FY B.TECH INDUCTION PROGRAMME : ACADEMIC YEAR 2022-23

As part of the AICTE guideline to conduct a formal induction for the fresh engineering undergraduates, the Applied Sciences, Humanities and Mathematics Department of SPIT conducted a series of induction sessions for the new batch of students of FY BTech, AY 2019-20 from 14th November – 2nd December, 2022

Summary : The aim of the induction programme was to make the newly joined students comfortable, allow them to explore their academic interests and activities, reduce competition and make them work for excellence, promote bonding within them, build relations between teachers and students, give a broader view of life, and build character. The induction programme at SPIT was spread over three weeks and included various informative and activity based sessions. It included activities ranging from ice breaking sessions, general counselling and motivational talks to literary sessions and campus tour. An effort was made to integrate the induction sessions with regular academics to enable the students to gradually ease into the rigours of academics.

The details of each session are outlined below :

1. Literary session : Two literary sessions were conducted for students of each individual class was by the faculty of communication skills
2. Universal Human Values session : Mrs Deepa Panakkal from St Francis Institute of Technology delivered a talk on "Making each day your Masterpiece" related to moral values and ethics
3. Ice breaker session : The students had an ice breaker session in two groups of about 150 students each. The session was conducted by Mr Sanket Potdar, an internationally certified and one of the most sought after corporate trainers and Art of Living expert. Mr Sanket Potdar specializes in conducting induction programmes as well stress management workshops. The aim of the session was to get the students to mingle and interact with each other, break inhibitions and work in collaboration develop a questioning mentality rather than blindly accepting whatever they are told.

4. Expert session by Shreshtha Club : Mr Vicky Dhanwani from Google and Mr Sharad Oza from Shreshtha Club delivered a talk on "Concentration in the Age of Distractions" for Computer and EXTC domains respectively

5. Yoga Session : A session on yoga for better concentration and stress management was conducted by Dr Sujata Kulkarni for all the students.

6. Orientation : The orientation programme for FY BTech students was held on 21st November in the SPJIMR Auditorium and was well attended by students and parents. The students were addressed by the Principal in charge, Dean Academics, Prof Y S Rao who highlighted the importance of academics and Dean Student Affairs, Prof Talele

7. Teambuilding Workshop : The session was conducted in two batches by Dr Anjana Vinod and was received very well by the students

8. Session with Dean - Academics : The students in each individual branch were addressed by Prof Y S Rao and Prof Rajendra Sutar and familiarised with the various courses and elective options available to them in the institute and social work being undertaken by the students. They were also informed about the mandatory attendance requirements, examination and assessment systems and so on.
9. Session with student council : Each branch of students were addressed by Prof Y S Rao and Prof Rajendra Sutar. They were appraised about the various committees formed in the institute and the curricular as well as co-curricular activities conducted by the student council.
10. Session with counsellor : The counsellor Mrs Mona Upadhyay conducted a session on "Learning beyond Limits" and imparted valuable advice on issues like exam stress, peer pressure, etc and encouraged the students to seek her assistance and support when required.

11. Diagnostic Test : The AICTE has also mandated proficiency sessions in language and in this context, a diagnostic test in English language was conducted based on multiple choice questions as well as a passage to test comprehension. The weak students were identified based on their score and remedial sessions have been planned on a regular basis by the communication skills faculty
12. TPO/SPTBI : Mr Vinod Sikka and his team addressed the students on the placement and start-up scenario and the necessary skills to be developed for the same.
13. Stress Management using Ved Vedant : Mr Puneet Chaturvedi who is a Supreme Court advocate delivered a talk on the importance of spiritual and cultural values in the pursuit of success and excellence.

14. Katalyst : The girl students were invited to a session by an organisation named Katalyst which caters to girl students who are in need of financial support for their education and higher studies.

15. Interaction with Department : The respective heads of the departments of Computer Engineering, Computer Science and EXTC met with the students and introduced them to the various activities being conducted by them.
16. Campus visit : A tour of the campus was organised for the students accompanied by faculty members. The students were taken around the premises and shown their laboratories, library, gymkhana, canteen etc to ensure they are familiar with the location of various facilities in the campus.

At the end of the induction programme, the students were requested to complete an online feedback form where they were told to rate each individual session and the overall induction program on a scale of 1-5 (1 being lowest and 5 being highest). Suggestions for improvement were also invited. The feedback indicates that the students have enjoyed the induction programme and are looking forward to their tenure at S.P.I.T

Name of the Department / Committee: E-Cell S.P.I.T and IIC S.P.I.T.

Name of the Event: Food Challenge 2022

Date of Event: 11th November 2022

Brief Information about the event:

E-Cell S.P.I.T in association with IIC S.P.I.T. conducted Food Challenge, an event where students set up food stalls in the Sabhagriha and sold food of their choice at a price point set by them. Students participated in teams of 3 to 6. Each team was allotted a stall where they sold their eatables in exchange for coupons provided by E-Cell S.P.I.T which was the mode of payment.

The event was judged by Mayank Shah, Shikha Shetty, Jinali Doshi, Yashmita Suvarna, and Abhay Sharma, who are prominent Food Vloggers. The event was evaluated on two criteria- best taste and maximum sales.

The winners under the best taste criteria were Team Mr. Bean's (Sonu Sahu, Nikhil Singh, Chetan Patil, Teethi Kanthe, Aaryan Vaidya, Tejas Thakarey, and Kundan Chaudhari). The winners under the maximum sales criteria were Team PVR (Chirag Wadhwani, Vineet Mankani, Harish Balasubramanian, and Janhavi Dangle).

The event provided a great opportunity for all the participants to learn about pricing and advertising products which is a crucial skill for an entrepreneur. Participants learned the importance of accurately estimating the quantity of required material to prevent leftovers. Participants also had a first-hand experience of dynamically changing the prices of their products to match their competitors or to attract more customers.

Due to the introduction of two new programs namely B.Tech Computer Science (AIML) and B.Tech Computer science (Data Science), nearly 400 students participated in the induction as compared to about 250 in the previous year. The program included various meaningful sessions for the students ranging from Yoga to interaction with various functional heads of the Institute, student council and clubs and committees, Dean (Academics, Student Affairs) and the principal and vice principal.

The different sessions are briefly summarized below :

Introduction to Induction program

A brief introduction to the induction program and its objectives was provided by Ms Ananthalakshmi, Induction Coordinator alongwith a brief outline of the different sessions.

Address by HoD and Dean Students Affairs

A brief introduction to the ASH department and its objectives was provided by Dr Rita Das. A brief outline of the first-year curriculum and the unique nature of the S.P.I.T curriculum was also included. As dean Student Affairs, Dr Rita Das briefed the students about the rules and regulations and anti-ragging measures taken by S.P.I.T

Creativity session :

During the Creativity Session, students actively participated in a Communication Based Activity on the Importance of "Listening Skills" and on how assumptions can prove problematic when it comes to Communication. Also, the activity worked on the learners Critical Thinking Skills as they were made to ask "Right Kind of Questions" to reach closest to the exact communication.

Yoga Session

Two live yoga sessions were conducted by Dr Sujata Kulkarni in two batches. The sessions focused on improving mental well being and concentration as well unwinding from long hours of online classes necessitated by the pandemic. The sessions were highly appreciated by the students.

Schindig

Ice breaker session

Dr Anjana Vinod, life and positivity coach conducted the ice breaker session for the students in two batches. Apart from getting the students to interact and introduce each other, she also highlighted useful aspects of goal setting and the steps to achieve one's goals. The students were highly involved and participated in all the activities with a great deal of enthusiasm.

Session on Start-ups :

Mr Mitesh Shah, a member of Inflexion Point Ventures an angel investing firm addressed the students on the start-up scenario prevailing in the country. There were a wide range of questions from the students who were very well informed on the topic. It was a very beneficial session with the Q & A session being the most informative.

Schindler

Stress Management through Ved and Vedant

Mr Puneet Chaturvedi who is a Supreme Court advocate is a renowned speaker on Vedic principles. He conducted a very enlightening session on basic moral principles and ethics which have to be practiced lifelong for successful and fruitful professional and personal development. It was one of the most appreciated induction sessions.

Session with Dean, Academics

Prof Rajendra Sutar introduced the students to the various aspects of the curriculum and the academic requirements and options available for various courses at S.P.I.T.

Training and Placement Office

Mr Vinod Sikka, the Training and Placement Officer introduced the students to the activities of the TPC and stressed upon developing the necessary skill sets apart from the curriculum in order to find openings in dream and super dream companies. Prof Talele highlighted the working of the SPTBI and the different startups being incubated at SPTBI.

Interaction with Students Council and SPIT Alumnus

The Students Council members were introduced to the incoming batch of students. As a first-time initiative, a graduate Alumnus of S.P.I.T was invited to share experiences and learnings. Mr Manas Sinkar spent valuable time interacting with the students on strategies for securing placements and also admission into foreign universities for higher education and research. The students had wide ranging questions which were all patiently answered by our alumnus.

Manas Sinkar

Literary Session

The Literary & Proficiency session was conducted keeping 4 major modules of Communication Skills in mind i.e. Speaking, Writing, Listening n Reading. Students were introduced to some of the basic components of analyzing a piece of literature where they analyzed some popular couplets of Madhushala by Shri Harivansh Rai Bachchan. They were also taught some of the important areas to consider while drafting a speech. Activities in listening comprehensively and writing for effectiveness were also conducted. Students actively participated in all 4 sessions.

Orientation Program :

A formal orientation program was held for the students on 3rd January, 2022 during which the Vice Principal Prof Y S Rao and Principal Dr B N Chaudhari addressed the students. Prof Rao stressed on the relevance of science courses to engineering disciplines and the importance of adapting to new technologies and innovations for engineers. The Principal Dr B N Chaudhari spoke about the equal importance of every branch of engineering and their contribution in varying degrees to different applications.

Introduction to Clubs / Committees

The first year students were introduced to the various activities being undertaken at college level through different student clubs and committees. The session was attended by well over 400 students with lot of enthusiasm and active participation.

Session with SPIT Counsellor

Two sessions with the S.P.I.T counsellor Mrs Mona Upadhyay were organized for the students. The first session was to brief the students on the support available for students to discuss their fears and insecurities and other issues like stress management. A separate session, "Looking after our mental health : A webinar on caring for our mind", was held for students exclusively to focus on their mental well being.

Feedback :

Comprehensive feedback was collected from students in online mode which indicates that the students have enjoyed the induction program and are looking forward to an exciting four years at S.P.I.T.

