefits), monitoring your use of Facilities or Property, publication on online resources whether internal or external to support the Company's legitimate operational activities, references, compliance with statutory, legal or contractual obligations, and exercise of the Company's legitimate rights as your employer. You also consent to the Company sharing it with third parties where the Company considers necessary or expedient. You understand that any such information will be stored, processed and used according to the Company's Policy on privacy as applicable from time to time.

I hereby agree, confirm and accept the T & C contained therein and agree to be bound fully by such T&C.

PRIVATE AND CONFIDENTIAL

October 25, 2022

To:
Utkarsh Doras
By Email

Dear Utkarsh,

We are pleased to extend to you a formal offer to join MSCI Services Private Limited ("the Firm") as an Intern in Technology and Data department in Pune. We are pleased to meet you and are excited about the prospect of working with you on the terms set out in this internship agreement (Agreement) below.

1. Internship

- 1.1 The purpose of this internship program is to provide you with relevant guidance and to equip you with experience that will be helpful in your future career. In furtherance of this, you may be asked to execute various assignments/tasks from time to time during the course of your internship. You should use your best efforts in performing and delivering the tasks for the Firm. During the tenure of your internship, you should work closely with your team to ensure that the internship is an enriching experience for you.
- 1.2 During your internship with the Firm, you are expected to comply with all applicable rules and regulations of the Firm as enforced from time to time in respect of the matters not covered by this Agreement. The Firm's decision on all such matters will be final and binding on you.
- 1.3 It is clarified that you are not an "employee" or a "workman" for the purposes of any employment statute and there is no assurance or guarantee that you will be employed by the Firm upon completion of your internship.

2. Term of the Internship

Your internship program shall be for a maximum term of 6 months, starting on January 09, 2023 up until June 30, 2023.

3. Stipend

You will be paid a stipend of INR 60,000 per month, payable at the end of each month, subject to applicable deductions including but not limited to income taxes at applicable rates from time to time. The Firm may, subject to any relevant legal requirements, deduct from your stipend any amounts that you owe to the Firm or as required under law. It is clarified that you will not be entitled to any other allowances given to the regular employees of the Firm. The stipend paid to you for your internship with the Firm is not and shall not be construed as "wages" for the purposes of any employment statute.

4. Working Hours and Leave

- 4.1 You will have a work schedule of 40 hours per week. However, the Firm reserves its right from time to time to assign you to work in such shifts as required for business reasons. Additionally, you may be required to work from Firm's office or your home depending on your role and the business needs of the Firm, and in accordance with the Firm's Future of Work Policy, as amended from time to time.
- 4.2 During the course of your internship, you are entitled to 12 days of leave (paid & all-inclusive for any reason – vacation/ sick / personal emergencies etc), you would be required to take approval prior to taking such leave. These will be in addition to any Firm approved statutory public holidays that you may be entitled to during your internship program.

5. Termination

- 5.1 During your internship program, either party may terminate this Agreement by giving 30 days notice in writing.
- 5.2 The Firm shall be entitled to terminate this Agreement with immediate effect (but without prejudice to the rights and remedies of the Firm for any breach of this Agreement and to your continuing obligations under this Agreement) if you are guilty of dishonesty or serious or persistent misconduct, or without reasonable cause neglect or refuse to attend your internship or fail to perform any of your obligations hereunder or if you are found lacking in dedication towards your obligations hereunder, or fail to observe Firm's disciplinary rules or any other applicable regulations of the Firm.

6. Limited Authority

You will not enter into any commitments or dealings on behalf of the Firm or be a party to any alteration of any principle or policy of the Firm or exceed the authority or direction vested in you without the previous sanction of the Firm or those in authority over you. Any violation of this may lead to termination of your internship program with immediate effect.

7. Non-competition, Non-solicit and Declaration of interest

- 7.1 You acknowledge that during the course of your internship with the Firm, you may become familiar with Firm's trade secrets and the other confidential information concerning the Firm, its associates, related entities and that your work may be of a special, unique and extraordinary value to the Firm. You agree that during the term hereof –

- (i) you shall not directly or indirectly own, manage, control, participate in, consult with, render services for (as an intern or otherwise), or engage in any business competing with the Firm.

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "U.P. 9". A horizontal line extends from the end of the signature.

- (ii) you shall not directly or indirectly solicit, encourage, or induce any employee, agent, vendor, or consultant to terminate his/her employment with the Firm.
- 7.2 Without prejudice to the provisions of Clause 7.1 of this Agreement, you will notify the Firm in writing of all business interests that you have directly or indirectly related to the business or activities of the Firm.