Open Mic 2022:

There couldn't have been a better kick-off to the annual techno-cultural fest of SPIT. The Open Mic 2022, conducted on 24th March in the SPIT quadrangle was special in ways we're still processing. The event was held at a place other than its conventional spot at the amphitheater. The decor was magical with fairy lights hanging from the ceilings at the Sabhagraha during a beautiful night. It was an evening filled with music, dance, acting, standup comedy, and more. Students from colleges all over Mumbai got a platform to let their creativity flow and captivate the audience. The enthusiasm and energy of everyone in attendance lifted the performances to something far greater.

We were joined by our honorable principal Dr Bhalchandra Chaudhary who was actively encouraging and supporting not only the participants but hyping up the audience as well. The brilliant musicians stepped up and delivered stellar performances making everyone groove to the tunes and melodies. Phone lights came out during the musical performances by Kaisar Katchi sir's band which was met with screaming voices of all his students. Mihir Nikam and Sakshi Patil's mashup of classic Bollywood songs was one of the most awaited performances, was a huge hit and hyped up the crowd, and many more. Harish Balasubramanian's acoustic rendition of Sham by Amit Trivedi made the crowd want to get out their phones and wave them around with their flashlights on.

Shantanu Kadam's sentimental rap about women's safety issues touched the hearts of everyone and made the audience stand up and applaud. The standup comedians Amey Agarwal, Krishna Pandey, and others had the crowd laughing at their relatable jokes and amazing stage presence. Atman Ainapure made jokes relatable to the whole SPIT crowd and his friends. Their scripts had tons of jokes which tickled the audience's funny bone and hardly let them breathe.

Our alumnus Siddhesh's performance capped off a wonderful night. This was a performance made on the crowd's demand after a lot of cheering. The event was wrapped up with a final vote of thanks by the editor-in-chief, Sharli Kude. SPark, MUDRA, and Oculus did a wonderful job and made sure that the event was conducted smoothly.

"The event was a great success as the students were itching to attend an offline event. All the audience members and the participants were really enthralled and ecstatic by the end of the event. There is no greater feeling for an organizer to see smiles at the end of an event.", says Manan Savla, Managing Editor at SPark.

IPL AUCTION

The player is sold in 3.2... The IPL auction event took place on the 26th and 27th of March under the banner of Oculus. A blockbuster event with a thrilling atmosphere and a fusion of the game of cricket and the auction process. The event being held on college premises unlike the last year added to the excitement and helped in capturing the essence of a real-life auction. So the question arises, If someone had no prior experience of being in an auction atmosphere, could they have participated in the event? The answer is an absolute yes! So let's understand the rules and the overall aesthetics of the event.

Every participating team was given a fixed amount of 90 crores to buy a team from the pool of teams that have traditionally been part of the IPL and a set of 11 players for their respective teams. The participating teams were divided into slots over the two-day event. After all the auction proceedings, a total of 120 players went under the hammer. Each player was given a single overall score which was calculated based on the player's performance in three stages of the game-powerplay, middle overs and death overs. There were some legendary players such as Sachin Tendulkar, Jacques Kallis, Kapil Dev etc included in the pool, for teams to have them in their overall 11 and boost their team score. The Master Blaster, Sachin Tendulkar, for example, was the highest-rated player in the pool with astonishing 96 points.

As we know, any good game played is incomplete without its twists and turns, and the organizers of the event keep this in mind with power-ups for the teams to grab: The POWER CARD, GODS EYE and the most exciting one-the YORKER card. For example, if a team had a Yorker card and was the second-highest bidder in the line, it could block the player from going to the highest bidding team and include the player in their team. Every slot came with a different story, In some cases, there was nail-biting competition with teams separated by single-digit points only, whereas in others a single squad dominated other teams with considerable differences in points. Throughout the event, the organizing committee played a crucial role in micromanaging different slots with the same enthusiasm while maintaining the decorum of the entire event. Rules were regularly shared with the participating teams through the course of the event to avoid confusion and last-minute hassles. Auctioneers were the heart of the auction process and worked in great capacity with the participating teams, boosting their morals and making the entire process easy-going and interesting to be part of.

E-SPORTS

This year's Oculus eSports event was 3 days of fun and thrill, featuring adrenaline-fuelled games like Valorant, and FIFA along with the game of wit and wisdom: Chess to name a few. The event was well appreciated, with colossal participation in all the games.

The initial matches for Valorant were conducted online, with two moderators spectating each match to ensure fair play. A professional streamer was contacted to stream and moderate, the matches for the finals. There were a total of 18 teams who battled their squads to clinch victory. The winners, Team Shuriken, and the runners-up, Team Knoobs, bagged cash prizes of Rs 5000 and 3000, respectively. Along with this, Chess was conducted in online mode as well. It was a league-style tournament hosted over the popular online chess platform, Lichess. The games were all played in the Blitz format. It was indeed a battle of the brains between the 22 bright-minded participants. Finally, Samyak Patodi outsmarted his opponent Aditya Potdar to win the tournament in the finals. The winner and runners-up received exciting cash prizes.

Although the aforementioned games were both a thrill to watch, the event's spotlight was the fun gaming station set up in Room 305, with consoles and various games. Players could come and chill with their buddies for an hour at minimal costs and enjoy the console gaming experience. It featured fun games such as FIFA and WWE. This initiative got a great response from the crowd, and it was enjoyed a lot by the participants. Moreover, the participants received vouchers worth Rs 1000 for NoEscape.

A MUN is an interactive educational activity in which students simulate the workings of the UN or one of its many organs, agencies or affiliated bodies. Students from colleges all over Mumbai researched their assigned member states, the UN body on which they would be seated, and the topics for their simulation, for the SPIT MUN 2022 conducted on the 5th and 6th of March.

The seventh edition of the annual Model United Nations Conference of SPIT was conducted as a pre-event to the official techno-cultural fest of SPIT- Oculus 2022. The experienced delegates got to brush up on their MUN skills and the first-timers garnered some valuable experience which will stay with them forever.

The committees this year included the All India Political Parties Meet(AIPPM) and the Disarmament and International Security Committee(DISEC).

The agenda for the AIPPM committee was the discussion of the laws of digital currency in India and the formation of legal digital currency in India. This committee was headed by Mithil Inamdar as its Chairperson. The portfolios of the delegates were politicians of the respective political party assigned to them. The quality and tone of the debate were at times dramatically different from the "real" AIPPM.

The agenda for the DISEC committee was the proposed Middle East Nuclear-Weapon-Free Zone, a longstanding proposal to prohibit the possession and use of nuclear weapons in the Middle East which has not been implemented yet.

The laborious day two was followed by a closing ceremony where the efforts of the delegates were highly admired through various new ideas and enjoyed the applause of their great victory. Mr Manav Singh along with Dharmil Doshi blessed the ceremony with their presence. The award for the best delegate was won by the delegates of Mexico, in addition to that several delegates were awarded special mention and verbal mention for their remarkable new thoughts on nuclear weapons free zone. This includes the USA, Egypt, Somalia, and Syria.

VIRTUAL STOCK MARKET

The virtual stock market, a flagship event of the annual techno-cultural Fest: Oculus, was a virtual stock market simulation held on the 26th and 27th of March 2022, at the main entrance hall of Sardar Patel Institute of Technology. Participants came from all over, from SPIT as well as from outside, eyeing the prizes and hampers worth Rs. 35000!

A mind gruelling and intense affair, the contestants were put through an imaginary simulation with the craziest of storylines and news with various characters, who through their dealings and businesses, affected an array of imaginary stocks like drugs, guns, gold, aviation, oil, and infrastructure.

Participants could use an imaginary currency (V$M coins) of 1 Crore and trade these stocks according to their knowledge of how the dynamic market works depending on the news provided for each round.

At the end of each round a leaderboard was displayed based on the profits earned by each team and the one with maximum returns after all the 5 rounds, was declared the winner. There were also some hampers for people willing to perform on the spot while the tech team did the evaluation of the scores. The event was a huge success with participants having fun regardless of the results.

FE BOOTCAMP CODATRON

Codatron, arguably this year's most successful coding event held in our college, was an online coding competition held exclusively for the first-year students, giving them a platform to express their skills in the domains of critical reading and analytical thinking. It gave an opportunity for the students to use their newfound programming skills, and execute them in an official sense.

Codatron was a subset of the FE Bootcamp, which was an attempt at teaching Python, a programming language, to first-year students. The FE Bootcamp was a two-day event, consisting of online lectures held by the seniors of our college, namely, Aditya Kharote, Aaditya Meher, and Kartik Menon, who also conducted several assignments and doubt-solving sessions.

The event, with the participation of more than one hundred students, was beyond successful. It exposed the freshers to the real-world competitive programming scenario, making them ready for the same.

Omkar Rao stood first in the competition, Mann Bhanushali stood second and the third position was occupied by Suraj Iyer.

LOCKOUT AND KNOCKOUT

Lockout and Knockout was an online event conducted by the Oculus Coding League which was open to SEs and above. The event consisted of two rounds, namely, 'Lockout' and 'Knockout'.

Knockout was your standard coding competition which was held over a period of two hours, the top 8 coders made it to the next round, Lockout.

Now, Lockout was something unique and interesting. In Lockout, once a question got one correct submission, the points for that question would go to the respective participant and nobody else would be able to acquire those points. It was conducted on Hackerrank and the Lockout system was implemented by informing the participants if a problem had been solved or not. They were informed on a WhatsApp group and on the website itself.

Harshvardhan stood first in the competition, Tarun stood second and the third position was occupied by Omprakash.

"It was a fun experience, a lot of people participated and the questions were interesting, neither too easy nor too difficult. The competition was tough but friendly. Got to do competitive programming after a long time and realized it's still fun. A great event overall.", says Jai Patel, one of the participants of the event.

STACKED SQUAD

Stacked Squad, an online technical event of the annual techno-cultural fest OCULUS was a tournament-style team event. The event consisted of two rounds, Round one taking place on the 20th of March and Round 2 taking place on the 27th of March.

It was especially mind-gruelling as the competition was intense among the different teams that took part in the event. These teams competed with each other to qualify for the next round with a twist of a bidding round.

The rules were elaborately laid out for each round. Among the many teams that took part in the event, only ten were to be selected for Round 2.

The first round consisted of 6 questions with varying levels of difficulty but was equally met with sheer enthusiasm and intelligence displayed by all participants. The second and final round consisted of teams bidding on premium test cases and problem statements. Their performance in the first round consisted of points that became the currency with which they bid.

The event went very well as a whole and was carried out very smoothly thanks to the OCULUS committee and subcommittee who did an amazing job at handling the event, making people more excited to join in next year as well.

WAR OF BRANCHES

Dance is the hidden language of the soul. It's a poem in which each movement is a word, a way to express and enjoy the human spirit. During the evening of the 26th of march, SPIT witnessed one of the most awaited dance competitions of the year – the War Of Branches. With passionate and expert judges such as Sawan sir and Vrushaali ma'am, the event kicked off. The swarming crowd that had gathered in the quadrangle of SPIT displayed the excitement and enthusiasm of the audience towards the dancers of their branch and were eagerly waiting for their branches to put their best talent forward. The students from all the five departments were prepared and at their best.

The first to perform was the branch of ETRX. Their dance set the stage on fire with their powerful performance. The participants left everyone awe-struck with their moves on the melodious beats of the songs to which they danced so effortlessly.

The second was the team of MCA. They captured the crowd's attention with their amazing moves while being adorned in colourful costumes which attracted the entire audience.

Following MCA, the next team to perform was COMPS. Their performance was spectacular. They had the crowd paying rapt attention to their dances. The eye-catching performances of Siddesh Sonawane and his company were mesmerising. Their vigour resonated with the audience, leaving the crowd speechless.

The final branch to perform was IT. Nikhil Motwani won everyone's hearts with his outstanding moves and flexible steps. With a little bit of drama, a little romance, and a lot of enthusiasm, the dancers concluded their vibrant performance. The cheers of the crowd echoed the energy of their performance.

War of Branches has been established as a legacy in SPIT. It is always great to see the zeal in the participants and the large crowd that lightens the lamps in the evening. The event was a fusion of talent, imagination, creativity, and alertness. Once the performances were over, the judges declared COMPS the winner of the War of Branches.

ZAEDEN CONCERT

What better way to wind down the flagship event of our prestigious college than having a world-famous artist come and perform on our very own campus! Oculus S.P.I.T., in collaboration with Zaeden, hosted one of the grandest musical serenades on the night of 27th March 2022. The S.P.I.T. quadrangle was filled with young, enthusiastic students who gathered in big numbers since early in the evening to catch a glimpse of the newest upcoming talent in India.

Entry was given around 8 PM post-security checks. Within no time, the quad was packed with the audience. Zaeden came out to a nearly deafening roar! From "Tere Bina" to "Socha na tha" and from "Kya Karoon" to covers of songs by foreign artists like Lauv and Justin Bieber, the crowd hummed and repeated all the songs after him! A lucky superfan wearing Zaeden's exclusive merchandise even got a chance to Various college students participating in the Carnival gathered at the quadrangle, along with the highly-talented judges on a not-so-regular Sunday. The event started with the students of R.G.I.T. dressed as infamous characters from Bollywood movies. Our college, SPIT, was the next to showcase themselves as popular musicians from the Hollywood industry. This was followed by the students of VIT giving a breathtaking performance whilst being dressed as various animal avatars. All of these performances were a breath of fresh air and to add more, the students of Thakur College showcased patriotism and feminism through their performances. This social message performance received constant applause from the crowd. "Wakanda forever" is what was on everyone's mind when the students of St. Andrews College presented themselves. And at the end, the students from the S.M.T. University came dressed as renowned pop-culture female characters.

With every performance being more thrilling than the previous, the students of V.I.T. were declared winners. And thus, this magical event came to an end.

SARGAM

The event Sargam was everything a person with a knack for music could ask for. There was a plethora of talented musicians, who performed not only with their vocals or instruments but straight from their hearts.

The show marked its beginning with performances from the instrumental category. We got to see bone-chilling beatboxing, amazing flute-playing, and a fusion of musical antipodes as Tirth Phatak played an English song on the tabla. After that, the performances in the vocals category began which blessed everyone's ears with melodious renditions of old as well as new Hindi songs. From singing "Phir le aaya dil" to "Tujhse naraaz Nahi Zindagi" and from "Buleya" to "Lag jaa gale", everyone in the audience was taken aback by how heavenly it all sounded.

Finally, the moment came when the results were to be announced. "It's always the underdog", said the judges while announcing Tirth Phatak as the winner of the instrumental category. The winners of the vocal category were Siddhi Jadhav, who secured second place, and Rishabh Giri, who was amazing at crowd work during his "Buleya" performance bagging the first prize.

The judges for the second day were Vrushali Chavan, Sagar Rana and Akash Gurav. Total 8 teams participated in the event. After a fierce competition among the dance troupes, the winners were finalized and were felicitated with exciting cash prizes and crazy gift hampers. We again had a tie at the runner-up position with Gyration and TPoly taking the stand and Footloose as the winner.

Smit Meghani, the Creative Head of the Aelan-E-Jung Committee quoted, "AEJ was not just a college event to me, a lot of emotion has been attached to it, and the team and people involved have become a family."

OCULUS 2021 EVENTS REPORT

1. PRE-EVENTS

● S.P.I.T. Hackathon

CSI S.P.I.T. organized the SPIT Hackathon as one of the pre-events of Oculus, the Annual Techno-Cultural Fest of S.P.I.T. However, in view of the pandemic, this year it was organized virtually. Nevertheless, the event encompassed participation from an impressive 200 teams from all across the country, out of which 65 teams were selected for the Hackathon after a tough shortlisting round. The 24hr Hackathon was held on 13th and 14th February 2021. Out of the 65 teams, 13 teams made it to the second round, where all the teams presented their solution in front of a panel of judges. After a rivalrous round of presentations, at 8:00 pm on 14th February, the winners of the Hackathon were declared. Team Kepler-452b bagged first place in the Hackathon. The top 3 winners were awarded prizes worth Rs.1,00,000 along with goodies provided by Devfolio and GiveMyCertificate and Certification Vouchers from Sybgen Inc.

● Short Circuit

The SE ETRX students of Sardar Patel Institute of Technology came up with a brilliant event idea for Oculus pre-event named Short Circuit Designathon this year, which took place on 6th and 7th March, 2021. There was massive participation by students all over India. The judging panel had on board Dr. Surendra Singh Rathod and Prof. Prashant Kasambe. The prizes for the competition were worth Rs.10,000, the duo of Mr Manas Pange and Mr Aksharan Ganeshan bagged the first position. Mr Prabhat Kumar and Mr Varun Kamath were awarded the second position and Mr Aditya Kulkarni the third prize. The first and the second prize winners got an incredible internship opportunity offered by Infigon, which is one of the emerging companies in the counselling industry.

2. TECHNICAL EVENTS

● Codatron (Oculus Coding League)

Codatron presented by the Oculus Coding League was a traditional coding contest for the First years to pave a way for them to get a headstart in the world of competitive programming. A virtual bootcamp for the FEs was organized on 27-28th of February preceded Codatron, wherein they could build a strong foundation in competitive programming under the mentorship of their experienced seniors. Codatron, held virtually on 13-14th of March, was where the participants could apply what they had learned in the OCL Bootcamp. This helped them truly test their knowledge. The prizes of the competition were worth Rs. 12,000, winners of Codatron were Shrenik Jadhav followed by Jai Patel, 1st Runner-up and Sidhhant Dutta, 2nd Runner-up. The event was a huge success as it was both educational and a fun event.

● Codatron ++ (Oculus Coding League)

Codatron++ was also organised on Hackerrank which had only one round instead of two. With seemingly deadly and mind-boggling coding puzzles it was ensured that only the best coder would win! The competition, the grit and the sheer passion with which the participants played was a joy to the spectator. After an intense battle, the master brains who walked away with the gold were Gokul Raj, Arjan Bal and Pritish Nayak. The prizes of the competition were worth Rs. 22,000. A special category called 'Top 3 SPIT Coders' was also announced with Sahil Marwaha, Adwait Hegde and Ayush Sah as the sequenced prize winners.

● Virtual Stock Market

The main event was held on 13th and 14th of march on the Official VSM app. The storyline was intriguing and kept the investors hitched to their seats as they watched markets rise and fall in a spectacular fashion. The winners of the first day were Hrishikesh Lokhande, Kamal Raisinghani and Priya Agarwal at first, second and third place and the second day winners were Pulin Prabhu, Khush Jain and Kunal Mandvakar in sequence. There were massive cash prizes overall totaling 45k INR which helped increase the buzz and intrigue, keeping everyone trying their best to get their hands on the win.

3. FUN EVENTS

• IPL Auction

An event where superstar cricketers go under the hammer and richest bidders in the country fight for collecting them under their franchise in an enthralling race with other bidders!

Here, players are bought and sold for money to the competitors who pay for them. The event was planned along the same lines in an online mode. It was designed as a combination of three major websites: Google meet, Airmeeet and the main app where the players, teams and other technical stuff were displayed.

Winners were announced some days apart. The prizes of the event were worth Rs.15,000. Harish M bagged the first prize with 1010 points, Chaitanya Vijayvargia and team were runners up with 1008 points and Shubh Shah and team were declared the third wheel with 1004 points. Slot Winners were Shantanu Milkhe, Vinaya Gouda, Soorya B, Yash Jathar, Swarup Khode and Durgeshwar Mahto.

• Oculus ESports

The event included games like Valorant and Counter Strike Global Offensive . A terrific participation from various colleges was witnessed for both game events as the teams battled it out on intense maps to clinch victory. The games followed a 5v5 knockout format with the qualifiers and semi finals being held on the 13th of march followed by the grand finale on 14th.

Valorant was live streamed on youtube along with an exciting live commentary. The winners were offered a cash prize of three thousand and five gaming earphones. The runners up kept a cash prize of two thousand and the MVP's bagged a gaming console. All in all, prizes worth Rs 18,000 were distributed.

The Valorant winners and runners up were team Orgless 5 and VoltFraction Enforcers respectively. Team UNDISPUTED won the CS GO event followed by team ZF in runners up.

• Raiders of Virtual Treasure

As the name suggests, the event indulged the participants in a mind-boggling adventure, wherein they were stuck in a virtual world, divided into several realms named after characters from Game Of Thrones, Assassin's Creed, and so on, to spice it all up. Initially, all participants were given a website to start from and were expected to decode the hint for each level and move on to the next website, in order to find their way out of the confined zone, and finally to the treasure! The first one to reach out to the other side of the world was the winner Vignesh Gupta, having received prizes worth 10k bucks. Despite the constraint of the existence of the virtual component and more than 50 participants having taken part, the organisers made sure of the smooth functioning of the event, providing them with a helpdesk on each website along with a few lifelines.