8. Confidentiality and Intellectual Property

- 8.1 You shall keep confidential all the information and material provided to you by the Firm or by its clients concerning their affairs or any information that comes to your knowledge during the course of the internship program, except as required to perform tasks during the course of your internship. Your obligation to keep such information confidential shall remain valid even on the termination or cancellation of your internship.
- 8.2 You shall also keep your internship terms and conditions strictly confidential. Any disclosure will constitute a breach of this Agreement and may result in termination of this Agreement.
- 8.3 You may be required to be involved in developing material for both in-house usage as well as for other purposes based on the Firm's requirements. Any material or intellectual property so developed shall be the exclusive property of the Firm and you shall not use the same in any personal capacity, during the term of the internship program or at any point in time thereafter. You agree to assist and cooperate with the Firm in perfecting the Firm's rights in all such materials and intellectual property.
- 8.4 You shall also disclose to the Firm any discovery, invention, process or improvement made or discovered by you while with the Firm and such discovery, invention, process or improvement shall belong absolutely to and be the sole property of the Firm. The Firm shall have a right to freely develop and alter such material and intellectual property rights and license and assign them to third parties.

9. Return of Firm Property

On expiry or earlier termination of this Agreement, you will be responsible for the safe return of all the properties of the Firm including any drawings, software, employee data, notebooks, manuals, documents, computerization of technical data, customer lists, specifications, files, memoranda, or other records of any nature belonging to the Firm or any reproduction thereof which may have been provided to you during the course of your internship with the Firm or which may be in your use, custody, care or charge. For the loss of any property of the Firm in your possession, the Firm will have a right to assess the value of the loss on its own basis and recover the damages as it deems proper in the event of your failure to account for such material or property to its satisfaction.

Uma

10. Data Privacy

- 10.1 The Firm may disclose personal data relating to you to (i) any of its affiliates, subsidiaries and to its parent company; or (ii) any potential purchasers of any of the Firm's business; or (iii) any party to whom the Firm proposes to transfer any of its rights and/or responsibilities under any agreement it may have with you; or (iv) to any other third party, for any of the purposes set out below.
- 10.2 This offer is governed by the laws of India and is contingent upon a number of additional steps in the employment process including but not limited to showing a proof of citizenship or obtaining appropriate right to work documentation. This offer of employment is conditional upon the successful completion of a background investigation, as set out.

This background check may be carried out by a third-party service provider and therefore, any information that the Firm may need from you would be shared with such third-party service provider and you confirm that you do not have any objection to the same.

- 10.3 You confirm that you have read and understood the Firm's privacy statement and that you shall comply with such policy when processing personal data in the course of your internship including personal data relating to any employee, intern, customer, client, supplier or agent of the Firm or any associated entity.

11. Surveillance

You agree and acknowledge that the Firm may monitor and record all usage of devices, internet, email facilities and other communication systems that may be provided to you by the Firm during the course of your internship.

12. Tax Liability

You will arrange to take care of your tax liabilities, i.e., income tax, professional tax or any other tax as may be applicable to the aforesaid stipend payments, and the Firm will not be liable for the same. All stipend and other payments (if any) paid to you will be subject to tax withholding in accordance with applicable laws.

13. Governing Law and Dispute Resolution

This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of India. The courts in Mumbai will have exclusive jurisdiction in relation to all disputes arising out of this Agreement.

This Agreement constitutes the entire terms and conditions governing your engagement as an intern with the Firm.

I. Statement of purpose

This MSCI Employee Trading Policy (the "Policy") aims to prevent the appearance, and reality, of legal, business and ethical conflicts of interest, and to guard against the potential misuse of confidential information.

It is essential to you, as well as to the reputation and success of MSCI Inc. ("MSCI" or "the Firm"), that you understand this Policy and strictly adhere to it. This Policy supplements, but does not replace, the requirements set forth in the MSCI Code of Conduct, including any region-specific or other applicable supplements to the Code of Conduct. To the extent there is any conflict between this Policy and any other Firm policies or procedures that are applicable to you in each case you are subject to the most restrictive policies and procedures.

The Firm encourages long term investing by employees and strongly discourages short term and speculative trading. You may not engage in personal trading on a scale or of a kind that could distract you from your business responsibilities.

In order to engage in approved trading under this Policy, you must:

- trade only permitted products and securities;
- obtain any required approvals;
- make all required disclosures;
- refrain from trading any securities on a Restricted List;
- refrain from trading during any applicable Trading Blackout Period; and
- comply with applicable Holding Periods.

MSCI expects its employees to recognize and comply with the spirit of this Policy in addition to literal compliance with its terms. Therefore, you must also:

- avoid conduct that may give rise to an appearance of impropriety or of a conflict of interest; and
- never trade on the basis of material, non-public information.

If you have any questions about this Policy's meaning or application, please contact the MSCI Legal and Compliance Department.

II. Who is subject to the policy?

The Firm has implemented a Information Wall, or information barrier, around personnel who are involved in (or who have systems or information access relating to) the design, construction or maintenance of the MSCI Equity Indices. Such personnel are commonly referred to as being "Inside the Wall" or "ITW". All other personnel are commonly referred to as being "Outside the Wall" or "OTW". The

INFORMATION WALL TRADING POLICY FOR OUTSIDE THE WALL PERSONNEL (EXCLUDING ESG)

Information Wall consists of physical separation as well as policies and procedures designed to regulate the flow of ITW information.