4. CULTURAL EVENTS

• Sargam- Jung Suroon Ki

Sargam- Jung Suroon Ki, like many other events of Oculus, was conducted online due to COVID-19 restrictions. The competition was held in two rounds. In the first round, the participants were required to submit a pre-recorded video. Out of an approximate hundred participants, only fifteen made it to the final round which was held offline at a recording studio the amazing events that were about to follow. Over 500 people tuned in to watch this as it was a Kick-off of Oculus 2021. All throughout the event, the lovely online viewers made sure to cheer the participants and bring the energy levels up through their comments!

5. PRONITES

• War of Branches

The Oculus team presented with yet another memorable event, THE WAR OF BRANCHES, which was conducted on the 13th March 2021. The event was hosted by Sakshi Pandit and judged by a talented set of jury consisting of Angella Rebello and Roochie Barate. Even though the event was conducted virtually, the entire team of organizers was successful in keeping the audience engaged the whole time. There were 6 categories- fine art, photography, acting, singing, dance, and rap roasting.

The fine art and photography competition was held a week before the actual event. The vibrant drawings and creative photographs of the participants were posted on the Instagram handle, the war had begun from then onwards. Then came the main event that people eagerly waited for. The event was live-streamed on YouTube. IT won the war of branches and by this, the event came to an end leaving us with a very remarkable day.

• StandUp Comedy-Nite

For the first time, a college in India could pull off a hybrid Stand-up event with not just one but two well-known comedians. As opposed to EDM nights and Concerts held every year as pro nites, this time, the team of Oculus brilliantly managed to arrange a Stand-up event offline as well as online on Airmeeet. Arrangements were made to accommodate nearly 100 people on campus whereas viewers in the online live stream crossed 350. First up on stage, we had East India Comedy's prolific pun master, Azeem Banatwalla, creating colloquial transitions between everything from politics to The Lion

King, keeping the crowd as intrigued as always. The second comedian for the night was Kumar Varun, one of the funniest personalities in India. KV engaged the audience through his journey of transforming from an engineer to a stand-up comic, alongside constant crowd interaction with the students. The event ended on a high note with a small song guessing from its hook-step with the help of very sporting volunteers which added to the fun and excitement of the night.

A special thanks to SPark for reporting all the events of Oculus 2021

A REPORT ON FY B.TECH INDUCTION PROGRAMME : ACADEMIC YEAR 2019-20

As part of the AICTE guideline to conduct a formal induction for the fresh engineering undergraduates, the Applied Sciences and Humanities Department conducted a series of induction sessions for the new batch of students of FY BTech, AY 2019-20 from 6th– 19th August, 2019.

Summary: The aim of the induction programme was to make the newly joined students comfortable, allow them to explore their academic interests and activities, reduce competition and make them work towards excellence, promote bonding within them, build relations between teachers and students, give a broader view of life, and build character. The induction programme was spread over three weeks and included various informative and activity based sessions. It included activities ranging from ice breaking sessions, general counselling and motivational talks to calculator workshops, literary sessions and campus tour. An effort was made to integrate the induction sessions with regular academics to enable the students to gradually ease into the rigours of academics. As a new initiative, corporate trainers were engaged to conduct few sessions to convey valuable lessons effectively.

The details of each session are outlined below :

1. Orientation : The orientation programme for FY BTech students was held on 6th August in the newly renovated seminar hall and was well attended by students and parents. The students were addressed by the Principal in charge, Prof Y. S. Rao who highlighted the importance of basic science courses like Physics, Chemistry that are taught in the first year to the engineering students.

The students were also exposed to Maths, the rapidly changing face of the engineering profession with advancements in technology and were encouraged to keep up with the quick shifts in industry preferences.

2. The Ice breaker session: Immediately after the orientation, the students had an ice breaker session in two groups of about 60-70 students each. The session was conducted by Mr. Sanket Potdar, an internationally certified and one of the most sought after corporate trainers and Art of Living expert. Mr Sanket Potdar specializes in conducting induction programmes as well as stress management workshops. The aim of the session was to get the students to mingle and interact with each other, break inhibitions and develop a questioning mentality rather than blindly accepting whatever they are told.

It was a highly interactive and fun filled session which imparted important lessons for the next four years.

He also introduced the students to the Yes + programme of the Art of Living Foundation and conducted simple lessons in breathing techniques for stress management.

3. Session with Dean, Academics: The students in each individual branch were addressed by Prof. Dr. Surendra Rathod and were introduced to the four year academic scheme. They were also familiarised with the various courses like SCOPE, life skill courses and elective options available to them in the institute and activities under SEWA. They were also informed about the mandatory attendance requirements, examination and promotion rules, assessment and grading pattern.

4. Session with Dean, Student Affairs and student council: Each branch of students were addressed by Prof. Dr. Rita Das and introduced to the Code of Conduct and discipline, anti ragging regulatory measures, attendance criteria, mentor-mentee programme and counselling services. They were introduced to the Students Council members and members of IEEE committee and their departmental committee. They were also apprised about the Grievance Redressal Committee and Internal Complaints Committee. They were shown videos of the previous year's student festival and other activities conducted by the student council.

5. Session with counsellor: The counsellor Mrs Mona Upadhyay imparted valuable advice on issues like exam stress, peer pressure etc. and welcomed the students to seek her assistance and support when required. It was an activity based session for better interaction amongst the students.
6. Calculator workshop: This workshop had received a lot of positive feedback from the inductees in the previous year and was well conducted by the students of the higher semesters. It introduced the freshers to various functions and operations available in scientific calculators encouraging them to utilise the versatility of scientific calculators to the fullest. As it was conducted by students council, the freshers were able to connect very well.
7. Session on Universal Human Values: This session has been made mandatory by AICTE to be a part of the induction program in order to encourage the students to search for happiness within themselves rather than seeking it from their achievements and material possessions. Relevant videos / movies were shown to students which highlighted the right attitude, interpersonal relations, respect for others regardless of age / stature, respect for nature and natural resources, handling the burden of expectations, etc.

8. Diagnostic Test: The AICTE has also mandated proficiency sessions in language and in this context, a diagnostic test in English language was conducted based on multiple choice questions as well as a passage to test comprehension. Students who need improvement were identified based on their score.

9. Proficiency sessions: Three English language proficiency sessions spread over six hours were conducted for selected students who were identified based on their score in the above diagnostic test. Some students whose names were not on the list, also attended the sessions, out of self-interest for betterment. During these sessions, basic language and grammar topics were covered to create a strong base for the students.
10. Literary session: A literary session for students of each individual branch was conducted by the faculty of Communication Skills. The purpose of the session was to open students' minds to learning from all kinds of sources, including literature. The students had to read short stories and poetry from Hindi and other regional literature, and deliver a group presentation on the values learned from them. Some students even spoke about the application of the said values in the engineering profession and in their student life.
11. Motivational Session: A motivational session was conducted for all the students in two groups of about 90 students each. This session was conducted by Mr Manish Gupta who is a corporate trainer with over 19 years of experience for business transformation. Being a mechanical engineer from a small town like Rohtak, Mr Gupta could empathise with the students on various issues like language barriers, limitations imposed by so called potential and so on. He shared his experiences as a budding engineer with limited knowledge of English and could connect very well with the students to impart many valuable lessons especially since he has published two books on learning English language despite being a late starter. One of the key messages he passed on was :

"AIM TO TEACH THE SUBJECT IN WHICH YOU ARE WEAK"

He focussed on important habits and the importance of shifting from fixed mindset to a growth mindset in order to be able to adapt to the needs of an ever-changing world

A highlight of the session was a pledge made by the students that they would never be restricted by the term "potential" (often decided by others) and would set impossible audacious goals and then walk on the path to achieve those goals.

Oculus 2020 Report

Oculus is S.P.I.T.'s most awaited and flagship festival that all the students are excited for, every year. Oculus is an amalgamation of our Technical Fest, Matrix, and Cultural Fest, Udaan, and gave rise to a rather unique concept of a Techno-Cultural Fest. This was the second year since Oculus, as a fest, came into existence, and like last year, it saw some extraordinary events and breath-taking performances, in the three-day extravaganza from the 7th of February to the 9th.

Oculus 2020, although a three-day festival, was alive since the beginning of the academic year, raising anticipation among the students about what was to come! First year students, who were unfamiliar with the college's year-long events, were first introduced to Oculus 2020, in an induction session, organised by the college's student council. The core team of Oculus had diversity in terms of branches as well as years, and ensured that each department and each batch is involved in organising. As quite a few members of the team were first years, they had an early advantage of understanding the logistics behind a large-scale event, as envisioned by our Chairperson, Manav Sanghavi. Similar was the case for the second-year students, who would then be experienced enough to take up the responsibility of the fest, in the following year, and continue its legacy.

The first launch of Oculus, to all the students at S.P.I.T., happened at the Freshers Eve on the 9th of October. Amidst the turmoil due to the unexpected downpour that evening, the students managed to draw the crowd from the quadrangle, to the entrance, where the team performed a jaw-dropping Flash Mob, for the students. Soon after, the first and the flagship event of Oculus, that is Tech Race 2k19, took place on the 13th of October, 2019, where about 150-200 teams participated in the city-wide scavenger hunt. The start of the event was marked by a collaboration between the S.P.I.T. students and S.P.C.E.'s Racing Team, with a display of their newly-built racing machine speeding down the stretch right in front of the S.P.I.T. entrance!

The student response was excellent and could be gauged from the questions and interaction which continued even after the session had ended

Nearly 50% of the students could not attend the ice breaker session as they joined much later. Hence another motivational and inspiring session was held for these students with Ms Anjana Vinod.

12. Motivational session: Ms Anjana Vinod is a highly accomplished corporate trainer with more than 25 years of experience. She conducted two sessions for the students in groups of 60-70 each. It was an interactive activity-based session where students learnt to work as a team, leadership skills and also the importance of every seemingly irrelevant lesson to their overall growth and success.

These messages were conveyed to the students with the help of short stories and hence were highly effective in shaping their thoughts and attitude for the future. The students found it extremely rewarding and were vocal in their praise.

13. Session with the librarian: The librarian introduced the students of each individual branch to the vast database of information available in the SPIT library in the form of books, journals, newsletters and websites. The librarian also informed the students about the book bank facility available and the rules and regulations to be followed
14. Campus visit: The three week induction program culminated with a tour of the campus for the students accompanied by faculty members. The students were taken around the premises and shown their laboratories, library, gymkhana, placement office, examination section, canteen, SP Jain mess and also the green surroundings of the campus to ensure they are familiar with the location of various facilities.