This Policy applies to all MSCI personnel (excluding ESG) who are Outside the Wall of the MSCI Equity Index business.

This Policy applies to all of your personal accounts, as well as all other accounts that you could reasonably be expected to be able to exercise influence or control (whether or not you actually have such influence or control). Examples of accounts you could reasonably be expected to influence or control and therefore are subject to this Policy include (but are not limited to) the following:

- all accounts of your spouse or domestic partner;
- all accounts of your, your spouse's or your domestic partner's dependent children;
- all trust accounts for which you act as trustee or which you otherwise guide or influence;
- all arrangements similar to trust accounts that benefit you directly or indirectly; and
- all corporate, partnership or custodian accounts controlled, directly or indirectly, by you.

If you are not sure whether you are Outside the Wall of the MSCI Equity Index business, consult the MSCI Compliance Department. Inside the Wall personnel are subject to a different Employee Trading Policy. ESG personnel are also subject to a different Employee Trading Policy.

III. Trading and account rules

A. THE COMPLIANCE PORTAL

MSCI maintains an online Compliance Portal. The Compliance Portal is used to make certifications and disclosures and to obtain approvals, as required by this Policy and the Code of Conduct. In some cases, brokerage account trading may also be monitored through the Compliance Portal.

B. PERMITTED PRODUCTS

You may trade in securities and financial instruments that are not prohibited by this Policy, the Code of Conduct or otherwise, subject to all the relevant restrictions set forth herein and therein.

Information Classification: CONFIDENTIAL

All trades are subject to the following requirements:

- you must pre-clear securities against the Firm's Restricted List immediately prior to placing a trade;
- you must comply with the applicable Holding Period requirements;
- transactions in MSCI stock or options must take place in a disclosed, approved brokerage account;
- you must avoid any appearance of impropriety or of any conflict of interest; and
- you must not trade, or recommend that others trade, in a security or other instrument while in possession of material, non-public information about the security or instrument.

C. TRADING RESTRICTIONS

The following restrictions are in addition to any other prohibitions or restrictions set forth in the Code of Conduct or any other applicable policies:

1. Restricted List: You may not trade securities while they are on the Firm's Restricted List. You must pre-clear securities against the Firm's Restricted List, using the Compliance Portal (Comply-Sci) page, immediately prior to placing a trade to confirm that the security is not restricted. Securities can be placed on the Restricted List for a variety of reasons, and in some cases can remain on the Restricted List for a long period of time. The Firm is not obligated to explain why a security is on the Restricted List, or to indicate when a security might come off the Restricted List. Exceptions to the Restricted List prohibition are rarely granted and only in exceptional circumstances. Price decline of a security is not a legitimate basis for requesting an exception to the Restricted List prohibition.
2. Stop or Limit Orders: You may not place stop or limit orders, except for same-day orders only.
3. OTC Derivatives: You may not trade in over-the-counter derivatives contracts, such as OTC options, futures, forwards, warrants or swaps.
4. Transactions in MSCI Inc. Securities: Trading in securities of MSCI Inc. is subject to the conditions and requirements set forth in the Supplement for

Information Classification: CONFIDENTIAL

Transactions in MSCI Inc. Securities, including trading blackout periods, holding periods and other requirements.

5. Private Securities Transactions: You may not engage in any private securities transactions without pre-approval from the MSCI Compliance Department. To seek approval, submit a request using the Compliance Portal. Private securities transactions include investments in privately held corporations, limited partnerships, tax shelter programs and other privately offered interests. Private Securities Transactions. Refer to the MSCI Directorships, Outside Activities and Private Securities Transactions Policy for further details.

6. Publicly Listed Real Estate Products:

Real Estate Employees

Real Estate Employees are defined for purposes of this Policy as those employees involved in MSCI's Private Real Estate product line who have knowledge of or access to either of the following before they are made publicly available ("Non-Public Real Estate Data"):

- information regarding the constituents of MSCI Private Real Estate Indexes (including "headline" or "standard indexes" as well as the "benchmark" indexes delivered as part of Enterprise Analytics)
- any client's or data provider's publicly listed real estate fund (including any Real Estate Investment Trust (REIT)) holdings information, including capital growth and rental income of portfolio properties, such as that contained in MSCI Private Real Estate products and services and /or data provider data.

Knowledge of or access to Non-Public Real Estate Data may allow an investor to trade on this information before such information is priced into a publicly listed real estate fund, a derivative of such fund, or a derivative or other investment vehicle linked to an MSCI Private Real Estate Index (including "headline" or "standard indexes" as well as the "benchmark" indexes delivered as part of Enterprise Analytics).

Restrictions

- Prohibitions

Real Estate Employees are prohibited from purchasing:

- any publicly listed real estate fund (including REITs);

- any fund, derivative or other investment vehicle linked to an MSCI Private Real Estate Index (including "headline" or "standard indexes" as well as the "benchmark" indexes delivered as part of Enterprise Analytics)
- Sale of Current Holdings

Sales or transfers by Real Estate Employees of previously acquired publicly listed real estate product or their shares must be pre-approved by the Compliance Department through the Firm's Compliance Portal.

7. Client Portfolios and Product Launches:

- You may not buy or sell securities or other instruments on the basis of knowledge of a client's portfolio, potential trading positions, model portfolio scenarios or any client or MSCI product launch or plans.
- You may not "piggyback" or "front run" any client trades or potential trades.

8. OTW Consultants, Interns and Temps Working On-site or with Systems Access:

- On request, you must disclose your brokerage and non-brokerage trading accounts to the MSCI Compliance Department and provide copies of your account statements and trade confirmations.
- On request, all trades must be pre-approved by the MSCI Compliance Department.
- On request, you must comply with the Restricted List and the Holding Period requirements.

D. ACCOUNTS

1. Brokerage Accounts.

Brokerage accounts do not need to be disclosed or maintained at a designated institution, except for accounts holding MSCI Inc. securities.

A brokerage account is any account that can hold or execute transactions in equity or debt securities, foreign exchange, commodities or derivatives.

For example, stock or bond trading accounts are brokerage accounts. Accounts that can hold or execute transactions in exchange traded funds or closed end funds are also brokerage accounts for purposes of this Policy. Money market and open-end mutual fund only accounts are not brokerage accounts for purposes of this Policy. If an account has a brokerage capability, even if you do not utilize it, it is considered a brokerage account for purposes of this Policy.

2. Accounts Holding MSCI Inc. Securities.

Any account holding MSCI securities is subject to the requirements of the Supplement for Transactions in MSCI Inc. Securities.

All employees receiving MSCI stock, RSUs or options as part of their MSCI compensation are provided an E*Trade account. MSCI stock and RSUs may only be held and traded through E*Trade or other designated brokers that report transactions to MSCI via the Compliance Portal for monitoring. Options in MSCI may only be transacted through the E*Trade account provided by the Firm. All transactions in MSCI Inc. securities must be pre-cleared and pre-approved via the Compliance Portal.

3. Non-Brokerage Accounts.

Examples of non-brokerage accounts include:

- Mutual Fund Only Accounts. Mutual fund only accounts do not have to be disclosed or maintained at a designated institution. Trading in a mutual fund only account, however, is subject to the Holding Period and Restricted List requirements of this Policy.
- Cash Accounts. Money market funds, insurance policies (including annuities), certificates of deposit (CDs), savings accounts and other cash management accounts are also not required to be disclosed or maintained at a designated institution. Additionally, the restrictions in this Policy such as Holding Periods do not apply to these types of instruments or accounts.
- Physical Share Certificates. If you hold securities in physical certificate form, you are not required to deposit them in a brokerage account. You may only sell those shares through a brokerage account, or by depositing the shares with the issuer of the security for sale if you have pre-cleared the security against the Restricted List.

4. Managed Accounts.

Generally, With prior authorization from the MSCI Compliance Department, you may open a managed account in which you grant full discretion to the manager or broker. Investments held in such fully discretionary managed accounts are not subject to the Holding Periods, Restricted List or other trading restrictions herein.

Information Classification: CONFIDENTIAL

You may not hold MSCI Inc. stock in a managed account and you must so inform the manager or broker.

You must obtain pre-approval using the Compliance Portal prior to opening any managed account. You will need to provide the MSCI Compliance Department with a copy of the management agreement that establishes the manager or broker has full discretion over the account and that the account may not trade MSCI Inc. stock.

Full discretion means:

- you may not participate, directly or indirectly, in individual investment decisions;
- you may not be made aware of individual investment decisions before transactions are executed;
- you have no influence in the purchase or sale of specific securities, and
- you may establish general investment guidelines for the manager or broker (e.g., indicating industries in which you desire to invest, the type of securities you want to hold and your overall investment objectives), but the guidelines may not be changed so frequently so as to allow you to direct, or give the appearance that you are directing, the investments in the account (guidelines may not be changed more frequently than quarterly).

5. Automatic Investment Plans.

- You may participate in automatic investment plans (e.g., a scheduled, recurring $100 investment on the first day of every month in the same mutual fund) provided that you pre-clear the security against the Restricted List immediately prior to (i) the first time you purchase the security through the plan, (ii) your first election to reinvest and (iii) any decision to no longer invest/re-invest in the security.

Participation in the MSCI 401(k) or other Firm retirement or deferred compensation plan (or a spouse's or domestic partner's participation in his or her employer's plans), however, does not have to be disclosed as an automatic investment plan.

You may not invest in MSCI Inc. securities (MSCI) through an automatic investment plan unless pre-approved by the MSCI Compliance Department in accordance with the requirements set forth in the Supplement for Transactions in MSCI Inc. Securities.

6. ESPPs/ESOPs.

Investments held through an employee stock purchase plan or employee stock option plan from a previous employer, or by a spouse or domestic partner at his or her employer, are permitted; however, trades are subject to the Holding Periods and Restricted List (for sales).