Feedback from students

At the end of the induction programme, the students were requested to complete an online feedback form, where they were told to rate each individual session and the overall induction program on a scale of 1-5 (1 being lowest and 5 being highest). Suggestions for improvement were also invited and the students were specifically asked to provide inputs / suggestions, if any, for a second round of induction to be held at the beginning of the second semester in January, 2020.

This year, Oculus was closely associated with Red Bull, as they performed various events in the college throughout the year. One of them being the second event of Oculus, the Red Bull BC One Activation, on 30th October, 2019, where three street dancing artists took the floor and dazzled the crowd with their performances. As a tribute to dance and the Hip-hop culture, our in-house dance crew, High On Dance also brought in an amazing performance for the audience, which was led by Siddesh Sonawane, the Cultural Secretary of our college and the chief executive of the Cultural club, MUDRA.

Oculus, is known not only for its events but also by its aim to contribute to the society. Hence, the Oculus for A Cause initiative was led in collaboration with the Cancer Patients Aid Association, which is one of the oldest cancer-dedicated NGOs in India. With their support and help, we organised S.P.I.T.'s Annual Donation Drive from 4th November to 7th November. Students showed extreme willingness towards contributing and doing their share, as about 200 people donated clothes, books, toys, and even packed food items, which summed up to a total of around 3000 items donated to the NGO.

After these events, S.P.I.T. and colleges from all around the city, were pumped up for the actual fest to start. Oculus had a variety of pre-events, starting with the SPIT Model United Nations that took place on the 25th and 26th of January, 2020, with participants coming from all across the state. The various bodies represented in this year's event, provided a sure platform for the MUNners to showcase their skills. Oculus 2020, although scheduled from the 7th to 9th February, had a smorgasbord of events live from the 1st of the month itself, making it somewhat like an Oculus week! On the 1st and 2nd of February, two of Oculus' most popular events were conducted simultaneously. The first being Oculus Cube Open, in collaboration with Cubenama and the World Cubing Association. With about 400 participants of all ages, participating in about 11 categories of cubing events, the college was filled with participants and their parents, who were also touched by the hospitality and arrangements for food and beverages along with the gaming corner, in the lounge. The second was the S.P.I.T. Hackathon, organised by the Computer Society of India (CSI), S.P.I.T. track.

With students coming from as far as Punjab, there were more than 1000 applicants for the event, short-listed to about 200 participants in teams of 1 to 4, for the actual hackathon.

Participants were determined to triumph in the event, but there could only be one winning team, which bagged a whopping amount of ₹ 1 lakh! On the 3rd of February, was the IEEE-SPIT Conclave, which was a Tech-talk organised in collaboration between IEEE-SPIT and Oculus, for about 70-80 attendants. The speakers were renowned professionals from companies like Voltas, who spoke about how to apply engineering to our lives, and how to correctly identify the best-suited stream for oneself. The speakers were felicitated by our Vice-Principal, Dr. Y. S. Rao.

The 5th of February had one of the most awaited events of the year, the Open-Mic Night, organised by our college's official editorial, SPark. The event was organised at the picturesque lake-side amphitheatre with shimmering fairy lights, and needless to say, such scenic view calls out to all the poets and singers who serenaded the audience with their performances. The event on the 6th of February was quite a surprise for everyone, and not anticipated by anyone, up until the 5th, when we officially promoted the event. We had our very own Bollywood superstars, Ayushmann Khurana and Jitendra Kumar, who had come down to S.P.I.T., to promote their upcoming movie "Shubh Mangal Zyaada Saavdhan", and also performed for our beloved audience, who was getting hysterical, on their arrival. With performances by the dancers and singers from our college and the trailer launch of MUDRA's web-series, the event ended on a great note when Ayushmann ended the show with his most popular song "Paani Da", which made the audience swoon with love and admiration for the artist.

Then followed the official three days of Oculus 2020. There were about 15+events held simultaneously across the 3-day spectrum. Being a Techno-Cultural festival, attention was given towards both technical as well as cultural events throughout. Events like Codatron and Capture The Flag, under the umbrella, Oculus Coding League, thrived marvellously and managed to gather participants not only from the first year students, but also the second and third year students. This was accompanied by events like Virtual Stock Market and IPL Auction, which was a calling to all the stock market and cricket enthusiasts to earn astounding prizes whilst playing these games.

(Autonomous Institute, Affiliated to University of Mumbai)

Furthermore, inter-college

events like Sargam

(singing competition),

Aelan-E-Jung (dance competition) and Carnival

(fashion show), brought in teams from colleges all across Mumbai, and displayed a great performance for the audience. In addition to that, other fun events like Beat It Out, Footpool, LAN gaming, and so on, also gathered a considerable amount of audience, especially Paintball, which was a new event organised in our college, and had full slots for almost the entirety of the two days.

Lastly, there were the pronites, the cream of all the events. This year the pronites were rather unusual since they were held on 7th February (Friday) and 8th February (Saturday), as opposed to the usual weekend pattern. However, this did not affect the amount of people who turned up for them. On the 7th of February, there was a Sunburn Activation night, which brought in the artists by the name TNO, to our campus, and gave us a DJ night worth remembering for days. The next day, 8th of February, was the most hyped event of all, the Red Bull Spotlight.

A rapping competition organised by Red Bull. One may wonder what was the hype all about, but the real deal were the judges who were the very popular artists from Gully Gang - D'Evil, Shah Rule and Proof, who had come down as judges for the competition. The night ended with a flamboyant showcase by the three artists, who won the hearts of their audience through their famous raps. Lastly on the 9th of February, as Oculus came to an end, we reached its culmination with the college's most awaited dance battle, War of Branches, performed by all the branches of the college at the lake-view amphitheatre. The students cheered for their branches and dissed the others with utmost excitement! The night ended with the Computer department, ultimately taking the win, and thus marking the end of the six-month long Oculus season!

Great things come to an end, and so was the case for Oculus as well. With the never-ending support from the college, especially the faculty and the student council, along with mutually beneficial collaborations with committees, within and beyond our college, the fest could retain the firm foundation and could build further on it. In addition, a hard-working and enthusiastic team, and constant support and guidance from the last year's team, especially the Chairperson of Oculus 2019, Anukrit Jain, made this year's Oculus 2020, soar to greater heights, and helped set a high standard for the forthcoming events in our college.

Oculus- Annual Techno Cultural Festival

The Annual College Festival of Sardar Patel Institute of Technology, was held on the 18th, 19th and 20th of January 2019. This year the Student Council decided to amalgamate the very important aspects of what S.P.I.T. believes in, Culture, fun and Technology. This year the annual College festival was coined "Oculus", the perfect blend of technology fun and culture. The three days long Techno-Cultural event was all set to take things to a greater level this year.

The Techno-Cultural festival Started its journey with an inauguration function that took place at SPIT entrance right after the classes. All Students, Faculty and staff members gathered near the college entrance. The Event began on a high note in the form of 'Flash mob' by team Oculus, the precursor for the three days journey to come. Our Principal, Dr. Prachi Gharpure inaugurated the first edition of Oculus and joined the team for a small dance and shared her thoughts and expectation from the team. Encouraging the team members, Chairperson, Anukrit Jain took over the mike and shared his vision and joy that was threaded in reality by all of his team member. Sound of drones flying over and students cheering the inauguration was just highlight for what was stored in coming days.

Inauguration was followed by Oculus's very first Cultural event "SARGAM". As the name suggests, Sargam was an intercollege singing competition at Oculus 2019, where the very best singers from all over Mumbai gathered to showcase their talent. There were two categories namely solo and duet. The top 12 solo and top 5 duet contestants cleared the auditions to go through to the finals. The event took place in the Quadrangle which was filled to the brim with excited students eager to glimpse what Oculus had in store for them, Sargam being the opening event. After much deliberation, the judges Rae Valentine and Bharatt-Saurabh awarded the first prize in solo to Rishabh Giri from Bhavans College whose powerful performance of 'Bulleya' had the audience singing along.

While Kaustubh Patil and Parth Ghaisas from Sathaye college bagged the first position in the duet category by singing an enthralling version of 'Khwaja Mere Khwaja' which touched everyone's hearts.

On the 18th of January at 7:30pm, SPIT stood witness to one of the most awaited dance competitions of the year- the war of branches. With Azain Jaffer and Siddhesh Pai compering, the event started off. A bustling crowd gathered in the quadrangle, eagerly waiting for their branches to put their best foot forward. One branch after the other went with their spectacular performances. There was nothing to stop them, starting with the formation was MCA with the theme of love and emotions, followed by an enthralling performance put up by the students of the EXTC branch showing the best of memes going around, next on stage were students from IT performing with great energy and engaging the crowd right till the end. This was succeeded by ETRX performing the crowd favorite Bollywood theme. The final act was of the COMPS branch who kept the entertainment going for everyone, thus concluding an incredible set of performances.

Judging these zealous performances were Harshita Taparia, a skillful dancer, who won the Mumbai University trophy for folk dancing and Chinmay Khedekar, a contemporary dancer. With their expertise, they contemplated and conclusively decided that from all the fantastic performances, IT was the winner. The quadrangle was resounding with celebration, as the students danced the night away in the subsequent DJ night.

On second and third day of the Annual Techno-Cultural Festival SPIT Campus saw the most amazing and spectacular Events put up for all participants. With bright, colourful decor the campus was shining and attracting all the crowd to participate who step the foot in the campus. The two days witnessed the various Technical, Fun and Cultural Events.

Technical Events

Project Exhibition:

To foster innovations which hold the potential of revolution, Oculus hosted the national level 'Project Exhibition', organized by IETE and FETS. Around 90 participants from different colleges delineated and demonstrated their projects and prototypes ranging from IoT to AI. The event witnessed the line-up of models solving daily life problems, saving drudgery, and way up to the products for sustainable development.

The projects were judged by the panel of Dr. Surendra Singh Rathod (Dean Academics, SPIT), Mr. Bhavin Kamdar (Co-Founder of Embedos Engineering) and Prof Vijaya Kamble (EXTC Dept, SPIT). The team of Aakash Salunke, Ashley Samkutty and Trilok Sawant (St Francis Institute of Technology) grabbed the first prize for their 'Project Blue', a solar air-water purifier.

The team was one of the most experienced participants, with 11 patents on their name. 'Temperature controller using PLC and SCADA' by Ajay Upadhyay and team (SPIT), and 'Smart Irrigation System' by Nirmal Attarde and team (Government Polytechnic, Mumbai) were awarded 1st and 2nd Runner-ups respectively. 'Waterless portable toilet' by Pratik Bhagat (NICMAR, Nasik) which was also demonstrated in Kumbh Mela won a special mention. In short, the Project Exhibition precisely showed how engineers turn tech, problems, and ideas into innovations.