7. Tax Deferral Accounts.

- You are not required to rollover tax deferral accounts such as a 401(k) account from a previous employer to an MSCI plan or account.
- Trading in any tax deferral account is subject to the restrictions described herein, including with respect to the Restricted List and Holding Periods.

8. No Pooled Investment Clubs.

You may not participate in investment clubs in which members pool their assets to make investments in securities.

9. Additional Disclosure and Cooperation.

If requested, you will promptly provide the MSCI Compliance Department with documentation and any other requested information relevant to this Policy, such as trading activity, account holdings, account statements, trade confirmations and other account or trading information.

The Firm reserves the right to monitor your trading and investment activity. The Firm may request on your behalf, or require you to ensure, that duplicate account and trade confirmations and/or statements are sent to MSCI in the manner requested by the Firm. The Firm may also obtain trading and position data for your accounts either directly from the institution or from a third-party data collection vendor.

Transactions in your accounts may be reviewed by the Firm for a variety of factors such as frequency of trading; potential misuse of confidential information and conflicts of interest. The Firm also may provide information concerning transactions in your accounts to regulatory and governmental authorities.

E. TRADING BLACKOUT PERIODS

1. Blackouts for trading in MSCI Inc. Securities. MSCI Inc. securities are subject to trading blackouts surrounding quarterly earnings announcements by MSCI. The scheduled trading blackouts, which are subject to change:
 - Begin at the close of trading on the 5th day of the last month of each fiscal quarter (March 5, June 5, September 5 and December 5); and
 - End at the beginning of the third full trading day following each quarterly earnings release by MSCI.

Please see the Supplement for Transactions in MSCI Inc. Securities for more details.

2. Additional Trading Blackout Periods. Additional trading blackout periods may be announced from time to time.

F. HOLDING PERIODS

1. All trades are subject to a minimum thirty (30) calendar day holding period or any longer holding period required by the relevant account or product.
2. Although you may trade listed derivatives such as listed equity options and listed index options, you may not trade any such instruments if by their terms they expire in less than 30 days. If the instrument has a term of greater than 30 days but is exercised (e.g., put or called) in less than 30 days by the counterparty, then you will not be in violation of the 30 day holding period requirement.
3. Transactions in MSCI Inc. securities have a 90 day holding period. For more details, see the Supplement for Transactions in MSCI Inc. Securities.

G. MISCELLANEOUS

1. Additional Requirements. The MSCI Compliance Department may modify this Policy and impose additional limitations or requirements on employee trading at any time, in its sole discretion.
2. Trading Privilege Removal. The Firm, in its sole discretion, reserves the right to cancel or instruct you to cancel any trade, without prior notice to you and at your expense. Additionally, the Firm may require you to freeze your positions due to potential conflicts of interest or the possible appearance of impropriety. The Firm may also, in its sole discretion, suspend or revoke your personal trading privileges at any time.

Information Classification: CONFIDENTIAL

3. Definitions of "Buy," "Sell" and "Trade." As used in this Policy, the terms "buy," "sell" and "trade" and all derivations thereof include all transfers or exchanges, including gifts and charitable donations. For example, if you want to donate stock to a charity, unless otherwise approved by the General Counsel or his/her designee the donation must comply with all of the applicable terms of this Policy such as the Holding Periods and any notification and approval processes.
4. Inheritances and Gifts. If you inherit or are gifted any securities or other instruments or accounts covered by the terms of this Policy, you must make any necessary disclosures and transfers and take any other actions necessary to comply with the requirements of this Policy.

IV. Failure to comply

A. COMPANY DISCIPLINE

Violation of this Policy or insider trading or tipping laws may subject you to disciplinary action by the Firm up to and including termination for cause. A violation of this Policy is not necessarily a violation of law. The Firm's Policy is intended to be broader than the law. The Firm reserves the right to determine that specific conduct violates this Policy, whether or not the conduct also violates the law. It is not necessary for the Firm to await the filing or conclusion of a civil or criminal action against the alleged violator before taking disciplinary action.

Failure to comply with this Policy may (without limitation) result in one or more of the following as the Firm considers appropriate in the particular circumstances:

1. Cancellation or reversal of trades at your expense.¹
2. Accounting for and disgorgement of any profit from a transaction that violates the Policy.²
3. Revocation, suspension or restriction of trading privileges.

¹ Reversal of a trade means purchasing the same financial product in the same quantity that you sold or selling the same financial product in the same quantity that you bought.

² "Profit" may be measured in a number of ways, including by comparing the actual purchase or sale price of the transaction that violated this Policy with the purchase or sale price of the instrument at the beginning of the period when a transaction would not violate this Policy. For example, if a sale resulting in proceeds of $100 occurred before the expiration of the applicable holding period would have resulted in proceeds of $90, profit from the transaction could be measured at $10.

4. Termination, suspension from employment (with or without pay), reprimand or such other disciplinary action as the Firm considers appropriate in the circumstances.
 5. Criminal, civil, or regulatory proceedings and penalties, including damages, fines and sanctions.

B. REPORTING VIOLATIONS

Any person who violates this Policy or any applicable laws governing insider trading or tipping, or knows of any such violation by any other person must report the violation immediately to the General Counsel. Upon learning of any such violation, the General Counsel will determine whether the Firm should release any material non-public information, or whether the Firm should report the violation the SEC or other appropriate governmental authority.

V. Questions

Questions regarding this Policy may be directed to the MSCI Compliance Department.

Mahima Agrawal
 Sandar Patel Institute of Technology
 Member - 400 058

Dear Mahima,

Congratulations on receiving our offer of internship with Nomura Services India Private Limited ("the firm") in Corporate Technology Services division. We seek individuals with a distinguished record of achievement, superior leadership skills and commitment to excellence. Throughout our meetings, you have demonstrated these qualities, and we are confident that you will be a strong contributor to our firm.

For the avoidance of doubt, this is a volunteer work placement and you shall not have any employment relationship with the firm. Please understand that the terms and conditions of your internship are governed by the standard firm policies. Among other stipulations, this offer of internship is contingent upon the successful completion of reference checks and you satisfactorily meeting all pre-internship requirements and producing identification to verify your identity.

The firm will provide you with a stipend of INR 75,000 per month, less applicable tax withholdings, as soon as practicable following your internship start date. You will not be entitled to this payment if you fail to commence internship with the firm on the anticipated start date.

This offer of internship is based on your commitment to work exclusively for Nomura for a minimum 25 weeks period beginning on 10 July 2023. It is important that you work the entire period so that we may involve you in a variety of assignments and properly evaluate your potential contribution to the firm. If for any reason you are unable to commit to the 25 weeks period, please notify us before signing this letter.

You shall be eligible to take 15 days of leave in a calendar month applicable cumulatively for the term of your internship, together with relevant public holidays, subject to prior written approvals from your reporting manager.

You will be eligible for additional study leave subject to prior written approvals from the firm. You will be required to resume your internship after the completion of your study leave. If at any point in time you exceed the specified days of leaves during your internship, you will be required to put in additional days of work to complete the above mentioned months of internship.

All developments, productions, written work, inventions and improvements of inventions, whether patentable or not, made by you or to which you would have contributed in the course of your internship, and all industrial and intellectual property rights and copyright(s) made by you or to which you would have contributed in the course of your internship will be and remain the exclusive property of the firm and to the extent necessary you assign any intellectual rights relating thereto to the firm. This includes but is not limited to all research and research products, firm templates, training materials and presentations, "know-how" developed in spreadsheets and systems developments.

For the purpose of your internship you may be required to process Personal Information. "Personal Information" means information concerning a living person and includes the full name, date of birth and any other description that can be used to identify a particular person. You agree not to disclose any Personal Information to any third party or agent who does not need to have access to the same in order for you to perform your work as an intern or use Personal Information for any other purpose other than your internship without the firm's prior consent. You will take all necessary measures to protect any Personal Data processed by you against unauthorized or unlawful processing, accidental loss, leakage or destruction and notify the firm immediately if a leak, loss or abuse of Personal Information or any such breach is discovered by you. You shall hold harmless and indemnify the firm against any loss suffered by it as a result of any breach by you of the provisions of this clause.

You will be eligible for medical insurance coverage for self upto INR 300,000/- per year.

The firm may procure commercial general liability insurance or such other insurance cover as it may require in connection with the internship. You hereby agree that if for any reason you receive any payments by way of compensation or costs or in any other manner under the relevant insurance policy, you shall promptly repay/refund such amounts to the firm in such manner as may be prescribed by the firm. You shall not without the prior consent in writing from the firm make any claim, suit, practice of payment in connection with any claim against you by any third party in connection with the insurance procured by the firm and the firm if it so desires, shall be entitled to take over and conduct in the name of the firm the defense or settlement of any claim.

You agree to indemnify the firm, its officers and its affiliates from and against any claim, action or damages arising out of your work and/or a breach of the terms of this letter.

The firm may terminate this internship at any time (without cause, reason and penalty), upon 7 days prior notice ("Notice Period"). Notwithstanding the said Notice Period, the firm may terminate your internship immediately upon occurrence of any of the following events: (a) If the firm deems your performance to be unsatisfactory or not in accordance with these terms and conditions; (b) If you fail to clear background check as carried out by the Firm; (c) If you fail to satisfy any of the terms and conditions of this letter; and (d) If you breach any of the firm's policies, any obligations relating to confidentiality, intellectual property. In an event you're unable to intern during the Notice Period while the firm requires you to do so, then you shall be liable to pay to the firm an amount equivalent to your stipend for the said period.

The terms and conditions of this letter of internship shall be governed and interpreted according to the laws of India. Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or in connection with this letter of internship shall be resolved by binding final arbitration in Mumbai, pursuant to the Rules of Arbitration of the International Chamber of Commerce. Dear Nikhil, Congratulations on receiving our offer of internship with Nomura Services India Private Limited ("the firm") in Global Markets IT division. We seek individuals with a distinguished record of achievement, superior leadership skills and commitment to excellence. Throughout our meetings, you have demonstrated these qualities, and we are confident that you will be a strong contributor to our firm.