Codatron – Cook up Code !

Problem-solving is a crucial skill that can only be imbibed through practice and Codatron was just the quintessential platform for the same. Put together by a very talented team of 8 SEs, together called 'The Eight Bits' this event consisted of 83 participants from all branches; it was an event for all. The participants were from colleges like VJTI, DJ, RJIT, etc along with our college. The first round comprised of 5 challenges with a 3-hour time limit with questions of varying levels of difficulty. This was only for the experienced seniors i.e. the SEs, TEs, and BEs. After three hours of intense coding, Abdullah Aslam from LR Tiwari COE bagged the 1st prize while Vivek Chauhan and Rishik Jog from VJTI stood second and third respectively.

VSM (Virtual Stock Market)

The mega event which attracted a total of 392 participants over two days of the fest and the themes and the storyline was a huge hit among the "investors". The event, designed to emulate a stock exchange system continued its tradition to teach the functioning of the stock market in an innovative way. A team of 9 second-year students continuously strived to make the event a smooth experience. The stocks were transacted within a limited time per round using an app developed by the team themselves.

The theme consisted of a timeline based story where the stocks were derived from fictional companies/entities following Oculus' theme, GenZ. The jackpot on day 1 went to Sarika and Rohit from FE Comps who stood first, Ebrahim and Jainam, FE Comps, 2nd place and Yash & Deep who stood 3rd. A whopping 12.5k cash was awarded to the team who stood first. The 2nd and 3rd place teams got 7.5k and 5k cash respectively. Winners earned a total of 50k cash on both days along with vouchers worth 75k.

Scandhi →

The organizers at the end of the fest rejoiced at the resonating success of the event.

On the second day, Darshan Biyani, SE ETRX won the first prize while Ishwar and Parth from SE Comps stood 2nd. Hrishikesh and Rajat stood at the 3rd place.

Game of Codes : CSI SPIT Hackathon (Pre Event)

Following tradition, CSI SPIT organized the annual SPIT Hackathon as a pre event to the techno-cultural fest of SPIT- Oculus 2019. 35 teams from over 13 cities across the country participated in the event. It was one of the biggest student body organized events SPIT has witnessed. The inauguration ceremony was graced by Priyanka Allen of Larsen and Turbo Infotech and SPIT's very own Dr. Prachi Gharpure.

Blockchain, an upcoming technology, served as the basis for the problem statements for the hackathon. Blockchain technology is a database where data is shared across a network of computers and is secured using cryptography which can consequently only be changed by authorized people. Xin-fin, the sponsor for the hackathon, also held a workshop on block chain a week before the event. Coding began with immense enthusiasm at 11 am on the 5th of January and maintained its vigor for the next 24 hours. The participants were provided with mentors for any guidance they needed throughout the course of the hackathon.

The final judging round was followed by a short oration by Mr. Ritesh Kakkad, the co-founder of Xinfin. He unveiled the potential of Blockchain technology and announced the top 10 teams. These teams then gave a final pitch to secure a place in the top three. Tathagat Thapiyal, Ansh Gujral and Tanmay Bhatnagar from Thapar Institute of Engineering and Technology, Patiala stood first with cash prizes worth 60,000. Finishing second were Riken Gala, Aadit Kachalia, Rohan Kalantri and Apurva Dani from Dwarkadas J. Sanghvi College of Engineering, Mumbai. The third place was bagged by Kyle Lobo, Calden Rodrigues, Pratz Nerurkar and John Anand Abraham from Don Bosco Institute of Technology, Mumbai.

Adding to the success of the event, Amarinder Singh, the Chief Minister of Punjab, took to twitter and congratulated the winners of the Hackathon. The CSI committee was extremely pleased with the response, and also hopes to host such events in the future.

CARNIVAL

The first image that forms in the mind when one hears Carnival is a parade of people dressed in larger-than-life costumes promenading along the streets filled with cheering people. The Carnival at Oculus 2019, though a fashion show, was nevertheless a window to the street-celebrations. Seven teams from colleges across Mumbai competed in a bid to win the title of Les Fashionistas Ultime. The themes ranged from societal topics like 'Gender Equality', 'Royal Indian Heritage', and 'Dark Side of the Soul' to the more abstract topics 'Black & White' and 'Dreams'.

The crowd cheered as the participants walked down the runway, stopping with sensational poses. What garb would normally seem absurd in public melded perfectly with the drama of the show. Despite rich themes and unfaltering performances, there was room only for the best at the top. VIT bagged the first position, an astonishing cash prize of ₹20,000, with its theme, 'Throne of Birds'. While the theme, 'The LGBTQ Community' showcased by Tolani College received the second prize as well as the Best Theme award.

STREET DANCE

What do you get when you call seven dance crews around the city and pit them against each other in a no-rules, open-ground, battle-to-win competition? You get breathtaking performances, awestruck audiences, and a spectacular show reminiscent of a Step Up movie. The first round was a group performance, where each crew performed to the beats of the music and the claps of the crowd. This was followed by a face-off, where the teams were pit head-on against each other. The atmosphere grew tense as each performance bested the other. Two teams headed for the Finale, which was again a face-off. After jaw-dropping performances by both the teams and an ensuing suspense-filled period, the judges (The Tuttix Dance Crew) declared the 'Fauji Crew' as the winners, while the 'Khadihood' were the runners-up.

AELAN-E-JUNG

One of the most anticipated events of Oculus, Aelaan-E-Jung certainly met all the expectations. Nine teams from colleges all over Mumbai came to SPIT on Sunday afternoon to show their best moves on the stage of this dance competition which took place at the Quadrangle. Each team came up with graceful performances which left the audience spellbound. The crowd hooted as the dancers showcased different styles of dancing, leaving people awestruck. Pooja Nayak, who was an instructor with renowned choreographer Shiamak Davar was called to judge Aelaan-E-Jung. All the teams put up a tough fight and picking the best was quite a task. But at the end, the team from V.E.S.I.T. emerged victorious.

Fun Events

With all the flagship events dominating Oculus, it was time to lighten things up with a mash-up of these fun events. We hope you got to enjoy them as much as we did !

Human Foosball :

Ever since we saw Joey and Chandler place bets over foosball in F.R.I.E.N.D.S we have been dying to play the game. Human Foosball satisfied this craving of every fan or otherwise with a unique twist: you now played the role of a foosman inside a giant foos table.

Teams consisting of 5 members went leg-to-leg against each other to score the most goals. A roar of cheers could be heard when the YouTube teams the TimeLiners competed against FilterCopy. To keep the waiting teams engaged two side events: back-heel and AIM were kept which also drew sizeable crowds.

FUN FIESTA:

Fun fiesta was a mixed bag of mini-games where you were guaranteed to find one matching your niche.

For the selfie kings and queens, there was Pico-O-Mania, which asked the participants to roam around the campus and click photos with the places in the given clues.

For the die-hard fans, there was Fandom Quiz, where Game of Thrones, Friends, football, Sacred Games and Harry Potter fans could battle for the ultimate prize. The face-off round which required zapping quick answers got the participants on fire!

For the sports people, there was Dizzy Football, where the participants spun around the ball 10 times and then hit the goal. Better said than done!

Blindfold Pictionary tested the guessing & drawing skills of the participants, but with eyes closed!

HOGATHON:

Hogathon, one of the most anticipated events of Oculus was back, with enthusiastic participants from different colleges ready to gorge on food and to take home the title of "the greatest foodie of all".

For the first round, Domino's pizza was on the menu, as students discovered new ways of fitting an entire slice in their mouths to beat the clock. The second round was a hysterical sight to see, for the contenders tried to wolf down a pastry and noodles, but with a catch: no hands allowed. The final round was every street food fanatic's dream: all you can eat Pav Bhaji.

With people cheering on from the sidelines, the finalists tried to do their best to down as many pavs as they could. Dhyneshwar from FE IT emerged the winner by consuming a whopping 24 pavs to beat them all.

ZORBING:

The latest addition to the extravaganza of events was the exciting game of Zorbing, which aimed for the entrants to let loose and just have fun. A good break from the heavily competitive events, Zorbing was a game of wrestling, while being inside a zorbing orb, with the goal to be the last man standing, literally.

Students clashed with their friends to win bragging rights, with an added bonus of watching their friends topple and roll over in the giant balls. Vrinda Bhatu from SE IT and Omkar Varudkar from FE ETRX bagged the first place in the girls and boys category respectively.

IPL AUCTION:

One of the flagship fun events of the fest was the IPL Auction, an interactive game where players in teams of four, were given the chance to put their knowledge of cricket in a battle to win attractive prizes. It was held on 19th and 20th of January in various slots in the Seminar Hall of the institute, with the grand finale being reserved for the final day. Participants had to install an application on their smartphones which allowed them to take control of the bidding war and put together the team of their dreams in their pursuit of winning the famed IPL Trophy. Each player had a predetermined number of credits assigned to them and the team having the most credits, in the end, was deemed to be the champion. Prizes worth Rs.15000 were given out to various winners. After hours of bidding, Deepak Yadav, Pravesh Ganwani, Ayush Gosar, and Luv Gupta emerged as the champions.

LAN GAMING:

While the IPL Auction was taking place, the room next to it was hosting one of the most positively reviewed events, LAN Gaming. The lights were dimmed and RGB colors were allowed to flash all over the room truly encompassing the spirit of competitive gaming. Participants had to compete in some of the most popular games right now, namely FIFA 19, Counter-Strike 1.6 and PUBG.

There were attractive prizes kept ready for all the gamers who emerged victorious after hours of strenuous gaming filled with emotion and excitement. The experience was truly one to be remembered and the gamers were eager to be a part of the event next year as well

Oculus Cube Open

Such is the case with the Rubik's Cube. With over 43 quintillion permutations, it took even Ernő Rubik, the inventor, 30 days to come up with a solution for the regular 3×3 cube. With a goal to bring together cubers throughout the community, Oculus hosted Oculus Cube Open, organized by Cubenama.

The event saw 157 people from various colleges throughout the city gather at one place to Speedcube. The event included several categories like $2 \times 2 \times 2$ to $7 \times 7 \times 7$ cubes along with Pyraminx and Skewb. The other categories included solving the $3 \times 3 \times 3$ cube with feet or with only one hand.