For the avoidance of doubt, this is a volunteer work placement, and you shall not have any employment relationship with the firm. Please understand that the terms and conditions of your internship are governed by the standard firm policies. Among other stipulations, this offer of internship is contingent upon the successful completion of reference checks and you satisfactorily meeting all pre-internship requirements and producing identification to verify your identity.

The firm will provide you with a stipend of INR 75,000 per month, less applicable tax withholdings, as soon as practicable following your internship start date. You will not be entitled to this payment if you fail to commence internship with the firm on the anticipated start date.

This offer of internship is based on your commitment to work exclusively for Nomura for a minimum 25 weeks period beginning on 10 July 2023. It is important that you work the entire period so that we may involve you in a variety of assignments and properly evaluate your potential contribution to the firm. If for any reason you are unable to commit to the 25 weeks period, please notify us before signing this letter.

You shall be eligible to take 1.5 days of leave in a calendar month applicable cumulatively for the term of your internship, together with relevant public holidays, subject to prior written approvals from your reporting manager.

You will be eligible for additional study leave subject to prior written approvals from the firm. You will be required to resume your internship after the completion of your study leave. If at any point in time you exceed the specified days of leaves during your internship then you will be required to put in additional days of work to complete the above mentioned months of internship.

All developments, productions, written work, inventions and improvements of inventions, whether patentable or not, made by you or to which you would have contributed in the course of your internship, and all industrial and intellectual property rights and copyrights made by you or to which you would have contributed in the course of your internship will be and remain the exclusive property of the firm and to the extent necessary you assign any potential rights relating thereto to the firm. This includes but is not limited to all research and research products, firm templates, training materials and presentations, "know-how" developed in spreadsheets and systems developments.

For the purpose of your internship, you may be required to process Personal Information. "Personal Information" means information concerning a living person and includes the full name, date of birth and any other description that can be used to identify a particular person. You agree not to disclose any Personal Information to any third party or agent who does not need to have access to the same in order for you to perform your work as an intern or use Personal Information for any other purpose other than your internship without the firm's prior consent. You will take all necessary measures to protect any Personal Data processed by you against unauthorized or unlawful processing, accidental loss, leakage or destruction and notify the firm immediately if a leak, loss or abuse of Personal Information or any such breach is discovered by you. You shall hold harmless and indemnify the firm against any loss suffered by it as a result of any breach by you of the provisions of this clause.

You will be eligible for medical insurance coverage for self upto INR 300,000/- per year.

The firm may procure commercial general liability insurance or such other insurance cover as it may require in connection with the internship. You hereby agree that if for any reason you receive any payments by way of compensation or costs or in any other manner under the relevant insurance policy, you shall promptly repay/refund such amounts to the firm in such manner as may be prescribed by the firm. You shall not without the prior consent in writing from the firm make any admission, offer, promise or payment in connection with any claim against you by any third party in connection with the insurance procured by the firm and the firm if it so desires, shall be entitled to take over and conduct in the name of the firm the defense or settlement of any claim.

You agree to indemnify the firm, its officers and its affiliates from and against any claim, action or damages arising out of your work and/or a breach of the terms of this letter.

The firm may terminate this internship at any time (without cause, reason and penalty), upon 7 days prior notice ("Notice Period"). Notwithstanding the said Notice Period, the firm may terminate your internship immediately upon occurrence of any of the following events; (a) If the firm deems your performance to be unsatisfactory or not in accordance with these terms and conditions; (b) If you fail to clear background check as carried out by the Firm; (c) If you fail to satisfy any of the terms and conditions of this letter; and (d) If you breach any of the firm's policies, any obligations relating to confidentiality, intellectual property. In an event you're unable to intern during the Notice Period while the firm requires you to do so, then you shall be liable to pay to the firm an amount equivalent to your stipend for the said period.

The terms and conditions of this letter of internship shall be governed and interpreted according to the laws of India. Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or in connection with this letter of internship shall be resolved by binding, final arbitration in Mumbai, pursuant to the Rules of Arbitration of the International Chamber of Commerce. The language of the arbitration shall be English.

Addendum to Letter of Intent ("Addendum")

Dear Shivani,

This Addendum is in furtherance to the Letter of Intent ("LOI") dated Sept 2, 2022 issued to you by Quantiphi Analytics Solutions Private Limited ("Company") expressing its intent to offer a position of internship with the Company subject to the issuance of an actual offer internship letter by the Company.

Whereas, prior to joining the internship programme with the Company, as a part of the pre-onboarding requirement, you are required to undergo a learning programme through a Company provided PAQ^T (Prepare, Ask Hugo, Qonnect), Udemy and EasyQ portals ("Learning Portal") until successfully joining as an Intern in the Company or otherwise as communicated by the Company in writing ("Pre-Joining Period").

Whereas, for your benefit & knowledge, and in order to enable you to start your learning journey, the Company in good faith and its own cost, agrees to provide you with access to the Learning Portal and a sub-domain email id ("Email"), subject to the terms of this Addendum.

In consideration of the foregoing, you represent, covenant, and agree that access and usage to the Learning Portal, and the Email shall be subject to the following terms and conditions:

- a. You shall at all times, comply with all applicable IT/InfoSec policies & guidelines of the Company including any instructions/directions issued by the Company from time to time. Any content created or transmitted or stored in the Email shall be deemed to be the property of the Company. The Company reserves the right to monitor the usage of the Email.
- b. The Email shall only be used to access the Learning Portal and for other related purposes as authorized by the Company. You shall not send/transmit any confidential information of the Company to any person without prior authorization.
- c. You shall exercise prudence and care while using the Email and shall not use or cause to be used, the Email for any illegal or inappropriate purposes including:
 - (i) Signing up for any illegal, prohibited, or unsafe websites and services
 - (ii) Sending unauthorized communication including marketing content or solicitation emails
 - (iii) Sending defamatory, discriminatory or explicit messages and content

Privileged & Confidential

- (iv) Spamming other people's emails, including other interns/workers/contractors.
 - (v) Signing up for unrelated newsletters, social media and other services.
 - (vi) Using the Email for any personal use or gains.
 - (vii) Opening attachments or clicking on suspicious links when content is not adequately explained, or with clickbait titles or from unknown senders etc.
 - (viii) Represent yourself to any third party or any person as being related to the Company in any capacity.
- d. You shall immediately report any problems/issues that you may encounter while using the Email to the Company's IT department by writing to facilities@quantiphi.com.
- e. You shall be solely responsible for the consequences arising out of usage of the Email assigned to you including acts or omission or negligent usage of the Email.
- f. You shall always comply with the applicable laws, and shall not commit any act/s or omission using the Email which could be held as illegal or may amount to cybercrime, or search/watch any explicit or prohibited content on it, post defamatory/illegal content etc.
- g. You understand that appropriate usage of the Email is required for protecting the Company's reputation, improving information security, adherence to regulatory compliance etc., and any infringement thereof would cause irreparable loss to the Company, which may not be quantifiable. You shall defend, indemnify, and save the Company harmless against any and all claims, demands, suits, grievances, or other liability (including advocate fees incurred by the Company) that arise out of or by reason of any act or omission on your part while using the Email which is not in accordance with the terms herein.
- h. The material in the Learning Portal's being shared is purely for your individual consumption and shall not be shared with any third party. You shall at all times comply with and adhere to the Learning Portal's terms of usage.
- i. You acknowledge that until a formal offer letter is signed, the Letter of Intent or this Addendum shall not be deemed to constitute an internship or offer of employment or any other contractual relationship with the Company.
- j. You understand, agree and consent that the assignment of Email is solely for your learning purpose and until you are successfully onboarded as an intern with the Company, you shall not receive any stipend, if any or any form of consideration from the Company. Further, the Pre-Joining Period shall not be factored while considering the period of internship with the Company, or any benefits arising thereof. You acknowledge that you shall be regarded as an intern/employee of the Company only after execution of an internship letter/employment letter, as the case may be with the Company and upon successfully onboarded as per Company's process.
- k. In case you violate or infringe any terms of this Addendum including the Letter of Intent, the Company may, at its discretion, rescind the Letter of Intent/Addendum without any further notice or compensation to you.

- I. The Company may rescind this Addendum and your access to Learning Portal / Email at any time without any notice or assigning any reasons thereof in case of any violation of terms herein.
- m. The Company would periodically give instructions/directions/update the terms of usage of Email & access to Learning Portal, and all such instructions/directions/terms and conditions informed shall be read as terms hereunder this Addendum and shall be binding upon you.
- n. You hereby authorize and provide consent to the Company to process your personal information i.e., collect, receive, possess, store, deal, handle, or to transfer as per applicable laws during the Pre-Joining Period and during your internship, and thereafter for any legitimate activity or purpose of the Company. You shall be solely responsible for the authenticity or correctness of any information provided to the Company.

Privileged & Confidential

By signing this Addendum, you hereby accept and agree to the terms set forth above. These terms shall be supplemental to the terms of the Letter of Intent.

Kindly note that all other terms and conditions as stated in the Letter of Intent shall remain unchanged.

Hello Anandnagar

Thanks for your support and understanding.

Please note- Himanshu Vatari and Vaibhav Raina are available to join for Internship and placement and accepted the offer for Risk and advisory role.

Omprakash Kamble has also accepted the offer for this role . Since he doesn't have an internship from Dedicate he would be required to do an internship with some other company .

Sanket Raut & Sakshi Naik both have accepted the offer. However they are not available for internship since they have committed for an internship with another company .

As conveyed earlier - the students of MCA

1.Omprakash Kamble 2.Sanket Raut 3.Sakshi Naik would be passing out in December 2023 and can be onboard full time from Jan 2024 and can would be available to be on board a full time employee from Jan 2024

We trust the above clarifies, we sincerely regret any confusion in the communication or any inconvenience caused.

We continue to honor our commitments with our esteemed partners.