Each category consisted of around 1 or 2 rounds followed by the semi-finals and the finals where the players were required to solve the cube 5 times in each round. The players with the best average time advanced to the next rounds and competed for the first place.

Records and Winners

The event also witnessed some continental and national records being set among various categories. In the $2 \times 2 \times 2$ category, the most noteworthy records were created by Advay Sant who set a continental record with an average solve time of 1.31 seconds while Nikhil Soares set a national record with a best of 0.66 seconds. Mohammed Aiman Koli and Aniket Das both achieved national records in $3 \times 3 \times 3$ with feet and Pyraminx category respectively.

The first place in the $3 \times 3 \times 3$ category was bagged by Nikhil Soares while Aamir Saiffee won in the $4 \times 4 \times 4$ category. Aman Bhutani came first in both the $5 \times 5 \times 5$ and $6 \times 6 \times 6$ categories while Aarav Gandhi won the $7 \times 7 \times 7$ competition. Bhargav Narasimhan and Aniket Das won the $3 \times 3 \times 3$ with one hand and Skewb categories respectively.

Human Library -

Everyday we come across people from various walks of life. At times some of these people leave a massive impression on us. The Human Library event was quintessentially tailor-made for that. The 'books' at the human library were people from unusual walks of life with a unique story to tell. The type which we rarely meet in our day to day life. The books at the HLM shared awe-inspiring anecdotes which left the audience touched as well as intrigued. A total of five books were hosted. The subjects of the books ranged from sexuality and gender enlightenment to a rags-to-riches story. Broaching sensitive subjects, the stories were heart-rending and struck a chord with those watching. Suffice to say, there was a lot to hear and learn from, for the audience present.

Youtubers- Meet and Greet-

The two guests invited for this event were Viraj Ghelani and Ambrish Verma, from runaway hit Youtube channels, Filtercopy and Timeliners. They were called upon to meet and interact with their fans. Many of the students were massive followers of the said channels and were starstruck when they came face-to-face with the Youtubers. Rest assured they had a great time interacting with their virtual world favourites. The interaction ranged from the students expressing their pleasure over meeting the Youtubers, to knowing the secret to creating a superhit Youtube channel. The stars of the virtual world stayed true to their nature, and were cool enough to also play human foosball at the adjoining playground, thereby leaving an indelible mark in everyone's hearts with their gesture.

Liminal AR VR

As one entered the college it was impossible to miss the curious sight of people punching in the air with headgear on them. That was the place where the AR VR experience was delivered. It was a one of kind feeling to see things in the augmented and virtual reality which is usually not a daily happening for any of us. There were games and movies which the players could choose from, a rather exquisite collection to experiment with.

Literary Event – Jam

Good at winning arguments and insulting your friends? Might as well make some money out of it. With an aspiration to stimulate the oratory skills of students and provoke creative thinking, Oculus 2019 organized 'Just A Minute'

A panel of 6 participants was required to talk on a given topic for 60 seconds without repeating strong words or getting tongue-tied. The JAM master, Pranav Nambiar, challenged the participants with some out of the box topics they couldn't possibly have prepared for.

JAM this year was won by Vatsal Shah, NCP. He was followed by Yash Wagle from Jai Hind College. The third place was shared by Shaima Sheikh and Yashraj Mehra from Jai Hind College.

Signature

Under the leadership of the JAM Master Pranav Nambiar, the two day event gained a lot of participants and set the bar very high for its next edition. Needless to say, JAM provided the ideal platform for public speaking blended with witty humour, effectively contributing to the success of Oculus 2019.

S.P.I.T. MUN 2019

Great opportunities seldom come without us seeking them but such a rarity became a reality on the 12th and 13th of January this year. With the motto 'Listen. Speak. Resolve.', the sixth edition of the annual Model United Nations Conference of Sardar Patel Institute Of Technology was conducted as a pre event to the official techno-cultural fest of SPIT- Oculus 2019. Over 130 students participated from colleges across the country which is the highest number recorded since the inception of the event 6 years back.

The committees this year included the Human Rights Council (HRC), the Disarmament and International Security Committee (DISEC), the Security Council (SC) and the Lok Sabha. The United Nations Security Council under the presidency of Jemin Shah, took up the agenda of Denuclearization of DPRK post Panmunjom Declaration and peace talks in 2018. The UNHRC, led by Vatsalya Mishra and Saral Uttamani aimed at eliminating xenophobia and related intolerance. The Lok Sabha, presided over by the speaker Ishaan Joshi, discussed the DNA technology of the Regulation Bill, 2018. Finally, the DISEC, under Chairperson Apurva Singha, witnessed the youngest of debaters voice their views on the prevention and acquisition of nuclear technology and material by non state actors. The Press Corps ensured that the world knew about the proceedings of these committees.

The second day was dedicated to consolidating all the solutions suggested on day one. It was on this day that the formulation of draft resolution was undertaken. The more powerful blocs in each committee succeeded in making a draft resolution and in convincing the other delegates to vote in its favour. "This was my first MUN experience and SPIT MUN has set the bar quite high for the other MUNs to follow," said the delegate of Equatorial Guinea, UNSC.

The strenuous day two was followed by a closing ceremony where the hard work of the delegates was appreciated through various laurels. Mrs. Shweta Shalini, advisor to the Chief Minister of Maharashtra, graced the ceremony with her presence. The award for the Best Delegate was won by the delegates of DPRK (UNSC), Cameroon (UNHRC), Pakistan (DISEC) and Parliamentarian Narendra Modi (Lok Sabha). High commendation was received by the delegates of USA and RoK (UNSC), Iraq and South Africa (UNHRC), Australia (DISEC) and the parliamentarians Dr. Harshavardhan and Mrs. Sushma Swaraj.

Pronites

Bringing day two of Oculus to a perfect close, the Anthracite took on the smokey stage. The group gave tribute to one of our most beloved bands Linkin Park. The symphony of the instruments reverberated in the quadrangle as everyone cheered them on, waving with their flashlights turned on. As the sun went down the glimmering lights livened up the atmosphere students lived the moment immersing in the performance.

Shweta

To add to the excitement of end of last day was great performance by Amit Mishra and Illuminati as a part of day 3 Pronite.

A very special act, one that literally set the podium alight. Performing before the ecstatic crowd was the group Illuminati, former contestants of India's got Talent. Adorned in glowing body suits equipped with LED lights, the group put up a mesmerizing performance that had the crowd screaming for more. It couldn't be as it was now time for the most awaited performance of the night.

As the musician took on the stage a huge roar from the crowd beckoned him to sing his signature track, "Bulleya". The atmosphere at the quadrangle was electric as Mr. Mishra belted out hit after hit before the frenetic audience. The students dancing and singing into the night, Oculus 2019 finished on a powerful note, one that will resonate for years to come.

End of Day three was filled with all kinds of emotions. Core team was proud and enthralled by their members who put up such an amazing show throughout these three days. Students were mesmerised by the great event the team Oculus put up for them. The happiness and joy of success was echoing in the quadrangle which got multiplied 10 times when in the closing ceremony principal ma'am Dr. Prachi Gharpure express how proud and delighted she feels by looking at the hard work done by the entire Oculus team and Student Council.

The Student Council appreciates and recognises the efforts of the entire Oculus Core Team ably led by the Chairperson, Anukrit Jain and Vice Chairpersons Ahmed Shaikh, Vaibhav Bagri, Azain Jaffer and Anushree Kulai.

Year 2018-2019

Name of the Department / Committee: E-Cell S.P.I.T

Name of the Event: Food Challenge 2019

Date of Event: 22nd February 2019

Brief Information about the event:

"There is no sincere love than the love of food," said George Bernard Shaw, capturing the spirit of humanity. With this spirit of dining in mind, S.P.I.T.'s E-Cell organised a Food Challenge, where students of the college were given a chance to put up stalls where they had the opportunity of serving their peers fresh, enjoyable, handmade food. E-Cell proclaimed the day as a No Tiffin Day.

The event was held on the 22nd of February in the Quadrangle in two slots: afternoon and evening. When the gates were opened, students from the whole college almost flooded the Quadrangle to have their share of the delicious treats on offer. Dishes such as Chinese Wadapav, Pancakes, Manchurian Spring Rolls, Sweet Corn, Sandwiches and Pasta were on the menu which surely got everyone excited. The Event followed a coupon system wherein customers had to purchase tickets worth various denominations to buy food, something which truly highlights the bright minds of the entrepreneurs in E-Cell.

Santhi

Official statistics released by the E-Cell revealed that total sales of Rs. 36,500/- were made within four hours. Prizes were given out to the best stalls based on overall taste, presentation and profitability. 'Bandra to Bhayander' put up by FE EXTC was declared as the best stall followed by 'Back to Kitchen' by FE Electronics and 'Sugar and Spice' by SE EXTC.

Freshers' Party 2019

The newest members of the college were welcomed with a bang at the Fresher's Party organized by the Student Council in collaboration with Oculus and Mudra on 9th October 2019, manifesting youth and enthusiasm at its full flow. Jovial smiles and high spirits marked the welcome party for the students which was aptly called Fresher's 2K19. After a long, tiring day in college, the Quadrangle roared to life as the students gathered with enthusiasm and excitement, eagerly waiting to see what was in store for them.

The event was set to begin in the evening right after classes. The students gathered in the quadrangle in herds eagerly waiting for it to begin with pulsating ambiance, flashing lights and foot-tapping music, the party began with a blast. To set everyone in party mode, Mudra (College Band) took center stage and performed a couple of crowd favorites like Bohemian Rhapsody, Mehbooba Mehbooba, Bulleya , etc and the entire crowd sang along with them and clapped to the beats. Joy and happiness could be seen in students of each course at the college. They were having the time of their lives.

Sanjay

Up next were the Thespians (Drama Club- Mudra) all set on stage, bringing something which was never seen and experienced before, "This Is My Show with Arnub Goswami" bringing Republic TV to live at Sardar Patel Sabhagriha. But unfortunately, due to the sudden rains, they had to stop their performance in the middle, which was shot and posted later on Mudra's Youtube Channel. In spite of some rain, their spirits were not dampened. A sensational dance in the form of a flash-mob performance at the Entrance by the members of Oculus, Student Council and MUDRA left the crowd cheering and applauding with thrill. Their electrifying moves left the mob enthralled and pumped them up for the gala night ahead.

As soon as the rain subsided, the event continued in its full splendor. It kick-started with the Mr. and Ms. Fresher competition giving the freshers, a chance to display their talent. The esteemed panel of judges included Mr. Sagar Rana, a professional dancer and choreographer, and Mr. Rohit Salian, a renowned rapper. Fantastic performances ranging from music, dance, monologue, and standup comedy left the audience in awe and the judges muddled. Amidst the chorus of each branch's support for their respective representatives, the results were announced. Manish Jha, an MCA student, whose rap had the audience tap their feet to his beat, was crowned "Mr. Fresher" and Sayali Ayre, from the ETRX department, whose graceful dance sent the audience into a frenzy bagged the title of "Ms. Fresher".

Now, it was the time for Student Council launching its official Mascot "Phoenix" long with its fests Oculus and Spoorthi and newly formed clubs like Mudra and Coding Club. Unnati Dogra - Cultural Secretary, launched the Plastic Ban, Fit India Movement, and Plantation Drive. Oculus had their merchandise give-away on the basis of a social media competition on Best Pick-Up line. The bar was raised, the vibe was set and everyone was hyped up to see what's next.

And it was time for the royal rumble of SPIT, the Interbranch Dance the most awaited event of the night. The IT dance troupe set the stage on fire with their dance moves. The MCA department had a blend of salsa with freestyle leaving the audience spellbound. The EXTC dance troupe raised the heat of the competition by their energetic dance moves. The ETRX department charmed the audience with their lively moves. The dance group from the Computer department left the audience in splits and entertained them through the humor incorporated in their performance. And finally, after a neck-to-neck round of amazing performances, the Computers department took home the Fresher's Cup. The feeling of smashing victory was visible as the students of the Computer branch ran to the stage and danced triumphantly. Siddesh Sonawane and Apoorva Chaudhari from TE COMPS won the Best Choreographers for the splendid performance by Comps branch.

Siddesh

In the concluding moments of the night, the audience swayed to the music by the DJ and the happiness that reflected from them definitely left everyone pleased. This night indeed made loads of memories and bonds that shall be treasured for long.

To Quote our General Secretary, Muskan Sahu – "Freshers' is one of the biggest events of the Student Council which not only the FE's but the whole college looks forward to. This is the place where we have exceptional talent along with emotions, laughter and a lot of happiness, everything under one roof".

Garba Night 2019

The Indian festive season is in full swing and the festival of Navratri invariably brings with it a lot of joy and celebration among various ethnic groups. Navratri is a nine-day festival celebrating the victory of good over evil when families and societies all over the country welcome Goddess Durga to their humble abodes, praying for the well-being of one and all. Today, Navratri as a festival is not restricted to certain parts of the country as it is celebrated by devout Indians all over the world. The traditional dance form of Garba coupled with Dandiya is probably the most spectacular of events during Navratri.

Amidst the gruelling and hectic academic schedule, the students of SPIT were treated to a 'Garba Night', surrounding the jubilant mood and fervour of the festival, on the night of the 1st of October 2019, a Tuesday like never before. The Cultural Committee of the Student Council was tasked with organizing the event, which was surely a massive hit.

(Autonomous Institute, Affiliated to University of Mumbai)

After a normal day of exhausting lectures, as dusk set-in, students from every class assembled in the Sardar Patel Sabhagriha in the S.P.I.T. Quadrangle teeming with anticipation and excitement, draped in breathtaking traditional attire. The main entrance to the college was decorated with joyous lights that made the otherwise uneventful place the centre of attention and almost unrecognizable. At 6 in the evening, the speakers blasted the first tunes for the night.

Sardar Patel Institute of Technology

Amidst this, the DJ was ready with his repertoire of famous Bollywood songs which are essential to Garba Celebrations like "Udi Udi Jaaye", "Nagada Sang Dhol Baaje" and other remixes of classic songs which made sure that everyone in the audience was on their feet at all times, sometimes even making them chant the familiar phrase: 'Once More'. Everyone soaked at the moment together, irrespective of their academic patronage. Many of the students present were so-called 'Garba Experts' while most were 'newbies', which gave the event a unique charm.

Everyone seemed to have let go of all their worries and just danced to the pulsating and celebratory beats. A crowd of around 450+ gathered in the quadrangle, Snacks were distributed for those who were left hungry after an exhausting session of dancing. Prizes were arranged for all the students for the best traditional attire as well as the best dancers. In the end, it was truly a memorable and joyous night for everyone present. Darsh Mehta and Nikki Wagholikar were declared best dressed, while Chetna Sharma and Parth Shingala won in the latter category.

"This was the first event organised by us (Student Council) and we all were amazed by the overwhelming response of the crowd. Everyone's going to take away a lot of memories with them and that is what we always wished for"

-Siddesh Sonwane, Cultural Secretary.

Farewell- 2019

Every beginning has an end. And every end is a new beginning. It's a relentless cycle seen in every aspect of our lives. A year starts; a year ends, only to give birth to another.

To give perfect end to the year, the Students' Council organised a fun filled night to remember and of course endeavoured to leave a trail of nostalgia behind for all final year students, a night that they were eagerly waiting for - FAREWELL 2019.

The Quadrangle of Sardar Patel Institute of Technology was all decked up with lights, stage was set, entrance was bright and lit on the evening of 20th April 2019. The photobooth was showcasing the feeling of all students with the words "One last time", one last time to be together here at SPIT entrance, one last time to live the best time of college days, one last time the opportunity to get clicked at the college entrance which nobody missed.

Shrawani Bawage, the Cultural secretary welcomed all the guests students by the stage with note that sums up all juniors feelings and a night organised with a promise for making the day memorable. The event began with the host of the evening Jaswantsingh Pardeshi, the Sports Secretary inviting students to perform on the stage. Seniors were so excited that everyone wanted to perform at that night leaving no stone unturned. One after the other, it was a galore of performances. The audience was reminiscing all the joyous moments happened in last few years of their college life. Dance, music and singing the night had everything to cherish.

The farewell doesn't mean that it is the last time of the seniors in the college but it reminds that now the real journey has started. This is the day when a student recognizes that now he has the loads of responsibilities on his shoulders and he has to carry those throughout his or her life. The farewell party scripted the beginning of hard work the students would be paging through for the coming years of their life.

With a heavy heart we wished our students a great life ahead and also regards as because of them we stand with great pride. It was also their hard work and perseverance which have helped them to succeed and also the kind respect and support to the management and faculties of the college, as we believe that without their support, college alone could not achieve its goal of contribution to nation through producing bright professionals and civilians.

Brief Information about the event:

S.P.I.T.'s Rotaract T-Shirt Painting Drive 2019

On the 14th of this Diwali month, S.P.I.T. celebrated the 'festival of colors' with Rotaract club of S.P.I.T. arranging the T-shirt painting event for a social cause. The quadrangle witnessed around 150 students in teams of four exuberantly unleashing the artist within them. The Rotaract club arranged and managed the event flawlessly. From arranging the paints, setting up the Quadrangle for the event and helping in the distribution of material, the team's meticulous efforts paid off successfully which was evident by the participating teams' reactions. These innovatively designed t-shirts by the students will be distributed to underprivileged kids over Mumbai through various NGOs.

Notice for Voluntary Contribution

It was proposed in the Faculty meeting that some voluntary contribution can be made by the faculties which can be used for supporting some under privileged students of our college.

It was also decided that instead of maintaining a separate account, the staff club contribution can be increased.

All those who wish to contribute for this noble cause by giving a minimum of Rs. 250 per month can give their names. They can also mention the amount if they wish to contribute more than Rs. 250.

Minutes of the Meeting

Date of the Meeting: 23rd July 2018

Place of the Meeting: Room No. 008

Agenda: Making the policies for Utilization of 'Voluntary Contribution Fund'

The faculties from SPIT are contributing voluntarily some amount on monthly basis for helping the needy students of SPIT. A meeting of all those faculty members was called on 23-07-2018 at 4.30 p.m. in room no. 008. Around 16 faculties from all department were present in the meeting.

The following points were put forth:

- The faculties are ready to help the needy students for paying some percentage of their fees from the 'Voluntary Contribution Fund'. That will be in the form of a soft loan. Student has to repay it once he/she starts getting salary.
- It has been decided that the students who are unable to pay the college fees because of some genuine reason, should apply for the soft loan in the office of SPIT. The student and the parents will then be called by HOD to know the reasons for not paying the fees.
- HOD may recommend the student for the soft loan based on genuineness and the student's academic performance.
- Dean students' affairs will take final decision regarding the actual amount to be disbursed as soft loan and selection of students. A bond will be signed by the students before disbursing the soft loan.
- A sincere request has been made from the faculty members to the office, respective HODs and Dean students' affairs to render their help in this regard.
- At the end it was also decided that once again the list will be circulated among all faculties for joining for willing to contribute per month for needy students.

Respected Sir,

I, PRIYAV MEHTA, student of Computer Engineering Department, studying in final year, ⁽²⁰²¹⁻²⁰²²⁾ UID 2018130026, wants to request you to grant me sanction for some amount of fees for my Third year of Engineering (2020-2021)

In June 2020, covid had hit us and my father's business had completely stopped for 8-9 months. There had been several financial crisis in 2020. We did not have sufficient savings through which I could pay my third year fees

Hence I request you to grant me a sanction of Rs 75000/- for my third year fees as a soft loan which will be refundable by me as soon as my job starts

Yours sincerely,

Subject: Request For Loan

Respected Sir/Madam,

With utmost respect, I Himanshu S Bapat, age 50, am a father of Aditya Himanshu Bapat, student of Information Technology, currently in the third year of Engineering (TE IT) in SPIT. His uid is 2019140007. I would like to request you to grant my loan application.

I have worked as a Security Officer in Jet Airways for 23 years but due to the shut down of the airline in 2019, I have lost my job and in this pandemic situation I could not get any job. My wife is a homemaker. Within these 2 years I have withdrawn all my PF amount and have surrendered my LIC policies to meet day to day expenditure. Now my bank account is almost empty.

My elder son Aditya is a bright student of SPIT college and he has secured a YCGPI of 8.9 in his first year and a SGPI of 9.75 in his third semester of college and the fourth semester result is yet to be declared. I do not want him to suffer in his education career due to my financial difficulties. My younger son is studying in the 10 standard. So it is very difficult for me to manage day to day expenditure and to pay school and college fees simultaneously.

It is my humble request to you to kindly grant my loan request. I will assure you that I will pay your loan amount after Aditya has completed his degree course.

I look forward to your favorable response and kind cooperation.
I have herewith attached the following documents for your kind reference:

- 1) Income Tax Return files
- 2) 6 months Bank Statement
- 3) Aditya's First Year and Third Semester Result

Thanking You,

Yours Sincerely

(H. S. Bapat)
